35-1-112. (Temporary) Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Montana Business Corporation Act". (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

(1) "Articles of incorporation" include amended and restated articles of incorporation and articles of merger.

(2) "Authorized agent" means any individual granted permission by an entity to execute a document on behalf of the entity. The entity is responsible for maintaining a record of the permission granted to an authorized agent.

(3) "Authorized shares" means the shares of all classes that a domestic or foreign corporation is authorized to issue.

(4) "Conspicuous" means written so that a reasonable person against whom the writing is to operate should have noticed it. For example, printing in italics, boldface, or contrasting color or typing in capitals or underlining is conspicuous.

(5) "Corporation" or "domestic corporation" means a corporation for profit that is not a foreign corporation and that is incorporated under or subject to the provisions of this chapter.

(6) "Deliver" or "delivery" means any method of delivery used in conventional commercial practice, including delivery by hand, mail, commercial delivery, and electronic transmission.

(7) "Distribution" means a direct or indirect transfer of money or other property, except its own shares, or an incurrence of indebtedness, by a corporation to or for the benefit of its shareholders in respect of any of its shares. A distribution may be in the form of a declaration or payment of a dividend; a purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of shares; a distribution of indebtedness; or other form.

(8) "Effective date of notice" means the date determined as provided in 35-1-116.

(9) "Electronic transmission" or "electronically transmitted" means any process of communication not directly involving the physical transfer of paper that is suitable for the retention, retrieval, and reproduction of information by the recipient.

(10) "Employee" includes an officer but not a director. A director may accept duties that make that director an employee.

(11) "Entity" includes:

(a) a corporation and a foreign corporation;

(b) a not-for-profit corporation;

(c) a profit and a not-for-profit unincorporated association;

(d) a business trust, estate, partnership, trust, and two or more persons having a joint or common economic interest; and

(e) a state, the United States, or a foreign government.

(12) "Foreign corporation" means a corporation for profit incorporated under a law other than the law of this state, including the laws of a federally recognized Indian tribe.

(13) "Governmental subdivision" includes an authority, county, district, and city or town.

(14) "Includes" denotes a partial definition.

(15) "Individual" includes the estate of an incompetent or deceased individual.

(16) "Means" denotes an exhaustive definition.

(17) "Notice" means notice as provided in 35-1-116.

(18) "Person" includes an individual and an entity.

(19) "Principal office" means the office, whether in-state or out-of-state, that is designated in the annual report as the office where the principal executive offices of a domestic or foreign corporation are located.

(20) "Proceeding" includes a civil suit and a criminal, administrative, and investigatory action.

(21) "Record date" means the date established under 35-1-535, 35-1-618 through 35-1-630, and 35-1-712 or under 35-1-516 through 35-1-533 and 35-1-541 through 35-1-548 on which a corporation determines the identity of its shareholders and their shareholdings for purposes of this chapter. The determination must be made as of the close of business on the record date unless another time for determination is specified when the record date is fixed.

(22) "Secretary" means the corporate officer to whom the board of directors has delegated responsibility under 35-1-441 for custody of the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors, for custody of the minutes of the shareholders' meetings, and for authenticating records of the corporation.

(23) "Share" means the unit into which the proprietary interests in a corporation are divided.

(24) "Shareholder" means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.

(25) "State", when referring to a part of the United States, includes a state, commonwealth, territory, or insular possession of the United States and the agencies and governmental subdivisions of the entities listed.

(26) "Subscriber" means a person who subscribes for shares in a corporation, whether before or after incorporation.

(27) "United States" includes a district, an authority, a bureau, a commission, a department, and any other agency of the United States.

(28) "Voting group" means shares of one or more classes or series that under the articles of incorporation of this chapter are entitled to vote and be counted together collectively on a matter at a meeting of shareholders. All shares entitled by the articles of incorporation or this chapter to vote generally on the matter are for that purpose a single voting group. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-114. (Temporary) Purposes. (1) Each corporation incorporated under this chapter has the purpose of engaging in any lawful business unless a more limited purpose is set forth in the articles of incorporation.

(2) A corporation organized under another statute of this state may incorporate under this chapter only if the incorporation is permitted by and subject to all limitations of the other statute.

(3) Subject to the limitation in subsection (2), corporations may be organized under this chapter for any lawful purpose or purposes except for the purpose of banking or insurance. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-115. (Temporary) General powers. Unless its articles of incorporation provide otherwise, each corporation has perpetual duration and succession in its corporate name and, unless otherwise prohibited by law, has the same powers as an individual to do all things necessary or convenient to carry out its business and affairs, including without limitation, the power:

(1) to sue and be sued, complain, and defend in its corporate name;

(2) to have a corporate seal, which may be altered at will, and to use it or a facsimile of the seal by impressing or affixing it or in any other manner reproducing it;

(3) to make and amend bylaws, consistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state, for managing the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation;

(4) to purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire and to own, hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal with real or personal property or any legal or equitable interest in property, wherever located;

(5) to sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property;

(6) to purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire any other entity; to own, hold, vote, use, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of any other entity; and to deal in and with shares or other interests in, or obligations of any other entity;

(7) to make contracts and guarantees; to incur liabilities; to borrow money; to issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, which, if authorized by the articles of incorporation, may be convertible into or include the option to purchase other securities of the corporation; and to secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of any of its property, franchises, or income;

(8) to lend money, invest and reinvest its funds, and receive and hold real and personal property as security for repayment;

(9) to be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, joint venture, trust, or other entity;

(10) to conduct its business, locate offices, and exercise the powers granted by this chapter in the state or out of the state;

(11) to elect directors and appoint officers, employees, and agents of the corporation; to define their duties; to fix their compensation; and to lend them money and credit;

(12) to pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit-sharing plans, share bonus plans, share option plans, and benefit or incentive plans for any or all of its current or former directors, officers, employees, and agents;

(13) to make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, religious, scientific, or educational purposes and, in time of war, to make donations in aid of war activities;

(14) to transact any lawful business that will aid governmental policy; and

(15) to make payments or donations or to do any other act that is consistent with law and that furthers the business and affairs of the corporation. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-116. (Temporary) Notice. (1) Notice under this chapter must be in writing unless oral notice is reasonable under the circumstances.

(2) Notice may be communicated in person; by telephone, telegraph, teletype, facsimile, or other form of wire or wireless communication; or by mail or private carrier. If these forms of personal notice are impracticable, notice may be communicated by a newspaper of general circulation in the area where it is published or by radio, television, or other form of public broadcast communication.

(3) Written notice by a domestic or foreign corporation to its shareholders, if in a comprehensible form, is effective when mailed if it is mailed postpaid and correctly addressed to the shareholder's address shown in the corporation's current record of shareholders.

(4) Written notice to a domestic or foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may be addressed to:

(a) its registered agent; or

(b) the corporation or its secretary at its principal office as shown in its most recent annual report or, in the case of a foreign corporation that has not yet delivered an annual report, in its application for a certificate of authority.

(5) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4), written notice, if in a comprehensible form, is effective at the earliest of the following:

(a) when received;

(b) 5 days after its deposit in the United States mail, as evidenced by the postmark, if mailed postpaid with correct postage; or

(c) on the date shown on the return receipt, if sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, and the receipt is signed by or on behalf of the addressee.

(6) Oral notice is effective when communicated if it is communicated in a comprehensible manner.

(7) If this chapter prescribes notice requirements for particular circumstances, those requirements govern. If articles of incorporation or bylaws prescribe notice requirements that are consistent with this section or other provisions of this chapter, those requirements govern. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

(2) A corporation's power to act may be challenged:

(a) in a proceeding by a shareholder against the corporation to enjoin the act; or

(b) in a proceeding by the corporation, directly, derivatively, or through a receiver, trustee, or other legal representative, against an incumbent or former director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation.

(3) In a shareholder's proceeding under subsection (2)(a) to enjoin an unauthorized corporate act, the court may:

(a) enjoin or set aside the act, if equitable and if all affected persons are parties to the proceeding; and

(b) award damages for loss, other than anticipated profits, suffered by the corporation or another party because of enjoining the unauthorized act. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

(a) a corporate name for the corporation that satisfies the requirements of 35-1-308;

(b) the number of shares the corporation is authorized to issue;

(c) (i) the information required by 35-7-105(1); and

(ii) the name of its initial registered agent; and

(d) the name and business mailing address of each incorporator.

(2) The articles of incorporation may set forth:

(a) the names and complete street addresses of the individuals who are to serve as the initial directors;

(b) provisions consistent with law regarding:

(i) the purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized;

(ii) managing the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation;

(iii) defining, limiting, and regulating the powers of the corporation, its board of directors, and shareholders;

(iv) a par value for authorized shares or classes of shares; and

(v) the imposition of personal liability on shareholders for the debts of the corporation to a specified extent and upon specified conditions;

(c) any provision that under this chapter is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws; and

(d) a provision eliminating or limiting the liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for money damages for any actions taken or any failure to take any action, as a director, except liability for:

(i) the amount of a financial benefit received by a director to which the director is not entitled;

(ii) an intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or the shareholders;

(iii) a violation of 35-1-713; or

(iv) an intentional violation of criminal law.

35-1-217. (Temporary) Filing requirements. All of the following requirements must be met before a document may be filed under this section by the secretary of state:

(1) A document that is required or permitted by this chapter to be filed in the office of the secretary of state must satisfy the requirements of this section and of any other section that adds to or varies these requirements.

(2) The document must contain the information required by this chapter. It may contain other information as well.

(3) The document must be typewritten or printed.

(4) The document must be in the English language. A corporate name need not be in English if it is written in English letters or Arabic or Roman numerals.

(5) (a) Except as provided in subsection (5)(b), the document must be executed:

(i) by the presiding officer of the board of directors of a domestic or foreign corporation, by its president, or by another of its officers;

(ii) if directors have not been selected or the corporation has not been formed, by an incorporator; or

(iii) if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver, trustee, or other court-appointed fiduciary, by that fiduciary.

(b) A corporation's annual report may be executed as provided in subsection (5)(a) or by the corporation's authorized agent.

(6) The person executing the document shall sign the document and state beneath or opposite the person's signature the person's name and the capacity in which the person signs. The document may but need not contain the corporate seal, an attestation by the secretary or an assistant secretary, or an acknowledgment, verification, or proof.

(7) The document must be in or on the prescribed form if the secretary of state has prescribed a mandatory form for the document under rules adopted pursuant to 35-1-1315.

(8) Except as provided in 33-3-601, the document must be delivered to the office of the secretary of state for filing and must be accompanied by:

35-1-219. (Temporary) Effective time and date of document. (1) Except as provided in 35-1-221 and subsection (2) of this section, a document accepted for filing is effective:

(a) at the time of filing on the date it is filed, as evidenced by the secretary of state's date and time endorsement on the original document; or

(b) at the time specified in the document as its effective time on the date it is filed.

(2) A document may specify a delayed effective time and date, and if it does so the document becomes effective at the time and date specified. If a delayed effective date but no time is specified, the document is effective at the close of business on that date. A delayed effective date for a document may not be later than 90 days after the date it is filed. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-220. (Temporary) Incorporation. (1) Unless a delayed effective date is specified, the corporate existence begins when the articles of incorporation are filed.

(2) The secretary of state's filing of the articles of incorporation is conclusive proof that the incorporators have satisfied all conditions precedent to incorporation except in a proceeding by the state to cancel or revoke the incorporation or involuntarily dissolve the corporation. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-221. (Temporary) Correcting filed document. (1) A domestic or foreign corporation may correct a document filed by the secretary of state if the document contains an incorrect statement or was defectively executed, attested, sealed, verified, or acknowledged.

(2) A document is corrected by:

(a) preparing articles of correction that:

(i) describe the document including its filing date, or have attached a copy of the document;

(ii) specify the incorrect statement and the reason it is incorrect or the manner in which the execution was defective; and

(iii) correct the incorrect statement or defective execution; and

(b) delivering the articles to the secretary of state for filing.

(3) Articles of correction are effective on the effective date of the document they correct except as to persons relying on the uncorrected document and adversely affected by the correction. As to those persons, articles of correction are effective when filed. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-222. (Temporary) Organization of corporation. (1) After incorporation:

(a) if initial directors are named in the articles of incorporation, the initial directors shall hold an organizational meeting, at the call of a majority of the directors, to complete the organization of the corporation by appointing officers, adopting bylaws, and carrying on any other business brought before the meeting; or

(b) if initial directors are not named in the articles, the incorporator or incorporators shall hold an organizational meeting at the call of a majority of the incorporators:

(i) to elect directors and complete the organization of the corporation; or

(ii) to elect a board of directors who shall complete the organization of the corporation.

(2) Action required or permitted by this chapter to be taken by incorporators at an organizational meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action taken is evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken and signed by each incorporator.

(3) An organizational meeting may be held in the state or out of the state. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

(1) to extend the duration of the corporation if it was incorporated at a time when limited duration was required by law;

(2) to delete the names and addresses of the initial directors;

(3) to change the information required by 35-7-105(1);

(4) to change each issued and unissued authorized share of an outstanding class into a greater number of whole shares if the corporation has only shares of that class outstanding;

(5) to change the corporate name by substituting the word "corporation", "incorporated", "company", "limited" or the abbreviation "corp.", "inc.", "co.", or "ltd." for a similar word or abbreviation in the name or by adding, deleting, or changing a geographical attribution for the name; or

(6) to make any other change expressly permitted by this chapter to be made without shareholders' action. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-227. (Temporary) Amendment by board of directors and shareholders. (1) A corporation's board of directors may propose one or more amendments to the articles of incorporation for submission to the shareholders.

(2) For the amendment to be adopted:

(a) the board of directors shall recommend the amendment to the shareholders unless the board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its determination to the shareholders with the amendment; and

(b) the shareholders entitled to vote on the amendment shall approve the amendment as provided in subsection (5).

(3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposed amendment on any basis.

(4) The corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting in accordance with 35-1-520. The notice of meeting must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the proposed amendment and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment.

(5) Unless this chapter, the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (3) require a greater vote or a vote by voting groups, the amendment to be adopted must be approved by:

(a) a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment by any voting group with respect to which the amendment would create dissenters' rights; and

(b) the votes required by 35-1-528 and 35-1-529 by every other voting group entitled to vote on the amendment. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 114, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-228. (Temporary) Voting on amendments by voting groups. (1) The holders of the outstanding shares of a class are entitled to vote as a separate voting group, if shareholder voting is otherwise required by this chapter, on a proposed amendment if the amendment would:

(a) increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of the class;

(b) cause an exchange or reclassification of all or part of the shares of the class into shares of another class;

(c) cause an exchange or reclassification of or create the right of exchange of all or part of the shares of another class into shares of the class;

(d) change the designation, rights, preferences, or limitations of all or part of the shares of the class;

(e) change the shares of all or part of the class into a different number of shares of the same class;

(f) create a new class of shares having rights or preferences with respect to distributions or to dissolution that are prior, superior, or substantially equal to the shares of the class;

(g) increase the rights, preferences, or number of authorized shares of any class that, after giving effect to the amendment, have rights or preferences with respect to dissolution or to distributions that are prior, superior, or substantially equal to the shares of the class;

(h) limit or deny an existing preemptive right of all or part of the share of the class; or

(i) cancel or otherwise affect rights to distributions or dividends that have accumulated but have not yet been declared on all or part of the shares of the class.

(2) If a proposed amendment would affect a series of a class of shares in one or more of the ways described in subsection (1), the shares of that series are entitled to be voted as a separate voting group on the proposed amendment.

(3) If a proposed amendment that entitles two or more series of shares to be voted as separate voting groups under this section would affect those two or more series in the same or a substantially similar way, the shareholders of all the series affected must vote together as a single voting group on the proposed amendment.

(4) A class or series of shares is entitled to the voting rights granted by this section although the articles of incorporation provide that the shares are nonvoting shares. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

(1) the name of the corporation;

(2) the text of each amendment adopted;

(3) if an amendment provides for an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of issued shares, provisions for implementing the amendment if not contained in the amendment itself;

(4) the date of each amendment's adoption;

(5) if an amendment was adopted by the incorporators or board of directors without shareholders' action, a statement to that effect and that shareholders' action was not required; and

(6) if an amendment was approved by the shareholders:

(a) the designation, number of outstanding shares, number of votes entitled to be cast by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the amendment, and number of votes of each voting group indisputably represented at the meeting; and

(b) either the total number of votes cast for and against the amendment by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the amendment or the total number of undisputed votes cast for the amendment by each voting group that was sufficient for approval by that voting group. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

(2) The restatement may include one or more amendments to the articles of incorporation. If the restatement includes an amendment requiring shareholders' approval, it must be adopted as provided in 35-1-227.

(3) If the board of directors submits a restatement for shareholders' action, the corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting in accordance with 35-1-520. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the proposed restatement and must contain or be accompanied by a copy of the restatement that identifies any amendment or other change the restatement would make in the articles of incorporation.

(4) A corporation restating its articles of incorporation shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of restatement setting forth the name of the corporation and the text of the restated articles of incorporation together with a certificate setting forth:

(a) whether the restatement contains an amendment to the articles requiring shareholder approval and, if it does not, that the board of directors adopted the restatement; or

(b) if the restatement contains an amendment to the articles requiring shareholders' approval, the information required by 35-1-230.

(5) Adopted restated articles of incorporation supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments to them.

(6) The secretary of state may certify restated articles of incorporation as the articles of incorporation currently in effect without including the certificate information required by subsection (4). (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

(2) The individual or individuals designated by the court shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of amendment setting forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;
(b) the text of each amendment approved by the court;
(c) the date of the court's order or decree approving the articles of amendment;
(d) the title of the reorganization proceeding in which the order or decree was entered; and
(e) a statement that the court had jurisdiction of the proceeding under federal statute.

(3) Shareholders of a corporation undergoing reorganization do not have dissenters' rights except to the extent provided in the reorganization plan.

(4) This section does not apply after entry of a final decree in the reorganization proceeding even though the court retains jurisdiction of the proceeding for limited purposes unrelated to consummation of the reorganization plan. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-234. (Temporary) Bylaw amendment by board of directors or shareholders. (1) A corporation's board of directors may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws unless:

(a) the articles of incorporation or this chapter reserve this power exclusively to the shareholders in whole or part; or

(b) the shareholders in amending, adding, or repealing a particular bylaw provide expressly that the board of directors may not amend or repeal that bylaw.

(2) A corporation's shareholders may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws even though the bylaws may also be amended or repealed by its board of directors. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

(2) The bylaws of a corporation may contain any provision for managing the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation that is consistent with law or the articles of incorporation. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-237. (Temporary) Emergency bylaws. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, the board of directors of a corporation may adopt bylaws to be effective only in an emergency as defined in subsection (4). The emergency bylaws, which are subject to amendment or repeal by the shareholders, may make all provisions necessary for managing the corporation during the emergency, including:

(a) procedures for calling a meeting of the board of directors;

(b) quorum requirements for the meeting; and

(c) designation of additional or substitute directors.

(2) All provisions of the regular bylaws consistent with the emergency bylaws remain in effect during the emergency. The emergency bylaws are not in effect after the emergency ends.

(3) Corporate action taken in good faith in accordance with the emergency bylaws:

(a) binds the corporation; and

(b) may not be used to impose liability on a corporate director, officer, employee, or agent.

(4) For purposes of this section, an emergency exists if a quorum of the corporation's directors cannot readily be assembled because of some catastrophic event. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

The adoption or amendment of a bylaw that adds, changes, or deletes a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote and voting groups required to take action under the quorum and voting requirement then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

(2) A bylaw that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders under subsection (1) may not be adopted, amended, or repealed by the board of directors. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-239. (Temporary) Bylaw increasing quorum or voting requirement for directors. (1) A bylaw that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors may be amended or repealed:

(a) if originally adopted by the shareholders, only by the shareholders; or

(b) if originally adopted by the board of directors, either by the shareholders or by the board of directors.

(2) A bylaw adopted or amended by the shareholders that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors may provide that the bylaw may be amended or repealed only by a specified vote of either the shareholders or the board of directors.

(3) Action by the board of directors under subsection (1)(b) to adopt or amend a bylaw that changes the quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote required to take action under the quorum and voting requirement then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-308. (Temporary) Corporate name. (1) A corporate name:

(a) must contain the word "corporation", "incorporated", "company", or "limited"; the abbreviation "corp.", "inc.", "co.", or "ltd."; or words or abbreviations of similar meaning in another language;

(b) may not contain business name identifiers, as defined in 30-13-201, or language that states or implies that the corporation is a business other than a corporation; and

(c) may not contain language that states or implies that the corporation is organized for a purpose or purposes other than those permitted by 35-1-114 and its articles of incorporation.

(2) Except as authorized by subsections (3) and (4), a corporate name must be distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from:

(a) the corporate name of another corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state;

(b) a corporate name reserved or registered under 35-1-309 or 35-1-311;

(c) the fictitious name adopted by a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state because its real name is unavailable;

(d) the corporate name of a not-for-profit corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state;

(e) the corporate name of a domestic corporation that has dissolved, but only distinguishable for a period of 120 days after the effective date of its dissolution; and

(f) any assumed business name, limited partnership name, limited liability company name, trademark, or service mark registered or reserved with the secretary of state.

(3) A corporation may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use a name that is not distinguishable in the secretary of state's records from one or more of the names described in subsection (2). The secretary of state shall authorize use of the name applied for if:

(a) the other corporation consents to the use in writing and submits an undertaking in a form satisfactory to the secretary of state to change its name to a name that is distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from the name of the applying corporation; or

(b) the applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use the name applied for in the state.

(4) A corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership may use the name, including the fictitious name, of another domestic or foreign corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership that is used in this state if the other corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership is incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state and the proposed user corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership:

(a) has merged with the other corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership;

(b) has been formed by reorganization of the other corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership;

(c) has acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the corporate name, of the other corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership; or

(d) has obtained written permission from the other corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership for use of the name and has filed a copy of the grant of permission with the secretary of state.

The application must set forth the name and address of the applicant and the name proposed to be reserved. If the secretary of state finds that the corporate name applied for is available, the secretary of state shall reserve the name for the applicant's exclusive use for a nonrenewable 120-day period.

(2) The owner of a reserved corporate name may transfer the reservation to another person by delivering to the secretary of state a signed notice of the transfer that states the name and address of the transferee. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-310. (Temporary) Contest of registration of name — penalty. (1) A person doing business in this state may contest the registration of a name under this section with the office of the secretary of state by filing an acknowledged notice of contest with the secretary of state and sending a copy of the notice of contest to the person who registered the contested name. The notice to the secretary of state must be accompanied by a $100 deposit, which the secretary of state shall award to the prevailing party in the contest.

(2) Upon receipt of a notice of contest, the secretary of state shall ask each party to the contest to submit within 30 days an affidavit setting forth the facts, opinions, and arguments for or against the retention of the contested name in the records of the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall review the affidavits and shall make a decision or order a hearing to be held within 30 days. If a hearing is ordered, the parties shall meet with the secretary of state before the hearing and attempt to settle the contest. If a settlement is not reached, the secretary of state shall hold a hearing. At the hearing the secretary of state may consider evidence presented by the parties relating to the factual or legal issues raised by the contest. A record of the hearing is not required. The hearing is not a contested case hearing. Where consistent with this section, the informal procedures of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act apply.

(3) The secretary of state may order that the contested name be changed on the records of the secretary of state if it is likely that the use of the names will cause confusion, mistake, or deception among the public when applied to the goods or services provided by the businesses. In determining whether confusion, mistake, or deception is likely, the secretary of state shall consider:

(a) the strength or unique nature of the names;

(b) the similarity of sound, appearance, or meaning of the names;

(c) the intent of the parties;

(d) the type of businesses engaged in or to be engaged in by the parties;

(e) the geographic market areas served by each party and the manner of distribution and marketing used in those areas;

(f) the nature and quality of goods or services provided by the parties;

(g) the level of sophistication of potential purchasers of goods or services offered by the parties;

(h) the length of time the parties have been transacting business under the name or names in question;

(i) whether the party contesting the registration of a name failed to make a timely objection or acquiesced to the use of the name so that it would be inequitable to prohibit its registration; and

(j) whether the names in question are in fair use, have been abandoned, or are parodies of other names.

(4) The secretary of state shall make a decision for one of the parties within 10 days of the hearing and may order that the contested name be changed in the records of the secretary of state and the relevant documents be amended by the secretary of state in a manner that results in a new name that is distinguishable on the record from another name registered with the office of the secretary of state.

(5) The secretary of state may order that the losing party pay any attorney fees and costs incurred by the prevailing party to contest the name or by the secretary of state to administer the provisions of this section, including any hearings.

(6) A party may appeal the decision of the secretary of state to the district court within 20 days. The district court shall consider the factual and legal issues without reference to the decision of the secretary of state.

(7) (a) A person who registers an assumed business name under 30-13-202 with the intent to deceive or harass another person doing legitimate business under the laws of this state is subject to a penalty of $1,000 in a civil action brought by a county attorney in the district court with jurisdiction for the county.

(b) A penalty collected pursuant to subsection (7)(a) must be deposited in the county general fund. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

(2) A foreign corporation registers its corporate name, or its corporate name with any addition required by 35-1-1031, by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, an application setting forth:

(a) its corporate name, or its corporate name with any addition required by 35-1-1031, the name of the state, tribe, or country under whose laws the foreign corporation is organized, the date of its incorporation, and a brief description of the nature of the business in which it is engaged; and

(b) a statement that the foreign corporation has complied with the organizational laws in the jurisdiction in which it is organized and that the foreign corporation exists in that jurisdiction.

(3) The name is registered for the applicant's exclusive use on the effective date of the application.

(4) A foreign corporation whose registration is effective may renew it for successive years by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, a renewal application that complies with the requirements of subsection (2). The renewal application must be delivered between October 1 and December 31 of the preceding year. The renewal application renews the registration for the following calendar year.

(5) A foreign corporation whose registration is effective may continue to qualify as a foreign corporation under that name or consent in writing to the use of that name by a corporation later authorized to transact business in this state. The registration terminates when the foreign corporation is incorporated as a domestic corporation or the foreign corporation qualifies or consents to the qualification of another foreign corporation under the registered name. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-418. (Temporary) General standards for directors. (1) A director shall discharge the duties as a director, including the director's duties as a member of a committee:

(a) in good faith;

(b) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a similar position would exercise under similar circumstances; and

(c) in a manner that the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) In discharging duties, a director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

(a) one or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(b) attorneys, public accountants, or other persons with regard to matters that the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or

(c) a committee of the board of directors of which the director is not a member if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.

(3) A director is not acting in good faith if the director has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (2) unwarranted.

(4) A director is not liable for any action taken as a director or for any failure to take any action if the director performed the duties of the director's office in compliance with this section. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-419. (Temporary) Number and election of directors. (1) A board of directors consists of one or more individuals, with the number specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

(2) If a board of directors has power to fix or change the number of directors, the board may increase or decrease by 30% or less the number of directors last approved by the shareholders, but only the shareholders may increase or decrease by more than 30% the number of directors last approved by the shareholders.

(3) The articles of incorporation or bylaws may establish a variable range for the size of the board of directors by fixing a minimum and maximum number of directors. If a variable range is established, the number of directors may be fixed or changed from time to time, within the minimum and maximum limits, by the shareholders or the board of directors. After shares are issued, only the shareholders may change the range for the size of the board or change from a fixed to a variable-range size board or vice versa.

(2) The terms of all other directors expire at the next annual shareholders' meeting following their election unless their terms are staggered under 35-1-422.

(3) A decrease in the number of directors does not shorten an incumbent director's term.

(4) A director elected or appointed to fill a vacancy is elected or appointed for the unexpired term of the director's predecessor in office.

(5) Despite the expiration of a director's term, the director continues to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies or until there is a decrease in the number of directors. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-422. (Temporary) Staggered terms for directors. If there are nine or more directors, the articles of incorporation or bylaws may provide for staggering their terms by dividing the total number of directors into two or three groups, with each group containing as near as possible to one-half or one-third of the total. In that event, the terms of directors in the first group expire at the first annual shareholders' meeting after their election, the terms of the second group expire at the second annual shareholders' meeting after their election, and the terms of the third group, if any, expire at the third annual shareholders' meeting after their election. At each annual shareholders' meeting held thereafter, directors shall be chosen for a term of 2 years or 3 years, as the case may be, to succeed those whose terms expire. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

(2) A resignation is effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specified a later effective date. (Repealed effective June 1; 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-424. (Temporary) Removal of directors. (1) The shareholders may remove one or more directors with or without cause unless the articles of incorporation provide that directors may be removed only for cause.

(2) If a director is elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the shareholders of that voting group may participate in the vote to remove the director.

(3) Any director or the entire board of directors may be removed only by a vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote at an election of directors unless otherwise provided by the articles of incorporation or bylaws. If the shareholders have the right to cumulate their votes when electing directors and if less than the entire board is to be removed, a director may not be removed if the votes cast against the director's removal would be sufficient to elect the director if cumulatively voted at an election of the entire board of directors or, if there are classes of directors, at an election of the class of directors of which the director is a part. If the corporation has fewer than 100 shareholders, the entire board of directors may be removed only by a vote of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote.

(4) A director may be removed by the shareholders only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing the director. The meeting notice must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

(a) the shareholders may fill the vacancy;

(b) the board of directors may fill the vacancy; or

(c) if the members of the board of directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office.

(2) If the vacant office was held by a director elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the holders of shares of that voting group are entitled to vote to fill the vacancy if it is filled by the shareholders.

(3) A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date, by reason of a resignation effective at a later date under 35-1-423 or otherwise, may be filled before the vacancy occurs. (2) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means is considered to be present in person at the meeting.

(3) If requested by a director, minutes of any regular or special meeting must be prepared and be distributed to each director. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-435. (Temporary) Quorum — voting. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require a greater number, a quorum of a board of directors consists of:

(a) a majority of the fixed number of directors if the corporation has a fixed board size; or

(b) a majority of the number of directors prescribed or, if a number is not prescribed, the number in office immediately before the meeting begins if the corporation has a variable-range size board.

(2) The articles of incorporation or bylaws may authorize a quorum of a board of directors to consist of no fewer than one-third of the fixed or prescribed number of directors.

(3) If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present is the act of the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require the vote of a greater number of directors.

(4) A director who is present at a meeting of the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors when corporate action is taken is considered to have assented to the action taken unless:

(a) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting or promptly upon the director's arrival to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and delivers written notice of the director's objection to the presiding officer before its adjournment or to the corporation immediately after adjournment of the meeting;

(b) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting; or

(c) the director delivers written notice of the dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the corporation immediately after adjournment of the meeting.

(5) The right of dissent or abstention is not available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 90, Ch. 368, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 1261, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-1-436 through 35-1-438 reserved.

35-1-439. (Temporary) Committees. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, a board of directors may create one or more committees and appoint members of the board of directors to serve on them. Each committee may have two or more members who serve at the pleasure of the board of directors.

(2) The creation of a committee and appointment of members to it must be approved by the greater of a majority of all the directors in office when the action is taken or the number of directors required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws to take action under 35-1-435.

(3) Sections 35-1-431 through 35-1-435, which govern meetings, action without meetings, notice and waiver of notice, and quorum and voting requirements of the board of directors, apply to committees and their members as well.

(4) To the extent specified by the board of directors or in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, each committee may exercise the authority of the board of directors under 35-1-416. However, a committee may not:

(a) authorize distributions;

(b) approve or propose to shareholders action that this chapter requires to be approved by shareholders;

(c) fill vacancies on the board of directors or on any of its committees;

(d) amend articles of incorporation;

(e) adopt, amend, or repeal bylaws;

(f) approve a plan of merger not requiring shareholder approval;

(g) authorize or approve reacquisition of shares, except according to a formula or method prescribed by the board of directors; or

(h) authorize or approve the issuance of or sale or contract for sale of shares or determine the designation and relative rights, preferences, and limitations of a class or series of shares.

However, the board of directors may authorize a committee or a senior executive officer of the corporation to do so within limits specifically prescribed by the board of directors.

(5) The creation of, delegation of authority to, or action by a committee does not by itself constitute compliance by a director with the standards of conduct described in 35-1-418. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-441. (Temporary) Required officers. (1) A corporation has the officers described in its bylaws or appointed by the board of directors in accordance with the bylaws.

(2) A duly appointed officer may appoint one or more officers or assistant officers if authorized by the bylaws or the board of directors.

(3) The bylaws or the board of directors shall delegate to one of the officers responsibility for preparing minutes of the directors' and shareholders' meetings and for authenticating records of the corporation.

(4) The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in a corporation. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 94, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-442. (Temporary) Duties of officers. Each officer has the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in the bylaws or, to the extent consistent with the bylaws, the duties prescribed by the board of directors or by direction of an officer authorized by the board of directors to prescribe the duties of other officers. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-443. (Temporary) Standards of conduct for officers. (1) An officer with discretionary authority shall discharge duties under that authority:

(a) in good faith;

(b) with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a similar position would exercise under similar circumstances; and

(c) in a manner the officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) In discharging an officer's duties, an officer is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

(a) one or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; or

(b) attorneys, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the officer reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence.

(3) An officer is not acting in good faith if the officer has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (2) unwarranted.

(4) An officer is not liable for any action taken as an officer or for any failure to take any action if the officer performed the duties of office in compliance with this section. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 96, Ch. 368, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 1262, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-1-444. (Temporary) Resignation and removal of officers. (1) An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the corporation. A resignation is effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the corporation accepts the future effective date, its board of directors may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the board of directors provides that the successor does not take office until the effective date.

(2) The board of directors may remove any officer with or without cause, and if authorized by the bylaws or by the board of directors, an officer may remove an officer or assistant officer appointed by that officer under 35-1-441 with or without cause. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-445. (Temporary) Contract rights of officers. (1) The appointment of an officer does not itself create contract rights.

(2) An officer's removal does not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the corporation. An officer's resignation does not affect the corporation's contract rights, if any, with the officer. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 98, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-446 through 35-1-450 reserved.

35-1-451. (Temporary) Definitions. As used in 35-1-451 through 35-1-459, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Corporation" includes any domestic or foreign predecessor entity of a corporation in a merger or other transaction in which the predecessor's existence ceased upon consummation of the transaction.

(2) (a) "Director" means an individual who is or was a director of a corporation or an individual who, while a director of a corporation, is or was serving at the corporation's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise. A director is considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the corporation's request if the director's duties to the corporation include duties or services by the director to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan.

(b) The term includes, unless the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal representative of a director.

(3) "Expenses" include attorney fees.

(4) "Liability" means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, or fine, including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan, or to pay reasonable expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding.

(5) (a) "Official capacity" means:

(i) when used with respect to a director, the office of director in a corporation; or

(ii) when used with respect to an individual other than a director, as contemplated in 35-1-457, the office in a corporation held by the officer or the employment or agency relationship undertaken by the employee or agent on behalf of the corporation.

(b) The term does not include service for any other foreign or domestic corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise.

(6) "Party" includes an individual who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding.

(7) "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 99, Ch. 368, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 1263, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-1-452. (Temporary) Authority to indemnify. (1) Except as provided in subsection (4), an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director may be indemnified against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

(a) the individual engaged in good faith conduct;

(b) the individual reasonably believed:

(i) in the case of conduct in an official capacity with the corporation, that the individual's conduct was in the corporation's best interests; and

(ii) in all other cases, that the individual's conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests; and

(c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the individual did not have reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful.

(2) A director's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan for a purpose the director reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in and beneficiaries of the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirement of subsection (1)(b)(ii).

(3) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, a determination that the director did not meet the standard of conduct described in this section.

(4) A corporation may not indemnify a director under this section:

(a) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which the director was adjudged liable to the corporation; or

(b) in connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to the director, whether or not involving action in the director's official capacity, in which the director was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by the director.

(5) Indemnification permitted under this section in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation is limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

Indemnity, Title 28, ch. 11, part 3.

35-1-453. (Temporary) Mandatory indemnification. Unless limited by its articles of incorporation, a corporation shall indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director was a party because the individual is or was a director of the corporation, against reasonable expenses incurred by the director in connection with the proceeding. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 101, Ch. 368, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 1265, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-1-454. (Temporary) Advance for expenses. (1) A corporation may pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if:

(a) the director furnishes the corporation a written affirmation of the director's good faith belief that the director has met the standard of conduct described in 35-1-452;

(b) the director furnishes the corporation a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director did not meet the standard of conduct described in 35-1-452; and

(c) a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under 35-1-451 through 35-1-459.

(2) The undertaking required by subsection (1)(b) must be an unlimited general obligation of the director but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

(3) Determinations and authorizations of payments under this section must be made in the manner specified in 35-1-456. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 102, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-455. (Temporary) Court-ordered indemnification. Unless a corporation's articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a director of the corporation who is a party to a proceeding may apply for indemnification to the court conducting the proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction. On receipt of an application, the court, after giving any notice the court considers necessary, may order indemnification if it determines that the director:

(1) is entitled to mandatory indemnification under 35-1-453, in which case the court shall also order the corporation to pay the director's reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining court-ordered indemnification; or

(2) is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not the director met the standard of conduct set forth in 35-1-452 or was adjudged liable as described in 35-1-452(4). If the director was adjudged liable as described in 35-1-452(4), the director's indemnification is limited to reasonable expenses incurred. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-456. (Temporary) Determination and authorization of indemnification. (1) A corporation may not indemnify a director under 35-1-452 unless authorized in the specific case after a determination has been made that indemnification of the director is permissible in the circumstances because the director has met the standard of conduct set forth in 35-1-452.

(2) The determination must be made:

(a) by the board of directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;

(b) if a quorum cannot be obtained under subsection (2)(a), by majority vote of a committee designated by the board of directors, in which designated directors who are parties may participate, consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;

(c) by special legal counsel:

(i) selected by the board of directors or its committee in the manner prescribed in subsection (2)(a) or (2)(b); or

(ii) if a quorum of the board of directors cannot be obtained under subsection (2)(a) and a committee cannot be designated under subsection (2)(b), selected by majority vote of the full board of directors in which selected directors who are parties may participate; or

(d) by the shareholders, but shares owned by or voted under the control of directors who are at the time parties to the proceeding may not be voted on the determination.

(3) Authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses must be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that if the determination is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses must be made by those entitled under subsection (2)(c) to select counsel. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 104, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-457. (Temporary) Indemnification of officers, employees, and agents. Unless a corporation's articles of incorporation provide otherwise:

(1) an officer of the corporation who is not a director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under 35-1-453 and is entitled to apply for court-ordered indemnification under 35-1-455 to the same extent as a director;

(2) the corporation may indemnify and advance expenses under 35-1-451 through 35-1-459 to an officer, employee, or agent of the corporation who is not a director to the same extent as to a director; and

(3) a corporation may also indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee, or agent who is not a director to the extent, consistent with public policy, that may be provided by its articles of incorporation, bylaws, general or specific action of its board of directors, or contract. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-458. (Temporary) Insurance. A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation or who, while a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise, against liability asserted against or incurred by the individual in that capacity or arising from the individual's status as a director, officer, employee, or agent, whether or not the corporation would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under 35-1-452 or 35-1-453. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-459. (Temporary) Application. (1) A provision treating a corporation's indemnification of or advance for expenses to directors that is contained in its articles of incorporation, its bylaws, a resolution of its shareholders or board of directors, a contract, or other instrument is valid only if and to the extent the provision is consistent with 35-1-451 through 35-1-459. If articles of incorporation limit indemnification or advance for expenses, indemnification and advance for expenses are valid only to the extent consistent with the articles of incorporation.

(2) Sections 35-1-451 through 35-1-459 do not limit a corporation's power to pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director in connection with the director's appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the director has not been made a named defendant or respondent to the proceeding. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-461. (Temporary) Definitions. As used in 35-1-461 through 35-1-464, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Conflicting interest" with respect to a corporation means the interest a director of the corporation has respecting a transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the corporation or by a subsidiary of the corporation or any other entity in which the corporation has a controlling interest if:

(a) regardless of whether the transaction is brought before the board of directors of the corporation for action, the director knows at the time of commitment that the director or a related person is a party to the transaction or has a beneficial financial interest in or is so closely linked to the transaction and the transaction is of such financial significance to the director or a related person that the interest would reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director's judgment if the director were called upon to vote on the transaction; or

(b) the transaction is brought, or is of a character and significance to the corporation that it would in the normal course be brought, before the board of directors of the corporation for action and the director knows at the time of commitment that any of the following persons is either a party to the transaction or has a beneficial financial interest in or is so closely linked to the transaction and the transaction is of such financial significance to the person that the interest would reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director's judgment if the director were called upon to vote on the transaction:

(i) an entity, other than the corporation, of which the director is a director, general partner, agent, or employee;

(ii) a person who controls one or more of the entities specified in subsection (1)(b)(i) or an entity that is controlled by, or is under common control with, one or more of the entities specified in subsection (1)(b)(i); or

(iii) an individual who is a general partner, principal, or employer of the director.

(2) "Director's conflicting interest transaction", with respect to a corporation, means a transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the corporation or by a subsidiary of the corporation or any other entity in which the corporation has a controlling interest in which transaction a director of the corporation has a conflicting interest.

(3) "Related person" means:

(a) the spouse or a parent or sibling of a spouse of the director;

(b) a child, grandchild, sibling, parent or spouse of any child, grandchild, sibling, or parent of the director;

(c) an individual having the same residence as the director;

(d) a trust or estate of which an individual specified in this subsection (3) is a substantial beneficiary; or

(e) a trust, estate, incompetent person, conservatee, or minor for whom the director is a fiduciary.

(4) "Required disclosure" means disclosure by a director, who has a conflicting interest, of:

(a) the existence and nature of the conflicting interest; and

(b) all facts known to the director respecting the subject matter of the transaction that an ordinarily prudent person would reasonably believe to be material to a judgment about whether or not to proceed with the transaction.

(5) "Time of commitment" respecting a transaction means the time when the transaction is consummated or, if made pursuant to contract, the time when the corporation or its subsidiary or the entity in which it has a controlling interest becomes contractually obligated so that its unilateral withdrawal from the transaction would entail significant loss, liability, or other damage. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-462. (Temporary) Judicial action. (1) A transaction effected or proposed to be effected by a corporation or by a subsidiary of the corporation or any other entity in which the corporation has a controlling interest that is not a director's conflicting interest transaction may not be enjoined, set aside, or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions in a proceeding by a shareholder or by or in the right of the corporation because a director of the corporation or any person with whom the director has a personal, economic, or other association has an interest in the transaction.

(2) A director's conflicting interest transaction may not be enjoined, set aside, or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions in a proceeding by a shareholder or by or in the right of the corporation because the director or any person with whom the director has a personal, economic, or other association has an interest in the transaction if:

(a) directors' action respecting the transaction was at any time taken in compliance with 35-1-463;

(b) shareholders' action respecting the transaction was at any time taken in compliance with 35-1-464; or

(c) the transaction, judged according to the circumstances at the time of commitment, is established to have been fair to the corporation. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 109, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-463. (Temporary) Directors' action. (1) Directors' action respecting a transaction is effective for purposes of 35-1-462(2)(a) if the transaction received the affirmative vote of a majority, but no fewer than two, of those qualified directors on the board of directors or on an empowered committee of the board who voted on the transaction after either required disclosure to them, to the extent the information was not known by them, or compliance with subsection (2). Action by a committee is effective only if all its members are qualified directors and its members are either all the qualified directors on the board or are appointed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the qualified directors on the board.

(2) If a director has a conflicting interest respecting a transaction but neither the director nor a related person of the director specified in 35-1-461(3) is a party to the transaction and if the director has a duty under law or professional canon or a duty of confidentiality to another person respecting information relating to the transaction such that the director may not make the disclosure described in 35-1-461(4)(b), disclosure is sufficient for purposes of subsection (1) if the director:

(a) discloses to the directors voting on the transaction the existence and nature of the conflicting interest and informs them of the character and limitations imposed by that duty before their vote on the transaction; and

(b) plays no part, directly or indirectly, in their deliberations or vote.

(3) A majority, but no fewer than two, of all the qualified directors on the board of directors or on the committee constitutes a quorum for purposes of action that complies with this section. Directors' action that otherwise complies with this section is not affected by the presence or vote of a director who is not a qualified director.

(4) For purposes of this section, "qualified director" means, with respect to a director's conflicting interest transaction, any director who does not have either a conflicting interest respecting the transaction or a familial, financial, professional, or employment relationship with a second director who does have a conflicting interest respecting the transaction, which relationship would, in the circumstances, reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the first director's judgment when voting on the transaction. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-464. (Temporary) Shareholders' action. (1) Shareholders' action respecting a transaction is effective for purposes of 35-1-462(2)(b) if a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all qualified shares were cast in favor of the transaction after:

(a) notice to shareholders describing the director's conflicting interest transaction;

(b) provision of the information referred to in subsection (3); and

(c) required disclosure to the shareholders who voted on the transaction, to the extent the information was not known by them.

(2) A majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all qualified shares constitutes a quorum for purposes of action that complies with this section. Subject to the provisions of subsections (3) and (4), shareholders' action that otherwise complies with this section is not affected by the presence of holders of shares that are not qualified shares or the voting of those shares.

(3) For purposes of compliance with subsection (1), a director who has a conflicting interest respecting the transaction shall, before the shareholders' vote, inform the secretary or other office or agent of the corporation authorized to tabulate votes of the number of all shares and the identity of persons holding or controlling the vote of all shares that the director knows are beneficially owned by or the voting of which is controlled by the director or by a related person of the director, or both.

(4) If a shareholders' vote does not comply with subsection (1) solely because of a failure of a director to comply with subsection (3) and if the director establishes that the failure did not determine and was not intended by the director to influence the outcome of the vote, the court may, with or without further proceedings respecting 35-1-462(2)(c), take action respecting the transaction and the director and give effect, if any, to the shareholders' vote as it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

(5) For purposes of this section, "qualified shares" means any shares entitled to be voted with respect to the director's conflicting interest transaction except shares that, to the knowledge, before the vote, of the secretary or other officer or agent of the corporation authorized to tabulate votes, are beneficially owned by or the voting of which is controlled by a director who has a conflicting interest respecting the transaction or by a related person of the director, or both. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-516. (Temporary) Annual meeting. (1) A corporation shall hold an annual meeting of shareholders at a time stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws.

(2) Annual shareholders' meetings may be held in the state or out of the state, at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If a place is not stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, annual meetings must be held at the corporation's principal office.

(3) The failure to hold an annual meeting at the time stated in or fixed in accordance with a corporation's bylaws does not affect the validity of any corporate action.

(4) If the corporation has 50 or fewer shareholders and if permitted by the bylaws, shareholders may participate in an annual meeting of the shareholders through a conference telephone or similar communication equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation in this manner constitutes presence in person at a meeting. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-517. (Temporary) Special meeting. (1) A corporation shall hold a special meeting of shareholders:

(a) on the call of its board of directors or the person authorized to do so by the articles of incorporation or bylaws; or

(b) if the holders of at least 10% of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting sign, date, and deliver to the corporation's secretary one or more written demands for the meeting that describe the purpose for which it is to be held.

(2) If the record date is not fixed or the manner of fixing the record date is not specified under 35-1-518 or 35-1-522, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to demand a special meeting is the date the first shareholder signs the demand.

(3) Special shareholders' meetings may be held in the state or out of the state, at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If a place is not stated or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, special meetings must be held at the corporation's principal office.

(4) Only business within the purpose described in the meeting notice required by 35-1-520 may be conducted at a special shareholders' meeting.

(5) If the corporation has 50 or fewer shareholders and if permitted by the bylaws, shareholders may participate in a special meeting of the shareholders by means of a conference telephone or similar communication equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation in this manner constitutes presence in person at a meeting. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 50, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-518. (Temporary) Court-ordered meeting. (1) The district court of the county where a corporation's principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, in Lewis and Clark County may summarily order a meeting to be held:

(a) on application of any shareholder of the corporation entitled to participate in an annual meeting if an annual meeting was not held within the earlier of 6 months after the end of the corporation's fiscal year or 15 months after its last annual meeting; or

(b) on application of a shareholder who signed a demand for a special meeting valid under 35-1-517, if:

(i) notice of the special meeting was not given within 30 days after the date the demand was delivered to the corporation's secretary; or

(ii) the special meeting was not held in accordance with the notice.

(2) The court may fix the time and place of the meeting, determine the shares entitled to participate in the meeting, specify a record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting, prescribe the form and content of the meeting notice, fix the quorum required for specific matters to be considered at the meeting or direct that the votes represented at the meeting constitute a quorum for action on those matters, and enter other orders necessary to accomplish the purpose or purposes of the meeting. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-519. (Temporary) Action without meeting. (1) Action required or permitted by this chapter to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all the shareholders entitled to vote on the action. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on the action, and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

(2) If not otherwise determined under 35-1-518 or 35-1-522, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to take action without a meeting is the date the first shareholder signs the consent under subsection (1).

(3) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as a vote in any document.

(4) If this chapter requires that notice of proposed action be given to nonvoting shareholders and the action is to be taken by unanimous consent of the voting shareholders, the corporation shall give its nonvoting shareholders written notice of the proposed action at least 10 days before the action is taken. The notice must contain or be accompanied by the same material that, under this chapter, would have been required to be sent to nonvoting shareholders in a notice of meeting at which the proposed action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-520. (Temporary) Notice of meeting. (1) A corporation shall notify shareholders of the date, time, and place of each annual and special shareholders' meeting not less than 10 or more than 60 days before the meeting date. Unless this chapter or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, the corporation is required to give notice only to shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting.

(2) Unless this chapter or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, notice of an annual meeting need not include a description of the purpose for which the meeting is called.

(3) Notice of a special meeting must include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

(4) If not otherwise fixed under 35-1-518 or 35-1-522, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at an annual or special shareholders' meeting is the day before the first notice is delivered to shareholders.

(5) Unless the bylaws require otherwise, if an annual or special shareholders' meeting is adjourned to a different date, time, or place, notice need not be given of the new date, time, or place if the new date, time, or place is announced at the meeting before adjournment. If a new record date for the adjourned meeting is or must be fixed under 35-1-522, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given under this section to persons who are shareholders as of the new record date. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-521. (Temporary) Waiver of notice. (1) A shareholder may waive any notice required by this chapter, the articles of incorporation, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. The waiver must be in writing, be signed by the shareholder entitled to the notice, and be delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

(2) A shareholder's attendance at a meeting:

(a) waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting unless the shareholder at the beginning of the meeting objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting; and

(b) waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purpose described in the meeting notice unless the shareholder objects to considering the matter when it is presented. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-522. (Temporary) Record date. (1) The bylaws may fix or provide the manner of fixing the record date for one or more voting groups in order to determine the shareholders entitled to notice of a shareholders' meeting, to demand a special meeting, to vote, or to take any other action. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing a record date, the board of directors of the corporation may fix a future date as the record date.

(2) A record date fixed under this section may not be more than 70 days before the meeting or action requiring a determination of shareholders.

(3) A determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a shareholders' meeting is effective for any adjournment of the meeting unless the board of directors fixes a new record date, which it must do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than 120 days after the date fixed for the original meeting.

(4) If a court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than 120 days after the date fixed for the original meeting, it may provide that the original record date continues in effect or it may fix a new record date. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 55, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-523. (Temporary) Shareholders' list for meeting. (1) After fixing a record date for a meeting, a corporation shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names of all its shareholders who are entitled to notice of a shareholders' meeting. The list must:

(a) be arranged by voting group, and within each voting group by class or series of shares; and

(b) show the address of and number of shares held by each shareholder.

(2) The shareholders' list must be available for inspection by any shareholder, beginning 2 business days after notice is given of the meeting for which the list was prepared and continuing through the meeting, at the corporation's principal office or at a place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will be held. A shareholder or a shareholder's agent or attorney is entitled on written demand to inspect and, subject to the requirements of 35-1-1107(3), to copy the list, during regular business hours and at that shareholder's expense, during the period it is available for inspection.

(3) The corporation shall make the shareholders' list available at the meeting, and any shareholder or the shareholder's agent or attorney is entitled to inspect the list at any time during the meeting or any adjournment.

(4) If the corporation refuses to allow a shareholder or the shareholder's agent or attorney to inspect the shareholders' list before or at the meeting or to copy the list as permitted by subsection (2), on application of the shareholder, the district court of the county where a corporation's principal office is located or, if the principal office is not located in this state, in Lewis and Clark County may summarily order the inspection or copying at the corporation's expense and may provide recovery to a shareholder for costs, including reasonable attorney fees, in bringing the action.

(5) Refusal or failure to prepare or make available the shareholders' list does not affect the validity of action taken at the meeting. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-524. (Temporary) Voting entitlement of shares. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) or unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, each outstanding share, regardless of class, is entitled to one vote on each matter voted on at a shareholders' meeting. Only shares are entitled to vote.

(2) Absent special circumstances, the shares of a corporation are not entitled to vote if they are owned, directly or indirectly, by a second corporation, domestic or foreign, and the first corporation owns, directly or indirectly, a majority of the shares entitled to vote for directors of the second corporation.

(3) Subsection (2) does not limit the power of a corporation to vote any shares, including its own shares, held by it in a fiduciary capacity.

(4) Redeemable shares are not entitled to vote after notice of redemption is mailed to the holders and a sum sufficient to redeem the shares has been deposited with a bank, trust company, or other financial institution under an irrevocable obligation to pay the shareholders the redemption price on surrender of the shares.

(5) Shares acquired by the corporation pursuant to 35-1-630 are not entitled to vote as long as they are owned by the corporation. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 57, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-525. (Temporary) Proxies. (1) A shareholder may vote the shareholder's shares in person or by proxy.

(2) (a) A shareholder may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for that shareholder by:

(i) signing an appointment form, either personally or by attorney-in-fact; or

(ii) transmitting or authorizing the transmission of an appointment by telegram, cablegram, telephone, fax, e-mail, internet, or other means of electronic transmission, provided that the transmission contains sufficient information to demonstrate that the transmission was authorized by the shareholder.

(b) The secretary or other officer or agent that receives the transmission shall determine whether or not the transmission was authorized by the shareholder based on the information contained in the transmission.

(c) The signature provisions of 35-1-527 pertaining to proxies do not apply to transmissions that are determined to be authorized under the provisions of this subsection (2).

(3) An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for 11 months unless a longer period is expressly provided in the appointment form or transmission.

(4) Except as provided in subsection (6), an appointment of a proxy is revocable by the shareholder unless the appointment form conspicuously states that it is irrevocable and the appointment is coupled with an interest. Appointments coupled with an interest include the appointment of:

(a) a pledgee;

(b) a person who purchased or agreed to purchase the shares;

(c) a creditor of the corporation who extended it credit under terms requiring the appointment;

(d) an employee of the corporation whose employment contract requires the appointment; or

(e) a party to a voting agreement created under 35-1-533.

(5) The death or incapacity of the shareholder appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the corporation to accept the proxy's authority unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises the proxy's authority under the appointment.

(6) An appointment made irrevocable under subsection (4) is revoked when the interest with which it is coupled is extinguished.

(7) A transferee for value of shares subject to an irrevocable appointment may revoke the appointment if the transferee did not know of its existence when the transferee acquired the shares and the existence of the irrevocable appointment was not noted conspicuously on the certificate representing the shares or on the information statement for shares without certificates.

(8) Subject to 35-1-526 and to any express limitation on the proxy's authority appearing on the face of the appointment form, a corporation is entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the shareholder making the appointment.

(9) A shareholder may not sell the shareholder's vote or issue a proxy to vote to any person for any sum of money or anything of value except as authorized in 35-1-532 and this section. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-526. (Temporary) Shares held by nominees. (1) A corporation may establish a procedure by which the beneficial owner of shares that are registered in the name of a nominee is recognized by the corporation as the shareholder. The extent of this recognition may be determined in the procedure.

(2) The procedure may set forth:

(a) the type of nominee to which it applies;

(b) the rights or privileges that the corporation recognizes in a beneficial owner;

(c) the manner in which the procedure is selected by the nominee;

(d) the information that must be provided when the procedure is selected;

(e) the period for which selection of the procedure is effective; and

(f) other aspects of the rights and duties created. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 59, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-527. (Temporary) Corporation's acceptance of votes. (1) If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment corresponds to the name of a shareholder, the corporation if acting in good faith is entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder.

(2) If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does not correspond to the name of its shareholder, the corporation, if acting in good faith, is nevertheless entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder if:

(a) the shareholder is an entity and the name signed purports to be that of an officer or agent of the entity;

(b) the name signed purports to be that of an administrator, executor, guardian, or conservator representing the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

(c) the name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

(d) the name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or attorney-in-fact of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment; or

(e) two or more persons are the shareholder as cotenants or fiduciaries and the name signed purports to be the name of at least one of the co-owners and the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the co-owners.

(3) The corporation is entitled to reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment if the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it or about the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder.

(4) The corporation and its officer or agent who accept or reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the standards of this section are not liable in damages to the shareholder for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection.

(5) Corporate action based on the acceptance or rejection of a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment under this section is valid unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 60, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-528. (Temporary) Quorum and voting requirements for voting groups. (1) Shares entitled to vote as a separate voting group may take action on a matter at a meeting only if a quorum of those shares exists with respect to that matter. Unless the articles of incorporation or this chapter provide otherwise, a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group constitutes a quorum of that voting group for action on that matter.

(2) Once a share is represented for any purpose at a meeting, it is considered present for quorum purposes for the remainder of the meeting and for any adjournment of that meeting unless a new record date is or must be set for that adjourned meeting.

(3) If a quorum exists, action on a matter other than the election of directors by a voting group is approved if the votes cast within the voting group favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action, unless the articles of incorporation or this chapter require a greater number of affirmative votes.

(4) An amendment of articles of incorporation adding, changing, or deleting a quorum or voting requirement for a voting group greater than specified in subsection (2) or (3) is governed by 35-1-530.

35-1-529. (Temporary) Action by single and multiple voting groups. (1) If the articles of incorporation or this chapter provide for voting by a single voting group on a matter, action on that matter is taken when voted upon by that voting group as provided in 35-1-527.

(2) If the articles of incorporation or this chapter provide for voting by two or more voting groups on a matter, action on that matter is taken only when voted upon by each of those voting groups counted separately as provided in 35-1-528. Action may be taken by one voting group on a matter even though no action is taken by another voting group entitled to vote on the matter. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 62, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-530. (Temporary) Greater quorum or voting requirements. (1) The articles of incorporation may provide for a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders or for voting groups of shareholders than is provided for by this chapter.

(2) An amendment to the articles of incorporation that adds, changes, or deletes a greater quorum or voting requirement must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote and voting groups required to take action under the quorum and voting requirements then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-531. (Temporary) Voting for directors — cumulative voting. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

(2) Except as limited by subsection (3), at each election for directors each shareholder entitled to vote at the election has the right:

(a) to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares owned by the shareholder for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election the shareholder has a right to vote; or

(b) to cumulate the shareholder's votes:

(i) by giving one candidate as many votes as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of shareholders' shares; or

(ii) by distributing the votes on the same principle among any number of the candidates.

(3) The right of all shareholders to cumulate their shares provided by subsection (2) may be denied by a statement to that effect included in the articles of incorporation, but only if:

(a) the statement is included in the articles of incorporation at the time the initial articles of incorporation are filed; or

(b) the statement is included in an amendment to the articles of incorporation unless the number of votes sufficient to elect one director, if voted upon a cumulative basis, was voted against the amendment. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 64, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-532. (Temporary) Voting trusts. (1) One or more shareholders may create a voting trust, conferring on a trustee the right to vote or otherwise act for them, by signing an agreement setting out the provisions of the trust, which may include anything consistent with its purpose, and by transferring their shares to the trustee. When a voting trust agreement is signed, the trustee shall prepare a list of the names and addresses of all owners of beneficial interests in the trust, together with the number and class of shares each transferred to the trust, and deliver copies of the list and agreement to the corporation's principal office.

(2) A voting trust becomes effective on the date the first shares subject to the trust are registered in the trustee's name. A voting trust is valid for not more than 10 years after its effective date unless extended under subsection (3).

(3) All or some of the parties to a voting trust may extend it for additional terms of not more than 10 years each by signing an extension agreement and obtaining the voting trustee's written consent to the extension. An extension is valid for 10 years from the date the first shareholder signs the extension agreement. The voting trustee shall deliver copies of the extension agreement and the list of beneficial owners to the corporation's principal office. An extension agreement binds only those parties signing it.

(4) The counterpart of the voting trust agreement and the copy of the record deposited with the corporation is subject to the same right of examination by a shareholder of a corporation, in person or by agent or attorney, as are the books and records of the corporation, and the counterpart and the copy of the record are subject to examination by any holder of record of voting trust certificates, either in person or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time for any proper purpose. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-533. (Temporary) Voting agreements. (1) Two or more shareholders may provide for the manner in which they will vote their shares by signing an agreement for that purpose. A voting agreement created under this section is not subject to the provisions of 35-1-532.

(2) A voting agreement created under this section is specifically enforceable. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 66, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-534. (Temporary) Liability of shareholders. (1) A purchaser from a corporation of its own shares is not liable to the corporation or its creditors with respect to the shares except to pay the consideration for which the shares were authorized to be issued as provided in 35-1-623 or specified in the subscription agreement as provided in 35-1-622.

(2) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a shareholder who is:

(a) active in a corporation is not personally liable for the acts or debts of the corporation except that a shareholder may become personally liable by reason of that shareholder's own acts or conduct;

(b) not active in the corporation is not personally liable unless the corporate veil is pierced or the shareholder agrees in writing to assume personal liability. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 39, Ch. 368, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 322, L. 2011.

35-1-535. (Temporary) Shareholders' preemptive rights. (1) The shareholders of a corporation do not have a preemptive right to acquire the corporation's unissued shares except to the extent provided in the articles of incorporation.

(2) A statement included in the articles of incorporation that "the corporation elects to have preemptive rights", or similar words, means that all of the following principles apply except to the extent the articles of incorporation expressly provide otherwise:

(a) The shareholders of the corporation have a preemptive right, granted on uniform terms and conditions prescribed by the board of directors to provide a fair and reasonable opportunity to exercise the right, to acquire proportional amounts of the corporation's unissued shares upon the decision of the board of directors to issue them and to acquire proportional amounts of the corporation's issued shares acquired by the corporation pursuant to 35-1-630 upon the decision of the board of directors to convey them.

(b) A shareholder may waive the shareholder's preemptive right. A waiver evidenced by a writing is irrevocable even though it is not supported by consideration.

(c) Shareholders of a corporation do not have a preemptive right to acquire proportional amounts of shares with respect to:

(i) shares issued as compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employees of the corporation, its subsidiaries, or its affiliates;

(ii) shares issued to satisfy conversion or option rights created to provide compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employees of the corporation, its subsidiaries, or its affiliates;

(iii) shares authorized in articles of incorporation that are issued within 6 months from the effective date of incorporation; or

(iv) shares sold otherwise than for money.

(d) Holders of shares of any class without general voting rights but with preferential rights to distributions or assets do not have preemptive rights with respect to shares of any class.

(e) Holders of shares of any class with general voting rights but without preferential rights to distributions or assets do not have preemptive rights with respect to shares of any class with preferential rights to distributions or assets unless the shares with preferential rights are convertible into or carry a right to subscribe for or acquire shares without preferential rights.

(f) Shares subject to preemptive rights that are not acquired by shareholders may be issued to any person for a period of 1 year after being offered to shareholders at a consideration set by the board of directors that is not lower than the consideration set for the exercise of preemptive rights. An offer at a lower consideration or after the expiration of 1 year is subject to the shareholders' preemptive rights.

(g) Shares acquired by the corporation pursuant to 35-1-630 do not have preemptive rights as long as they are owned by the corporation.

35-1-541. (Temporary) Definitions. As used in 35-1-541 through 35-1-548, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Derivative proceeding" means a civil suit in the right of a domestic corporation or, to the extent provided in 35-1-548, in the right of a foreign corporation.

(2) "Shareholder" includes a beneficial owner whose shares are held in a voting trust or held by a nominee on the beneficial owner's behalf. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 67, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-542. (Temporary) Standing. A shareholder may not commence or maintain a derivative proceeding unless the shareholder:

(1) was a shareholder of the corporation at the time of the act or omission complained of or became a shareholder through transfer by operation of law from one who was a shareholder at that time; and

History: En. Sec. 68, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-543. (Temporary) Demand. A shareholder may not commence a derivative proceeding until:

(1) a written demand has been made upon the corporation to take suitable action; and

(2) 90 days have expired from the date the demand was made unless the shareholder has earlier been notified that the demand has been rejected by the corporation or unless irreparable injury to the corporation would result by waiting for the expiration of the 90-day period. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 69, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-544. (Temporary) Stay of proceedings. If the corporation begins an inquiry into the allegations made in the demand or complaint, the court may stay any derivative proceeding for the period the court considers appropriate. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 70, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-545. (Temporary) Dismissal. (1) A derivative proceeding must be dismissed by the court on motion by the corporation if one of the groups specified in subsection (2) or (6) has determined in good faith after conducting a reasonable inquiry upon which its conclusions are based that the maintenance of the derivative proceeding is not in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) Unless a panel is appointed pursuant to subsection (6), the determination in subsection (1) must be made by:

(a) a majority vote of independent directors present at a meeting of the board of directors if the independent directors constitute a quorum; or

(b) a majority vote of a committee consisting of two or more independent directors appointed by majority vote of independent directors present at a meeting of the board of directors, whether or not the independent directors constituted a quorum.

(3) None of the following may by itself cause a director to be considered not independent for purposes of this section:

(a) the nomination or election of the director by persons who are defendants in the derivative proceeding or against whom action is demanded;

(b) the naming of the director as a defendant in the derivative proceeding or as a person against whom action is demanded; or

(c) the approval by the director of the act being challenged in the derivative proceeding or demand if the act did not result in personal benefit to the director.

(4) If a derivative proceeding is begun after a determination has been made rejecting a demand by a shareholder, the complaint must allege with particularity facts establishing either that a majority of the board of directors did not consist of independent directors at the time the determination was made or that the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met.

(5) If a majority of the board of directors does not consist of independent directors at the time the determination is made, the corporation has the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (1) have been met. If a majority of the board of directors consists of independent directors at the time the determination is made, the plaintiff has the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met.

(6) Upon motion by the corporation, the court may appoint a panel of one or more independent persons to make a determination of whether the maintenance of the derivative proceeding is in the best interests of the corporation. If this is done, the plaintiff has the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 71, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-546. (Temporary) Discontinuance or settlement — notice. A derivative proceeding may not be discontinued or settled without the court's approval. If the court determines that a proposed discontinuance or settlement will substantially affect the interests of the corporation's shareholders or a class of shareholders, the court shall direct that notice be given to the shareholders affected. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-547. (Temporary) Payment of expenses. On termination of the derivative proceeding, the court may:

(1) order the corporation to pay the plaintiff's reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, incurred in the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding has resulted in a substantial benefit to the corporation;

(2) order the plaintiff to pay a defendant's reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, incurred in defending the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding was commenced or maintained without reasonable cause or for an improper purpose; or

(3) order a party to pay an opposing party's reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, incurred because of the filing of a pleading, motion, or other paper, if it finds that:

(a) the pleading, motion, or other paper was not well-grounded in fact, after reasonable inquiry; or

(b) the filing was not warranted by existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law and was interposed for an improper purpose, such as to harass, to cause unnecessary delay, or to cause a needless increase in the cost of litigation. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 73, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-548. (Temporary) Applicability to foreign corporations. In a derivative proceeding in the right of a foreign corporation, the matters covered by 35-1-541 through 35-1-548 are governed by the laws of the jurisdiction of incorporation of the foreign corporation except for 35-1-544, 35-1-546, and 35-1-547. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 74, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-550. (Temporary) Number of shareholders. (1) For purposes of Title 35, chapter 9, the following, identified as a shareholder in a corporation's current record of shareholders, constitutes one shareholder:

(a) three or fewer co-owners;

(b) a corporation, partnership, trust, estate, or other entity; or

(c) the trustees, guardians, custodians, or other fiduciaries of a single trust, estate, or account.

(2) For purposes of Title 35, chapter 9, shareholdings registered in substantially similar names constitute one shareholder if it is reasonable to believe that the names represent the same person. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-618. (Temporary) Authorized shares. (1) The articles of incorporation must prescribe the classes of shares and the number of shares of each class that the corporation is authorized to issue. If more than one class of shares is authorized, the articles of incorporation must prescribe a distinguishing designation for each class. Prior to the issuance of shares of a class, the preferences, limitations, and relative rights of that class must be described in the articles of incorporation. All shares of a class must have preferences, limitations, and relative rights identical to those of other shares of the same class, except to the extent otherwise permitted by 35-1-619.

(2) (a) The articles of incorporation must authorize:

(i) one or more classes of shares that together have unlimited voting rights; and

(ii) one or more classes of shares which may be the same class or classes as those with voting rights.

(b) The classes of shares listed in subsections (2)(a)(i) and (2)(a)(ii), taken together are entitled to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution.

(3) The articles of incorporation may authorize one or more classes of shares that:

(a) have special, conditional, or limited voting rights or no right to vote, except to the extent prohibited by this chapter;

(b) are redeemable or convertible as specified in the articles of incorporation:

(i) at the option of the corporation, the shareholder, or another person or upon the occurrence of a designated event;

(ii) for cash, indebtedness, securities, or other property; and

(iii) in a designated amount or in an amount determined in accordance with a designated formula or by reference to extrinsic data or events;

(c) entitle the holders to distributions calculated in any manner, including dividends that may be cumulative, noncumulative, or partially cumulative; and

(d) have preference over any other class of shares with respect to distributions, including dividends and distributions upon the dissolution of the corporation.

(4) The description of the designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights of share classes in subsection (3) is not exhaustive.

(5) When authorized by its articles of incorporation to do so, a corporation may issue bonds, debentures, or other obligations convertible into shares of any class in the amounts and on terms and conditions that may be provided by resolutions of the board of directors. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 33, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-619. (Temporary) Terms of class or series determined by board of directors. (1) If the articles of incorporation so provide, the board of directors may determine, in whole or part, the preferences, limitations, and relative rights, within the limits set forth in 35-1-618, of any class of shares before the issuance of any shares of that class or of one or more series within a class before the issuance of any shares of that series.

(2) Each series of a class must be given a distinguishing designation.

(3) All shares of a series must have preferences, limitations, and relative rights identical to those of other shares of the same series and, except to the extent otherwise provided in the description of the series, to those of other series of the same class.

(4) Before issuing any shares of a class or series created under this section, the corporation shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of amendment that are effective without shareholder action and that set forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the text of the amendment determining the terms of the class or series of shares;

(c) the date the amendment was adopted; and

(d) a statement that the amendment was duly adopted by the board of directors. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 34, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-620. (Temporary) Issued and outstanding shares. (1) A corporation may issue the number of shares of each class or series authorized by the articles of incorporation. Subject to 35-1-630, shares that are issued are outstanding shares until they are reacquired, redeemed, converted, or canceled.

(2) The reacquisition, redemption, or conversion of outstanding shares is subject to 35-1-712 and to the limitations of subsection (3) of this section.

(3) Whenever shares of the corporation are outstanding, one or more shares that together have unlimited voting rights and one or more shares that together are entitled to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution must be outstanding. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 35, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-621. (Temporary) Fractional shares. (1) A corporation may:

(a) issue fractions of a share or pay in money the value of fractions of a share;

(b) arrange for disposition of fractional shares by the shareholders; and

(c) issue scrip in registered or bearer form entitling the holder to receive a full share upon surrendering enough scrip to equal a full share.

(2) Each certificate representing scrip must be conspicuously labeled "scrip" and must contain the information required by 35-1-626.

(3) The holder of a fractional share is entitled to exercise the rights of a shareholder, including the right to vote, to receive dividends, and to participate in the assets of the corporation upon liquidation. The holder of scrip is not entitled to any of these rights unless the scrip provides for them.

(4) The board of directors may authorize the issuance of scrip subject to any condition considered desirable, including the condition:

(a) that the scrip will become void if not exchanged for full shares before a specified date; and

(b) that the shares for which the scrip is exchangeable may be sold and the proceeds paid to the scripholders. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 36, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-622. (Temporary) Subscription for shares before incorporation. (1) A subscription for shares entered into before incorporation is irrevocable for 6 months unless the subscription agreement provides a longer or shorter period or unless all the subscribers agree to revocation.

(2) The board of directors may determine the payment terms of subscriptions for shares that were entered into before incorporation, unless the subscription agreement specifies them. A call for payment by the board of directors must be uniform, so far as practicable, as to all shares of the same class or series unless the subscription agreement specifies otherwise.

(3) Shares issued pursuant to subscriptions entered into before incorporation are fully paid and nonassessable when the corporation receives the consideration specified in the subscription agreement.

(4) If a subscriber defaults in payment of money or property under a subscription agreement entered into before incorporation, the corporation may collect the amount owed in the same manner as it would collect any other debt. Alternatively, unless the subscription agreement provides otherwise, the corporation may rescind the agreement and may sell the shares if the debt remains unpaid more than 20 days after the corporation sends written demand for payment to the subscriber.

(5) A subscription agreement entered into after incorporation is a contract between the subscriber and the corporation and is subject to the provisions of 35-1-623. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-623. (Temporary) Issuance of shares. (1) The powers granted in this section to the board of directors may be reserved to the shareholders by the articles of incorporation.

(2) The board of directors may authorize shares to be issued for consideration consisting of any tangible or intangible property or benefit to the corporation, including cash, promissory notes, services performed, contracts for services to be performed, or other securities of the corporation.

(3) Before the corporation issues shares, the board of directors must determine that the consideration received or to be received for shares to be issued is adequate. The determination by the board of directors is conclusive with regard to the adequacy of consideration for the issuance of shares relating to whether the shares are validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable.

(4) When the corporation receives the consideration for which the board of directors authorized the issuance of shares, the shares issued for the consideration are fully paid and nonassessable.

(5) The corporation may place in escrow shares issued for a contract for future services or benefits or a promissory note, or the corporation may also make other arrangements to restrict the transfer of the shares and may credit distributions in respect of the shares against their purchase price until the services are performed, the note is paid, or the benefits received. If the services are not performed, the note is not paid, or the benefits are not received, the shares escrowed or restricted and the distributions credited may be canceled in whole or in part. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-624. (Temporary) Share dividends. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, shares may be issued pro rata and without consideration to the corporation's shareholders or to the shareholders of one or more classes or series. An issuance of shares under this subsection is a share dividend.

(2) Shares of one class or series may not be issued as a share dividend in respect of shares of another class or series unless:

(a) the articles of incorporation authorize the issuance;

(b) a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the class or series to be issued approve the issue; or

(c) there are no outstanding shares of the class or series to be issued.

(3) If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a share dividend, the record date is the date the board of directors authorizes the share dividend. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 40, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-625. (Temporary) Share options. A corporation may issue rights, options, or warrants for the purchase of shares of the corporation. The board of directors shall determine the terms upon which the rights, options, or warrants are issued, their form and content, and the consideration for which the shares are to be issued. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 41, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-626. (Temporary) Form and content of certificates. (1) Shares may but need not be represented by certificates. Unless this chapter or another statute expressly provide otherwise, the rights and obligations of shareholders are identical whether or not their shares are represented by certificates.

(2) At a minimum, each share certificate must state on its face:

(a) the name of the issuing corporation and that it is organized under the law of this state;

(b) the name of the person to whom issued; and

(c) the number and class of shares and the designation of the series, if any, that the certificate represents.

(3) (a) If the issuing corporation is authorized to issue different classes of shares or different series within a class the following must be summarized on the front or back of each certificate:

(i) the designations, relative rights, preferences, and limitations applicable to each class;

(ii) the variations in rights, preferences, and limitations determined for each series; and

(iii) the authority of the board of directors to determine variations for future series.

(b) Alternatively, each certificate may state conspicuously on its front or back that the corporation will furnish the shareholder this information on request in writing and without charge.

(4) Each share certificate must be signed, either manually or in facsimile, by two officers designated in the bylaws or by the board of directors and may bear the corporate seal or its facsimile.

35-1-627. (Temporary) Shares without certificates. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors of a corporation may authorize the issue of some or all of the shares of any or all of its classes or series without certificates. The authorization does not affect shares already represented by certificates until they are surrendered to the corporation.

(2) Within a reasonable time after the issuance or transfer of shares without certificates, the corporation shall send the shareholder a written statement of the information required on certificates by 35-1-626 and, if applicable, subsection (1) of this section. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-628. (Temporary) Restriction on transfer or registration of transfer of shares and other securities. (1) The articles of incorporation, the bylaws, an agreement among shareholders, or an agreement between shareholders and the corporation may impose restrictions on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares of the corporation. A restriction does not affect shares issued before the restriction was adopted unless the holders of the shares are parties to the restriction agreement or have voted in favor of the restriction.

(2) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares is valid and enforceable against the holder or a transferee of the holder if the restriction is authorized by this section and its existence is noted conspicuously on the front or back of the certificate or is contained in the information statement required by 35-1-627. Unless noted, a restriction is not enforceable against a person without knowledge of the restriction.

(3) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares is authorized:

(a) to maintain the corporation's status when it is dependent on the number or identity of its shareholders;

(b) to preserve exemptions under federal or state securities law;

(c) to preserve an election under the Internal Revenue Code; or

(d) for any other reasonable purpose.

(4) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares may:

(a) obligate the shareholder first to offer the corporation or other person, separately, consecutively, or simultaneously, an opportunity to acquire the restricted shares;

(b) obligate the corporation or other person, separately, consecutively, or simultaneously, to acquire the restricted shares;

(c) require the corporation, the holders of any class of its shares, or another person to approve the transfer of the restricted shares, if the requirement is not manifestly unreasonable; or

(d) prohibit the transfer of the restricted shares to designated persons or classes of persons if the prohibition is not manifestly unreasonable.

(5) For purposes of this section, "shares" includes a security convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 45, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-630. (Temporary) Corporation's acquisition of its own shares. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a corporation may acquire its own shares, and those shares constitute authorized but unissued shares.

(2) If provided by the corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws, shares acquired pursuant to subsection (1) constitute authorized and issued shares. A corporation may at any time, by resolution of its board of directors, cancel all or any part of the shares acquired under this subsection, in which case the shares constitute authorized but unissued shares.

(3) If the articles of incorporation prohibit the reissue of acquired shares, the number of authorized shares is reduced by the number of shares acquired, effective on amendment of the articles of incorporation.

(4) Articles of amendment may be adopted by the board of directors without shareholder action, must be delivered to the secretary of state, for filing, and must set forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the reduction in the number of authorized shares, itemized by class and series; and

(c) the total number of authorized shares, itemized by class and series, remaining after reduction of the shares. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-712. (Temporary) Distributions to shareholders. (1) A board of directors may authorize and the corporation may make distributions to its shareholders, subject to restriction by the articles of incorporation and the limitation in subsection (3).

(2) If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a distribution, other than a distribution involving a repurchase or reacquisition of shares, it is the date the board of directors authorizes the distribution.

(3) A distribution may not be made if, after giving it effect:

(a) the corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or

(b) the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus, unless the articles of incorporation permit otherwise, the amount that would be needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

(4) The board of directors may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (3) either on financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair valuation or other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.

(5) The effect of a distribution under subsection (1) is measured:

(a) in the case of distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of the corporation's shares, as of the earlier of:

(i) the date money or other property is transferred or debt incurred by the corporation; or

(ii) the date the shareholder ceases to be a shareholder with respect to the acquired shares;

(b) in the case of any other distribution of indebtedness, as of the date the indebtedness is distributed; or

(c) in all other cases, as of:

(i) the date the distribution is authorized if the payment occurs within 120 days after the date of authorization; or

(ii) the date the payment is made if it occurs more than 120 days after the date of authorization.

(6) A corporation's indebtedness to a shareholder incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity with the corporation's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors except to the extent subordinated by agreement. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 48, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-713. (Temporary) Liability for unlawful distributions. (1) Unless the director complies with the applicable standards of conduct described in 35-1-418, a director who votes for or assents to a distribution made in violation of this chapter or the articles of incorporation is personally liable to the corporation for the amount of the distribution that exceeds what could have been distributed without violating this chapter or the articles of incorporation.

(2) A director held liable for an unlawful distribution under subsection (1) is entitled to contribution:

(a) from every other director who voted for or assented to the distribution and who did not comply with the applicable standards of conduct described in 35-1-418; and

(b) from each shareholder for the amount the shareholder accepted if the shareholder knows the distribution was made in violation of this chapter or the articles of incorporation. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

(2) The plan of merger must set forth:

(a) the name of each corporation planning to merge and the name of the surviving corporation into which each other corporation plans to merge;

(b) the terms and conditions of the merger; and

(c) the manner and basis of converting the shares of each corporation into shares, obligations, or other securities of the surviving corporation or any other corporation or into cash or other property in whole or part.

(3) The plan of merger may set forth:

(a) amendments to the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation; and

(2) The plan of exchange must set forth:

(a) the name of the corporation from which shares will be acquired and the name of the acquiring corporation;

(b) the terms and conditions of the exchange; and

(c) the manner and basis of exchanging the shares to be acquired for shares, obligations, or other securities of the acquiring corporation or any other corporation or for cash or other property in whole or part.

(3) The plan of exchange may set forth any other provision relating to the exchange.

(4) This section does not limit the power of a corporation to acquire all or part of the shares of one or more classes or series of another corporation through a voluntary exchange or otherwise. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 125, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-815. (Temporary) Action on plan. (1) Except as provided in subsection (7), after adopting a plan of merger or share exchange, the board of directors of each corporation party to the merger and the board of directors of the corporation whose shares will be acquired in the share exchange shall submit the plan of merger, except as provided in subsection (7), or share exchange for approval by its shareholders.

(2) For a plan of merger or share exchange to be approved:

(a) the board of directors shall recommend the plan of merger or share exchange to the shareholders, unless the board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its determination to the shareholders with the plan; and

(b) the shareholders entitled to vote shall approve the plan.

(3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposed merger or share exchange on any basis.

(4) The corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting in accordance with 35-1-520. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the plan of merger or share exchange and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan.

(5) Unless this chapter, the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors, acting pursuant to subsection (3), require a greater vote or a vote by voting groups, the plan of merger or share exchange to be authorized must be approved by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the plan by an affirmative vote of two-thirds, or a majority vote if authorized by subsection (10), of the votes entitled to be cast on the plan by that voting group.

(6) Separate voting by voting groups is required:

(a) on a plan of merger if the plan contains a provision that, if contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation, would require action by one or more separate voting groups on the proposed amendment under 35-1-228; and

(b) on a plan of share exchange by each class or series of shares included in the exchange, with each class or series constituting a separate voting group.

(7) Action by the shareholders of the surviving corporation on a plan of merger is not required if:

(a) the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation will not differ, except for amendments enumerated in 35-1-226, from its articles before the merger;

(b) each shareholder of the surviving corporation whose shares were outstanding immediately before the effective date of the merger will hold the same number of shares, with identical designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights, immediately after the merger;

(c) the number of voting shares outstanding immediately after the merger plus the number of voting shares issuable as a result of the merger, either by the conversion of securities issued pursuant to the merger or the exercise of rights and warrants issued pursuant to the merger, will not exceed by more than 20% the total number of voting shares of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately before the merger; and

(d) the number of participating shares outstanding immediately after the merger plus the number of participating shares issuable as a result of the merger, either by the conversion of securities issued pursuant to the merger or the exercise of rights and warrants issued pursuant to the merger, will not exceed by more than 20% the total number of participating shares outstanding immediately before the merger.

(8) As used in subsection (7):

(a) "participating shares" means shares that entitle their shareholders to participate without limitation in distributions; and

(b) "voting shares" means shares that entitle their shareholders to vote unconditionally in elections of directors.

(9) After a merger or share exchange is authorized and at any time before articles of merger or share exchange are filed, the planned merger or share exchange may be abandoned, subject to any contractual rights, without further shareholder action in accordance with the procedure set forth in the plan of merger or share exchange or, if no procedure is set forth, in the manner determined by the board of directors.

(10) A majority of all votes entitled to be cast by each voting group is sufficient to constitute approval by the corporation if a statement to that effect is included in the articles of incorporation but only if:

(a) the statement is included in the articles of incorporation at the time the initial articles of incorporation were filed; or

(b) the statement is included in an amendment to the articles of incorporation approved by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment pursuant to 35-1-227. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-816. (Temporary) Articles of merger or share exchange. (1) After a plan of merger or share exchange is approved by the shareholders or adopted by the board of directors if shareholder approval is not required, the surviving or acquiring corporation shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of merger or share exchange setting forth:

(a) the plan of merger or share exchange; and

(b) if shareholder approval was not required, a statement to that effect; or

(c) if approval of the shareholders of one or more corporations party to the merger or share exchange was required:

(i) the designation, number of outstanding shares, and number of votes entitled to be cast by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the plan as to each corporation; and

(ii) either the total number of votes cast for and against the plan by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the plan or the total number of undisputed votes cast for the plan separately by each voting group and a statement that the number cast for the plan by each voting group was sufficient for approval by that voting group.

(2) Unless a delayed effective date is specified, a merger or share exchange takes effect when the articles of merger or share exchange are filed. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-817. (Temporary) Effect of merger or share exchange. (1) When a merger takes effect:

(a) every other corporation party to the merger merges into the surviving corporation and the separate existence of every corporation except the surviving corporation ceases;

(b) the title to all real estate and other property owned by each corporation party to the merger is vested in the surviving corporation without reversion or impairment;

(c) the surviving corporation has all liabilities of each corporation party to the merger;

(d) a proceeding pending against any corporation party to the merger may be continued as if the merger did not occur or the surviving corporation may be substituted in the proceeding for the corporation whose existence ceased;

(e) the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation are amended to the extent provided in the plan of merger; and

(f) the shares of each corporation party to the merger that are to be converted into shares, obligations, or other securities of the surviving or any other corporation or into cash or other property are converted and the former shareholders are entitled only to the rights provided in the articles of merger or to their rights under 35-1-826 through 35-1-839.

(2) When a share exchange takes effect, the shares of each acquired corporation are exchanged as provided in the plan and the former shareholders are entitled only to the exchange rights provided in the articles of share exchange or to their rights under 35-1-826 through 35-1-839. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-818. (Temporary) Merger of subsidiary. (1) A parent corporation owning at least 80% of the outstanding shares of each class of a subsidiary corporation may merge the subsidiary into itself without approval of the shareholders of the parent corporation or subsidiary.

(2) The board of directors of the parent corporation shall adopt a plan of merger that sets forth:

(a) the names of the parent corporation and subsidiary; and

(b) the manner and basis of converting the shares of the subsidiary into shares, obligations, or other securities of the parent corporation or any other corporation or into cash or other property in whole or part.

(3) The parent corporation shall mail a copy of the summary of the plan of merger to each shareholder of the subsidiary who does not waive the mailing requirement in writing.

(4) The parent corporation may not deliver articles of merger to the secretary of state for filing until at least 30 days after the date it mailed a copy of the plan of merger to each shareholder of the subsidiary who did not waive the mailing requirement.

(5) Articles of merger under this section may not contain amendments to the articles of incorporation of the parent corporation except for amendments enumerated in 35-1-226. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 127, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-819. (Temporary) Merger or share exchange with foreign corporation. (1) One or more foreign corporations may merge or enter into a share exchange with one or more domestic corporations if:

(a) in a merger, the merger is permitted by the law of the state, tribe, or country under whose law each foreign corporation is incorporated and each foreign corporation complies with that law in effecting the merger; or

(b) in a share exchange, the corporation whose shares will be acquired is a domestic corporation, whether or not a share exchange is permitted by the law of the state, tribe, or country under whose law the acquiring corporation is incorporated;

(c) the foreign corporation complies with 35-1-816 and if it is the surviving corporation of the merger or acquiring corporation of the share exchange; and

(d) each domestic corporation complies with the applicable provisions of 35-1-813 through 35-1-815 and 35-1-818 and, if it is the surviving corporation of the merger or acquiring corporation of the share exchange, with the provisions of 35-1-816.

(2) When the merger or share exchange takes effect, the surviving foreign corporation of a merger and the acquiring foreign corporation of a share exchange is considered:

(a) to have appointed the secretary of state as its agent for service of process in a proceeding to enforce any obligation or the rights of dissenting shareholders of each domestic corporation party to the merger or share exchange; and

(b) to have agreed that it will promptly pay to the dissenting shareholders of each domestic corporation party to the merger or share exchange the amount, if any, to which they are entitled under 35-1-826 through 35-1-839.

(3) This section does not limit the power of a foreign corporation to acquire all or part of the shares of one or more classes or series of a domestic corporation through a voluntary exchange or otherwise. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-820. (Temporary) Shareholder agreements. (1) An agreement among the shareholders of a corporation that complies with this section is effective among the shareholders and the corporation even though it is inconsistent with one or more other provisions of this chapter in that it:

(a) eliminates the board of directors or restricts the discretion or powers of the board of directors;

(b) governs the authorization or making of distributions, whether or not in proportion to ownership of shares, subject to the limitations in 35-1-712;

(c) establishes who must be directors or officers of the corporation or their terms of office or manner of selection or removal;

(d) governs, in general or in regard to specific matters, the exercise or division of voting power by or between the shareholders and directors or by or among any of them, including use of weighted voting rights or director proxies;

(e) establishes the terms and conditions of any agreement for the transfer or use of property or the provision of services between the corporation and any shareholder, director, officer, or employee of the corporation or among any of them;

(f) transfers to one or more shareholders or other persons all or part of the authority to exercise the corporate powers or to manage the business and affairs of the corporation, including the resolution of any issue about which there exists a deadlock among directors or shareholders;

(g) requires dissolution of the corporation at the request of one or more of the shareholders or upon the occurrence of a specified event or contingency; or

(h) otherwise governs the exercise of the corporate powers or the management of the business and affairs of the corporation or the relationship among the shareholders, the directors, and the corporation or among any of them and is not contrary to public policy.

(2) An agreement authorized by this section must be:

(a) set forth:

(i) in the articles of incorporation or bylaws and approved by all persons who are shareholders at the time of the agreement; or

(ii) in a written agreement that is signed by all persons who are shareholders at the time of the agreement and that is made known to the corporation;

(b) subject to amendment only by all persons who are shareholders at the time of the amendment, unless the agreement provides otherwise; and

(c) valid for 10 years, unless the agreement provides otherwise.

(3) The existence of an agreement authorized by this section must be noted conspicuously on the front or back of each certificate for outstanding shares or on the information statement required by 35-1-627(2). If at the time of the agreement the corporation has shares outstanding represented by certificates, the corporation shall recall the outstanding certificates and issue substitute certificates that comply with this subsection. The failure to note the existence of the agreement on the certificate or information statement may not affect the validity of the agreement or any action taken pursuant to it. Any purchaser of shares who, at the time of purchase, did not have knowledge of the existence of the agreement must be entitled to rescission of the purchase. A purchaser is considered to have knowledge of the existence of the agreement if its existence is noted on the certificate or information statement for the shares in compliance with this subsection and, if the shares are not represented by a certificate, the information statement is delivered to the purchaser at or prior to the time of purchase of the shares. An action to enforce the right of rescission authorized by this subsection must be commenced within the earlier of 90 days after discovery of the existence of the agreement or 2 years after the time of purchase of the shares.

(4) An agreement authorized by this section must cease to be effective when shares of the corporation are listed on a national securities exchange or regularly traded in a market maintained by one or more members of a national or affiliated securities association. If the agreement ceases to be effective for any reason, the board of directors may, if the agreement is contained or referred to in the corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws, adopt an amendment to the articles of incorporation or bylaws, without shareholder action, to delete the agreement and any references to it.

(5) An agreement authorized by this section that limits the discretion or powers of the board of directors must relieve the directors of, and impose upon the person or persons in whom the discretion or powers are vested, liability for acts or omissions imposed by law on directors to the extent that the discretion or powers of the directors are limited by the agreement.

(6) The existence or performance of an agreement authorized by this section may not be a ground for imposing personal liability on any shareholders for the acts or debts of the corporation even if the agreement or its performance treats the corporation as if it were a partnership or results in failure to observe the corporate formalities otherwise applicable to the matters governed by the agreement.

(7) Incorporators or subscribers for shares may act as shareholders with respect to an agreement authorized by this section if shares have not been issued when the agreement is made. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-822. (Temporary) Sale of assets in regular course of business — mortgage of assets. (1) A corporation may, on the terms and conditions and for the consideration determined by the board of directors:

(a) sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its property in the usual and regular course of business;

(b) mortgage, pledge, dedicate to the repayment of indebtedness, whether with or without recourse, or otherwise encumber any or all of its property whether or not in the usual and regular course of business; or

(c) transfer any or all of its property to another corporation all the shares of which are owned by the corporation.

(2) Unless the articles of incorporation require it, approval by the shareholders of a transaction described in subsection (1) is not required. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-823. (Temporary) Sale of assets other than in regular course of business. (1) A corporation may sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its property, which may include good will, otherwise than in the usual and regular course of business, on the terms and conditions and for the consideration determined by the corporation's board of directors if the board of directors proposes and its shareholders approve the proposed transaction.

(2) For a transaction under this section to be authorized:

(a) the board of directors shall recommend the proposed transaction to the shareholders unless the board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its determination to the shareholders with the submission of the proposed transaction; and

(b) the shareholders entitled to vote shall approve the transaction.

(3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposed transaction on any basis.

(4) The corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting in accordance with 35-1-520. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all or substantially all the property of the corporation and must contain or be accompanied by a description of the transaction.

(5) Unless the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (3), require a greater vote or a vote by voting groups, the transaction to be authorized must be approved by an affirmative vote of two-thirds, or a majority if authorized by subsection (8), of the votes entitled to be cast on the transaction.

(6) After a sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of property is authorized, the transaction may be abandoned, subject to any contractual rights, without further shareholders' action.

(7) A transaction that constitutes a distribution is governed by 35-1-712 and not by this section.

(8) A majority of votes cast by the shareholders is sufficient to constitute approval by the corporation if a statement to that effect is included in the articles of incorporation but only if:

(a) the statement is included in the articles of incorporation at the time the initial articles of incorporation were filed; or

(b) the statement is included in an amendment to the articles of incorporation approved by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment pursuant to 35-1-227. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-826. (Temporary) Definitions. As used in 35-1-826 through 35-1-839, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Beneficial shareholder" means the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder.

(2) "Corporation" includes the issuer of the shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action, or the surviving or acquiring corporation by merger or share exchange of that issuer.

(3) "Dissenter" means a shareholder who is entitled to dissent from corporate action under 35-1-827 and who exercises that right when and in the manner required by 35-1-829 through 35-1-837.

(4) "Fair value", with respect to a dissenter's shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion would be inequitable.

(5) "Interest" means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment at the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans or, if the corporation has no loans, at a rate that is fair and equitable under all the circumstances.

(6) "Record shareholder" means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial shareholder to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.

(7) "Shareholder" means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-827. (Temporary) Right to dissent. (1) A shareholder is entitled to dissent from and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of any of the following corporate actions:

(a) consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party if:

(i) shareholder approval is required for the merger by 35-1-815 or the articles of incorporation and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger; or

(ii) the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent corporation under 35-1-818;

(b) consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan;

(c) consummation of a sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within 1 year after the date of sale;

(d) an amendment of the articles of incorporation that materially and adversely affects rights in respect of a dissenter's shares because it:

(i) alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares;

(ii) creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of redemption, including a provision with respect to a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase of the shares;

(iii) alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares or other securities;

(iv) excludes or limits the right of the shares to be voted on any matter or to cumulate votes, other than a limitation by dilution through issuance of shares or other securities with similar voting rights; or

(v) reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the fractional share created is to be acquired for cash under 35-1-621; or

(e) any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and to obtain payment for their shares.

(2) A shareholder entitled to dissent and to obtain payment for shares under 35-1-826 through 35-1-839 may not challenge the corporate action creating the shareholder's entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-828. (Temporary) Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners. (1) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the shareholder's name only if the shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which the shareholder dissents and the shareholder's other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(2) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on the beneficial shareholder's behalf only if the beneficial shareholder:

(a) submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights; and

(b) does so with respect to all shares of which the beneficial shareholder is the beneficial shareholder or over which the beneficial shareholder has power to direct the vote. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 135, Ch. 368, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 1270, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-1-829. (Temporary) Notice of dissenters' rights. (1) If a proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under 35-1-827 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice must state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under 35-1-826 through 35-1-839 and must be accompanied by a copy of 35-1-826 through 35-1-839.

(2) If a corporate action creating dissenters' rights under 35-1-827 is taken without a vote of shareholders, the corporation shall give written notification to all shareholders entitled to assert dissenters' rights that the action was taken and shall send them the dissenters' notice described in 35-1-831. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-830. (Temporary) Notice of intent to demand payment. (1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under 35-1-827 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights:

(a) shall deliver to the corporation before the vote is taken written notice of the intent to demand payment for the shareholder's shares if the proposed action is effectuated; and

(b) may not vote the shareholder's shares in favor of the proposed action.

(2) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (1)(a) is not entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares under 35-1-826 through 35-1-839. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 137, Ch. 368, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 1271, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-1-831. (Temporary) Dissenters' notice. (1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under 35-1-827 is authorized at a shareholders' meeting, the corporation shall deliver a written dissenters' notice to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements of 35-1-830.

(2) The dissenters' notice must be sent no later than 10 days after the corporate action was taken and must:

(a) state where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certified shares must be deposited;

(b) inform shareholders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment is received;

(c) supply a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action and that requires the person asserting dissenters' rights to certify whether or not the person acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date;

(d) set a date by which the corporation must receive the payment demand, which may not be fewer than 30 nor more than 60 days after the date the required notice under subsection (1) is delivered; and

35-1-832. (Temporary) Duty to demand payment. (1) A shareholder sent a dissenters' notice described in 35-1-831 shall demand payment, certify whether the shareholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the dissenters' notice pursuant to 35-1-831(2)(c), and deposit the shareholder's certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice.

(2) The shareholder who demands payment and deposits the shareholder's certificates under subsection (1) retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are canceled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action.

(3) A shareholder who does not demand payment or deposit the shareholder's certificates when required, each by the date set in the dissenters' notice, is not entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares under 35-1-826 through 35-1-839. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 139, Ch. 368, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 1273, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-1-833. (Temporary) Share restrictions. (1) The corporation may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the proposed corporate action is taken or the restrictions are released under 35-1-835.

(2) The person for whom dissenters' rights are asserted as to uncertificated shares retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are canceled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-834. (Temporary) Payment. (1) Except as provided in 35-1-836, as soon as the proposed corporate action is taken or upon receipt of a payment demand, the corporation shall pay each dissenter who complied with 35-1-832 the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the dissenter's shares plus accrued interest.

(2) The payment must be accompanied by:

(a) the corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

(b) a statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares;

(c) an explanation of how the interest was calculated;

(d) a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under 35-1-837; and

35-1-835. (Temporary) Failure to take action. (1) If the corporation does not take the proposed action within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing certificates, the corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares.

(2) If after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the corporation takes the proposed action, it shall send a new dissenters' notice under 35-1-831 and repeat the payment demand procedure. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-836. (Temporary) After-acquired shares. (1) A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by 35-1-834 from a dissenter unless the dissenter was the beneficial owner of the shares before the date set forth in the dissenters' notice as the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action.

(2) To the extent the corporation elects to withhold payment under subsection (1), after taking the proposed corporate action, the corporation shall estimate the fair value of the shares plus accrued interest and shall pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of the dissenter's demand. The corporation shall send with its offer a statement of its estimate of the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, and a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under 35-1-837. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-837. (Temporary) Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment or offer. (1) A dissenter may notify the corporation in writing of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and the amount of interest due and may demand payment of the dissenter's estimate, less any payment under 35-1-834, or reject the corporation's offer under 35-1-836 and demand payment of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and the interest due if:

(a) the dissenter believes that the amount paid under 35-1-834 or offered under 35-1-836 is less than the fair value of the dissenter's shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated;

(b) the corporation fails to make payment under 35-1-834 within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment; or

(c) the corporation, having failed to take the proposed action, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment.

(2) A dissenter waives the right to demand payment under this section unless the dissenter notifies the corporation of the demand in writing under subsection (1) within 30 days after the corporation made or offered payment for the dissenter's shares. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-838. (Temporary) Court action. (1) If a demand for payment under 35-1-837 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within 60 days after receiving the payment demand and shall petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the 60-day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

(2) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the district court of the county where a corporation's principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, in Lewis and Clark County. If the corporation is a foreign corporation, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the principal office of the domestic corporation merged with or whose shares were acquired by the foreign corporation was located or, if the domestic corporation did not have its principal office in the state at the time of the transaction, in Lewis and Clark County.

(3) The corporation shall make all dissenters whose demands remain unsettled, whether or not residents of this state, parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares, and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

(4) The jurisdiction of the district court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (2) is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them or in any amendment to it. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(5) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment:

(a) for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares plus interest exceeds the amount paid by the corporation; or

(b) for the fair value plus accrued interest of the dissenter's after-acquired shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under 35-1-836. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 145, Ch. 368, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 25, Ch. 240, L. 2007.

35-1-839. (Temporary) Court costs and attorney fees. (1) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under 35-1-838 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under 35-1-837.

(2) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(a) against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of 35-1-829 through 35-1-837; or

(b) against either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by 35-1-826 through 35-1-839.

(3) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award the counsel reasonable attorney fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenters who were benefited. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-931. (Temporary) Dissolution by incorporators or initial directors. (1) A majority of the incorporators or initial directors of a corporation that has not issued shares or has not commenced business may dissolve the corporation by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of dissolution that set forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the date of its incorporation;

(c) either that none of the corporation's shares have been issued or that the corporation has not commenced business;

(d) that any debt of the corporation does not remain unpaid;

(e) if shares were issued, that the net assets of the corporation remaining after winding up of the corporation's business and affairs have been distributed to the shareholders; and

(f) that a majority of the incorporators or initial directors authorized the dissolution.

(2) In addition to the requirements under this part, a domestic stock insurer shall comply with the provisions of Title 33, chapter 3, part 6. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-932. (Temporary) Dissolution by board of directors and shareholders. (1) A corporation's board of directors may propose dissolution for submission to the shareholders.

(2) For a proposal to dissolve to be adopted:

(a) the board of directors shall recommend dissolution to the shareholders unless the board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its determination to the shareholders; and

(b) the shareholders entitled to vote shall approve the proposal to dissolve as provided in subsection (5).

(3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposal for dissolution on any basis.

(4) The corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting in accordance with 35-1-520. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider dissolving the corporation.

(5) Unless the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (3), requires a greater vote or a vote by voting groups to be adopted, the proposal to dissolve must be approved by an affirmative vote of two-thirds, or a majority if authorized by subsection (6), of all the votes entitled to be cast on that proposal.

(6) A majority of votes cast by the shareholders is sufficient to constitute approval by the corporation if a statement to that effect is included in the articles of incorporation but only if:

(a) the statement is included in the articles of incorporation at the time the initial articles of incorporation were filed; or

(b) the statement is included in an amendment to the articles of incorporation approved by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment pursuant to 35-1-227.

(7) In addition to the requirements under this part, a domestic stock insurer shall comply with the provisions of Title 33, chapter 3, part 6. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-933. (Temporary) Articles of dissolution. (1) (a) At any time after dissolution is authorized, the corporation may dissolve by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of dissolution setting forth:

(i) the name of the corporation;

(ii) the date dissolution was authorized;

(iii) if the dissolution was adopted by the board of directors without shareholder action, a statement to the effect that shareholder action was not required; and

(iv) if dissolution was approved by the shareholders:

(A) the number of votes entitled to be cast on the proposal to dissolve; and

(B) either the total number of votes cast for and against dissolution or the total number of undisputed votes cast for dissolution and a statement that the number cast for dissolution was sufficient for approval.

(b) If voting by voting groups is required, the information required by subsection (1)(a)(iv) must be separately provided for each voting group entitled to vote separately on the plan to dissolve.

(2) A corporation is dissolved upon the effective date of its articles of dissolution. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-934. (Temporary) Revocation of dissolution. (1) A corporation may revoke its dissolution within 120 days of the effective date of the articles of dissolution.

(2) Revocation of dissolution must be authorized in the same manner as the dissolution was authorized unless that authorization permitted revocation by action of the board of directors alone, in which event the board of directors may revoke the dissolution without shareholder action.

(3) After the revocation of dissolution is authorized, the corporation may revoke the dissolution by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of revocation of dissolution, together with a copy of its articles of dissolution, that set forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the effective date of the dissolution that was revoked;

(c) the date that the revocation of dissolution was authorized;

(d) if the corporation's board of directors or incorporators revoked the dissolution, a statement to that effect;

(e) if the corporation's board of directors revoked a dissolution authorized by the shareholders, a statement that revocation was permitted on action by the board of directors alone pursuant to that authorization; and

(f) if shareholder action was required to revoke the dissolution, the information required by 35-1-933(1)(a)(iv) or (1)(b).

(4) Unless a delayed effective date is specified, revocation of dissolution is effective when the articles of revocation of dissolution are filed.

(5) When the revocation of dissolution is effective, it relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date of the dissolution and the corporation resumes carrying on its business as if dissolution had never occurred. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-935. (Temporary) Effect of dissolution. (1) A dissolved corporation continues its corporate existence but may not carry on any business except that appropriate to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs, including:

(a) collecting its assets;

(b) disposing of its properties that will not be distributed in kind to its shareholders;

(c) discharging or making provision for discharging its liabilities;

(d) distributing its remaining property among its shareholders according to their interests; and

(e) doing every other act necessary to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs.

(2) Dissolution of a corporation does not:

(a) transfer title to the corporation's property;

(b) prevent transfer of its shares or securities, although the authorization to dissolve may provide for closing the corporation's share transfer records;

(c) subject its directors or officers to standards of conduct different from those prescribed in part 4;

(d) change quorum or voting requirements for its board of directors or shareholders; change provisions for selection, resignation, or removal of its directors or officers, or both; or change provisions for amending its bylaws;

(e) prevent commencement of a proceeding by or against the corporation in its corporate name;

(f) abate or suspend a proceeding pending by or against the corporation on the effective date of dissolution;

(g) terminate the authority of the registered agent of the corporation; or

(h) discharge, abate, or forgive any tax liability of the corporation. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-936. (Temporary) Known claims against dissolved corporation. (1) A dissolved corporation may dispose of the known claims against it by following the procedure described in this section.

(2) The dissolved corporation shall notify its known claimants in writing of the dissolution at any time after the effective date of the dissolution. The written notice must:

(a) describe information that must be included in a claim;

(b) provide a mailing address where a claim may be sent;

(c) state the deadline, which may not be less than 120 days from the effective date of the written notice, by which the dissolved corporation must receive the claim; and

(d) state that the claim will be barred if not received by the deadline.

(3) A claim against the dissolved corporation is barred:

(a) if a claimant who was given written notice under subsection (1) does not deliver the claim to the dissolved corporation by the deadline; or

(b) if a claimant whose claim was rejected by the dissolved corporation does not commence a proceeding to enforce the claim within 90 days from the effective date of the rejection notice.

(4) For purposes of this section, "claim" does not include a contingent liability or a claim based on an event occurring after the effective date of the dissolution. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 152, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-937. (Temporary) Unknown claims against dissolved corporation. (1) Subject to 35-1-936, the dissolution of a corporation, including by the expiration of its term, does not take away or impair any remedy available to or against the corporation or its officers, directors, or shareholders for any claim or right, whether or not the claim or right existed or accrued prior to dissolution. A proceeding by or against the corporation may be prosecuted or defended by the corporation in its corporate name. The shareholders, directors, and officers have power to take corporate or other action as appropriate to protect the remedy, right, or claim.

(2) A claim may be enforced under 35-1-936 or this section:

(a) against the dissolved corporation, to the extent of the undistributed assets; or

(b) if the assets have been distributed in liquidation, against a shareholder of the dissolved corporation to the extent of the shareholder's pro rata share of the claim or the corporate assets distributed to the shareholder in liquidation, whichever is less, but a shareholder's total liability for all claims under this section may not exceed the total amount of assets distributed to the shareholder.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) apply to foreign corporations and their shareholders transacting business in this state for any claims otherwise arising or accruing under Montana law. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

(1) in a proceeding by the attorney general if it is established that:

(a) the corporation obtained its articles of incorporation through fraud; or

(b) the corporation has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon it by law;

(2) in a proceeding by a shareholder if it is established that:

(a) the directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs, the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, and irreparable injury to the corporation is threatened or being suffered or the business and affairs of the corporation can no longer be conducted to the advantage of the shareholders generally because of the deadlock;

(b) the directors or those in control of the corporation have acted, are acting, or will act in a manner that is illegal, oppressive, or fraudulent;

(c) the shareholders are deadlocked in voting power and have failed, for a period that includes at least two consecutive annual meeting dates, to elect successors to directors whose terms have expired; or

(d) the corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted;

(3) in a proceeding by a creditor if it is established that:

(a) the creditor's claim has been reduced to judgment, the execution on the judgment has been returned unsatisfied, and the corporation is insolvent; or

(b) the corporation has admitted in writing that the creditor's claim is due and owing and the corporation is insolvent; or

35-1-939. (Temporary) Discretion of court to grant relief other than dissolution. (1) In any action filed by a shareholder or director to dissolve the corporation on the grounds enumerated in 35-1-938, the court may make any order to grant the relief other than dissolution as, in its discretion, it considers appropriate, including, without limitation, an order:

(a) canceling or altering any provision contained in the articles of incorporation, in any amendment of the articles of incorporation, or in the bylaws of the corporation;

(b) canceling, altering, or enjoining any resolution or other act of the corporation;

(c) directing or prohibiting any act of the corporation or of shareholders, directors, officers, or other persons party to the action; or

(d) providing for the purchase at fair value of shares of any shareholder, either by the corporation or by other shareholders.

(2) Relief under subsection (1) may be granted as an alternative to a decree of dissolution or may be granted whenever, under the circumstances of the case, relief but not dissolution would be appropriate. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

The court shall hold a hearing, after notifying all parties to the proceeding and any interested persons designated by the court, before appointing a receiver or custodian. The court appointing a receiver or custodian has exclusive jurisdiction over the corporation and all its property wherever located.

(2) The court may appoint an individual or a domestic or foreign corporation, authorized to transact business in this state, as a receiver or custodian. The court may require the receiver or custodian to post bond, with or without sureties, in an amount the court directs.

(3) The court shall describe the powers and duties of the receiver or custodian in its appointing order, which may be amended from time to time. Among other powers:

(a) the receiver may dispose of all or any part of the assets of the corporation wherever located, at a public or private sale, if authorized by the court and may sue and defend in the receiver's own name as receiver of the corporation in all courts of this state; and

(b) the custodian may exercise all of the powers of the corporation through or in place of its board of directors or officers to the extent necessary to manage the affairs of the corporation in the best interests of its shareholders and creditors.

(4) The court during a receivership may redesignate the receiver a custodian and during a custodianship may redesignate the custodian a receiver if doing so is in the best interests of the corporation and its shareholders and creditors.

(5) The court from time to time during the receivership or custodianship may order compensation paid and expense disbursements or reimbursements made to the receiver or custodian and the receiver's or custodian's counsel from the assets of the corporation or proceeds from the sale of the assets. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-1026. (Temporary) Authority to transact business required. (1) A foreign corporation may not transact business in this state until it obtains a certificate of authority from the secretary of state.

(2) The following activities, among others, do not constitute transacting business within the meaning of subsection (1):

(a) maintaining, defending, or settling any proceeding;

(b) holding meetings of the board of directors or shareholders or carrying on other activities concerning internal corporate affairs;

(c) maintaining bank accounts;

(d) maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange, and registration of the corporation's own securities or maintaining trustees or depositaries with respect to those securities;

(e) selling through independent contractors;

(f) soliciting or obtaining orders, whether by mail or through employees or agents or otherwise, if the orders require acceptance outside this state before they become contracts;

(g) creating or acquiring indebtedness, mortgages, and security interests in real or personal property;

(h) securing or collecting debts or enforcing mortgages and security interests in property securing the debts;

(i) owning real or personal property that is acquired incident to activities described in subsection (2)(h) if the property is disposed of within 5 years after the date of acquisition does not produce income, or is not used in the performance of a corporate function;

(j) conducting an isolated transaction that is completed within 30 days and that is not a transaction in the course of repeated transactions of a similar nature; or

(k) transacting business in interstate commerce.

(3) The list of activities in subsection (2) is not exhaustive.

(4) Except as provided in subsection (2), a foreign corporation is transacting business within the meaning of subsection (1) if it enters into a contract, including a contract entered into pursuant to Title 18, with the state of Montana, an agency of the state, or a political subdivision of the state and shall apply for and must receive a certificate of authority to transact business before entering into the contract. The secretary of state shall provide written notice to the contracting parties regarding the requirement that a foreign corporation obtain a certificate of authority. The foreign corporation must be allowed 30 days from the date of the notice to obtain the certificate of authority, and an existing contract may not be voided prior to the expiration of the 30 days. This subsection does not apply to goods or services prepared out of state for delivery or use in this state. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-1027. (Temporary) Consequences of transacting business without authority. (1) A foreign corporation transacting business in this state without a certificate of authority may not maintain a proceeding in any court in this state until it obtains a certificate of authority.

(2) The successor to a foreign corporation that transacted business in this state without a certificate of authority and the assignee of a cause of action arising out of that business may not maintain a proceeding based on that cause of action in any court in this state until the foreign corporation or its successor obtains a certificate of authority.

(3) A court may stay a proceeding commenced by a foreign corporation or its successor or assignee until it determines whether the foreign corporation or its successor or assignee requires a certificate of authority. If it determines that a certificate is required, the court may further stay the proceeding until the foreign corporation or its successor obtains the certificate.

(4) A foreign corporation is liable for a civil penalty of $5 for each day but not to exceed a total of $1,000 for each year that it transacts business in this state without a certificate of authority. The attorney general may collect all penalties due under this subsection.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), the failure of a foreign corporation to obtain a certificate of authority does not impair the validity of its corporate acts or prevent it from defending any proceeding in this state.

(6) A contract between the state of Montana, an agency of the state, or a political subdivision of the state and a foreign corporation that has failed to obtain a certificate of authority, as required under 35-1-1026, is voidable by the state, the contracting state agency, or the contracting political subdivision. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-1031. (Temporary) Corporate name of foreign corporation. (1) If the corporate name of a foreign corporation does not satisfy the requirements of 35-1-308, to obtain or maintain a certificate of authority to transact business in this state, the foreign corporation shall:

(a) add the word "corporation", "incorporated", "company", or "limited" or the abbreviation "corp.", "inc.", "co.", or "ltd." to its corporate name for use in this state; or

(b) use a fictitious name to transact business in this state if its real name is unavailable and deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, a copy of the resolution of its board of directors, signed by an officer of the board or the corporate presiding officer, adopting the fictitious name.

(2) Except as authorized by subsections (3) and (4), the corporate name of a foreign corporation, including a fictitious name, must be distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from:

(a) the corporate name of a corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state;

(b) a corporate name reserved or registered under 35-1-309 or 35-1-311;

(c) the fictitious name of another foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state;

(d) the corporate name of a not-for-profit corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state;

(e) the corporate name of a domestic corporation that has dissolved, but only for a period of 120 days after the effective date of its dissolution; and

(f) any assumed business name, limited partnership name, limited liability company name, trademark, or service mark registered or reserved with the secretary of state.

(3) A foreign corporation may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use in this state the name of another corporation, incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state, that is not distinguishable in the secretary of state's records from the name applied for. The secretary of state shall authorize use of the name applied for if:

(a) the other corporation consents to the use in writing and submits an undertaking in a form satisfactory to the secretary of state to change its name to a name that is distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from the name of the applying corporation; or

(b) the applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use the name applied for in this state.

(4) A foreign corporation may use in this state the name of another domestic or foreign corporation, including the fictitious name, that is used in this state if the other corporation is incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state and the foreign corporation:

(a) has merged with the other corporation;

(b) has been formed by reorganization of the other corporation; or

(c) has acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the corporate name, of the other corporation.

(5) If a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state changes its corporate name to one that does not satisfy the requirements of 35-1-308, it may not transact business in this state under the changed name until it adopts a name satisfying the requirements of 35-1-308 and obtains an amended certificate of authority under 35-1-1029. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

(2) A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may apply for a certificate of withdrawal by delivering an application to the secretary of state for filing. The application must set forth:

(a) the name of the foreign corporation and the name of the state, tribe, or country under whose law it is incorporated;

(b) that it is not transacting business in this state and that it surrenders its authority to transact business in this state;

(c) that it revokes the authority of its registered agent to accept service on its behalf and appoints the secretary of state as its agent for service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action arising during the time it was authorized to transact business in this state;

(d) a mailing address to which the secretary of state may mail a copy of any process served on the secretary of state under subsection (3);

(e) a commitment to notify the secretary of state in the future of any change in its mailing address;

(f) that all taxes imposed on the corporation by Title 15 have been paid, supported by a certificate by the department of revenue to be attached to the application to the effect that the department is satisfied from the available evidence that all taxes imposed have been paid. The issuance of the certificate does not relieve the corporation from liability for any taxes, penalties, or interest due the state of Montana; and

(g) additional information as may be necessary or appropriate to enable the secretary of state to determine and assess any unpaid fees or taxes payable by the foreign corporation as prescribed by 35-1-1026 through 35-1-1031, 35-1-1038 through 35-1-1040, and this section.

(3) After the withdrawal of the corporation is effective, service of process on the secretary of state under this section is service on the foreign corporation. Upon receipt of process, the secretary of state shall mail a copy of the process to the foreign corporation at the mailing address set forth under subsection (2). (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-1106. (Temporary) Corporate records. (1) A corporation shall keep as permanent records minutes of all meetings of its shareholders and board of directors, a record of all actions taken by the shareholders or board of directors without a meeting, and a record of all actions taken by a committee of the board of directors in place of the board of directors on behalf of the corporation.

(2) A corporation shall maintain appropriate accounting records.

(3) A corporation or its agent shall maintain a record of its shareholders, in a form that permits preparation of a list of the names and addresses of all shareholders, in alphabetical order by class of shares showing the number and class of shares held by each.

(4) A corporation shall maintain its records in written form or in another form capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time.

(5) A corporation shall keep a copy of the following records at its principal office or a location from which the records may be recovered within 2 business days:

(a) its articles or restated articles of incorporation and all amendments to them currently in effect;

(b) its bylaws or restated bylaws and all amendments to them currently in effect;

(c) resolutions adopted by its board of directors creating one or more classes or series of shares and fixing their relative rights, preferences, and limitations if shares issued pursuant to those resolutions are outstanding;

(d) the minutes of all shareholders' meetings and records of all action taken by shareholders without a meeting for the past 3 years;

(e) the financial statements available to shareholders for the past 3 years under 35-1-1110;

(f) a list of the names and business addresses of its current directors and officers; and

(g) its most recent annual report delivered to the secretary of state under 35-1-1104. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 173, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-1107. (Temporary) Inspection of records by shareholders. (1) Subject to 35-1-1108(3), a shareholder of a corporation is entitled to inspect and copy, during regular business hours at the corporation's principal office, any of the records of the corporation described in 35-1-1106(5) if the shareholder gives the corporation written notice of the demand at least 5 business days before the date on which the shareholder wishes to inspect and copy.

(2) A shareholder of a corporation is entitled to inspect and copy, during regular business hours at a reasonable location specified by the corporation, any of the following records of the corporation if the shareholder meets the requirements of subsection (3) and gives the corporation written notice of the demand at least 5 business days before the date on which the shareholder wishes to inspect and copy:

(a) excerpts from minutes of any meeting of the board of directors, records of any action of a committee of the board of directors while acting in place of the board of directors on behalf of the corporation, minutes of any meeting of the shareholders, and records of action taken by the shareholders or board of directors without a meeting, to the extent not subject to inspection under subsection (1);

(b) accounting records of the corporation; and

(c) the record of shareholders.

(3) A shareholder may inspect and copy the records identified in subsection (2) only if:

(a) the demand is made in good faith and for a proper purpose;

(b) the shareholder describes with reasonable particularity the purpose and the records the shareholder desires to inspect;

(c) the records are directly connected with the shareholder's purpose; and

(d) the shareholder has been a shareholder of record for at least 6 months preceding the demand or the shareholder is a holder of record of at least 5% of all the outstanding shares of the corporation.

(4) The right of inspection granted by this section may not be abolished or limited by a corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws.

(5) This section does not affect:

(a) the right of a shareholder to inspect records under 35-1-523 or, if the shareholder is in litigation with the corporation, to the same extent as any other litigant; or

(b) the power of a court, independently of this chapter, to compel the production of corporate records for examination.

(6) For purposes of this section, "shareholder" includes a beneficial owner whose shares are held in a voting trust or by a nominee on the shareholder's behalf. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 174, Ch. 368, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 156, Ch. 42, L. 1997.

35-1-1108. (Temporary) Scope of inspection right. (1) A shareholder's agent or attorney has the same inspection and copying rights as the shareholder the agent or attorney represents.

(2) The right to copy records under 35-1-1107 includes, if reasonable, the right to receive copies made by photographic, xerographic, or other means.

(3) The corporation may impose a reasonable charge, covering the costs of labor and material, for copies of documents provided to the shareholders. The charge may not exceed the estimated cost of production or reproduction of the records.

(4) The corporation may comply with a shareholder's demand to inspect the record of shareholders under 35-1-1107(2)(c) by providing the shareholder with a list of its shareholders that was compiled no earlier than the date of the shareholder's demand. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-1109. (Temporary) Court-ordered inspection. (1) If a corporation does not allow a shareholder who complies with 35-1-1107(1) to inspect and copy any records required by that subsection to be available for inspection, the district court of the county where the corporation's principal office is located or, if there is no principal office in this state, in Lewis and Clark County may summarily order inspection and copying of the records demanded at the corporation's expense upon application of the shareholder.

(2) If a corporation does not within a reasonable time allow a shareholder to inspect and copy any other record, the shareholder who complies with 35-1-1107(2) and (3) may apply to the district court in the county where the corporation's principal office is located or, if there is no principal office in this state, in Lewis and Clark County for an order to permit inspection and copying of the records demanded. The court shall dispose of an application under this subsection on an expedited basis.

(3) If the court orders inspection and copying of the records demanded, it shall also order the corporation to pay the shareholder's costs, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred to obtain the order unless the corporation proves that it refused inspection in good faith because it had a reasonable basis for doubt about the right of the shareholder to inspect the records demanded.

(4) If the court orders inspection and copying of the records demanded, it may impose reasonable restrictions on the use or distribution of the records by the demanding shareholder. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-1110. (Temporary) Financial statement for shareholders. Upon the written request of any shareholder of a corporation, the corporation shall mail to the shareholder its most recent financial statements showing in reasonable detail its assets and liabilities and the results of its operations. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-1111. (Temporary) Other reports to shareholders. (1) If a corporation indemnifies or advances expenses to a director under 35-1-442, 35-1-443, 35-1-444, or 35-1-445 in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, the corporation shall report the indemnification or advance in writing to the shareholders with or before the notice of the next shareholders' meeting.

(2) If a corporation issues or authorizes the issuance of shares for promissory notes or for promises to render services in the future, the corporation shall report in writing to the shareholders the number of shares authorized or issued and the consideration received by the corporation with or before the notice of the next shareholders' meeting. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-1307. (Temporary) Secretary of state — powers — rulemaking. (1) The secretary of state has the power reasonably necessary to perform the duties required of the secretary of state by this chapter.

(2) The secretary of state may adopt rules to perform the duties required of the secretary of state under this chapter, including establishing necessary fees. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 368, L. 1991.

35-1-1308. (Temporary) Forms. (1) The secretary of state may by rule prescribe and furnish on request forms or computer formats, including standard forms, for:

(a) an application for a certificate of existence;

(b) a foreign corporation's application for a certificate of authority to transact business in this state;

(c) a foreign corporation's application for a certificate of withdrawal;

(d) the annual report; and

(e) other documents required or permitted to be filed by this chapter.

(2) If the secretary of state requires, use of any of the forms or formats listed in subsection (1) is mandatory. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

35-1-1309. (Temporary) Filing duty of secretary of state. (1) If a document delivered to the office of the secretary of state for filing satisfies the requirements of 35-1-217 and 35-1-218, if applicable, the secretary of state shall file the document.

(2) The secretary of state shall file a document by stamping or otherwise endorsing on the document "Filed", the secretary of state's official title, and the date and time the document was received by the secretary of state for filing. After filing a document, the secretary of state shall deliver a certification letter to the domestic or foreign corporation or its representative as acknowledgment that the document has been filed and all applicable fees have been paid.

(3) If the secretary of state refuses to file a document, the secretary of state shall return the document to the domestic or foreign corporation or the corporation's representative within 10 business days after the document was delivered to the secretary of state, together with a brief written explanation of the reason for the refusal.

(4) The secretary of state's duty to file documents under this section is ministerial. The secretary of state's filing or refusing to file a document does not:

(a) affect the validity or invalidity of the document in whole or in part;

(b) relate to the correctness or incorrectness of information contained in the document; or

(c) create a presumption that the document is valid or invalid or that information contained in the document is correct or incorrect.

(5) The secretary of state may correct errors caused by a filing officer. The error and the correction must be retained in the file containing the document in which the error appeared. For the purposes of this subsection, a filing officer is a person employed in a filing office as defined in 30-9A-102. (Repealed effective June 1, 2020—secs. 269, 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

Part 14
Benefit Corporations

35-1-1401. Short title. This part may be known and may be cited as the "Montana Benefit Corporation Act".

(1) "Benefit corporation" means a corporation organized in this state that has elected to become subject to this part and whose status as a benefit corporation has not been terminated as provided in 35-1-1408.

(2) "Benefit enforcement proceeding" means a claim or action relating to:

(a) failure to pursue the general public benefit purpose of the benefit corporation or any specific public benefit purpose set forth in its articles of incorporation;

(b) violation of a duty or standard of conduct imposed on a director or officer pursuant to this part; or

(c) failure of the benefit corporation to deliver, provide, or post an annual benefit report as required in 35-1-1410.

(3) "Director" means an individual elected to or otherwise serving on the board of directors of a benefit corporation.

(4) "General public benefit" means a material, positive impact on society and the environment, taken as a whole, as assessed against a third-party standard, from the business and operations of a benefit corporation.

(5) "Independent" means having no material relationship with a benefit corporation or a subsidiary of a benefit corporation.

(6) "Minimum status vote" means:

(a) in the case of a corporation, that in addition to any other approval or vote required by law or by the articles of incorporation:

(i) the shareholders of every class or series are entitled to vote on the corporate action regardless of any limitation stated in the articles of incorporation; and

(ii) the corporate action must be approved by the outstanding shares of each class or series by at least two-thirds of the votes that all shareholders of the class or series are entitled to cast on that action or by a greater vote if required in the articles of incorporation; or

(b) in the case of a domestic business entity other than a corporation and in addition to any other approval, vote, or consent required by law that principally governs the internal affairs of the domestic business entity or any provision of the publicly filed record or document required to form the domestic business entity, if any, or of any agreement binding some or all of the holders of equity interests in the entity:

(i) the holders of every class or series of interest in the entity that are entitled to receive a distribution of any kind from the entity are entitled to vote on the action regardless of any otherwise applicable limitation on the voting rights of the interest; and

(ii) the action must be approved by the vote or consent of the holders described in subsection (6)(b)(i) by at least two-thirds of the votes of the holders or by a greater vote if required in the publicly filed record, document, or agreement binding holders of equity interests.

(7) "Specific public benefit" means:

(a) providing low-income or underserved individuals or communities with beneficial products or services;

(b) promoting economic opportunity for individuals or communities beyond the creation of jobs in the ordinary course of business;

(c) preserving the environment;

(d) improving human health;

(e) promoting the arts, sciences, or advancement of knowledge;

(f) increasing the flow of capital to entities with a public benefit purpose; or

(g) the accomplishment of any other particular benefit for society or the environment.

(8) "Subsidiary" means an entity in which a parent entity owns beneficially or of record 50% or more of the outstanding equity interests of the subsidiary. For the purposes of this definition, the percentage of ownership held by a parent entity in a subsidiary must be calculated as if all outstanding rights to acquire equity interests in the subsidiary have been exercised.

(9) "Third-party standard" means a standard for defining, reporting, and assessing overall corporate social and environmental performance to which all of the following apply:

(a) the standard is a comprehensive assessment of the impact of the business and the business's operations on the considerations listed in 35-1-1406(2)(a);

(b) the standard is developed by an entity that has no material financial relationship with the benefit corporation or any of its subsidiaries and:

(i) not more than one-third of the members of the governing body of the entity are representatives of:

(A) associations of businesses operating in a specific industry for which the performance is measured by the standard;

(B) businesses from a specific industry or an association of businesses in that industry; or

(C) businesses whose performance is assessed against the standard; and

(ii) the entity is not materially financed by an association or business described in subsection (9)(b)(i);

(c) the standard is developed by an entity that:

(i) accesses necessary and appropriate expertise to assess overall corporate social and environmental performance; and

(ii) uses a balanced multistakeholder approach, including a public comment period of at least 30 days, to develop the standard; and

(d) the following information regarding the standard is publicly available:

(i) the criteria considered when measuring the overall social and environmental performance of a business;

(ii) the relative weightings assigned to the criteria described in subsection (9)(d)(i);

(iii) the identity of the directors, the officers, any material owners, and the governing body of the entity that developed and controls revisions to the standard;

(iv) the process by which revisions to the standard and changes to the membership of the governing body of the entity described in subsection (9)(d)(iii) are made; and

(v) an accounting of the sources of financial support for the entity with sufficient detail to disclose any relationships that could reasonably be considered to present a potential conflict of interest.

35-1-1403. (Temporary) Purpose. (1) The purpose of a benefit corporation is to create general public benefit. This purpose is in addition to and may be a limitation on the corporation's purpose under 35-1-114 and any specific public benefit purpose set forth in the corporation's articles of incorporation in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) In addition to the applicable provisions required under 35-1-216, the articles of incorporation of a benefit corporation must contain the following statement: "This corporation is a benefit corporation." The articles of incorporation of a benefit corporation may identify one or more specific public benefits as the purpose or purposes of the benefit corporation. The identification of a specific public benefit under this subsection does not limit the obligation of a benefit corporation to create general public benefit.

(3) The creation of general public benefit and one or more specific public benefits as provided in subsections (1) and (2) is considered to be in the best interests of the benefit corporation.

(4) A benefit corporation may amend its articles of incorporation to add, amend, or delete the identification of a specific public benefit as a purpose of the benefit corporation to create. The amendment is effective only if the amendment is adopted by at least the minimum status vote.

35-1-1403. (Effective June 1, 2020) Purpose. (1) The purpose of a benefit corporation is to create general public benefit. This purpose is in addition to and may be a limitation on the corporation's purpose under 35-14-301 and any specific public benefit purpose set forth in the corporation's articles of incorporation in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) In addition to the applicable provisions required under 35-14-202, the articles of incorporation of a benefit corporation must contain the following statement: "This corporation is a benefit corporation." The articles of incorporation of a benefit corporation may identify one or more specific public benefits as the purpose or purposes of the benefit corporation. The identification of a specific public benefit under this subsection does not limit the obligation of a benefit corporation to create general public benefit.

(3) The creation of general public benefit and one or more specific public benefits as provided in subsections (1) and (2) is considered to be in the best interests of the benefit corporation.

(4) A benefit corporation may amend its articles of incorporation to add, amend, or delete the identification of a specific public benefit as a purpose of the benefit corporation to create. The amendment is effective only if the amendment is adopted by at least the minimum status vote.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 306, L. 2015; amd. Sec. 240, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

Compiler's Comments

2019 Amendment: Chapter 271 in (1) in second sentence near middle substituted "35-14-301" for "35-1-114"; and in (2) in first sentence near middle substituted "35-14-202" for "35-1-216". Amendment effective June 1, 2020.

35-1-1404. Applicability. (1) Unless otherwise provided in this part, the provisions of Title 35, chapter 1, apply to all benefit corporations.

(2) The provisions of this part do not:

(a) imply that a contrary or different rule of law does or would apply to a business corporation that is not a benefit corporation; or

(b) affect any provision of this part that does or would apply to a corporation that is not a benefit corporation.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 306, L. 2015.

35-1-1405. Benefit corporation — formation. A benefit corporation may be formed in accordance with this part. The articles of incorporation must:

(1) state that the corporation is a benefit corporation; and

(2) identify any specific public benefits adopted pursuant to 35-1-1403.

35-1-1406. (Temporary) Benefit corporation governance — liability. (1) A director of a public benefit corporation shall:

(a) perform the duties of a director in good faith and in a manner the director believes to be in the best interests of the benefit corporation; and

(b) conduct reasonable inquiry in the manner that a prudent person in a similar position would conduct under similar circumstances.

(2) In discharging their respective duties and in considering the best interests of the benefit corporation, the board of directors, committees of the board, and individual directors of a benefit corporation:

(a) shall consider the impacts of every action or proposed action on:

(i) the shareholders of the benefit corporation;

(ii) the employees and workforce of the benefit corporation and its subsidiaries and suppliers;

(iii) the interests of customers of the benefit corporation as beneficiaries of the general public benefit purpose or any specific public benefit purpose of the benefit corporation;

(iv) community and societal considerations, including those of a community in which offices or facilities of the benefit corporation or its subsidiaries or suppliers are located;

(v) the local and global environment;

(vi) the short-term and long-term interests of the benefit corporation, including benefits that may accrue to the benefit corporation from its long-term plans and the possibility that the interests may be best served by retaining control of the benefit corporation rather than selling or transferring control to another person; and

(vii) the ability of the benefit corporation to accomplish its general public benefit purpose and any specific public benefit purpose;

(b) may consider:

(i) the resources, intent, and conduct, including past, stated, and potential conduct, of any person seeking to acquire control of the benefit corporation; and

(ii) any other pertinent factors or the interests of any other person or group; and

(c) are not required to give priority to any particular factor or the interests of any particular person or group referred to in this subsection (2) over any other factor or the interests of any other person or group unless the benefit corporation has stated its intention to give priority to a specific public benefit purpose identified in the articles of incorporation.

(3) In performing the duties of a director, a director may rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

(a) one or more officers or employees of the benefit corporation whom the director believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(b) counsel, independent accountants, or other persons as to matters that the director believes to be within those persons' professional or expert competence; or

(c) a committee of the board on which the director does not serve if the director believes the committee merits confidence and if the director acts in good faith and without knowledge that would cause the director's confidence in the committee to be unwarranted.

(4) A person who performs the duties of a director in accordance with this part is not liable for monetary damages for any alleged failure:

(a) to discharge the person's obligations as a director; or

(b) of the benefit corporation to pursue or create general public benefit or a specific public benefit.

(5) In addition to the limitations provided in subsection (4), the liability of a director for monetary damages may be eliminated or limited in a benefit corporation's articles of incorporation to the extent provided for in 35-1-216(2)(d).

(6) A director does not have a duty to a person who is a beneficiary of the general public benefit purpose or a specific public benefit purpose of a benefit corporation arising from the status of the person as a beneficiary.

35-1-1406. (Effective June 1, 2020) Benefit corporation governance — liability. (1) A director of a public benefit corporation shall:

(a) perform the duties of a director in good faith and in a manner the director believes to be in the best interests of the benefit corporation; and

(b) conduct reasonable inquiry in the manner that a prudent person in a similar position would conduct under similar circumstances.

(2) In discharging their respective duties and in considering the best interests of the benefit corporation, the board of directors, committees of the board, and individual directors of a benefit corporation:

(a) shall consider the impacts of every action or proposed action on:

(i) the shareholders of the benefit corporation;

(ii) the employees and workforce of the benefit corporation and its subsidiaries and suppliers;

(iii) the interests of customers of the benefit corporation as beneficiaries of the general public benefit purpose or any specific public benefit purpose of the benefit corporation;

(iv) community and societal considerations, including those of a community in which offices or facilities of the benefit corporation or its subsidiaries or suppliers are located;

(v) the local and global environment;

(vi) the short-term and long-term interests of the benefit corporation, including benefits that may accrue to the benefit corporation from its long-term plans and the possibility that the interests may be best served by retaining control of the benefit corporation rather than selling or transferring control to another person; and

(vii) the ability of the benefit corporation to accomplish its general public benefit purpose and any specific public benefit purpose;

(b) may consider:

(i) the resources, intent, and conduct, including past, stated, and potential conduct, of any person seeking to acquire control of the benefit corporation; and

(ii) any other pertinent factors or the interests of any other person or group; and

(c) are not required to give priority to any particular factor or the interests of any particular person or group referred to in this subsection (2) over any other factor or the interests of any other person or group unless the benefit corporation has stated its intention to give priority to a specific public benefit purpose identified in the articles of incorporation.

(3) In performing the duties of a director, a director may rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

(a) one or more officers or employees of the benefit corporation whom the director believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(b) counsel, independent accountants, or other persons as to matters that the director believes to be within those persons' professional or expert competence; or

(c) a committee of the board on which the director does not serve if the director believes the committee merits confidence and if the director acts in good faith and without knowledge that would cause the director's confidence in the committee to be unwarranted.

(4) A person who performs the duties of a director in accordance with this part is not liable for monetary damages for any alleged failure:

(a) to discharge the person's obligations as a director; or

(b) of the benefit corporation to pursue or create general public benefit or a specific public benefit.

(5) In addition to the limitations provided in subsection (4), the liability of a director for monetary damages may be eliminated or limited in a benefit corporation's articles of incorporation to the extent provided for in 35-14-202(2)(d).

(6) A director does not have a duty to a person who is a beneficiary of the general public benefit purpose or a specific public benefit purpose of a benefit corporation arising from the status of the person as a beneficiary.

2019 Amendment: Chapter 271 in (5) at end substituted "35-14-202(2)(d)" for "35-1-216(2)(d)". Amendment effective June 1, 2020.

35-1-1407. (Temporary) Conversion to benefit corporation. (1) A corporation may become a benefit corporation under this part by amending the corporation's articles of incorporation to include a statement that the corporation is a benefit corporation. The amendment is effective only if it is adopted by at least the minimum status vote. If the amendment is adopted, a shareholder of the corporation may require the corporation to purchase at fair market value the shares owned by the shareholder as provided for in 35-1-827.

(2) If a corporation or other entity that is not a benefit corporation is a constituent corporation or entity in a merger reorganization or is the acquired corporation or entity in an exchange reorganization and the surviving corporation in the merger or exchange reorganization is to be a benefit corporation or the articles of incorporation of the acquired corporation or entity are to be amended in the merger or exchange reorganization to provide that the newly formed corporation will be a benefit corporation, the reorganization is effective only if it is approved by the newly formed corporation or other entity by at least the minimum status vote.

(3) If any other entity is a party to a merger reorganization and the surviving corporation in the reorganization is to be a benefit corporation, the reorganization is effective only if the reorganization is approved by the other entity by at least the minimum status vote.

(4) If another entity is the converting entity in a conversion in which the converted corporation is a benefit corporation, the conversion is effective only if the conversion is approved by the other entity by at least the minimum status vote.

35-1-1407. (Effective June 1, 2020) Conversion to benefit corporation. (1) A corporation may become a benefit corporation under this part by amending the corporation's articles of incorporation to include a statement that the corporation is a benefit corporation. The amendment is effective only if it is adopted by at least the minimum status vote. If the amendment is adopted, a shareholder of the corporation may require the corporation to purchase at fair market value the shares owned by the shareholder as provided for in 35-14-1302.

(2) If a corporation or other entity that is not a benefit corporation is a constituent corporation or entity in a merger reorganization or is the acquired corporation or entity in an exchange reorganization and the surviving corporation in the merger or exchange reorganization is to be a benefit corporation or the articles of incorporation of the acquired corporation or entity are to be amended in the merger or exchange reorganization to provide that the newly formed corporation will be a benefit corporation, the reorganization is effective only if it is approved by the newly formed corporation or other entity by at least the minimum status vote.

(3) If any other entity is a party to a merger reorganization and the surviving corporation in the reorganization is to be a benefit corporation, the reorganization is effective only if the reorganization is approved by the other entity by at least the minimum status vote.

(4) If another entity is the converting entity in a conversion in which the converted corporation is a benefit corporation, the conversion is effective only if the conversion is approved by the other entity by at least the minimum status vote.

2019 Amendment: Chapter 271 in (1) at end substituted "35-14-1302" for "35-1-827". Amendment effective June 1, 2020.

35-1-1408. (Temporary) Termination — reorganization — other actions affecting benefit corporation. (1) A benefit corporation may terminate its status as a benefit corporation and cease to be subject to this part by deleting from the benefit corporation's articles of incorporation the statement and identification of public benefits required under 35-1-1405. The amendment is effective only if the amendment is adopted by at least the minimum status vote. If the amendment is adopted, a shareholder of the corporation may require the corporation to purchase at fair market value the shares owned by the shareholder as provided for in 35-1-827.

(2) If a reorganization of a benefit corporation would terminate the status of the corporation as a benefit corporation, the reorganization is effective only if the reorganization is approved by at least the minimum status vote.

(3) If a benefit corporation is the converting corporation in a conversion, the conversion is effective only if the conversion is approved by at least the minimum status vote.

(4) A sale, lease, conveyance, exchange, transfer, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of a benefit corporation, unless the transaction is in the usual and ordinary course of business of the benefit corporation, is effective only if the transaction is approved by at least the minimum status vote. If a transaction described in this subsection is not in the usual and ordinary course of business and is approved, a shareholder of the corporation may require the corporation to purchase at fair market value the shares owned by the shareholder as provided in 35-1-827.

35-1-1408. (Effective June 1, 2020) Termination — reorganization — other actions affecting benefit corporation. (1) A benefit corporation may terminate its status as a benefit corporation and cease to be subject to this part by deleting from the benefit corporation's articles of incorporation the statement and identification of public benefits required under 35-1-1405. The amendment is effective only if the amendment is adopted by at least the minimum status vote. If the amendment is adopted, a shareholder of the corporation may require the corporation to purchase at fair market value the shares owned by the shareholder as provided for in 35-14-1302.

(2) If a reorganization of a benefit corporation would terminate the status of the corporation as a benefit corporation, the reorganization is effective only if the reorganization is approved by at least the minimum status vote.

(3) If a benefit corporation is the converting corporation in a conversion, the conversion is effective only if the conversion is approved by at least the minimum status vote.

(4) A sale, lease, conveyance, exchange, transfer, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of a benefit corporation, unless the transaction is in the usual and ordinary course of business of the benefit corporation, is effective only if the transaction is approved by at least the minimum status vote. If a transaction described in this subsection is not in the usual and ordinary course of business and is approved, a shareholder of the corporation may require the corporation to purchase at fair market value the shares owned by the shareholder as provided in 35-14-1302.

35-1-1409. Officers — duty — limits. (1) Each officer of a benefit corporation shall consider the interests and factors described in 35-1-1406 in the manner provided in 35-1-1406 whenever the officer:

(a) has discretion to act with respect to a matter; and

(b) reasonably believes that the matter may have a material effect on:

(i) the creation of general public benefit or a specific public benefit by the benefit corporation; or

(ii) any of the interests or factors referred to in 35-1-1406(2).

(2) The consideration by an officer of interests and factors in the manner described in subsection (1) does not constitute a violation of the duties of the officer.

(3) An officer is not liable for monetary damages under this part for:

(a) any action taken as an officer if the officer performed the duties of the position in compliance with this section; or

(b) any failure of the benefit corporation to create general public benefit or a specific public benefit.

(4) An officer does not have a fiduciary duty to a person who is a beneficiary of the general public benefit purpose or a specific public benefit purpose of a benefit corporation arising from the status of the person as a beneficiary.

35-1-1410. Report. (1) Each year, the board of directors of a benefit corporation shall have prepared and delivered to each shareholder an annual benefit report that must include:

(a) a narrative description of:

(i) the process used and rationale for selecting the third-party standard used to prepare the benefit report;

(ii) the ways in which the benefit corporation pursued general public benefit during the applicable year and the extent to which general public benefit was created;

(iii) the ways in which the benefit corporation pursued any specific public benefit that the articles of incorporation state it is the purpose of the benefit corporation to create and the extent to which the specific public benefit was created; and

(iv) any circumstances that may have hindered the creation by the benefit corporation of general public benefit or any specific public benefit;

(b) an assessment of the overall social and environmental performance of the benefit corporation prepared in accordance with a third-party standard applied consistently with any application of that standard in prior benefit reports or accompanied by an explanation of the reasons for any inconsistent application;

(c) a statement indicating whether the benefit corporation failed to pursue its general public benefit purpose or any specific public benefit purpose in all material respects during the period covered by the report;

(d) the same statement required by 35-1-1411 to be printed on ownership certificates; and

(e) a statement of any connection between the entity that established the third-party standard or the entity's directors, officers, or material owners and the benefit corporation or the benefit corporation's directors, officers, and material owners, including any financial or governance relationship that might materially affect the credibility of the objective assessment reached by using the third-party standard.

(2) If the statement required under subsection (1)(c) indicates that the benefit corporation failed to pursue its general public benefit purpose or any specific public benefit purpose, the annual benefit report must include a description of the ways in which the benefit corporation failed to pursue the general public benefit purpose or specific public benefit purpose.

(3) The report must be provided to each shareholder within 120 days following the end of each fiscal year of the benefit corporation or at the same time that the benefit corporation delivers any other annual report to its shareholders. The report may be provided electronically or by other means.

(4) (a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (4)(c), a benefit corporation shall post all of its benefit reports on the public portion of its internet website, if any.

(b) If a benefit corporation does not have an internet website, the benefit corporation shall provide, without charge, a copy of its most recent benefit report to any person who requests a copy.

(c) The benefit corporation may omit the compensation paid to directors or any proprietary or financial information from the copy of a benefit report posted pursuant to subsection (4)(a) or provided pursuant to subsection (4)(b).

35-1-1411. Ownership certificates. In addition to all other legal requirements, each certificate representing shares of a benefit corporation must have conspicuously printed on the face of the certificate: "This entity is a benefit corporation organized under 35-1-1401 through 35-1-1412 of the Montana Code Annotated."

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 306, L. 2015.

35-1-1412. Enforcement. (1) A person may bring an action or assert a claim against a benefit corporation or its directors or officers only through a benefit enforcement proceeding under this section.

(2) A benefit enforcement proceeding may be commenced or maintained:

(a) directly by the benefit corporation; or

(b) derivatively by:

(i) a shareholder;

(ii) a director;

(iii) a person or group of persons that owns beneficially or of record 5% or more of the equity interests in an entity of which the benefit corporation is a subsidiary; or

(iv) any other person who may be specified in the articles of incorporation of the benefit corporation.

(3) A benefit corporation is not liable for monetary damages for any failure of the benefit corporation to create general public benefit or a specific public benefit.

(4) If the court in a benefit enforcement proceeding finds that a failure to comply with this part was without justification, the court may award an amount sufficient to reimburse the plaintiff for the reasonable expenses incurred by the plaintiff, including attorney fees and expenses, in connection with the benefit enforcement proceeding.

(1) "Approved by the members" means approved and ratified by the affirmative vote:

(a) of a majority of the votes represented and voting:

(i) at a meeting at which a quorum is present and the affirmative votes constitute a majority of the required quorum;

(ii) by a written ballot or written consent in conformity with this chapter; or

(iii) by the affirmative vote, written ballot, or written consent of the majority; and

(b) that includes the votes of all the members of any class, unit, or grouping that may be required by the articles, bylaws, or this chapter for any specified member action.

(2) "Articles of incorporation" or "articles" include amended and restated articles of incorporation and articles of merger.

(3) "Authenticated electronic identification" includes any e-mail address or other electronic identification designated by a user, including a corporation, for electronic communications.

(4) "Board" or "board of directors" means the board of directors except that a person or group of persons is not the board of directors because of powers delegated to that person or group pursuant to 35-2-414.

(5) "Bylaws" means the code, codes, or rules, other than the articles, adopted pursuant to this chapter for the regulation or management of the affairs of the corporation, regardless of the name or names by which the code, codes, or rules are designated.

(6) "Class" refers to a group of memberships that have the same rights with respect to voting, dissolution, redemption, and transfer. For the purpose of this section, rights must be considered the same if they are determined by a formula applied uniformly.

(7) "Corporation" means a public benefit corporation, mutual benefit corporation, or religious corporation.

(8) "Delegates" means those persons elected or appointed to vote in a representative assembly for the election of a director or directors or on other matters.

(9) "Deliver" or "delivery" means any method of delivery used in conventional commercial practice, including delivery by hand, mail, commercial delivery, and electronic transmission, except that delivery to the secretary of state means actual receipt in a manner authorized by the secretary of state.

(10) "Directors" means individuals:

(a) designated in the articles or bylaws or elected by the incorporators and their successors; and

(b) elected or appointed by any other name or title to act as members of the board.

(11) "Distribution" means the payment of a dividend or any part of the income or profit of a corporation to its members, directors, or officers.

(12) "Domestic corporation" means a corporation.

(13) "Effective date of notice" has the meaning provided in 35-2-115(5).

(14) "Electronic" means relating to technology having electrical, digital, magnetic, wireless, optical, electromagnetic, or similar capabilities.

(15) "Employee" does not include an officer or director who is not otherwise employed by the corporation.

(16) "Entity" includes:

(a) a corporation and foreign corporation;

(b) a business corporation and foreign business corporation;

(c) a profit and nonprofit unincorporated association;

(d) a corporation sole;

(e) a business trust, an estate, a partnership, a trust, and two or more persons having a joint or common economic interest; and

(f) a state, the United States, and a foreign government.

(17) "External communications" includes any communication with the secretary of state, the attorney general, a state, or the United States.

(18) "File", "filed", or "filing" means filed in the office of the secretary of state.

(19) "Foreign corporation" means a corporation that is organized under a law other than the law of this state, including the laws of a federally recognized Indian tribe, and that would be a nonprofit corporation if formed under the laws of this state.

(20) "Governmental subdivision" includes an authority, county, district, and municipality.

(21) "Includes" denotes a partial definition.

(22) "Individual" includes the estate of an incompetent individual.

(23) "Internal communications" includes any notice, vote, written consent, written ballot, demand, record, member list, corporate record, or any other communication between members, directors, delegates, proxies, third persons under 35-2-232, or the corporate secretary.

(24) "Means" denotes a complete definition.

(25) (a) "Member" means, without regard to what a person is called in the articles or bylaws, a person or persons who, on more than one occasion and pursuant to a provision of a corporation's articles or bylaws, have the right to vote for the election of a director or directors.

(b) A person is not a member by virtue of any of the following:

(i) any rights the person has as a delegate;

(ii) any rights the person has to designate a director or directors; or

(iii) any rights the person has as a director.

(26) "Membership" refers to the rights and obligations a member or members have pursuant to a corporation's articles, bylaws, and this chapter.

(27) "Mutual benefit corporation" means a domestic corporation designated as a mutual benefit corporation.

(28) "Notice" means that term as described in 35-2-115.

(29) "Person" includes any individual or entity.

(30) "Principal office" means the office, in the state or out of the state, that is designated in the annual report filed pursuant to 35-2-904 as the place where the principal office of a domestic or foreign corporation is located.

(31) "Present" or "presence" includes any form of electronic, virtual, or digital presence authorized by a corporation's articles or bylaws.

(32) "Proceeding" includes a civil suit and a criminal, administrative, and investigatory action.

(33) "Public benefit corporation" means a domestic corporation designated as a public benefit corporation.

(34) "Record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

(35) "Record date" means the date established under part 5 on which a corporation determines the identity of its members for the purposes of this chapter.

(37) "Remote communication" includes communication made by conference telephone call, internet, electronic, remote technology, or similar communication through which all participants in the meeting have the opportunity to read or hear the proceedings substantially concurrently with their occurrence, vote on matters submitted to the members, pose questions, and make comments.

(38) "Secretary" means the corporate officer to whom the board of directors has delegated responsibility under 35-2-439(2) for custody of the minutes of the directors' and members' meetings and for authenticating the records of the corporation.

(39) "Sign" or "signed" means, with present intent to authenticate or adopt a record:

(a) to execute or adopt a tangible symbol; or

(b) to attach to or logically associate with the record an electronic sound, symbol, or process.

(40) "State", when referring to a part of the United States, includes:

(a) a state and commonwealth and their agencies and governmental subdivisions; and

(b) a territory and insular possession, their agencies, and governmental subdivisions of the United States.

(41) "United States" includes a district, an authority, a bureau, a commission, a department, and any other agency of the United States.

(42) "Vote" or "voting" includes but is not limited to the giving of consent in the form of a record provided electronically or by written ballot and written consent.

(43) (a) "Voting power" means the total number of votes entitled to be cast for the election of directors at the time the determination of voting power is made.

(b) The term excludes a vote that is contingent upon the happening of a condition or event that has not occurred at the time.

(c) When a class is entitled to vote as a class for directors, the determination of voting power of the class must be based on the percentage of the number of directors the class is entitled to elect out of the total number of authorized directors.

(44) "Written" or "in writing" means:

(a) with respect to internal communications, any record in tangible or electronic form or any form allowed under Title 30, chapter 18, part 1; and

(b) with respect to external communications, tangible records or any form authorized by the external party.

35-2-115. Notice. (1) Notice under this chapter must be in writing unless oral notice is reasonable under the circumstances.

(2) (a) Notice may be communicated in person, by telephone, telegraph, teletype, facsimile, or other form of electronic, wire, or wireless communication, or by mail or private carrier.

(b) If these forms of personal notice are impracticable, notice may be communicated by a newspaper of general circulation in the area where it is published or by radio, television, or other form of public broadcast communication.

(3) Written notice by a domestic or foreign corporation to its members, if in a comprehensible form, is effective when delivered or mailed if it is mailed postpaid and correctly addressed to the member's address shown in the corporation's current record of members.

(4) Written notice to a domestic or foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may be addressed to:

(a) its registered agent; or

(b) the corporation or its secretary at its principal office shown in its most recent annual report or, in the case of a foreign corporation that has not yet delivered an annual report, in its application for a certificate of authority.

(5) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4), written notice, if in a comprehensible form, is effective at the earliest of the following:

(a) when received;

(b) 5 days after its deposit in the United States mail, as evidenced by the postmark, if it is mailed postpaid and with correct postage; or

(c) on the date shown on the return receipt, if it is sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, and the receipt is signed by or on behalf of the addressee.

(6) Oral notice is effective when communicated if it is communicated in a comprehensible manner.

(7) If this chapter prescribes notice requirements for particular circumstances, those requirements govern. If the articles of incorporation or bylaws prescribe notice requirements that are consistent with this section or other provisions of this chapter, those requirements govern.

35-2-116. Reservation of power to amend or repeal. The legislature has power to amend or repeal all or part of this chapter at any time, and all domestic and foreign corporations subject to this chapter are governed by the amendment or repeal.

35-2-117. Purposes. (1) A corporation incorporated under this chapter has the purpose of engaging in any lawful activity unless a more limited purpose is set forth in the articles of incorporation.

(2) A corporation engaging in an activity that is subject to regulation under another statute of this state may incorporate under this chapter only if the incorporation under this chapter is not prohibited by the other statute. The corporation is subject to all limitations of the other statute.

35-2-118. General powers. (1) Unless its articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a corporation has perpetual duration and succession in its corporate name and has the same powers as an individual to do all things necessary or convenient to carry out its affairs including, without limitation, power:

(a) to sue and be sued, complain, and defend in its corporate name;

(b) to have a corporate seal, which may be altered at will, and to use it or a facsimile of the seal by impressing, affixing, or in any other manner reproducing it;

(c) to make and amend bylaws, consistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state, for regulating and managing the affairs of the corporation;

(d) to purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire and to own, hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal with real or personal property or any legal or equitable interest in property, wherever located;

(e) to sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property;

(f) to purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire any other entity; to own, hold, vote, use, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of any other entity; and to deal in and with shares or other interests in or obligations of any other entity;

(g) to make contracts and guaranties; to incur liabilities; to borrow money; to issue notes, bonds, and other obligations; and to secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of any of its property, franchises, or income;

(h) to lend money, invest and reinvest its funds, and receive and hold real and personal property as security for repayment, except as limited by 35-2-435;

(i) to be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, joint venture, trust, or other entity;

(j) to conduct its activities, locate offices, and exercise the powers granted by this chapter in the state or out of the state;

(k) to elect or appoint directors, officers, employees, and agents of the corporation; to define their duties; and to fix their compensation;

(l) to pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, and other benefit and incentive plans for any or all of its current or former directors, officers, employees, and agents;

(m) to make donations consistent with law for the public welfare or for charitable, religious, scientific, or educational purposes and for other purposes that further the corporate interest;

(n) to impose dues, assessments, admission, and transfer fees upon its members;

(o) to establish conditions for admission of members, admit members, and issue memberships;

(p) to carry on a business;

(q) to serve as trustee of any trust in which it is expressly designated under the terms of the trust as having a present or future beneficial interest, vested or contingent; or

(r) to do all things necessary or convenient consistent with law to further the activities and affairs of the corporation.

(2) A corporation may not have or issue shares of stock.

History: En. Sec. 29, Ch. 411, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 145, Ch. 264, L. 2013.

35-2-119. Filing requirements. All of the following requirements must be met before a document may be filed under this section by the secretary of state:

(1) A document that is required or permitted by this chapter to be filed in the office of the secretary of state must satisfy the requirements of this section and of any other section that adds to or varies these requirements.

(2) The document must contain the information required by this chapter. The document may contain other information as well.

(3) The document must be typewritten or printed unless an electronic form is allowed by the secretary of state.

(4) The document must be in the English language. However, a corporate name does not need to be in English if it is written in English letters or Arabic or Roman numerals.

(5) (a) Except as provided in subsection (5)(b), the document must be executed:

(i) by the presiding officer of the corporation's board of directors, its president, or another of its officers;

(ii) if directors have not been selected or the corporation has not been formed, by an incorporator; or

(iii) if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver, trustee, or other court-appointed fiduciary, by that fiduciary.

(b) (i) A corporation's annual report may be executed as provided in subsection (5)(a) or by the corporation's authorized agent.

(ii) For the purposes of this subsection (5)(b), "authorized agent" means any individual granted permission by an entity to execute a document on behalf of the entity. The entity is responsible for maintaining a record of the permission granted to an authorized agent.

(6) The person executing the document shall sign the document and state beneath or opposite the signature the person's name and the capacity in which the person signs. The document may but does not need to contain the corporate seal, an attestation by the secretary or an assistant secretary, or an acknowledgment, verification, or proof.

(7) The document must be in or on the prescribed form if the secretary of state has prescribed a mandatory form for a document under 35-2-1108.

(8) Except as provided in 33-3-601, the document must be delivered to the office of the secretary of state for filing and must be accompanied by:

(a) the correct filing fee; and

(b) any franchise tax, license fee, or penalty required by this chapter, rules promulgated under this chapter, or other law.

35-2-120. Facsimile filing. (1) The secretary of state shall treat a facsimile copy of a document that is required or permitted to be filed under 35-2-119, 35-2-121 through 35-2-123, 35-2-1003, 35-2-1108 through 35-2-1112, and this section and the signatures on the facsimile copy in the same manner as an original for purposes of 35-2-119, 35-2-121 through 35-2-123, 35-2-1003, 35-2-1108 through 35-2-1112, and this section. If all other requirements are met, the date of filing relates back to the date of receipt of the facsimile copy.

(2) A person who files a false document by facsimile copy is liable to an aggrieved party for three times the amount of damages resulting from the filing of the false document.

35-2-121. Effective date of document. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a document is effective:

(a) at the time of filing on the date it is filed, as evidenced by the secretary of state's endorsement on the original document; or

(b) at the time specified in the document as its effective time on the date it is filed.

(2) A document may specify a delayed effective time and date, and if it does so the document becomes effective at the time and date specified. If a delayed effective date but no time is specified, the document is effective at the close of business on that date. A delayed effective date for a document may not be later than 90 days after the date it is filed.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-122. Correcting filed document. (1) A domestic or foreign corporation may correct a document filed by the secretary of state if the document:

(a) contains an incorrect statement; or

(b) was defectively executed, attested, sealed, verified, or acknowledged.

(2) A document is corrected:

(a) by preparing articles of correction that:

(i) describe the document, including its filing date, or have attached a copy of the document;

(ii) specify the incorrect statement and the reason it is incorrect or the manner in which the execution was defective; and

(iii) correct the incorrect statement or defective execution; and

(b) by delivering the articles of correction to the secretary of state.

(3) Articles of correction are effective on the effective date of the document they correct except as to persons relying on the uncorrected document and adversely affected by the correction. As to those persons, articles of correction are effective when filed.

35-2-123. Penalty for signing false documents. (1) The execution of any document that must be filed with the secretary of state under 35-2-119 through 35-2-122, 35-2-1003, 35-2-1108 through 35-2-1112, and this section constitutes an affirmation, under the penalties of false swearing, by each person executing the document that the facts stated in the document are true.

(2) The secretary of state shall provide for the printing of a warning to this effect on each form prescribed by the secretary of state under this chapter.

35-2-126. Designation of status of nonprofit corporations. (1) A domestic corporation must be designated as either a public benefit, mutual benefit, or religious corporation. The specific designation of a corporation is as follows:

(a) A corporation designated by its articles of incorporation as a public benefit corporation, a mutual benefit corporation, or a religious corporation is the type of corporation designated by its articles of incorporation.

(b) A corporation that is not designated by its articles of incorporation as a public benefit corporation, a mutual benefit corporation, or religious corporation is the type of corporation designated in the annual report filed in 1995.

(2) A foreign corporation must be designated as either a foreign public benefit, foreign mutual benefit, or foreign religious corporation. The specific designation of a corporation is as follows:

(a) A foreign corporation designated by its articles of incorporation as a public benefit corporation, mutual benefit corporation, or religious corporation is the type of foreign corporation designated by its articles of incorporation.

(b) A foreign corporation not designated as provided in subsection (2)(a), but designated in its application for a certificate of authority, or any amendments of the application, as a public benefit corporation, mutual benefit corporation, or religious corporation is the type of foreign corporation it designated in its application for a certificate of authority.

(c) A foreign corporation not designated as provided in subsection (2)(a) or (2)(b) is the type of corporation it designated in the annual report filed in 1995.

35-2-127. Private foundations. (1) Except as otherwise determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, a corporation that is a private foundation as defined in section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986:

(a) shall distribute amounts for each taxable year at a time and in a manner as not to subject the corporation to tax under section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(b) may not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(c) may not retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(d) may not make any taxable investments or expenditures as provided in sections 4944 and 4945 of the Internal Revenue Code; and

(e) may not make any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) All references in this section to sections of the Internal Revenue Code are to sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or to corresponding provisions of subsequent internal revenue laws of the United States.

35-2-130. Judicial relief. (1) If for any reason it is impractical or impossible for a corporation to call or conduct a meeting of its members, delegates, or directors or to otherwise obtain their consent, in the manner prescribed by its articles, bylaws, or this chapter, then upon petition of a director, officer, delegate, member, or the attorney general, the state district court for the judicial district in which the principal office is located or, if the principal office is not located in this state, in Lewis and Clark County may order that a meeting be called or that a written ballot or other form of obtaining the vote of members, delegates, or directors be authorized, in the manner the court finds fair and equitable under the circumstances.

(2) In an order issued pursuant to this section, the court shall provide for a method of notice reasonably designed to give actual notice to all persons who would be entitled to notice of a meeting held pursuant to the articles, bylaws, and this chapter, whether or not the method results in actual notice to all persons entitled to notice or conforms to the notice requirements that would otherwise apply. In a proceeding under this section, the court may determine who the members or directors are.

(3) The order issued pursuant to this section may dispense with any requirement relating to the holding of or voting at meetings or obtaining votes, including any requirement as to quorums or as to the number or percentage of votes needed for approval, that would otherwise be imposed by the articles, bylaws, or this chapter.

(4) Whenever practical, an order issued pursuant to this section must limit the subject matter of meetings or other forms of consent authorized to approve items, including amendments to the articles or bylaws, the resolution of which will or may enable the corporation to continue managing its affairs without further resort to this section. However, an order under this section may also authorize the obtaining of votes and approvals necessary for dissolution, merger, or sale of assets.

(5) A meeting or other method of obtaining the vote of members, delegates, or directors that is conducted pursuant to an order issued under this section and that complies with all the provisions of the order is for all purposes a valid meeting or vote, and has the same force and effect as if it complied with every requirement imposed by the articles, bylaws, and this chapter.

35-2-131. Attorney general. (1) Notice must be given to the attorney general of the commencement of any proceeding that this chapter authorizes the attorney general to bring but that has been commenced by another person.

(2) Whenever a provision of this chapter requires that notice be given to the attorney general before or after commencing a proceeding or permits the attorney general to commence a proceeding if no proceeding has been commenced, the attorney general may take appropriate action including but not limited to seeking injunctive relief. If a proceeding has been commenced by a person other than the attorney general, the attorney general may intervene, as of right, in the proceeding.

35-2-132. Ultra vires. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), the validity of corporate action may not be challenged on the ground that the corporation lacks or lacked power to act.

(2) A corporation's power to act may be challenged in a proceeding against the corporation to enjoin an act when a third party has not acquired rights. The proceeding may be brought by the attorney general, by a director, or by a member or members in a derivative proceeding.

(3) (a) A corporation's power to act may be challenged in a proceeding against an incumbent or former director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation.

(b) The proceeding may be brought:

(i) by a director;

(ii) by the corporation, directly, derivatively, or through a receiver, a trustee, or other legal representative; or

(iii) in the case of a public benefit corporation, by the attorney general.

35-2-213. Articles of incorporation. (1) The articles of incorporation must set forth:
(a) a corporate name for the corporation that satisfies the requirements of 35-2-305;
(b) a statement that:
(i) the corporation is a public benefit corporation;
(ii) the corporation is a mutual benefit corporation; or
(iii) the corporation is a religious corporation;
(c) the information required by 35-7-105(1);

(d) the name and business mailing address of each incorporator;
(e) whether or not the corporation will have members; and
(f) provisions consistent with law regarding the distribution of assets on dissolution.

(2) The articles of incorporation may set forth:

(a) the purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized, which may be, either alone or in combination with other purposes, the transaction of any lawful activity;

(b) the names and business mailing addresses of the individuals who are to serve as the initial directors;

(c) provisions consistent with law regarding:

(i) managing and regulating the affairs of the corporation;

(ii) defining, limiting, and regulating the powers of the corporation, its board of directors, its members, or any class of members; and

(iii) the characteristics, qualifications, rights, limitations, and obligations attaching to each or any class of members;

(d) any provision that under this chapter is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws; and

(e) provisions eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or members of the corporation for monetary damages for breach of a director's duties to the corporation and its members, provided that the provision may not eliminate or limit the liability of a director:

(i) for a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its members;

(ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

(iii) for a transaction from which a director derived an improper personal economic benefit; or

(iv) under 35-2-418, 35-2-435, or 35-2-436.

(3) A provision referred to in subsection (2)(e) may not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any act or omission occurring prior to the date when the provision becomes effective.

(4) Each incorporator and director named in the articles shall sign the articles.

(5) The articles of incorporation need not set forth any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter.

35-2-216. Organization of corporation. (1) After incorporation:

(a) if initial directors are named in the articles of incorporation, the initial directors shall hold an organizational meeting, at the call of a majority of the directors, to complete the organization of the corporation by appointing officers, adopting bylaws, and carrying on any other business brought before the meeting; or

(b) if initial directors are not named in the articles, the incorporator or incorporators shall hold an organizational meeting at the call of a majority of the incorporators:

(i) to elect directors and complete the organization of the corporation; or

(ii) to elect a board of directors who shall complete the organization of the corporation.

(2) Action required or permitted by this chapter to be taken by incorporators at an organizational meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action taken is evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken and signed by each incorporator.

(3) An organizational meeting may be held in the state or out of the state in accordance with 35-2-427.

(2) The bylaws may contain any provision for regulating and managing the affairs of the corporation consistent with law or the articles of incorporation.

35-2-218. Emergency bylaws and powers. (1) Unless the articles provide otherwise, the directors of a corporation may adopt, amend, or repeal bylaws to be effective only in an emergency as defined in subsection (4). The emergency bylaws, which are subject to amendment or repeal by the members, may provide special procedures necessary for managing the corporation during the emergency, including:

(a) how to call a meeting of the board;

(b) quorum requirements for the meeting; and

(c) designation of additional or substitute directors.

(2) All provisions of the regular bylaws consistent with the emergency bylaws remain in effect during the emergency. The emergency bylaws are not in effect after the emergency ends.

(3) Corporate action taken in good faith in accordance with the emergency bylaws:

(a) binds the corporation; and

(b) may not be used to impose liability on a corporate director, officer, employee, or agent.

(4) For purposes of this section, an emergency exists if a quorum of the corporation's directors cannot readily be assembled because of some catastrophic event.

35-2-219 and 35-2-220 reserved.

35-2-221. Authority to amend. A corporation may amend its articles of incorporation at any time to add or change a provision that is required or permitted in the articles or to delete a provision not required in the articles. Whether a provision is required or permitted in the articles is determined as of the effective date of the amendment.

35-2-222. Amendment by directors. (1) Unless the articles provide otherwise, a corporation's board of directors may adopt one or more amendments to the corporation's articles without member approval:

(a) to extend the duration of the corporation if it was incorporated at a time when limited duration was required by law;

(b) to delete the names and addresses of the initial directors;

(c) to change the information required by 35-7-105(1);

(d) to change the corporate name by substituting the word "corporation", "incorporated", "company", "limited", or the abbreviation "corp.", "inc.", "co.", or "ltd." for a similar word or abbreviation in the name or by adding, deleting, or changing a geographical attribution to the name; or

(e) to make any other change expressly permitted by this chapter to be made by action of the board of directors.

(2) If a corporation has no members, its incorporators, until directors have been chosen, and later its board of directors may adopt one or more amendments to the corporation's articles subject to any approval required pursuant to 35-2-232. The corporation shall provide notice of any meeting at which an amendment is to be voted upon. The notice must be in accordance with 35-2-429(3). The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider a proposed amendment to the articles and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment or state the general nature of the amendment. The amendment must be approved by a majority of the directors in office at the time the amendment is adopted.

35-2-223. Amendment by directors and members. (1) Unless this chapter, the articles, the bylaws, the members acting pursuant to subsection (2), or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (3) require a greater vote or voting by class to be adopted, an amendment to a corporation's articles must be approved:

(a) by the board if the corporation is a public benefit corporation or religious corporation and the amendment does not relate to the number of directors, the composition of the board, the term of office of directors, or the method or way in which directors are elected or selected;

(b) except as provided in 35-2-222(1), by the members by two-thirds of the votes cast or a majority of the voting power, whichever is less; and

(c) in writing by any person or persons whose approval is required by a provision of the articles, as authorized by 35-2-232.

(2) The members may condition the amendment's adoption on receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or on any other basis.

(3) If the board initiates an amendment to the articles or if board approval is required by subsection (1)(a) to adopt an amendment to the articles, the board may condition the amendment's adoption on receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or any other basis.

(4) If the board or the members seek to have the amendment approved by the members at a membership meeting, the corporation shall give notice to its members of the proposed membership meeting in writing in accordance with 35-2-530. The notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the proposed amendment and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment.

(5) If the board or the members seek to have the amendment approved by the members by written consent or written ballot, the material soliciting the approval must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment.

35-2-224. Class voting by members on amendments. (1) The members of a class in a public benefit corporation are entitled to vote as a class on a proposed amendment to the articles if the amendment would change the rights of that class as to voting in a manner different from the manner in which the amendment affects another class or members of another class.

(2) The members of a class in a mutual benefit corporation are entitled to vote as a class on a proposed amendment to the articles if the amendment would:

(a) affect the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, or conditions of that class as to voting, dissolution, redemption, or transfer of memberships in a manner different from the manner in which the amendment would affect another class;

(b) change the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, or conditions of that class as to voting, dissolution, redemption, or transfer by changing the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, or conditions of another class;

(c) increase or decrease the number of memberships authorized for that class;

(d) increase the number of memberships authorized for another class;

(e) cause an exchange, reclassification, or termination of the memberships of that class; or

(f) authorize a new class of memberships.

(3) The members of a class of a religious corporation are entitled to vote as a class on a proposed amendment to the articles only if a class vote is provided for in the articles or bylaws.

(4) If a class is to be divided into two or more classes as a result of an amendment to the articles of a public benefit corporation or mutual benefit corporation, the amendment must be approved by the members of each class that would be created by the amendment.

(5) Except as provided in the articles or bylaws of a religious corporation, if a class vote is required to approve an amendment to the articles of a corporation, the amendment must be approved by the members of the class by two-thirds of the votes cast by the class or a majority of the voting power of the class, whichever is less.

(6) A class of members of a public benefit corporation or mutual benefit corporation is entitled to the voting rights granted by this section although the articles and bylaws provide that the class may not vote on the proposed amendment.

35-2-225. Articles of amendment. A corporation that amends its articles shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of amendment setting forth:

(1) the name of the corporation;

(2) the text of each amendment adopted;

(3) the date of each amendment's adoption;

(4) if approval of members was not required, a statement to that effect and a statement that the amendment was approved by a sufficient vote of the board of directors or incorporators;

(5) if approval by members was required:

(a) the designation, number of memberships outstanding, number of votes entitled to be cast by each class entitled to vote separately on the amendment, and number of votes of each class indisputably voting on the amendment; and

(b) (i) either the total number of votes cast for and against the amendment by each class entitled to vote separately on the amendment or the total number of undisputed votes cast for the amendment by each class; and

(ii) a statement that the number cast for the amendment by each class was sufficient for approval by that class; and

(6) if approval of the amendment by some person or persons other than the members, the board, or the incorporators is required pursuant to 35-2-232, a statement that the approval was obtained.

35-2-226. Restated articles of incorporation. (1) A corporation's board of directors may restate its articles of incorporation at any time, with or without approval by members or any other person.

(2) The restatement may include one or more amendments to the articles. If the restatement includes an amendment requiring approval by the members or any other person, it must be adopted as provided in 35-2-223.

(3) If the restatement includes an amendment requiring approval by members, the board shall submit the restatement to the members for their approval.

(4) If the board seeks to have the restatement approved by the members at a membership meeting, the corporation shall notify each of its members of the proposed membership meeting in writing in accordance with 35-2-530. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the proposed restatement and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the restatement that identifies any amendments or other change that the restatement would make in the articles.

(5) If the board seeks to have the restatement approved by the members by written ballot or written consent, the material soliciting the approval must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the restatement that identifies any amendments or other change it would make in the articles.

(6) A restatement requiring approval by the members must be approved by the same vote as an amendment to articles under 35-2-223.

(7) If the restatement includes an amendment that requires approval pursuant to 35-2-232, the board shall submit the restatement for this approval.

(8) A corporation that restates its articles shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of restatement setting forth the name of the corporation and the text of the restated articles of incorporation, together with a certificate setting forth a statement of whether the restated articles were approved by the board, the members, or any other person and:

(a) if the restatement contains an amendment to the articles requiring approval by the members, the information required by 35-2-225;

(b) if the restatement contains an amendment to the articles requiring approval by a person whose approval is required pursuant to 35-2-232, a statement that the approval was obtained; and

(c) if the restatement has an amendment that does not require member approval, a statement as to who approved the amendment, whether approval was made by the board or any other person.

(9) Adopted restated articles of incorporation supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments to them.

(10) The secretary of state may certify restated articles of incorporation as the articles of incorporation currently in effect without including the certificate information required by subsection (8).

35-2-227. Amendment pursuant to judicial reorganization. (1) A corporation's articles may be amended without board approval, approval by the members, or approval required pursuant to 35-2-232 if necessary to carry out a plan of reorganization ordered or decreed by a court of competent jurisdiction under federal statute if the articles, after amendment, contain only provisions required or permitted by 35-2-213.

(2) The individual or individuals designated by the court shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of amendment setting forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the text of each amendment approved by the court;

(c) the date of the court's order or decree approving the articles of amendment;

(d) the title of the reorganization proceeding in which the order or decree was entered; and

(e) a statement that the court had jurisdiction of the proceeding under federal statute.

(3) This section does not apply after entry of a final decree in the reorganization proceeding even though the court retains jurisdiction of the proceeding for limited purposes unrelated to consummation of the reorganization plan.

35-2-228. Effect of amendment and restatement. An amendment to articles of incorporation does not affect a cause of action existing against or in favor of the corporation, a proceeding to which the corporation is a party, any requirement or limitation imposed upon the corporation, or any property held by it by virtue of any trust upon which the property is held by the corporation, or the existing rights of persons other than members of the corporation. An amendment changing a corporation's name does not abate a proceeding brought by or against the corporation in its former name.

35-2-229. Amendment by directors. If a corporation does not have members, its incorporators, until directors have been chosen, and later its board of directors may adopt one or more amendments to the corporation's bylaws subject to any approval required pursuant to 35-2-232. The corporation shall provide notice of any meeting of directors at which an amendment is to be approved. The notice must be in accordance with 35-2-429(3). The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider a proposed amendment to the bylaws and contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment or state the general nature of the amendment. The amendment must be approved by a majority of the directors in office at the time the amendment is adopted.

35-2-230. Amendment by directors and members. (1) Unless this chapter, the articles, the bylaws, the members acting pursuant to subsection (2), or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (3) require a greater vote or voting by class to be adopted, an amendment to a corporation's bylaws must be approved:

(a) by the board if the corporation is a public benefit corporation or religious corporation and the amendment does not relate to the number of directors, the composition of the board, the term of office of directors, or the method or way in which directors are elected or selected;

(b) by the members by two-thirds of the votes cast or a majority of the voting power, whichever is less; or

(c) in writing by any person or persons whose approval is required by a provision of the articles, as authorized by 35-2-232.

(2) The members may condition the amendment's adoption on its receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or on any other basis.

(3) If the board initiates an amendment to the bylaws or if board approval is required by subsection (1)(a) to adopt an amendment to the bylaws, the board may condition the amendment's adoption on receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or on any other basis.

(4) If the board or the members seek to have the amendment approved by the members at a membership meeting, the corporation shall give notice to its members of the proposed membership meeting in writing in accordance with 35-2-530. The notice must also state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the proposed amendment and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment.

(5) If the board or the members seek to have the amendment approved by the members by written consent or written ballot, the material soliciting the approval must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment.

35-2-231. Class voting by members on amendments. (1) The members of a class in a public benefit corporation are entitled to vote as a class on a proposed amendment to the bylaws if the amendment would change the rights of that class as to voting in a manner different from the manner in which the amendment would affect another class or members of another class.

(2) Members of a class in a mutual benefit corporation are entitled to vote as a class on a proposed amendment to the bylaws if the amendment would:

(a) affect the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, or conditions of that class as to voting, dissolution, redemption, or transfer of memberships in a manner different from the manner in which the amendment would affect another class;

(b) change the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, or conditions of that class as to voting, dissolution, redemption, or transfer by changing the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, or conditions of another class;

(c) increase or decrease the number of memberships authorized for that class;

(d) increase the number of memberships authorized for another class;

(e) cause an exchange, reclassification, or termination of all or part of the memberships of that class; or

(f) authorize a new class of memberships.

(3) The members of a class of a religious corporation are entitled to vote as a class on a proposed amendment to the bylaws only if a class vote is provided for in the articles or bylaws.

(4) If a class is to be divided into two or more classes as a result of an amendment to the bylaws, the amendment must be approved by the members of each class that would be created by the amendment.

(5) If a class vote is required to approve an amendment to the bylaws, the amendment must be approved by the members of the class by two-thirds of the votes cast by the class or a majority of the voting power of the class, whichever is less.

(6) A class of members is entitled to the voting rights granted by this section although the articles and bylaws provide that the class may not vote on the proposed amendment.

History: En. Sec. 120, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-232. Approval by third persons. The articles may require an amendment to the articles or bylaws to be approved in writing by a specified person or persons other than the board. Such an article provision may only be amended with the approval in writing of the person or persons.

35-2-233. Amendment terminating members or redeeming or canceling memberships. (1) Any amendment to the articles or bylaws of a public benefit corporation or mutual benefit corporation that would terminate all members or any class of members or redeem or cancel all memberships or any class of memberships must meet the requirements of this chapter.

(2) Before adopting a resolution proposing an amendment described in subsection (1), the board of a mutual benefit corporation shall give notice of the general nature of the amendment to the members.

(3) After adopting a resolution proposing an amendment described in subsection (1), the notice to members proposing the amendment must include one statement of up to 500 words opposing the proposed amendment if the statement is submitted by any five members or members having 3% or more of the voting power, whichever is less, not later than 20 days after the board has voted to submit the amendment to the members for their approval. In public benefit corporations, the production, mailing, or electronic transaction costs must be paid by the corporation.

(4) Any amendment under this section must be approved by the members by two-thirds of the votes cast by each class.

(5) The provisions of 35-2-520 do not apply to any amendment that meets the requirements of this chapter.

35-2-305. Corporate name. (1) (a) corporate name may not contain language stating or implying that the corporation is organized for a purpose other than that permitted by 35-2-117 and its articles of incorporation.

(b) A corporate name may not contain business name identifiers, as defined in 30-13-201, or other language that states or implies that the corporation is an entity other than a nonprofit corporation.

(2) Except as authorized by subsections (3) and (4), a corporate name must be distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from:

(a) the corporate name of a nonprofit or business corporation incorporated or authorized to do business in this state;

(b) a corporate name reserved or registered under Title 35, chapter 1, 35-2-306, or 35-2-307;

(c) the fictitious name of a foreign business or nonprofit corporation authorized to transact business in this state because its real name is unavailable;

(d) the corporate name of a domestic business or nonprofit corporation that has been dissolved, but only distinguishable for a period of 120 days after the effective date of the dissolution; or

(e) any assumed business name, limited partnership name, limited liability company name, trademark, or service mark registered or reserved with the secretary of state.

(3) A corporation may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use a name that is not distinguishable in the secretary of state's records from one or more of the names described in subsection (2). The secretary of state shall authorize use of the name applied for if:

(a) the other corporation consents to the use in writing and submits an undertaking in a form satisfactory to the secretary of state to change its name to a name that is distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from the name of the applying corporation; or

(b) the applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use the name applied for in this state.

(4) A corporation may use the name, including the fictitious name, of another domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation that is used in this state if the other corporation is incorporated or authorized to do business in this state and the proposed user corporation:

(a) has merged with the other corporation;

(b) has been formed by reorganization of the other corporation; or

(c) has acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the corporate name, of the other corporation.

(5) This chapter does not control the use of fictitious names.

35-2-306. Reserved name. (1) A person may reserve the exclusive use of a corporate name, including a fictitious name for a foreign corporation whose corporate name is not available, by delivering an application to the secretary of state for filing. Upon finding that the corporate name applied for is available, the secretary of state shall reserve the name for the applicant's exclusive use for a nonrenewable 120-day period.

(2) The owner of a reserved corporate name may transfer the reservation to another person by delivering to the secretary of state a signed notice of the transfer that states the name and address of the transferee.

35-2-307. Registered name of foreign corporation. (1) A foreign corporation may register its corporate name, or its corporate name with any change required by 35-2-826, if the name is distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from:

(a) the corporate name of a nonprofit or business corporation incorporated or authorized to do business in this state; and

(b) a corporate name reserved under Title 35, chapter 1, or 35-2-306 or registered under this section.

(2) A foreign corporation shall register its corporate name, or its corporate name with any change required by 35-2-826, by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, an application setting forth:

(a) its corporate name or its corporate name with any change required by 35-2-826, the state, tribe, or country, the date of its incorporation, and a brief description of the nature of the activities in which it is engaged; and

(b) a statement that the foreign corporation has complied with the organizational laws in the jurisdiction in which it is organized and that the foreign corporation exists in that jurisdiction.

(3) The name is registered for the applicant's exclusive use on the effective date of the application.

(4) A foreign corporation whose registration is effective may renew it for successive years by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, a renewal application that complies with the requirements of subsection (2). The renewal application must be delivered between October 1 and December 31 of the preceding year. The renewal application renews the registration for the following calendar year.

(5) A foreign corporation whose registration is effective may continue to qualify as a foreign corporation under that name or consent in writing to the use of that name by a corporation later incorporated under this chapter or by another foreign corporation later authorized to transact business in this state. The registration terminates when the foreign corporation is incorporated as a domestic corporation or the foreign corporation qualifies or consents to the qualification of another foreign corporation under the registered name.

35-2-414. Requirement for and duties of board. (1) Each corporation must have a board of directors.

(2) Except as provided in this chapter or subsection (3), all corporate powers are exercised by or under the authority of the board, and the affairs of the corporation managed under the direction of its board.

(3) The articles may authorize a person or persons to exercise some or all of the powers that would otherwise be exercised by a board. To the extent authorized, a person authorized under this subsection has the duties and responsibilities of the directors and the directors must be relieved from the duties and responsibilities to that extent.

35-2-415. Qualifications and numbers of directors. (1) All directors must be individuals. The articles or bylaws may prescribe other qualifications for directors.

(2) A board of directors must consist of three or more individuals, with the number specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles or bylaws.

(3) The number of directors may be increased or decreased, but to not fewer than three, from time to time by amendment to or in the manner prescribed in the articles or bylaws.

History: En. Sec. 76, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-416. General standards for directors. (1) A director shall discharge the duties as a director, including the director's duties as a member of a committee:

(a) in good faith;

(b) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a similar position would exercise under similar circumstances; and

(c) in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) In discharging the duties, a director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

(a) one or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(b) attorneys, public accountants, or other persons with regard to matters that the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence;

(c) a committee of the board of which the director is not a member, as to matters within its jurisdiction, if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence; or

(d) in the case of religious corporations, religious authorities, ministers, priests, rabbis, or other persons whose position or duties in the religious organization the director believes justify reliance and confidence and whom the director believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented.

(3) A director is not acting in good faith if the director has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (2) unwarranted.

(4) A director is not liable to the corporation, any member, or any other person for any action taken or not taken as a director if the director acted in compliance with this section.

(5) A director may not be a trustee with respect to the corporation or with respect to any property held or administered by the corporation, including but not limited to property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of the property.

(6) This chapter does not modify any limitation of liability of directors provided by Title 27.

35-2-417. Election, designation and appointment of directors. (1) If the corporation has members, all the directors except the initial directors must be elected at the first annual meeting of members and at each annual meeting thereafter unless the articles or bylaws provide some other time or method of election or provide that some of the directors are appointed by some other person or are designated.

(2) If the corporation does not have members, all the directors except the initial directors must be elected, appointed, or designated as provided in the articles or bylaws. If a method of designation or appointment is not set forth in the articles or bylaws, the directors, other than the initial directors, must be elected by the board.

History: En. Sec. 77, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-418. Director conflict of interest. (1) A conflict of interest transaction is a transaction with the corporation in which a director of the corporation has a direct or indirect interest. A conflict of interest transaction is not voidable or the basis for imposing liability on the director if the transaction was fair at the time it was entered into or is approved as provided in subsection (2) or (3).

(2) A transaction in which a director of a public benefit corporation or religious corporation has a conflict of interest may be approved:

(a) in advance by the vote of the board of directors or a committee of the board if:

(i) the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest are disclosed or known to the board or committee of the board; and

(ii) the directors approving the transaction in good faith reasonably believe that the transaction is fair to the corporation; or

(b) before or after it is consummated by obtaining approval of:

(i) the attorney general; or

(ii) a state district court in an action in which the attorney general is joined as a party.

(3) A transaction in which a director of a mutual benefit corporation has a conflict of interest may be approved if:

(a) the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the board of directors or a committee of the board and the board or committee of the board authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction; or

(b) the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the members and they authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction.

(4) For purposes of this section, a director of the corporation has an indirect interest in a transaction if:

(a) another entity in which the director has a material interest or in which the director is a general partner is a party to the transaction; or

(b) another entity of which the director is a director, officer, or trustee is a party to the transaction.

(5) For purposes of subsections (2) and (3), a conflict of interest transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified, if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors on the board or on the committee who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction. However, a transaction may not be authorized, approved, or ratified under this section by a single director. If a majority of the directors on the board who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve, or ratify the transaction, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of or a vote cast by a director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction does not affect the validity of any action taken under subsection (2)(a) or (3)(a) if the transaction is otherwise approved as provided in subsection (2) or (3).

(6) For purposes of subsection (3)(b), a conflict of interest transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified by the members if it receives a majority of the votes entitled to be counted under this subsection. Votes cast by or voted under the control of a director who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction and votes cast by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (4)(a) may not be counted in a vote of members to determine whether to authorize, approve, or ratify a conflict of interest transaction under subsection (3)(b). The vote of these members, however, is counted in determining whether the transaction is approved under other sections of this chapter. A majority of the voting power, whether or not present, that is entitled to be counted in a vote on the transaction under this subsection constitutes a quorum for the purpose of taking action under this section.

(7) The articles, bylaws, or a resolution of the board may impose additional requirements on conflict of interest transactions.

History: En. Sec. 92, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-419. Terms of directors generally — staggered terms. (1) The articles or bylaws must specify the terms of directors. Except for designated or appointed directors, the terms of directors may not exceed 5 years. In the absence of any term specified in the articles or bylaws, the term of each director is 1 year. Directors may be elected for successive terms.

(2) A decrease in the number of directors or term of office does not shorten an incumbent director's term.

(3) Except as provided in the articles or bylaws:

(a) the term of a director filling a vacancy in the office of a director elected by members expires at the next election of directors by members; and

(b) the term of a director filling any other vacancy expires at the end of the unexpired term that the director is filling.

(4) Despite the expiration of a director's term, the director continues to serve until the director's successor is elected, designated, or appointed and qualifies or until there is a decrease in the number of directors.

(5) The articles or bylaws may provide for staggering the terms of directors by dividing the total number of directors into groups. The terms of office of the groups need not be uniform.

History: En. Sec. 78, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-420. Resignation of directors. (1) A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the board of directors, its presiding officer, the president, or the secretary.

(2) A resignation is effective when the notice is effective unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date, the board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the board provides that the successor does not take office until the effective date.

History: En. Sec. 79, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-421. Removal of directors elected by members or directors. (1) The members may remove one or more directors elected by them without cause.

(2) If a director is elected by a class, chapter, or other organizational unit or by region or other geographic grouping, the director may be removed only by the members of that class, chapter, unit, or grouping.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (9), a director may be removed under subsection (1) or (2) only if the number of votes cast to remove the director would be sufficient to elect the director at a meeting to elect directors.

(4) If cumulative voting is authorized, a director may not be removed:

(a) if the number of votes sufficient to elect the director under cumulative voting is voted against the director's removal; or

(b) if the director was elected by a class, chapter, unit, or grouping of members and the number of votes of that class, chapter, unit, or grouping of members sufficient to elect the director under cumulative voting is voted against the director's removal.

(5) A director elected by members may be removed by the members only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing the director. The meeting notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is removal of the director.

(6) In computing whether a director is protected from removal under subsections (2) through (4), it should be assumed that the votes against removal are cast in an election for the number of directors of the class to which the director to be removed belonged on the date of that director's election.

(7) An entire board of directors may be removed under subsections (1) through (5).

(8) A director elected by the board may be removed without cause by the vote of two-thirds of the directors then in office or by a greater number as is set forth in the articles or bylaws. However, a director elected by the board to fill the vacancy of a director elected by the members may be removed without cause by the members, but not the board.

(9) If, at the beginning of a director's term on the board, the articles or bylaws provide that the director may be removed for missing a specified number of board meetings, the board may remove the director for failing to attend the specified number of meetings. The director may be removed only if a majority of the directors then in office vote for the removal.

(10) The articles or bylaws of a religious corporation may:

(a) limit the application of this section; and

(b) set forth the vote and procedures by which the board or any person may remove with or without cause a director elected by the members of the board.

History: En. Sec. 80, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-422. Removal of designated or appointed directors. (1) A designated director may be removed by an amendment to the articles or bylaws deleting or changing the designation.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, an appointed director may be removed without cause by the person appointing the director. The person removing the director shall do so by giving written notice of the removal to the director and either the presiding officer of the board or the corporation's president or secretary. The removal of an appointed director is effective when the notice is effective unless the notice specifies a future effective date.

35-2-423. Removal of directors by judicial proceeding. (1) The district court for the judicial district of the county where a corporation's principal office is located or, if the principal office is not located in the state, Lewis and Clark County may remove any director of the corporation from office in a proceeding commenced by the corporation, by its members holding at least 10% of the voting power of any class, or by the attorney general in the case of a public benefit corporation if the court finds that:

(a) (i) the director engaged in fraudulent or dishonest conduct or in gross abuse of authority or discretion with respect to the corporation; or

(ii) a final judgment has been entered finding that the director has violated a duty set forth in 35-2-416, 35-2-418, 35-2-435, or 35-2-436; and

(b) removal is in the best interest of the corporation.

(2) The court that removes a director may bar the director from serving on the board for a period prescribed by the court.

(3) If members or the attorney general commence a proceeding under subsection (1), the corporation must be made a party defendant.

(4) If a public benefit corporation or its members commence a proceeding under subsection (1), they shall give the attorney general written notice of the proceeding.

(5) The articles or bylaws of a religious corporation may limit or prohibit the application of this section.

History: En. Sec. 82, Ch. 411, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 39, Ch. 240, L. 2007.

35-2-424. Vacancy on board. (1) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise and except as provided in subsections (2) and (3), if a vacancy occurs on a board of directors, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors:

(a) (i) the members, if any, may fill the vacancy; or

(ii) if the vacant office was held by a director elected by a class, chapter, organizational unit or by region or other geographic grouping, only members of the class, chapter, unit, or grouping are entitled to vote to fill the vacancy if it is filled by the members;

(b) the board of directors may fill the vacancy; or

(c) if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office.

(2) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, if a vacant office was held by an appointed director, only the person who appointed the director may fill the vacancy.

(3) If a vacant office was held by a designated director, the vacancy must be filled as provided in the articles or bylaws. In the absence of an applicable article or bylaw provision, the vacancy may not be filled by the board.

(4) A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date, by reason of a resignation effective at a later date under 35-2-420(2) or otherwise, may be filled before the vacancy occurs. However, the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

35-2-425. Compensation of directors. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors may fix the compensation of directors.

History: En. Sec. 84, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-426 reserved.

35-2-427. Regular and special meetings. (1) If the time and place of a directors' meeting is fixed by the bylaws or the board, the meeting is a regular meeting. All other meetings are special meetings.

(2) A board of directors may hold regular or special meetings in the state or out of the state.

(3) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, a board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by or to conduct the meeting through the use of any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means is considered to be present in person at the meeting.

35-2-428. Action without meeting. (1) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, action required or permitted by this chapter to be taken at a board of directors' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the board. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, be signed by each director, and be included in the minutes filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken.

(2) Action taken under this section is effective when the last director signs the consent unless the consent specifies a different effective date.

(3) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as a vote in any document.

35-2-429. Call and notice of meetings. (1) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise or unless the provisions of subsection (3) apply, regular meetings of the board may be held without notice.

(2) Unless the articles, bylaws, or subsection (3) provide otherwise, special meetings of the board must be preceded by at least 2 days' notice to each director of the date, time, and place, but not the purpose, of the meeting.

(3) In a corporation without members, any board action to remove a director or to approve a matter that would require approval by the members if the corporation had members is not valid unless each director is given at least 7 days' written notice that the matter will be voted upon at a directors' meeting or unless notice is waived pursuant to 35-2-430.

(4) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, the presiding officer of the board, the president, or 20% of the directors then in office may call and give notice of a meeting of the board.

35-2-430. Waiver of notice. (1) A director may at any time waive a notice required by this chapter, the articles, or bylaws. Except as provided in subsection (2), the waiver must be in writing, be signed by the director entitled to the notice, and be filed with the minutes or the corporate records.

(2) A director's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice of the meeting unless the director, upon arriving at the meeting or prior to the vote on a matter not noticed in conformity with this chapter, the articles, or bylaws, objects to lack of notice and does not vote for or assent to that action.

History: En. Sec. 88, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-431. Quorum and voting. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the articles, or bylaws, a quorum of a board of directors consists of a majority of the directors in office immediately before a meeting begins. In no event may the articles or bylaws authorize a quorum of fewer than the greater of one-third of the number of directors in office or two directors.

(2) If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present is the act of the board unless this chapter, the articles, or bylaws require the vote of a greater number of directors.

35-2-432 reserved.

35-2-433. Committees of the board. (1) Unless prohibited or limited by the articles or bylaws, a board of directors may create one or more committees of the board and appoint members of the board to serve on them. Each committee must have two or more directors who serve at the pleasure of the board.

(2) The creation of a committee and appointment of members to it must be approved by the greater of:

(a) a majority of all the directors in office when the action is taken; or

(b) the number of directors required by the articles or bylaws to take action under 35-2-431.

(3) Sections 35-2-427 through 35-2-431, which govern meetings, action without meetings, notice, waiver of notice, and quorum and voting requirements of the board, apply to committees of the board and their members.

(4) To the extent specified by the board of directors or in the articles or bylaws, each committee of the board may exercise the board's authority under 35-2-414.

(5) A committee of the board may not:

(a) authorize distributions;

(b) approve or recommend to members dissolution, merger, or the sale, pledge, or transfer of all or substantially all of the corporation's assets;

(c) elect, appoint, or remove directors or fill vacancies on the board or on any of its committees; or

(d) adopt, amend, or repeal the articles or bylaws.

(6) The creation of, delegation of authority to, or action by a committee does not by itself constitute compliance by a director with the standards of conduct described in 35-2-416.

35-2-434 reserved.

35-2-435. Loans to or guaranties for directors and officers. (1) A corporation may not lend money to or guarantee the obligation of a director or officer of the corporation.

(2) The fact that a loan or guaranty is made in violation of this section does not affect the borrower's liability on the loan.

35-2-436. Liability for unlawful distributions. (1) Unless a director complies with the applicable standards of conduct described in 35-2-416, a director who votes for or assents to a distribution made in violation of this chapter is personally liable to the corporation for the amount of the distribution that exceeds what could have been distributed without violating this chapter.

(2) A director held liable for an unlawful distribution under subsection (1) is entitled to contribution:

(a) from every other director who voted for or assented to the distribution and who did not comply with the applicable standards of conduct described in 35-2-416; and

(b) from each person who received an unlawful distribution for the amount of the distribution whether or not the person receiving the distribution knew it was made in violation of this chapter.

35-2-437 and 35-2-438 reserved.

35-2-439. Required officers. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, a corporation has a president, a secretary, a treasurer, and any other officers appointed by the board.

(2) The bylaws or the board shall delegate to one of the officers responsibility for preparing minutes of the directors' and members' meetings and for authenticating records of the corporation.

(3) A person may simultaneously hold more than one office in a corporation.

35-2-440. Duties and authority of officers. Each officer has the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in the bylaws or, to the extent consistent with the bylaws, the duties and authority prescribed in a resolution of the board or by direction of an officer authorized by the board to prescribe the duties and authority of other officers.

35-2-441. Standards of conduct for officers. (1) An officer with discretionary authority shall discharge the duties under that authority:

(a) in good faith;

(b) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a similar position would exercise under similar circumstances; and

(c) in a manner the officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation and its members, if any.

(2) In discharging the duties, an officer is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

(a) one or more officers or employees of the corporation who the officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(b) attorneys, public accountants, or other persons as to matters that the officer reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or

(c) in the case of religious corporations, religious authorities, ministers, priests, rabbis, or other persons whose position or duties in the religious organization the officer believes justify reliance and confidence and who the officer believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented.

(3) An officer is not acting in good faith if the officer has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (2) unwarranted.

(4) An officer is not liable to the corporation, any member, or any other person for an action taken or not taken as an officer if the officer acted in compliance with this section.

(5) This part does not modify any limitation of liability of officers provided by Title 27.

History: En. Sec. 97, Ch. 411, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 1280, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-2-442. Resignation and removal of officers. (1) An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the corporation. A resignation is effective when the notice is effective unless the notice specifies a future effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a future date and the corporation accepts the future effective date, its board of directors may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the board provides that the successor does not take office until the effective date.

(2) A board may remove any officer at any time, with or without cause.

35-2-443. Contract rights of officers. (1) The appointment of an officer does not of itself create contract rights.

(2) An officer's removal does not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the corporation. An officer's resignation does not affect the corporation's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

35-2-444. Officers' authority to execute documents. A contract or other instrument in writing executed or entered into between a corporation and any other person is not invalidated as to the corporation by a lack of authority of the signing officers in the absence of actual knowledge on the part of the other person that the signing officers did not have authority to execute the contract or other instrument if it is signed by:

(1) the presiding officer of the board and the president; or

(2) one person from each of the following:

(a) the presiding officer of the board or the president; and

(b) a vice president, the secretary, treasurer, or executive director.

35-2-446. Definitions. As used in 35-2-446 through 35-2-454, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Corporation" includes any domestic or foreign predecessor entity of a corporation in a merger or other transaction in which the predecessor's existence ceased upon consummation of the transaction.

(2) (a) "Director" means an individual who is or was a director of a corporation or an individual who, while a director of a corporation, is or was serving at the corporation's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic business or nonprofit corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise. A director is considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the corporation's request if the director's duties to the corporation also impose duties on, or otherwise involve services by, the director to the plan or the participants in or beneficiaries of the plan.

(b) Director includes, unless the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal representative of a director.

(3) "Expenses" include attorney fees.

(4) "Liability" means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine, excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan, or reasonable expenses actually incurred with respect to a proceeding.

(5) (a) "Official capacity" means:

(i) when used with respect to a director, the office of director in a corporation; or

(ii) when used with respect to an individual other than a director, as contemplated in 35-2-452, the office in a corporation held by the officer or the employment or agency relationship undertaken by the employee or agent on behalf of the corporation.

(b) Official capacity does not include service for any other foreign or domestic business or nonprofit corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise.

(6) "Party" includes an individual who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding.

(7) "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal.

35-2-447. Authority to indemnify. (1) Except as provided in subsection (4), an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director may be indemnified against liability incurred in the proceeding if the individual:

(a) engaged in good faith conduct;

(b) reasonably believed:

(i) in the case of conduct in the individual's official capacity with the corporation, that the conduct was in its best interests; and

(ii) in all other cases, that the conduct was at least not opposed to its best interests; and

(c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful.

(2) A director's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan for a purpose the director reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in and beneficiaries of the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirements of subsection (1)(b)(ii).

(3) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, a determination that the director did not meet the standard of conduct described in this section.

(4) A corporation may not indemnify a director under this section:

(a) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which the director was adjudged liable to the corporation; or

(b) in connection with any other proceeding that charges improper personal benefit to the director, whether or not involving action in the director's official capacity, in which the director was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by the director.

(5) Indemnification permitted under this section in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation is limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

History: En. Sec. 102, Ch. 411, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 1281, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-2-448. Mandatory indemnification. Unless limited by its articles of incorporation, a corporation shall indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director was a party because the individual is or was a director of the corporation, against reasonable expenses actually incurred by the director in connection with the proceeding.

History: En. Sec. 103, Ch. 411, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 1282, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-2-449. Advance for expenses. (1) A corporation may pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if:

(a) the director furnishes the corporation with a written affirmation of the director's good faith belief that the director has met the standard of conduct described in 35-2-447;

(b) the director furnishes the corporation with a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director did not meet the standard of conduct; and

(c) a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under 35-2-446 through 35-2-454.

(2) The undertaking required by subsection (1)(b) must be an unlimited general obligation of the director but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

(3) Determinations and authorizations of payments under this section must be made in the manner specified in 35-2-451.

35-2-450. Court-ordered indemnification. Unless limited by a corporation's articles of incorporation, a director of the corporation who is a party to a proceeding may apply for indemnification to the court conducting the proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction. On receipt of an application, the court, after giving any notice the court considers necessary, may order indemnification in the amount it considers proper if it determines that the director:

(1) is entitled to mandatory indemnification under 35-2-448, in which case the court shall also order the corporation to pay the director's reasonable expenses incurred to obtain court-ordered indemnification; or

(2) is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not the director met the standard of conduct set forth in 35-2-447(1) or was adjudged liable as described in 35-2-447(4). If the director was adjudged liable, indemnification is limited to reasonable expenses incurred.

35-2-451. Determination and authorization of indemnification. (1) A corporation may not indemnify a director under 35-2-447 unless it is authorized in the specific case after a determination has been made that indemnification of the director is permissible in the circumstances because the director has met the standard of conduct set forth in 35-2-447.

(2) The determination must be made:

(a) by the board of directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;

(b) if a quorum cannot be obtained under subsection (2)(a), by majority vote of a committee designated by the board of directors consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;

(c) by special legal counsel:

(i) selected by the board of directors or its committee in the manner prescribed in subsection (2)(a) or (2)(b); or

(ii) if a quorum of the board cannot be obtained under subsection (2)(a) and a committee cannot be designated under subsection (2)(b), selected by majority vote of the full board, in which selected directors who are parties may participate; or

(d) by the members of a mutual benefit corporation. However, directors who are at the time parties to the proceeding may not vote on the determination.

(3) Authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses must be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that if the determination is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses must be made by those entitled under subsection (2)(c) to select counsel.

(4) A director of a public benefit corporation may not be indemnified until 20 days after the effective date of written notice to the attorney general of the proposed indemnification.

35-2-452. Indemnification of officers, employees, and agents. Unless limited by a corporation's articles of incorporation:

(1) an officer of the corporation who is not a director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under 35-2-448 and is entitled to apply for court-ordered indemnification under 35-2-450 to the same extent as a director;

(2) the corporation may indemnify and advance expenses under 35-2-446 through 35-2-454 to an officer, employee, or agent of the corporation who is not a director to the same extent as to a director; and

(3) a corporation may also indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee, or agent who is not a director to the extent, consistent with public policy, that may be provided by its articles of incorporation, bylaws, general or specific action of its board of directors, or contract.

History: En. Sec. 107, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-453. Insurance. A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation or who, while a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic business or nonprofit corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise against liability asserted against or incurred by the individual in that capacity or arising from the individual's status as a director, officer, employee, or agent, whether or not the corporation would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under 35-2-447 or 35-2-448.

35-2-454. Application. (1) A provision treating a corporation's indemnification of or advance for expenses to directors that is contained in its articles of incorporation, its bylaws, a resolution of its members or board of directors, a contract, or other instrument is valid only if and to the extent the provision is consistent with 35-2-446 through 35-2-454. If articles of incorporation limit indemnification or advance for expenses, indemnification and advance for expenses are valid only to the extent consistent with the articles.

(2) Sections 35-2-446 through 35-2-454 do not limit a corporation's power to pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director in connection with appearing as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the director has not been made a named defendant or respondent to the proceeding.

35-2-511. Consideration. Except as provided in its articles or bylaws, a corporation may admit members for no consideration or for consideration determined by the board.

35-2-512. No requirement of members. A corporation is not required to have members.

History: En. Sec. 41, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-513. Differences in rights and obligations of members. All members have the same rights and obligations with respect to voting, dissolution, redemption, and transfer unless the articles or bylaws establish classes of membership with different rights or obligations. All members have the same rights and obligations with respect to any other matters, except as set forth in or authorized by the articles or bylaws.

35-2-514. Transfers. (1) Except as set forth in or authorized by the articles or bylaws, a member of a mutual benefit corporation may not transfer a membership or any right arising from a membership.

(2) A member of a public benefit or religious corporation may not transfer a membership or any right arising from a membership.

(3) When transfer rights have been provided, a restriction on them is not binding on a member holding a membership issued prior to the adoption of the restriction unless the restriction is approved by the members and the affected member.

35-2-515 reserved.

35-2-516. Member's liability to third parties. A member of a corporation is not, as a member, personally liable for the acts, debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation.

History: En. Sec. 44, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-517. Member's liability for dues, assessments, and fees. A member may become liable to the corporation for dues, assessments, or fees. However, an article or bylaw provision or a resolution adopted by the board authorizing or imposing dues, assessments, or fees does not, of itself, create liability.

History: En. Sec. 45, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-518. Creditor's action against member. (1) A proceeding may not be brought by a creditor to reach the liability, if any, of a member to the corporation unless final judgment has been rendered in favor of the creditor against the corporation and execution has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part or unless further proceeding would be useless.

(2) All creditors of the corporation, with or without reducing their claims to judgment, may intervene in any creditor's proceeding brought under subsection (1) to reach and apply unpaid amounts due the corporation. Any or all members who owe amounts to the corporation may be joined in the proceeding.

History: En. Sec. 46, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-519. Resignation. (1) A member may resign at any time.

(2) The resignation of a member does not relieve the member from any obligations the member may have to the corporation as a result of obligations incurred or commitments made prior to resignation.

35-2-520. Termination, expulsion, and suspension. (1) A member of a public benefit corporation or mutual benefit corporation may not be expelled or suspended and membership in these corporations may not be terminated or suspended except pursuant to a procedure that is fair and reasonable and is carried out in good faith.

(2) A procedure is fair and reasonable when either:

(a) the articles or bylaws set forth a procedure that provides:

(i) not less than 15 days' prior written notice of the expulsion, suspension, or termination and the reasons for it; and

(ii) an opportunity for the member to be heard, orally or in writing, not less than 5 days before the effective date of the expulsion, suspension, or termination by a person or persons authorized to decide that the proposed expulsion, termination, or suspension not take place; or

(b) it takes into consideration all relevant facts and circumstances.

(3) (a) Except as provided in subsection (3)(b), a written notice given by mail must be given by first-class or certified mail sent to the last address of the member shown on the corporation's records.

(b) Written notice may be given to any authenticated electronic identification as shown on the corporation's records.

(4) A proceeding that challenges an expulsion, suspension, or termination, including a proceeding in which defective notice is alleged, must be commenced within 1 year after the effective date of the expulsion, suspension, or termination.

(5) A member who has been expelled or suspended may be liable to the corporation for dues, assessments, or fees as a result of obligations incurred or commitments made prior to the expulsion or suspension.

35-2-522. Purchase of memberships. (1) A public benefit corporation or religious corporation may not purchase any of its memberships or any right arising from membership.

(2) A mutual benefit corporation may purchase the membership of a member who resigns or whose membership is terminated for the amount and pursuant to the conditions set forth in or authorized by its articles or bylaws. A payment may not be made in violation of 35-2-1401 and 35-2-1402.

35-2-523 reserved.

35-2-524. Delegates. (1) A corporation may provide in its articles or bylaws for delegates who have some or all of the authority of members.

(2) The articles or bylaws may set forth provisions relating to:

(a) the characteristics, qualifications, rights, limitations, and obligations of delegates including their selection and removal;

(b) calling, noticing, holding, and conducting meetings of delegates; and

(c) carrying on corporate activities during and between meetings of delegates.

35-2-525 reserved.

35-2-526. Annual and regular meetings. (1) A corporation with members shall hold a membership meeting annually at a time stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws.

(2) A corporation with members may hold regular membership meetings at the times stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws.

(3) Annual and regular membership meetings may be held in the state or out of the state, at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If a place is not stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, annual and regular meetings must be held at the corporation's principal office. To the extent authorized in the articles or bylaws, the board may determine that an annual meeting of members will be held solely by means of remote communication.

(4) At the annual meeting:

(a) the president and chief financial officer shall report on the activities and financial condition of the corporation; and

(b) the members shall consider and act upon other matters that are raised consistent with the notice and voting requirements of 35-2-530 and 35-2-538(2).

(5) At regular meetings, the members shall consider and act upon matters raised consistent with the notice and voting requirements of 35-2-530 and 35-2-538(2).

(6) The failure to hold an annual or regular meeting at a time stated in or fixed in accordance with a corporation's bylaws does not affect the validity of any corporate action.

(7) If permitted by the bylaws, members may participate in a meeting of the members by means of a conference telephone call or similar remote communication. Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, participation in this manner constitutes presence in person at a meeting.

(a) on the call of its board or of the person authorized to do so by the articles or bylaws; or

(b) except as provided in the articles or bylaws of a religious corporation, if the holders of at least 5% of the voting power of any corporation sign, date, and deliver to any corporate officer one or more written demands for the meeting that describe the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held.

(2) For purposes of determining whether the 5% requirement of subsection (1) has been met, the record date is at the close of business on the 30th day before delivery of the demand or demands for a special meeting to any corporate officer.

(3) If a notice for a special meeting demanded under subsection (1)(b) is not given pursuant to 35-2-530 within 30 days after the date the written demand is delivered to a corporate officer, regardless of the requirements of subsection (4), a person signing the demand or demands may set the time and place of the meeting and give notice pursuant to 35-2-530.

(4) Special meetings of members may be held in the state or out of the state, at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If a place is not stated or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, special meetings must be held at the corporation's principal office. Member participation and presence at a special meeting must be the same as allowed under 35-2-526(7).

(5) Only those matters that are within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice required by 35-2-530 may be conducted at a special meeting of members.

35-2-528. Court-ordered meeting. (1) The district court for the judicial district of the county where a corporation's principal office is located or, if the principal office is not located in this state, in Lewis and Clark County may summarily order a meeting to be held:

(a) on application of a member or other person entitled to participate in an annual or regular meeting and, in the case of a public benefit corporation, the attorney general, if an annual meeting was not held within the earlier of 6 months after the end of the corporation's fiscal year or 15 months after its last annual meeting;

(b) on application of a member or other person entitled to participate in a regular meeting and, in the case of a public benefit corporation, the attorney general, if a regular meeting is not held within 40 days after the date it was required to be held; or

(c) on application of a member who signed a demand for a special meeting valid under 35-2-527, a person entitled to call a special meeting and, in the case of a public benefit corporation, the attorney general, if:

(i) notice of the special meeting was not given within 30 days after the date the demand was delivered to a corporate officer; or

(ii) the special meeting was not held in accordance with the notice.

(2) The court may fix the time and place of the meeting, specify a record date for determining members entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting, prescribe the form and content of the meeting notice, fix the quorum required for specific matters to be considered at the meeting or direct that the votes represented at the meeting constitute a quorum for action on those matters, and enter other orders necessary to accomplish the purpose or purposes of the meeting.

(3) If the court orders a meeting, it may also order the corporation to pay the member's costs, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred to obtain the order.

35-2-529. Action by written consent. (1) Unless limited or prohibited by the articles or bylaws, action required or permitted by this chapter to be approved by the members may be approved without a meeting of members if the action is approved by members holding at least 80% of the voting power. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents that describe the action taken, be signed by those members representing at least 80% of the voting power, and be delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

(2) If not otherwise determined under 35-2-528 or 35-2-532, the record date for determining members entitled to take action without a meeting is the date the first member signs the consent under subsection (1).

(3) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as a vote in any document filed with the secretary of state.

(4) Written notice of member approval pursuant to this section must be given to all members who have not signed the written consent. If written notice is required, member approval pursuant to this section is effective 10 days after written notice is given.

35-2-530. Notice of meeting. (1) A corporation shall give notice consistent with its bylaws of meetings of members in a fair and reasonable manner.

(2) Any notice that conforms to the requirements of subsection (3) is fair and reasonable, but other means of giving notice may also be fair and reasonable when all the circumstances are considered. However, notice of matters referred to in subsection (3)(b) must be given as specified in subsection (3).

(3) Notice is fair and reasonable if:

(a) the corporation notifies its members of the place, date, and time of each annual, regular, and special meeting of members not less than 10 days before the meeting date or, if notice is mailed by certified mail, not less than 30 or more than 60 days before the meeting date;

(b) notice of an annual or regular meeting includes a description of any matter or matters that must be approved by the members under 35-2-223, 35-2-230, 35-2-418, 35-2-452, 35-2-611, 35-2-617, 35-2-720, or 35-2-721; and

(c) notice of a special meeting includes a description of the matter or matters for which the meeting is called.

(4) Unless the bylaws require otherwise, if an annual, regular, or special meeting of members is adjourned to a different date, time, or place, notice need not be given of the new date, time, or place, if the new date, time, or place is announced at the meeting before adjournment. If a new record date for the adjourned meeting is or must be fixed under 35-2-532, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given under this section to the members of record as of the new record date.

(5) When giving notice of an annual, regular, or special meeting of members, a corporation shall give notice of a matter a member intends to raise at the meeting if:

(a) requested in writing to do so by a person entitled to call a special meeting; and

(b) the request is received by the secretary or president of the corporation at least 10 days before the corporation gives notice of the meeting.

History: En. Sec. 62, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-531. Waiver of notice. (1) A member may waive a notice required by this chapter, the articles, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. The waiver must be in writing, be signed by the member entitled to the notice, and be delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

(2) A member's attendance at a meeting:

(a) waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting unless the member, at the beginning of the meeting, objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting; and

(b) waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice unless the member objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

35-2-532. Record date — determining members entitled to notice and vote. (1) The bylaws of a corporation may fix or provide the manner of fixing a date as the record date for determining the members entitled to notice of a members' meeting. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing a record date, the board may fix a future date as the record date. If a record date is not fixed, members are entitled to notice of the meeting:

(a) at the close of business on the business day preceding the day on which notice is given; or

(b) if notice is waived, at the close of business on the business day preceding the day on which the meeting is held.

(2) The bylaws of a corporation may fix or provide the manner of fixing a date as the record date for determining the members entitled to vote at a members' meeting. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing a record date, the board may fix a future date as the record date. If a record date is not fixed, members on the date of the meeting who are otherwise eligible to vote are entitled to vote at the meeting.

(3) The bylaws may fix or provide the manner for determining a date as the record date for the purpose of determining the members entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any other lawful action. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing a record date, the board may fix in advance the record date. If a record date is not fixed, members are entitled to exercise the rights at the close of business on the day on which the board adopts the resolution relating to it or 60 days prior to the date of other action, whichever is later.

(4) A record date fixed under this section may not be more than 70 days before the meeting or action requiring a determination of members occurs.

(5) A determination of members entitled to notice of or to vote at a membership meeting is effective for any adjournment of the meeting unless the board fixes a new date for determining the right to notice or the right to vote, which it must do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than 70 days after the record date for determining members entitled to notice of the original meeting.

(6) If a court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than 120 days after the date fixed for the original meeting, it may provide that the original record date for notice or voting continues in effect or it may fix a new record date for notice or voting.

History: En. Sec. 64, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-533. Action by written ballot. (1) Unless prohibited or limited by the articles or bylaws, any action that may be taken at any annual, regular, or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if the corporation delivers a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter.

(2) A corporation may deliver a written ballot by electronic communication as long as a member gives consent. Consent by a member to receive notice by electronic communication in a certain manner constitutes consent to receive a ballot by electronic communication in the same manner.

(3) A written ballot must:

(a) set forth each proposed action; and

(b) provide an opportunity to vote for or against each proposed action.

(4) Approval by written ballot pursuant to this section is valid only when:

(a) the number of votes cast by ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action; and

(b) the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve the matter at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.

(5) All solicitations for votes by written ballot must:

(a) indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirements;

(b) state the percentage of approvals necessary to approve each matter other than election of directors; and

(c) specify the time by which a ballot must be received by the corporation in order to be counted.

(6) Except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, a written ballot may not be revoked.

35-2-535. Members' list for meeting. (1) After fixing a record date for a notice of a meeting, a corporation shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names of all its members who are entitled to notice of the meeting. The list must show the address or authenticated electronic identification and number of votes each member is entitled to vote at the meeting. The corporation shall prepare, on a current basis through the time of the membership meeting, a list of members, if any, who are entitled to vote at the meeting but not entitled to notice of the meeting. This list must be prepared on the same basis and be part of the list of members.

(2) The list of members must be available:

(a) for inspection by any member for the purpose of communication with other members concerning the meeting, beginning 2 business days after notice is given of the meeting for which the list was prepared and continuing through the meeting; and

(b) at the corporation's principal office or at a reasonable place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will be held. A member, a member's agent, or a member's attorney is entitled, on written demand, to inspect and, subject to the limitations of 35-2-907(3) and 35-2-910, to copy the list, at a reasonable time and at the member's expense, during the period it is available for inspection.

(3) The corporation shall make the list of members available at the meeting, and any member, a member's agent, or a member's attorney is entitled to inspect the list at any time during the meeting or any adjournment.

(4) If the corporation refuses to allow a member, a member's agent, or a member's attorney to inspect the list of members before or at the meeting or to copy the list as permitted by subsection (2), the district court for the judicial district of the county where a corporation's principal office is located or, if the principal office is not located in this state, in Lewis and Clark County, on application of the member, may summarily order the inspection or copying at the corporation's expense, may postpone the meeting for which the list was prepared until the inspection or copying is complete, and may order the corporation to pay the member's costs, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred to obtain the order.

(5) Unless a written demand to inspect and copy a membership list has been made under subsection (2) prior to the membership meeting and a corporation improperly refuses to comply with the demand, refusal or failure to comply with this section does not affect the validity of action taken at the meeting.

(6) The articles or bylaws of a religious corporation may limit or abolish the rights of a member under this section to inspect and copy any corporate record.

35-2-536. Voting entitlement generally. (1) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, each member is entitled to one vote on each matter voted on by the members.

(2) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, if a membership stands of record in the names of two or more persons, their acts with respect to voting have the following effect:

(a) if only one votes, the act binds all; and

(b) if more than one votes, the vote is divided on a pro rata basis.

35-2-537. Quorum requirements. (1) Unless this chapter, the articles, or bylaws provide for a higher or lower quorum, 10% of the votes entitled to be cast on a matter must be represented at a meeting of members to constitute a quorum on that matter.

(2) A bylaw amendment to decrease the quorum for any member action may be approved by the members or, unless prohibited by the bylaws, by the board.

(3) A bylaw amendment to increase the quorum required for any member action must be approved by the members.

(4) Unless one-third or more of the voting power is present in person or by proxy, the only matters that may be voted upon at an annual or regular meeting of members are those matters that are described in the meeting notice.

History: En. Sec. 68, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-538. Voting requirements. (1) Unless this chapter, the articles, or bylaws require a greater vote or voting by class, if a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the votes represented and voting, if they are a majority of the required quorum, is the act of the members.

(2) A bylaw amendment to increase or decrease the vote required for any member action must be approved by the members.

35-2-539. Proxies. (1) Unless the articles or bylaws prohibit or limit proxy voting, a member may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the member by signing an appointment form, either personally or by an attorney-in-fact.

(2) An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for 11 months unless a different period is expressly provided in the appointment form. However, a proxy is not valid for more than 3 years from its date of execution.

(3) An appointment of a proxy is revocable by the member.

(4) The death or incapacity of the member appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the corporation to accept the proxy's authority unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises authority under the appointment.

(5) Appointment of a proxy is revoked by the person appointing the proxy:

(a) being present at any meeting and voting; or

(b) signing and delivering to the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate proxy votes either a writing stating that the appointment of the proxy is revoked or a subsequent appointment form.

(6) Subject to 35-2-542 and any express limitation on the proxy's authority appearing on the face of the appointment form, a corporation is entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the member who made the appointment.

History: En. Sec. 70, Ch. 411, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 190, L. 2013.

35-2-540. Cumulative voting for directors — exception. (1) If the articles or bylaws provide for cumulative voting by members, members may so vote by multiplying the number of votes the members are entitled to cast by the number of directors for whom they are entitled to vote and casting the product for a single candidate or distributing the product among two or more candidates.

(2) Cumulative voting is not authorized at a particular meeting unless:

(a) the meeting notice or statement accompanying the notice states that cumulative voting will take place; or

(b) a member gives notice during the meeting and before the vote is taken of the member's intent to cumulate votes. If one member gives this notice, all other members participating in the election are entitled to cumulate their votes without giving further notice.

(3) A director elected by cumulative voting may be removed by the members without cause if the requirements of 35-2-421 are met unless the votes cast against removal or not consenting in writing to removal would be sufficient to elect the director if voted cumulatively at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast or, if the action is taken by written ballot, all memberships entitled to vote were voted, and if the entire number of directors authorized at the time of the director's most recent election were then being elected.

(4) Members may not cumulatively vote if the directors and members are identical.

35-2-541. Other methods of electing directors. A corporation may provide in its articles or bylaws for election of directors by members or delegates:

(1) on the basis of chapter or other organizational unit;

(2) by region or other geographic unit;

(3) by preferential voting; or

(4) by any other reasonable method.

History: En. Sec. 72, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-542. Corporation's acceptance of votes. (1) If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment corresponds to the name of a member or is the authenticated electronic identification of a member, the corporation, if acting in good faith, is entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the member.

(2) If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does not correspond to the record name of a member or is not the authenticated electronic identification of a member, the corporation, if acting in good faith, is nevertheless entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the member if:

(a) the member is an entity and the name signed or electronic identification used purports to be that of an attorney-in-fact of the member and, if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the member has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

(b) the name signed or electronic identification used purports to be that of an attorney-in-fact of the member and, if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the member has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

(c) two or more persons hold the membership as cotenants or fiduciaries and:

(i) the name signed or electronic identification used purports to be the name of at least one of the coholders; and

(ii) the person signing or using the electronic identification appears to be acting on behalf of all the coholders; or

(d) in the case of a mutual benefit corporation:

(i) the name signed or electronic identification used purports to be that of an administrator, executor, guardian, or conservator representing the member and, if the corporation requests, evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment; or

(ii) the name signed or electronic identification used purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the member and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment.

(3) The corporation is entitled to reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment if the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature or electronic identification or about the signatory's authority to sign for the member.

(4) The corporation and its officer or agent who accepts or rejects a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the standards of this section are not liable in damages to the member for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection.

(5) Corporate action based on the acceptance or rejection of a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment under this section is valid unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise.

35-2-543. Voting agreements. (1) Two or more members may provide for the manner in which they will vote by signing an agreement for that purpose. Voting agreements may be valid for a period of up to 10 years. For public benefit corporations, voting agreements must have a reasonable purpose consistent with the corporation's public or charitable purposes.

35-2-608. Approval of plan of merger. (1) Subject to the limitations set forth in 35-2-609, one or more nonprofit corporations may merge into a business or nonprofit corporation if the plan of merger is approved as provided in 35-2-610.

(2) The plan of merger must set forth:

(a) the name of each corporation planning to merge and the name of the surviving corporation into which each plans to merge;

(b) the terms and conditions of the planned merger;

(c) the manner and basis, if any, of converting the memberships of each public benefit or religious corporation into memberships of the surviving corporation; and

(d) if the merger involves a mutual benefit corporation, the manner and basis, if any, of converting memberships of each merging corporation into memberships, obligations, or securities of the surviving or any other corporation or into cash or other property in whole or part.

(3) The plan of merger may set forth:

(a) any amendments to the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the surviving corporation to be effected by the planned merger; and

(b) other provisions relating to the planned merger.

History: En. Sec. 123, Ch. 411, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 249, L. 1993.

35-2-609. Limitations on mergers by public benefit or religious corporations. (1) Except as provided in subsection (4) or without the prior approval of the district court for the judicial district in which the corporation's principal office is located or, if the principal office is not located in this state, in Lewis and Clark County, in a proceeding of which the attorney general has been given written notice, a public benefit corporation or religious corporation may merge only with:

(a) a public benefit corporation or religious corporation;

(b) a foreign corporation that would qualify under this chapter as a public benefit corporation or religious corporation;

(c) a wholly owned foreign or domestic business or mutual benefit corporation, if the public benefit corporation or religious corporation is the surviving corporation and continues to be a public benefit corporation or religious corporation after the merger; or

(d) a business or mutual benefit corporation, provided that:

(i) on or prior to the effective date of the merger, assets with a value equal to the greater of the fair market value of the net tangible and intangible assets, including good will, of the public benefit corporation or the fair market value of the public benefit corporation if it were to be operated as a business concern are transferred or conveyed to one or more persons who would have received its assets under 35-2-725(1)(e) and (1)(f) had it dissolved;

(ii) it shall return, transfer, or convey any assets held by it upon condition requiring return, transfer, or conveyance in case of merger, in accordance with the condition; and

(iii) the merger is approved by a majority of directors of the public benefit corporation or religious corporation who are not and will not become members or shareholders in or officers, employees, agents, or consultants of the surviving corporation.

(2) At least 20 days before consummation of any merger of a public benefit corporation or a religious corporation pursuant to subsection (1)(d), notice, including a copy of the proposed plan of merger, must be delivered to the attorney general.

(3) Without the prior written consent of the attorney general or of the district court in a proceeding in which the attorney general has been given notice, a member of a public benefit corporation or religious corporation may not receive or keep anything as a result of a merger other than a membership in the surviving public benefit corporation or religious corporation. The court shall approve the transaction if it is in the public interest.

(4) A public benefit corporation or a religious corporation that is considered a nonprofit health entity, as defined in 50-4-701, is subject to the provisions of 35-2-617 and Title 50, chapter 4, part 7.

35-2-610. Action on plan by board, members, and third persons. (1) Unless this chapter, the articles, the bylaws, or the board of directors or members, acting pursuant to subsection (3), require a greater vote or voting by class to be adopted, a plan of merger must be approved:

(a) by the board;

(b) by the members, if any, by two-thirds of the votes cast or a majority of the voting power, whichever is less; and

(c) in writing by any person or persons whose approval is required by a provision of the articles, as authorized by 35-2-232, for an amendment to the articles or bylaws.

(2) If the corporation does not have members, the merger must be approved by a majority of the directors in office at the time the merger is approved. In addition, the corporation shall provide notice, in accordance with 35-2-429(3), of any directors' meeting at which approval is to be obtained. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the proposed merger.

(3) The board may condition its submission of the proposed merger and the members may condition their approval of the merger on receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or on any other basis.

(4) If the board seeks to have the plan approved by the members at a membership meeting, the corporation shall give notice to its members of the proposed membership meeting in accordance with 35-2-530. The notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the plan of merger and contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan. The copy or summary of the plan for members of the surviving corporation must include any provision that, if contained in a proposed amendment to the articles of incorporation or bylaws, would entitle members to vote on the provision. The copy or summary of the plan for members of the disappearing corporation must include a copy or summary of the articles and bylaws that will be in effect immediately after the merger takes effect.

(5) If the board seeks to have the plan approved by the members by written consent or written ballot, the material soliciting the approval must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan. The copy or summary of the plan for members of the surviving corporation must include any provision that, if contained in a proposed amendment to the articles of incorporation or bylaws, would entitle members to vote on the provision. The copy or summary of the plan for members of the disappearing corporation must include a copy or summary of the articles and bylaws that will be in effect immediately after the merger takes effect.

(6) Voting by a class of members is required on a plan of merger if the plan contains a provision that, if contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation or bylaws, would entitle the class of members to vote as a class on the proposed amendment under 35-2-224 or 35-2-231. The plan is approved by a class of members by two-thirds of the votes cast by the class or a majority of the voting power of the class, whichever is less.

(7) After a merger is adopted and at any time before articles of merger are filed, the planned merger may be abandoned, subject to any contractual rights, without further action by members or other persons who approved the plan in accordance with the procedure set forth in the plan of merger or, if no procedure is set forth, in the manner determined by the board of directors.

35-2-611. Articles of merger. After a plan of merger is approved by the board of directors and, if required by 35-2-610, by the members and any other persons, the surviving or acquiring corporation shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of merger setting forth:

(1) the plan of merger;

(2) if approval of members was not required, a statement to that effect and a statement that the plan was approved by a sufficient vote of the board of directors;

(3) if approval by members was required:

(a) the designation, number of memberships outstanding, number of votes entitled to be cast by each class entitled to vote separately on the plan, and number of votes of each class indisputably voting on the plan; and

(b) (i) either the total number of votes cast for and against the plan by each class entitled to vote separately on the plan or the total number of undisputed votes cast for the plan by each class; and

(ii) a statement that the number cast for the plan by each class was sufficient for approval by that class;

(4) if approval of the plan by some person or persons other than the members or the board is required pursuant to 35-2-610(1)(c), a statement that the approval was obtained.

35-2-612. Effect of merger. When a merger takes effect:

(1) every other corporation party to the merger merges into the surviving corporation and the separate existence of every corporation except the surviving corporation ceases;

(2) the title to all real estate and other property owned by each corporation party to the merger is vested in the surviving corporation without reversion or impairment, subject to any conditions to which the property was subject prior to the merger;

(3) the surviving corporation has all liabilities and obligations of each corporation party to the merger;

(4) a proceeding pending against any corporation party to the merger may be continued as if the merger did not occur or the surviving corporation may be substituted in the proceeding for the corporation whose existence ceased; and

(5) the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the surviving corporation are amended to the extent provided in the plan of merger.

35-2-613. Merger with foreign corporation. (1) Except as provided in 35-2-609, one or more foreign business or nonprofit corporations may merge with one or more domestic nonprofit corporations if:

(a) the merger is permitted by the law of the state, tribe, or country under whose law each foreign corporation is incorporated and each foreign corporation complies with that law in effecting the merger; or

(b) the foreign corporation complies with 35-2-611 if it is the surviving corporation of the merger; and

(c) each domestic nonprofit corporation complies with the applicable provisions of 35-2-608 through 35-2-610 and, if it is the surviving corporation of the merger, with the provisions of 35-2-611.

(2) When the merger takes effect, the surviving foreign business or nonprofit corporation may be served with process in any proceeding brought against it as provided in 35-7-113.

35-2-614. Bequests, devises, and gifts. A bequest, devise, gift, grant, or promise contained in a will or other instrument of donation, subscription, or conveyance that is made to a constituent corporation and that takes effect or remains payable after the merger inures to the surviving corporation unless the will or other instrument specifically provides otherwise.

35-2-615 reserved.

35-2-616. Sale of assets in regular course of activities — mortgage of assets. (1) A corporation may on the terms and conditions and for the consideration determined by the board of directors:

(a) sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its property in the usual and regular course of its activities; or

(b) mortgage, pledge, dedicate to the repayment of indebtedness, whether with or without recourse, or otherwise encumber any or all of its property, whether or not in the usual and regular course of its activities.

(2) Unless the articles require it, approval of the members or any other person of a transaction described in subsection (1) is not required.

(3) Unless the articles provide otherwise, approval of a transaction described in subsection (1)(a) is required by a vote of a majority of the directors in office at the time the transaction is approved.

History: En. Sec. 130, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-617. Sale of assets other than in regular course of activities. (1) A corporation may sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its property, which may include the good will, other than in the usual and regular course of its activities on the terms and conditions and for the consideration determined by the corporation's board if the proposed transaction is approved as required by subsection (2).

(2) Unless this chapter, the articles, the bylaws, or the board of directors or members, acting pursuant to subsection (4), require a greater vote or voting by class, the proposed transaction to be authorized must be approved:

(a) by the board;

(b) by the members by two-thirds of the votes cast or a majority of the voting power, whichever is less; and

(c) in writing by any person or persons whose approval is required by a provision of the articles, as authorized by 35-2-232, for an amendment to the articles or bylaws.

(3) If the corporation does not have members, the transaction must be approved by a vote of a majority of the directors in office at the time the transaction is approved. In addition, the corporation shall provide notice, in accordance with 35-2-429(3), of any directors' meeting at which approval is to be obtained. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property or assets of the corporation and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of a description of the transaction.

(4) The board may condition its submission of the proposed transaction and the members may condition their approval of the transaction on receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or on any other basis.

(5) If the corporation seeks to have the transaction approved by the members at a membership meeting, the corporation shall give notice to its members of the proposed membership meeting in accordance with 35-2-530. The notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property or assets of the corporation and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of a description of the transaction.

(6) If the board needs to have the transaction approved by the members by written consent or written ballot, the material soliciting the approval must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of a description of the transaction.

(7) (a) Except as provided in subsection (7)(b), a public benefit corporation or religious corporation shall give written notice to the attorney general 20 days before it sells, leases, exchanges, or otherwise disposes of all or substantially all of its property if the transaction is not in the usual and regular course of its activities unless the attorney general has given the corporation a written waiver of this subsection.

(b) A public benefit corporation or religious corporation that is considered a nonprofit health entity, as defined in 50-4-701, is subject to the provisions of Title 50, chapter 4, part 7.

(8) After a sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of property is authorized, the transaction may be abandoned, subject to any contractual rights, without further action by the members or any other person who approved the transaction in accordance with the procedure set forth in the resolution proposing the transaction or, if no procedure is set forth, in the manner determined by the board of directors.

35-2-720. Dissolution by incorporators or directors and third persons. (1) A majority of the incorporators or directors of a corporation that does not have members may, subject to any approval required by the articles or bylaws, dissolve the corporation by delivering to the secretary of state articles of dissolution.

(2) The corporation shall give notice of any meeting at which dissolution will be approved. The notice must be in accordance with 35-2-429(3). The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider dissolution of the corporation.

(3) In approving dissolution, the incorporators or directors shall adopt a plan of dissolution indicating to whom the assets owned or held by the corporation will be distributed after all creditors have been paid.

(4) In addition to the requirements under this part, a domestic mutual insurer shall comply with the provisions of Title 33, chapter 3, part 6.

History: En. Sec. 134, Ch. 411, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 49, Ch. 151, L. 2017.

35-2-721. Dissolution by directors, members, and third persons. (1) Unless this chapter, the articles, bylaws, or the board of directors or members, acting pursuant to subsection (1)(c), require a greater vote or voting by class, dissolution is authorized if it is approved:

(a) by the board;

(b) by the members, if any, by two-thirds of the votes cast or a majority of the voting power, whichever is less; and

(c) in writing, by any person or persons whose approval is required by a provision of the articles, as authorized by 35-2-232, for an amendment to the articles or bylaws.

(2) If the corporation does not have members, dissolution must be approved by a vote of a majority of the directors in office at the time the transaction is approved. In addition, the corporation shall provide notice of any directors' meeting at which approval is to be obtained in accordance with 35-2-429(3). The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider dissolution of the corporation and contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan of dissolution.

(3) The board may condition its submission of the proposed dissolution, and the members may condition their approval of the dissolution on receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or on any other basis.

(4) If the board seeks to have dissolution approved by the members at a membership meeting, the corporation shall give notice to its members of the proposed membership meeting in accordance with 35-2-530. The notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider dissolving the corporation and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan of dissolution.

(5) If the board seeks to have dissolution approved by the members by written consent or written ballot, the material soliciting the approval must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan of dissolution.

(6) The plan of dissolution must indicate to whom the assets owned or held by the corporation will be distributed after all creditors have been paid.

(7) In addition to the requirements under this part, a domestic mutual insurer shall comply with the provisions of Title 33, chapter 3, part 6.

History: En. Sec. 135, Ch. 411, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 50, Ch. 151, L. 2017.

35-2-722. Notices to attorney general. (1) Except as provided in subsection (4), a public benefit corporation or religious corporation shall give the attorney general written notice that it intends to dissolve at or before the time it delivers articles of dissolution to the secretary of state. The notice must include a copy or summary of the plan of dissolution.

(2) Assets may not be transferred or conveyed by a public benefit corporation or religious corporation as part of the dissolution process until 20 days after it has given the written notice required by subsection (1) to the attorney general or until the attorney general has consented in writing to the dissolution or indicated in writing that the attorney general will not take action in respect to the transfer or conveyance, whichever is earlier.

(3) When all or substantially all of the assets of a public benefit corporation have been transferred or conveyed following approval of dissolution, the board shall deliver to the attorney general a list showing those, other than creditors, to whom the assets were transferred or conveyed. The list must indicate the address of each person, other than creditors, who received assets and indicate what assets each received.

(4) A public benefit corporation or religious corporation that is considered a nonprofit health entity, as defined in 50-4-701, is subject to the provisions of Title 50, chapter 4, part 7.

35-2-723. Articles of dissolution. (1) At any time after dissolution is authorized, the corporation may dissolve by delivering to the secretary of state articles of dissolution setting forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the date dissolution was authorized;

(c) a statement that dissolution was approved by a sufficient vote of the board;

(d) if approval of members was not required, a statement to that effect and a statement that dissolution was approved by a sufficient vote of the board of directors or incorporators;

(e) if approval by members was required:

(i) the designation, number of memberships outstanding, number of votes entitled to be cast by each class entitled to vote separately on dissolution, and number of votes of each class indisputably voting on dissolution; and

(ii) (A) either the total number of votes cast for and against dissolution by each class entitled to vote separately on dissolution or the total number of undisputed votes cast for dissolution by each class; and

(B) a statement that the number cast for dissolution by each class was sufficient for approval by that class;

(f) if approval of dissolution by some person or persons other than the members, the board, or the incorporators is required pursuant to 35-2-721(1)(c), a statement that the approval was obtained; and

(g) if the corporation is a public benefit or religious corporation, that the notice to the attorney general required by 35-2-722(1) has been given.

(2) A corporation is dissolved upon the effective date of its articles of dissolution.

35-2-724. Revocation of dissolution. (1) A corporation may revoke its dissolution within 120 days of its effective date.

(2) Revocation of dissolution must be authorized in the same manner as the dissolution was authorized unless that authorization permitted revocation by action of the board of directors alone, in which event the board of directors may revoke the dissolution without action by the members or any other person.

(3) After the revocation of dissolution is authorized, the corporation may revoke the dissolution by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of revocation of dissolution, together with a copy of its articles of dissolution, that set forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the effective date of the dissolution that was revoked;

(c) the date that the revocation of dissolution was authorized;

(d) if the corporation's board of directors or incorporators revoked the dissolution, a statement to that effect;

(e) if the corporation's board of directors revoked a dissolution authorized by the members alone or in conjunction with another person or persons, a statement that revocation was permitted by action by the board of directors alone pursuant to that authorization; and

(f) if member or third person action was required to revoke the dissolution, the information required by 35-2-723(1)(e) and (1)(f).

(4) Revocation of dissolution is effective upon the effective date of the articles of revocation of dissolution.

(5) When the revocation of dissolution is effective, it relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date of the dissolution and the corporation may resume carrying on its activities as if dissolution had never occurred.

History: En. Sec. 138, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-725. Effect of dissolution. (1) A dissolved corporation continues its corporate existence but may not carry on any activities except those appropriate to wind up and liquidate its affairs, including:

(a) preserving and protecting its assets and minimizing its liabilities;

(b) discharging or making provision for discharging its liabilities and obligations;

(c) disposing of its properties that will not be distributed in kind;

(d) returning, transferring, or conveying assets held by the corporation upon a condition requiring return, transfer, or conveyance in accordance with the condition;

(e) transferring, subject to any contractual or legal requirements, its assets as provided in or authorized by its articles of incorporation or bylaws;

(f) if the corporation is a public benefit corporation or religious corporation and provision has not been made in its articles or bylaws for distribution of assets on dissolution, transferring, subject to any contractual or legal requirement, its assets:

(i) to one or more persons described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; or

(ii) if the dissolved corporation is not described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, to one or more public benefit corporations or religious corporations;

(g) if the corporation is a mutual benefit corporation and provision has not been made in its articles or bylaws for distribution of assets on dissolution, transferring its assets to its members or, if it does not have members, to those persons whom the corporation holds itself out as benefiting or serving; and

(h) doing every other act necessary to wind up and liquidate its assets and affairs.

(2) Dissolution of a corporation does not:

(a) transfer title to the corporation's property;

(b) subject its directors or officers to standards of conduct different from those prescribed in part 4 of this chapter;

(c) change quorum or voting requirements for its board or members; change provisions for selection, resignation, or removal of its directors or officers, or both; or change provisions for amending its bylaws;

(d) prevent commencement of a proceeding by or against the corporation in its corporate name;

(e) abate or suspend a proceeding pending by or against the corporation on the effective date of dissolution; or

(f) terminate the authority of the registered agent.

35-2-726. Known claims against dissolved corporation. (1) A dissolved corporation shall dispose of the known claims against it by following the procedure described in this section.

(2) The dissolved corporation shall notify its known claimants in writing of the dissolution at any time after its effective date. The written notice must:

(a) describe information that must be included in a claim;

(b) provide a mailing address where a claim may be sent;

(c) state the deadline, which may not be fewer than 120 days from the effective date of the written notice, by which the dissolved corporation must receive the claim; and

(d) state that the claim will be barred if not received by the deadline.

(3) A claim against the dissolved corporation is barred:

(a) if a claimant who was given written notice under subsection (2) does not deliver the claim to the dissolved corporation by the deadline; or

(b) if a claimant whose claim was rejected by the dissolved corporation does not commence a proceeding to enforce the claim within 90 days from the effective date of the rejection notice.

(4) For purposes of this section, "claim" does not include a contingent liability or a claim based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution.

35-2-727. Unknown claims against dissolved corporations. (1) The dissolution of a corporation, including by the expiration of its term, does not take away or impair any remedy available to or against the corporation or its officers, directors, or members for any claim or right, whether or not the claim or right existed or accrued prior to the dissolution. Any action or proceeding by or against the corporation referred to in this subsection may be prosecuted or defended by the corporation in its corporate name. Members, directors, and officers may take corporate or other action as is appropriate to protect a remedy, right, or claim.

(2) A claim may be enforced under 35-2-726 or this section:

(a) against the dissolved corporation to the extent of its undistributed assets; or

(b) if the assets have been distributed in liquidation, against a member of the dissolved corporation to the extent of the member's pro rata share of the claim or the corporate assets distributed to the member in liquidation, whichever is less. However, a member's total liability for all claims under this section may not exceed the total amount of assets distributed to the member.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) apply to a foreign corporation transacting business in this state, and its members, for any claims otherwise arising or accruing under Montana law.

History: En. Sec. 141, Ch. 411, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 1287, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-2-728. Grounds for judicial dissolution. (1) The district court may dissolve a corporation:

(a) in a proceeding by the attorney general if it is established that:

(i) the corporation obtained its articles of incorporation through fraud;

(ii) the corporation has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon it by law;

(iii) the corporation is a public benefit corporation and the corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted; or

(iv) the corporation is a public benefit corporation and is no longer able to carry out its purposes;

(b) in a proceeding by 50 members or members holding 5% of the voting power, whichever is less, or by a director or any person specified in the articles, except as provided in the articles or bylaws of a religious corporation, if it is established that:

(i) the directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs and the members, if any, are unable to breach the deadlock;

(ii) the directors or those in control of the corporation have acted, are acting, or will act in a manner that is illegal, oppressive, or fraudulent;

(iii) the members are deadlocked in voting power and have failed, for a period that includes at least two consecutive annual meeting dates, to elect successors to directors whose terms have or would otherwise have expired;

(iv) the corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted; or

(v) the corporation is a public benefit corporation or religious corporation and is no longer able to carry out its purposes;

(c) in a proceeding by a creditor if it is established that:

(i) the creditor's claim has been reduced to judgment, the execution on the judgment returned unsatisfied, and the corporation is insolvent; or

(ii) the corporation has admitted in writing that the creditor's claim is due and owing and the corporation is insolvent; or

(d) in a proceeding by the corporation to have its voluntary dissolution continued under court supervision.

(2) Prior to dissolving a corporation, the court shall consider whether:

(a) there are reasonable alternatives to dissolution;

(b) dissolution is in the public interest, if the corporation is a public benefit corporation; and

(c) dissolution is the best way of protecting the interests of members if the corporation is a mutual benefit corporation.

35-2-729. Procedure for judicial dissolution. (1) Venue for a proceeding by the attorney general to dissolve a corporation lies in the district court for the first judicial district. Venue for a proceeding brought by any other party named in 35-2-728 lies in the judicial district for the county where a corporation's principal office is or was last located or, if the principal office is not located in this state, in Lewis and Clark County.

(2) It is not necessary to make directors or members parties to a proceeding to dissolve a corporation unless relief is sought against them individually.

(3) In a proceeding brought to dissolve a corporation, a court may issue injunctions, appoint a receiver or custodian pendente lite with all powers and duties the court directs, take other action required to preserve the corporate assets wherever located, and carry on the activities of the corporation until a full hearing can be held.

(4) A person other than the attorney general who brings an involuntary dissolution proceeding for a public benefit corporation or religious corporation shall give written notice of the proceeding to the attorney general who may intervene.

35-2-730. Receivership or custodianship. (1) A court in a judicial proceeding brought to dissolve a public benefit corporation or mutual benefit corporation may appoint one or more receivers to wind up and liquidate the affairs of the corporation or one or more custodians to manage the affairs of the corporation. The court shall hold a hearing, after notifying all parties to the proceeding and any interested persons designated by the court, before appointing a receiver or custodian. The court appointing a receiver or custodian has exclusive jurisdiction over the corporation and all of its property, wherever located.

(2) The court may appoint, as a receiver or custodian, an individual authorized to transact business in this state or a domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation authorized to transact business in this state. The court may require the receiver or custodian to post bond, with or without sureties, in an amount the court directs.

(3) The court shall describe the powers and duties of the receiver or custodian in its appointing order, which may be amended from time to time. Among other powers:

(a) the receiver:

(i) may, if authorized by the court, dispose of all or any part of the assets of the corporation wherever located, at a public or private sale, subject to any trust and other restrictions that would be applicable to the corporation; and

(ii) may sue and defend in the receiver's or custodian's name as receiver or custodian of the corporation in all courts of this state; and

(b) the custodian may exercise all the powers of the corporation through or in place of its board of directors or officers to the extent necessary to manage the affairs of the corporation in the best interests of its members and creditors.

(4) The court during a receivership may redesignate the receiver a custodian and during a custodianship may redesignate the custodian a receiver if doing so is in the best interests of the corporation, its members, and its creditors.

(5) From time to time during the receivership or custodianship, the court may order compensation paid and expense disbursements or reimbursements made to the receiver or custodian and the receiver or custodian's counsel from the assets of the corporation or proceeds from the sale of the assets.

35-2-732. Deposit with state treasurer. Assets of a dissolved corporation that should be transferred to a creditor, claimant, or member of the corporation who cannot be found or who is not competent to receive them must be reduced to cash, subject to known trust restrictions, and deposited with the state treasurer for safekeeping. However, in the state treasurer's discretion, property may be received and held in kind. When the creditor, claimant, or member furnishes satisfactory proof of entitlement to the amount deposited or property held in kind, the state treasurer shall deliver to the creditor, claimant, member, or other person as the creditor's, claimant's, or member's representative that amount or property.

35-2-820. Authority to transact business required. (1) A foreign corporation may not transact business in this state until it obtains a certificate of authority from the secretary of state.

(2) The following activities, among others, do not constitute transacting business within the meaning of subsection (1):

(a) maintaining, defending, or settling any proceeding;

(b) holding meetings of the board of directors or members or carrying on other activities concerning internal corporate affairs;

(c) maintaining bank accounts;

(d) maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange, and registration of memberships or securities or maintaining trustees or depositaries with respect to those securities;

(e) selling through independent contractors;

(f) soliciting or obtaining orders, whether by mail or through employees or agents or otherwise, if the orders require acceptance outside this state before they become contracts;

(g) creating or acquiring indebtedness, mortgages, and security interests in real or personal property;

(h) securing or collecting debts or enforcing mortgages and security interests in property securing the debts;

(i) owning real or personal property:

(i) that is acquired incident to activities described in subsection (2)(h) if the property is disposed of within 5 years after the date of acquisition; or

(ii) that does not produce income or is not used in the performance of a corporate function;

(j) conducting an isolated transaction that is completed within 30 days and that is not a transaction in the course of repeated transactions of a similar nature; or

(k) transacting business in interstate commerce.

(3) The list of activities in subsection (2) is not exhaustive.

35-2-821. Consequences of transacting business without authority. (1) A foreign corporation transacting business in this state without a certificate of authority may not maintain a proceeding in any court in this state until it obtains a certificate of authority.

(2) The successor to a foreign corporation that transacted business in this state without a certificate of authority and the assignee of a cause of action arising out of that business may not maintain a proceeding on that cause of action in any court in this state until the foreign corporation or its successor obtains a certificate of authority.

(3) A court may stay a proceeding commenced by a foreign corporation, its successor, or its assignee until it determines whether the foreign corporation, its successor, or its assignee requires a certificate of authority. If it determines that a certificate is required, the court may further stay the proceeding until the foreign corporation, its successor, or its assignee obtains the certificate.

(4) A foreign corporation is liable for a civil penalty of $5 for each day, but not to exceed a total of $1,000 for each year, that it transacts business in this state without a certificate of authority. The attorney general may collect all penalties due under this subsection.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), the failure of a foreign corporation to obtain a certificate of authority does not impair the validity of its corporate acts or prevent it from defending any proceeding in this state.

35-2-824. Effect of certificate of authority. (1) A certificate of authority authorizes the foreign corporation to which it is issued the right to transact business in this state subject, however, to the right of the state to revoke the certificate as provided in this chapter.

(2) A foreign corporation with a valid certificate of authority has the same rights and enjoys the same privileges as a domestic corporation of a similar character and, except as otherwise provided by this chapter, is subject to the same duties, restrictions, penalties, and liabilities now or later imposed on a domestic corporation of a similar character.

(3) This chapter does not authorize this state to regulate the organization or internal affairs of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state.

35-2-825 reserved.

35-2-826. (Temporary) Corporate name of foreign corporation. (1) If the corporate name of a foreign corporation does not satisfy the requirements of 35-2-305, the foreign corporation, to obtain or maintain a certificate of authority to transact business in this state, may use a fictitious name to transact business in this state if:

(a) its real name is unavailable; and

(b) it delivers to the secretary of state, for filing, a copy of the resolution of its board of directors, certified by its secretary, adopting the fictitious name.

(2) Except as authorized by subsections (3) and (4), the corporate name, including a fictitious name, of a foreign corporation must be distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from:

(a) the corporate name of a nonprofit or business corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state;

(b) a corporate name reserved or registered under 35-1-309, 35-1-311, 35-2-306, or 35-2-307;

(c) the fictitious name of another foreign business or nonprofit corporation authorized to transact business in this state;

(d) the corporate name of a domestic corporation that has dissolved, but distinguishable only for a period of 120 days after the effective date of dissolution; and

(e) any assumed business name, limited partnership name, limited liability company name, trademark, or service mark registered or reserved with the secretary of state.

(3) A foreign corporation may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use in this state the name of another corporation, incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state, that is not distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from the name applied for. The secretary of state shall authorize use of the name applied for if:

(a) the other corporation consents to the use in writing and submits an undertaking in a form satisfactory to the secretary of state to change its name to a name that is distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from the name of the applying corporation; or

(b) the applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use the name applied for in this state.

(4) A foreign corporation may use in this state the name, including the fictitious name, of another domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation that is used in this state if the other corporation is incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state and the foreign corporation:

(a) has merged with the other corporation;

(b) has been formed by reorganization of the other corporation; or

(c) has acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the corporate name, of the other corporation.

(5) If a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state changes its corporate name to one that does not satisfy the requirements of 35-2-305, it may not transact business in this state under the changed name until it adopts a name satisfying the requirements of 35-2-305 and obtains an amended certificate of authority under 35-2-823.

35-2-826. (Effective June 1, 2020) Corporate name of foreign corporation. (1) If the corporate name of a foreign corporation does not satisfy the requirements of 35-2-305, the foreign corporation, to obtain or maintain a certificate of authority to transact business in this state, may use a fictitious name to transact business in this state if:

(a) its real name is unavailable; and

(b) it delivers to the secretary of state, for filing, a copy of the resolution of its board of directors, certified by its secretary, adopting the fictitious name.

(2) Except as authorized by subsections (3) and (4), the corporate name, including a fictitious name, of a foreign corporation must be distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from:

(a) the corporate name of a nonprofit or business corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state;

(b) a corporate name reserved or registered under 35-2-306, 35-2-307, 35-14-402, or 35-14-403;

(c) the fictitious name of another foreign business or nonprofit corporation authorized to transact business in this state;

(d) the corporate name of a domestic corporation that has dissolved, but distinguishable only for a period of 120 days after the effective date of dissolution; and

(e) any assumed business name, limited partnership name, limited liability company name, trademark, or service mark registered or reserved with the secretary of state.

(3) A foreign corporation may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use in this state the name of another corporation, incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state, that is not distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from the name applied for. The secretary of state shall authorize use of the name applied for if:

(a) the other corporation consents to the use in writing and submits an undertaking in a form satisfactory to the secretary of state to change its name to a name that is distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from the name of the applying corporation; or

(b) the applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use the name applied for in this state.

(4) A foreign corporation may use in this state the name, including the fictitious name, of another domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation that is used in this state if the other corporation is incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state and the foreign corporation:

(a) has merged with the other corporation;

(b) has been formed by reorganization of the other corporation; or

(c) has acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the corporate name, of the other corporation.

(5) If a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state changes its corporate name to one that does not satisfy the requirements of 35-2-305, it may not transact business in this state under the changed name until it adopts a name satisfying the requirements of 35-2-305 and obtains an amended certificate of authority under 35-2-823.

(a) the name of the foreign corporation and the name of the state, tribe, or country under whose law it is incorporated;

(b) the fact that it is not transacting business in this state and that it surrenders its authority to transact business in this state;

(c) the fact that it revokes the authority of its registered agent to accept service on its behalf and appoints the secretary of state as its agent for service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action arising during the time it was authorized to do business in this state;

(d) a mailing address to which the secretary of state may mail a copy of any process served on the secretary of state under subsection (2)(c); and

(e) a commitment to notify the secretary of state, in the future, of any change in the mailing address.

35-2-832. Grounds for revocation. (1) The secretary of state may commence a proceeding under 35-2-833 to revoke the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state if:

(a) the foreign corporation does not deliver the annual report to the secretary of state within 90 days after it is due;

(b) the foreign corporation does not pay within 90 days after they are due any franchise taxes or penalties imposed by this chapter or other law;

(c) the foreign corporation is without a registered agent in this state for 90 days or more;

(d) the foreign corporation does not inform the secretary of state by an appropriate filing that its registered agent has changed or resigned within 90 days of the change or resignation;

(e) an incorporator, director, officer, or agent of the foreign corporation signed a document that the person knew was false in any material respect, with the intent that the document be delivered to the secretary of state for filing; or

(f) the secretary of state receives a duly authenticated certificate from the secretary of state or other official having custody of corporate records in the state, tribe, or country under whose law the foreign corporation is incorporated and the certificate states that the foreign corporation has been dissolved or disappeared as the result of a merger.

(2) The attorney general may commence a proceeding under 35-2-833 to revoke the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state if:

(a) the corporation has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon it by law;

(b) the corporation is designated as a foreign public benefit corporation and its corporation assets in this state are being misapplied or wasted; or

(c) the corporation is designated as a foreign public benefit corporation and it is no longer able to carry out its purpose.

35-2-833. Procedure for and effect of revocation. (1) The secretary of state, upon determining that one or more grounds exist under 35-2-832 for revocation of a certificate of authority, shall deliver to the foreign corporation written notice of that determination under 35-2-830.

(2) The attorney general, upon determining that one or more grounds exist under 35-2-832(2) for revocation of a certificate of authority, shall request the secretary of state to serve, and the secretary of state shall serve, the foreign corporation with written notice of that determination under 35-2-830.

(3) If the foreign corporation does not correct each ground for revocation or demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the secretary of state or attorney general that each ground for revocation determined by the secretary of state or attorney general does not exist within 60 days after delivering the notice or after service of the notice is perfected under 35-2-830, the secretary of state may revoke the foreign corporation's certificate of authority by signing a certificate of revocation that states the ground or grounds for revocation and the effective date of the revocation. The secretary of state shall file the original of the certificate and deliver a copy to the foreign corporation.

(4) The authority of a foreign corporation to transact business in this state ceases on the date shown on the certificate revoking its certificate of authority.

(5) Revocation of a foreign corporation's certificate of authority does not terminate the authority of the registered agent of the corporation.

35-2-834. Appeal from revocation. (1) A foreign corporation may appeal the secretary of state's revocation of its certificate of authority to the district court for the first judicial district within 30 days after the service of the certificate of revocation is perfected under 35-2-830. The foreign corporation shall appeal by petitioning the court to set aside the revocation and attaching to the petition copies of its certificate of authority and the secretary of state's certificate of revocation.

(2) The court may summarily order the secretary of state to reinstate the certificate of authority or may take any other action the court considers appropriate.

(3) The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

35-2-904. Annual report for secretary of state. (1) Each domestic corporation and each foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, an annual report on a form prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state that sets forth:

(a) the name of the corporation and the jurisdiction under whose law it is incorporated;
(b) the information required by 35-7-105(1);
(c) the business mailing address of its principal office, wherever located;
(d) the names and business mailing addresses of its directors and principal officers;
(e) a brief description of the nature of its activities; and
(f) whether or not it has members.

(2) The information in the annual report must be current on the date the annual report is executed on behalf of the corporation.

(3) The first annual report must be delivered to the secretary of state between January 1 and April 15 of the year following the calendar year in which a domestic corporation was incorporated or a foreign corporation was authorized to transact business. Subsequent annual reports must be delivered to the secretary of state between January 1 and April 15.

(4) If an annual report does not contain the information required by this section, the secretary of state shall promptly notify the reporting domestic or foreign corporation in writing and return the report to it for correction. If the report is corrected to contain the information required by this section and delivered to the secretary of state within 30 days after the effective date of notice, it is considered to be timely filed.

35-2-906. Corporate records. (1) A corporation shall keep as permanent records minutes of all meetings of its members and board of directors, a record of all actions taken by the members or directors without a meeting, and a record of all actions taken by committees of the board of directors as authorized by 35-2-433(4).

(2) A corporation shall maintain appropriate accounting records.

(3) A corporation or its agent shall maintain a record of its members in a form that permits preparation of a list of the names and addresses of all members, in alphabetical order by class, showing the number of votes each member is entitled to cast.

(4) A corporation shall maintain its records in written form or in another form capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time.

(5) A corporation shall keep a copy of the following records at its principal office or a location from which the records may be recovered within 2 business days:

(a) its articles or restated articles of incorporation and all amendments to them currently in effect;

(b) its bylaws or restated bylaws and all amendments to them currently in effect;

(c) resolutions adopted by its board of directors relating to the characteristics, qualifications, rights, limitations, and obligations of members or any class or category of members;

(d) the minutes of all meetings of members and the records of all actions approved by the members for the past 3 years;

(e) the financial statements available to members for the past 3 years under 35-2-911;

(f) a list of the names and business or home addresses of its current directors and officers; and

(g) its most recent annual report delivered to the secretary of state under 35-2-904.

History: En. Sec. 161, Ch. 411, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 57, Ch. 10, L. 1993.

35-2-907. Inspection of records by members. (1) Subject to 35-2-908(3) and subsection (5) of this section, a member is entitled to inspect and copy, at a reasonable time and location specified by the corporation, any of the records of the corporation described in 35-2-906(5) if the member gives the corporation written notice or a written demand at least 5 business days before the date on which the member wishes to inspect and copy.

(2) Subject to subsection (5), a member is entitled to inspect and copy, at a reasonable time and reasonable location specified by the corporation, any of the following records of the corporation if the member meets the requirements of subsection (3) and gives the corporation written notice at least 5 business days before the date on which the member wishes to inspect and copy:

(a) excerpts from any records required to be maintained under 35-2-906(1), to the extent not subject to inspection under subsection (1);

(b) accounting records of the corporation; and

(c) subject to 35-2-910, the membership list.

(3) A member may inspect and copy the records identified in subsection (2) only if:

(a) the member's demand is made in good faith and for a proper purpose;

(b) the member describes with reasonable particularity the purpose and the records the member desires to inspect; and

(c) the records are directly connected with this purpose.

(4) This section does not affect:

(a) the right of a member to inspect records under 35-2-535 or, if the member is in litigation with the corporation, to the same extent as any other litigant; or

(b) the power of a court, independent of this chapter, to compel the production of corporate records for examination.

(5) The articles or bylaws of a religious corporation may limit or abolish the right of a member under this section to inspect and copy any corporate record.

History: En. Sec. 162, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-908. Scope of inspection rights. (1) A member's agent or attorney has the same inspection and copying rights as the member the agent or attorney represents.

(2) The right to copy records under 35-2-907 includes, if reasonable, the right to receive copies made by photographic, xerographic, or other means.

(3) The corporation may impose a reasonable charge, covering the costs of labor and material, for copies of documents provided to the member. The charge may not exceed the estimated cost of production or reproduction of the records.

(4) The corporation may comply with a member's demand to inspect the record of members under 35-2-907(2)(c) by providing the member with a list of its members that was compiled no earlier than the date of the member's demand.

35-2-909. Court-ordered inspection. (1) If a corporation does not allow a member who complies with 35-2-907(1) to inspect and copy any records required by that subsection to be available for inspection, the district court for the judicial district of the county where the corporation's principal office is located or, if none in this state, in Lewis and Clark County may summarily order inspection and copying of the records demanded at the corporation's expense upon application of the member.

(2) If a corporation does not within a reasonable time allow a member to inspect and copy any other record, the member who complies with 35-2-907(2) and (3) may apply to the district court for the judicial district of the county where the corporation's principal office is located or, if the principal office is not located in this state, in Lewis and Clark County for an order to permit inspection and copying of the records demanded. The court shall dispose of an application under this subsection on an expedited basis.

(3) If the court orders inspection and copying of the records demanded, it shall also order the corporation to pay the member's costs, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred to obtain the order unless the corporation proves that it refused inspection in good faith because it had a reasonable basis for doubt about the right of the member to inspect the records demanded.

(4) If the court orders inspection and copying of the records demanded, it may impose reasonable restrictions on the use or distribution of the records by the demanding member.

35-2-910. Limitations on use of membership list. (1) Without consent of the board, a membership list or any part of it may not be obtained or used by a person for any purpose unrelated to a member's interest as a member.

(2) Without limiting the generality of the provisions of subsection (1), without the consent of the board a membership list or any part of it may not be:

(a) used to solicit money or property unless the money or property will be used solely to solicit the votes of the members in an election to be held by the corporation;

(b) used for any commercial purpose; or

(c) sold to or purchased by any person.

History: En. Sec. 165, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-911. Financial statements for members. Upon the written request of any member of the corporation, the corporation shall deliver to the member its most recent financial statements showing in reasonable detail its assets and liabilities and the results of the operations.

History: En. Sec. 166, Ch. 411, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 190, L. 2013.

35-2-912. Report of indemnification to members. If a corporation indemnifies or advances expenses to a director under 35-2-447 through 35-2-450 in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, the corporation shall report the indemnification or advance in writing to the members with or before the notice of the next meeting of members.

35-2-1107. Secretary of state — powers — rulemaking. (1) The secretary of state has the power reasonably necessary to perform the duties required of the secretary of state's office by this chapter.

(2) The secretary of state may adopt rules to perform the duties required of the secretary of state under this chapter, including establishing necessary fees.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-1108. Forms. (1) The secretary of state may by rule prescribe and furnish on request forms or computer formats for:

(a) an application for a certificate of existence;

(b) a foreign corporation's application for a certificate of authority to transact business in this state;

(c) a foreign corporation's application for a certificate of withdrawal;

(d) the annual report; and

(e) other documents required or permitted to be filed by this chapter.

(2) If the secretary of state so requires, use of any of the forms or formats listed in subsection (1) is mandatory.

(3) The secretary of state may by rule prescribe and furnish on request forms or computer formats for other documents required or permitted to be filed by this chapter, but their use is not mandatory.

35-2-1109. Filing duty of secretary of state. (1) If a document delivered to the office of the secretary of state for filing satisfies the applicable requirements of 35-2-119 and 35-2-120, the secretary of state shall file the document.

(2) The secretary of state shall file a document by stamping or otherwise endorsing on the document "Filed", the secretary of state's official title, and the date and time the secretary of state received the document. Except as provided in 35-2-830, after filing a document, the secretary of state shall deliver a certification letter to the domestic or foreign corporation or its representative as acknowledgment that the document has been filed and the fee has been paid.

(3) If the secretary of state refuses to file a document, the secretary of state shall return the document to the domestic or foreign corporation or its representative within 10 business days after the document was delivered to the secretary of state and include a brief written explanation of the reason for the refusal.

(4) The secretary of state's duty concerning the documents under this section is ministerial. Filing or refusal to file a document does not:

(a) affect the validity or invalidity of the document in whole or in part;

(b) relate to the correctness or incorrectness of information contained in the document; or

(c) create a presumption that the document is valid or invalid or that information contained in the document is correct or incorrect.

(5) The secretary of state may correct errors caused by a filing officer. The error and the correction must be retained in the file containing the document in which the error appeared. For the purposes of this subsection, a filing officer is a person employed in a filing office as defined in 30-9A-102.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 411, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 71, L. 2005; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 33, L. 2007; amd. Sec. 50, Ch. 240, L. 2007.

35-2-1110. Appeal from secretary of state's refusal to file document. (1) If the secretary of state refuses to file a document delivered for filing to the secretary of state's office, the domestic or foreign corporation may appeal the refusal to the district court for the first judicial district. The appeal is commenced by petitioning the court to compel the filing of the document and by attaching to the petition the document and the secretary of state's explanation of the refusal to file.

(2) The court may summarily order the secretary of state to file the document or take other action the court considers appropriate.

(3) The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-1112. Certificate of existence. (1) A person may apply to the secretary of state to furnish a certificate of existence for a domestic or foreign corporation.

(2) The certificate of existence must set forth:

(a) the domestic corporation's corporate name or the foreign corporation's corporate name used in this state;

(b) (i) that the domestic corporation is incorporated under the laws of this state, the date of its incorporation, and the period of its duration if less than perpetual; or

(ii) that the foreign corporation is authorized to transact business in this state;

(c) that all fees, taxes, and penalties owed to this state have been paid, if:

(i) payment is reflected in the records of the secretary of state; and

(ii) nonpayment affects the good standing of the domestic or foreign corporation;

(d) that its most recent annual report required by 35-2-904 has been delivered to the secretary of state;

(e) that articles of dissolution have not been filed; and

(f) other facts of record in the office of the secretary of state that may be requested by the applicant.

(3) Subject to any qualification stated in the certificate, a certificate of existence issued by the secretary of state may be relied upon as conclusive evidence that the domestic or foreign corporation is in good standing in this state.

Part 13
Derivative Actions

35-2-1301. Standing. (1) For purposes of this part, "derivative proceeding" means a civil suit in the right of a domestic corporation or, to the extent provided in 35-2-1307, in the right of a foreign corporation.

(2) A derivative proceeding may be commenced or maintained by a complainant who is:

(a) a director at the time of the bringing of the proceeding; or

(b) a member or members having 5% or more of the voting power or by 50 members, whichever is less. Each member must be a member at the time of the proceeding, including the time of the complained act or omission.

History: En. Sec. 50, Ch. 411, L. 1991.

35-2-1302. Demand. A complainant may not commence a derivative proceeding until:

(1) a written demand has been made upon the corporation to take suitable action;

(2) 90 days have expired from the date the demand was made, unless the complainant has earlier been notified that the demand has been rejected by the corporation or unless irreparable injury to the corporation would result by waiting for the expiration of the 90-day period; and

(3) the complainant has notified the attorney general prior to commencing a proceeding if the proceeding involves a public benefit corporation or assets held in charitable trust by a mutual benefit corporation. Notification of the attorney general must be made by mailing the attorney general a copy of the complaint.

35-2-1303. Stay of proceedings. If the corporation commences an inquiry into the allegations made in the demand or complaint, the court may stay any derivative proceeding for any period the court considers appropriate.

35-2-1304. Dismissal. (1) The court shall dismiss a derivative proceeding on motion by the corporation if one of the groups specified in subsection (2) or (6) has determined in good faith, after conducting a reasonable inquiry upon which its conclusions are based, that the maintenance of the derivative proceeding is not in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) Unless a panel is appointed pursuant to subsection (6), the determination in subsection (1) must be made by:

(a) a majority vote of independent directors present at a meeting of the board of directors if independent directors constitute a quorum; or

(b) a majority vote of a committee consisting of two or more independent directors appointed by majority vote of independent directors present at a meeting of the board of directors, whether or not the independent directors constitute a quorum.

(3) None of the following may by itself cause a director to be considered not independent for purposes of this section:

(a) the nomination or election of the director by persons who are defendants in the derivative proceeding or against whom action is demanded;

(b) the naming of the director as a defendant in the derivative proceeding or as a defendant against whom action is demanded; or

(c) the approval by the director of the act being challenged in the derivative proceeding or demand if the act did not result in personal benefit to the director.

(4) If a derivative proceeding is commenced after a determination has been made rejecting a demand by a complainant, the complaint must allege with particularity facts establishing either that a majority of the board of directors did not consist of independent directors at the time the determination was made or that the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met.

(5) If a majority of the board of directors does not consist of independent directors at the time the determination is made, the corporation has the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (1) have been met. If a majority of the board of directors consists of independent directors at the time the determination is made, the complainant has the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met.

(6) Upon motion by the corporation, the court may appoint a panel of one or more independent persons to make a determination of whether the maintenance of the derivative proceeding is in the best interests of the corporation. In this case, the plaintiff has the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met.

35-2-1305. Discontinuance or settlement — notice. A derivative proceeding may not be discontinued or settled without the court's approval. If the court determines that a proposed discontinuance or settlement will substantially affect the interests of the corporation's members or a class of members, the court shall direct that notice be given to the members affected.

35-2-1306. Payment of expenses. On termination of the derivative proceeding, the court may order:

(1) the corporation to pay the complainant's reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, incurred in the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding has resulted in a substantial benefit to the corporation; or

(2) the complainant to pay any defendant's reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, incurred in defending the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding was commenced or maintained without reasonable cause or for an improper purpose.

35-2-1307. Applicability to foreign corporations. In a derivative proceeding in the right of a foreign corporation, the matter covered by this part is governed by the laws of the jurisdiction of incorporation of the foreign corporation, except for 35-2-1303, 35-2-1305, and 35-2-1306.

35-2-1401. Prohibited distributions — permitted transactions. (1) Except as authorized by 35-2-1402, a corporation may not make any distributions.

(2) A public benefit corporation may, subject to the requirements of Title 15, chapter 31, and this chapter, as applicable:

(a) pay reasonable compensation or reimburse reasonable expenses to members, directors, or officers for services rendered; and

(b) confer benefits upon or make contributions to members in conformity with its charitable purposes if after the transaction is completed:

(i) the corporation would be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of its activities; and

(ii) the corporation's total assets would at least equal the sum of its total liabilities.

History: En. Sec. 132, Ch. 411, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 135, L. 2007.

35-2-1402. Authorized distributions. (1) A mutual benefit corporation may purchase its memberships if after the purchase is completed:

(a) the corporation would be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of its activities; and

(b) the corporation's total assets would at least equal the sum of its total liabilities.

(2) Corporations may make distributions upon dissolution in conformity with part 7 of this chapter.

35-3-201. When corporation sole may be created. Whenever the rules or discipline of any religious denomination, society, or church permit or require the estate, property, temporalities, and business thereof to be held in the name of or managed by a bishop, chief priest, or presiding elder, it shall be lawful for such bishop, chief priest, or presiding elder of such religious denomination, society, or church to become a corporation sole in the manner herein prescribed.

35-3-202. Articles of incorporation. (1) The articles of incorporation must set forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the period of duration, which may be perpetual;

(c) the name of the religious denomination, society, or church creating the corporation sole;

(d) the name of the bishop, chief priest, or presiding elder whose office is incorporated under this chapter, together with a designation of the boundaries of the territory over which that person presides or over which that person's jurisdiction extends and the facts authorizing the incorporation;

(e) the manner in which any vacancy occurring in the incumbency of the bishop, chief priest, or presiding elder, as required by the rules or discipline of the religious denomination, society, or church, must be filled;

(f) any provisions, not inconsistent with law, that the incorporator elects to set forth in the articles of incorporation for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation, including any provisions for distribution of assets on dissolution or final liquidation;

(g) the address of its principal office and the information specified by 35-7-105(1);

(h) the name and address of the incorporator.

(2) It is not necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter.

(3) The articles must be verified by affidavit of the incorporator, and the incorporator shall also file the original or a copy or translation of the incorporator's commission, certificate, or letters of appointment as bishop, chief priest, or presiding elder, duly attested, and the incorporator's affidavit that the document is a true copy or translation must be considered as sufficient attestation.

35-3-203. Effect of issuance of certificate of incorporation. (1) Upon filing the articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state with proof of appointment or election of such bishop, chief priest, or presiding elder, the secretary of state must issue to the corporation over the great seal of the state a certificate of incorporation.

(2) Upon the issuance of this certificate, the corporate existence shall begin and such certificate of incorporation shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the incorporator have been complied with and that the corporation has been incorporated under this chapter, except as against the state in a proceeding to cancel or revoke the certificate of incorporation or for involuntary dissolution of the corporation.

35-3-204. Unauthorized assumption of corporate powers — liability. All persons who assume to act as a corporation hereunder without authority so to do shall be jointly and severally liable for all debts and liabilities incurred or arising as the result thereof.

35-3-205. Powers of corporation sole. Every corporation sole organized under the provisions of this chapter, for the purpose of the trust described in this section, has power:

(1) to continue to exist perpetually by its corporate name unless a limited period of duration is stated in its articles of incorporation;

(2) to sue and be sued, complain, and defend in its corporate name;

(3) to have a corporate seal that may be altered at pleasure and to use the seal by causing it or a facsimile to be impressed or affixed or in any other manner reproduced;

(4) to purchase, take, receive, lease, take by gift, devise, or bequest or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal in and with real or personal property or any interest in real or personal property, wherever situated, provided that all property must be in trust for the use, purpose, and benefit of the religious denomination, society, or church for which and in whose behalf the corporation sole is organized;

(5) to sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets;

(6) to lend money to its employees other than its officers and otherwise assist its employees and officers;

(7) to purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of and otherwise use and deal in and with shares or other interests in or obligations of other domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit, associations, partnerships, or individuals or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of any other government, state, territory, tribe, governmental district, or municipality or of any instrumentality of a governmental entity;

(8) to make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money at rates of interest that the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property, franchises, and income;

(9) to lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds loaned or invested;

(10) to conduct its affairs, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted by this chapter in any state, territory, district, or possession of the United States or in any foreign country;

(11) to elect or appoint officers and agents of the corporation, including attorneys-in-fact, and to define their duties and fix their compensation;

(12) to make and alter bylaws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the corporation;

(13) unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, to make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, religious, scientific, or educational purposes;

(14) to indemnify any officer or agent or any person who may have served at its request as an officer or agent or as a director or officer of another corporation in which it owns shares of capital stock or of which it is a creditor against claims, liabilities, expenses, and costs necessarily incurred by the person in connection with the defense, compromise, or settlement of any action, suit, or proceeding, civil or criminal, in which the person is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer, except in relation to matters as to which the person is adjudged in the action, suit, or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty to the corporation, and to make any other indemnification that is authorized by the articles of incorporation or by any bylaw or resolution promulgated by the incorporator or the incorporator's successor;

(15) to pay pensions and retirement benefits and establish pension plans, pension trusts, insurance plans, and incentive plans for all or any of its officers and employees;

(16) to cease its corporate activities and surrender its corporate franchise;

(17) to have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized.

35-3-206. Amendment of articles of incorporation. (1) Whenever any bishop, chief priest, or presiding elder has filed in the office of the secretary of state articles of incorporation, under the provisions of an act entitled "An Act Authorizing and Regulating the Incorporation of Sole Corporations and Defining Their Powers", approved February 27, 1899, or amendments to that act or under this chapter, the corporation sole may amend its articles of incorporation from time to time in any and as many respects as may be desired as long as its articles of incorporation as amended contain only provisions that are lawful under this chapter.

(2) The articles of amendment must be promulgated by the incorporator or a successor by setting forth a statement of the facts authorizing the amendment and the date upon which the amendment was promulgated, and the incorporator's or successor's affidavit that the amendment is a true copy or translation of the amendment is considered a sufficient attestation.

35-3-207. Succession. (1) In the event of the death or resignation from office of any bishop, chief priest, or presiding elder or of that individual's transfer or removal from office by the person or body having the authority to remove that individual, the individual's successor in office succeeds to the powers, rights, and obligations of the office and becomes vested with the title to the property with like power and authority over the property and subject to all the legal liabilities and obligations with reference to the property.

35-3-208. Board of advisors or consultors — interim powers. The bishop, chief priest, or presiding elder of the corporation sole created hereby may appoint a board of advisors or consultors consisting of at least four persons of legal age and otherwise qualified according to the rules or discipline of the denomination, society, or church, which board, in addition to its advisory function, shall exercise the powers of the corporation upon the death, resignation, transfer, removal, or deprivation of office of the bishop, chief priest, or presiding elder and which shall elect an administrator to which it may delegate the executive and administrative functions of the corporation during the interim and until the successor bishop, chief priest, or presiding elder is appointed, elected, or qualified according to the rules or discipline of the denomination, society, or church.

35-3-209. Annual report. (1) Each corporation, subject to the provisions of this chapter, shall file within the time and in the manner prescribed by the Montana Nonprofit Corporation Act an annual report on forms or in a computerized format prescribed by the secretary of state, setting forth:

(a) the name of the corporation and the name of the present incumbent chief corporate officer;

(b) the business mailing address of the principal office of the corporation, wherever located, and the information specified by 35-7-105(1);

(c) the names and business mailing addresses of the present members of the board of advisers or consultors of the corporation.

(2) The report must be executed by the chief corporate officer or by an attorney-in-fact acting under a power of attorney filed with the secretary of state by the chief corporate officer.

(1) "Disqualified person" means any natural person, corporation, partnership, fiduciary, trust, association, government agency, or other entity that for any reason is or becomes ineligible under this chapter to own shares issued by a professional corporation.

(2) "Foreign professional corporation" means a corporation for profit organized for the purpose of rendering professional services under a law other than the laws of this state, including the laws of a federally recognized Indian tribe.

(3) "Licensing authority" means an officer, board, agency, court, or other authority in this state that has the power to issue a license or other legal authorization to render a professional service.

(4) "Professional corporation" or "domestic professional corporation" means a corporation for profit subject to the provisions of this chapter, except a foreign professional corporation.

(5) "Professional service" means any service that may lawfully be rendered only by persons licensed under a licensing law of this state and that may not lawfully be rendered by a corporation organized under the Montana Business Corporation Act.

(6) "Qualified person" means a natural person, general partnership, or professional corporation eligible under this chapter to own shares issued by a professional corporation.

35-4-205. Purposes of corporation. Professional corporations may be organized under this chapter only for the purpose of rendering professional services and services ancillary thereto within a single profession, except that a professional corporation may be incorporated for the purpose of rendering professional services within two or more professions and for any purpose or purposes for which corporations may be organized under the Montana Business Corporation Act to the extent that such combination of professional purposes or professional and business purposes is permitted by the licensing laws and rules of this state applicable to such professions.

35-4-206. Corporate name. The name of a domestic or foreign professional corporation:

(1) must contain the words "professional corporation" or the abbreviation "P.C." and may not contain any other words to indicate the type of business that it is other than "professional corporation" or "P.C." unless the name of a foreign corporation contains the words "professional services" or "P.S.";

(2) may not contain any word or phrase that indicates or implies that the corporation is organized for any purpose other than the purposes contained in its articles of incorporation;

(3) must be distinguishable on the record from any assumed business name, limited partnership name, limited liability company name, trademark, or service mark registered or reserved with the secretary of state or to the name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state, any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, a name the exclusive right to which is reserved in the manner provided in the Montana Business Corporation Act, or the name of a corporation that has in effect a registration of its corporate name as provided in the Montana Business Corporation Act. This subsection does not apply if:

(a) the similarity results from the use in the corporate name of personal names of shareholders or former shareholders or of natural persons who were associated with a predecessor entity; or

(b) the corporation files with the secretary of state either:

(i) the written consent of the other corporation or holder of a reserved or registered name to use a name that is not distinguishable on the record from the other name; or

(ii) a certified copy of a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the prior right of the corporation to the use of the name in this state.

(4) must conform to rules promulgated by a licensing authority having jurisdiction of a professional service described in the articles of incorporation of the corporation.

35-4-209. Annual reports and statements. (1) The annual report of each domestic professional corporation and each foreign professional corporation authorized to transact business in this state filed with the secretary of state pursuant to the Montana Business Corporation Act must include a statement that all the shareholders, not less than one-half the directors, and all the officers other than the secretary and treasurer of the corporation are qualified persons with respect to the corporation.

(2) Each domestic professional corporation and each foreign professional corporation authorized to transact business in this state must annually file before March 1 with each licensing authority having jurisdiction over a professional service of a type described in its articles of incorporation a statement of qualification setting forth the names and addresses of the directors and officers of the corporation and such additional information as the licensing authority may by rule prescribe as appropriate in determining whether the corporation is complying with the provisions of this chapter and rules promulgated under this chapter. The licensing authority may charge a fee to cover the cost of filing a statement of qualification.

Shares and Shareholders

35-4-301. Issuance and transfer of shares. (1) Except as provided in 37-50-330, a professional corporation may issue shares, fractional shares, and rights or options to purchase shares only to:

(a) natural persons authorized by law of this or any other state, a territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia to render a professional service permitted by the articles of incorporation of the corporation;

(b) general partnerships in which all the partners are authorized by law of this or any other state, a territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia to render a professional service permitted by the articles of incorporation and in which at least one partner is authorized by law in this state to render a professional service permitted by the articles of incorporation of the corporation; and

(c) professional corporations, domestic or foreign, authorized by law in this state to render a professional service permitted by the articles of incorporation of the corporation.

(2) The licensing authority may by rule further restrict or condition the issuance of shares in order to preserve ethical standards, but the rule may not cause a person holding shares at the time the rule becomes effective to become a disqualified person.

(3) A shareholder of a professional corporation may transfer or pledge shares, fractional shares, and rights or options to purchase shares of the corporation only to natural persons, general partnerships, and professional corporations qualified to hold shares issued directly to them by the corporation. This subsection does not prohibit the transfer of shares of a professional corporation by operation of law or court decree.

(4) Each certificate representing shares of a professional corporation must state conspicuously upon its face that the shares are subject to restrictions on transfer imposed by this chapter and to restrictions on transfer imposed by the licensing authority pursuant to this chapter.

(5) Any issuance or transfer of shares in violation of this section or a rule promulgated under this section is void.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 399, L. 1983; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 99, L. 2013.

35-4-302. Corporation's right to acquire its own shares. A professional corporation may purchase its own shares from a disqualified person without regard to the availability of capital or surplus for such purchase; however, no purchase of or payment for its own shares may be made at a time when the corporation is insolvent or if purchase or payment would make it insolvent.

35-4-303. Proxies and voting trusts. No proxy for shares of a professional corporation is valid unless given to a qualified person. A voting trust for shares of a professional corporation is invalid unless all trustees and beneficiaries are qualified persons, except that a voting trust is valid for 10 months after the death of a deceased beneficiary or for 5 months after a beneficiary has become a disqualified person.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 399, L. 1983.

35-4-304 through 35-4-310 reserved.

35-4-311. Death or disqualification of a shareholder. (1) Upon the death of a shareholder of a professional corporation or if a shareholder of a professional corporation becomes a disqualified person or if shares of a professional corporation are transferred by operation of law or court decree to a disqualified person, the shares may be transferred to a qualified person and if not so transferred must be purchased or redeemed by the corporation to the extent that the corporation has funds legally available for the purchase.

(2) If the share price is not fixed by the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation or by private agreement, the corporation must within 6 months after the death or 30 days after the disqualification or transfer to a disqualified person make a written offer to pay for the shares at a specified price considered by the corporation to be the fair value as of the date of death, disqualification, or transfer. The offer must be given to the personal representative of the estate of a deceased shareholder or to the disqualified shareholder or transferee and must be accompanied by both a balance sheet of the corporation as of the latest available date and not more than 12 months prior to the offer and a profit and loss statement of the corporation for the 12-month period ending on the date of the balance sheet.

(3) If the fair value of the shares is agreed upon within 30 days after the date of the written offer, payment must be made within 60 days after the date of the offer or within another period that the parties fix by agreement and upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing the shares. Upon payment the transferor ceases to have any interest in the shares.

(4) If the fair value is not agreed upon within 30 days after the date of the written offer, the corporation shall within the next 30 days file a petition in the district court of the county in this state where the principal office of the corporation is located or, if the principal office is not located in this state, in Lewis and Clark County, requesting that the fair value of the shares be found and determined. If the corporation fails or refuses to institute the proceeding, the disqualified person may do so. The disqualified person must be made a party to a proceeding brought by the corporation, and a copy of the petition must be served on the disqualified person if a resident of this state and must be served by certified mail if a nonresident. Service on nonresidents must also be made by publication as provided by law. The jurisdiction of the court is plenary and exclusive. The disqualified person is entitled to judgment against the corporation for the fair value of the person's shares as of the date of death, disqualification, or transfer and upon payment of the judgment shall surrender to the corporation the certificates representing the shares. The court may order that judgment be paid in installments determined by the court and may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value.

(5) The judgment must include interest from the date of death, disqualification, or transfer, at a rate the court finds equitable under the circumstances.

(6) The costs and expenses of a proceeding must be determined by the court and either assessed against the corporation or assessed as the court considers equitable if the court finds that an agreed share value was not reached because the disqualified person was arbitrary or vexatious or did not act in good faith. Expenses include reasonable compensation for and expenses of the appraisers, but do not include fees and expenses of counsel for and experts employed by any party, except that if the court determines that the fair value of shares materially exceeds the amount the corporation offered or if no offer was made, the court may award to the disqualified person reasonable compensation for any expert employed by the disqualified person.

(7) If a purchase, redemption, or transfer of shares is not completed within 10 months after the death of the deceased shareholder or 5 months after the disqualification or transfer, the corporation shall cancel the shares on its books and the disqualified person has no further interest as a shareholder other than the right under this section to payment for the shares.

(8) Shares acquired by a corporation upon payment of their agreed value or payment of a judgment decreeing their fair value may be held and disposed of as in the case of other treasury shares.

(9) This section does not apply to shares of a disqualified person if the period of disqualification is less than 5 months.

(10) Any provision regarding purchase, redemption, or transfer of shares of a professional corporation contained in the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, or any private agreement is specifically enforceable in the courts of this state.

(11) This section does not prevent or relieve a professional corporation from paying pension benefits or other deferred compensation for services rendered to or on behalf of a former shareholder as otherwise permitted by law.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 399, L. 1983; amd. Sec. 54, Ch. 240, L. 2007.

35-4-312. Amendment of articles of incorporation by personal representative of sole shareholder's estate. A personal representative, guardian, conservator, or receiver of the estate of a shareholder of a professional corporation who holds all of the outstanding shares of the corporation may amend the articles of incorporation by signing a written consent to amendment. The articles of amendment must be executed in duplicate by the personal representative, guardian, conservator, or receiver and by the secretary or assistant secretary of the corporation, verified by one of the persons signing the articles, and must set forth:

(1) the name of the corporation;
(2) the amendments adopted;
(3) the date of adoption of the amendments; and
(4) the number of shares outstanding.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 399, L. 1983.

Part 4
Operation

35-4-401. General powers. (1) A professional corporation has the powers enumerated in the Montana Business Corporation Act, except that it may be a promoter, general partner, member, associate, or manager only of a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise engaged only in rendering professional services or carrying on business permitted by the articles of incorporation of the professional corporation.

(2) A professional corporation may invest its funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds, or any other type of investment.

35-4-402. Prohibited activities. A professional corporation may not engage in any profession or business other than the profession or professions and business permitted by its articles of incorporation.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 399, L. 1983.

35-4-403. Rendering services. A professional corporation, domestic or foreign, may render professional services in this state only through natural persons permitted to render the services in this state. However, nothing in this chapter requires any person employed by a professional corporation to be licensed to perform services for which a license is not otherwise required or prohibits the rendering of professional services by a licensed natural person acting in an individual capacity, even if the person is a shareholder, director, officer, employee, or agent of a professional corporation, domestic or foreign.

35-4-404. Responsibility for services. (1) An individual who renders professional services as an employee of a domestic or foreign professional corporation is liable for any negligent or wrongful act or omission in which the individual personally participates to the same extent as if the individual had rendered the services as a sole practitioner. An employee of a professional corporation is not liable for the conduct of other employees unless the employee is at fault in appointing, supervising, or cooperating with them.

(2) A domestic or foreign professional corporation whose employee performs professional services within the scope of the employee's employment or apparent authority to act for the corporation is liable to the same extent as that employee.

(3) Except as otherwise provided by statute, the personal liability of a shareholder of a domestic or foreign professional corporation is no greater in any respect than that of a shareholder of a corporation organized under the Montana Business Corporation Act.

35-4-405. Relationship to clients or patients — privileged communications. (1) The relationship between an individual performing professional services as an employee of a professional corporation, domestic or foreign, and a client or patient is the same as if the individual performed such services as a sole practitioner.

(2) The relationship between a professional corporation, domestic or foreign, performing professional services and the client or patient is the same as between the client or patient and the individual performing the services.

(3) Any privilege applicable to communications between a person rendering professional services and the person receiving the services recognized under the statutory or common law of this state extends to a professional corporation, domestic or foreign, and its employees.

35-4-411. Admission of foreign professional corporations — application — revocation. (1) A foreign professional corporation is entitled to a certificate of authority to transact business in this state only if:

(a) the name of the corporation meets the requirements of 35-4-206;

(b) the corporation is organized only for purposes for which a professional corporation may be organized under this chapter; and

(c) all the shareholders, not less than one-half the directors, and all the officers other than the secretary and treasurer of the corporation are qualified persons with respect to the corporation.

(2) A foreign professional corporation is not required to obtain a certificate of authority to transact business in this state unless it maintains an office in this state for the conduct of business or professional practice.

(3) The application for a certificate of authority must include a statement that all the shareholders, not less than one-half the directors, and all the officers other than the secretary and treasurer are licensed in at least one state or territory or the District of Columbia to render a professional service described in the statement of purposes of the corporation.

(4) The certificate of authority may be revoked by the secretary of state if the corporation fails to comply with any provision of this chapter. The licensing authority shall certify to the secretary of state, from time to time, the names of all foreign professional corporations that have given cause for revocation, together with the facts pertinent to the cause, and shall concurrently mail to each corporation through its registered agent a notice that the certification has been made. A certificate of authority of a foreign professional corporation may not be revoked unless there has been both 60 days' notice of intent to revoke and a failure to correct the noncompliance during the 60 days.

Reorganization and Dissolution

35-4-501. Merger and consolidation. A professional corporation may merge or consolidate with another corporation, domestic or foreign, only if every shareholder of each corporation is qualified to be a shareholder of the surviving or new corporation. If the surviving or new corporation will render professional services in this state, it shall comply with this chapter.

35-4-502. Termination of all professional services. If a professional corporation ceases to render professional services, it shall amend its articles of incorporation to delete from its stated purposes the rendering of professional services and to conform its corporate name to the requirements of the Montana Business Corporation Act. The corporation may then continue in existence as a corporation under the Montana Business Corporation Act and is no longer subject to this chapter.

35-4-503. (Temporary) Involuntary dissolution. A professional corporation may be dissolved involuntarily as provided in Title 35, chapter 6.

35-4-503. (Effective June 1, 2020) Involuntary dissolution. A professional corporation may be dissolved involuntarily as provided in 35-14-1420 through 35-14-1423.

Part 1
General

35-5-101. Definition of business trust. In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, "business trust" means an unincorporated association or trust of the type which at common law was known as a "business trust" or "Massachusetts trust", created by an instrument under which property is held and managed by trustees for the benefit and profit of such persons as are or may become the holders of transferable certificates evidencing beneficial interests in the trust estate.

35-5-102. Classification of business trusts. Business trusts shall be either domestic or foreign. A domestic business trust is a business trust organized under the laws of this state. A foreign business trust includes every other business trust.

35-5-103. Applicability of general corporate law. Any business trust shall be subject to such applicable provisions of law from time to time in effect with respect to domestic and foreign corporations, respectively. These shall include without limitation such applicable provisions of law as relate to the issuance of securities, filing of required statements and reports, service of process, general grants of power to act, withdrawal, right to sue and be sued, limitation of individual liability of shareholders, and rights to acquire, mortgage, sell, lease, operate, and otherwise deal in or with real property.

(a) an executed copy of its articles, declarations of trust, or trust agreement by which the trust was created and all amendments or a true copy certified by a trustee of the trust before an official authorized to administer oaths or by a public official of another state, territory, tribe, or country in whose office an executed copy is on file. The true copy must be verified within 60 days before it is filed with the secretary of state.

(c) an affidavit setting forth its assumed business name, if any.

(2) A foreign business trust shall file a verified application in the office of the secretary of state as provided in the case of foreign corporations under 35-1-1028 and shall file a copy of its articles, declaration of trust, or trust agreement by which it was created, certified by the secretary of state, in the office of the county clerk of the county where its principal office or place of business in this state will be located. The foreign business trust shall also file, at the same time and in the same office, a certificate certifying that it has consented to all the license laws and other laws of the state of Montana relative to foreign corporations and has consented to be sued in the courts of this state, upon all causes of action arising against it in this state and that service of process may be made upon some person, a citizen of this state whose principal place of business is designated in the certificate. Service of process, when made upon the agent, is valid service on the business trust.

(2) Administrative dissolution of corporations organized under Title 35, chapters 4 and 9 or chapter 14, is governed by 35-14-1420 through 35-14-1423.

(3) As used in 35-6-103 and 35-6-104, "defaulting corporation" does not include a corporation organized under Title 35, chapters 4 and 9 or chapter 14.

Compiler's Comments

2019 Amendment: Chapter 271 in (1) at end substituted "dissolve nonprofit corporations organized under Title 35, chapters 2 and 3" for "dissolve corporations that have been in default prior to July 1, 1977"; inserted (2) relating to administrative dissolution; inserted (3) excluding certain corporations from inclusion in the term "defaulting corporations"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective June 1, 2020.

35-6-102. (Temporary) Involuntary dissolution — grounds. (1) Any domestic corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, may be dissolved involuntarily by order of the secretary of state when:

(a) the corporation has failed to file its annual report within the time required by law or failed to remit any fees required by law;

(b) the corporation procured its certificate of incorporation through fraud;

(c) the corporation has exceeded or abused the authority conferred upon it by law and the excesses or abuses have continued after a written notice specifying the manner in which the corporation has exceeded or abused the authority has been received by the registered agent of the corporation from the secretary of state;

(d) the corporation has failed for 60 days to appoint and maintain a registered agent in this state; or

(e) the corporation has failed for 60 days after change of its registered agent to file in the office of the secretary of state a statement of the change.

(2) If dissolution is sought under subsection (1)(b) or (1)(c), the secretary of state may dissolve the corporation only when that fact is established by an order of the district court. In addition to other persons authorized by law, the secretary of state or the attorney general may maintain an action in the district court to implement the provisions of this section.

35-6-102. (Effective June 1, 2020) Involuntary dissolution — grounds. (1) Any domestic corporation organized under Title 35, chapters 2 and 3, may be dissolved involuntarily by order of the secretary of state when:

(a) the corporation has failed to file its annual report within the time required by law or failed to remit any fees required by law;

(b) the corporation procured its certificate of incorporation through fraud;

(c) the corporation has exceeded or abused the authority conferred upon it by law and the excesses or abuses have continued after a written notice specifying the manner in which the corporation has exceeded or abused the authority has been received by the registered agent of the corporation from the secretary of state;

(d) the corporation has failed for 60 days to appoint and maintain a registered agent in this state; or

(e) the corporation has failed for 60 days after change of its registered agent to file in the office of the secretary of state a statement of the change.

(2) If dissolution is sought under subsection (1)(b) or (1)(c), the secretary of state may dissolve the corporation only when that fact is established by an order of the district court. In addition to other persons authorized by law, the secretary of state or the attorney general may maintain an action in the district court to implement the provisions of this section.

2019 Amendment: Chapter 271 in (1) at beginning substituted "Any domestic corporation organized under Title 35, chapters 2 and 3" for "Any domestic corporation, whether for profit or not for profit"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective June 1, 2020.

35-6-103. Defaulting corporations — penalties and forfeitures. A corporation which is guilty of any of the actions or omissions described in 35-6-102(1) is in default. The defaulting corporation may, by reason of such default, be dissolved involuntarily by an order of the secretary of state in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and thereby forfeit its right to transact any business within the state.

History: En. 15-2702 by Sec. 2, Ch. 455, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 15-2702.

35-6-104. Involuntary dissolution — procedure. (1) On or before September 1 of each year, the secretary of state shall compile a list of defaulting corporations, together with the amount of any filing fee, penalty, or costs remaining unpaid.

(2) The secretary of state shall give notice to the defaulting corporations by:

(a) delivering a letter addressed to the corporation in care of its registered agent or any director or officer; or

(b) publication of a general notice to all Montana corporations once a month for 3 consecutive months in a newspaper of general circulation in Lewis and Clark County.

(3) The notice referred to in subsection (2) shall specify the fact of the proposed dissolution and state that unless the grounds for dissolution described in 35-6-102 have been rectified within 90 days following the delivery or publication of notice:

(a) the secretary of state will dissolve defaulting corporations;

(b) defaulting corporations will forfeit the amount of any tax, penalty, or costs to the state of Montana; and

(c) defaulting corporations will forfeit their rights to carry on business within the state.

(4) After 90 days following delivery or publication of each notice, the secretary of state may, by order, dissolve all corporations which have not satisfied the requirements of applicable law and compile a full and complete list containing the names of all corporations that have been so dissolved. The secretary of state shall immediately give notice to the dissolved corporation as specified in subsection (2).

(5) In the case of involuntary dissolution, all the property and assets of the dissolved corporation must be held in trust by the directors of the corporation and [35-1-938 through 35-1-943 or] 35-2-729[, whichever is appropriate,] is applicable to liquidate the property and assets if necessary. (Bracketed language in subsection (5) deleted effective June 1, 2020—sec. 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

2019 Amendment: Chapter 271 in (5) near middle substituted "35-2-729" for "35-1-938 through 35-1-943 or 35-2-729, whichever is appropriate"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective June 1, 2020.

Part 2
Reinstatement

35-6-201. Reinstatement of dissolved corporation — fee. (1) The secretary of state may:

(a) reinstate any corporation that has been dissolved under the provisions of this chapter; and

(b) restore to the corporation its right to carry on business in this state and to exercise all its corporate privileges and immunities.

(2) A corporation applying for reinstatement shall submit to the secretary of state the application, executed by a person who was an officer or director at the time of dissolution, setting forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) a statement that the assets of the corporation have not been liquidated pursuant to [35-1-938 through 35-1-943 or] 35-2-726 and 35-2-727;

(c) a statement that not less than a majority of its directors have authorized the application for reinstatement; and

(d) if its corporate name has been legally acquired by another corporation prior to its application for reinstatement, the corporate name under which the corporation desires to be reinstated.

(3) The corporation shall submit with its application for reinstatement:

(a) a certificate from the department of revenue stating that all taxes imposed pursuant to Title 15 have been paid;

(b) a filing fee, which must be set and deposited by the secretary of state in accordance with 2-15-405; and

(c) all annual reports not yet filed with the secretary of state.

(4) When all requirements are met and the secretary of state reinstates the corporation to its former rights, the secretary of state shall:

(a) conform and file in the secretary of state's office reports, statements, and other instruments submitted for reinstatement;

(b) immediately issue and deliver to the corporation that is reinstated a certificate of reinstatement authorizing it to transact business; and

(c) upon demand, issue to the corporation one or more certified copies of the certificate of reinstatement.

(5) The secretary of state may not order a reinstatement if 5 years have elapsed since the dissolution. (Bracketed language in subsection (2)(b) deleted effective June 1, 2020—sec. 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019.)

Part 1
Registered Agents

35-7-101. Short title. This chapter may be cited as the "Model Registered Agents Act".
History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 240, L. 2007.

35-7-102. Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, as used in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Appointment of agent" means a statement appointing an agent for service of process filed by:

(a) a domestic or foreign unincorporated nonprofit association; or

(b) a domestic entity that is not a filing entity or a nonqualified foreign entity under 35-7-112.

(2) "Commercial registered agent" means an individual or a domestic or foreign entity listed under 35-7-106.

(3) "Domestic entity" means an entity whose internal affairs are governed by the law of this state.

(4) "Entity" means a person that has a separate legal existence or has the power to acquire an interest in real property in its own name other than:

(a) an individual;

(b) a testamentary, inter vivos, or charitable trust, with the exception of a business trust, statutory trust, or similar trust;

(c) an association or relationship that is not a partnership by reason of 35-10-202(3) or a similar provision of the law of any other jurisdiction;

(d) a decedent's estate; or

(e) a public corporation, government, governmental subdivision, agency, instrumentality, or quasi-governmental instrumentality.

(5) "Filing entity" means an entity that is created by the filing of a public organic document.

(6) "Foreign entity" means an entity other than a domestic entity.

(7) "Foreign qualification document" means an application for a certificate of authority or other foreign qualification filing with the secretary of state by a foreign entity.

(8) "Governance interest" means the right under the organic law or organic rules of an entity, other than as a governor, agent, assignee, or proxy, to:

(a) receive or demand access to information concerning or to the books and records of the entity;

(b) vote for the election of the governors of the entity; or

(c) receive notice of or vote on any or all issues involving the internal affairs of the entity.

(9) "Governor" means a person by or under whose authority the powers of an entity are exercised and under whose direction the business and affairs of the entity are managed pursuant to the organic law and organic rules of the entity.

(10) "Interest" means:

(a) a governance interest in an unincorporated entity;

(b) a transferable interest in an unincorporated entity; or

(c) a share or membership in a corporation.

(11) "Interest holder" means a direct holder of an interest.

(12) "Jurisdiction of organization", with respect to an entity, means the jurisdiction whose law includes the organic law of the entity.

(13) "Noncommercial registered agent" means a person that is not listed as a commercial registered agent under 35-7-106 and that is an individual or a domestic or foreign entity that serves in this state as the agent for service of process of an entity.

(14) "Nonqualified foreign entity" means a foreign entity that is not authorized to transact business in this state pursuant to a filing with the secretary of state.

(15) "Nonresident LLP statement" means:

(a) a statement of qualification of a domestic limited liability partnership that does not have an office in this state; or

(b) a statement of foreign qualification of a foreign limited liability partnership that does not have an office in this state.

(16) "Organic law" means the statutes, if any, other than this chapter, governing the internal affairs of an entity.

(17) "Organic rules" means the public organic document and private organic rules of an entity.

(18) "Person" means an individual, corporation, estate, trust, partnership, limited liability company, business or similar trust, association, joint venture, public corporation, government, governmental subdivision, agency, instrumentality, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(19) "Private organic rules" mean the rules, whether or not in a record, that govern the internal affairs of an entity, are binding on all of its interest holders, and are not part of its public organic document, if any.

(20) "Public organic document" means the public record that when filed creates an entity and any amendment to or restatement of that record.

(21) "Qualified foreign entity" means a foreign entity that is authorized to transact business in this state pursuant to a filing with the secretary of state.

(22) "Record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

(23) "Registered agent" means a commercial registered agent or a noncommercial registered agent.

(24) "Registered agent filing" means:

(a) the public organic document of a domestic filing entity;

(b) a nonresident LLP statement;

(c) a foreign qualification document; or

(d) an appointment of agent.

(25) "Represented entity" means:

(a) a domestic filing entity;

(b) a domestic or qualified foreign limited liability partnership that does not have an office in this state;

(c) a qualified foreign entity;

(d) a domestic or foreign unincorporated nonprofit association for which an appointment of agent has been filed;

(e) a domestic entity that is not a filing entity for which an appointment of agent has been filed; or

(f) a nonqualified foreign entity for which an appointment of agent has been filed.

(26) "Sign" means, with present intent to authenticate or adopt a record:

(a) to execute or adopt a tangible symbol; or

(b) to attach to or logically associate with the record an electronic sound, symbol, or process.

(27) "Transferable interest" means the right under an entity's organic law to receive distributions from the entity.

(28) "Type", with respect to an entity, means a generic form of entity:

(a) recognized at common law; or

(b) organized under an organic law, whether or not some entities organized under that organic law are subject to provisions of that law that create different categories of the form of entity.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 240, L. 2007.

35-7-103. Fees. The secretary of state shall by rule set fees for filings and the services provided under this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 240, L. 2007.

35-7-104. Addresses in filings. Whenever a provision of this chapter other than 35-7-111(1)(d) requires that a filing state an address, the filing must state:

(1) an actual street address or rural route box number in this state; and

(2) a mailing address in this state, if different from the address under subsection (1).

35-7-105. Appointment of registered agent. (1) A registered agent filing must state:

(a) the name of the represented entity's commercial registered agent; or

(b) if the entity does not have a commercial registered agent, the name and address of the entity's noncommercial registered agent.

(2) The appointment of a registered agent pursuant to subsection (1)(a) or (1)(b) is an affirmation by the represented entity that the agent has consented to serve as a registered agent.

(3) The secretary of state shall notify the registered agent as soon as practicable of filings that contain the name of the registered agent. The list must:

(a) be available for at least 14 calendar days; and

(b) state the type of filing and name of the represented entity making the filing.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 240, L. 2007.

35-7-106. Listing of commercial registered agent. (1) An individual or a domestic or foreign entity may become listed as a commercial registered agent by filing with the secretary of state a commercial registered agent listing statement signed by or on behalf of the person that states:

(a) the name of the individual or the name, type, and jurisdiction of organization of the entity;

(b) that the person is in the business of serving as a commercial registered agent in this state; and

(c) the address of a place of business of the person in this state to which service of process and other notice and documents being served on or sent to entities represented by it may be delivered.

(2) If the name of a person filing a commercial registered agent listing statement is not distinguishable on the records of the secretary of state from the name of another commercial registered agent listed under this section, the person shall adopt a fictitious name that is distinguishable and use that name in its statement and when it does business in this state as a commercial registered agent.

(3) A commercial registered agent listing statement takes effect on filing.

(4) The secretary of state shall note the filing of the commercial registered agent listing statement in the index of filings maintained by the secretary of state for each entity represented by the registered agent at the time of the filing. The statement has the effect of deleting the address of the registered agent from the registered agent filing of each of those entities.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 240, L. 2007.

35-7-107. Termination of listing of commercial registered agent. (1) A commercial registered agent may terminate its listing as a commercial registered agent by filing with the secretary of state a commercial registered agent termination statement signed by or on behalf of the agent that states:

(a) the name of the agent as currently listed under 35-7-106; and

(b) that the agent is no longer in the business of serving as a commercial registered agent in this state.

(2) A commercial registered agent termination statement takes effect on the 31st day after the day on which it is filed.

(3) The commercial registered agent shall promptly furnish each entity represented by it with notice in a record of the filing of the commercial registered agent termination statement.

(4) When a commercial registered agent termination statement takes effect, the registered agent ceases to be an agent for service of process on each entity formerly represented by it. Until an entity formerly represented by a terminated commercial registered agent appoints a new registered agent, service of process may be made on the entity as provided in 35-7-113.

Termination of the listing of a commercial registered agent under this section does not affect any contractual rights a represented entity may have against the agent or that the agent may have against the entity.

35-7-108. Change of registered agent by entity. (1) A represented entity may change the information currently on file under 35-7-105(1) by filing with the secretary of state a statement of change signed on behalf of the entity that states:

(a) the name of the entity; and

(b) the information that is to be in effect as a result of the filing of the statement of change.

(2) The interest holders or governors of a domestic entity need not approve the filing of:

(a) a statement of change under this section; or

(b) a similar filing changing the registered agent or registered office of the entity in any other jurisdiction.

(3) The appointment of a registered agent pursuant to subsection (1) is an affirmation by the represented entity that the agent has consented to serve as a registered agent.

(4) A statement of change filed under this section takes effect on filing.

(5) As an alternative to using the procedures in this section, a represented entity may change the information currently on file under 35-7-105(1) by amending its most recent registered agent filing in the manner provided by the laws of this state other than this chapter for amending that filing.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 240, L. 2007.

35-7-109. Change of name or address by noncommercial registered agent. (1) If a noncommercial registered agent changes its name or its address as currently in effect with respect to a represented entity pursuant to 35-7-105(1), the agent shall file with the secretary of state, with respect to each entity represented by the agent, a statement of change signed by or on behalf of the agent that states:

(a) the name of the entity;

(b) the name and address of the agent as currently in effect with respect to the entity;

(c) if the name of the agent has changed, its new name; and

(d) if the address of the agent has changed, the new address.

(2) A statement of change filed under this section takes effect on filing.

(3) A noncommercial registered agent shall promptly furnish the represented entity with notice in a record of the filing of a statement of change and the changes made by the filing.

35-7-110. Change of name, address, or type of organization by commercial registered agent. (1) If a commercial registered agent changes its name as a result of a merger, conversion, exchange, sale, reorganization, or amendment, its address as currently listed under 35-7-106(1), or its type or jurisdiction of organization, the agent shall file with the secretary of state a statement of change signed by or on behalf of the agent that states:

(a) the name of the agent as currently listed under 35-7-106(1);

(b) if the name of the agent has changed, its new name;

(c) if the address of the agent has changed, the new address; and

(d) if the type or jurisdiction of organization of the agent has changed, the new type or jurisdiction of organization.

(2) The filing of a statement of change under subsection (1) is effective to change the information regarding the commercial registered agent with respect to each entity represented by the agent.

(3) A statement of change filed under this section takes effect on filing.

(4) A commercial registered agent shall promptly furnish each entity represented by it with notice in a record of the filing of a statement of change relating to the name or address of the agent and the changes made by the filing.

(5) If a commercial registered agent changes its address without filing a statement of change as required by this section, the secretary of state may cancel the listing of the agent under 35-7-106. A cancellation under this subsection has the same effect as a termination under

35-7-107. Promptly after canceling the listing of an agent, the secretary of state shall deliver notice on:

(a) each entity represented by the agent, stating that the agent has ceased to be an agent for service of process on the entity and that, until the entity appoints a new registered agent, service of process may be made on the entity as provided in 35-7-113; and

(b) the agent, stating that the listing of the agent has been canceled under this section.

(6) The secretary of state shall note the filing of the commercial registered agent change statement in the index of filings maintained by the secretary of state for each entity represented by the registered agent at the time of filing.

35-7-111. Resignation of registered agent. (1) A registered agent may resign at any time with respect to a represented entity by filing with the secretary of state a statement of resignation signed by or on behalf of the agent that states:

(a) the name of the entity;

(b) the name of the agent;

(c) that the agent resigns from serving as agent for service of process for the entity; and

(d) the name and address of the person to which the agent will send the notice required by subsection (3).

(2) A statement of resignation takes effect on the earlier of the 31st day after the day on which it is filed or the appointment of a new registered agent for the represented entity.

(3) The registered agent shall promptly furnish the represented entity notice in a record of the date on which a statement of resignation was filed.

(4) When a statement of resignation takes effect, the registered agent ceases to have responsibility for any matter tendered to it as agent for the represented entity. A resignation under this section does not affect any contractual rights the entity has against the agent or that the agent has against the entity.

(5) A registered agent may resign with respect to a represented entity whether or not the entity is in good standing.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 240, L. 2007.

35-7-112. Appointment of agent by nonfiling or nonqualified foreign entity. (1) A domestic entity that is not a filing entity or a nonqualified foreign entity may file with the secretary of state a statement appointing an agent for service of process signed on behalf of the entity that states:

(a) the name, type, and jurisdiction of organization of the entity; and

(b) the information required by 35-7-105(1).

(2) A statement appointing an agent for service of process takes effect on filing.

(3) The appointment of a registered agent under this section does not qualify a nonqualified foreign entity to do business in this state and is not sufficient alone to create personal jurisdiction over the nonqualified foreign entity in this state.

(4) A statement appointing an agent for service of process may not be rejected for filing because the name of the entity filing the statement is not distinguishable on the records of the secretary of state from the name of another entity appearing in those records. The filing of a statement appointing an agent for service of process does not make the name of the entity filing the statement unavailable for use by another entity.

(5) An entity that has filed a statement appointing an agent for service of process may cancel the statement by filing a statement of cancellation, which takes effect upon filing, and must state the name of the entity and that the entity is canceling its appointment of an agent for service of process in this state. A statement appointing an agent for service of process that has not been canceled earlier is effective for a period of 5 years after the date of filing.

(6) A statement appointing an agent for service of process for a nonqualified foreign entity terminates automatically on the date the entity becomes a qualified foreign entity.

35-7-113. Service of process on entities. (1) A registered agent is an agent of the represented entity authorized to receive service of any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served on the entity.

(2) If an entity that previously filed a registered agent filing with the secretary of state no longer has a registered agent or if its registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be served, the entity may be served in accordance with any applicable judicial rules and procedures.

(3) Service of process, notice, or demand on a registered agent must be in the form of a written document.

(4) Service of process, notice, or demand may be perfected by any other means prescribed by law other than this chapter.

35-7-114. Duties of registered agent. The only duties under this chapter of a registered agent that has complied with this chapter are:

(1) to forward to the represented entity at the address most recently supplied to the agent by the entity any process, notice, or demand that is served on the agent;

(2) to provide the notices required by this chapter to the entity at the address most recently supplied to the agent by the entity;

(3) if the agent is a noncommercial registered agent, to keep current the information required by 35-7-105(1) in the most recent registered agent filing for the entity; and

(4) if the agent is a commercial registered agent, to keep current the information listed for it under 35-7-106(1).

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 240, L. 2007.

35-7-115. Jurisdiction. The appointment or maintenance in this state of a registered agent does not by itself create the basis for personal jurisdiction over the represented entity in this state.

35-7-116. Consistency of application. In applying and construing this chapter, consideration must be given to the need to promote consistency of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.

35-7-117. Relation to Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act. This chapter modifies, limits, and supersedes the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. 7001, et seq., but does not modify, limit, or supersede section 101(c) of that act, 15 U.S.C. 7001(c), or authorize delivery of any of the notices described in section 103(b) of that act, 15 U.S.C. 7003(b).

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 240, L. 2007.

35-8-101. Short title. This chapter may be cited as the "Montana Limited Liability Company Act".

35-8-102. Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Articles of organization" means articles filed pursuant to 35-8-201 and those articles as amended or restated. In the case of a foreign limited liability company, the term includes all records serving a similar function required to be filed under the laws of the state, tribe, or country where it is organized.

(2) "At-will company" means a limited liability company other than a term company.

(3) "Authorized agent" means any individual granted permission by an entity to execute a document on behalf of the entity. The entity is responsible for maintaining a record of the permission granted to an authorized agent.

(4) "Business" includes every trade, occupation, profession, or other lawful purpose, whether or not carried on for profit.

(5) "Corporation" means a corporation formed under the laws of this state or a foreign corporation.

(6) "Court" includes every court having jurisdiction in the case.

(7) "Debtor in bankruptcy" means a person who is the subject of an order for relief under Title 11 of the United States Code or a comparable order under federal, state, or foreign law governing insolvency.

(8) "Disqualified person" means any person or entity that for any reason is or becomes ineligible under this chapter to become a member in a professional limited liability company.

(9) "Distribution" means a transfer of money, property, or other benefit to a member in that member's capacity as a member of a limited liability company or to a transferee of a member's distributional interest.

(10) "Distributional interest" means all of a member's interest in the distributions of a limited liability company.

(11) "Event of dissociation" means an event that causes a person to cease to be a member.

(12) "Foreign corporation" means a corporation that is organized under a law other than the law of this state, including the laws of a federally recognized Indian tribe.

(13) "Foreign limited liability company" means an entity that is:

(a) an unincorporated entity;

(b) organized under a law other than the law of this state, including the laws of a federally recognized Indian tribe;

(c) organized under a statute pursuant to which an entity may be formed that affords to each of its members limited liability with respect to the liabilities of the entity; and

(d) not required to be registered or organized under any statute of this state other than this chapter.

(14) "Foreign limited partnership" means a limited partnership formed under a law other than the law of this state, including the laws of a federally recognized Indian tribe.

(15) "Foreign professional limited liability company" means a limited liability company organized for the purpose of rendering professional services under a law other than the law of this state, including the laws of a federally recognized Indian tribe.

(16) "Licensing authority" means an officer, board, agency, court, or other authority in this state that has the power to issue a license or other legal authorization to render a professional service.

(17) "Limited liability company" or "domestic limited liability company" means an organization that is formed under this chapter.

(18) "Limited partnership" means a limited partnership formed under the laws of this state or a foreign limited partnership.

(19) "Manager" means a person who, whether or not a member of a manager-managed company, is vested with authority under 35-8-301.

(20) "Manager-managed company" means a limited liability company that is so designated in its articles of organization.

(21) "Member" means a person who has been admitted to membership in a limited liability company, as provided in 35-8-703, and who has not dissociated from the limited liability company.

(22) "Member-managed company" means a limited liability company other than a manager-managed company.

(23) "Operating agreement" means an agreement, including amendments, as to the conduct of the business and affairs of a limited liability company and the relations among the members, managers, and the company that is binding upon all of the members.

(24) "Person" means an individual, a general partnership, a limited partnership, a domestic or foreign limited liability company, a trust, an estate, an association, a corporation, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(25) "Professional limited liability company" means a limited liability company designating itself as a professional limited liability company in its articles of organization.

(26) "Professional service" means a service that may lawfully be rendered only by persons licensed under a licensing law of this state and that may not be lawfully rendered by a limited liability company that is not a professional limited liability company.

(27) "Qualified person" means a natural person, limited liability company, general partnership, or professional corporation eligible under this chapter to own shares issued by a professional limited liability company.

(28) "Record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is recoverable in a perceivable form.

(29) "Series of members" means a group or collection of members of a limited liability company who share interests and have separate rights, powers, or duties with respect to property, obligations, or profits and losses associated with property or obligations and who are specified in the articles of organization or operating agreement of the limited liability company or are specified by one or more members or managers of the limited liability company or other persons as provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement.

(30) "Sign" means to identify a record by means of a signature, mark, or other symbol with the intent to authenticate it.

(31) "State" means a state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(32) "Surviving limited liability company" means the constituent entity surviving the merger, as identified in the articles of merger provided for in 35-8-1201.

(33) "Term company" means a limited liability company designated as a term company in its articles of organization.

35-8-103. (Temporary) Name. (1) (a) The name of each limited liability company as set forth in its articles of organization must contain the words "limited liability company" or "limited company" or the abbreviations "l.l.c.", "l.c.", "llc", or "lc". The word "limited" may be abbreviated as "ltd.", and the word "company" may be abbreviated as "co.".

(b) The name of a limited liability company as set forth in its articles of organization may not contain business name identifiers, as defined in 30-13-201, or other language that states or implies that the limited liability company is a business other than a limited liability company.

(2) A limited liability company name must be distinguishable on the records of the secretary of state from:

(a) the name of any business corporation, nonprofit corporation, limited partnership, or limited liability company organized or reserved under the laws of this state;

(b) the name of any foreign business corporation, foreign nonprofit corporation, foreign limited partnership, or foreign limited liability company registered or qualified to do business in this state;

(c) any assumed business name, limited partnership name, trademark, service mark, or other name registered or reserved with the secretary of state; and

(d) the corporate name of a domestic corporation that has dissolved but only for a period of 120 days after the effective date of its dissolution.

(3) The use of the name of a limited liability company by another limited liability company or limited partnership is governed by 35-1-308.

(4) Contests over names registered under this section are governed by 35-1-310.

35-8-103. (Effective June 1, 2020) Name. (1) (a) The name of each limited liability company as set forth in its articles of organization must contain the words "limited liability company" or "limited company" or the abbreviations "l.l.c.", "l.c.", "llc", or "lc". The word "limited" may be abbreviated as "ltd.", and the word "company" may be abbreviated as "co.".

(b) The name of a limited liability company as set forth in its articles of organization may not contain business name identifiers, as defined in 30-13-201, or other language that states or implies that the limited liability company is a business other than a limited liability company.

(2) A limited liability company name must be distinguishable on the records of the secretary of state from:

(a) the name of any business corporation, nonprofit corporation, limited partnership, or limited liability company organized or reserved under the laws of this state;

(b) the name of any foreign business corporation, foreign nonprofit corporation, foreign limited partnership, or foreign limited liability company registered or qualified to do business in this state;

(c) any assumed business name, limited partnership name, trademark, service mark, or other name registered or reserved with the secretary of state; and

(d) the corporate name of a domestic corporation that has dissolved but only for a period of 120 days after the effective date of its dissolution.

(3) The use of the name of a limited liability company by another limited liability company or limited partnership is governed by 35-14-401.

(4) Contests over names registered under this section are governed by 35-14-401.

Compiler's Comments

2019 Amendment: Chapter 271 in (3) at end substituted "35-14-401" for "35-1-308"; and in (4) at end substituted "35-14-401" for "35-1-310". Amendment effective June 1, 2020.

Professional service corporation names, 35-4-206.
Limited partnership names, 35-12-505.

35-8-104. Reservation of name. (1) The exclusive right to use a name may be reserved by:

(a) a person intending to organize a limited liability company and to adopt that name;

(b) a limited liability company or foreign limited liability company registered in this state that intends to adopt that name;

(c) a foreign limited liability company intending to register in this state and to adopt that name; or

(d) a person intending to organize a foreign limited liability company and to have it registered in this state and to adopt that name.

(2) The reservation must be made by filing with the secretary of state an application, executed by the applicant, to reserve a specified name. If the secretary of state finds that the name is available for use by a domestic or foreign limited liability company, the secretary of state shall reserve the name for the exclusive use of the applicant for a nonrenewable period of 120 days from the date the application is filed.

(3) The right to the exclusive use of a reserved name may be transferred to another person by filing with the secretary of state a notice of the transfer, executed by the applicant for whom the name was reserved, and by specifying the name to be transferred and the name and address of the transferee. The transfer may not extend the term during which the name is reserved.

35-8-106. Purpose. (1) A limited liability company organized under 35-8-201 through 35-8-211 has the purpose of engaging in any lawful business unless a more limited purpose is set forth in the articles of organization.

(2) Limited liability companies may be organized under 35-8-201 through 35-8-211 for any lawful purpose except for the purpose of banking or insurance. For purposes of this subsection, the term "insurance" does not include a limited liability company organized for the lawful purpose of captive insurance under Title 33, chapter 28.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 120, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 205, L. 2015.

35-8-107. Powers — scope. (1) A limited liability company may:

(a) sue, be sued, complain, and defend in all courts;

(b) transact its business, carry on its operations, and have and exercise the powers granted by this section in any state; in any territory, district, or possession of the United States; and in any foreign country;

(c) make contracts and guarantees, incur liabilities, and borrow money;

(d) sell, lease, exchange, transfer, convey, mortgage, pledge, and otherwise dispose of any of its assets;

(e) acquire by purchase or in any other manner, take, receive, own, hold, improve, and otherwise deal with any interest in real or personal property, wherever located;

(f) issue notes, bonds, and other obligations and secure any of them by mortgage, deed of trust, or security interest of any of its assets;

(g) purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, loan, pledge, or otherwise dispose of and otherwise use and deal in and with stock or other interests in and obligations of domestic and foreign corporations, associations, general or limited partnerships, limited liability companies, business trusts, and individuals;

(h) invest its surplus funds, lend money from time to time in any manner that may be appropriate to enable it to carry on the operations or fulfill the purposes set forth in its articles of organization, and take and hold real property and personal property as security for the payment of funds loaned or invested;

(i) elect or appoint agents and define their duties and fix their compensation;

(j) sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets;

(k) be a promoter, stockholder, partner, member, associate, or agent of any corporation, partnership, domestic or foreign limited liability company, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise;

(l) indemnify and hold harmless any member, agent, or employee from and against any claims and demands whatsoever, except in the case of action or failure to act by the member, agent, or employee that constitutes willful misconduct or recklessness, and subject to the standards and restrictions, if any, set forth in the articles of organization or operating agreement;

(m) cease its activities and dissolve;

(n) pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit-sharing plans, share bonus plans, share option plans, and benefit or incentive plans for any of its current or former directors, officers, employees, and agents;

(o) make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, religious, scientific, or educational purposes and, in time of war, make donations in aid of war activities; and

(p) do every other act not inconsistent with law that is appropriate to promote and further the business and affairs of the limited liability company.

(2) This section applies to a limited liability company that has one or more series of members.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 120, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 183, L. 2013.

35-8-108. Registered name of foreign limited liability company — registration renewal. (1) A foreign limited liability company may register its name or its name with any addition required by 35-8-103 if the name is distinguishable from names that are not available under 35-8-103(2).

(2) A foreign limited liability company shall register its name or its name with any addition required by 35-8-103 by delivering to the secretary of state for filing an application setting forth:

(a) its name or its name with any addition required by 35-8-103;

(b) the state, tribe, or country where it was organized;

(c) the date of its organization;

(d) a brief description of the nature of its business;

(e) a statement that the foreign limited liability company has complied with the organizational laws in the jurisdiction in which it is organized and that the foreign limited liability company exists in that jurisdiction; and

(f) if applicable, a statement that it has one or more series of members and whether the debts or liabilities of a series of members are enforceable against the assets of that series of members only and not against the assets of the company generally or another series of members.

(3) The name, if accepted by the secretary of state, is registered for the applicant's exclusive use as of the date the application is filed with the secretary of state.

(4) A foreign limited liability company may annually renew its registration for successive years by delivering to the secretary of state a renewal application that complies with the requirements of subsection (2). The renewal application must be received by the secretary of state for filing between October 1 and December 31 of the year preceding the year for which a renewal is sought. The renewal is effective until December 31 of the following year.

(5) A foreign limited liability company has the right to use its registered name until the registration of the name is canceled as a result of it consenting to the use of the registered name by another business entity authorized to do business in this state or until the foreign limited liability company applies for and receives a certificate of authority to transact business in this state or it organizes as a domestic limited liability company in this state. A foreign limited liability company receiving a certificate of authority to transact business in this state or that organizes as a domestic limited liability company may use the canceled registered name as its business name.

35-8-109. Effect of operating agreement — nonwaivable provisions. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), all members of a limited liability company may enter into an operating agreement, which need not be in writing, to regulate the affairs of the company and the conduct of its business and to govern relations among the members, managers, and company. To the extent that the operating agreement does not otherwise provide, this chapter governs relations among the members, managers, and company.

(2) An operating agreement need not be in writing except as otherwise provided in this chapter to:

(a) vary the recordkeeping requirements under 35-8-405;

(b) vary the rights of members to share in distributions under 35-8-601 or 35-8-903; or

(c) vary the process for admission of members under 35-8-707.

(3) The operating agreement may not:

(a) unreasonably restrict a right to information or access to records under 35-8-405;

(b) eliminate the duty of loyalty under 35-8-310, but the agreement may:

(i) identify specific types or categories of activities that do not violate the duty of loyalty, if not manifestly unreasonable; and

(ii) specify the number or percentage of members or disinterested managers that may authorize or ratify, after full disclosure of all material facts, a specific act or transaction that otherwise would violate the duty of loyalty;

(c) unreasonably reduce the duty of care under 35-8-310;

(d) eliminate the obligation of good faith and fair dealing under 35-8-310, but the operating agreement may determine the standards by which the performance of the obligation is to be measured, if the standards are not manifestly unreasonable;

(e) vary the right to expel a member upon the occurrence of an event specified in 35-8-803;

(f) vary the requirement to wind up the limited liability company's business in a case specified in 35-8-901(1)(c) or 35-8-902; or

(g) restrict the rights of a person under this chapter, other than a manager, member, or transferee of a member's distributional interest.

35-8-110. Purpose — supplemental principles of law — interest rate. (1) Unless displaced by particular provisions of this chapter, the principles of law and equity supplement this chapter.

(2) If an obligation to pay interest arises under the provisions of this chapter and the rate of interest is not specified, then the rate is the rate of interest specified in 31-1-106.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 302, L. 1999.

35-8-111. Uniformity of application and construction. Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, this chapter must be applied and construed to effectuate its general purpose to make the law with respect to the subject of this chapter among states enacting the Uniform Limited Liability Company Act.

35-8-201. Formation. (1) One or more persons may form a limited liability company consisting of one or more members by signing and filing articles of organization with the secretary of state. The person or persons need not be members of the limited liability company at the time of formation or after formation has occurred. A limited liability company is a legal entity distinct from its members.

(2) Unless a delayed effective date is specified, the existence of a limited liability company begins when the articles of organization are filed.

(3) The filing of the articles of organization by the secretary of state pursuant to 35-8-205 is conclusive proof that the organizers have satisfied all conditions precedent to the creation of a limited liability company.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 120, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 302, L. 1999.

35-8-202. Articles of organization. (1) The articles of organization must set forth:

(a) the name of the limited liability company that satisfies the requirements of 35-8-103;

(b) whether the company is a term company and, if so, the term specified;

(c) the complete business mailing address of its principal office, wherever located;

(d) the information required by 35-7-105(1);

(e) (i) if the limited liability company is to be managed by a manager or managers, a statement that the company is to be managed in that fashion and the names and business mailing addresses of managers who are to serve as managers until the first meeting of members or until their successors are elected;

(ii) if the management of a limited liability company is reserved to the members, a statement that the company is to be managed in that fashion and the names and business mailing addresses of the initial members;

(f) whether one or more members of the company are to be liable for the limited liability company's debts and obligations under 35-8-304(3);

(g) if the limited liability company is a professional limited liability company, a statement to that effect and a statement of the professional service or services it will render;

(h) if the limited liability company has one or more series of members, the operating agreement of each series of members in writing;

(i) if the limited liability company has one or more series of members, a statement of whether the debts or liabilities of any series of members are to be enforceable against the assets of that series of members only and not against the assets of another series of members or the limited liability company generally;

(j) if the limited liability company has one or more series of members, a statement setting forth the relative rights, powers, and duties of each series of members or indicating that the relative rights, powers, and duties of each series of members will be set forth in the operating agreement or established as provided in the operating agreement; and

(k) any other provision, not inconsistent with law, that the members elect to set out in the articles, including but not limited to a statement of whether there are limitations on the authority of members or management to bind the limited liability company.

(2) It is not necessary to set out in the articles of organization any of the powers enumerated in 35-8-107.

(3) The articles of organization may not vary the nonwaivable provisions set out in 35-8-109. As to all other matters, if any provision of an operating agreement is inconsistent with the articles of organization:

(a) the operating agreement controls as to managers, members, and a member's transferee; and

(b) the articles of organization control as to a person, other than a manager, member, and member's transferee, that reasonably relies on the articles of organization to that person's detriment.

(4) The articles of organization or operating agreement may provide that the debts, liabilities, obligations, and expenses incurred, contracted for, or otherwise existing with respect to a particular series of members are enforceable against the assets of that series of members only and not against the assets of the limited liability company generally or any other series of members.

35-8-203. Amendment of articles of organization — restatement. (1) The articles of organization of a limited liability company are amended by filing articles of amendment with the secretary of state. The articles of amendment must set forth:

(a) the name of the limited liability company;

(b) the date the articles of organization were filed; and

(c) the amendment to the articles of organization.

(2) The articles of organization may be amended as desired, so long as the amended articles of organization contain only provisions that may be lawfully contained in articles of organization at the time of making the amendment.

(3) Articles of organization may be restated at any time. Restated articles of organization must be filed with the secretary of state, must be specifically designated as such in the heading, and must state either in the heading or in an introductory paragraph the limited liability company's present name and, if it has been changed, all of its former names and the date of the filing of its articles of organization. Restated articles of organization supersede the original articles of organization and any previous amendments to the original articles of organization.

(4) An amendment to the articles of organization of a limited liability company must be in the form and manner designated by the secretary of state.

35-8-204. Execution of documents. (1) Unless otherwise specified in this chapter, a document required by this chapter to be filed with or delivered to the secretary of state must be executed:

(a) by any manager if management of the limited liability company is vested in one or more managers or by a member if management of the limited liability company is reserved to the members;

(b) if the limited liability company has not been formed, by the person or persons forming the limited liability company; or

(c) if the limited liability company is in the hands of a receiver, trustee, or other court-appointed fiduciary, by that fiduciary.

(2) The person executing the document shall sign it and state, beneath or opposite the signature, the person's name and the capacity in which the person signs.

(3) The person executing the document may do so as an attorney-in-fact. Powers of attorney relating to the execution of the document do not need to be shown to or filed with the secretary of state.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 120, L. 1993.

35-8-205. Filing with secretary of state. (1) The articles of organization or any other document required to be filed pursuant to this chapter must be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state determines that the documents conform to the filing provisions of this chapter and that all required filing fees have been paid, the secretary of state shall:

(a) endorse on the signed document the word "filed" and the date and time of accepting the document for filing;

(b) retain the signed document in the secretary of state's files; and

(c) send a certification letter to the person who filed the document or to the person's representative.

(2) If the secretary of state is unable to make the determination required for filing by subsection (1) at the time any documents are delivered for filing, the documents are considered to have been filed at the time of delivery if the secretary of state subsequently determines that the documents as delivered conform to the filing provisions of 35-8-201 through 35-8-211.

(3) All documents filed with the secretary of state must reflect the name of the limited liability company and all series of members within the limited liability company if the limited liability company has one or more series of members.

35-8-206. Effect of filing articles of organization. (1) A limited liability company is formed when the articles of organization are filed with the secretary of state for filing.

(2) The articles of organization that are stamped "filed" and marked with the filing date are conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the organizers have been complied with and that the limited liability company has been legally organized and formed under this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 120, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 71, L. 2005.

35-8-207. Filing of facsimile copy. (1) The secretary of state may treat a facsimile copy of a document that is required to be filed under this chapter and the signatures on the facsimile copy in the same manner as an original for purposes of this chapter. If all other requirements are met, the date of filing relates back to the date of receipt of the facsimile copy.

(2) A person who files a false document by facsimile copy is liable to the party aggrieved for three times the amount of damages resulting from the filing of the false document.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 120, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 290, L. 1997.

35-8-208. Annual report for secretary of state. (1) A limited liability company or a foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in this state shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, an annual report that sets forth:

(a) the name of the limited liability company and the jurisdiction under whose law it is organized;

(b) the information required by 35-7-105(1);

(c) the business mailing address of its principal office, wherever located;

(d) (i) if the limited liability company is managed by a manager or managers, a statement that the company is managed in that fashion and the names and business mailing addresses of the managers;

(ii) if the management of a limited liability company is reserved to the members, a statement to that effect and the names and business mailing addresses of the members;

(e) that the management of a series of members is vested in the members associated with the series of members;

(f) if the limited liability company is a professional limited liability company, a statement that all of its members and not less than one-half of its managers are qualified persons with respect to the limited liability company.

(2) Information in the annual report must be current as of the date the annual report is executed on behalf of the limited liability company.

(3) The first annual report must be delivered to the secretary of state between January 1 and April 15 of the year following the calendar year in which a domestic limited liability company is organized or a foreign limited liability company is authorized to transact business. Subsequent annual reports must be delivered to the secretary of state between January 1 and April 15.

(4) If an annual report does not contain the information required by this section, the secretary of state shall promptly deliver a notice to the reporting domestic or foreign limited liability company and return the report to the limited liability company for correction.

(5) The annual report must be executed by at least one member of the limited liability company or by the authorized agent.

(6) A domestic professional limited liability company or a foreign professional limited liability company authorized to transact business in this state shall annually file before April 15, with each licensing authority having jurisdiction over a professional service of a type described in its articles of organization, a statement of qualification setting forth the names and addresses of the members and managers of the company and additional information that the licensing authority may by rule prescribe as appropriate in determining whether the company is complying with the provisions of part 13 of this chapter and rules promulgated under part 13 of this chapter. The licensing authority may charge a fee to cover the cost of filing a statement of qualification.

35-8-209. Administrative dissolution — rules. (1) A domestic limited liability company may be dissolved involuntarily by order of the secretary of state if the limited liability company:

(a) (i) has failed for 60 days after a change of its registered agent to file in the office of the secretary of state a statement of the change; or

(ii) has failed for 60 days to appoint and maintain a registered agent in this state;

(b) has failed for 140 days to file its annual report within the time required by law;

(c) has failed to remit any fees required by law;

(d) procured its certificate of existence through fraud; or

(e) has exceeded or abused the authority conferred upon it by law and the excesses or abuses have continued after a written notice of the alleged excesses or abuses has been received from the secretary of state by the registered agent of the limited liability company.

(2) If dissolution is sought under subsection (1)(d) or (1)(e), the secretary of state may dissolve a limited liability company when an alleged violation of subsection (1)(d) or (1)(e) is established by an order of a district court. In addition to any other person authorized by law, the secretary of state or the attorney general may maintain an action in district court to implement the provisions of this section.

35-8-211. Fees for filing, copying, and services. (1) The secretary of state shall establish fees for the following:

(a) filing documents as required by this chapter; and

(b) copying documents, priority handling, transmitting or filing facsimile copies, and providing computer-generated information.

(2) The fees authorized in the section must be set and deposited in accordance with 2-15-405.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 120, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 22, Ch. 396, L. 2001.

35-8-212. Filing fees. (1) In addition to the filing fee authorized by 35-8-211, the secretary of state shall charge and collect from each foreign limited liability company:

(a) an additional filing fee at the time of filing its articles of organization; and

(b) an additional filing fee at the time of filing an application for a certificate of authority to transact business.

(2) The fees authorized in this section must be set and deposited in accordance with 2-15-405.

35-8-215. Correcting filed record. (1) A limited liability company or foreign limited liability company may correct a record filed by the secretary of state if the record contains a false or erroneous statement or was defectively signed.

(2) A record must be corrected by:

(a) preparing articles of correction that:

(i) describe the record, including its filing date, or have attached a copy of the record to the articles of correction;

(ii) specify the incorrect statement and the reason that it is incorrect or the manner in which the signing was defective; and

(iii) correct the incorrect statement or defective signing; and

(b) delivering the corrected record to the secretary of state for filing.

(3) Articles of correction are effective retroactively on the effective date of the record that they correct except as to persons relying on the uncorrected record and adversely affected by the correction. As to those persons, the articles of correction are effective when filed.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 302, L. 1999.

35-8-216. Certificate of existence or authority. (1) A person may request the secretary of state to furnish a certificate of existence for a limited liability company or a certificate of authority for a foreign limited liability company.

(2) A certificate of existence for a limited liability company must set forth:

(a) the company's name;

(b) that it is organized under the laws of this state, the date of organization, whether its duration is at-will or for a specified term, and, if for a specified term, the period specified;

(c) if payment is reflected in the records of the secretary of state and if nonpayment affects the existence of the company, that all fees, taxes, and penalties owed to this state have been paid;

(d) whether its most recent annual report required by 35-8-208 has been filed with the secretary of state;

(e) that articles of termination have not been filed; and

(f) other facts of record in the office of the secretary of state if requested by the applicant.

(3) A certificate of authority for a foreign limited liability company must set forth:

(a) the company's name used in this state;

(b) that it is authorized to transact business in this state;

(c) whether its most recent annual report required by 35-8-208 has been filed with the secretary of state;

(d) that a certificate of cancellation has not been filed; and

(e) other facts of record in the office of the secretary of state if requested by the applicant.

(4) Subject to any qualification stated in the certificate, a certificate of existence or authority issued by the secretary of state may be relied upon as conclusive evidence as of the date of the certificate that the domestic or foreign limited liability company is in existence or is authorized to transact business in this state.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 302, L. 1999; amd. Sec. 39, Ch. 7, L. 2001.

35-8-217. Liability for false statement in filed record. Subject to 35-8-304 and 35-8-306, if a record authorized or required to be filed under this chapter contains a false statement, a person who suffers loss by reliance on the statement may recover damages for the loss from the person who signed the record or caused another to sign it on that person's behalf and who knew the statement to be false at the time that the record was signed.

35-8-218. Filing by judicial act. If a person required by 35-8-204 to execute any record or document fails or refuses to do so, a person who is adversely affected by the failure or refusal may petition a district court to direct the signing of the record or document. If the court finds that it is proper for the record or document to be signed and that a designated person has failed or refused to sign the record, it shall order the secretary of state to sign and file an appropriate record or document.

35-8-219. Knowledge and notice. (1) A person knows a fact if the person has actual knowledge of the fact.

(2) A person has notice of a fact if the person:

(a) knows the fact;

(b) has received a notification of the fact; or

(c) has reason to know that the fact exists from other facts known to the person at the time in question.

(3) A person notifies or gives a notification of a fact to another by taking steps reasonably required to inform the other person, whether or not the other person knows the fact.

(4) A person receives a notification when the notification:

(a) comes to the person's attention; or

(b) is delivered at the person's place of business or at any other place held out by the person as a place for receiving communications.

(5) (a) An entity knows, has notice, or receives a notification of a fact for purposes of a particular transaction:

(i) when an individual conducting the transaction for the entity knows, has notice, or receives a notification of the fact; or

(ii) when the fact would have been brought to the individual's attention had the entity exercised reasonable diligence.

(b) (i) An entity exercises reasonable diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the individual conducting the transaction for the entity and there is reasonable compliance with the routines.

(ii) Reasonable diligence does not require an individual acting for the entity to communicate information unless the communication is part of the individual's regular duties or the individual has reason to know of the transaction and to know that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 302, L. 1999.

Part 3
Relations of Members and Managers to Persons Dealing With Limited Liability Company

35-8-301. Agency power of members and managers. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a member is an agent of the limited liability company for the purpose of its business or affairs and the act of a member, including but not limited to the execution of any instrument in the name of the limited liability company for apparently carrying on in the usual way the business or affairs of the limited liability company binds the limited liability company, unless the member so acting has, in fact, no authority to act for the limited liability company in the particular matter and the person with whom the member is dealing has knowledge of the fact that the member has no such authority.

(2) If the articles of organization provide that management of the limited liability company is vested in a manager or managers:

(a) a member, acting solely in the capacity as a member, may not be an agent of the limited liability company; and

(b) a manager is an agent of the limited liability company for the purpose of its business or affairs, and the act of a manager, including but not limited to the execution of any instrument in the name of the limited liability company for apparently carrying on in the usual way the business or affairs of the limited liability company, binds the limited liability company, unless the manager so acting has, in fact, no authority to act for the limited liability company in the particular matter and the person with whom the manager is dealing has knowledge of the fact that the manager has no such authority.

(3) An act of a manager or a member that is not apparently for carrying on in the usual way the business of the limited liability company does not bind the limited liability company, unless authorized in accordance with the articles of organization or the operating agreement, at the time of the transaction or at any other time.

(4) An act of a manager or member in contravention of a restriction on authority may not bind the limited liability company to persons having knowledge of the restriction.

(5) Unless the articles of organization state otherwise, a member with a majority interest in the limited liability company may represent the limited liability company in justice's court as provided in 25-31-601 and small claims court pursuant to 25-35-505.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 120, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 189, L. 2017.

35-8-302. Admissions of members and managers. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), an admission or representation made by a member concerning the business or affairs of a limited liability company within the scope of the member's authority as provided for by this chapter is evidence against the limited liability company.

(2) If the articles of organization provide that management of the limited liability company is vested in a manager or managers:

(a) an admission or representation made by a manager concerning the business or affairs of a limited liability company within the scope of the manager's authority, as provided for by this chapter, is evidence against the limited liability company; and

(b) the admission or representation of a member, acting solely in the capacity as a member, may not constitute evidence.

35-8-304. Liability of members, managers, and series of members to third parties. (1) Except as provided in 39-51-1105 and subsection (3) of this section, a person who is a member or manager, or both, of a limited liability company is not liable, solely by reason of being a member or manager, or both, under a judgment, decree or order of a court, or in any other manner, for a debt, obligation, or liability of the limited liability company, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise or for the acts or omissions of any other member, manager, agent, or employee of the limited liability company.

(2) The failure of a limited liability company to observe the usual company formalities or requirements relating to the exercise of its company powers or management of its business is not a ground for imposing personal liability on the members or managers of the limited liability company.

(3) All or specified members of a limited liability company are liable in their capacity as members for all or specified debts, obligations, or liabilities of the company if:

(a) a provision to that effect is contained in the articles of organization; and

(b) a member named as liable has consented in writing to the adoption of the provision or to be bound by the provision.

(4) The debts, liabilities, obligations, and expenses incurred, contracted for, or otherwise existing with respect to a particular series of members are enforceable against the assets of that series of members only and not against the assets of the company generally or any other series of members if:

(a) separate and distinct records are maintained for the series of members and the assets associated with the series of members are held, directly or indirectly, including through a nominee or otherwise, and accounted for separately from the other assets of the company and any other series of members; and

(b) unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement, debts, liabilities, obligations, and expenses incurred, contracted for, or otherwise existing with respect to the company generally or another series of members are not enforceable against the assets of the series of members.

35-8-306. Limited liability company liability for member's or manager's conduct. A limited liability company is liable for loss or injury caused to a person, or for a penalty incurred, as a result of a wrongful act or omission or other actionable conduct of a member or manager acting in the ordinary course of business of the company or with the authority of the company.

35-8-307. Management and voting. (1) Unless the articles of organization or the operating agreement provide otherwise, in a member-managed company:

(a) each member has equal rights in the management and conduct of the company's business; and

(b) except as provided in subsection (3), any matter relating to the business of the company may be decided by a majority of the members.

(2) Unless the articles of organization or the operating agreement provide otherwise, in a manager-managed company:

(a) each manager has equal rights in the management and conduct of the company's business;

(b) except as provided in subsection (3), any matter relating to the business of the company may be exclusively decided by the manager or, if there is more than one manager, by a majority of the managers; and

(c) a manager:

(i) must be designated, appointed, elected, removed, or replaced by a vote, approval, or consent of a majority of the members; and

(ii) holds office until a successor has been elected and qualified, unless the manager sooner resigns or is removed.

(3) Unless the articles of organization or the operating agreement provide otherwise, the only matters of a member-managed or manager-managed company's business requiring the consent of all of the members are:

(a) the amendment of the operating agreement under 35-8-109;

(b) the authorization or ratification of acts or transactions under 35-8-109(3)(b)(ii) that would otherwise violate the duty of loyalty;

(c) an amendment to the articles of organization under 35-8-203;

(d) the compromise of an obligation to make a contribution under 35-8-502;

(e) the compromise, as among members, of an obligation to make a contribution or return money or other property paid or distributed in violation of this chapter;

(f) the making of interim distributions under 35-8-601, including the redemption or repurchase of an interest;

(g) the admission of a new member;

(h) the use of the company's property to redeem an interest subject to a charging order;

(i) the consent to dissolve the company under 35-8-901;

(j) a waiver of the right to have the company's business wound up and the company terminated under 35-8-901;

(k) the consent of members to merge with another entity under 35-8-1201; and

(l) the sale, lease, exchange, or other disposal of all, or substantially all, of the company's property with or without goodwill.

(4) Unless the articles of organization or the operating agreement provide otherwise, the management of a series of members is vested in the members associated with the series in proportion to their contribution to the capital of the series as adjusted from time to time to reflect properly any additional contributions or withdrawals from the assets or income of the series by the members associated with the series.

(5) Action requiring the consent of members or managers under this chapter may be taken without a meeting.

(6) A member or manager may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the member or manager by signing an appointment instrument, either personally or by the member's or manager's attorney-in-fact.

(7) (a) The articles of organization or operating agreement of a limited liability company may:

(i) create one or more series of members; or

(ii) vest authority in one or more members or managers of the company or in other persons to create one or more series of members that may include, without limitation, rights, powers, and duties senior to any existing series of members.

(b) The articles of organization or operating agreement may provide that any member associated with a series of members has no voting rights or has voting rights that differ from other members or other series of members.

(c) A series of members may have separate powers, rights, or duties with respect to specified property or obligations of the company or profits and losses associated with specified property or obligations, and any series of members may have a separate business purpose or investment objective.

35-8-310. General standards of member's and manager's conduct. (1) The only fiduciary duties that a member owes to a member-managed company and the other members are the duty of loyalty imposed by subsection (2) and the duty of care imposed by subsection (3).

(2) A member's duty of loyalty to a member-managed company and its other members is limited to the following:

(a) to account to the company and to hold as trustee for it any property, profit, or benefit derived by the member in the conduct or winding up of the company's business or derived from a use by the member of the company's property, including the appropriation of a company's opportunity;

(b) to refrain from dealing with the company in the conduct or winding up of the company's business on behalf of a party or as a person having an interest adverse to the company; and

(c) to refrain from competing with the company in the conduct of the company's business before the dissolution of the company.

(3) A member's duty of care to a member-managed company and the other members in the conduct of and winding up of the company's business is limited to refraining from engaging in grossly negligent or reckless conduct, intentional misconduct, or a knowing violation of law.

(4) A member shall discharge the duties under this chapter or the operating agreement to a member-managed company and its other members and exercise any rights consistently with the obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

(5) A member of a member-managed company does not violate a duty or obligation under this chapter or under the operating agreement merely because the member's conduct furthers the member's own interest.

(6) A member of a member-managed company may lend money to and transact other business with the company. As to each loan or transaction, the rights and obligations of the member are the same as those of a person who is not a member, subject to other applicable law.

(7) This section applies to a person winding up the limited liability company's business as the personal or legal representative of the last-surviving member as if the person were a member.

(8) In a manager-managed company:

(a) a member who is not also a manager owes no duties to the company or to the other members solely by reason of being a member;

(b) a manager is held to the same standards of conduct as those prescribed for members in subsections (2) through (6);

(c) a member who pursuant to the operating agreement exercises some or all of the rights of a manager in the management and conduct of the company's business is held to the standards of conduct prescribed for members in subsections (2) through (6) to the extent that the member exercises the managerial authority vested in a manager by this chapter; and

(d) a manager is relieved of liability imposed by law for violation of the standards prescribed for members by subsections (2) through (6) to the extent of the managerial authority delegated to the members by the operating agreement.

35-8-405. Records and information. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or a written operating agreement, a limited liability company shall keep at its principal place of business the following:

(a) a current and past list, setting forth the full name and last-known mailing address of each member and manager, if any, set forth in alphabetical order;

(b) a copy of the articles of organization and all amendments to the articles, together with executed copies of any powers of attorney pursuant to which any articles have been executed;

(c) copies of the limited liability company's federal, state, and local income tax returns and financial statements, if any, for the 3 most recent years or, if the returns and statements were not prepared for any reason, copies of the information and statements provided to or that should have been provided to the members to enable them to prepare their federal, state, and local tax returns for the period;

(d) copies of any effective written operating agreements and all amendments and copies of any written operating agreements no longer in effect;

(e) unless provided in writing in an operating agreement:

(i) a writing, if any, setting forth the amount of cash, the agreed value of other property or services contributed by each member, and the times or events upon which any additional contributions agreed to by each member are to be made;

(ii) a writing, if any, stating events that require the limited liability company to be dissolved and its affairs wound up; and

(iii) other writings, if any, prepared pursuant to a requirement in an operating agreement.

(2) (a) A member may, at the member's own expense, inspect and copy any limited liability company record, wherever the record is located, upon reasonable request during ordinary business hours.

(b) A former member and agents or attorneys of a former member must be provided access and the same right to copy records pertaining to the period that the former member was a member.

(3) Members, if the management of the limited liability company is vested in the members, or managers, if management of the limited liability company is vested in the managers, shall render, to the extent the circumstances make it just and reasonable, true and full information of all things affecting the members to any member and to the legal representative of any deceased member or of any member under legal disability.

(4) Failure of the limited liability company to keep or maintain any of the records or information required pursuant to this section may not be grounds for imposing liability on any person for the debts and obligations of the limited liability company.

35-8-410. Actions by members. (1) A member may maintain an action against a limited liability company or another member for legal or equitable relief, with or without an accounting as to the company's business, to enforce:

(a) the member's rights under the operating agreement;

(b) the member's rights under this chapter; or

(c) the rights and otherwise protect the interests of the member, including rights and interests arising independently of the member's relationship to the company.

(2) The accrual of a right of action under this section and any time limits for asserting the right of action for a remedy under this section are governed by the laws of this state. A right to an accounting upon a dissolution and winding up does not revive a claim barred by law.

Part 5
Finance

35-8-501. Contributions to capital. An interest in a limited liability company may be issued in exchange for tangible or intangible property or other benefit to the company, including money, promissory notes, services performed, or other agreements to contribute cash or property or contracts for services to be performed.

History: En. Sec. 29, Ch. 120, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 21, Ch. 302, L. 1999.

35-8-502. Liability for contribution. (1) A promise by a member to contribute to the limited liability company is not enforceable unless set out in a writing signed by the member.

(2) (a) Except as provided in the articles of organization or the operating agreement, a member is obligated to the limited liability company to perform any enforceable promises to contribute cash or property or to perform services even if the member is unable to perform because of death, disability, or other reason.

(b) If a member does not make the required contribution of property or services, the member is obligated, at the option of the limited liability company, to contribute cash equal to that portion of value or the stated contribution that has not been made.

(3) (a) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or the operating agreement, the obligation of a member to make a contribution or return money or other property paid or distributed in violation of this chapter may be compromised only with the unanimous consent of the members.

(b) A creditor of a limited liability company who extends credit or otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described in subsection (1), and without notice of any compromise under 35-8-307(3)(d), may enforce the original obligation.

35-8-503. Sharing of profits and losses. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or a written operating agreement, each member must be repaid that member's contributions to capital and share equally in the profits, losses, and surpluses remaining after all liabilities, including those to members, are satisfied.

(2) A distribution of the contributions and profits of a series of members of a limited liability company may not be made if, after giving the distribution effect:

(a) the limited liability company would not be able to pay the debts of the series of members from assets of the series of members as debts of the series become due in the usual course of business; or

(b) except as otherwise specifically permitted by the articles of organization or operating agreement, the total assets of the series of members would be less than the sum of the total liabilities of the series.

35-8-504. Member's and manager's rights to payments and reimbursement. (1) A limited liability company shall reimburse a member or manager for payments made and indemnify a member or manager for liabilities incurred by the member or manager in the ordinary course of the business of the company or for the preservation of the company's business or property.

(2) A limited liability company shall reimburse a member for an advance to the company beyond the amount of contribution that the member agreed to make.

(3) A payment or advance made by a member that gives rise to an obligation of a limited liability company under subsection (1) or (2) constitutes a loan to the company upon which interest accrues from the date of the payment or advance.

(4) A member is not entitled to remuneration for services performed for a limited liability company except for reasonable compensation for services rendered in winding up the business of the company.

Distributions

Part Cross-References

Distribution and withdrawals — limited partnerships, Title 35, ch. 12, part 10.

35-8-601. Sharing of distributions. Except as provided in 35-8-905, distributions of cash or other assets of a limited liability company must be shared among the members and among classes of members in the manner provided in writing in the articles of organization or the operating agreement. If the articles of organization or the operating agreement does not so provide in writing, each member shall share equally in any distribution. A member is entitled to receive distributions described in this section from a limited liability company to the extent and at the times or upon the happening of the events specified in the articles of organization or the operating agreement or at the times determined by the members or managers pursuant to 35-8-307(3)(f).

35-8-603. Distribution in kind. Except as provided in the articles of organization or the operating agreement:

(1) a member, regardless of the nature of the member's contribution, may not demand or receive any distribution from a limited liability company in any form other than cash; and

(2) a member may not be compelled to accept from a limited liability company a distribution of any asset in kind to the extent that the percentage of the asset distributed to the members exceeds a percentage of that asset that is equal to the percentage in which the member shares in distributions from the limited liability company.

History: En. Sec. 34, Ch. 120, L. 1993.

35-8-604. Distributions. (1) A distribution may not be made if, after giving effect to the distribution:

(a) the limited liability company would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or

(b) the limited liability company's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus, unless the articles of organization or the operating agreement provides otherwise, the amount that would be needed, if the limited liability company were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights of other members upon dissolution that are superior to the rights of the member receiving the distribution.

(2) The limited liability company may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (1) on either:

(a) financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable under the circumstances; or

(b) a fair valuation or other method that is reasonable under the circumstances.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (5), the effect of a distribution under subsection (1) is measured as of:

(a) the date the distribution is authorized if the payment occurs within 120 days after the date of authorization; or

(b) the date payment is made if it occurs more than 120 days after the date of authorization.

(4) A limited liability company's indebtedness to a member incurred by reason of a distribution to be made to that member in accordance with this section is at parity with the limited liability company's indebtedness to its general unsecured creditors, except as otherwise provided by agreement.

(5) For purposes of this section:

(a) if terms of indebtedness provide that payment of principal and interest is to be made only if and to the extent that payment of a distribution to members could then be made under this section, indebtedness of a limited liability company, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, is not a liability for purposes of determinations made under subsection (2); and

(b) if the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest on the indebtedness is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is actually made.

35-8-605. Liability upon wrongful distribution. (1) A member or manager who votes for or assents to a distribution in violation of the articles of organization, the operating agreement, or 35-8-604 is personally liable to the limited liability company, but not to other persons, for the amount of the distribution that exceeds what could have been distributed without violating 35-8-604 or the articles of organization or the operating agreement if it is established that the member or manager did not perform the member's or manager's duties in compliance with 35-8-310.

(2) A member of a manager-managed company who knew a distribution was made in violation of 35-8-604, the articles of organization, or the operating agreement is personally liable to the company, but only to the extent that the distribution received by that member exceeded the amount that could have properly been paid to that member under 35-8-604.

(3) A member or manager against whom an action is brought under this section may implead in the action:

(a) other members and managers who voted for or assented to the distribution in violation of subsection (1) and may compel contribution from them; and

(b) members who received a distribution in violation of subsection (2) and may compel a contribution from the members in the amount received in violation of subsection (2).

(4) A proceeding under this section is barred unless it is commenced within 2 years after the date of the distribution.

History: En. Sec. 36, Ch. 120, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 25, Ch. 302, L. 1999.

35-8-606. Right to distribution. Subject to 35-8-905, when a member becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the member has the status of and is entitled to all remedies available to a creditor of the limited liability company with respect to the distribution.

History: En. Sec. 37, Ch. 120, L. 1993.

Part 7
Ownership and Transfer of Property

Part Cross-References

Property rights of partner, Title 35, ch. 10, part 5.

35-8-701. Ownership of limited liability company property. (1) Property transferred to or otherwise acquired by a limited liability company becomes property of the limited liability company. A member has no interest in specific limited liability company property.

(2) Property may be acquired, held, and conveyed in the name of the limited liability company. Any estate in real property may be acquired in the name of the limited liability company, and title to any estate acquired must vest in the limited liability company rather than in the members individually.

35-8-702. Transfer of real property. (1) Except as provided in subsection (5), title to property of the limited liability company that is held in the name of the limited liability company may be transferred by an instrument of transfer executed by any member in the name of the limited liability company.

(2) Title to property of the limited liability company that is held in the name of one or more members or managers may be transferred by an instrument of transfer executed by the persons in whose name title is held if there is an indication in the instrument transferring title to the property to them of:

(a) their capacity as members or managers of a limited liability company; or

(b) the existence of a limited liability company, even if the name of the limited liability company is not indicated.

(3) Property transferred under subsection (1) or (2) may be recovered by the limited liability company if it proves that the act of the person executing the instrument of transfer did not bind the limited liability company under 35-8-301 unless the property has been transferred by the initial transferee or a person claiming through the initial transferee to a subsequent transferee who gives value without having notice that the person who executed the instrument of initial transfer lacked authority to bind the limited liability company.

(4) Title to property of the limited liability company may be transferred free of any claims of the limited liability company or its members by the persons in whose name title is held to a transferee who gives value without having notice that it is property of a limited liability company if title is held in the name of one or more persons other than the limited liability company and there is no indication in the instrument transferring title to the property to them of:

(a) their capacity as members or managers of a limited liability company; or

(b) the existence of a limited liability company.

(5) If the articles of organization provide that management of the limited liability company is vested in a manager or managers:

(a) title to property of the limited liability company that is held in the name of the limited liability company may be transferred by an instrument of transfer executed by any manager in the name of the limited liability company; and

(b) a member, acting solely in the capacity of a member, may not transfer title as provided in subsection (5)(a).

35-8-703. Nature of distributional interest. (1) A member is not a co-owner of, and does not have a transferable interest in, property of a limited liability company.

(2) A member's distributional interest in a limited liability company is personal property and, subject to the provisions of 35-8-707, may be transferred in whole or in part.

(3) An operating agreement may provide that a member's distributional interest may be evidenced by a certificate of the interest issued by the limited liability company and, subject to the provisions of 35-8-707, may also provide for the transfer of any interest represented by the certificate.

35-8-705. Rights of judgment creditor. (1) On application to a court of competent jurisdiction by any judgment creditor of a member, the court may charge the distributional interest of the member with payment of the unsatisfied amount of judgment, with interest. To the extent charged, the judgment creditor has only the rights of an assignee of the distributional interest. This chapter does not deprive a member of the benefit of any exemption laws applicable to a distributional interest.

(2) The court may appoint a receiver of the share of the distributions due or to become due to a judgment debtor and make all other orders, directions, accounts, and inquiries that the judgment debtor may have made or that the circumstances require to give effect to the charging order.

(3) A charging order constitutes a lien on the judgment debtor's distributional interest. The court may order a foreclosure of a lien on a distributional interest subject to the charging order at any time. A purchaser of the distributional interest at a foreclosure sale has the rights of a transferee.

(4) At any time before foreclosure, a distributional interest that is charged may be redeemed:

(a) by the judgment debtor;

(b) by one or more of the other members with property other than the company's; or

(c) with the company's property if permitted by the operating agreement.

(5) This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a judgment creditor of a member or a transferee may satisfy a judgment out of the judgment debtor's distributional interest in a limited liability company.

35-8-707. Transfer of distributional interest — rights of transferee. (1) A transfer of a member's distributional interest does not entitle the transferee to become a member or to exercise any rights of a member. A transfer entitles the transferee to receive, to the extent transferred, only the distributions to which the transferor would be entitled.

(2) A transferee of a distributional interest may become a member of a limited liability company if and to the extent that the transferor gives the transferee the right in accordance with authority described in writing in the operating agreement or if all other members consent.

(3) A transferee who has become a member, to the extent transferred, has the rights and powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a member under the operating agreement of a limited liability company and the provisions of this chapter. A transferee who becomes a member also is liable for the transferor member's obligations to make contributions under 35-8-502 and for obligations under 35-8-605 to return unlawful distributions, but the transferee is not obligated for the transferor member's liabilities unknown to the transferee at the time that the transferee becomes a member.

(4) Whether or not a transferee of a distributional interest becomes a member under subsection (2), the transferor is not released from liability to the limited liability company under the operating agreement or the provisions of this chapter.

(5) A transferee who does not become a member is not entitled to participate in the management or conduct of the limited liability company's business, may not require access to information concerning the company's transactions, and may not inspect or copy any of the company's records.

(6) A transferee who does not become a member is entitled to:

(a) receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be entitled;

(b) receive, upon dissolution and winding up of the limited liability company's business:

(i) in accordance with the transfer, the net amount otherwise distributable to the transferor; and

(ii) a statement of account only from the date of the latest statement of account agreed to by all the members; and

(c) seek under 35-8-902(2) a judicial determination that it is equitable to dissolve and wind up the company's business.

(7) A limited liability company does not have to give effect to a transfer until it has notice of the transfer.

35-8-803. Events causing member's dissociation. (1) A member is dissociated from a limited liability company upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(a) the company's having notice of the member's express will to withdraw upon the date of notice or on a later date if specified by the member;

(b) an event agreed to in the operating agreement as causing the member's dissociation;

(c) upon transfer of all of a member's distributional interest, other than a transfer for security purposes or pursuant to a court order charging the member's distributional interest that has not been foreclosed;

(d) the member's expulsion pursuant to the operating agreement;

(e) the member's expulsion by unanimous vote of the other members if:

(i) it is unlawful to carry on the company's business with the member;

(ii) there has been a transfer of substantially all of the member's distributional interest, other than a transfer for security purposes or pursuant to a court order charging the member's distributional interest, which has not been foreclosed;

(iii) within 90 days after the company notifies a corporate member that it will be expelled because it has filed a certificate of dissolution or the equivalent, its charter has been revoked, or its right to conduct business has been suspended by the jurisdiction of its incorporation, the member fails to obtain a revocation of the certificate of dissolution or a reinstatement of its charter or its right to conduct business; or

(iv) a partnership or a limited liability company that is a member has been dissolved, and its business is being wound up;

(f) on application by the company or another member, the member's expulsion by judicial determination because the member:

(i) engaged in wrongful conduct that adversely and materially affected the company's business;

(ii) willfully or persistently committed a material breach of the operating agreement or of a duty owed to the company or the other members under 35-8-310; or

(iii) engaged in conduct relating to the company's business that makes it not reasonably practicable to carry on the business with the member;

(g) the member's:

(i) becoming a debtor in bankruptcy;

(ii) executing an assignment for the benefit of creditors;

(iii) seeking, consenting to, or acquiescing in the appointment of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of all or substantially all of the member's property; or

(iv) failing, within 90 days after the appointment, to have vacated or stayed the appointment of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of the member or of all or substantially all of the member's property obtained without the member's consent or acquiescence or failing within 90 days after the expiration of stay to have the appointment vacated;

(h) in the case of a member who is an individual:

(i) the member's death;

(ii) the appointment of a guardian or general conservator for the member; or

(iii) a judicial determination that the member has otherwise become incapable of performing the member's duties under the operating agreement;

(i) in the case of a member that is a trust or is acting as a member by virtue of being a trustee of a trust, distribution of the trust's entire rights to receive distributions from the company, except that this subsection does not apply to the substitution of a successor trustee;

(j) in the case of a member that is an estate or is acting as a member by virtue of being a personal representative of an estate, distribution of the estate's entire rights to receive distributions from the company, but not merely the substitution of a successor personal representative; or

(k) termination of the existence of a member if the member is not an individual, estate, or trust other than a business trust.

(2) (a) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement, any event described in this chapter or in the articles of organization or operating agreement that causes a manager to cease to be a manager with respect to a series of members does not, in itself, cause the manager to cease to be a manager with respect to the limited liability company or with respect to any other series of members.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement, any event described in this chapter or in the articles of organization or operating agreement that causes a manager to cease to be associated with a series of members does not, in itself, cause any member to cease to be associated with any other series of members, terminate the continued membership of any member in the limited liability company, or cause the termination of the series of members, regardless of whether the member was the last remaining member associated with the series.

35-8-804. Member's power to dissociate — wrongful dissociation. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, a member has the power to dissociate from a limited liability company at any time, rightfully or wrongfully, pursuant to 35-8-803(1)(a).

(2) If the operating agreement has not eliminated a member's power to dissociate, the member's dissociation from a limited liability company is wrongful only if:

(a) it is in breach of an express provision of the agreement; or

(b) before the expiration of the specified term of a term company:

(i) the member withdraws by express will;

(ii) the member is expelled by judicial determination under 35-8-803(1)(f);

(iii) the member is dissociated by becoming a debtor in bankruptcy; or

(iv) in the case of a member that is not an individual, trust, other than a business trust, or estate, the member is expelled or otherwise dissociated because it willfully dissolved or terminated its existence.

(3) A member that wrongfully dissociates from a limited liability company is liable to the company and to the other members for damages caused by the dissociation. The liability is in addition to any other obligation of the member to the company or to the other members.

(4) If a limited liability company does not dissolve and wind up its business as a result of a member's wrongful dissociation under subsection (2), damages sustained by the company for the wrongful dissociation must be offset against distributions otherwise due the member after the dissociation.

35-8-805. Effect of member's dissociation. (1) Upon a member's dissociation:

(a) in an at-will company, the company shall cause the dissociated member's distributional interest to be purchased as provided under 35-8-808 and 35-8-809; and

(b) in a term company:

(i) if the company dissolves and winds up its business on or before the expiration of its specified term, part 9 of this chapter applies to determine the dissociated member's rights to distributions; and

(ii) if the company does not dissolve and wind up its business on or before the expiration of its specified term, the company shall ensure that the dissociated member's distributional interest is purchased under 35-8-808 and 35-8-809 on the date that was specified for the expiration of the term at the time of the member's dissociation.

(2) Upon a member's dissociation from a limited liability company:

(a) the member's right to participate in the management and conduct of the company's business terminates, except as otherwise provided in 35-8-903, and the member ceases to be a member and must be treated the same as a transferee of a member;

(b) the member's duty of loyalty under 35-8-310(2)(c) terminates; and

(c) the member's duty of loyalty under 35-8-310(2)(a) and (2)(b) and duty of care under 35-8-310(3) continue only with regard to matters arising and events occurring before the member's dissociation, unless the member participates in winding up the company's business pursuant to 35-8-903.

History: En. Sec. 32, Ch. 302, L. 1999.

35-8-806 and 35-8-807 reserved.

35-8-808. Company purchase of distributional interest. (1) A limited liability company shall purchase a distributional interest of a:

(a) member of an at-will company for its fair value determined as of the date of the member's dissociation if the member's dissociation does not result in a dissolution and winding up of the company's business under 35-8-901; or

(b) member of a term company for its fair value determined as of the date of the expiration of the specified term that existed on the date of the member's dissociation if the expiration of the specified term does not result in a dissolution and winding up of the company's business under 35-8-903.

(2) A limited liability company shall deliver a purchase offer to the dissociated member whose distributional interest is entitled to be purchased not later than 30 days after the date determined under subsection (1). The purchase offer must be accompanied by:

(a) a statement of the company's assets and liabilities as of the date determined under subsection (1);

(b) the latest available balance sheet and income statement, if any; and

(c) an explanation of how the estimated amount of the payment was calculated.

(3) If the price and other terms of a purchase of a distributional interest are fixed or are to be determined by the operating agreement, the price and terms so fixed or determined govern the purchase unless the purchaser defaults. If a default occurs, the dissociated member is entitled to commence a proceeding to have the company dissolved under 35-8-902(1)(d).

(4) If an agreement to purchase the distributional interest is not made within 120 days after the date determined under subsection (1), the dissociated member, within another 120 days, may commence a proceeding against the limited liability company to enforce the purchase. The company, at its expense, shall notify in writing all of the remaining members and any other person that the court directs of the commencement of the proceeding. The jurisdiction of the court in which a proceeding is commenced under this subsection is plenary and exclusive.

(5) The court shall determine the fair value of the distributional interest in accordance with the standards set forth in 35-8-809, together with the terms for the purchase. Upon making these determinations, the court shall order the limited liability company to purchase or cause the purchase of the interest.

(6) Damages for wrongful dissociation under 35-8-804(2) and all other amounts owing, whether or not currently due, from the dissociated member to a limited liability company, must be offset against the purchase price.

35-8-809. Court action to determine fair value of distributional interest. (1) In an action brought to determine the fair value of a distributional interest in a limited liability company, the court shall:

(a) determine the fair value of the interest, considering among other relevant evidence the going concern value of the company, any agreement among some or all of the members fixing the price or specifying a formula for determining value of distributional interests for any other purpose, the recommendations of any appraiser appointed by the court, and any legal constraints on the company's ability to purchase the interest;

(b) specify the terms of the purchase, including, if appropriate, terms for installment payments, subordination of the purchase obligation to the rights of the company's other creditors, security for a deferred purchase price, and a covenant not to compete or other restriction on a dissociated member; and

(c) require the dissociated member to deliver an assignment of the interest to the purchaser upon receipt of the purchase price or the first installment of the purchase price.

(2) After the dissociated member delivers the assignment, the dissociated member has no further claim against the company, its members, officers, or managers, if any, other than a claim to any unpaid balance of the purchase price or a claim under any agreement with the company or the remaining members that is not terminated by the court.

(3) If the purchase is not completed in accordance with the court's specified terms, the company is to be dissolved upon application under 35-8-902(1)(d). If a limited liability company is so dissolved, the dissociated member has the same rights and priorities in the company's assets as if the sale of the distributional interest had not been ordered.

(4) If the court finds that a party to the proceeding acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith, it may award one or more other parties reasonable expenses, including attorney fees and the expenses of appraisers or other experts, incurred in the proceeding. The finding may be based on the company's failure to make an offer to pay or to comply with 35-8-808(2).

(5) Interest must be paid on the amount awarded from the date determined under 35-8-808(1) to the date of payment.

35-8-810 reserved.

35-8-811. Dissociated member's power to bind limited liability company. For 2 years after a member dissociates without the dissociation resulting in a dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company's business, the company, including a surviving company under part 12 of this chapter, is bound by an act of the dissociated member that would have bound the company under 35-8-301 before dissociation only if at the time of entering into the transaction the other party:

(1) reasonably believed that the dissociated member was then a member;

(2) did not have notice of the member's dissociation; and

(3) is not considered to have had notice under 35-8-812.

History: En. Sec. 35, Ch. 302, L. 1999.

35-8-812. Statement of dissociation. (1) A dissociated member or a limited liability company shall file in the office of the secretary of state a statement of dissociation, stating the name of the company and that the member is dissociated from the company.

(2) For the purposes of 35-8-301 and 35-8-811, a person not a member is considered to have notice of the dissociation 90 days after the statement of dissociation is filed.

Dissolution and winding up — partnerships, Title 35, ch. 10, part 6.

Dissolution — limited partnerships, Title 35, ch. 12, part 12.

35-8-901. Dissolution. (1) A limited liability company is dissolved and its affairs must be wound up when one of the following occurs:

(a) at the time or upon the occurrence of events specified in writing in the articles of organization or operating agreement;

(b) consent of the number or percentage of members specified in the operating agreement;

(c) an event that makes it unlawful for all or substantially all of the business of the company to be continued, but any cure of illegality within 90 days after notice to the company of the event is effective retroactively to the date of the event for purposes of this section;

(d) the expiration of the term specified in the articles of organization; or

(e) entry of a decree of judicial dissolution under 35-8-902.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a limited liability company continues after dissolution only for the purpose of winding up its business.

(3) At any time after the dissolution of a limited liability company and before the winding up of its business is completed, the members, including a dissociated member whose dissociation caused the dissolution, may unanimously waive the right to have the company's business wound up and the company terminated. In that case:

(a) the limited liability company resumes carrying on its business as if dissolution had never occurred, and any liability incurred by the company or a member after the dissolution and before the waiver is determined as if the dissolution had never occurred; and

(b) the rights of a third party accruing under the provisions of 35-8-904(1) or arising out of conduct by the third party in reliance on the dissolution before the third party knew or received a notification of the waiver are not adversely affected.

(4) The affairs of a series of members of a limited liability company must be wound up:

(a) at the time, if any, specified in the articles of organization;

(b) upon the occurrence of an event specified in the operating agreement;

(c) unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement, upon the affirmative vote or written agreement of all the members associated with the series of members; or

(d) upon entry of a decree of judicial termination of the series of members pursuant to 35-8-902.

(5) (a) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement, upon the occurrence of an event requiring the affairs of a series of members to be wound up, a manager of the series who has not wrongfully terminated the series or, if there is not a manager, the members associated with the series, or a person approved by all of the members of the series may wind up the affairs of the series.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement, the person or persons winding up the affairs of a series of members:

(i) may take all actions necessary or proper to wind up the affairs of the series; and

(ii) shall distribute the assets of the series of members to the creditors of the series and the members associated with the series.

History: En. Sec. 46, Ch. 120, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 37, Ch. 302, L. 1999; amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 183, L. 2013.

35-8-902. Judicial dissolution. (1) On application by or for a member or a dissociated member, a district court may order dissolution of a limited liability company, or other appropriate relief, when:

(a) the economic purpose of the company is likely to be unreasonably frustrated;

(b) another member has engaged in conduct relating to the company's business that makes it not reasonably practicable to carry on the company's business with that member remaining as a member;

(c) it is not otherwise reasonably practicable to carry on the company's business in conformity with the articles of organization and the operating agreement;

(d) the company failed to purchase the petitioner's distributional interest as required by 35-8-805; or

(e) the members or managers in control of the company have acted, are acting, or will act in a manner that is illegal, oppressive, fraudulent, or unfairly prejudicial to the petitioner.

(2) On application by a transferee of a member's interest, a district court may determine that it is equitable to wind up the company's business:

(a) after the expiration of the specified term, if the company was for a specified term at the time that the applicant became a transferee by member dissociation, transfer, or entry of a charging order that gave rise to the transfer; or

(b) at any time, if the company was at will at the time that the applicant became a transferee by member dissociation, transfer, or entry of a charging order that gave rise to the transfer.

(3) Whenever it is not reasonably practicable to carry on the business of a series of members in conformity with the articles of organization or operating agreement and upon application by or for a member of the series of members, a district court may decree only the termination of the series of members and may not decree the dissolution of the limited liability company.

35-8-903. Winding up. (1) Except as otherwise provided in the articles of organization or the operating agreement, the business or affairs of the limited liability company may be wound up:

(a) by the members or managers who have authority under 35-8-304 to manage the limited liability company prior to dissolution; or

(b) if one or more of the members or managers have engaged in wrongful conduct or upon other cause shown, by the district court on application of any member or any member's legal representative or assignee.

(2) The persons winding up the business or affairs of the limited liability company may, in the name of and for and on behalf of the limited liability company:

(a) prosecute and defend suits;

(b) settle and close the business of the limited liability company;

(c) dispose of and transfer the property of the limited liability company;

(d) discharge the liabilities of the limited liability company; and

(e) distribute to the members any remaining assets of the limited liability company.

History: En. Sec. 48, Ch. 120, L. 1993.

35-8-904. Agency power and liability of members or managers after dissolution. (1) Except as provided in subsections (3) through (5), after an event causing dissolution of the limited liability company, a member may bind the limited liability company:

(a) by an act appropriate for winding up the limited liability company's affairs or completing transactions unfinished at dissolution; and

(b) by any transaction that would have bound the limited liability company, if it had not been dissolved, if the other party to the transaction does not have notice of the dissolution.

(2) The filing of the articles of termination is presumed to constitute notice of dissolution for purposes of subsection (1)(b).

(3) An act of a member that would not otherwise be binding on the limited liability company under subsection (1) is binding if it is authorized by the limited liability company.

(4) An act of a member that would be binding under subsection (1) or would be otherwise authorized and that is in contravention of a restriction on authority may not bind the limited liability company to persons having knowledge of the restriction.

(5) If the articles of organization vest management of the limited liability company in managers, a manager may exercise the authority of a member under subsection (1) and a member may not exercise the authority if the member is acting solely in the capacity of a member.

(6) A member or manager who, with knowledge of the dissolution, subjects a limited liability company to liability by an act that is not appropriate for the winding up of the company's business is liable to the company for any damage caused by the act.

35-8-905. Distribution of assets. Upon the winding up of a limited liability company, the assets must be distributed as follows:

(1) to creditors, including members and managers who are creditors, to the extent otherwise permitted by law, in satisfaction of liabilities of the limited liability company, whether by payment or the making of reasonable provision for payment, other than liabilities to members for distributions under 35-8-605;

(2) unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or an operating agreement, to members and former members in satisfaction of liabilities for distributions under 35-8-605; and

(3) unless otherwise provided in writing in the articles of organization or a written operating agreement, to members first for the return of their contributions and second respecting their limited liability company interests, in the proportions in which the members share in distributions.

History: En. Sec. 50, Ch. 120, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 40, Ch. 302, L. 1999.

35-8-906. Articles of termination. (1) At any time after dissolution and winding up, a limited liability company may terminate its existence by filing with the secretary of state articles of termination stating:

(a) the name of the limited liability company;

(b) the reason for filing the articles of termination;

(c) the effective date of the articles of termination, which must be a date certain, if they are not to be effective upon the filing;

(d) the name of the agent or agents authorized to receive service of process after dissolution or termination of the limited liability company;

(e) the name of the person or persons authorized to wind up the business and authorized to execute documents on behalf of the limited liability company;

(f) the date of the dissolution; and

(g) that the company's business has been wound up and the legal existence of the company has been terminated.

(2) The existence of a limited liability company is terminated upon the filing of the articles of termination or upon a later effective date, if specified in the articles of termination.

35-8-908. Known claims against dissolved or terminated limited liability companies. (1) A dissolved or terminated limited liability company may dispose of the known claims against it by following the procedure described in this section.

(2) The dissolved or terminated limited liability company shall notify its known claimants in writing of the dissolution or termination at any time after the effective date of the dissolution or termination. The written notice must:

(a) describe information that must be included in a claim;

(b) provide a mailing address where a claim may be sent;

(c) state the deadline, which may not be less than 120 days from the later of the effective date of the written notice or the filing of the articles of termination pursuant to 35-8-906, by which the dissolved or terminated limited liability company must receive the claim; and

(d) state that the claim will be barred if not received by the deadline.

(3) A claim against the dissolved or terminated limited liability company is barred:

(a) if a claimant who was given written notice under subsection (2) does not deliver the claim to the dissolved or terminated limited liability company by the deadline; or

(b) if a claimant whose claim was rejected by the dissolved or terminated limited liability company does not commence a proceeding to enforce the claim within 90 days from the effective date of the rejection notice.

(4) For purposes of this section, "claim" does not include a contingent liability or a claim based on an event occurring after the effective date of the dissolution or termination.

History: En. Sec. 53, Ch. 120, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 42, Ch. 302, L. 1999.

35-8-909. Unknown claims against dissolved or terminated limited liability companies. (1) Subject to 35-8-908 and subsections (2) through (5) of this section, the dissolution or termination of a limited liability company, including dissolution by the expiration of its term, does not take away or impair any remedy available to or against the limited liability company or its members or managers for any claim or right, whether or not the claim or right existed or accrued prior to dissolution or termination. A proceeding by or against the limited liability company may be prosecuted or defended by the limited liability company in its name.

The members and managers have power to take action as appropriate to protect the remedy, right, or claim.

(2) A dissolved or terminated limited liability company may publish notice of its dissolution or termination and request that persons having claims against it present the claims in accordance with the notice.

(3) The notice must:

(a) be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the dissolved or terminated limited liability company's principal office is located or, if there is none in this state, then in the county in which its designated office is or was last located;

(b) describe the information required to be contained in a claim and provide a mailing address to which the claim is to be sent; and

(c) state that a claim against the limited liability company is barred unless a proceeding to enforce the claim is commenced within 5 years after publication of the notice.

(4) If a dissolved or terminated limited liability company publishes a notice in accordance with subsection (3), the claim of each of the following claimants is barred unless the claimant commences a proceeding to enforce the claim against the dissolved or terminated company within 5 years after the publication date of the notice:

(a) a claimant who did not receive written notice under 35-8-908;

(b) a claimant whose claim was timely sent to the dissolved or terminated company but not acted on; and

(c) a claimant whose claim is contingent on or based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution or termination.

(5) A claim not barred under this section may be enforced:

(a) against the dissolved or terminated limited liability company, to the extent of its undistributed assets; or

(b) if the assets have been distributed in liquidation, against a member of the dissolved or terminated company to the extent of the member's proportionate share of the claim or the company's assets distributed to the member in liquidation, whichever is less, but a member's total liability for all claims under this section may not exceed the total amount of assets distributed to the member.

35-8-912. Reinstatement following administrative dissolution. (1) A limited liability company administratively dissolved under the provisions of 35-8-209 may apply to the secretary of state for reinstatement within 5 years after the effective date of dissolution to restore its right to carry on business in this state and to exercise all its privileges and immunities. A limited liability company applying for reinstatement shall submit to the secretary of state an official application, executed by a person who was a member or manager at the time of dissolution, setting forth:

(a) the name and business mailing address of the limited liability company;

(b) a statement that the assets of the limited liability company have not been liquidated;

(c) a statement that a majority of its members have authorized the application for reinstatement; and

(d) if its name has been legally acquired by another entity prior to its application for reinstatement, the name under which the limited liability company desires to be reinstated.

(2) The limited liability company shall submit with its application for reinstatement:

(a) a certificate from the department of revenue stating that all taxes imposed pursuant to Title 15 have been paid unless a limited liability company has only one member and has not elected to be taxed as a corporation; and

(b) all annual reports not yet filed with the secretary of state.

(3) When all requirements of subsections (1) and (2) are met and the secretary of state reinstates the limited liability company, the secretary of state shall:

(a) conform and file in the office of the secretary of state reports, statements, and other instruments submitted for reinstatement;

(b) immediately issue and deliver to the reinstated limited liability company a certificate of reinstatement authorizing it to transact business; and

(c) upon demand and receipt of the specified fee, issue to the limited liability company one or more certified copies of the certificate of reinstatement.

(4) The secretary of state may not order a reinstatement if 5 years have elapsed since the date of dissolution.

(5) A restoration of limited liability company rights pursuant to this section relates back to the date the limited liability company was administratively dissolved, and the limited liability company is considered to have been an existing legal entity from the date of its original organization.

History: En. Sec. 45, Ch. 302, L. 1999; amd. Sec. 16, Ch. 75, L. 2003; amd. Secs. 1, 2, Ch. 355, L. 2011.

35-8-913. Appeal from denial of reinstatement. (1) If the secretary of state denies a limited liability company's application for reinstatement following administrative dissolution, the secretary of state shall deliver a notice to the company that explains the reason or reasons for the denial.

(2) The company may appeal the denial of reinstatement to a district court within 30 days after delivery of the notice of denial. The company shall appeal by petitioning the court to set aside the dissolution and attaching to the petition copies of the secretary of state's certificate of dissolution, the company's application for reinstatement, and the secretary of state's notice of denial.

(3) The court may summarily order the secretary of state to reinstate the dissolved company or may take other action that the court considers appropriate.

(4) The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

History: En. Sec. 46, Ch. 302, L. 1999; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 23, L. 2017.

35-8-914. Involuntary dissolution — procedure. (1) A limited liability company that is guilty of any of the actions or omissions described in 35-8-209(1) is in default. By reason of the default, the limited liability company may be involuntarily dissolved by order of the secretary of state, thereby forfeiting its right to transact any business in this state.

(2) On or before September 1 of each year, the secretary of state shall compile a list of defaulting limited liability companies, together with the amount of any filing fee, penalty, or costs remaining unpaid.

(3) The secretary of state shall give notice to the defaulting limited liability companies by:

(a) delivering a letter addressed to the limited liability company in care of its registered agent or any director or officer; or

(b) publication of a general notice to all Montana limited liability companies once a month for 3 consecutive months in a newspaper of general circulation in Lewis and Clark County.

(4) The notice referred to in subsection (3) must specify the fact of the proposed dissolution and state that unless the grounds for dissolution described in 35-8-209 have been rectified within 90 days following the delivery or publication of notice:

(a) the secretary of state will dissolve the defaulting limited liability company;

(b) a defaulting limited liability company will forfeit the amount of any tax, penalty, or costs to the state of Montana; and

(c) a defaulting limited liability company will forfeit its right to carry on business within the state.

(5) After 90 days following delivery or publication of each notice, the secretary of state may, by order, dissolve a limited liability company that has not satisfied the requirements of applicable law and compile a full and complete list containing the names of all limited liability companies that have been so dissolved. The secretary of state shall immediately give notice to the dissolved limited liability companies as specified in subsection (3).

(6) In the case of involuntary dissolution, all the property and assets of a dissolved limited liability company must be held in trust by the members or managers of the limited liability company and the limited liability company may carry on business only as necessary to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs under 35-8-901 and to notify claimants under 35-8-908 and 35-8-909.

(7) The administrative dissolution of a limited liability company does not terminate the authority of its registered agent for service of process.

35-8-1001. Authority to transact business required. (1) A foreign limited liability company may not transact business in this state until it obtains a certificate of authority from the secretary of state.

(2) The following activities, among others, do not constitute transacting business within the meaning of subsection (1):

(a) maintaining, defending, or settling any proceeding;

(b) holding meetings of the members or managers or carrying on other activities concerning internal affairs of the limited liability company;

(c) maintaining bank accounts;

(d) maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange, and registration of the limited liability company's own securities or maintaining trustees or depositaries with respect to those securities;

(e) selling through independent contractors;

(f) soliciting or obtaining orders, whether by mail or through employees or agents or otherwise, if the orders require acceptance outside this state before they become contracts;

(g) creating or acquiring indebtedness, mortgages, and security interests in real or personal property;

(h) securing or collecting debts or enforcing mortgages and security interests in property securing the debts;

(i) owning real or personal property that is acquired incident to activities described in subsection (2)(h) if the property is disposed of within 5 years after the date of acquisition, does not produce income, or is not used in the performance of a function of the limited liability company;

(j) conducting an isolated transaction that is completed within 30 days and that is not a transaction in the course of repeated transactions of a similar nature; or

(k) transacting business in interstate commerce.

(3) The list of activities in subsection (2) is not exhaustive.

(4) Except as provided in subsection (2), a foreign limited liability company is transacting business within the meaning of subsection (1) if it enters into a contract, including a contract entered into pursuant to Title 18, with the state of Montana, an agency of the state, or a political subdivision of the state and must apply for and receive a certificate of authority to transact business before entering into the contract. The secretary of state shall deliver a notice to the contracting parties regarding the requirement that a foreign limited liability company obtain a certificate of authority. The foreign limited liability company must be allowed 30 days from the date of the notice to obtain the certificate of authority, and an existing contract may not be voided prior to the expiration of the 30 days. This subsection does not apply to goods or services prepared out of state for delivery or use in this state.

35-8-1002. Consequences of transacting business without authority. (1) A foreign limited liability company transacting business in this state without a certificate of authority may not maintain a proceeding in any court in this state until it obtains a certificate of authority.

(2) The successor to a foreign limited liability company that transacted business in this state without a certificate of authority and the assignee of a cause of action arising out of that business may not maintain a proceeding based on that cause of action in any court in this state until the foreign limited liability company or its successor obtains a certificate of authority.

(3) A court may stay a proceeding commenced by a foreign limited liability company or its successor or assignee until it determines whether the foreign corporation or its successor or assignee requires a certificate of authority. If it determines that a certificate is required, the court may further stay the proceeding until the foreign limited liability company or its successor obtains the certificate.

(4) A foreign limited liability company is liable for a civil penalty of $5 for each day, but not to exceed a total of $1,000 for each year, that it transacts business in this state without a certificate of authority. The attorney general may collect all penalties due under this subsection and deposit them to the general fund.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) and except as provided in subsection (6), the failure of a foreign limited liability company to obtain a certificate of authority does not impair the validity of its acts or prevent it from defending any proceeding in this state.

(6) A contract between the state of Montana, an agency of the state, or a political subdivision of the state and a foreign limited liability company that has failed to obtain a certificate of authority, as required under 35-8-1001, is voidable by the state, the contracting state agency, or the contracting political subdivision.

35-8-1003. Application for certificate of authority. A foreign limited liability company may apply for a certificate of authority to transact business in this state by delivering an application to the secretary of state for filing. The application must set forth:

(1) the name of the foreign limited liability company or, if its name is unavailable for use in this state, a name that satisfies the requirements of 35-8-1009;

(2) the name of the jurisdiction under whose law it is organized;

(3) its date of organization and period of duration;

(4) the business mailing address of its principal office, wherever located;

(5) the information required by 35-7-105(1);

(6) the names and business mailing addresses of its current managers, if different from its members;

(7) a statement that the foreign limited liability company has complied with the organizational laws in the jurisdiction in which it is organized and that the foreign limited liability company exists in that jurisdiction; and

(8) if the foreign limited liability company has one or more series of members, the name of each series of members. A copy of the operating agreement of each series of members must be included with the application.

History: En. Sec. 60, Ch. 120, L. 1993.

35-8-1007. Amended certificate of authority. (1) A foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in this state shall obtain an amended certificate of authority from the secretary of state if it changes:

(a) its name;

(b) the period of its duration; or

(c) the state, tribe, or country of its organization.

(2) The requirements of 35-8-1003 for obtaining an original certificate of authority apply to obtaining an amended certificate under this section.

History: En. Sec. 61, Ch. 120, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 20, Ch. 280, L. 2015.

35-8-1008. Effect of certificate of authority. (1) A certificate of authority issued by the secretary of state authorizes a foreign limited liability company to transact business in this state subject to the right of the state to revoke the certificate as provided in this part.

(2) A foreign limited liability company with a valid certificate of authority has the same rights and privileges as a domestic company of similar character and, except as otherwise provided by this part, is subject to the same duties, restrictions, penalties, and liabilities imposed on a domestic limited liability company of similar character.

(3) This part does not authorize the state to regulate the organization or internal affairs of a foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in the state.

35-8-1009. Name. A certificate of authority may not be issued to a foreign limited liability company unless the name of the company satisfies the requirements of 35-8-103. If the name of a foreign limited liability company does not satisfy the requirements of 35-8-103, to obtain or maintain a certificate of authority:

(1) the foreign limited liability company may add the words "limited company", the abbreviation "l.l.c.", or the abbreviation "l.c." to its name for use in this state; or

(2) if its real name is unavailable, the foreign limited liability company may use an assumed business name that is available and that satisfies the requirements of 35-8-208 if it files the assumed business name with the secretary of state.

History: En. Sec. 63, Ch. 120, L. 1993.

35-8-1010. Withdrawal of foreign limited liability company. (1) A foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in this state may not withdraw from this state until it obtains a certificate of withdrawal from the secretary of state.

(2) A foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in this state may apply for a certificate of withdrawal by delivering an application to the secretary of state for filing. The application must set forth:

(a) the name of the foreign limited liability company and the name of the state, tribe, or country under whose law it is organized;

(b) that it is not transacting business in this state and that it surrenders its authority to transact business in this state;

(c) that it revokes the authority of its registered agent to accept service on its behalf and appoints the secretary of state as its agent for service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action arising during the time it was authorized to transact business in this state;

(d) a mailing address to which the secretary of state may mail a copy of any process served on the secretary of state under subsection (3);

(e) a commitment to notify the secretary of state in the future of any change in its mailing address;

(f) that all taxes imposed on the foreign limited liability company by Title 15 have been paid, supported by a certificate by the department of revenue to be attached to the application to the effect that the department is satisfied from the available evidence that all taxes imposed have been paid. The issuance of the certificate does not relieve the corporation from liability for any taxes, penalties, or interest due the state of Montana.

(g) additional information as may be necessary or appropriate to enable the secretary of state to determine and assess any unpaid fees or taxes payable by the foreign limited liability company.

(3) After the withdrawal of the foreign limited liability company is effective, service of process on the secretary of state under this section is service on the foreign limited liability company. Upon receipt of process, the secretary of state shall mail a copy of the process to the foreign limited liability company at the mailing address set forth under subsection (2).

History: En. Sec. 64, Ch. 120, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 21, Ch. 280, L. 2015.

35-8-1011. Grounds for revocation. The secretary of state may commence a proceeding under 35-8-1012 to revoke the certificate of authority of a foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in this state if:

(1) the foreign limited liability company does not deliver its annual report to the secretary of state within 140 days after it is due;

(2) the foreign limited liability company is without a registered agent or registered office in this state for 60 days or more;

(3) the foreign limited liability company does not inform the secretary of state that its registered agent has changed or resigned within 60 days of the change or resignation; or

(4) the secretary of state receives a duly authenticated certificate from the secretary of state or other official having custody of company records in the state, tribe, or country under whose law the foreign limited liability company is organized, stating that it has been dissolved or disappeared as the result of a merger.

35-8-1012. Procedure for and effect of revocation. (1) If the secretary of state determines that one or more grounds exist under 35-8-1011 for revocation of a certificate of authority, the secretary of state shall deliver a notice to the foreign limited liability company of the secretary of state's determination.

(2) If the foreign limited liability company does not correct each ground for revocation or demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the secretary of state that each ground determined by the secretary of state does not exist within 60 days after delivery of the notice, the secretary of state may revoke the foreign limited liability company's certificate of authority by signing a certificate of revocation that states the ground or grounds for revocation and the effective date of the revocation. The secretary of state shall file the original of the certificate and deliver a copy to the foreign limited liability company.

(3) The authority of a foreign limited liability company to transact business in this state ceases on the date shown on the certificate revoking its certificate of authority.

(4) The secretary of state's revocation of a foreign limited liability company's certificate of authority appoints the secretary of state as the foreign limited liability company's agent for service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action that arose during the time the foreign limited liability company was authorized to transact business in this state. Service of process on the secretary of state under this subsection is service on the foreign limited liability company. Upon receipt of process, the secretary of state shall deliver a copy of the process to the secretary of the foreign limited liability company at its principal office shown in its most recent annual report or in any subsequent communication received from the foreign limited liability company, stating the current mailing address of its principal office or, if no report or communication is on file, in its application for a certificate of authority.

(5) Revocation of a foreign limited liability company's certificate of authority does not terminate the authority of the registered agent of the foreign limited liability company.

35-8-1013. Appeal from revocation. (1) A foreign limited liability company may appeal the secretary of state's revocation of its certificate of authority to the district court within 30 days after service of the certificate of revocation is mailed. The foreign limited liability company may appeal by petitioning the court to set aside the revocation and by attaching to the petition copies of its certificate of authority and the secretary of state's certificate of revocation.

(2) The court may summarily order the secretary of state to reinstate the certificate of authority or may take any other action the court considers appropriate.

(3) The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

History: En. Sec. 67, Ch. 120, L. 1993.

35-8-1014. Admission of foreign professional limited liability companies — application — revocation. (1) A foreign professional limited liability company is entitled to a certificate of authority to transact business in this state only if:

(a) the name of the foreign professional limited liability company meets the requirements of 35-8-1302;

(b) the foreign professional limited liability company is organized only for purposes for which a professional limited liability company may be organized under part 13 of this chapter; and

(c) all the members and not less than one-half of the managers of the foreign professional limited liability company are qualified persons with respect to the foreign professional limited liability company.

(2) Notwithstanding 35-8-1001, a foreign professional limited liability company may not be required to obtain a certificate of authority to transact business in this state unless it maintains an office in this state for the conduct of business or professional practice.

(3) The application for a certificate of authority must include a statement that all the members and not less than one-half of the managers are licensed in at least one state or territory or the District of Columbia to render a professional service described in the statement of purposes of the foreign professional limited liability company.

(4) The certificate of authority may be revoked by the secretary of state if the foreign professional limited liability company fails to comply with any provision of part 13 of this chapter. The licensing authority shall certify to the secretary of state, from time to time, the names of all foreign professional limited liability companies that have given cause for revocation, together with the pertinent facts, and shall concurrently mail to each foreign professional limited liability company through its registered agent a notice that the certification has been made. A certificate of authority of a foreign professional limited liability company may not be revoked unless there have been both 60 days' notice of intent to revoke and a failure to correct the noncompliance during the 60 days.

(5) A foreign professional limited liability company is subject to all other provisions of part 13 of this chapter not inconsistent with this section.

35-8-1104. Derivative actions — proper plaintiff — pleading — expenses. (1) A member of a limited liability company may maintain an action in the right of the company if the members or managers having authority to bring the action have refused to commence the action or an effort to cause those members or managers to commence the action is not likely to succeed.

(2) In a derivative action for a limited liability company, the plaintiff must be a member of the company when the action is commenced and:

(a) must have been a member at the time of the transaction of which the plaintiff complains; or

(b) the plaintiff's status as a member must have devolved upon the plaintiff by operation of law or pursuant to the terms of the operating agreement from a person who was a member at the time of the transaction.

(3) In a derivative action for a limited liability company, the complaint must set forth with particularity the effort of the plaintiff to secure initiation of the action by a member or manager or the reasons for not making the effort.

(4) If a derivative action for a limited liability company is successful, in whole or in part, or if anything is received by the plaintiff as a result of a judgment, compromise, or settlement of an action or claim, the court may award the plaintiff reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, and shall direct the plaintiff to remit to the limited liability company the remainder of the proceeds received.

History: En. Sec. 48, Ch. 302, L. 1999.

Part 12
Merger

35-8-1201. Merger. (1) Pursuant to a plan of merger approved under subsection (3), a domestic limited liability company may merge with or into one or more limited liability companies, foreign limited liability companies, partnerships, foreign partnerships, limited partnerships, foreign limited partnerships, or other domestic or foreign entities. In the case of a merger with a foreign business entity, the merger must be permitted by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the foreign entity is incorporated or organized.

(2) A plan of merger must set forth:

(a) the name of each entity that is a party to the merger;

(b) the name of the surviving entity into which the other entities will merge;

(c) the type of organization of the surviving entity;

(d) the terms and conditions of the merger;

(e) the manner and basis for converting the interests of each party to the merger into interests or obligations of the surviving entity or into money or other property, in whole or in part; and

(f) the street address of the surviving entity's principal place of business.

(3) A plan of merger must be approved:

(a) in the case of a limited liability company that is a party to the merger, by all of the members or by a number or percentage of members specified in the operating agreement;

(b) in the case of a foreign limited liability company that is a party to the merger, by the vote required for approval of a merger by the law of the state or foreign jurisdiction in which the foreign limited liability company is organized;

(c) in the case of a domestic partnership or domestic limited partnership that is a party to the merger, by the vote required for approval of a conversion under 35-8-1210(2); and

(d) in the case of any other entities that are parties to the merger, by the vote required for approval of a merger by the law of this state or of the state or foreign jurisdiction in which the entity is organized and, in the absence of any requirement, by all the owners of interests in the entity.

(4) After a plan of merger is approved and before the merger takes effect, the plan may be amended or abandoned as provided in the plan.

(5) The merger is effective upon the filing of the articles of merger with the secretary of state or at a later date as the articles may provide.

History: En. Sec. 71, Ch. 120, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 49, Ch. 302, L. 1999.

Merger of corporation, 35-1-813.

35-8-1202. Articles of merger. (1) After approval of the plan of merger under 35-8-1201(3), unless the merger is abandoned under 35-8-1201(4), articles of merger must be signed on behalf of each limited liability company and other entity that is a party to the merger and delivered to the secretary of state for filing. The articles must set forth:

(a) the name and jurisdiction of formation or organization of each of the limited liability companies and other entities that are parties to the merger;

(b) for each limited liability company that is to merge, the date on which its articles of organization were filed with the secretary of state;

(c) that a plan of merger has been approved and signed by each limited liability company and other entity that is to merge;

(d) the name and address of the surviving limited liability company or other surviving entity;

(e) the effective date of the merger;

(f) if a limited liability company is the surviving entity, the changes in its articles of organization that are necessary by reason of the merger;

(g) if a party to a merger is a foreign limited liability company, the jurisdiction and date of filing of its initial articles of organization and the date when its application for authority was filed by the secretary of state or, if an application has not been filed, a statement to that effect; and

(h) if the surviving entity is not a limited liability company, the agreement that the surviving entity may be served with process in this state and is subject to liability in any action or proceeding for the enforcement of any liability or obligation of any limited liability company previously subject to suit in this state that is to merge and for the enforcement, as provided in this chapter, of the right of members of any limited liability company to receive payment for their interest against the surviving entity; and

(i) the name and address of the registered agent of the surviving entity.

(2) If a foreign limited liability company is the surviving entity of a merger, it may not do business in this state until an application for that authority is filed with the secretary of state.

(3) The surviving limited liability company or other entity shall furnish a copy of the plan of merger, on request and without cost, to any member of any limited liability company or any person holding an interest in any other entity that is subject to the merger.

(4) Articles of merger operate as an amendment to a surviving limited liability company's articles of organization.

35-8-1203. Effect of merger. (1) When a merger takes effect:

(a) the separate existence of each limited liability company and other entity that are a party to the merger, other than the surviving entity, terminates;

(b) all property owned by each of the limited liability companies and other entities that are a party to the merger vests in the surviving entity;

(c) all debts, liabilities, and other obligations of each limited liability company and other entity that are a party to the merger become the obligations of the surviving entity;

(d) an action or proceeding pending by or against a limited liability company or other entity that is a party to a merger may be continued as if the merger had not occurred or the surviving entity may be substituted as a party to the action or proceeding; and

(e) except as prohibited by other law, all the rights, privileges, immunities, powers, and purposes of every limited liability company and other entity that are a party to a merger vest in the surviving entity.

(2) If the surviving foreign entity fails to appoint or maintain an agent designated for service of process in this state or if the agent for service of process cannot with reasonable diligence be found, service of process may be made on the foreign entity as provided in 35-7-113(2). Service is effected under this subsection at the earliest of:

(a) the date on which the company receives the process, notice, or demand;

(b) the date shown on the return receipt, if signed on behalf of the company; or

(c) 5 days after its deposit in the mail, if mailed postpaid and correctly addressed.

(3) A member of the surviving limited liability company is liable for all obligations of a party to the merger for which the member was personally liable before the merger.

(4) Unless otherwise agreed, a merger of a limited liability company that is not the surviving entity in the merger does not require the limited liability company to wind up its business under this chapter or to pay its liabilities and distribute its assets pursuant to this chapter.

(5) Articles of merger serve as articles of dissolution for a limited liability company that is not the surviving entity in the merger.

35-8-1204 reserved.

35-8-1205. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Corporation" means a corporation formed under the laws of this state or comparable law of another jurisdiction.

(2) "General partner" means a partner in a partnership and a general partner in a limited partnership.

(3) "Limited partner" means a limited partner in a limited partnership.

(4) "Limited partnership" means a limited partnership formed under the laws of this state or comparable law of another jurisdiction.

(5) "Partner" means a general partner or a limited partner.

(6) "Partnership" means a general partnership formed under the laws of this state or comparable law of another jurisdiction.

(7) "Partnership agreement" means an agreement among the partners of a partnership or a limited partnership.

History: En. Sec. 52, Ch. 302, L. 1999.

35-8-1206 through 35-8-1209 reserved.

35-8-1210. Conversion of partnership or limited partnership to limited liability company. (1) A partnership or limited partnership may be converted to a limited liability company pursuant to this section.

(2) The terms and conditions of a conversion of a partnership or limited partnership to a limited liability company must be approved by all of the partners or by a number or percentage of the partners required for conversion in the partnership agreement.

(3) An agreement of conversion must set forth the terms and conditions of the conversion of the interests of partners of a partnership or of a limited partnership, as the case may be, into interests in the converted limited liability company or cash or other consideration to be paid or delivered as a result of the conversion of the interests of the partners, or a combination of interests, cash, or other consideration.

(4) After a conversion is approved under subsection (2), the partnership or limited partnership shall file articles of organization and all filing fees in the office of the secretary of state that satisfy the requirements of 35-8-202 and that contain:

(a) a statement that the partnership or limited partnership was converted to a limited liability company from a partnership or limited partnership;

(b) its former name;

(c) a statement of the number of votes cast by the partners entitled to vote for and against the conversion and, if the vote is less than unanimous, the number or percentage required to approve the conversion under subsection (2); and

(d) in the case of a limited partnership, a statement that the certificate of limited partnership is to be canceled as of the date on which the conversion took effect.

(5) In the case of a limited partnership, the filing of articles of organization under subsection (4) cancels its certificate of limited partnership as of the date on which the conversion took effect.

(6) A conversion takes effect when the articles of organization are filed in the office of the secretary of state or at any later date specified in the articles of organization.

(7) A general partner who becomes a member of a limited liability company as a result of a conversion remains liable as a partner for any obligation incurred by the partnership or limited partnership before the conversion takes effect.

(8) A general partner's liability for all obligations of the limited liability company incurred after the conversion takes effect is that of a member of the company.

(9) A limited partner who becomes a member as a result of a conversion remains liable for obligations of the limited partnership only to the extent that the limited partner was liable for an obligation incurred by the limited partnership before the conversion takes effect.

35-8-1211. Effect of conversion — entity unchanged — part not exclusive. (1) A partnership or limited partnership that has been converted pursuant to this part is for all purposes the same entity that existed before the conversion.

(2) When a conversion takes effect:

(a) all property owned by the converting partnership or limited partnership vests in the limited liability company;

(b) all debts, liabilities, and other obligations of the converting partnership or limited partnership continue as obligations of the limited liability company;

(c) an action or proceeding pending by or against the converting partnership or limited partnership may be continued as if the conversion had not occurred;

(d) except as prohibited by other law, all of the rights, privileges, immunities, powers, and purposes of the converting partnership or limited partnership vest in the limited liability company; and

(e) except as otherwise provided in the agreement of conversion under 35-8-1210(3), all of the partners of the converting partnership continue as members of the limited liability company.

(3) The provisions of this part do not preclude an entity from being converted or merged under other provisions of law.

(a) natural persons authorized by law of this or any other state, a territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia to render a professional service permitted by the articles of organization of the professional limited liability company;

(b) general partnerships in which all the partners are authorized by law of this or any other state, a territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia to render a professional service permitted by the articles of incorporation and in which at least one partner is authorized by law in this state to render a professional service permitted by the articles of organization of the professional limited liability company; and

(c) domestic or foreign professional corporations and domestic or foreign professional limited liability companies authorized by law in this state to render a professional service permitted by the articles of organization of the professional limited liability company.

(2) The licensing authority may by rule further restrict or condition the issuance of membership interests in order to preserve ethical standards, but a rule may not cause a member at the time the rule becomes effective to become a disqualified person.

35-8-1305. Rendering services. A domestic or foreign professional limited liability company may render professional services in this state only through natural persons permitted to render the services in this state; however, nothing in this part requires any person employed by a professional limited liability company to be licensed to perform services for which a license is not otherwise required or prohibits the rendering of professional services by a licensed natural person acting in that person's individual capacity, even if the person is a member or manager of a professional limited liability company.

35-8-1306. Responsibility for services. (1) An individual who renders professional services as a member or an employee of a domestic or foreign professional limited liability company is liable for any negligent or wrongful act or omission in which the individual personally participates to the same extent as if the individual had rendered the services as a sole practitioner. A member or an employee of a professional limited liability company is not liable for the conduct of other members or employees unless the member or employee is at fault in appointing, supervising, or cooperating with them.

(2) A domestic or foreign professional limited liability company whose member or employee performs professional services within the scope of the member's or employee's employment or apparent authority to act for the company is liable to the same extent as the member or employee.

(3) Except as otherwise provided by statute, the personal liability of a member of a domestic or foreign professional limited liability company is no greater in any respect than that of a member of a limited liability company otherwise organized under this part.

35-8-1307. Relationship to clients and patients. (1) The relationship between an individual performing professional services as an employee of a domestic or foreign professional limited liability company and a client or patient is the same as if the individual performed the services as a sole practitioner.

(2) The relationship between a domestic or foreign professional limited liability company performing professional services and the client or patient is the same as between the client or patient and the individual performing the services.

(3) Any privilege applicable to communications between a person rendering professional services and the person receiving the services recognized under the statutory or common law of this state extends to a domestic or foreign professional limited liability company and its employees.

History: En. Sec. 78, Ch. 120, L. 1993.

Part 1
General

35-9-101. Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Montana Close Corporation Act".

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 432, L. 1987.

35-9-102. Application of Montana Business Corporation Act and Montana Professional Corporation Act. (1) The Montana Business Corporation Act applies to statutory close corporations to the extent not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(2) This chapter applies to a professional corporation organized under the Montana Professional Corporation Act whose articles of incorporation contain the statement required by 35-9-103 except insofar as the Montana Professional Corporation Act contains inconsistent provisions.

(3) This chapter does not repeal or modify any statute or rule of law that applies to a corporation that is organized under the Montana Business Corporation Act or the Montana Professional Corporation Act and that does not elect to become a statutory close corporation under 35-9-103.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 432, L. 1987.

Cross-References

35-9-103. (Temporary) Definition and election of statutory close corporation status. (1) A statutory close corporation is a corporation whose articles of incorporation contain a statement that the corporation is a statutory close corporation.

(2) A corporation having 25 or fewer shareholders may become a statutory close corporation by amending its articles of incorporation to include the statement required by subsection (1). The amendment must be approved by the holders of at least two-thirds of the votes of each class or series of shares of the corporation, voting as separate voting groups, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote on amendments. If the amendment is adopted, a shareholder who voted against the amendment is entitled to assert dissenters' rights under 35-1-826 through 35-1-839.

35-9-103. (Effective June 1, 2020) Definition and election of statutory close corporation status. (1) A statutory close corporation is a corporation whose articles of incorporation contain a statement that the corporation is a statutory close corporation.

Compiler's Comments

2019 Amendment: Chapter 271 in (2) at end substituted "assert appraisal rights under Title 35, chapter 14, part 13" for "assert dissenters' rights under 35-1-826 through 35-1-839". Amendment effective June 1, 2020.

Part 2
Share Transfer Restrictions

35-9-201. (Temporary) Notice of statutory close corporation status on issued shares. (1) The following statement must appear conspicuously on each share certificate issued by a statutory close corporation:

The rights of shareholders in a statutory close corporation may differ materially from the rights of shareholders in other corporations. Copies of the articles of incorporation and bylaws, shareholders' agreements, and other documents, any of which may restrict transfers and affect voting and other rights, may be obtained by a shareholder on written request to the corporation.

(2) Within a reasonable time after the issuance or transfer of uncertificated shares, the corporation shall send to the shareholders a written notice containing the information required by subsection (1).

(3) The notice required by this section satisfies all requirements of 35-1-628 and of this chapter that notice of share transfer restrictions be given.

(4) A person claiming an interest in shares of a statutory close corporation that has complied with the notice requirement of this section is bound by the documents referred to in the notice. A person claiming an interest in shares of a statutory close corporation that has not complied with the notice requirement of this section is bound by any documents of which the person or another person through whom the person claims has knowledge or notice.

(5) A corporation shall provide to any shareholder upon the shareholder's written request and without charge copies of provisions that restrict transfer or affect voting or other rights of shareholders appearing in articles of incorporation, bylaws, or shareholders' or voting trust agreements filed with the corporation.

35-9-201. (Effective June 1, 2020) Notice of statutory close corporation status on issued shares. (1) The following statement must appear conspicuously on each share certificate issued by a statutory close corporation:

35-9-202. (Temporary) Share transfer prohibition. (1) An interest in shares of a statutory close corporation may not be voluntarily or involuntarily transferred, by operation of law or otherwise, except to the extent permitted by the articles of incorporation or under 35-9-203.

(2) Except to the extent the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, this section does not apply to a transfer:

(a) to the corporation or to any other holder of the same class or series of shares;

(b) to members of the shareholder's immediate family or to a trust, all of whose beneficiaries are members of the shareholder's immediate family, which immediate family consists of the shareholder's spouse, parents, lineal descendants including adopted children and stepchildren and the spouse of any lineal descendant, and brothers and sisters;

(c) that has been approved in writing by all of the holders of the corporation's shares having general voting rights;

(d) to an executor or administrator upon the death of a shareholder or to a trustee or receiver as the result of a bankruptcy, insolvency, dissolution, or similar proceeding brought by or against a shareholder;

(e) by merger or share exchange under Title 35, chapter 1, part 8, or an exchange of existing shares for other shares of a different class or series in the corporation;

(f) by a pledge as collateral for a loan that does not grant the pledgee any voting rights possessed by the pledgor; and

(g) made after termination of the corporation's status as a statutory close corporation.

35-9-202. (Effective June 1, 2020) Share transfer prohibition. (1) An interest in shares of a statutory close corporation may not be voluntarily or involuntarily transferred, by operation of law or otherwise, except to the extent permitted by the articles of incorporation or under 35-9-203.

35-9-203. Share transfer after first refusal by corporation. (1) A person desiring to transfer shares of a statutory close corporation subject to the transfer prohibition of 35-9-202 shall first offer them to the corporation by obtaining an offer to purchase the shares for cash from a third person who is eligible to purchase the shares under subsection (2). The offer by the third person must be in writing and state the offeror's name and address, the number and class or series of shares offered, the offering price per share, and the other terms of the offer.

(2) A third person is eligible to purchase the shares if:

(a) the third person is eligible to become a qualified shareholder under any federal or state tax statute the corporation has adopted and agrees in writing not to terminate that qualification without the approval of the remaining shareholders; and

(b) the purchase of the shares will not impose a personal holding company tax or similar federal or state penalty tax on the corporation.

(3) The person desiring to transfer shares shall deliver the offer to the corporation and by doing so offers to sell the shares to the corporation on the terms of the offer. Within 20 days after the corporation receives the offer, the corporation shall call a special shareholders' meeting, to be held not more than 40 days after the call, to decide whether the corporation should purchase all but not less than all of the offered shares. The offer must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of votes entitled to be cast at the meeting, excluding votes in respect of the shares covered by the offer.

(4) The corporation shall deliver to the offering shareholder written notice of acceptance within 75 days after receiving the offer or the offer is rejected. If the corporation makes a counteroffer, the shareholder shall deliver to the corporation written notice of acceptance within 15 days after receiving the counteroffer or the counteroffer is rejected. If the corporation accepts the original offer or the shareholder accepts the corporation's counteroffer, the shareholder shall deliver to the corporation duly endorsed certificates for the shares, or instruct the corporation in writing to transfer the shares if uncertificated, within 20 days after the effective date of the notice of acceptance. The corporation may specifically enforce the shareholder's delivery or instruction obligation under this subsection.

(5) A corporation accepting an offer to purchase shares under this section may allocate some or all of the shares to one or more of its shareholders or to other persons if all the shareholders voting in favor of the purchase approve the allocation. However, if the corporation has more than one class or series of shares, the remaining holders of the class or series of shares being purchased are entitled to a first option to purchase the shares not purchased by the corporation in proportion to their shareholdings or in some other proportion agreed to by all the shareholders participating in the purchase.

(6) If an offer to purchase shares under this section is rejected, the offering shareholder, for a period of 120 days after the corporation received the offer, is entitled to transfer to the third-person offeror all but not less than all of the offered shares in accordance with the terms of the offer to the corporation.

35-9-204. Attempted share transfer in breach of prohibition. (1) An attempt to transfer shares in a statutory close corporation in violation of a prohibition against transfer binding on the transferee is ineffective.

(2) An attempt to transfer shares in a statutory close corporation in violation of a prohibition against transfer that is not binding on the transferee, either because the notice required by 35-9-201 was not given or because the prohibition is held unenforceable by a court, gives the corporation an option to purchase the shares from the transferee for the same price and on the same terms that the transferee purchased them. To exercise its option, the corporation shall give the transferee written notice within 30 days after the shares are presented for registration in the transferee's name. The corporation may specifically enforce the transferee's sale obligation upon exercise of its purchase option.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 432, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 1298, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

Cross-References

Share transfer restrictions, 35-9-202.

35-9-205. (Temporary) Compulsory purchase of shares after death of shareholder. (1) Sections 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 and this section apply to a statutory close corporation only if so provided in its articles of incorporation. If these sections apply, the executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased shareholder may require the corporation to purchase or cause to be purchased all but not less than all of the decedent's shares or to be dissolved.

(2) The provisions of 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 may be modified only if the modification is set forth or referred to in the articles of incorporation.

(3) An amendment to the articles of incorporation to provide for application of 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 or to modify or delete the provisions of these sections must be approved by the holders of at least two-thirds of the votes of each class or series of shares of the statutory close corporation, voting as separate voting groups, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote on amendments. If the corporation has no shareholders when the amendment is proposed, it must be approved by at least two-thirds of the subscribers for shares, if any, or if none, by all of the incorporators.

(4) A shareholder who votes against an amendment to modify or delete the provisions of 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 is entitled to dissenters' rights under 35-1-826 through 35-1-839 if the amendment upon adoption terminates or substantially alters the shareholder's existing rights under these sections to have the shareholder's shares purchased.

(5) A shareholder may waive the shareholder's and the shareholder's estate's rights under 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 by a signed writing.

(6) Sections 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 do not prohibit any other agreement providing for the purchase of shares upon a shareholder's death, nor do they prevent a shareholder from enforcing any remedy that the shareholder has independently of 35-9-206 through 35-9-208.

35-9-205. (Effective June 1, 2020) Compulsory purchase of shares after death of shareholder. (1) Sections 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 and this section apply to a statutory close corporation only if so provided in its articles of incorporation. If these sections apply, the executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased shareholder may require the corporation to purchase or cause to be purchased all but not less than all of the decedent's shares or to be dissolved.

(2) The provisions of 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 may be modified only if the modification is set forth or referred to in the articles of incorporation.

(3) An amendment to the articles of incorporation to provide for application of 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 or to modify or delete the provisions of these sections must be approved by the holders of at least two-thirds of the votes of each class or series of shares of the statutory close corporation, voting as separate voting groups, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote on amendments. If the corporation has no shareholders when the amendment is proposed, it must be approved by at least two-thirds of the subscribers for shares, if any, or if none, by all of the incorporators.

(4) A shareholder who votes against an amendment to modify or delete the provisions of 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 is entitled to appraisal rights under Title 35, chapter 14, part 13, if the amendment upon adoption terminates or substantially alters the shareholder's existing rights under these sections to have the shareholder's shares purchased.

(5) A shareholder may waive the shareholder's and the shareholder's estate's rights under 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 by a signed writing.

(6) Sections 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 do not prohibit any other agreement providing for the purchase of shares upon a shareholder's death, nor do they prevent a shareholder from enforcing any remedy that the shareholder has independently of 35-9-206 through 35-9-208.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 432, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 199, Ch. 368, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 1299, Ch. 56, L. 2009; amd. Sec. 255, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

Compiler's Comments

2019 Amendment: Chapter 271 in (4) near middle substituted "entitled to appraisal rights under Title 35, chapter 14, part 13" for "entitled to dissenters' rights under 35-1-826 through 35-1-839". Amendment effective June 1, 2020.

Cross-References

Court action to compel purchase, 35-9-206, 35-9-207.

35-9-206. Exercise of compulsory purchase right. (1) A person entitled and desiring to exercise the compulsory purchase right described in 35-9-205 shall deliver a written notice to the corporation, within 120 days after the death of the shareholder, describing the number and class or series of shares beneficially owned by the decedent and requesting that the corporation offer to purchase the shares.

(2) Within 20 days after the effective date of the notice, the corporation shall call a special shareholders' meeting, to be held not more than 40 days after the call, to decide whether the corporation should offer to purchase the shares. A purchase offer must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of votes entitled to be cast at the meeting, excluding votes in respect of the shares covered by the notice.

(3) The corporation shall deliver a purchase offer to the person requesting it within 75 days after the effective date of the request notice. A purchase offer must be accompanied by the corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the effective date of the request notice, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any. The person must accept the purchase offer in writing within 15 days after receiving it or the offer is rejected.

(4) A corporation agreeing to purchase shares under this section may allocate some or all of the shares to one or more of its shareholders or to other persons if all the shareholders voting in favor of the purchase offer approve the allocation. However, if the corporation has more than one class or series of shares, the remaining holders of the class or series of shares being purchased are entitled to a first option to purchase the shares not purchased by the corporation in proportion to their shareholdings or in some other proportion agreed to by all the shareholders participating in the purchase.

(5) If price and other terms of a compulsory purchase of shares are fixed or are to be determined by the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a written agreement, the price and terms so fixed or determined govern the compulsory purchase unless the purchaser defaults, in which event the buyer is entitled to commence a proceeding for dissolution under 35-9-207.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 432, L. 1987.

35-9-207. Court action to compel purchase. (1) (a) If an offer to purchase shares made under 35-9-206 is rejected or if no offer is made, the person exercising the compulsory purchase right may commence a proceeding against the corporation to compel the purchase in the district court of the county where the corporation's principal office is located or, if there is no principal office in this state, in Lewis and Clark County.

(b) The corporation at its expense shall notify in writing all of its shareholders, and any other person the court directs, of the commencement of the proceeding.

(c) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under this subsection is plenary and exclusive.

(2) (a) The court shall determine the fair value of the shares subject to compulsory purchase in accordance with the standards set forth in 35-9-503, together with terms for the purchase.

(b) Upon making these determinations, the court shall order the corporation to purchase or cause the purchase of the shares or empower the person exercising the compulsory purchase right to have the corporation dissolved.

(3) After the purchase order is entered, the corporation may petition the court to modify the terms of purchase and the court may do so if it finds that changes in the financial or legal ability of the corporation or other purchaser to complete the purchase justify a modification.

(4) If the corporation or other purchaser does not make a payment required by the court's order within 30 days of its due date, the seller may petition the court to dissolve the corporation and, absent a showing of good cause for not making the payment, the court shall do so.

(5) A person making a payment to prevent or cure a default by the corporation or other purchaser is entitled to recover the payment from the defaulter.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 432, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 64, Ch. 240, L. 2007.

35-9-208. Court costs and other expenses. (1) The court in a proceeding commenced under 35-9-207 shall determine the total costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court and of counsel and experts employed by the parties. Except as provided in subsection (2), the court shall assess these costs equally against the corporation and the party exercising the compulsory purchase right.

(2) The court may assess all or a portion of the total costs of the proceeding:

(a) against the person exercising the compulsory purchase right if the court finds that the fair value of the shares does not substantially exceed the corporation's last purchase offer made before commencement of the proceeding and that the person's failure to accept the offer was arbitrary, vexatious, or otherwise not in good faith; or

(b) against the corporation if the court finds that the fair value of the shares substantially exceeds the corporation's last sale offer made before commencement of the proceeding and that the offer was arbitrary, vexatious, or otherwise not made in good faith.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 432, L. 1987.

Part 3
Regulation and Operation

35-9-301. Shareholder agreements. (1) All the shareholders of a statutory close corporation may agree in writing to regulate the exercise of the corporate powers and the management of the business and affairs of the corporation or the relationship among the shareholders of the corporation.

(2) An agreement authorized by this section is effective even though:

(a) it eliminates a board of directors;

(b) it restricts the discretion or powers of the board or authorizes director proxies or weighted voting rights;

(c) its effect is to treat the corporation as a partnership; or

(d) it creates a relationship among the shareholders or between the shareholders and the corporation that would otherwise be appropriate only among partners.

(3) If the corporation has a board of directors, an agreement authorized by this section restricting the discretion or powers of the board relieves directors of liability imposed by law and imposes that liability on each person in whom the board's discretion or power is vested to the extent that the discretion or powers of the board of directors are governed by the agreement.

(4) A provision eliminating a board of directors in an agreement authorized by this section is not effective unless the articles of incorporation contain a statement to that effect as required by 35-9-302.

(5) A provision entitling one or more shareholders to dissolve the corporation under 35-9-404 is effective only if a statement of this right is contained in the articles of incorporation.

(6) To amend an agreement authorized by this section, all the shareholders shall approve the amendment in writing unless the agreement provides otherwise.

(7) Subscribers for shares may act as shareholders with respect to an agreement authorized by this section if shares are not issued when the agreement was made.

(8) This section does not prohibit any other agreement between or among shareholders in a statutory close corporation.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 432, L. 1987.

(2) An amendment to articles of incorporation eliminating a board of directors must be approved by:

(a) all the shareholders of the corporation, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote on amendments;

(b) if no shares have been issued, by all the subscribers for shares, if any; or

(c) if there are no subscribers, by all the incorporators.

(3) While a corporation is operating without a board of directors as authorized by subsection (1):

(a) all corporate powers must be exercised by or under the authority of and the business and affairs of the corporation managed under the direction of the shareholders;

(b) unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise:

(i) action requiring director approval or both director and shareholder approval is authorized if approved by the shareholders; and

(ii) action requiring a majority or greater percentage vote of the board of directors is authorized if approved by the majority or greater percentage of the votes of shareholders entitled to vote on the action;

(c) a shareholder is not liable for the shareholder's act or omission, even though a director would be, unless the shareholder was entitled to vote on the action;

(d) a requirement by a state or the United States that a document delivered for filing contain a statement that specified action has been taken by the board of directors is satisfied by a statement that the corporation is a statutory close corporation without a board of directors and that the action was approved by the shareholders; and

(e) the shareholders may by resolution appoint one or more shareholders to sign documents as designated directors.

(4) An amendment to articles of incorporation deleting the statement eliminating a board of directors must be approved by the holders of at least two-thirds of the votes of each class or series of shares of the corporation, voting as separate voting groups, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote on amendments. The amendment must also specify the number, names, and addresses of the corporation's directors or describe who will perform the duties of a board under 35-1-416.

35-9-302. (Effective June 1, 2020) Elimination of board of directors. (1) A statutory close corporation may operate without a board of directors if its articles of incorporation contain a statement to that effect.

(2) An amendment to articles of incorporation eliminating a board of directors must be approved by:

(a) all the shareholders of the corporation, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote on amendments;

(b) if no shares have been issued, by all the subscribers for shares, if any; or

(c) if there are no subscribers, by all the incorporators.

Shareholder Protection

35-9-501. (Temporary) Court action to protect shareholders. (1) Subject to satisfying the conditions of subsections (3) and (4), a shareholder of a statutory close corporation may petition the district court for any of the relief described in 35-9-502 through 35-9-504 if:

(a) the directors or those in control of the corporation have acted, are acting, or will act in a manner that is illegal, oppressive, fraudulent, or unfairly prejudicial to the petitioner, whether in the petitioner's capacity as shareholder, director, or officer of the corporation;

(b) the directors or those in control of the corporation are deadlocked in the management of the corporation's affairs, the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, and the corporation is suffering or will suffer irreparable injury or the business and affairs of the corporation can no longer be conducted to the advantage of the shareholders generally because of the deadlock; or

(c) there exists one or more grounds for judicial dissolution of the corporation under 35-1-938.

(2) A shareholder shall commence a proceeding under subsection (1) in the district court of the county where the corporation's principal office is located or, if there is no principal office in this state, in Lewis and Clark County. The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced is plenary and exclusive.

(3) If a shareholder has agreed in writing to pursue a nonjudicial remedy to resolve disputed matters, the shareholder may not commence a proceeding under this section with respect to the matters until the shareholder has exhausted the nonjudicial remedy.

(4) If a shareholder has dissenters' rights under this chapter or 35-1-826 through 35-1-839 with respect to proposed corporate actions, the shareholder shall commence a proceeding under this section before the shareholder is required to give notice of the intent to demand payment under 35-1-826 through 35-1-839 or the proceeding is barred.

(5) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4), a shareholder's right to commence a proceeding under this section and the remedies available under 35-9-502 through 35-9-504 are in addition to any other right or remedy the shareholder may have.

35-9-501. (Effective June 1, 2020) Court action to protect shareholders. (1) Subject to satisfying the conditions of subsections (3) and (4), a shareholder of a statutory close corporation may petition the district court for any of the relief described in 35-9-502 through 35-9-504 if:

(a) the directors or those in control of the corporation have acted, are acting, or will act in a manner that is illegal, oppressive, fraudulent, or unfairly prejudicial to the petitioner, whether in the petitioner's capacity as shareholder, director, or officer of the corporation;

(b) the directors or those in control of the corporation are deadlocked in the management of the corporation's affairs, the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, and the corporation is suffering or will suffer irreparable injury or the business and affairs of the corporation can no longer be conducted to the advantage of the shareholders generally because of the deadlock; or

(c) there exists one or more grounds for judicial dissolution of the corporation under 35-14-1430.

(2) A shareholder shall commence a proceeding under subsection (1) in the district court of the county where the corporation's principal office is located or, if there is no principal office in this state, in Lewis and Clark County. The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced is plenary and exclusive.

(3) If a shareholder has agreed in writing to pursue a nonjudicial remedy to resolve disputed matters, the shareholder may not commence a proceeding under this section with respect to the matters until the shareholder has exhausted the nonjudicial remedy.

(4) If a shareholder has appraisal rights under this chapter or Title 35, chapter 14, part 13, with respect to proposed corporate actions, the shareholder shall commence a proceeding under this section before the shareholder is required to give notice of the intent to demand payment under Title 35, chapter 14, part 13, or the proceeding is barred.

(5) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4), a shareholder's right to commence a proceeding under this section and the remedies available under 35-9-502 through 35-9-504 are in addition to any other right or remedy the shareholder may have.

Relief, 35-9-502 through 35-9-504.

35-9-502. Ordinary relief. (1) If the court finds that one or more of the grounds for relief described in 35-9-501(1) exist, it may order one or more of the following types of relief:

(a) the performance, prohibition, alteration, or setting aside of any action of the corporation or of its shareholders, directors, or officers or any other party to the proceeding;

(b) the cancellation or alteration of any provision in the corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws;

(c) the removal from office of any director or officer;

(d) the appointment of any individual as a director or officer;

(e) an accounting with respect to any matter in dispute;

(f) the appointment of a custodian to manage the business and affairs of the corporation;

(g) the appointment of a provisional director who has all the rights, powers, and duties of a duly elected director to serve for the term and under the conditions prescribed by the court;

(h) the payment of dividends;

(i) the award of damages to any aggrieved party.

(2) If the court finds that a party to the proceeding acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or otherwise not in good faith, it may award one or more other parties their reasonable expenses, including counsel fees and the expenses of appraisers or other experts, incurred in the proceeding.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 432, L. 1987.

35-9-503. Extraordinary relief — share purchase. (1) If the court finds that the ordinary relief described in 35-9-502(1) is or would be inadequate or inappropriate, it may order the corporation dissolved under 35-9-504 unless the corporation or one or more of its shareholders purchases all the shares of the shareholder for their fair value and on terms determined under subsection (2).

(2) If the court orders a share purchase, it shall:

(a) determine the fair value of the shares, considering among other relevant evidence:

(i) the going concern value of the corporation;

(ii) any agreement among some or all of the shareholders fixing the price or specifying a formula for determining share value for any purpose;

(iii) the recommendations of appraisers, if any, appointed by the court; and

(iv) any legal constraints on the corporation's ability to purchase the shares;

(b) specify the terms of the purchase, including if appropriate:

(i) terms for installment payments;

(ii) subordination of the purchase obligation to the rights of the corporation's other creditors;

(iii) security for a deferred purchase price; and

(iv) a covenant not to compete or other restriction on the seller;

(c) require the seller to deliver all the seller's shares to the purchaser upon receipt of the purchase price or the first installment of the purchase price;

(d) provide that after the seller delivers the shares, the seller has no further claim against the corporation or its directors, officers, or shareholders other than a claim to any unpaid balance of the purchase price and a claim under any agreement with the corporation or the remaining shareholders that is not terminated by the court; and

(e) provide that if the purchase is not completed in accordance with the specified terms, the corporation is to be dissolved under 35-9-504.

(3) After the purchase order is entered, any party may petition the court to modify the terms of the purchase and the court may do so if it finds that changes in the financial or legal ability of the corporation or other purchaser to complete the purchase justify a modification.

(4) If the corporation is dissolved because the share purchase was not completed in accordance with the court's order, the selling shareholder has the same rights and priorities in the corporation's assets as if the sale had not been ordered.

35-9-504. (Temporary) Extraordinary relief — dissolution. (1) The court may dissolve the corporation if it finds:

(a) one or more grounds for judicial dissolution under 35-1-938; or

(b) all other relief ordered by the court under 35-9-502 or 35-9-503 has failed to resolve the matters in dispute.

(2) In determining whether to dissolve the corporation, the court shall consider among other relevant evidence the financial condition of the corporation but may not refuse to dissolve solely because the corporation has accumulated earnings or current operating profits.

35-9-504. (Effective June 1, 2020) Extraordinary relief — dissolution. (1) The court may dissolve the corporation if it finds:

(a) one or more grounds for judicial dissolution under 35-14-1430; or

Part 1
Preliminary Provisions

35-10-101. Short title. This chapter may be cited as the "Uniform Partnership Act".
History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 251, L. 1947; R.C.M. 1947, 63-101.

35-10-102. Definitions. In this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Business" includes every trade, occupation, or profession.

(2) "Debtor in bankruptcy" means a person who is the subject of:

(a) an order for relief under Title 11 of the United States Code or a comparable order under a successor statute of general application; or

(b) a comparable order under state law governing insolvency.

(3) "Distribution" means a transfer of money or other property from a partnership to a partner in the partner's capacity as a partner or to the partner's transferee.

(4) "Limited liability partnership" means a partnership registered under 35-10-701 and includes both domestic and foreign limited liability partnerships.

(5) (a) "Partnership" means an association of two or more persons to carry on as co-owners a business for profit formed under 35-10-202, a predecessor law, or a comparable law of another jurisdiction.

(b) The term includes but is not limited to a limited liability partnership for all purposes of the laws of this state and all licensing laws, whether for professionals or otherwise.

(6) "Partnership agreement" means an agreement, written or oral, among the partners concerning the partnership.

(7) "Partnership at will" means a partnership in which the partners have not agreed to remain partners until the expiration of a definite term or the completion of a particular undertaking.

(8) "Person" means:

(a) an individual;

(b) a corporation;

(c) a business trust;

(d) an estate;

(e) a trust;

(f) a partnership;

(g) an association;

(h) a joint venture;

(i) a government;

(j) a governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality; or

(k) any other legal or commercial entity.

(9) "Property" means all property, real, personal, or mixed, tangible or intangible, or any interest therein.

(10) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

(11) "Statement" means a statement of partnership authority under 35-10-310, a statement of denial under 35-10-311, a statement of dissociation under 35-10-622, a statement of dissolution under 35-10-627, a statement of merger under 35-10-643, an application for registration of assumed business name or a renewal of registration, or an amendment, cancellation, or withdrawal of the foregoing.

(12) "Transfer" includes an assignment, conveyance, lease, mortgage, deed, and encumbrance.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 251, L. 1947; R.C.M. 1947, 63-102; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 238, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 449, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 20, Ch. 26, L. 2011.

35-10-103. Knowledge and notice. (1) A person knows a fact if the person has knowledge of it.

(2) A person has notice of a fact if the person:

(a) knows of it;

(b) has received a notification of it; or

(c) has reason to know it exists from all of the facts known to that person at the time in question.

(3) A person notifies or gives a notification to another by taking steps reasonably required to inform the other person in the ordinary course of business, whether or not the other person learns of it.

(4) A person receives notification when it:

(a) comes to the person's attention; or

(b) is duly delivered at the person's place of business or at any other place held out by the person as a place for receiving communications.

(5) Except as provided in subsection (6), a person other than an individual knows, has notice, or receives a notification of a fact for purposes of a particular transaction when the individual conducting the transaction knows, has notice, or receives a notification of the fact or in any event when the fact would have been brought to the individual's attention if the person had exercised reasonable diligence. The person exercises reasonable diligence if the person maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the individual conducting the transaction and there is reasonable compliance with the routines. Reasonable diligence does not require an individual acting for the person to communicate information unless the communication is part of the individual's regular duties or the individual has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.

(6) A partner's knowledge, notice, or receipt of a notification of a fact relating to the partnership is effective immediately as knowledge by, notice to, or receipt of a notification by the partnership but is not effective as such if the partner committed or consented to a fraud on the partnership.

35-10-104. Uniformity of application and construction. This chapter must be applied and construed to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law with respect to the subject of this chapter among states enacting it.

35-10-106. Effect of partnership agreement — nonwaivable provisions. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a partnership agreement governs relations among the partners and between the partners and the partnership. To the extent the partnership agreement does not otherwise provide, this chapter governs relations among the partners and between the partners and the partnership.

(2) A partnership agreement may not:

(a) vary the rights and duties under 35-10-111 except to eliminate the duty to provide copies of statements to all of the partners;

(b) unreasonably restrict a partner's right of access to books and records under 35-10-402(2);

(c) eliminate the duty of loyalty under 35-10-405(3);

(d) unreasonably reduce the duty of care under 35-10-405(4);

(e) eliminate the obligation of good faith and fair dealing under 35-10-405(5);

(f) vary the power to withdraw as a partner under 35-10-616(1), except to require the notice to be in writing;

(g) vary the right to expulsion of a partner by a court in the events specified in 35-10-616(5);

(h) vary the requirement to wind up the partnership business in cases specified in 35-10-624(4), (5), or (6); or

(i) restrict rights of third parties under this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

35-10-107 through 35-10-110 reserved.

35-10-111. Execution, filing, and recording of statements. (1) A statement may be filed in the office of the secretary of state. A certified copy of a statement that is filed in an office in another state may be filed in the office of the secretary of state. Either filing has the effect provided in this chapter with respect to partnership property located in or transactions that occur in this state.

(2) A certified copy of a statement that has been filed in the office of the secretary of state and recorded in the office for recording transfers of real property has the effect provided for recorded statements in this chapter. A recorded statement that is not a certified copy of a statement in the office of the secretary of state does not have the effect provided for recorded statements in this chapter.

(3) A statement filed by a partnership must be executed by at least two partners. Other statements must be executed by a partner or other person authorized by this chapter. The statement must be in the English language. An individual who executes a statement as or on behalf of a partner or other person named as a partner in a statement shall state beneath or opposite the person's signature the person's name and the capacity in which the person signs. The execution of any document required to be filed with the secretary of state under this chapter constitutes an affirmation under penalties of false swearing by each person executing the document that the facts stated are true.

(4) A person authorized by this chapter to file a statement may amend or cancel the statement by filing an amendment or cancellation that names the partnership, identifies the statement, and states the substance of the amendment or cancellation.

(5) A person who files a statement pursuant to this section shall promptly send a copy of the statement to every nonfiling partner and any other person named as a partner in the statement. Failure to send a copy of a statement to a partner or other person does not limit the effectiveness of the statement as to a person not a partner.

(6) The secretary of state shall establish by rule fees for filing statements, issuing certificates, copying statements, priority handling, transmitting or filing facsimile copies, and providing computer-generated information. The fees must be reasonably related to the costs of processing the statements and providing the services. The secretary of state shall maintain records sufficient to support the fees established under this section. The secretary of state may adopt rules necessary to perform any duty required of the secretary of state by this chapter.

35-10-112. Facsimile filing — requirements — liability. (1) The secretary of state shall treat a facsimile copy of a document that is required or permitted to be filed under this chapter and the signatures on the facsimile copy in the same manner as an original for purposes of this chapter. If all other requirements are met, the date of filing relates back to the date of receipt of the facsimile copy.

(2) A person who files a false document by facsimile copy is liable to an aggrieved party for three times the amount of damages resulting from the filing of the false document.

35-10-113. Filing with secretary of state. (1) A signed statement filed pursuant to this chapter must be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state determines that the statement conforms to the filing provisions of this chapter and all required filing fees have been paid, the secretary of state shall:

(a) endorse on the signed statement the word "filed" and the date and time of acceptance for filing;

(b) retain the signed statement in the secretary of state's files; and

(c) send a certification letter to the person who filed the statement or the person's representative.

(2) The secretary of state may by rule prescribe and furnish forms or computer formats for any statement to be filed with the secretary of state under this chapter. If the secretary of state requires it, the use of any forms or formats is mandatory.

(3) All partnerships filing statements pursuant to this chapter shall first register the business name as an assumed business name pursuant to Title 30, chapter 13, part 2.

35-10-114 and 35-10-115 reserved.

35-10-116. Law governing internal affairs. Except as provided in 35-10-710, the law of the state in which a partnership has its chief executive office governs the partnership's internal affairs.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 238, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 449, L. 1995.

35-10-117. Partnership subject to amendment of repeal of chapter. A partnership governed by this chapter is subject to any amendment or repeal of this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

Part 2
Nature of Partnership

35-10-201. Partnership as entity. A partnership is an entity.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 251, L. 1947; R.C.M. 1947, 63-106; amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

Cross-References

35-10-202. Creation of partnership. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), the association of two or more persons to carry on as co-owners a business for profit creates a partnership, whether or not the persons intend to create a partnership.

(2) An association created under a statute other than this chapter, a predecessor law, or a comparable law of another jurisdiction is not a partnership.

(3) In determining whether a partnership is created, the following rules apply:

(a) Joint tenancy, tenancy in common, tenancy by the entireties, joint property, common property, or part ownership does not by itself establish a partnership even if the co-owners share profits made by the use of the property.

(b) The sharing of gross returns does not by itself establish a partnership even if the persons sharing them have a joint or common right or interest in property from which the returns are derived.

(c) A person who receives a share of the profits of a business is presumed to be a partner in the business, unless the profits were received in payment:

(i) of a debt by installments or otherwise;

(ii) for services as an independent contractor or of wages or other compensation to an employee;

(iii) of rent;

(iv) of an annuity or other retirement or health benefit to a beneficiary, representative, or designee of a deceased or retired partner;

(v) of interest or of another charge on a loan, even if the amount of payment varies with the profits of the business, including a direct or indirect present or future ownership of the collateral or rights to income, proceeds, or increase in value derived from the collateral; or

(vi) for the sale of the goodwill of a business or other property by installments or otherwise.

(4) Except as provided by 35-10-308, persons who are not partners as to each other are not partners as to other persons.

(5) A partnership created under this chapter is a general partnership, and the partners are general partners of the partnership.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 251, L. 1947; amd. Sec. 28, Ch. 535, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 63-107; amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

35-10-203. Partnership property. (1) Property transferred to or otherwise acquired by a partnership is property of the partnership and not of the partners individually.

(2) Property is partnership property if acquired in the name of:

(a) the partnership; or

(b) one or more partners with an indication in the instrument transferring title to the property of the person's capacity as a partner or of the existence of a partnership but without an indication of the name of the partnership.

(3) Property is acquired in the name of the partnership by a transfer to:

(a) the partnership in its name; or

(b) one or more partners in their capacity as partners in the partnership if the name of the partnership is indicated in the instrument transferring title to the property.

(4) Property is presumed to be partnership property if purchased with partnership assets even if not acquired in the name of the partnership or of one or more partners with an indication in the instrument transferring title to the property of the person's capacity as a partner or of the existence of a partnership.

(5) Property acquired in the name of one or more of the partners without an indication in the instrument transferring title to the property of the person's capacity as a partner or of the existence of a partnership and without use of partnership assets is presumed to be separate property even if used for partnership purposes.

35-10-301. Partner as agent of partnership. Subject to the effect of a statement of partnership authority pursuant to 35-10-310:

(1) each partner is an agent of the partnership for the purpose of its business. An act of a partner, including the execution of an instrument in the partnership name, for apparently carrying on in the ordinary course of the partnership business or business of the kind carried on by the partnership binds the partnership unless the partner has no authority to act for the partnership in the particular matter and the person with whom the partner is dealing knows or has received a notification that the partner lacks authority.

(2) an act of a partner that is not apparently for carrying on in the ordinary course of the partnership business or business of the kind carried on by the partnership binds the partnership only if the act was authorized by the other partners.

35-10-302. Transfer of partnership property. (1) Subject to the effect of a statement of partnership authority pursuant to 35-10-310:

(a) partnership property held in the name of the partnership may be transferred by an instrument of transfer executed by a partner in the partnership name;

(b) partnership property held in the name of one or more partners with an indication in the instrument transferring the property to them of their capacity as partners or of the existence of a partnership, but without an indication of the name of the partnership, may be transferred by an instrument of transfer executed by the persons in whose name the property is held; and

(c) a partnership may recover property transferred under this subsection if it proves that execution of the instrument of transfer did not bind the partnership under 35-10-301 unless the property was transferred by the initial transferee or a person claiming through the initial transferee to a subsequent transferee who gave value without having notice that the person who executed the instrument of initial transfer lacked authority to bind the partnership.

(2) Partnership property held in the name of one or more persons other than the partnership without an indication in the instrument transferring the property to them of their capacity as partners or of the existence of a partnership may be transferred free of any claims of the partnership or the partners by the persons in whose name the property is held to a transferee who gives value without having notice that it is partnership property.

(3) If a person holds all of the partners' interests in the partnership, all of the partnership property vests in that person. The person may execute a document in the name of the partnership to evidence vesting of the property in that person and may file or record the document.

35-10-305. Partnership liable for partner's actionable conduct. (1) A partnership is liable for loss or injury caused to a person, or for a penalty incurred, as a result of a wrongful act or omission or other actionable conduct of a partner acting in the ordinary course of business of the partnership or with the authority of the partnership.

(2) If, in the course of its business, a partnership receives money or property of a person not a partner and that money or property is misapplied by a partner while it is in the custody of the partnership, the partnership is liable for the loss.

35-10-307. Partner's liability. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), all partners are liable jointly and severally for all obligations of the partnership unless otherwise agreed by the claimant or provided by law.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4), a partner of a limited liability partnership is not liable, directly or indirectly, including by way of indemnification, contribution, assessment, or otherwise, for:

(a) any debts, obligations, or liabilities of or chargeable to the limited liability partnership or another partner of the limited liability partnership, whether arising in tort, contract, or otherwise; or

(b) the acts or omissions of any other partner or agents, contractors, or employees of the limited liability partnership if the debts, obligations, or liabilities arise or are incurred while the limited liability partnership is registered under 35-10-701.

(3) Subsection (2) does not affect the liability of a partner in a limited liability partnership for the partner's own negligence, wrongful act, or misconduct, including without limitation an act under 35-10-628(2), or that of any person under the partner's direct supervision and control.

(4) Subsection (2) does not affect or impair the ability of a partner of a limited liability partnership to act as a guarantor or surety for, provide collateral for, or otherwise agree to be primarily or contingently liable for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of a limited liability partnership.

(5) Subsection (2) does not affect the liability of a limited liability partnership for partnership debts, obligations, or liabilities to the extent of partnership assets.

(6) Unless the partner is personally liable under this section, a partner in a limited liability partnership is not a proper party to a proceeding by or against a limited liability partnership to recover any debts, obligations, or liabilities of or chargeable to the limited liability partnership.

35-10-308. Purported partner. (1) If a person, by words or conduct, purports to be a partner or consents to being represented by another as a partner in a partnership or with one or more persons who are not partners, the purported partner is liable to a person to whom the representation is made:

(a) if that person, relying on the representation, enters into a transaction with the actual or purported partnership; and

(b) the purported partner would have been personally liable for obligations of the partnership under 35-10-307 or 35-10-629 if the purported partner had been a partner.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), if the representation, either by the purported partner or by a person with the purported partner's consent, is made in a public manner, the purported partner is liable to a person who relies upon the purported partnership even if the purported partner is not aware of being held out as a partner to the claimant. If partnership liability results, the purported partner is liable as if the purported partner were a partner. If no partnership liability results, the purported partner is liable jointly and severally with any other person consenting to the representation.

(3) Subject to subsection (1), if a person is represented to be a partner in an existing partnership or with one or more persons who are not partners, the purported partner is an agent of persons consenting to the representation to bind them to the same extent and in the same manner as if the purported partner were a partner with respect to persons who enter into transactions in reliance upon the representation. If all of the partners of the existing partnership consent to the representation, a partnership act or obligation results. Subject to subsection (1), if fewer than all of the partners of the existing partnership consent to the representation, the person acting and the partners consenting to the representation are jointly and severally liable as if the person had actually been a partner.

(4) A person is not a partner in a partnership merely because the person is named by another in a statement of partnership authority.

(5) A person does not continue to be a partner merely because of a failure to file a statement of dissociation or to amend a statement of partnership authority to indicate the partner's dissociation from the partnership.

35-10-310. Statement of partnership authority. (1) A partnership may file a statement of partnership authority, which:

(a) must include:

(i) the name of the partnership;

(ii) the street address of its chief executive office and of one office in this state, if there is one;

(iii) the names and mailing addresses of all of the partners or of an agent appointed and maintained by the partnership for the purpose of subsection (2); and

(iv) the names of the partners authorized to execute an instrument transferring real property held in the name of the partnership; and

(b) may state the authority or limitations on the authority of some or all of the partners to enter into other transactions on behalf of the partnership and any other matter.

(2) If a statement of partnership authority names an agent, the agent shall maintain a list of the names and mailing addresses of all the partners and make it available to any person on request for good cause shown.

(3) If a filed statement of partnership authority is executed pursuant to 35-10-111(5) and states the name of the partnership but does not contain all of the other information required by subsection (1), the statement nevertheless operates with respect to a person not a partner as provided in subsections (4) and (5).

(4) Except as provided in subsection (7), a filed statement of partnership authority supplements the authority of a partner to enter into transactions on behalf of the partnership as follows:

(a) Except for transfers of real property, a grant of authority contained in a filed statement of partnership authority is conclusive in favor of a person who gives value without knowledge to the contrary so long as and to the extent that a limitation on that authority is not contained in another filed statement. A filed cancellation of a limitation on authority revives the previous grant of authority.

(b) A grant of authority to transfer real property held in the name of the partnership contained in a certified copy of a filed statement of partnership authority recorded in the office for recording transfers of that real property is conclusive in favor of a person who gives value without knowledge to the contrary so long as and to the extent that a certified copy of a filed statement containing a limitation on that authority is not then of record in the office for recording transfers of that real property. The recording in the office for recording transfers of that real property of a certified copy of a filed cancellation of a limitation on authority revives the previous grant of authority.

(5) A person not a partner is considered to know of a limitation on the authority of a partner to transfer real property held in the name of the partnership if a certified copy of the filed statement containing the limitation on authority is of record in the office for recording transfers of that real property.

(6) Except as provided in 35-10-622 and 35-10-627 and subsection (5) of this section, a person not a partner is not considered to know of a limitation on the authority of a partner merely because the limitation is contained in a filed statement.

(7) Unless canceled earlier, a filed statement of partnership authority is canceled by operation of law 5 years after the date on which the statement or the most recent amendment was filed with the secretary of state.

35-10-311. Statement of denial. A partner or other person named as a partner in a filed statement of partnership authority or in a list maintained by an agent pursuant to 35-10-310(2) may file a statement of denial stating the name of the partnership and the fact that is being denied, which may include denial of a person's authority or status as a partner. A statement of denial is a limitation on authority to the extent provided in 35-10-310(4) and (5).

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

35-10-312. Action by and against partnership and partners. (1) A partnership may sue and be sued in the name of the partnership.

(2) An action may be brought against the partnership and any or all of the partners who are personally liable for obligations of the partnership under 35-10-307 or 35-10-629 in the same action or in separate actions.

(3) A judgment against a partnership is not by itself a judgment against a partner. A judgment against a partnership may not be satisfied from a partner's assets unless there is also a judgment against the partner.

(4) A judgment creditor of a partner may not levy execution against the assets of the partner to satisfy a judgment based on a claim against the partnership unless:

(a) the partner is personally liable for the liability of the partnership under 35-10-307 or 35-10-629; and

(b) one of the following conditions is satisfied:

(i) a judgment based on the same claim has been obtained against the partnership and a writ of execution on the judgment has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part;

(ii) (A) an involuntary case under Title 11 of the United States Code has been commenced against the partnership and has not been dismissed within 60 days after commencement or the partnership has commenced a voluntary case under Title 11 of the United States Code and the case has not been dismissed; and

(B) Title 11 of the United States Code permits a judgment creditor of a partner to levy execution against the assets of the partner to satisfy a judgment based on a claim against the partnership;

(iii) the partner has agreed that the creditor need not exhaust partnership assets;

(iv) a court grants permission to the judgment creditor to levy execution against the assets of a partner based on a finding that partnership assets subject to execution within this state are clearly insufficient to satisfy the judgment, that exhaustion of partnership assets is excessively burdensome, or that the grant of permission is an appropriate exercise of the court's equitable powers; or

(v) liability is imposed on the partner by law or contract independent of the existence of the partnership.

(5) This section applies to any partnership liability or obligation resulting from a representation by a partner or purported partner under 35-10-308(1), (2), or (3).

Part 4
Relation of Partners to Partnership and to One Another

Part Cross-References

35-10-401. Partner's rights and duties. (1) A partnership shall establish an account for each partner. The partnership shall credit the account with an amount equal to the money plus the value of any other property, net of the amount of any liabilities, that the partner contributes to the partnership and the partner's share of the partnership profits. The partnership shall charge the account with an amount equal to the money plus the value of any other property, net of the amount of any liabilities, distributed by the partnership to the partner and the partner's share of the partnership losses. However, the partner is personally liable for the charges only as provided in 35-10-307 and 35-10-629.

(2) A partnership shall credit each partner's account with an equal share of the partnership profits. A partnership shall charge each partner with a share of the partnership losses, whether capital or operating, in proportion to the partner's share of the profits. However, a partner is personally liable for the charges as provided in 35-10-307 and 35-10-629.

(3) A partnership shall indemnify each partner for payments reasonably made and liabilities reasonably incurred by the partner in the ordinary and proper conduct of the business of the partnership or for the preservation of its business or property. However, a partner is not personally liable for the indemnification obligation of the partnership, except to the extent that the partner would be personally liable under 35-10-307 or 35-10-629 for the liabilities incurred by the indemnified partner.

(4) A partnership shall repay a partner who, in aid of the partnership, makes a payment or advance beyond the amount of capital the partner agreed to contribute.

(5) A payment made by a partner that gives rise to a partnership obligation under subsection (3) or (4) constitutes a loan to the partnership. Interest accrues from the date of the payment or advance.

(6) Each partner has equal rights in the management and conduct of the partnership business.

(7) A partner may use or possess partnership property only on behalf of the partnership.

(8) A partner is not entitled to remuneration for services performed for the partnership, except for reasonable compensation for services rendered in winding up the business of the partnership.

(9) A person may become a partner only with the consent of all the partners.

(10) A difference arising as to a matter in the ordinary course of business of a partnership may be decided by a majority of the partners. An act outside the ordinary course of business of a partnership and an amendment to the partnership agreement may be undertaken only with the consent of all the partners.

(11) This section does not affect the obligations of a partnership to other persons under 35-10-301.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 251, L. 1947; R.C.M. 1947, 63-301; amd. Sec. 24, Ch. 238, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 449, L. 1995.

35-10-402. Partner's right to information. (1) A partnership shall keep its books and records, if any, at its chief executive office.

(2) A partnership shall provide partners and their agents and attorneys access to its books and records. It shall provide former partners and their agents and attorneys access to books and records pertaining to the period during which they were partners. The right of access provides the opportunity to inspect and copy books and records during ordinary business hours. A partnership may impose a reasonable charge, covering the costs of labor and material, for copies of documents furnished.

35-10-403. Duty of partners to render information. Each partner and the partnership, on demand, shall furnish to a partner and to the legal representative of a deceased partner or of a partner under legal disability, to the extent just and reasonable, complete and accurate information concerning the partnership.

35-10-405. General standards of partner's conduct. (1) The only fiduciary duties a partner owes to the partnership and the other partners are the duty of loyalty and the duty of care set forth in this section.

(2) A partner's duty of loyalty to the partnership and the other partners is limited to the following:

(a) to account to the partnership and hold as trustee for it any property, profit, or benefit derived:

(i) by the partner in the conduct and winding up of the partnership business;

(ii) from a use or appropriation by the partner of partnership property; or

(iii) from a use or appropriation of an opportunity without the consent of the other partners;

(b) to refrain from dealing with the partnership in the conduct or winding up of the partnership business as or on behalf of a party having an interest adverse to the partnership without the consent of the other partners; and

(c) to refrain from competing with the partnership in the conduct of partnership business before the dissolution of the partnership without the consent of the other partners.

(3) A partner's duty of loyalty may not be eliminated by agreement, but the partners by agreement may identify specific types or categories of activities that do not violate the duty of loyalty, if not manifestly unreasonable.

(4) A partner's duty of care to the partnership and the other partners in the conduct and winding up of the partnership business is limited to refraining from engaging in grossly negligent or reckless conduct, intentional misconduct, or a knowing violation of law.

(5) A partner shall discharge the duties to the partnership and the other partners under this chapter or under the partnership agreement and exercise any rights consistent with the obligation of good faith and fair dealing. The obligation of good faith and fair dealing may not be eliminated by agreement, but the partners by agreement may determine the standards by which the performance of the obligation is to be measured if the standards are not manifestly unreasonable.

(6) A partner does not violate a duty or obligation under this chapter or under the partnership agreement merely because the partner's conduct furthers the partner's own interest. A partner may lend money to and transact other business with the partnership. The rights and obligations of a partner who lends money to or transacts business with the partnership are the same as those of a person who is not a partner, subject to other applicable law.

(7) This section applies to a person winding up the partnership business as the personal or legal representative of the last surviving partner as if the person were a partner.

Cross-References

35-10-406. Continuation of partnership beyond definite term or particular undertaking. (1) If a partnership for a definite term or particular undertaking is continued without an express agreement after the expiration of the term or completion of the undertaking, the rights and duties of the partners remain the same as they were at the expiration or completion, so far as is consistent with a partnership at will.

(2) If the partners or those of them who habitually acted in the business during the term or undertaking continue the business without any settlement or liquidation of the partnership, they are presumed to have agreed that the business will not be wound up.

35-10-407. Distributions in kind. A partner has no right to receive and may not be required to accept a distribution in kind.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

35-10-408. Partner's liability to partnership. A partner is liable to the partnership for a breach of the partnership agreement if there is a violation of a duty to the partnership that causes harm to the partnership.

History: En. Sec. 29, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

35-10-409. Remedies of partnership and partners. (1) A partnership may maintain an action against a partner for a breach of the partnership agreement or for the violation of a duty to the partnership that causes harm to the partnership.

(2) A partner may maintain an action against the partnership or another partner for legal or equitable relief, including an accounting as to partnership business, to enforce:

(a) a right under the partnership agreement;

(b) a right under this chapter, including the partner's:

(i) rights under 35-10-401 through 35-10-403 and 35-10-405;

(ii) right on dissociation to have the partner's interest in the partnership purchased pursuant to 35-10-619 or enforce any other right under 35-10-616 through 35-10-623; or

(iii) right to compel a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business under 35-10-624 or enforce any other right under 35-10-602, 35-10-609, and 35-10-624 through 35-10-629; or

(c) the rights and otherwise protect the interests of the partner, including rights and interests arising independent of the partnership relationship.

(3) The accrual of and any time limitation on a right of action for a remedy under this section is governed by other law. A right to an accounting upon a dissolution and winding up does not revive a claim barred by law.

35-10-505. Partner's transferable interest subject to charging order. (1) On application by a judgment creditor of a partner or partner's transferee, a court having jurisdiction may charge the transferable interest of the debtor partner or transferee to satisfy the judgment. The court may appoint a receiver of the debtor's share of the distributions due or to become due to the debtor in respect of the partnership and make all other orders, directions, accounts, and inquiries the debtor might have made or which the circumstances of the case may require.

(2) A charging order constitutes a lien on the judgment debtor's transferable interest in the partnership. The court may order a foreclosure of the interest subject to the charging order at any time and upon conditions it considers appropriate. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale has the rights of a transferee.

(3) At any time before foreclosure, an interest charged may be redeemed:

(a) by the judgment debtor;

(b) with property other than partnership property, by one or more of the other partners; or

(c) with partnership property, by one or more of the other partners with the consent of all the partners whose interests are not so charged.

(4) This chapter does not deprive a partner of a right under the exemption laws with respect to the partner's interest in the partnership.

(5) This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a judgment creditor of a partner or partner's transferee may satisfy a judgment out of the judgment debtor's transferable interest in the partnership.

35-10-506. Partner's application to discharge attachment — undertaking. (1) If a writ of attachment is levied upon the interest in a partnership of one or more of the partners, the other partners who are not defendants in the action or any of them may, at any time before final judgment, apply to the judge who granted the writ or to the court, upon an affidavit showing the facts, for an order to discharge the attachment as to that interest.

(2) Upon an application, the applicant shall give an undertaking, with at least two sufficient sureties, to the effect that they will pay to the sheriff, on demand, the amount of any judgment that may be recovered against the partner who is defendant in the action or that may be recovered against that partner in any other action in which the other partners are not defendants and in which a writ of attachment or an execution may come into the sheriff's hands at any time before the writ of attachment that was levied is vacated and annulled, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking, which may not be less than the value of the interest of the defendant in the partnership as fixed by the court or judge. If, in the opinion of the court or judge, the value is uncertain, the sum must be an amount that the court or judge determines.

For the purpose of fixing the sum or to determine the sufficiency of its sureties, the court or judge may receive affidavits or oral testimony or may direct a reference.

35-10-509. Partner's transferable interest in partnership. The only transferable interest of a partner in the partnership is the partner's interest in distributions. The interest is personal property.

History: En. Sec. 33, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

35-10-510. Transfer of partner's transferable interest. (1) A transfer, in whole or in part, of a partner's transferable interest in the partnership:

(a) is permissible;

(b) does not by itself cause a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business; and

(c) does not, as against the other partners or the partnership, entitle the transferee, during the continuance of the partnership, to participate in the management or conduct of the partnership business, to require access to information concerning or an account of partnership transactions, or to inspect or copy the partnership books or records.

(2) A transferee of a partner's transferable interest in the partnership has a right:

(a) to receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be entitled;

(b) to receive the net amount otherwise distributable to the transferor upon the dissolution and winding up of the partnership business; and

(c) to seek under 35-10-624(6) a judicial determination that it is equitable to wind up the partnership business.

(3) In a dissolution and winding up, a transferee is entitled to receive an accounting only from the date of the last account agreed to by all of the partners.

(4) Upon transfer, the transferor retains the rights and duties of a partner other than the interest in distributions transferred.

(5) Until receipt of notice of a transfer, a partnership has no duty to give effect to the transferee's rights under this section.

35-10-609. Right to wind up partnership business. (1) After dissolution, a partner who has not wrongfully dissociated may participate in winding up the partnership's business, but on application of any partner, partner's legal representative, or transferee, the district court, for good cause, may order judicial supervision of the winding up.

(2) The legal representative of the last surviving partner may wind up a partnership's business.

(3) A person winding up a partnership's business may preserve the partnership business or property as a going concern for a reasonable time; prosecute and defend actions and proceedings, whether civil, criminal, or administrative; settle and close the partnership's business; dispose of and transfer the partnership's property; discharge the partnership's liabilities; distribute the assets of the partnership pursuant to 35-10-629; settle disputes by mediation or arbitration; and perform other necessary acts.

35-10-616. Events causing partner's dissociation. A partner is dissociated from a partnership upon:

(1) receipt by the partnership of notice of the partner's express will to withdraw as a partner or upon any later date specified in the notice;

(2) an event agreed to in the partnership agreement as causing the partner's dissociation;

(3) the partner's expulsion pursuant to the partnership agreement;

(4) the partner's expulsion by the unanimous vote of the other partners if:

(a) it is unlawful to carry on the partnership business with that partner;

(b) there has been a transfer of all or substantially all of that partner's transferable interest in the partnership, other than a transfer for security purposes or a court order charging the partner's interest that has not been foreclosed;

(c) within 90 days after the partnership notifies a corporate partner that it will be expelled because it has filed a certificate of dissolution or the equivalent, its charter has been revoked, or its right to conduct business has been suspended by the jurisdiction of its incorporation, there is no revocation of the certificate of dissolution or no reinstatement of its charter or its right to conduct business; or

(d) a partnership that is a partner has been dissolved and its business is being wound up;

(5) the partner's expulsion by judicial decree, made on application by the partnership or another partner, because:

(a) the partner engaged in wrongful conduct that adversely and materially affected the partnership business;

(b) the partner willfully or persistently committed a material breach of the partnership agreement or of a duty owed to the partnership or the other partners under 35-10-405; or

(c) the partner engaged in conduct relating to the partnership business that made it not reasonably practicable to carry on the business in partnership with that partner;

(6) the partner:

(a) becoming a debtor in bankruptcy;

(b) executing an assignment for the benefit of creditors;

(c) seeking, consenting to, or acquiescing in the appointment of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of that partner or of all or substantially all of that partner's property; or

(d) failing within 90 days after the appointment to have vacated or stayed the appointment of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of the partner or of all or substantially all of the partner's property obtained without the partner's consent or acquiescence or failing within 90 days after the expiration of a stay to have the appointment vacated;

(7) in the case of a partner who is an individual:

(a) the partner's death;

(b) the appointment of a guardian or general conservator for the partner; or

(c) a judicial determination that the partner has otherwise become incapable of performing the partner's duties under the partnership agreement;

(8) in the case of a partner that is a trust or is acting as a partner by virtue of being a trustee of a trust, distribution of the trust's entire transferable interest in the partnership, but not merely by reason of the substitution of a successor trustee;

(9) in the case of a partner that is an estate or is acting as a partner by virtue of being a personal representative of an estate, distribution of the estate's entire transferable interest in the partnership, but not merely by reason of the substitution of a successor personal representative; or

(10) termination of a partner who is not an individual, partnership, corporation, trust, or estate.

35-10-617. Partner's wrongful dissociation. (1) A partner's dissociation is wrongful only if:

(a) it is in breach of an express provision of the partnership agreement; or

(b) in the case of a partnership for a definite term or particular undertaking, before the expiration of the term or the completion of the undertaking:

(i) the partner withdraws by express will, unless the withdrawal follows the dissociation of another partner and results in a right to dissolve the partnership under 35-10-624(2)(a);

(ii) the partner is expelled by judicial decree under 35-10-616(5); or

(iii) a partner, who is not an individual, a trust other than a business trust, or an estate, is expelled or otherwise dissociated because the entity willfully dissolved or terminated.

(2) A partner who wrongfully dissociates is liable to the partnership and to the other partners for damages caused by the dissociation. That liability is in addition to any other liability of the partner to the partnership or to the other partners.

History: En. Sec. 37, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

35-10-618. Effect of partner's dissociation. (1) If a partner's dissociation results in a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business, 35-10-602, 35-10-609, and 35-10-624 through 35-10-629 apply; otherwise 35-10-619 through 35-10-623 apply.

(2) Upon a partner's dissociation:

(a) the partner's right to participate in the management and conduct of the partnership business terminates, except as provided in 35-10-609;

(b) the partner's duty of loyalty under 35-10-405(2)(c) terminates; and

(c) the partner's duty of loyalty under 35-10-405(2)(a) and (2)(b) and duty of care under 35-10-405(4) continue only with regard to matters arising or events occurring before the dissociation.

History: En. Sec. 38, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

35-10-619. Purchase of dissociated partner's interest. (1) If a partner is dissociated from a partnership without resulting in a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business under 35-10-624, the partnership shall cause the dissociated partner's interest in the partnership to be purchased for a buyout price determined pursuant to subsection (2).

(2) (a) The buyout price of a dissociated partner's interest is the amount that would have been distributable to the dissociating partner under 35-10-629(2) if on the date of dissociation the assets of the partnership were sold at a price equal to the greater of:

(i) the liquidation value; or

(ii) the value based on a sale of the entire business as a going concern without the dissociated partner and the partnership were wound up as of that date.

(b) In either case, the selling price of the partnership assets must be determined on the basis of the amount that would be paid by a willing buyer to a willing seller, neither being under any compulsion to buy or sell, and with knowledge of all relevant facts. Interest must be paid from the date of dissociation to the date of payment.

(3) Damages for wrongful dissociation under 35-10-617(2) and all other amounts owing, whether or not presently due, from the dissociated partner to the partnership must be offset against the buyout price. Interest must be paid from the date the amount owed becomes due to the date of payment.

(4) A partnership shall indemnify a dissociated partner against all partnership liabilities incurred before the dissociation, except liabilities then unknown to the partnership, and against all partnership liabilities incurred after the dissociation, except liabilities incurred by an act of the dissociated partner under 35-10-620. For purposes of this subsection, a liability not known to a partner other than the dissociated partner is not known to the partnership.

(5) If no agreement for the purchase of a dissociated partner's interest is reached within 120 days after a written demand for payment, the partnership shall pay or cause to be paid in cash to the dissociated partner the amount the partnership estimates to be the buyout price and accrued interest, reduced by any offsets and accrued interest under subsection (3).

(6) If a deferred payment is authorized under subsection (8), the partnership may tender a written offer to pay the amount it estimates to be the buyout price and accrued interest, reduced by any offsets under subsection (3), stating the time of payment, the amount and type of security for payment, and the other terms and conditions of the obligation.

(7) The payment or tender required by subsection (5) or (6) must be accompanied by the following:

(a) a statement of partnership assets and liabilities as of the date of dissociation;

(b) the latest available partnership balance sheet and income statement, if any;

(c) an explanation of how the estimated amount of the payment was calculated; and

(d) written notice that the payment is in full satisfaction of the obligation to purchase unless, within 120 days after the written notice, the dissociated partner commences an action to determine the buyout price, any offsets under subsection (3), or other terms of the obligation to purchase.

(8) A partner who wrongfully dissociates before the expiration of a definite term or the completion of a particular undertaking is not entitled to payment of any portion of the buyout price until the expiration of the term or completion of the undertaking unless the partner establishes to the satisfaction of the court that earlier payment will not cause undue hardship to the business of the partnership. A deferred payment must be adequately secured and bear interest.

(9) A dissociated partner may maintain an action against the partnership, pursuant to 35-10-409(2)(b)(ii), to determine the buyout price of that partner's interest, any offsets under subsection (3), or other terms of the obligation to purchase. The action must be commenced within 120 days after the partnership has tendered payment or an offer to pay or within 1 year after written demand for payment if no payment or offer to pay is tendered. The court shall determine the buyout price of the dissociated partner's interest, any offset due under subsection (3), and accrued interest, and enter judgment for any additional payment or refund. If deferred payment is authorized under subsection (8), the court shall also determine the security for payment and other terms of the obligation to purchase. The court may assess reasonable attorney fees and the fees and expenses of appraisers or other experts for a party to the action, in amounts the court finds equitable, against a party that the court finds acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith. The finding may be based on the partnership's failure to tender payment or an offer to pay or to comply with the requirements of subsection (7).

35-10-620. Dissociated partner's power to bind partnership — liability to partnership. (1) For 2 years after a partner dissociates without resulting in a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business, the partnership, including a surviving partnership under 35-10-635 through 35-10-637 and 35-10-641 through 35-10-644, is bound by an act of the dissociated partner that would have bound the partnership under 35-10-301 before dissociation if the other party to the transaction:

(a) reasonably believed when entering the transaction that the dissociated partner was a partner at that time;

(b) did not have notice of the partner's dissociation; and

(c) is not considered to have had knowledge under 35-10-310(5) or notice under 35-10-622.

(2) A dissociated partner is liable to the partnership for any loss caused to the partnership arising from an obligation incurred by the dissociated partner after dissociation and for which the partnership is liable under subsection (1).

History: En. Sec. 40, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

35-10-621. Dissociated partner's liability to other persons. (1) A partner's dissociation does not of itself discharge the partner's liability for a partnership obligation incurred before dissociation. A dissociated partner is not liable for a partnership obligation incurred after dissociation except as provided in subsection (2).

(2) A partner who dissociates without resulting in a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business is personally liable as a partner to the other party as the result of a partnership obligation incurred in connection with a transaction entered into by the partnership or a surviving partnership under 35-10-635 through 35-10-637 and 35-10-641 through 35-10-644 within 2 years after the partner's dissociation only if the other party to the transaction:

(a) reasonably believed when entering the transaction that the dissociated partner was a partner at that time;

(b) did not have notice of the partner's dissociation;

(c) is not considered to have had knowledge under 35-10-310(5) or notice under 35-10-622; and

(d) the obligation is one for which the partner would be personally liable under 35-10-307 or 35-10-629 if the partner had not dissociated.

(3) By agreement with the partnership creditor and the partners continuing the business, a dissociated partner may be released from liability for a partnership obligation.

(4) A dissociated partner is released from liability for a partnership obligation if a partnership creditor, with notice of the partner's dissociation but without the partner's consent, agrees to a material alteration in the nature or time of payment of a partnership obligation.

History: En. Sec. 41, Ch. 238, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 449, L. 1995.

35-10-622. Statement of dissociation — filing. (1) A dissociated partner or the partnership may file a statement of dissociation stating the name of the partnership and that the partner is dissociated from the partnership.

(2) If a statement of dissociation is filed, the statement must be filed with the same entity with which the original partnership agreement was filed.

(3) A statement of dissociation is a limitation on the authority of a dissociated partner for the purposes of 35-10-310(4) and (5).

(4) For the purposes of 35-10-301, 35-10-620, and 35-10-621(2), a person who is not a partner is considered to have notice of the dissociation 90 days after the statement of dissociation is filed.

History: En. Sec. 42, Ch. 238, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 71, L. 2005.

35-10-623. Continued use of partnership name. Continued use of a partnership name or a dissociated partner's name as part of the partnership by the partners continuing the business does not of itself make the dissociated partner liable for an obligation of the partners or the partnership continuing the business.

History: En. Sec. 43, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

35-10-624. Events causing dissolution and winding up of partnership business. Except as provided in 35-10-625, a partnership is dissolved and its business must be wound up only upon:

(1) receipt by a partnership at will of notice from a partner, other than a partner who is dissociated under 35-10-616(2) through (10), of that partner's express will to withdraw as a partner or upon any later date specified in the notice;

(2) in a partnership for a definite term or particular undertaking:

(a) within 90 days after a partner's wrongful dissociation under 35-10-617 or a partner's dissociation by death or otherwise under 35-10-616(6) through (10), receipt by the partnership of notice from another partner of that partner's express will to withdraw as a partner;

(b) the express will of all the partners; or

(c) the expiration of the term or the completion of the undertaking unless all the partners agree to continue the business, in which case the partnership agreement is considered amended retroactively to provide that the expiration or completion does not result in the dissolution and winding up of the partnership business;

(3) an event agreed to in the partnership agreement resulting in the winding up of the partnership business unless all the partners agree to continue the business, in which case the partnership agreement is considered amended retroactively to provide that the event does not result in the dissolution and winding up of the partnership business;

(4) an event that makes it unlawful for all or substantially all of the business of the partnership to be continued, but a cure of illegality within 90 days after notice to the partnership of the event is effective retroactively to the date of the event for purposes of this section;

(5) a judicial decree, issued upon application by a partner, that:

(a) the economic purpose of the partnership is likely to be unreasonably frustrated;

(b) another partner has engaged in conduct relating to the partnership business that makes it not reasonably practicable to carry on the business in partnership with that partner; or

(c) it is not otherwise reasonably practicable to carry on the partnership business in conformity with the partnership agreement; or

(6) a judicial decree, issued upon application by a transferee of a partner's transferable interest, that it is equitable to wind up the partnership business:

(a) if the partnership was for a definite term or particular undertaking at the time of the transfer or entry of the charging order that gave rise to the transfer, after the expiration of the term or completion of the undertaking; or

(b) if the partnership was a partnership at will at the time of the transfer or entry of the charging order that gave rise to the transfer, at any time.

History: En. Sec. 44, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

35-10-625. Dissolution deferred 90 days. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a partnership of more than two persons is not dissolved until 90 days after receipt by the partnership of notice from a partner under 35-10-624(1) or (2)(a), and its business may be continued until that date as if no notice were received. Before that date, the partner who gave the notice may waive the right to have the partnership business wound up. If there is no waiver before that date, the partnership is dissolved and its business must be wound up.

(2) A partnership may be dissolved at any time during the 90-day period and its business wound up, by the express will of at least half of the other partners.

(3) After receipt by the partnership of notice from a partner under 35-10-624(1) or (2)(a), the partner who gave the notice:

(a) has no rights in the management and conduct of the partnership business if it is continued under subsection (1) but may participate in winding up the business under 35-10-609 if the partnership is dissolved on or before the expiration of the 90-day period pursuant to subsection (1) or (2);

(b) is liable for obligations incurred during the period only to the extent a dissociated partner would be liable under 35-10-620(2) or 35-10-621(2) but is not liable for contributions for and must be indemnified by the other partners against any partnership liability incurred by another partner to the extent the liability is not appropriate for winding up the partnership business; and

(c) must be credited with the partner's share of any profit earned during the period and may be charged with the partner's share of any loss incurred during the period but only to the extent of profits credited for the period.

History: En. Sec. 45, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

35-10-626. Partner's power to bind partnership after dissolution. Subject to 35-10-627, a partnership is bound by a partner's act after dissolution that:

(1) is appropriate for winding up the partnership business; or

(2) would have bound the partnership under 35-10-301 before dissolution if the other party to the transaction did not have notice of the dissolution.

History: En. Sec. 48, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

35-10-627. Statement of dissolution. (1) After dissolution, a partner who has not wrongfully dissociated may file a statement of dissolution stating the name of the partnership and that the partnership has dissolved and is winding up its business.

(2) If a statement of dissolution is filed, the statement must be filed with the same entity with which the original partnership agreement was filed.

(3) A statement of dissolution cancels a filed statement of partnership authority for the purposes of 35-10-310(4) and is a limitation on authority for the purposes of 35-10-310(5).

(4) For the purposes of 35-10-301 and 35-10-626, a person who is not a partner is considered to have notice of the dissolution and the limitation on the partners' authority as a result of the statement of dissolution 90 days after it is filed.

(5) After filing and, if appropriate, recording a statement of dissolution, the dissolved partnership may file and, if appropriate, record a statement of partnership authority that will operate with respect to a person who is not a partner as provided in 35-10-310(4) and (5) in any transaction, whether or not the transaction is appropriate for winding up the partnership business.

History: En. Sec. 49, Ch. 238, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 14, Ch. 71, L. 2005.

35-10-628. Partner's liability to other partners after dissolution. (1) Except as provided in 35-10-625(3)(b) and subsection (2) of this section, after dissolution a partner is liable to the other partners for the partner's share of any partnership liability incurred under 35-10-626 for which the partner is personally liable under 35-10-307 or 35-10-621.

(2) A partner who, with knowledge of the winding up, incurs a partnership liability under 35-10-626(2) by an act that is not appropriate for winding up the partnership business is liable to the partnership for any loss caused to the partnership arising from the liability.

35-10-629. Settlement of accounts among partners. (1) In winding up a partnership's business, the assets of the partnership must be applied to discharge its obligations to creditors, including partners who are creditors. Any surplus must be applied to pay in cash the net amount distributable to partners in accordance with their right to distributions pursuant to subsection (2).

(2) Each partner is entitled to a settlement of all partnership accounts upon winding up the partnership business. In settling accounts among the partners, the profits and losses that result from the liquidation of the partnership assets must be credited and charged to the partners' accounts. The partnership shall make a distribution to a partner in an amount equal to that partner's positive account balance. A partner shall contribute to the partnership an amount equal to that partner's negative balance but only to the extent that the negative balance is attributable to debts, obligations, or liabilities for which the partner is personally liable under 35-10-307.

(3) To the extent not taken into account in settling the accounts among partners pursuant to subsection (2), each partner shall contribute, in the proportion in which the partner shares partnership losses and to the extent the partner is personally liable under 35-10-307, the amount necessary to satisfy partnership obligations. If a partner fails or is not obligated to contribute, the other partners shall contribute, in the proportions in which the partners share partnership losses, the additional amount necessary to satisfy the partnership obligations. A partner or a partner's legal representative may recover from the other partners any contributions the partner makes to the extent the amount contributed exceeds that partner's share of the partnership obligations but only to the extent the contributions are made because of obligations for which the other partners are personally liable under 35-10-307.

(4) The estate of a deceased partner is liable for the partner's obligation to contribute to the partnership under subsections (2) and (3).

(5) An assignee for the benefit of creditors of a partnership or a partner or a person appointed by a court to represent creditors of a partnership or a partner may enforce a partner's obligation to contribute to the partnership under subsections (2) and (3).

History: En. Sec. 51, Ch. 238, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 15, Ch. 449, L. 1995.

35-10-630 through 35-10-634 reserved.

35-10-635. Conversion of partnership to limited partnership. (1) A partnership may be converted to a limited partnership pursuant to this section.

(2) The terms and conditions of a conversion of a partnership to a limited partnership must be approved by all the partners or by a number or percentage specified for conversion in the partnership agreement.

(3) After the conversion is approved by the partners, the partnership shall file a certificate of limited partnership that satisfies the requirements of 35-12-601 and includes:

(a) a statement that the partnership was converted to a limited partnership from a partnership;

(b) its former name; and

(c) a statement of the number of votes cast by the partners for and against the conversion and, if the vote is less than unanimous, the number or percentage required to approve the conversion under the partnership agreement.

(4) The conversion takes effect when the certificate of limited partnership is filed or at any later date specified in the certificate.

(5) A partner who becomes a limited partner as a result of the conversion remains liable as a partner for an obligation, incurred by the partnership before the conversion takes effect, for which the partner is personally liable under 35-10-307 and 35-10-629. If the other party to a transaction with the limited partnership reasonably believes when entering the transaction that the limited partner is a general partner, the partner is liable for an obligation incurred by the limited partnership within 90 days after the conversion takes effect but only to the extent that the limited partner would have been personally liable for the partnership under 35-10-307 or 35-10-629 immediately prior to the conversion. The partner's liability for all other obligations of the limited partnership incurred after the conversion takes effect is that of a limited partner as provided in Title 35, chapter 12.

History: En. Sec. 52, Ch. 238, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 16, Ch. 449, L. 1995.

35-10-636. Conversion of limited partnership to partnership. (1) A limited partnership may be converted to a partnership pursuant to this section.

(2) Notwithstanding a provision to the contrary in a limited partnership agreement, the terms and conditions of a conversion of a limited partnership to a partnership must be approved by all the partners.

(3) After the conversion is approved by the partners, the limited partnership shall cancel its certificate of limited partnership pursuant to 35-12-603.

(4) The conversion takes effect when the certificate of limited partnership is canceled.

(5) A limited partner who becomes a partner as a result of the conversion remains liable only as a limited partner for an obligation incurred by the limited partnership before the conversion takes effect. The limited partner is liable as a partner for an obligation of the partnership for which the partner is personally liable under 35-10-307 or 35-10-629 and which arises or is incurred after the conversion takes effect.

History: En. Sec. 53, Ch. 238, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 17, Ch. 449, L. 1995.

35-10-637. Effect of conversion — entity unchanged. (1) A partnership or limited partnership that has been converted pursuant to 35-10-635 or 35-10-636 is for all purposes the same entity that existed before the conversion.

(2) When a conversion takes effect:

(a) all property owned by the converting partnership or limited partnership remains vested in the converted entity;

(b) all obligations of the converting partnership or limited partnership continue as obligations of the converted entity; and

(c) an action or proceeding pending against the converting partnership or limited partnership may be continued as if the conversion had not occurred.

History: En. Sec. 54, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

35-10-638 through 35-10-640 reserved.

35-10-641. Merger of partnerships. (1) Pursuant to a plan of merger approved as provided in subsection (3), a partnership may be merged with one or more partnerships or limited partnerships.

(2) The plan of merger must set forth:

(a) the name of each partnership or limited partnership that is a party to the merger;

(b) the name of the surviving entity into which the other partnerships or limited partnerships will merge;

(c) whether the surviving entity is a partnership or a limited partnership and the status of each partner;

(d) the terms and conditions of the merger;

(e) the manner and basis of converting the interests of each party to the merger into interests or obligations of the surviving entity or into money or other property in whole or part; and

(f) the street address of the surviving entity's chief executive office.

(3) The plan of merger must be approved:

(a) in the case of a partnership that is a party to the merger, by all the partners or a number or percentage specified for merger in the partnership agreement; and

(b) in the case of a limited partnership that is a party to the merger, by the vote required for approval of a merger by the law of the state, tribe, or foreign jurisdiction in which the limited partnership is organized and, in the absence of such specifically applicable law, by all the partners, notwithstanding a provision to the contrary in the partnership agreement.

(4) After a plan of merger is approved and before the merger takes effect, the plan may be amended or abandoned as provided in the plan.

(5) The merger takes effect on the latest of:

(a) the approval of the plan of merger by all parties to the merger, as provided in subsection (3);

(b) the filing of all documents required by law to be filed as a condition to the effectiveness of the merger; or

(c) any effective date specified in the plan of merger.

35-10-642. Effect of merger. (1) When a merger takes effect:

(a) every partnership or limited partnership that is a party to the merger other than the surviving entity ceases to exist;

(b) all property owned by each of the merged partnerships or limited partnerships vests in the surviving entity;

(c) all obligations of every partnership or limited partnership that is a party to the merger become the obligations of the surviving entity; and

(d) an action or proceeding pending against a partnership or limited partnership that is a party to the merger may be continued as if the merger had not occurred or the surviving entity may be substituted as a party to the action or proceeding.

(2) The secretary of state is the agent for service of process in an action or proceeding against a surviving foreign partnership or limited partnership to enforce an obligation of a domestic partnership or limited partnership that is a party to a merger. The surviving entity shall promptly notify the secretary of state of the mailing address of its chief executive office and of any change of address. Upon receipt of process, the secretary of state shall mail a copy of the process to the surviving foreign partnership or limited partnership.

(3) A partner of the surviving partnership or limited partnership is liable for:

(a) all obligations of a party to the merger for which the partner was personally liable before the merger;

(b) all other obligations of the surviving entity incurred before the merger by a party to the merger, but those obligations may be satisfied only out of property of that entity; and

(c) all obligations of the surviving entity incurred after the merger takes effect.

(4) If the obligations incurred before the merger by a party to the merger are not satisfied out of the property of the surviving partnership or limited partnership, the partners of that party immediately before the effective date of the merger shall contribute the amount necessary to satisfy that party's obligations to the surviving entity in the manner provided in 35-10-629(3) as if the merged party were dissolved.

(5) A partner of a party to a merger who does not become a partner of the surviving partnership or limited partnership is dissociated from the entity, of which that partner was a partner, as of the date the merger takes effect. The surviving entity shall cause the partner's interest in the entity to be purchased under 35-10-619. The surviving entity is bound under 35-10-620 by an act of a partner dissociated under this subsection, and the partner is liable under 35-10-621 for transactions entered into by the surviving entity after the merger takes effect.

35-10-643. Statement of merger. (1) After a merger, the surviving partnership or limited partnership may file a statement that one or more partnerships or limited partnerships have merged into the surviving entity.

(2) A statement of merger must contain:

(a) the name of each partnership or limited partnership that is a party to the merger;

(b) the name of the surviving entity into which the other partnerships or limited partnerships were merged;

(c) the street address of the surviving entity's chief executive office and of an office in this state, if any; and

(d) whether the surviving entity is a partnership or limited partnership.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4), for the purposes of 35-10-302, property of the surviving partnership or limited partnership that before the merger was held in the name of another party to the merger is property held in the name of the surviving entity upon filing a statement of merger.

(4) For the purposes of 35-10-302, real property of the surviving partnership or limited partnership that before the merger was held in the name of another party to the merger is property held in the name of the surviving entity upon recording a certified copy of the statement of merger in the office for recording transfers of that real property.

(5) A filed and, if appropriate, recorded statement of merger that is executed and declared to be accurate pursuant to 35-10-111, that states the name of a partnership or limited partnership that is a party to the merger in whose name property was held before the merger, and that states the name of the surviving entity but that does not contain all of the other information required by subsection (2) operates with respect to the partnerships or limited partnerships named to the extent provided in subsections (3) and (4).

35-10-644. Nonexclusive. Sections 35-10-635 through 35-10-637 and 35-10-641 through 35-10-643 are not exclusive. Partnerships or limited partnerships may be converted or merged in any other manner provided by law.

History: En. Sec. 58, Ch. 238, L. 1993.

Part 7
Registration of Limited Liability Partnerships

35-10-701. Registration of limited liability partnerships. (1) To become a limited liability partnership, a partnership shall file with the secretary of state an application for registration on a form furnished by the secretary of state that indicates an intention to register as a limited liability partnership under this section.

(2) The application for registration of a limited liability partnership must be executed by two or more partners authorized to execute the application and registration and must contain the following information:

(a) the name and business mailing address of the limited liability partnership;

(b) a description of business transacted by the limited liability partnership; and

(c) the name and business mailing address of each of the partners.

(3) The secretary of state shall register as a limited liability partnership any partnership that substantially complies with this section.

(4) A partnership's registration under this section is effective when the secretary of state files the partnership's application for registration under subsection (1) and remains in effect until it is canceled by the secretary of state.

(5) The fact that an application for registration of a limited liability partnership under this section or any renewals of that partnership are on file with the office of the secretary of state is notice that the partnership is a limited liability partnership and is notice of all other facts set forth in the application.

(6) The secretary of state shall provide necessary forms for the registration of a limited liability partnership under subsections (1) and (2) or any renewals of registration.

35-10-702. Effect of registration — entity unchanged. (1) A partnership that has registered under 35-10-701 is for all purposes of the laws of this state, including but not limited to all licensing laws, whether for professionals or otherwise, the same entity that existed before the registration.

(2) When registration of a partnership under 35-10-701 takes effect:

(a) all tangible and intangible property, whether real or personal, owned by the partnership remains vested in the partnership;

(b) all debts, obligations, or liabilities of and chargeable to the partnership continue as debts, obligations, or liabilities of the partnership; and

(c) any actions or proceedings pending by or against the partnership may be continued as if the registration under 35-10-701 had not occurred.

(3) If a partnership dissolves and its business continues without liquidation of the partnership affairs, the registration of the limited liability partnership must be considered continued and must continue to be applicable to the partnership continuing the business. The partnership continuing the business is considered to have filed any documents required or permitted under this section that were filed by the dissolved partnership. The partnership continuing the business shall renew its registration at the time the dissolved partnership would have been required to file an application for renewal pursuant to Title 30, chapter 13, part 2.

(4) If a partnership dissolves, winds up its affairs, and liquidates, the registration of the limited liability partnership must be considered continued and must remain in effect as to the partnership and the partners during the period of dissolution, winding up, and liquidation and as to the partners subsequent to dissolution, winding up, and liquidation as to debts, obligations, or liabilities for which a partner was not personally liable under 35-10-307 or 35-10-629.

35-10-703. Name of limited liability partnerships. (1) The name of a limited liability partnership must contain the words "limited liability partnership", the abbreviation "l.l.p." or "llp", or other words or abbreviations that may be required or authorized by the laws of the state in which the partnership is formed, including without limitation "professional limited liability partnership" or the abbreviation "p.l.l.p." or "pllp".

(2) The name of a limited liability partnership must be distinguishable on the record and may not contain business name identifiers, as defined in 30-13-201, or other language that states or implies that the limited liability partnership is other than a limited liability partnership.

35-10-704 through 35-10-709 reserved.

35-10-710. Applicability to foreign or interstate commerce. (1) A partnership formed pursuant to an agreement governed by this chapter may conduct its business, carry on its operations, and have and exercise the powers granted by this chapter in any state, territory, district, or possession of the United States or in any foreign country.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature that the legal existence of partnerships formed pursuant to an agreement governed by this chapter must be recognized outside the boundaries of this state and that the laws of this state governing a partnership transacting business outside this state be granted the protection of full faith and credit under the United States constitution.

(3) Notwithstanding 35-10-116, the internal affairs of partnerships formed pursuant to an agreement governed by this chapter, including the personal liability of partners for debts, obligations, and liabilities of or chargeable to the partnership or another partner, are subject to and governed by the laws of this state.

(4) Before transacting business in this state as a limited liability partnership, a partnership formed pursuant to an agreement governed by the laws of any state or jurisdiction other than this state shall:

(a) comply with any statutory or administrative registration or filing requirements governing the specific type of business in which the partnership is engaged; and

(b) register under 35-10-701. If registered, the partnership appoints the secretary of state as its agent for service of process with respect to causes of action arising out of the transaction of business in this state.

(5) Notwithstanding 35-10-116, the internal affairs of partnerships formed pursuant to an agreement governed by the laws of any state or jurisdiction other than this state, including the liability of partners for debts, obligations, and liabilities of or chargeable to the partnership or another partner, are subject to and governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the partnership is formed.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 449, L. 1995.

35-10-711 through 35-10-714 reserved.

35-10-715. Term and renewal of limited liability partnership registration. (1) Registration of a limited liability partnership is effective for a term of 5 years from the date of registration. Upon application for renewal of registration on forms furnished by the secretary of state, the registration may be renewed for another 5-year term.

(2) Not less than 90 days before the expiration date of the registration of a limited liability partnership, the secretary of state shall notify the limited liability partnership of the pending expiration by mailing a notice to the business mailing address of the limited liability partnership.

(3) If a limited liability partnership fails to file an application for renewal with the secretary of state within a 90-day period prior to the expiration date of the registration, the secretary of state shall cancel the registration and the partnership is no longer a limited liability partnership.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 26, L. 2011.

35-10-716. Application for renewal of limited liability partnership registration. An application for renewal of registration of a limited liability partnership must be executed and delivered to the secretary of state. The application must include but is not limited to the following information:

(1) the complete name and business mailing address of the limited liability partnership;
(2) the name and business mailing address of each partner; and
(3) a description of business being transacted.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 26, L. 2011.

35-10-717. Amendment to registration of limited liability partnership. An amendment to registration of a limited liability partnership must be filed with the secretary of state within 1 year after any one of the following events occurs:

(1) there is a change in the name or identity of the partners transacting or having interest in the limited liability partnership;

(2) there is a change in the description of the business transacted;

(3) a partner having an interest in the limited liability partnership withdraws from the business or dies; or

(4) two or more partners apply to change the name of a registered limited liability partnership.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 26, L. 2011.

35-10-718. Filing amendment to registration of limited liability partnership — issuance of certificate. (1) An application for amended registration of a limited liability partnership must be filed with the secretary of state and must include:

(a) the complete limited liability partnership name prior to adoption of the amendment;

(b) the complete new limited liability partnership name, if applicable;

(c) the business mailing address of the limited liability partnership;

(d) if the name of any partner to a limited liability partnership is to be changed, the new name of the partner;

(e) if a partner withdraws or dies, a statement that the person has withdrawn or died;

(f) a statement that the amended registration of limited liability partnership supersedes the original registration and all amendments to the original registration; and

(g) all other information determined by the secretary of state to be necessary to support an application.

(2) If the secretary of state finds that the application for amended registration of a limited liability partnership complies with this part and that all applicable fees have been paid, the secretary of state shall:

(a) endorse on the application for amendment the word "filed" and the date on which the application for amendment was filed;

(b) file the original application for amendment in the secretary of state's office; and

(c) issue to the limited liability partnership a certificate of amendment.

(3) If the limited liability partnership fails to comply with the requirements of this section, the secretary of state shall cancel the registration.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 26, L. 2011.

35-10-719. Reservation of proposed limited liability partnership name. (1) An authorized person who has not commenced business but intends to commence business may reserve a limited liability partnership name for a term of 120 days by delivering to the secretary of state, on forms furnished by the secretary of state, an application for reservation of a limited liability partnership name.

(2) The proposed limited liability partnership name may not be the same as or indistinguishable on the record from an assumed business name already registered or from any corporate name, limited partnership name, limited liability company name, limited liability partnership name, trademark, or service mark registered or reserved with the secretary of state.

(3) An applicant for a proposed limited liability partnership name may not use a business name identifier that incorrectly states the type of entity that it is or incorrectly implies that it is a type of entity other than the type of entity that it is.

35-10-720. Filing application for reservation of limited liability partnership name — issuance of certificate. (1) A person seeking to reserve a limited liability partnership name shall submit a completed application and all applicable fees to the secretary of state.

(2) The application for a proposed limited liability partnership name must include but is not limited to the following information:

(a) the complete limited liability partnership name to be reserved;

(b) the name and business mailing address of the limited liability partnership;

(c) the date the limited liability partnership intends to commence business; and

(d) a description of business that the limited liability partnership intends to transact.

(3) If the secretary of state finds the application complies with the provisions of this part, the secretary of state shall:

(a) endorse on the application the word "filed" and the date on which the application was filed;

(b) file the application in the secretary of state's office; and

(c) issue a certificate of reservation to the person who submits the application.

History: En. Sec. 27, Ch. 26, L. 2011.

35-10-721. Voluntary cancellation of registration of limited liability partnership. (1) When a limited liability partnership wishes to cancel its registration, two or more partners shall deliver to the secretary of state a cancellation of registration of a limited liability partnership form, which must include but is not limited to the following information:

(a) the complete name of the registered limited liability partnership to be canceled;

(b) the business mailing address of the limited liability partnership; and

(c) the names and business mailing addresses of the partners.

(2) If the secretary of state finds the form complies with the provisions of this section, the secretary of state shall file it and deliver a letter acknowledging cancellation of the registration to the limited liability partnership.

History: En. Sec. 28, Ch. 26, L. 2011; amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 23, L. 2017.

35-10-722. Execution constituting affirmation — penalty — warning. (1) The execution of any document required to be filed with the secretary of state under this part constitutes an affirmation, under the penalties for false swearing, by each person executing the document that the statements in the document are true.

(2) The secretary of state shall provide for the printing of a warning to this effect on each form prescribed by the secretary of state under this part.

History: En. Sec. 29, Ch. 26, L. 2011.

35-10-723. Evidentiary effect of certificates and documents of secretary of state. All certificates issued by the secretary of state in accordance with the provisions of this part and all copies of documents filed in the office of the secretary of state in accordance with the provisions of this part when certified by the secretary of state must be taken and received in all courts, public offices, and official bodies as prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the certificates or documents.

History: En. Sec. 30, Ch. 26, L. 2011.

35-10-724. Effect of transacting business without certificate. A person conducting or transacting business in this state as a limited liability partnership without an effective certificate of registration of a limited liability partnership name or a person having an interest in the limited liability partnership name may not maintain any suit or action in the courts of this state under the name.

History: En. Sec. 31, Ch. 26, L. 2011.

Part 5
General Provisions

Part Cross-References
Foreign limited partnerships, Title 35, ch. 12, part 13.

35-12-501. Short title. This chapter may be cited as the "Uniform Limited Partnership Act".
History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 522, L. 1981.

35-12-502. Construction and application. In applying and construing this chapter, consideration must be given to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.
History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 522, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-504. Definitions. In this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Certificate of limited partnership" means the certificate required by 35-12-601. The term includes the certificate as amended or restated.

(2) "Contribution", except in the phrase "right of contribution", means any benefit provided by a person to a limited partnership in order to become a partner in the person's capacity as a partner.

(3) "Debtor in bankruptcy" means a person that is the subject of:

(a) an order for relief under Title 11 of the United States Code or a comparable order under a successor statute of general application; or

(b) a comparable order under federal, state, or foreign law governing insolvency.

(4) "Designated office" means:

(a) with respect to a limited partnership, the office that the limited partnership is required to designate and maintain under Title 35, chapter 7, part 1; and

(b) with respect to a foreign limited partnership, its principal office.

(5) "Distribution" means a transfer of money or other property from a limited partnership to a partner in the partner's capacity as a partner or to a transferee on account of a transferable interest owned by the transferee.

(6) "Foreign limited liability limited partnership" means a foreign limited partnership whose general partners have limited liability for the obligations of the foreign limited partnership under a provision similar to 35-12-803(3).

(7) "Foreign limited partnership" means a partnership formed under the laws of a jurisdiction other than this state, including the laws of a federally recognized Indian tribe, and required by those laws to have one or more general partners and one or more limited partners. The term includes a foreign limited liability partnership.

(8) "General partner" means:

(a) with respect to a limited partnership, a person that:

(i) becomes a general partner under 35-12-801; or

(ii) was a limited partner in a limited partnership when the limited partnership became subject to this chapter under section 96(1) or (2), Chapter 216, Laws of 2011; and

(b) with respect to a foreign limited partnership, a person that has rights, powers, and obligations similar to those of a limited partner in a limited partnership.

(9) "Limited liability limited partnership", except in the phrase "foreign limited liability limited partnership", means a limited partnership whose certificate of limited partnership states that the limited partnership is a limited liability limited partnership.

(10) "Limited partner" means:

(a) with respect to a limited partnership, a person that:

(i) becomes a limited partner under 35-12-701; or

(ii) was a limited partner in a limited partnership when the limited partnership became subject to this chapter under section 96(1) or (2), Chapter 216, Laws of 2011; and

(b) with respect to a foreign limited partnership, a person that has rights, powers, and obligations similar to those of a limited partner in a limited partnership.

(11) "Limited partnership", except in the phrases "foreign limited partnership" and "foreign limited liability limited partnership", means an entity having one or more general partners and one or more limited partners that is formed under this chapter by two or more persons or becomes subject to this chapter under Title 35, chapter 12, part 15, or section 96(1) or (2), Chapter 216, Laws of 2011. The term includes the agreement as amended.

(12) "Partner" means a limited partner or general partner.

(13) "Partnership agreement" means the partners' agreement, whether oral, implied, in a record, or in any combination, concerning the limited partnership. The term includes the agreement as amended.

(14) "Person" means an individual, corporation, business trust, estate trust, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, government, governmental subdivision, agency or instrumentality, public corporation, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(15) "Person dissociated as a general partner" means a person dissociated as a general partner of a limited partnership.

(16) "Principal office" means the office where the principal executive office of a limited partnership or foreign limited partnership is located, whether or not the office is located in this state.

(17) "Record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

(18) "Required information" means the information that a limited partnership is required to maintain under 35-12-508.

(19) "Sign" means:

(a) to execute or adopt a tangible symbol with the present intent to authenticate a record; or

(b) to attach or logically associate an electronic symbol, sound, or process to or with a record with the present intent to authenticate the record.

(20) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, or any other territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

(21) "Transfer" includes an assignment, conveyance, deed, bill of sale, lease, mortgage, security interest, encumbrance, gift, and transfer by operation of law.

(22) "Transferable interest" means a partner's right to receive distributions.

(23) "Transferee" means a person to which all or part of a transferable interest has been transferred, whether or not the transferor is a partner.

35-12-505. Name. (1) The name of a limited partnership may contain the name of any partner.

(2) The name of each limited partnership that is not a limited liability partnership must contain the phrase "limited partnership" or the abbreviation "l.p." or "lp" and may not contain the phrase "limited liability limited partnership" or the abbreviation "l.l.l.p." or "lllp".

(3) The name of a limited liability limited partnership must contain the phrase "limited liability limited partnership" or the abbreviation "l.l.l.p." or "lllp" and may not contain the abbreviation "l.p."or "lp".

(4) Unless authorized by subsection (5), the name of a limited partnership must be distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from:

(a) the name of each person other than an individual incorporated, organized, or authorized to transact business in this state; and

(b) each name reserved under Title 30, chapter 13, part 2, or 35-12-506.

(5) A limited partnership may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use a name that does not comply with subsection (4). The secretary of state shall authorize use of the name applied for if, as to each conflicting name:

(a) the present user, registrant, or owner of the conflicting name consents in a signed record to the use and submits an undertaking in a form satisfactory to the secretary of state to change the conflicting name to a name that complies with subsection (4) and that is distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from the name applied for;

(b) the applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use in this state the name applied for; or

(c) the applicant delivers to the secretary of state proof satisfactory to the secretary of state that the present user, registrant, or owner of the conflicting name:

(i) has merged into the applicant;

(ii) has been converted into the applicant; or

(iii) has transferred substantially all of its assets, including the conflicting name, to the applicant.

(6) Subject to 35-12-1312, this section applies to any foreign limited partnership transacting business in this state, having a certificate of authority to transact business in this state, or applying for a certificate of authority.

35-12-506. Reservation of name. (1) The exclusive right to the use of a name that complies with 35-12-505 may be reserved by:

(a) any person intending to organize a limited partnership under this chapter and to adopt the name;

(b) a limited partnership or a foreign limited partnership authorized to transact business in this state intending to adopt the name;

(c) a foreign limited partnership intending to obtain a certificate of authority to transact business in this state and adopt the name; and

(d) a person intending to organize a foreign limited partnership and intending to have it obtain a certificate of authority to transact business in this state and adopt the name;

(e) a foreign limited partnership formed under the name; or

(f) a foreign limited partnership formed under a name that does not comply with 35-12-505(2) or (3), but the name reserved under this subsection (1)(f) may differ from the foreign limited partnership's name only to the extent necessary to comply with 35-12-505(2) and (3).

(2) A person may apply to reserve a name under subsection (1) by delivering to the secretary of state for filing an application that states the name to be reserved and the subsection of subsection (1) that applies. If the secretary of state finds that the name is available for use by the applicant, the secretary of state shall file a statement of name reservation and thereby reserve the name for the exclusive use of the applicant for a 120 days.

(3) An applicant that has reserved a name pursuant to subsection (2) may reserve the same name for additional 120-day periods. A person having a current reservation for a name may not apply for another 120-day period for the same name until 90 days have elapsed in the current reservation.

(4) A person that has reserved a name under this section may deliver to the secretary of state for filing a notice of transfer that states the reserved name, the name and street and mailing address of some other person to which the reservation is to be transferred, and the subsection of subsection (1) that applies to the other person. Subject to 35-12-614(3), the transfer is effective when the secretary of state files the notice of transfer.

35-12-508. Required information. A limited partnership shall maintain at its principal office the following information:

(1) a current list showing the full name and last-known street and mailing address of each partner, separately identifying the general partners, in alphabetical order, and the limited partners, in alphabetical order;

(2) a copy of the initial certificate of limited partnership and all amendments to and restatements of the certificate, together with signed copies of any powers of attorney under which any certificate, amendment, or restatement has been signed;

(3) a copy of any filed articles of conversion or merger;

(4) a copy of the limited partnership's federal, state, and local income tax returns and reports, if any, for the 3 most recent years;

(5) a copy of any partnership agreement made in a record and any amendment made in a record to any partnership agreement;

(6) a copy of any financial statement of the limited partnership for the 3 most recent years;

(7) a copy of any record made by the limited partnership during the past 3 years of any consent given by or vote taken of any partner pursuant to this chapter or the partnership agreement; and

(8) unless contained in a partnership agreement made in a record, a record stating:

(a) the amount of cash and a description and statement of the agreed value of the other benefits contributed and agreed to be contributed by each partner;

(b) the times at which or events on the happening of which any additional contributions agreed to be made by each partner are to be made;

(c) for any person that is both a general partner and a limited partner, a specification of what transferable interest the person owns in each capacity; and

(d) any events, upon the happening of which, the limited partnership is to be dissolved and its activities wound up.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 522, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 268, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 66, Ch. 240, L. 2007; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-509. Nature, purpose, and duration of entity. (1) A limited partnership is an entity distinct from its partners' partners. A limited partnership is the same entity regardless of whether its certificate states that the limited partnership is a limited liability limited partnership.

(2) A limited partnership may be organized under this chapter for any lawful purpose.

(3) A limited partnership has a perpetual duration.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 522, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-510. Business transactions of partner with the partnership. A partner may lend money to and transact other business with the limited partnership and has the same rights and obligations with respect to the loan or other transaction as a person that is not a partner.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 522, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-511. Knowledge and notice. (1) A person knows a fact if the person has actual knowledge of it.

(2) A person has notice of a fact if the person:

(a) knows of it;

(b) has received a notification of it;

(c) has reason to know it exists from all of the facts known to the person at the time in question; or

(d) has notice of it under subsection (3) or (4).

(3) A certificate of limited partnership on file in the office of the secretary of state is notice that the partnership is a limited partnership and the persons designated in the certificate as general partners are general partners. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4), the certificate is not notice of any other fact.

(4) A person has notice of:

(a) another person's dissociation as a general partner 90 days after the effective date of an amendment to the certificate of limited partnership that states that the other person has dissociated or 90 days after the effective date of a statement of dissociation pertaining to the other person, whichever occurs first;

(b) a limited partnership's dissolution 90 days after the effective date of an amendment to the certificate of limited partnership stating that the limited partnership is dissolved;

(c) a limited partnership's termination 90 days after the effective date of a statement of termination;

(d) a limited partnership's conversion under Title 35, chapter 12, part 15, 90 days after the effective date of the articles of conversion; or

(e) a merger under Title 35, chapter 12, part 15, 90 days after the effective date of the articles of merger.

(5) A person notifies or gives a notification to another person by taking steps reasonably required to inform the other person in ordinary course, whether or not the other person learns of it.

(6) A person receives a notification when the notification:

(a) comes to the person's attention; or

(b) is delivered at the person's place of business or at any other place held out by the person as a place for receiving communications.

(7) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (8), a person other than an individual knows, has notice, or receives a notification of a fact for purposes of a particular transaction when the individual conducting the transaction for the person knows, has notice, or receives a notification of the fact or in any event when the fact would have been brought to the individual's attention if the person had exercised reasonable diligence. A person, other than an individual, exercises reasonable diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the individual conducting the transaction for the person and there is reasonable compliance with the routines. Reasonable diligence does not require an individual acting for the person to communicate information unless the communication is part of the individual's regular duties or the individual has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.

(8) A general partner's knowledge, notice, or receipt of a notification of a fact relating to the limited partnership is effective immediately as knowledge of, notice to, or receipt of a notification by the limited partnership, except in the case of a fraud on the limited partnership committed by or with the consent of the general partner. A limited partner's knowledge, notice, or receipt of a notification of a fact relating to the limited partnership is not effective as knowledge of, notice to, or receipt of a notification by the limited partnership.

35-12-512. Powers. A limited partnership has the power to do all things necessary or convenient to carry on its activities, including the power to sue, be sued, and defend in its own name and to maintain an action against a partner for harm caused to the limited partnership by a breach of the partnership agreement or violation of a duty to the partnership.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-513. Governing law. The law of this state governs relations among the partners of a limited partnership and between the partners and the limited partnership and the liability of partners as partners for an obligation of the limited partnership.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-514. Supplemental principles of law — rate of interest. (1) Unless displaced by particular provisions of this chapter, the principles of law and equity supplement this chapter.

(2) If an obligation to pay interest arises under this chapter and the rate is not specified, the rate is that specified in 31-1-106.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-515. Effect of partnership agreement — nonwaivable provisions. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2), the partnership agreement governs relations among the partners and between the partners and the partnership. To the extent the partnership agreement does not otherwise provide, this chapter governs relations among the partners and between the partners and the partnership.

(2) A partnership agreement may not:

(a) vary a limited partnership's power under 35-12-512 to sue, be sued, and defend in its own name;

(b) vary the law applicable to a limited partnership under 35-12-513;

(c) vary the requirements of 35-12-604;

(d) vary the information required under 35-12-508 or unreasonably restrict the right to information under 35-12-705 or 35-12-810, but the partnership agreement may impose reasonable restrictions on the availability and use of information obtained under those sections and may define appropriate remedies, including liquidated damages, for a breach of any reasonable restriction on use;

(e) eliminate the duty of loyalty under 35-12-811, but the partnership agreement may:

(i) identify specific types or categories of activities that do not violate the duty of loyalty if not manifestly unreasonable; and

(ii) specify the number or percentage of partners that may authorize or ratify, after full disclosure to all partners of all material facts, a specific act or transaction that would otherwise violate the duty of loyalty;

(f) unreasonably reduce the duty of care under 35-12-811(3);

(g) eliminate the obligation of good faith and fair dealing under 35-12-707(2) and 35-12-811(4), but the partnership agreement may prescribe the standards by which the performance of the obligation is to be measured if the standards are not manifestly unreasonable;

(h) vary the power of a person to dissociate as a general partner under 35-12-1019(1) except to require that the notice under 35-12-1018(1) be in a record;

(i) vary the power of a court to decree dissolution in the circumstances specified in 35-12-1202;

(j) vary the requirement to wind up the partnership's business as specified in 35-12-1205;

(k) unreasonably restrict the right to maintain an action;

(l) restrict the right of a partner under 35-12-1515(1) to approve a conversion or merger or the right of a general partner under 35-12-1515(2) to consent to an amendment to the certificate of limited partnership that deletes a statement that the limited partnership is a limited liability limited partnership; or

(m) restrict rights under this chapter of a person other than a partner or a transferee.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-516. Consent and proxies of partners. Action requiring the consent of partners under this chapter may be taken without a meeting, and a partner may appoint a proxy to consent or otherwise act for the partner by signing an appointment record, either personally or by the partner's attorney-in-fact.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-517 through 35-12-520 reserved.

35-12-521. Secretary of state to establish fees. The secretary of state shall set filing fees for processing the applications and certificates. The secretary of state may establish fees for filing a certificate of limited partnership, a certificate of amendment or restatement, a certificate of cancellation, an application to reserve a name, a notice of transfer of a reserved name, an application for registration of a foreign limited partnership, or a certificate of cancellation or correction of a foreign limited partnership or for filing any other statement or report of a domestic or foreign limited partnership. The fees authorized in this section must be set and deposited in accordance with 2-15-405.

35-12-601. Formation of limited partnership — certificate of limited partnership. (1) In order for a limited partnership to be formed, a certificate of limited partnership must be delivered to the secretary of state for filing. The certificate must state:

(a) the name of the limited partnership, which must comply with 35-12-505;
(b) the information required by 35-7-105(1);
(c) the name and the business mailing address of each general partner;
(d) whether the limited partnership is a limited liability limited partnership; and
(e) additional information required by Title 35, chapter 12, part 15.

(2) A certificate of limited partnership may also contain any other matters but may not vary or otherwise affect the provisions specified in 35-12-515(2) in a manner inconsistent with that section.

(3) If there has been substantial compliance with subsection (1), subject to 35-12-614(3) a limited partnership is formed when the secretary of state files the certificate of limited partnership.

(4) Subject to subsection (2), if any provision of a partnership agreement is inconsistent with the filed certificate of limited partnership or with a filed statement of dissociation, termination, or change or filed articles of conversion or merger:
(a) the partnership agreement prevails as to partners and transferees; and
(b) the filed certificate of limited partnership, statement of dissociation, termination, or change, or articles of conversion or merger prevail as to persons, other than partners and transferees, that reasonably rely on the filed record to their detriment.

35-12-602. Amendments or restatement of certificate. (1) In order to amend its certificate of limited partnership, a limited partnership shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing an amendment or, pursuant to Title 35, chapter 12, part 15, articles of merger stating:
(a) the name of the limited partnership;
(b) the date of filing of its initial certificate; and
(c) the changes the amendment makes to the certificate as most recently amended or restated.

(2) A limited partnership shall promptly deliver to the secretary of state for filing an amendment to a certificate of limited partnership to reflect:
(a) the admission of a new general partner;
(b) the dissociation of a person as a general partner; or
(c) the appointment of a person to wind up the limited partnership's activities under 35-12-1205(3) or (4).

(3) A general partner that knows that any information in a filed certificate of limited partnership was false when the certificate was filed or has become false due to changed circumstances shall promptly:
(a) cause the certificate to be amended; or
(b) if appropriate, deliver to the secretary of state for filing a statement of change pursuant to 35-7-110 or a statement of correction pursuant to 35-12-616.

(4) A certificate of limited partnership may be amended at any time for any other proper purpose as determined by the limited partnership.

(5) A restated certificate of limited partnership may be delivered to the secretary of state for filing in the same manner as an amendment.

(6) Subject to 35-12-614(3), an amendment or restated certificate is effective when filed by the secretary of state.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 522, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 268, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 16, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-603. Statement of cancellation. (1) A dissolved limited partnership that has completed winding up may deliver to the secretary of state for filing a statement of cancellation that states:
(a) the name of the limited partnership;
(b) the date of filing of its certificate of limited partnership; and
(c) the reason for filing the certificate of cancellation;
(d) any other information determined by the general partners filing the statement or by a person appointed pursuant to 35-12-1205(3) or (4).

(2) Cancellation is effective upon filing with the secretary of state.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 522, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 17, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-604. Signing of records. (1) Each record delivered to the secretary of state for filing pursuant to this chapter must be signed in the following manner:

(a) An initial certificate of limited partnership must be signed by all general partners listed in the certificate.

(b) An amendment adding or deleting a statement that the limited partnership is a limited liability limited partnership must be signed by all general partners listed in the certificate.

(c) An amendment designating as general partner a person admitted under 35-12-1201(1)(c)(ii) following the dissociation of a limited partnership's last general partner must be signed by that person.

(d) An amendment required by 35-12-1205(3) following the appointment of a person to wind up the dissolved limited partnership's activities must be signed by that person.

(e) Any other amendment must be signed by:

(i) at least one general partner listed in the certificate;

(ii) every other person designated in the amendment as a new general partner; and

(iii) each person that the amendment indicates has dissociated as a general partner unless:

(A) the person is deceased or a guardian or general conservator has been appointed for the person and the amendment so states; or

(B) the person has previously delivered to the secretary of state for filing a statement of dissociation.

(f) A restated certificate of limited partnership must be signed by at least one general partner listed in the certificate, and to the extent the restated certificate effects a change under any other subsection of this subsection (1), the certificate must be signed in a manner that satisfies that subsection.

(g) A statement of cancellation must be signed by all general partners listed in the certificate or, if the certificate of a dissolved limited partnership lists no general partners, by the person appointed pursuant to 35-12-1205(3) or (4) to wind up the dissolved limited partnership's activities.

(h) Articles of conversion must be signed by each general partner listed in the certificate of limited partnership.

(i) Articles of merger must be signed as provided in 35-12-1513(1).

(j) Any other record delivered on behalf of a limited partnership to the secretary of state for filing must be signed by at least one general partner listed in the certificate.

(k) A statement by a person pursuant to 35-12-1020(1)(d) stating that the person has dissociated as a general partner must be signed by that person.

(l) A statement of withdrawal by a person pursuant to 35-12-704 must be signed by that person.

(m) A record delivered on behalf of a foreign limited partnership to the secretary of state for filing must be signed by at least one general partner of the foreign limited partnership.

(n) Any other record delivered on behalf of any person to the secretary of state for filing must be signed by that person.

(2) Any person may sign by an attorney-in-fact any record filed pursuant to this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 522, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 268, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 18, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-605. Signing and filing pursuant to judicial order. (1) If a person required by this chapter to sign a record or deliver a record to the secretary of state for filing does not do so, any other person that is aggrieved may petition the district court to order:

(a) the person to sign the record;

(b) the person to deliver the record to the secretary of state for filing; or

(c) the secretary of state to file the record unsigned.

(2) If the person aggrieved under subsection (1) is not the limited partnership or foreign limited partnership to which the record pertains, the aggrieved person shall make the limited partnership or foreign limited partnership a party to the action. A person aggrieved under subsection (1) may seek the remedies provided in subsection (1) in the same action in combination or in the alternative.

(3) A record filed unsigned pursuant to this section is effective without being signed.

35-12-607. Liability for false statement in certificate. (1) If a record delivered to the secretary of state for filing under this chapter and filed by the secretary of state contains false information, any person that suffers loss by reliance on the information may recover damages for the loss from:

(a) a person that signed the record or caused another to sign it on the person's behalf and knew the information to be false at the time the record was signed; and

(b) a general partner that has notice that the information was false when the record was filed or has become false because of changed circumstances if the general partner has notice for a reasonably sufficient time before the information is relied upon to enable the general partner to effect an amendment under 35-12-602, file a petition pursuant to 35-12-605, or deliver to the secretary of state for filing a statement of change pursuant to 35-7-108 or a statement of correction pursuant to 35-12-616.

(2) Signing a record authorized or required to be filed under this chapter constitutes an affirmation under the penalties of perjury that the facts stated in the record are true.

35-12-610. Term and renewal of certification. (1) Certification of a limited partnership or a certificate of authority of a foreign limited partnership is effective for a term of 5 years from the date of filing or renewal of certification or the date of issuance of a certificate. Upon application for renewal of certification on forms furnished by the secretary of state, the certification may be renewed for another 5-year term.

(2) Not less than 90 days before the expiration date of certification of a limited partnership, the secretary of state shall notify the listed general partner or partners or specified agent of the pending expiration by addressing a notice to the last-known address of the general partner or partners or specified agent.

(3) If the general partner or partners or specified agent fails to file an application for renewal with the secretary of state within a 90-day period prior to the expiration date of the certification, the secretary of state shall cancel the certification.

(4) A registration in force on July 1, 1991, expires 5 years from the date of the filing of certification or on July 1, 1992, whichever is later, if renewal of the certification is not effected in the manner provided for in 35-12-610 through 35-12-613.

(5) A certificate of authority in force on July 1, 2011, expires 5 years from the date it was filed or on July 1, 2012, whichever is later, if renewal of certification of authority is not affected as provided in 35-12-610 or 35-12-618.

35-12-611. Application for renewal of certification. The application for renewal of certification of a limited partnership must be executed and delivered to the secretary of state. The application must include but is not limited to the information required by 35-12-601.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 533, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 15, Ch. 268, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 19, Ch. 75, L. 2003.

35-12-612. Filing of application for renewal of certification — issuance of certificate. (1) If the secretary of state finds that the application for renewal of certification of a limited partnership complies with the provisions of this part, the secretary of state shall, when all fees have been paid as provided by rule:

(a) endorse on the application the word "filed" and the month, day, and year of filing;

(b) file the original; and

(c) issue a certification letter.

(2) The secretary of state shall return to the general partner or partners submitting the application the certification letter.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 533, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 20, Ch. 75, L. 2003.

35-12-613. Involuntary cancellation of certificate. For a certificate filed prior to July 1, 1991, the secretary of state shall cancel the certificate of limited partnership after July 1, 1992, if the certification is more than 5 years old and not renewed in accordance with this part.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 533, L. 1991.

35-12-614. Delivery to and filing of records by secretary of state — effective time and date. (1) A record authorized or required to be delivered to the secretary of state for filing under this chapter must be captioned to describe the record's purpose, be in a medium permitted by the secretary of state, and be delivered to the secretary of state. Unless the secretary of state determines that a record does not comply with the filing requirements of this chapter, if all filing fees have been paid, the secretary of state shall file the record and upon request and payment of a fee:

(a) for a statement of dissociation, send:

(i) a copy of the filed statement to the person that the statement indicates has dissociated as a general partner; and

(ii) a copy of the filed statement to the limited partnership;

(b) for a statement of withdrawal, send:

(i) a copy of the filed statement to the person on whose behalf the record was filed; and

(ii) if the statement refers to an existing limited partnership, a copy of the filed statement to the limited partnership; and

(c) for all other records, send a copy of the filed record to the person on whose behalf the record was filed.

(2) Upon request and payment of a fee, the secretary of state shall send to the requester a certified copy of the requested record.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in 35-7-111 and 35-12-616, a record delivered to the secretary of state for filing under this chapter may specify an effective time and a delayed effective date. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a record filed by the secretary of state is effective:

(a) if the record does not specify an effective time and does not specify a delayed effective date, on the date and at the time the record is filed as evidenced by the secretary of state's endorsement of the date and time on the record;

(b) if the record specifies an effective time but not a delayed effective date, on the date the record is filed at the time specified in the record;

(c) if the record specifies a delayed effective date but not an effective time, at 12:01 a.m. on the earlier of:

(i) the specified date; or

(ii) the 90th day after the record is filed; or

(d) if the record specifies an effective time and a delayed effective date, at the specified time on the earlier of:

(i) the specified date; or

(ii) the 90th day after the record is filed.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-615. Filing of facsimile copy. (1) The secretary of state may treat a facsimile copy of a document that is required to be filed under this chapter and the signatures on the facsimile copy in the same manner as an original for purposes of this chapter. If all other requirements are met, the date of filing relates back to the date of receipt of the facsimile copy.

(2) A person who files a false document by facsimile copy is liable to the party aggrieved for three times the amount of damages resulting from the filing of the false document.

35-12-616. Correcting filed record. (1) A limited partnership or foreign limited partnership may deliver to the secretary of state for filing a statement of correction to correct a record previously delivered by the limited partnership or foreign limited partnership to the secretary of state and filed by the secretary of state if at the time of filing the record contained false or erroneous information or was defectively signed.

(2) A statement of correction may not state a delayed effective date and must:

(a) describe the record to be corrected, including its filing date, or attach a copy of the record as filed;

(b) specify the incorrect information and the reason it is incorrect or the manner in which the signing was defective; and

(c) correct the incorrect information or defective signature.

(3) When filed by the secretary of state, a statement of correction is effective retroactively as of the effective date of the record the statement corrects, but the statement is effective when filed:

(a) for the purposes of 35-12-511(3) and (4); and

(b) as to persons relying on the uncorrected record and adversely affected by the correction.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-617. Certificate of fact. (1) The secretary of state, upon request and payment of the requisite fee, shall furnish a certificate of fact for a limited partnership if the records filed in the office of the secretary of state show that the secretary of state has filed a certificate of limited partnership and whether a statement of cancellation has been filed. A certificate of fact must state:

(a) the limited partnership's name;

(b) that it was duly formed under the laws of this state and the date of formation;

(c) whether the secretary of state has administratively dissolved the limited partnership;

(d) whether the limited partnership's certificate of limited partnership has been amended to state that the limited partnership is dissolved;

(e) whether a statement of cancellation been filed by the secretary of state; and

(f) other facts of record in the office of the secretary of state that may be requested by the applicant.

(2) The secretary of state, upon request and payment of the requisite fee, shall furnish a certificate of fact for a foreign limited partnership if the records filed in the office of the secretary of state show that the secretary of state has filed a certificate of authority, whether the certificate of authority was revoked, and whether a notice of cancellation was filed. A certificate of fact must state:

(a) the foreign limited partnership's name and any alternate name adopted under 35-12-1312(1) for use in this state;

(b) that it is authorized to transact business in this state;

(c) whether the secretary of state has revoked its certificate of authority and whether a notice of cancellation has been filed; and

(d) other facts of record in the office of the secretary of state that may be requested by the applicant.

(3) Subject to any qualification stated in the certificate, a certificate of fact or authorization issued by the secretary of state may be relied upon as conclusive evidence that the limited partnership or foreign limited partnership is in existence or is authorized to transact business in this state.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-618. Application for renewal of foreign limited partnership certificate of authority — requirements for appointed registered agent. (1) The application for renewal of a certificate of authority of a foreign limited partnership must be executed by the general partners and delivered to the secretary of state.

(2) The application must include the following information:

(a) the name of the foreign limited partnership or the fictitious name adopted by a foreign limited partnership authorized to transact business in this state because its real name is unavailable;

(b) the information required under 35-7-105; and

(c) the name and business mailing address of each general partner.

35-12-619 reserved.

35-12-620. Reinstatement following cancellation for failure to renew. (1) If a certificate of limited partnership was canceled under 35-12-610 for failure to renew, an application for reinstatement of the original certificate may be made to the secretary of state within 5 years after the effective date of the cancellation.

(2) The application must:

(a) state the name of the limited partnership and the date its certificate of limited partnership was canceled;

(b) state that the limited partnership's name satisfies the requirements of 35-12-505; and

(c) include the information required in 35-12-601.

(3) If the secretary of state determines that the information provided is sufficient and correct, the secretary of state shall reinstate the certificate of limited partnership and send confirmation to the limited partnership.

(4) When reinstated under this section, the certificate of limited partnership becomes effective as if it had not been canceled.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 75, L. 2003.

Part 7
Limited Partners

35-12-701. Becoming limited partner. A person becomes a limited partner:

(1) as provided in the partnership agreement;

(2) as the result of a conversion or merger under Title 35, chapter 12, part 15; or

(3) with the consent of all the partners.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 522, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 16, Ch. 268, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 26, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2), a person that makes an investment in a business enterprise and erroneously but in good faith believes that the person has become a limited partner in the enterprise is not liable for the obligations by reason of making the investment, receiving distributions from the enterprise, or exercising any rights of or appropriate to a limited partner if, on ascertaining the mistake, the person:

(a) causes an appropriate certificate of limited partnership, amendment, or statement of correction to be signed and delivered to the secretary of state for filing; or

(b) withdraws from future participation as an owner in the enterprise by executing and delivering to the secretary of state for filing a statement of withdrawal under this section.

(2) A person that makes an investment described in subsection (1) is liable to the same extent as a general partner to any third party that enters into a transaction with the enterprise, believing in good faith that the person is a general partner, before the the secretary of state files a statement of withdrawal, certificate of limited partnership, amendment, or statement of conversion to show that the person is not a general partner.

(3) If a person makes a diligent effort in good faith to comply with subsection (1)(a) and is unable to cause the appropriate certificate of limited partnership, amendment, or statement of correction to be signed and delivered to the secretary of state for filing, the person has the right to withdraw from the enterprise pursuant to subsection (1)(b) even if the withdrawal would otherwise breach an agreement with others that are or have agreed to become co-owners of the enterprise.

35-12-705. Right of limited partner and former limited partner to information. (1) On 10 days' demand, made in a record received by the limited partnership, a limited partner may inspect and copy required information during regular business hours in the limited partnership's principal office. The limited partner need not have any particular purpose for seeking the information.

(2) During regular business hours and at a reasonable location specified by the limited partnership, a limited partner may obtain from the limited partnership and inspect and copy true and full information regarding the state of the activities and financial condition of the limited partnership and other information regarding the activities of the limited partnership as is just and reasonable if:

(a) the limited partner seeks the information for a purpose reasonably related to the partner's interest as a limited partner;

(b) the limited partner makes a demand in a record received by the limited partnership, describing with reasonable particularity the information sought and the purpose for seeking the information; and

(c) the information sought is directly connected to the limited partner's purpose.

(3) Within 10 days after receiving a demand pursuant to subsection (2), the limited partnership in a record shall inform the limited partner that made the demand:

(a) the information that the limited partnership will provide in response to the demand;

(b) when and where the limited partnership will provide the information; and

(c) if the limited partnership declines to provide any demanded information, the limited partnership's reasons for declining.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), a person dissociated as a limited partner may inspect and copy required information during regular business hours in the limited partnership's principal office if:

(a) the information pertains to the period during which the person was a limited partner;

(b) the person seeks the information in good faith; and

(c) the person meets the requirements of subsection (2).

(5) The limited partnership shall respond to a demand made pursuant to subsection (4) in the same manner as provided in subsection (3).

(6) If a limited partner dies, 35-12-1105 applies.

(7) The limited partnership may impose reasonable restrictions on the use of information obtained under this section. In a dispute concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the limited partnership has the burden of proving reasonableness.

(8) A limited partnership may charge a person that makes a demand under this section reasonable costs of copying, limited to the costs of labor and material.

(9) Whenever this chapter or a partnership agreement provides for a limited partner to give or withhold consent to a matter, before the consent is given or withheld, the limited partnership shall, without demand, provide the limited partner with all information material to the limited partner's decision that the limited partnership knows.

(10) A limited partner or person dissociated as a limited partner may exercise the rights under this section through an attorney or other agent. Any restriction imposed under subsection (7) or by the partnership agreement applies both to the attorney or other agent and to the limited partner or person dissociated as a limited partner.

(11) The rights stated in this section do not extend to a person as transferee, but may be exercised by the legal representative of an individual under legal disability who is a limited partner or person dissociated as a limited partner.

35-12-706. No right or power as limited partner to bind limited partnership. A limited partner does not have the right or the power as a limited partner to act for or bind the limited partnership.

35-12-707. Limited duties of limited partners. (1) A limited partner does not have any fiduciary duty to the limited partnership or to any other partner solely by reason of being a limited partner.

(2) A limited partner shall discharge the duties to the partnership and the other partners under this chapter or under the partnership agreement and exercise any rights consistently with the obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

(3) A limited partner does not violate a duty or obligation under this chapter or under the partnership agreement merely because the limited partner's conduct furthers the limited partner's own interest.

Part 8
General Partners

35-12-801. Becoming partner. A person becomes a general partner:

(1) as provided in the partnership agreement;

(2) under 35-12-1201(1)(c)(ii) following the dissociation of a limited partnership's last general partner;

(3) as the result of a conversion or merger under Title 35, chapter 12, part 15; or

(4) with the consent of all the partners.

History: En. Sec. 26, Ch. 522, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 20, Ch. 268, L. 1997.

35-12-803. General partner's liabilities. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (2) and (3), all general partners are liable jointly and severally for all obligations of the limited partnership unless otherwise agreed by the claimant or provided by law.

(2) A person that becomes a general partner of an existing limited partnership is not personally liable for an obligation of a limited partnership incurred before the person became a general partner.

(3) An obligation of a limited partnership incurred while the limited partnership is a limited liability limited partnership, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, is solely the obligation of the limited partnership. A general partner is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by way of contribution or otherwise, for an obligation solely by reason of being or acting as a general partner. This subsection applies despite anything inconsistent in the partnership agreement that existed immediately before the consent required to become a limited liability limited partnership under 35-12-809(2)(b).

35-12-806. General partner as agent of limited partnership. (1) Each general partner is an agent of the limited partnership for the purposes of its activities. An act of a general partner, including the signing of a record in the partnership's name, for apparently carrying on in the ordinary course the limited partnership's activities or activities of the kind carried on by the limited partnership binds the limited partnership unless the general partner did not have authority to act for the limited partnership in the particular matter and the person with which the general partner was dealing knew, had received a notification, or had notice under 35-12-511(4) that the general partner lacked authority.

(2) An act of a general partner that is not apparently for carrying on in the ordinary course the limited partnership's activities or activities of the kind carried on by the limited partnership binds the limited partnership only if the act was actually authorized by all the other partners.

35-12-807. Limited partnership liable for general partner's actionable conduct. (1) A limited partnership is liable for loss or injury caused to a person or for a penalty incurred as a result of a wrongful act or omission or other actionable conduct of a general partner acting in the ordinary course of activities of the limited partnership or with authority of the limited partnership.

(2) If in the course of the limited partnership's activities or while acting with authority of the limited partnership a general partner receives or causes the limited partnership to receive money or property of a person not a partner and the money or property is misapplied by a general partner, the limited partnership is liable for the loss.

35-12-808. Actions by and against partnership and partners. (1) To the extent not inconsistent with 35-12-803, a general partner may be joined in an action against the limited partnership or named in a separate action.

(2) A judgment against a limited partnership is not by itself a judgment against a general partner. A judgment against a limited partnership may not be satisfied from a general partner's assets unless there is also a judgment against the general partner.

(3) A judgment creditor of a general partner may not levy execution against the assets of the general partner to satisfy a judgment based on a claim against the limited partnership unless the partner is personally liable for the claim under 35-12-803 and:

(a) a judgment based on the same claim has been obtained against the limited partnership and a writ of execution on the judgment has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part;

(b) the limited partnership is a debtor in bankruptcy;

(c) the general partner has agreed that the creditor need not exhaust limited partnership assets;

(d) a court grants permission to the judgment creditor to levy execution against the assets of a general partner based on a finding that limited partnership assets subject to execution are clearly insufficient to satisfy the judgment, that exhaustion of limited partnership assets is excessively burdensome, or that the grant of permission is an appropriate exercise of the court's equitable powers; or

(e) liability is imposed on the general partner by law or contract independent of the existence of the limited partnership.

History: En. Sec. 36, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-809. Management rights of general partner. (1) Each general partner has equal rights in the management and conduct of the limited partnership's activities. Except as expressly provided in this chapter, any matter relating to the activities of the limited partnership may be exclusively decided by the general partner or, if there is more than one general partner, by a majority of the general partners.

(2) The consent of each partner is necessary to:

(a) amend the partnership agreement;

(b) amend the certificate of limited partnership to add or, subject to 35-12-1515, delete a statement that the limited partnership is a limited liability limited partnership; and

(c) sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of the limited partnership's property, with or without the good will, other than in the usual and regular course of the limited partnership's activities.

(3) A limited partnership shall reimburse a general partner for payments made and indemnify a general partner for liabilities incurred by the general partner in the ordinary course of the activities of the partnership or for the preservation of its activities or property.

(4) A limited partnership shall reimburse a general partner for an advance to the limited partnership beyond the amount of capital the general partner agreed to contribute.

(5) A payment or advance made by a general partner that gives rise to an obligation of the limited partnership under subsection (3) or (4) constitutes a loan to the limited partnership that accrues interest from the date of the payment or advance.

(6) A general partner is not entitled to remuneration for services performed for the partnership.

History: En. Sec. 37, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-810. Right of general partner and former general partner to information. (1) A general partner, without having any particular purpose for seeking the information, may inspect and copy during regular business hours:

(a) in the limited partnership's principal office, required information; and

(b) at a reasonable location specified by the limited partnership, any other records maintained by the limited partnership regarding the limited partnership's activities and financial condition.

(2) Each general partner and the limited partnership shall furnish to a general partner:

(a) without demand, any information concerning the limited partnership's activities and activities reasonably required for the proper exercise of the general partner's rights and duties under the partnership agreement or this chapter; and

(b) on demand, any other information concerning the limited partnership's activities, except to the extent the demand or the information demanded is unreasonable or otherwise improper under the circumstances.

(3) Subject to subsection (5), on 10 days' demand made in a record received by the limited partnership, a person dissociated as a general partner may have access to the information and records described in subsection (1) at the location specified in subsection (1) if:

(a) the information or record pertains to the period during which the person was a general partner;

(b) the person seeks the information or record in good faith; and

(c) the person satisfies the requirements imposed on a limited partner by 35-12-705(2).

(4) The limited partnership shall respond to a demand made pursuant to subsection (3) in the same manner as provided in 35-12-705(3).

(5) If a general partner dies, 35-12-1105 applies.

(6) The limited partnership may impose reasonable restrictions on the use of information under this section. In any dispute concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the limited partnership has the burden of proving reasonableness.

(7) A limited partnership may charge a person dissociated as a general partner that makes a demand under this section reasonable costs of copying, limited to the costs of labor and material.

(8) A general partner or person dissociated as a general partner may exercise the rights under this section through an attorney or other agent. Any restriction imposed under subsection (6) or by the partnership agreement applies both to the attorney or other agent and to the general partner or person dissociated as a general partner.

(9) The rights under this section do not extend to a person as transferee, but the rights under subsection (3) of a person dissociated as a general may be exercised by the legal representative of an individual who dissociated as a general partner under 35-12-1018(7)(b) or (7)(c).

History: En. Sec. 38, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-811. General standards of general partner's conduct. (1) The only fiduciary duties that a general partner has to the limited partnership and the other partners are the duties of loyalty and care under subsections (2) and (3).

(2) A general partner's duty of loyalty to the limited partnership and the other partners is limited to the following:

(a) to account to the limited partnership and hold as trustee for it any property, profit, or benefit derived by the general partner in the conduct and winding up of the limited partnership's activities or derived from a use by the general partner of limited partnership property, including the appropriation of a limited partnership opportunity;

(b) to refrain from dealing with the limited partnership in the conduct or winding up of the limited partnership's activities as or on behalf of a party having an interest adverse to the limited partnership; and

(c) to refrain from competing with the limited partnership in the conduct or winding up of the limited partnership's activities.

(3) A general partner's duty of care to the limited partnership and the other partners in the conduct and winding up of the limited partnership's activities is limited to refraining from engaging in grossly negligent or reckless conduct, intentional misconduct, or a knowing violation of law.

(4) A general partner shall discharge the duties to the partnership and the other partners under this chapter or under the partnership agreement and exercise any rights consistently with the obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

(5) A general partner does not violate a duty or obligation under this chapter or under the partnership agreement merely because the general partner's conduct furthers the general partner's own interest.

History: En. Sec. 39, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

Part 9
Finance

35-12-901. Form of contributions. A contribution of a partner consist of tangible or intangible property or other benefit to the limited partnership, including money, services performed, promissory notes, other agreements to contribute cash or property, and contracts for services to be performed.

History: En. Sec. 30, Ch. 522, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 40, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-902. Liability for contributions. (1) A partner's obligation to contribute money or other property or other benefit or to perform services for a limited partnership is not excused by the partner's disability, death, or other inability to perform personally.

(2) If a partner does not make a promised nonmonetary contribution, the partner is obligated at the option of the limited partnership to contribute money equal to that portion of the value, as stated in the required information, of the stated contribution that has not been made.

(3) The obligation of a partner to make a contribution or return money or other property paid or distributed in violation of this chapter may be compromised only by consent of all of the partners. A creditor of a limited partnership that extends credit or otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described in subsection (1), without notice of any compromise under this subsection, may enforce the original obligation.

A contribution of a partner may consist of tangible or intangible property or other benefit to the limited partnership, including money, services performed, promissory notes, other agreements to contribute cash or property, and contracts for services to be performed.

History: En. Sec. 42, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

Part 10
Distribution and Dissociation

35-12-1001. Interim distributions. A partner does not have a right to any distribution before the dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership unless the limited partnership decides to make an interim distribution.

History: En. Sec. 37, Ch. 522, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 26, Ch. 268, L. 1997.

35-12-1005. Distributions in kind. A partner does not have a right to demand or receive any distribution from a limited partnership in any form other than cash. Subject to 35-12-1216(2), a limited partnership may distribute an asset in kind to the extent that each partner receives a percentage of the asset equal to the partner's share of distributions.

History: En. Sec. 38, Ch. 522, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 27, Ch. 268, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 45, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1006. Right to distributions. When a partner or transferee becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the partner or transferee has the status of and is entitled to all of the remedies available to a creditor of the limited partnership with respect to the distribution. However, the limited partnership's obligation to make a distribution is subject to offset for any amount owed to the limited partnership by the partner or dissociated partner on whose account the distribution is made.

35-12-1009. No distribution on account of dissociation. A person does not have a right to receive a distribution on account of dissociation.

History: En. Sec. 44, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1010. Limitations on distribution. (1) A limited partnership may not make a distribution in violation of the partnership agreement.

(2) A limited partnership may not make a distribution if after the distribution:

(a) the limited partnership would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of the limited partnership's activities; or

(b) the limited partnership's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the limited partnership were to be dissolved, wound up, and terminated at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution, winding up, and termination of partners whose preferential rights are superior to those of persons receiving the distribution.

(3) A limited partnership may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (2) on financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair valuation or other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (7), the effect of a distribution under subsection (2) is measured:

(a) in the case of distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of a transferable interest in the limited partnership, as of the date money or other property is transferred or debt is incurred by the limited partnership; and

(b) in all other cases, as of the date:

(i) the distribution is authorized if the payment occurs within 120 days after that date; or

(ii) the payment is made if payment occurs more than 120 days after the distribution is authorized.

(5) A limited partnership's indebtedness to a partner incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity with the limited partnership's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors.

(6) A limited partnership's indebtedness, including indebtedness issued in connection with or as part of a distribution, is not considered a liability for purposes of subsection (2) if the terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and interest are made only to the extent that a distribution could then be made to partners under this section.

(7) If indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest on the indebtedness is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is made.

35-12-1011. Liability for improper distributions. (1) A general partner that consents to a distribution made in violation of 35-12-1010 is personally liable to the limited partnership for the amount of the distribution that exceeds the amount that could have been distributed without the violation if it is established that in consenting to the distribution the general partner failed to comply with 35-12-811.

(2) A partner or transferee that received a distribution knowing that the distribution to that partner or transferee was made in violation of 35-12-1010 is personally liable to the limited partnership but only to the extent that the distribution received by the partner or transferee exceeded the amount that could have been properly paid under 35-12-1010.

(3) A general partner against which an action is commenced under subsection (1) may:

(a) implead in the action any other person that is liable under subsection (1) and compel contribution from the person; and

(b) implead in the action any person that received a distribution in violation of subsection (2) and compel contribution from the person in the amount the person received in violation of subsection (2).

(4) An action under this section is barred if it is not commenced within 2 years after the distribution.

History: En. Sec. 48, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1012 through 35-12-1015 reserved.

35-12-1016. Dissociation as limited partner. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a person does not have a right to dissociate as a limited partner before the termination of the limited partnership.

(2) A person is dissociated from a limited partnership as a limited partner upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(a) the limited partnership's having notice of the person's express will to withdraw as a limited partner or on a later date specified by the person;

(b) an event agreed to in the partnership agreement as causing the person's dissociation as a limited partner;

(c) the person's expulsion as a limited partner pursuant to the partnership agreement;

(d) the person's expulsion as a limited partner by the unanimous consent of the other partners if:

(i) it is unlawful to carry on the limited partnership's activities with the person as a limited partner;

(ii) there has been a transfer of all of the person's transferable interest in the limited partnership, other than a transfer for security purposes, or a court order charging the person's interest, which has not been foreclosed;

(iii) the person is a corporation and, within 90 days after the limited partnership notifies the person that it will be expelled as a limited partner because it has filed a certificate of dissolution or the equivalent, its charter has been revoked, or its right to conduct business has been suspended by the jurisdiction of its incorporation, there is no revocation of the certificate of dissolution or no reinstatement of its charter or its right to conduct business; or

(iv) the person is a limited liability company or partnership that has been dissolved and whose business is being wound up;

(e) on application by the limited partnership, the person's expulsion as a limited partner by judicial order because:

(i) the person engaged in wrongful conduct that adversely and materially affected the limited partnership's activities;

(ii) the person willfully or persistently committed a material breach of the partnership agreement or of the obligation of good faith and fair dealing under 35-12-707(2); or

(iii) the person engaged in conduct relating to the limited partnership's activities that makes it not reasonably practicable to carry on the activities with the person as a limited partner;

(f) in the case of a person who is an individual, the person's death;

(g) in the case of a person that is a trust or is acting as a limited partner by virtue of being a trustee of a trust, distribution of the trust's entire transferable interest in the limited partnership, but not merely by reason of the substitution of a successor trustee;

(h) in the case of a person that is an estate or is acting as a limited partner by virtue of being a personal representative of an estate, distribution of the estate's entire transferable interest in the limited partnership, but not merely by reason of the substitution of a successor personal representative;

(i) termination of a limited partner that is not an individual, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, trust, or estate;

(j) the limited partnership's participation in a conversion or merger under Title 35, chapter 12, part 15, if the limited partnership:

(i) is not the converted or surviving entity; or

(ii) is the converted or surviving entity but, as a result of the conversion or merger, the person ceases to be a limited partner.

History: En. Sec. 49, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1017. Effect of dissociation as limited partner. (1) Upon a person's dissociation as a limited partner:

(a) subject to 35-12-1105, the person does not have further rights as a limited partner;

(b) the person's obligation of good faith and fair dealing as a limited partner under 35-12-707(2) continues only as to matters arising and events occurring before the dissociation; and

(c) subject to 35-12-1105 and Title 35, chapter 12, part 15, any transferable interest owned by the person in the person's capacity as a limited partner immediately before dissociation is owned by the person as a mere transferee.

(2) A person's dissociation as a limited partner does not of itself discharge the person from any obligation to the limited partnership or the other partners that the person incurred while a limited partner.

History: En. Sec. 50, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1018. Dissociation as general partner. A person is dissociated from a limited partnership as a general partner upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(1) the limited partnership's having notice of the person's express will to withdraw as a general partner or on a later date specified by the person;

(2) an event agreed to in the partnership agreement as causing the person's dissociation as a general partner;

(3) the person's expulsion as a general partner pursuant to the partnership agreement;

(4) the person's expulsion as a general partner by the unanimous consent of the other partners if:

(a) it is unlawful to carry on the limited partnership's activities with the person as a general partner;

(b) there has been a transfer of all or substantially all of the person's transferable interest in the limited partnership, other than a transfer for security purposes, or a court order charging the person's interest, which has not been foreclosed;

(c) the person is a corporation and, within 90 days after the limited partnership notifies the person that it will be expelled as a general partner because it has filed a certificate of dissolution or the equivalent, its charter has been revoked, or its right to conduct business has been suspended by the jurisdiction of its incorporation, there is no revocation of the certificate of dissolution or no reinstatement of its charter or its right to conduct business; or

(d) the person is a limited liability company or partnership that has been dissolved and whose business is being wound up;

(5) on application by the limited partnership, the person's expulsion as a general partner by judicial determination because:

(a) the person engaged in wrongful conduct that adversely and materially affected the limited partnership activities;

(b) the person willfully or persistently committed a material breach of the partnership agreement or of a duty owed to the partnership or the other partners under 35-12-811; or

(c) the person engaged in conduct relating to the limited partnership's activities that makes it not reasonably practicable to carry on the activities of the limited partnership with the person as a general partner;

(6) the person's:

(a) becoming a debtor in bankruptcy;

(b) execution of an assignment for the benefit of creditors;

(c) seeking, consenting to, or acquiescing in the appointment of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of the person or of all or substantially all of the person's property; or

(d) failure, within 90 days after the appointment, to have vacated or stayed the appointment of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of the general partner or of all or substantially all of the person's property obtained without the person's consent or acquiescence or failing within 90 days after the expiration of a stay to have the appointment vacated;

(7) in the case of a person who is an individual:

(a) the person's death;

(b) the appointment of a guardian or general conservator for the person; or

(c) a judicial determination that the person has otherwise become incapable of performing the person's duties as a general partner under the partnership agreement;

(8) in the case of a person that is a trust or is acting as a general partner by virtue of being a trustee of a trust, distribution of the trust's entire transferable interest in the limited partnership, but not merely by reason of the substitution of a successor trustee;

(9) in the case of a person that is an estate or is acting as a general partner by virtue of being a personal representative of an estate, distribution of the estate's entire transferable interest in the limited partnership, but not merely by reason of the substitution of a successor personal representative;

(10) termination of a general partner that is not an individual, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, trust, or estate; or

(11) the limited partnership's participation in a conversion or merger under Title 35, chapter 12, part 15, if the limited partnership:

(a) is not the converted or surviving entity; or

(b) is the converted or surviving entity but, as a result of the conversion or merger, the person ceases to be a general partner.

History: En. Sec. 51, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1019. Person's power to dissociate as general partner — wrongful dissociation. (1) A person has the power to dissociate as a general partner at any time, rightfully or wrongfully, by express will pursuant to 35-12-1018(1).

(2) A person's dissociation as a general partner is wrongful only if:

(a) it is in breach of an express provision of the partnership agreement; or

(b) it occurs before the termination of the limited partnership and:

(i) the person withdraws as a general partner by express will;

(ii) the person is expelled as a general partner by judicial determination under 35-12-1018(5);

(iii) the person is dissociated as a general partner by becoming a debtor in bankruptcy; or

(iv) in the case of a person that is not an individual, trust other than a business trust, or estate, the person is expelled or otherwise dissociated as a general partner because it willfully dissolved or terminated.

(3) A person that wrongfully dissociates as a general partner is liable to the limited partnership and, subject to 35-12-1405, to the other partners for damages caused by the dissociation. The liability is in addition to any other obligation of the general partner to the limited partnership or to the other partners.

History: En. Sec. 52, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1020. Effect of dissociation as general partner. (1) Upon a person's dissociation as a general partner:

(a) the person's right to participate as a general partner in the management and conduct of the partnership's activities terminates;

(b) the person's duty of loyalty as a general partner under 35-12-811(2)(c) terminates;

(c) the person's duty of loyalty as a general partner under 35-12-811(2)(a) and (2)(b) and duty of care under 35-12-811(3) continue only with regard to matters arising and events occurring before the person's dissociation as a general partner;

(d) the person may sign and deliver to the secretary of state for filing a statement of dissociation pertaining to the person and, at the request of the limited partnership, shall sign an amendment to the certificate of limited partnership that states that the person has dissociated; and

(e) subject to 35-12-1105 and Title 35, chapter 12, part 15, any transferable interest owned by the person immediately before dissociation in the person's capacity as a general partner is owned by the person as a mere transferee.

(2) A person's dissociation as a general partner does not of itself discharge the person from any obligation to the limited partnership or the other partners that the person incurred while a general partner.

History: En. Sec. 53, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1021. Power to bind and liability to limited partnership before dissolution of partnership of person dissociated as general partner. (1) After a person is dissociated as a general partner and before the limited partnership is dissolved, converted under Title 35, chapter 12, part 15, or merged out of existence under Title 35, chapter 12, part 15, the limited partnership is bound by an act of the person only if:

(a) the act would have bound the limited partnership under 35-12-806 before the dissociation; and

(b) at the time the other party enters into the transaction:

(i) less than 2 years has passed since the dissociation; and

(ii) the other party does not have notice of the dissociation and reasonably believes that the person is a general partner.

(2) If a limited partnership is bound under subsection (1), the person dissociated as a general partner that caused the limited partnership to be bound is liable:

(a) to the limited partnership for any damage caused to the limited partnership arising from the obligation incurred under subsection (1); and

(b) if a general partner or another person dissociated as a general partner is liable for the obligation, to the general partner or other person for any damage caused to the general partner or other person arising from the liability.

History: En. Sec. 54, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1022. Liability to other persons of person dissociated as general partner. (1) A person's dissociation as a general partner does not of itself discharge the person's liability as a general partner for an obligation of the limited partnership incurred before dissociation. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (2) and (3), the person is not liable for a limited partnership's obligation incurred after dissociation.

(2) A person whose dissociation as a general partner resulted in a dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership's activities is liable to the same extent as a general partner under 35-12-803 on an obligation incurred by the limited partnership under 35-12-1211.

(3) A person that has dissociated as a general partner but whose dissociation did not result in a dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership's activities is liable on a transaction entered into by the limited partnership after the dissociation only if:

(a) a general partner would be liable on the transaction; and

(b) at the time the other party enters into the transaction:

(i) less than 2 years has passed since the dissociation; and

(ii) the other party does not have notice of the dissociation and reasonably believes that the person is a general partner.

(4) By agreement with a creditor of a limited partnership and the limited partnership, a person dissociated as a general partner may be released from liability for an obligation of the limited partnership.

(5) A person dissociated as a general partner is released from liability for an obligation of the limited partnership if the limited partnership's creditor, with notice of the person's dissociation as a general partner but without the person's consent, agrees to a material alteration in the nature or time of payment of the obligation.

35-12-1103. Rights of creditors of partner or transferee. (1) On application to a court of competent jurisdiction by any judgment creditor of a partner or transferee, the court may charge the transferable interest of the judgment debtor with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment, with interest. To the extent charged, the judgment creditor has only the rights of a transferee. The court may appoint a receiver of the share of the distributions due or to become due to the judgment debtor in respect of the partnership and make all other orders, directions, accounts, and inquiries that the judgment debtor might have made or that the circumstances of the case may require to give effect to the charging order.

(2) A charging order constitutes a lien on the judgment debtor's transferable interest. The court may order a foreclosure upon the interest subject to the charging order at any time. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale has the rights of a transferee.

(3) At any time before foreclosure, an interest charged may be redeemed:

(a) by the judgment debtor;

(b) with property other than limited partnership property, by one or more of the other partners; or

(c) with limited partnership property, by the limited partnership with the consent of all partners whose interests are not so charged.

(4) This chapter does not deprive any partner or transferee of the benefit of any exemption laws applicable to the partner's or transferee's transferable partnership interest.

(5) This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a judgment creditor of a partner or transferee may satisfy a judgment out of the judgment debtor's transferable interest.

35-12-1105. Power of estate of deceased partner. If a partner dies, the deceased partner's personal representative or other legal representative may exercise the rights of a transferee as provided in 35-12-1107 and, for the purpose of settling the estate, may exercise the rights of a current limited partner under 35-12-705.

History: En. Sec. 46, Ch. 522, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 1312, Ch. 56, L. 2009; amd. Sec. 59, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1106. Partner's transferable interest. The only interest of a partner that is transferable is the partner's transferable interest. A transferable interest is personal property.

History: En. Sec. 56, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1107. Transfer of partner's transferable interest. (1) A transfer, in whole or in part, of a partner's transferable interest:

(a) is permissible;

(b) does not by itself cause the partner's dissociation or a dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership's activities; and

(c) does not, as against the other partners or the limited partnership, entitle the transferee to participate in the management or conduct of the limited partnership's activities, to require access to information concerning the limited partnership's transactions except as otherwise provided in subsection (3), or to inspect or copy the required information or the limited partnership's other records.

(2) A transferee has a right to receive, in accordance with the transfer:

(a) distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be entitled; and

(b) upon the dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership's activities the net amount otherwise distributable to the transferor.

(3) In a dissolution and winding up, a transferee is entitled to an account of the limited partnership's transactions only from the date of dissolution.

(4) Upon transfer, the transferor retains the rights of a partner other than the interest in distributions transferred and retains all duties and obligations of a partner.

(5) A limited partnership need not give effect to a transferee's rights under this section until the limited partnership has notice of the transfer.

(6) A transfer of a partner's transferable interest in the limited partnership in violation of a restriction on transfer contained in the partnership agreement is ineffective as to a person having notice of the restriction at the time of transfer.

(7) A transferee that becomes a partner with respect to a transferable interest is liable for the transferor's obligations under 35-12-902 and 35-12-1011. However, the transferee is not obligated for liabilities unknown to the transferee at the time the transferee became a partner.

35-12-1201. Nonjudicial dissolution. (1) Except as otherwise provided in 35-12-1202, a limited partnership is dissolved and its affairs may be wound up only upon the occurrence of any of the following:

(a) on the happening of an event specified in the partnership agreement;

(b) the consent of all general partners and of limited partners owning a majority of the rights to receive distributions as limited partners at the time the consent is to be effective;

(c) after the dissociation of a person as a general partner:

(i) if the limited partnership has at least one remaining general partner, the consent to dissolve the limited partnership given within 90 days after the dissociation by partners owning a majority of the rights to receive distributions as partners at the time the consent is to be effective; or

(ii) if the limited partnership does not have a remaining general partner, the filing of the dissolution with the secretary of state unless before the end of the period:

(A) consent to continue the activities of the limited partnership and admit at least one general partner is given by limited partners owning a majority of the rights to receive distributions as limited partners at the time the consent is to be effective; and

(B) at least one person is admitted as a general partner in accordance with the consent;

(d) the passage of 90 days after the dissociation of the limited partnership's last limited partner unless before the end of the period the limited partnership admits at least one limited partner; or

(e) the signing and filing of a declaration of dissolution by the secretary of state.

(2) A dissolved limited partnership shall appoint and maintain an agent for service of process as required by 35-7-105 or deliver for filing a statement of change under 35-7-108 within 30 days after a change has occurred in the name or address of agent.

35-12-1205. Winding up. (1) A limited partnership continues after dissolution only for the purpose of winding up its activities.

(2) In winding up its activities, the limited partnership:

(a) may amend its certificate of limited partnership to state that the limited partnership is dissolved, preserve the limited partnership business or property as a going concern for a reasonable time, prosecute and defend actions and proceedings, whether civil, criminal, or administrative, transfer the limited partnership's property, settle disputes by mediation or arbitration, file a statement of cancellation as provided in 35- 12-603, and perform other necessary acts; and

(b) shall discharge the limited partnership's liabilities, settle and close the limited partnership's activities, and marshal and distribute the assets of the partnership.

(3) If a dissolved limited partnership does not have a general partner, a person to wind up the dissolved limited partnership's activities may be appointed by the consent of limited partners owning a majority of the rights to receive distributions as limited partners at the time the consent is to be effective. A person appointed under this subsection:

(a) has the powers of a general partner under 35-12-1211; and

(b) shall promptly amend the certificate of limited partnership to state:

(i) that the limited partnership does not have a general partner;

(ii) the name of the person that has been appointed to wind up the limited partnership; and

(iii) the business mailing address of the person.

(4) On the application of any partner, the district court may order judicial supervision of the winding up, including the appointment of a person to wind up the dissolved limited partnership's activities if:

(a) a limited partnership does not have a general partner and within a reasonable time following the dissolution no person has been appointed pursuant to subsection (3); or

(b) the applicant establishes other good cause.

History: En. Sec. 62, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1206 through 35-12-1210 reserved.

35-12-1211. Power of general partner and person dissociated as general partner to bind partnership after dissolution. (1) A limited partnership is bound by a general partner's act after dissolution that:

(a) is appropriate for winding up the limited partnership's activities; or

(b) would have bound the limited partnership under 35-12-806 before dissolution if, at the time the other party enters into the transaction, the other party does not have notice of the dissolution.

(2) A person dissociated as a general partner binds a limited partnership through an act occurring after dissolution if:

(a) at the time the other party enters into the transaction:

(i) less than 2 years has passed since the dissociation; and

(ii) the other party does not have notice of the dissociation and reasonably believes that the person is a general partner; and

(b) the act:

(i) is appropriate for winding up the limited partnership's activities; or

(ii) would have bound the limited partnership under 35-12-806 before dissolution and at the time the other party enters into the transaction the other party does not have notice of the dissolution.

History: En. Sec. 63, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1212. Liability after dissolution of general partner and person dissociated as general partner to limited partnership, other general partners, and person dissociated as general partner. (1) If a general partner having knowledge of the dissolution causes a limited partnership to incur an obligation under 35-12-1211(1) by an act that is not appropriate for winding up the partnership's activities, the general partner is liable:

(a) to the limited partnership for any damage caused to the limited partnership arising from the obligation; and

(b) if another general partner or a person dissociated as a general partner is liable for the obligation, to that other general partner or person for any damage caused to that other general partner or person arising from the liability.

(2) If a person dissociated as a general partner causes a limited partnership to incur an obligation under 35-12-1211(2), the person is liable:

(a) to the limited partnership for any damage caused to the limited partnership arising from the obligation; and

(b) if a general partner or another person dissociated as a general partner is liable for the obligation, to the general partner or other person for any damage caused to the general partner or other person arising from the liability.

History: En. Sec. 64, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1213. Known claims against dissolved limited partnership. (1) A dissolved limited partnership may dispose of the known claims against it by following the procedure described in subsection (2).

(2) A dissolved limited partnership may notify its known claimants of the dissolution in a record. The notice must:

(a) specify the information required to be included in a claim;

(b) provide a mailing address to which the claim is to be sent;

(c) state the deadline for receipt of the claim, which may not be less than 120 days after the date the notice is received by the claimant;

(d) state that the claim will be barred if not received by the deadline; and

(e) unless the limited partnership has been throughout its existence a limited liability limited partnership, state that the barring of a claim against the limited partnership will also bar any corresponding claim against any general partner or person dissociated as a general partner that is based on 35-12-803.

(3) A claim against a dissolved limited partnership is barred if the requirements of subsection (2) are met and:

(a) the claim is not received by the specified deadline; or

(b) in the case of a claim that is timely received but rejected by the dissolved limited partnership, the claimant does not commence an action to enforce the claim against the limited partnership within 90 days after the receipt of the notice of the rejection.

(4) This section does not apply to a claim based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution or a liability that is contingent on that date.

History: En. Sec. 65, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1214. Other claims against dissolved limited partnership. (1) A dissolved limited partnership may publish notice of its dissolution and request persons having claims against the limited partnership to present them in accordance with the notice.

(2) The notice must:

(a) be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the dissolved limited partnership's principal office is located or, if it has none in this state, in the county in which the limited partnership's designated office is or was last located;

(b) describe the information required to be contained in a claim and provide a mailing address to which the claim is to be sent;

(c) state that a claim against the limited partnership is barred unless an action to enforce the claim is commenced within 5 years after publication of the notice; and

(d) unless the limited partnership has been throughout its existence a limited liability limited partnership, state that the barring of a claim against the limited partnership will also bar any corresponding claim against any general partner or person dissociated as a general partner that is based on 35-12-803.

(3) If a dissolved limited partnership publishes a notice in accordance with subsection (2), the claim of each of the following claimants is barred unless the claimant commences an action to enforce the claim against the dissolved limited partnership within 5 years after the publication date of the notice:

(a) a claimant that did not receive notice in a record under 35-12-1213;

(b) a claimant whose claim was timely sent to the dissolved limited partnership but not acted on; and

(c) a claimant whose claim is contingent or based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution.

(4) A claim not barred under this section may be enforced:

(a) against the dissolved limited partnership to the extent of its undistributed assets;

(b) if the assets have been distributed in liquidation, against a partner or transferee to the extent of that person's proportionate share of the claim or the limited partnership's assets distributed to the partner or transferee in liquidation, whichever is less, but a person's total liability for all claims under this paragraph does not exceed the total amount of assets distributed to the person as part of the winding up of the dissolved limited partnership; or

(c) against any person liable on the claim under 35-12-803.

35-12-1215. Liability of general partner and person dissociated as general partner when claim against limited partnership barred. If a claim against a dissolved limited partnership is barred under 35-12-1213 or 35-12-1214, any corresponding claim under 35-12-803 is also barred.

History: En. Sec. 67, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1216. Disposition of assets — when contributions required. (1) In winding up a limited partnership's activities, the assets of the limited partnership, including the contributions required by this section, must be applied to satisfy the limited partnership's obligations to creditors, including, to the extent permitted by law, partners that are creditors.

(2) Any surplus remaining after the limited partnership complies with subsection (1) must be paid in cash as a distribution.

(3) If a limited partnership's assets are insufficient to satisfy all of its obligations under subsection (1) with respect to each unsatisfied obligation incurred when the limited partnership was not a limited liability limited partnership, the following rules apply:

(a) Each person that was a general partner when the obligation was incurred and that has not been released from the obligation under 35-12-1022 shall contribute to the limited partnership for the purpose of enabling the limited partnership to satisfy the obligation. The contribution due from each of those persons is in proportion to the right to receive distributions in the capacity of general partner in effect for each of those persons when the obligation was incurred.

(b) If a person does not contribute the full amount required under subsection (3)(a) with respect to an unsatisfied obligation of the limited partnership, the other persons required to contribute by subsection (3)(a) on account of the obligation shall contribute the additional amount necessary to discharge the obligation. The additional contribution due from each of those other persons is in proportion to the right to receive distributions in the capacity of general partner in effect for each of those other persons when the obligation was incurred.

(c) If a person does not make the additional contribution required by subsection (3)(b), further additional contributions are determined and due in the same manner as provided in that subsection.

(4) A person that makes an additional contribution under subsection (3)(b) or (3)(c) may recover from any person whose failure to contribute under subsection (3)(a) or (3)(b) necessitated the additional contribution. A person may not recover under this subsection more than the amount additionally contributed. A person's liability under this subsection may not exceed the amount the person failed to contribute.

(5) The estate of a deceased individual is liable for the person's obligations under this section.

(6) An assignee for the benefit of creditors of a limited partnership or a partner or a person appointed by a court to represent creditors of a limited partnership or a partner may enforce a person's obligation to contribute under subsection (3).

History: En. Sec. 68, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

Part 13
Foreign Limited Partnerships

35-12-1301. Governing law. (1) The laws of the state or other jurisdiction under which a foreign limited partnership is organized, including the laws of a federally recognized Indian tribe, govern relations among the partners of the foreign limited partnership and between the partners and the foreign limited partnership and the liability of partners as partners for an obligation of the foreign limited partnership.

(2) A foreign limited partnership may not be denied a certificate of authority by reason of any difference between the laws of the jurisdiction under which a foreign limited partnership is organized and the laws of this state.

(3) A certificate of authority does not authorize a foreign limited partnership to engage in any business or exercise any power that a limited partnership may not engage in or exercise in this state.

35-12-1302. Application for certificate of authority. Before transacting business in this state, a foreign limited partnership shall register with the secretary of state. In order to register, a foreign limited partnership shall submit to the secretary of state the application for registration as a foreign limited partnership, signed and sworn to by a general partner and setting forth:

(1) the name of the foreign limited partnership and, if the name does not comply with 35-12-505, an alternate name adopted pursuant to 35-12-1312(1);

(2) the name of the state or other jurisdiction under whose law the foreign limited partnership is organized and the date of the foreign limited partnership's formation;

(3) the business mailing address of the foreign limited partnership's principal office and, if the laws of the jurisdiction under which the foreign limited partnership is organized require the foreign limited partnership to maintain an office in that jurisdiction, the business mailing address of the required office;

(4) the information required in 35-7-105(1);

(5) the name and business mailing address of each of the foreign limited partnership's general partners;

(6) whether the foreign limited partnership is a foreign limited liability limited partnership; and

(7) a statement that the foreign limited partnership has complied with the organizational laws in the jurisdiction in which it is organized and that the foreign limited partnership exists in that jurisdiction.

35-12-1307. Cancellation of certificate of authority — effect of failure to have certificate. (1) In order to cancel its certificate of authority to transact business in this state, a foreign limited partnership shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing a notice of cancellation. The certificate is canceled when the notice becomes effective under 35-12-614.

(2) A foreign limited partnership transacting business in this state may not maintain an action or proceeding in this state unless it has a certificate of authority to transact business in this state.

(3) The failure of a foreign limited partnership to have a certificate of authority to transact business in in this state does not impair the validity of any contract or act of the foreign limited partnership or prevent the foreign limited partnership from defending any action or proceeding in this state.

(4) A partner of a foreign limited partnership is not liable for the obligations of the foreign limited partnership solely by reason of the foreign limited partnership's having transacted business in this state without a certificate of authority.

(5) If a foreign limited partnership transacts business in this state without a certificate of authority or cancels its certificate of authority, it appoints the secretary of state as its agent for service of process for rights of action arising out of the transaction of business in this state.

Effect of transacting business without certificate, 30-13-215.

35-12-1308. Renumbered 35-12-522. Code Commissioner, 2011.

35-12-1309. Activities not constituting transacting business. (1) Activities of a foreign limited partnership that do not constitute transacting business in this state within the meaning of 35-12-1309 through 35-12-1313 include:

(a) maintaining, defending, and settling an action or proceeding;

(b) holding meetings of its partners or carrying on any other activity concerning its internal affairs;

(c) maintaining accounts in financial institutions;

(d) maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange, and registration of the foreign limited partnership's own securities or maintaining trustees or depositories with respect to those securities;

(e) selling through independent contractors;

(f) soliciting or obtaining orders, whether by mail or electronic means or through employees or agents or otherwise if the orders require acceptance outside this state before they become contracts;

(g) creating or acquiring indebtedness, mortgages, or security interests in real or personal property;

(h) securing or collecting debts or enforcing mortgages or other security interests in property securing the debts and holding, protecting, and maintaining property so acquired;

(i) conducting an isolated transaction that is completed within 30 days and is not one in the course of similar transactions of a like manner; and

(j) transacting business in interstate commerce.

(2) For purposes of 35-12-1309 through 35-12-1313, the ownership in this state of income-producing real property or tangible personal property, other than property excluded under subsection (1), constitutes transacting business in this state.

(3) This section does not apply in determining the contacts or activities that may subject a foreign limited partnership to service of process, taxation, or regulation under any other law of this state.

35-12-1310. Filing of certificate of authority. Unless the secretary of state determines that an application for a certificate of authority does not comply with the filing requirements of this chapter, the secretary of state, upon payment of all filing fees, shall file the application, shall prepare, sign, and file a certificate of authority to transact business in this state, and shall, upon payment of a fee, send a copy of the filed certificate to the foreign limited partnership or its representative.

History: En. Sec. 72, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1311. Application for renewal of foreign limited partnership certification — requirement for appointed registered agent. (1) The application for renewal of certification of a foreign limited partnership must be executed by the general partners and delivered to the secretary of state. The application must include the following information:

(a) the name of the foreign limited partnership or the fictitious name adopted by a foreign limited partnership authorized to transact business in this state because its real name is unavailable;

(b) the name and address of the registered agent appointed by the foreign limited partnership for the service of process on the foreign limited partnership; and

(c) the name and business mailing address of each general partner.

(2) A registered agent appointed under this section must be an individual resident of this state, a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation authorized to do business in this state and with a place of business in this state.

History: En. Sec. 34, Ch. 26, L. 2011.

35-12-1312. Noncomplying name of foreign limited partnership. (1) A foreign limited partnership whose name does not comply with 35-12-505 may not obtain a certificate of authority until it adopts, for the purpose of transacting business in this state, an alternate name that complies with 35-12-505. A foreign limited partnership that adopts an alternate name under this subsection and then obtains a certificate of authority with the name need not comply with Title 30, chapter 13, part 2. After obtaining a certificate of authority with an alternate name, a foreign limited partnership shall transact business in this state under the name unless the foreign limited partnership is authorized under Title 30, chapter 13, part 2, to transact business in this state under another name.

(2) If a foreign limited partnership authorized to transact business in this state changes its name to one that does not comply with 35-12-505, it may not thereafter transact business in this state until it complies with subsection (1) of this section and obtains an amended certificate of authority.

35-12-1313. Revocation of certificate of authority. (1) A certificate of authority of a foreign limited partnership to transact business in this state may be revoked by the secretary of state in the manner provided in subsections (2) and (3) if the foreign limited partnership does not:

(a) pay any fee, tax, or penalty due to the secretary of state under this chapter or other law;

(b) appoint and maintain an agent for service of process as required by 35-7-105; or

(c) deliver for filing a statement of a change under 35-7-108 within 30 days after a change has occurred in the name or address of the agent.

(2) In order to revoke a certificate of authority, the secretary of state shall prepare, sign, and file a notice of revocation and deliver a copy to the foreign limited partnership's agent for service of process in this state or, if the foreign limited partnership does not appoint and maintain a proper agent in this state, to the foreign limited partnership's designated office. The notice must state:

(a) the revocation's effective date, which must be at least 60 days after the date the secretary of state sends the copy; and

(b) the foreign limited partnership's failures to comply with subsection (1) that are the reason for the revocation.

(3) The authority of the foreign limited partnership to transact business in this state ceases on the effective date of the notice of revocation unless before that date the foreign limited partnership cures each failure to comply with subsection (1) stated in the notice. If the foreign limited partnership cures the failures, the secretary of state shall so indicate on the filed notice.

History: En. Sec. 74, Ch. 216, L. 2011; amd. Sec. 15, Ch. 23, L. 2017.

35-12-1314. Amendment of certificate of authority — requirements. (1) A foreign limited partnership may amend its certificate of authority to transact business by delivering to the secretary of state for filing an amendment stating:

(a) the name of the foreign limited partnership;

(b) the date of filing of the foreign limited partnership's initial certificate; and

(c) the changes the amendment makes to the certificate of authority to transact business as most recently amended.

(2) A foreign limited partnership shall promptly deliver to the secretary of state for filing an amendment to a certificate of authority to transact business to reflect:

(a) the admission of a new general partner;

(b) the dissociation of a general partner; or

(c) the revision of any other information at any time for a proper purpose as determined by the foreign limited partnership.

(3) A general partner that knows that any information in an application for registration as a foreign limited partnership was false when filed or that any information in a certificate of authority to transact business has become false due to changed circumstances shall promptly:

(a) cause the certificate to be amended; or

(b) if appropriate, deliver to the secretary of state for filing a statement of change pursuant to 35-7-110 or a statement of correction pursuant to 35-12-616.

(4) Subject to 35-12-614(3), an amendment is effective when filed by the secretary of state.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 43, L. 2015.

Part 14
Derivative Actions

35-12-1401. Derivative action. A partner may maintain a derivative action to enforce a right of a limited partnership if:

(1) the partner first makes a demand on the general partners requesting that they cause the limited partnership to bring an action to enforce the right and the general partners do not bring the action within a reasonable time; or

(2) a demand would be futile.

History: En. Sec. 59, Ch. 522, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 78, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1402. Proper plaintiff. A derivative action may be maintained only by a person that is a partner at the time the action is commenced and:

(1) that was a partner when the conduct giving rise to the action occurred; or

(2) whose status as a partner devolved by operation of law or pursuant to the terms of the partnership agreement from a person that was a partner at the time of the conduct.

35-12-1403. Pleading. In a derivative action, the complaint must state with particularity:

(1) the date and content of the plaintiff's demand and the general partners' response to the demand; or

(2) why the demand should be excused as futile.

History: En. Sec. 61, Ch. 522, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 80, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1404. Proceeds and expenses. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2):

(a) any proceeds or other benefits of a derivative action, whether by judgment, compromise, or settlement, belong to the limited partnership and not to the derivative plaintiff;

(b) if the derivative plaintiff receives any proceeds, the derivative plaintiff shall immediately remit them to the limited partnership.

(2) If a derivative action is successful in whole or in part, the court may award the plaintiff reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, from the recovery of the limited partnership.

35-12-1405. Direct action by partner. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a partner may maintain a direct action against the limited partnership or another partner for legal or equitable relief, with or without an accounting as to the partnership's activities, to enforce the rights and otherwise protect the interests of the partner, including rights and interests under the partnership agreement or this chapter or arising independently of the partnership relationship.

(2) A partner commencing a direct action under this section is required to plead and prove an actual or threatened injury that is not solely the result of an injury suffered or threatened to be suffered by the limited partnership.

(3) The accrual of and any time limitation on a right of action for a remedy under this section is governed by other law. A right to an accounting upon a dissolution and winding up does not revive a claim barred by law.

History: En. Sec. 77, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

Part 15
Conversion

35-12-1501. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Constituent limited partnership" means a constituent organization that is a limited partnership.

(2) "Constituent organization" means an organization that is party to a merger.

(3) "Converted organization" means the organization into which a converting organization converts pursuant to 35-12-1502 through 35-12-1505.

(4) "Converting limited partnership" means a converting organization that is a limited partnership.

(5) "Converting organization" means an organization that converts into another organization pursuant to 35-12-1502.

(6) "General partner" means a general partner of a limited partnership.

(7) "Governing statute" of an organization means the statute that governs the organization's internal affairs.

(8) "Organization" means a general partnership, including a limited liability partnership; a limited partnership, including a limited liability limited partnership; a limited liability company; a business trust; a corporation; or any other person having a governing statute. The term includes domestic and foreign organizations whether or not organized for profit.

(9) "Organizational document" means:

(a) for a domestic or foreign general partnership, its partnership agreement;

(b) for a limited partnership or foreign limited partnership, its certificate of limited partnership and partnership agreement;

(c) for a domestic or foreign limited liability company, its articles of organization and operating agreement or comparable records as provided in its governing statute;

(d) for a business trust, its agreement of trust and declaration of trust;

(e) for a domestic or foreign corporation for profit, its articles of incorporation, bylaws, and other agreements among its shareholders that are authorized by its governing statute or comparable records as provided in its governing statute; and

(f) for any other organization, the basic records that create the organization and determine its internal governance and the relations among the persons that own it, have an interest in it, or are members of it.

(10) "Personal liability" means personal liability for a debt, liability, or other obligation of an organization that is imposed on a person that co-owns, has an interest in, or is a member of the organization:

(a) by the organization's governing statute solely by reason of the person co-owning, having an interest in, or being a member of the organization; or

(b) by the organization's organizational documents under a provision of the organization's governing statute authorizing those documents to make one or more specified persons liable for all or specified debts, liabilities, and other obligations of the organization solely by reason of the person or persons co-owning, having an interest in, or being a member of the organization.

(11) "Surviving organization" means an organization into which one or more other organizations are merged. A surviving organization may preexist the merger or be created by the merger.

History: En. Sec. 82, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1502. Conversion. (1) An organization other than a limited partnership may convert to a limited partnership, and a limited partnership may convert to another organization pursuant to 35-12-1501 through 35-12-1505 and a plan of conversion if:

(a) the other organization's governing statute authorizes the conversion;

(b) the conversion is not prohibited by the law of the jurisdiction that enacted the governing statute; and

(c) the other organization complies with its governing statute in effecting the conversion.

(2) A plan of conversion must be in a record and must include:

(a) the name and form of the organization before conversion;

(b) the name and form of the organization after conversion;

(c) the terms and conditions of the conversion, including the manner and basis for converting interests in the converting organization into any combination of money, interests in the converted organization, and other consideration; and

(d) the organizational documents of the converted organization.

35-12-1503. Action on plan of conversion by converting limited partnership. (1) Subject to 35-12-1515, a plan of conversion must be consented to by all the partners of a converting limited partnership.

(2) Subject to 35-12-1515 and any contractual rights, after a conversion is approved, and at any time before a filing is made under 35-12-1504, a converting limited partnership may amend the plan or abandon the planned conversion:

(a) as provided in the plan; and

(b) except as prohibited by the plan, by the same consent as was required to approve the plan.

History: En. Sec. 84, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1504. Filings required for conversion — effective date. (1) After a plan of conversion is approved:

(a) a converting limited partnership shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing articles of conversion, which must include:

(i) a statement that the limited partnership has been converted into another organization;

(ii) the name and form of the organization and the jurisdiction of its governing statute;

(iii) the date the conversion is effective under the governing statute of the converted organization;

(iv) a statement that the conversion was approved as required by this chapter;

(v) a statement that the conversion was approved as required by the governing statute of the converted organization;

(vi) if the converted organization is a foreign organization not authorized to transact business in this state, the street and mailing address of an office that the secretary of state may use for the purposes of 35-12-1505(3); and

(vii) a statement that the certificate of limited partnership is to be canceled as of the date on which the conversion took effect; and

(b) if the converting organization is not a converting limited partnership, the converting organization shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing a certificate of limited partnership, which must include, in addition to the information required by 35-12-601:

(i) a statement that the limited partnership was converted from another organization;

(ii) the name and form of the organization and the jurisdiction of its governing statute; and

(iii) a statement that the conversion was approved in a manner that complied with the organization's governing statute.

(2) In the case of a limited partnership, the filing of articles of organization under subsection (1)(a) cancels its certificate of limited partnership as of the date on which the conversion took effect.

(3) A conversion becomes effective:

(a) if the converted organization is a limited partnership, when the certificate of limited partnership takes effect; and

(b) if the converted organization is not a limited partnership, as provided by the governing statute of the converted organization.

History: En. Sec. 85, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1505. Effect of conversion. (1) An organization that has been converted pursuant to this part is for all purposes the same entity that existed before the conversion.

(2) When a conversion takes effect:

(a) all property owned by the converting organization remains vested in the converted organization;

(b) all debts, liabilities, and other obligations of the converting organization continue as obligations of the converted organization;

(c) an action or proceeding pending by or against the converting organization may be continued as if the conversion had not occurred;

(d) except as prohibited by other law, all of the rights, privileges, immunities, powers, and purposes of the converting organization remain vested in the converted organization; and

(e) except as otherwise provided in the plan of conversion, the terms and conditions of the plan of conversion take effect.

(3) A converted organization that is a foreign organization consents to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state to enforce any obligation owed by the converting limited partnership if before the conversion the converting limited partnership was subject to suit in this state on the obligation. A converted organization that is a foreign organization and not authorized to transact business in this state appoints the secretary of state as its agent for service of process for purposes of enforcing an obligation under this subsection. Service on the secretary of state under this subsection is made in the same manner and with the same consequences as in 35-7-113.

History: En. Sec. 86, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1506 through 35-12-1510 reserved.

35-12-1511. Merger. (1) A limited partnership may merge with one or more other constituent organizations pursuant to 35-12-1512 through 35-12-1514, this section, and a plan of merger if:

(a) the governing statute of each of the other organizations authorizes the merger;

(b) the merger is not prohibited by the law of a jurisdiction that enacted any of those governing statutes; and

(c) each of the other organizations complies with its governing statute in effecting the merger.

(2) A plan of merger must be in a record and must include:

(a) the name and form of each constituent organization;

(b) the name and form of the surviving organization and, if the surviving organization is to be created by the merger, a statement to that effect;

(c) the terms and conditions of the merger, including the manner and basis for converting the interests in each constituent organization into any combination of money, interests in the surviving organization, and other consideration;

(d) if the surviving organization is to be created by the merger, the surviving organization's organizational documents; and

(e) if the surviving organization is not to be created by the merger, any amendments to be made by the merger to the surviving organization's organizational documents.

History: En. Sec. 87, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1512. Action on plan of merger by constituent limited partners. (1) Subject to 35-12-1515, a plan of merger must be consented to by all the partners of a constituent limited partnership.

(2) Subject to 35-12-1515 and any contractual rights, after a merger is approved and at any time before a filing is made under 35-12-1513, a constituent limited partnership may amend the plan or abandon the planned merger:

(a) as provided in the plan; and

(b) except as prohibited by the plan, with the same consent as was required to approve the plan.

History: En. Sec. 88, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1513. Filings required for merger — effective date. (1) After each constituent organization has approved a merger, articles of merger must be signed on behalf of:

(a) each preexisting constituent limited partnership, by each general partner listed in the certificate of limited partnership; and

(b) each other preexisting constituent organization, by an authorized representative.

(2) The articles of merger must include:

(a) the name and form of each constituent organization and the jurisdiction of its governing statute;

(b) the name and form of the surviving organization, the jurisdiction of its governing statute, and if the surviving organization is created by the merger, a statement to that effect;

(c) the date the merger is effective under the governing statute of the surviving organization;

(d) if the surviving organization is to be created by the merger:

(i) if it will be a limited partnership, the limited partnership's certificate of limited partnership; or

(ii) if it will be an organization other than a limited partnership, the organizational document that creates the organization;

(e) if the surviving organization preexists the merger, any amendments provided for in the plan of merger for the organizational document that created the organization;

(f) a statement as to each constituent organization that the merger was approved as required by the organization's governing statute;

(g) if the surviving organization is a foreign organization not authorized to transact business in this state, the street and mailing address of an office that the secretary of state may use for the purposes of 35-12-1514(2); and

(h) any additional information required by the governing statute of any constituent organization.

(3) Each constituent limited partnership shall deliver the articles of merger for filing in the office of the secretary of state.

(4) A merger becomes effective under this part:

(a) if the surviving organization is a limited partnership, upon the later of:

(i) compliance with subsection (3); or

(ii) subject to 35-12-614(3), as specified in the articles of merger; or

(b) if the surviving organization is not a limited partnership, as provided by the governing statute of the surviving organization.

35-12-1514. Effect of merger. (1) When a merger becomes effective:

(a) the surviving organization continues or comes into existence;

(b) each constituent organization that merges into the surviving organization ceases to exist as a separate entity;

(c) all property owned by each constituent organization that ceases to exist vests in the surviving organization;

(d) all debts, liabilities, and other obligations of each constituent organization that ceases to exist continue as obligations of the surviving organization;

(e) an action or proceeding pending by or against any constituent organization that ceases to exist may be continued as if the merger had not occurred;

(f) except as prohibited by other law, all of the rights, privileges, immunities, powers, and purposes of each constituent organization that ceases to exist vest in the surviving organization;

(g) except as otherwise provided in the plan of merger, the terms and conditions of the plan of merger take effect;

(h) except as otherwise agreed, if a constituent limited partnership ceases to exist, the merger does not dissolve the limited partnership for the purposes of chapter 12;

(i) if the surviving organization is created by the merger:

(i) if it is a limited partnership, the certificate of limited partnership becomes effective; or

(ii) if it is an organization other than a limited partnership, the organizational document that creates the organization becomes effective; and

(j) if the surviving organization preexists the merger, any amendments provided for in the articles of merger for the organizational document that created the organization become effective.

(2) A surviving organization that is a foreign organization consents to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state to enforce any obligation owed by a constituent organization if before the merger the constituent organization was subject to suit in this state on the obligation. A surviving organization that is a foreign organization and not authorized to transact business in this state appoints the secretary of state as its agent for service of process for the purposes of enforcing an obligation under this subsection. Service on the secretary of state under this subsection is made in the same manner and with the same consequences as in 35-7-113.

History: En. Sec. 90, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1515. Restrictions on approval of conversions and mergers and on relinquishing limited liability limited partnership status. (1) If a partner of a converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership will have personal liability with respect to a converted organization or surviving organization, approval and amendment of a plan of conversion or merger are ineffective without the consent of the partner unless:

(a) the limited partnership's partnership agreement provides for the approval of the conversion or merger with the consent of fewer than all the partners; and

(b) the partner has consented to the provision of the partnership agreement.

(2) An amendment to a certificate of limited partnership that deletes a statement that the limited partnership is a limited liability limited partnership is ineffective without the consent of each general partner unless:

(a) the limited partnership's partnership agreement provides for the amendment with the consent of less than all the general partners; and

(b) each general partner that does not consent to the amendment has consented to the provision of the partnership agreement.

(3) A partner does not give the consent required by subsection (1) or (2) merely by consenting to a provision of the partnership agreement that permits the partnership agreement to be amended with the consent of fewer than all the partners.

History: En. Sec. 91, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1516 through 35-12-1519 reserved.

35-12-1520. Liability of general partner after conversion or merger. (1) A conversion or merger under this part does not discharge any liability under 35-12-803 and 35-12-1022 of a person that was a general partner in or dissociated as a general partner from a converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership, but:

(a) the provisions of this chapter pertaining to the collection or discharge of the liability continue to apply to the liability;

(b) for the purposes of applying those provisions, the converted organization or surviving organization is considered to be the converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership; and

(c) if a person is required to pay any amount under this subsection (1):

(i) the person has a right of contribution from each other person that was liable as a general partner under 35-12-803 when the obligation was incurred and has not been released from the obligation under 35-12-1022; and

(ii) the contribution due from each of those persons is in proportion to the right to receive distributions in the capacity of general partner in effect for each of those persons when the obligation was incurred.

(2) In addition to any other liability provided by law:

(a) a person that immediately before a conversion or merger became effective was a general partner in a converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership that was not a limited liability limited partnership is personally liable for each obligation of the converted organization or surviving organization arising from a transaction with a third party after the conversion or merger becomes effective if, at the time the third party enters into the transaction, the third party:

(i) does not have notice of the conversion or merger; and

(ii) reasonably believes that:

(A) the converted organization or surviving organization is the converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership;

(B) the converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership is not a limited liability limited partnership; and

(C) the person is a general partner in the converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership; and

(b) a person that was dissociated as a general partner from a converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership before the conversion or merger became effective is personally liable for each obligation of the converted organization or surviving organization arising from a transaction with a third party after the conversion or merger becomes effective if:

(i) immediately before the conversion or merger became effective the converting limited partnership or surviving limited partnership was a not a limited liability limited partnership; and

(ii) at the time the third party enters into the transaction, less than 2 years have passed since the person dissociated as a general partner and the third party:

(A) does not have notice of the dissociation;

(B) does not have notice of the conversion or merger; and

(C) reasonably believes that the converted organization or surviving organization is the converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership, the converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership is not a limited liability limited partnership, and the person is a general partner in the converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership.

History: En. Sec. 92, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1521. Power of general partners and persons dissociated as general partners to bind organization after conversion or merger. (1) An act of a person that immediately before a conversion or merger became effective was a general partner in a converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership binds the converted organization or surviving organization after the conversion or merger becomes effective if:

(a) before the conversion or merger became effective, the act would have bound the converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership under 35-12-806; and

(b) at the time the third party enters into the transaction, the third party:

(i) does not have notice of the conversion or merger; and

(ii) reasonably believes that the converted or surviving business is the converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership and that the person is a general partner in the converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership.

(2) An act of a person that before a conversion or merger became effective was dissociated as a general partner from a converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership binds the converted organization or surviving organization after the conversion or merger becomes effective if:

(a) before the conversion or merger became effective, the act would have bound the converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership under 35-12-806 if the person had been a general partner; and

(b) at the time the third party enters into the transaction, less than 2 years have passed since the person dissociated as a general partner and the third party:

(i) does not have notice of the dissociation;

(ii) does not have notice of the conversion or merger; and

(iii) reasonably believes that the converted organization or surviving organization is the converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership and that the person is a general partner in the converting limited partnership or constituent limited partnership.

(3) If a person having knowledge of the conversion or merger causes a converted organization or surviving organization to incur an obligation under subsection (1) or (2), the person is liable:

(a) to the converted organization or surviving organization for any damage caused to the organization arising from the obligation; and

(b) if another person is liable for the obligation, to that other person for any damage caused to that other person arising from the liability.

History: En. Sec. 93, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-12-1522. Part not exclusive. This part does not preclude an entity from being converted or merged under other law.

History: En. Sec. 94, Ch. 216, L. 2011.

35-13-101. When a mining partnership exists. A mining partnership exists when two or more persons who own or acquire a mining claim for the purpose of working it and extracting the mineral therefrom actually engage in working the same.

History: En. Sec. 3350, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5535, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8050, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 2511; re-en. Sec. 8050, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 63-1001.

35-13-102. Express agreement not necessary to formation. An express agreement to become partners or to share the profits and losses of mining is not necessary to the formation and existence of a mining partnership. The relation arises from the ownership of shares or interests in the mine and working the same for the purpose of extracting the minerals therefrom.

History: En. Sec. 3351, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5536, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8051, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 2512; re-en. Sec. 8051, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 63-1002.

Part 2
Relations Between Partners and With Third Persons

Part Cross-References

Relations among partners, partnerships, and third persons, Title 35, ch. 10, parts 3 and 4.

35-13-201. When contract in writing is binding. No member of a mining partnership or other agent or manager thereof can by a contract in writing bind the partnership, except by express authority derived from the members thereof.

History: En. Sec. 3358, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5543, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8058, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 2519; re-en. Sec. 8058, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 63-1009.

35-13-202. Owners of majority interest govern. The decision of the members owning a majority of the shares or interest in a mining partnership binds it in the conduct of its business.

History: En. Sec. 3359, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5544, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8059, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 2520; re-en. Sec. 8059, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 63-1010.

35-13-203. Mine — partnership property. The mining ground owned and worked by partners in mining, whether purchased with partnership funds or not, is partnership property.

History: En. Sec. 3354, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5539, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8054, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 2515; re-en. Sec. 8054, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 63-1005.

35-13-204. Profits and losses — how shared. A member of a mining partnership shares in the profits and losses of the partnership in the proportion that the interest or share the member owns in the mine bears to the whole partnership capital or whole number of shares.

History: En. Sec. 3352, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5537, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8052, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 2513; re-en. Sec. 8052, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 63-1003; amd. Sec. 1315, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-13-205. Lien of partner for debts due creditors. Each member of a mining partnership has a lien on the partnership property for the debts due the creditors of the partnership and for money advanced by the member for its uses. This lien exists notwithstanding an agreement among the partners that it may not exist.

Cross-References

Liens generally, Title 71, ch. 3, part 1.

35-13-206. Partnership not dissolved by sale of interest — purchaser becomes partner. One of the partners in a mining partnership may convey the partner's interest in the mine and business without dissolving the partnership. The purchaser from the date of purchase becomes a member of the partnership.

History: En. Sec. 3355, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5540, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8055, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 2516; re-en. Sec. 8055, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 63-1006; amd. Sec. 1317, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-13-207. Purchaser takes subject to liens — exception for good faith purchaser. A purchaser of an interest in the mining ground of a mining partnership takes it subject to the liens existing in favor of the partners for debts due all creditors of the partnership or advances made for the benefit of the partnership unless the purchaser purchased in good faith for a valuable consideration without notice of the lien.

History: En. Sec. 3356, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5541, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8056, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 2517; re-en. Sec. 8056, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 63-1007; amd. Sec. 1318, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-13-208. When purchaser takes with notice of liens. The purchaser of the interest of a partner in a mine when the partnership is engaged in working it takes with notice of all liens resulting from the relation of the partners to each other and to the creditors of the partnership.

History: En. Sec. 3357, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5542, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8057, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 2518; re-en. Sec. 8057, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 63-1008.

(6) The document must be signed:

(a) by the chairman of the board of directors of a domestic or foreign corporation, by its president, or by another of its officers;

(b) if directors have not been selected or the corporation has not been formed, by an incorporator; or

(c) if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver, trustee, or other court-appointed fiduciary, by that fiduciary.

(7) The person executing the document shall sign it and state beneath or opposite the signature the person's name and the capacity in which the document is signed. The document may but need not contain a corporate seal, attestation, acknowledgment, or verification.

(8) If the secretary of state has prescribed a mandatory form for the document under 35-14-121(1), the document must be in or on the prescribed form.

(9) The document must be delivered to the office of the secretary of state for filing by electronic transmission. The secretary of state may authorize exceptions to the requirement of filing documents by electronic transmission.

(10) When the document is delivered to the office of the secretary of state for filing, the correct filing fee and any franchise tax, license fee, or penalty required by this chapter or other law to be paid at the time of delivery for filing must be paid or provision for payment made in a manner permitted by the secretary of state.

(11) Whenever a provision of this chapter permits any of the terms of a plan or a filed document to be dependent on facts objectively ascertainable outside the plan or filed document, the following provisions apply:

(a) The manner in which the facts will operate on the terms of the plan or filed document must be set forth in the plan or filed document.

(b) The facts may include:

(i) any of the following that is available in a nationally recognized news or information medium, either in print or electronically:

(A) statistical or market indices;

(B) market prices of any security or group of securities;

(C) interest rates;

(D) currency exchange rates; or

(E) similar economic or financial data;

(ii) a determination or action by any person or body, including the corporation or any other party to a plan or filed document; or

(iii) the terms of or actions taken under an agreement to which the corporation is a party or any other agreement or document.

(c) As used in this subsection (11):

(i) "filed document" means a document filed by the secretary of state under any provision of this chapter except part 15 or 35-14-1621; and

(ii) "plan" means a plan of domestication, conversion, merger, or share exchange.

(d) The following provisions of a plan or filed document may not be made dependent on facts outside the plan or filed document:

(i) the name and address of any person required in a filed document;

(ii) the registered office of any entity required in a filed document;

(iii) the registered agent of any entity required in a filed document;

(iv) the number of authorized shares and designation of each class or series of shares;

(v) the effective date of a filed document; and

(vi) any required statement in a filed document of the date on which the underlying transaction was approved or the manner in which that approval was given.

(e) If a provision of a filed document is made dependent on a fact ascertainable outside the filed document and if that fact is not ascertainable by reference to a source described in subsection (11)(b)(i) or a document that is a matter of public record and the affected shareholders have not received notice of the fact from the corporation, then the corporation shall file with the secretary of state articles of amendment to the filed document setting forth the fact promptly after the time when the fact referred to is first ascertainable or subsequently changes. Articles of amendment under this subsection (11)(e) are considered to be authorized by the authorization of the original filed document to which they relate and may be filed by the corporation without further action by the board of directors or the shareholders.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-121. Forms. (1) (a) The secretary of state may prescribe and furnish on request forms for:

(i) an application for a certificate of existence or certificate of registration;

(ii) a foreign corporation's registration statement;

(iii) a foreign corporation's statement of withdrawal;

(iv) a foreign corporation's transfer of registration statement; and

(v) the annual report.

(b) If the secretary of state requires, use of these forms is mandatory.

(2) The secretary of state may prescribe and furnish on request forms for other documents required or permitted to be filed by this chapter, but their use is not mandatory.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-122. Filing — service — copying fees. (1) The secretary of state shall establish fees for:

(a) the filing of documents delivered to the secretary of state as required by this part;

(b) issuing certificates and statements as required by this part; and

(c) copying and transmitting documents, priority handling, and responding to requests for information.

(2) Fees authorized under this section must be set and deposited in accordance with 2-15-405.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-123. Effective date — filed document. (1) Except to the extent otherwise provided in 35-14-124(3) and 35-14-145 through 35-14-152, a document accepted for filing is effective:

(a) on the date and at the time of filing, as provided in 35-14-125(2);

(b) on the date of filing and at the time specified in the document as its effective time if later than the time under subsection (1)(a);

(c) at a specified delayed effective date and time, which may not be more than 90 days after filing; or

(d) if a delayed effective date is specified but no time is specified, at 12:01 a.m. on the date specified, which may not be more than 90 days after the date of filing.

(2) If a filed document does not specify the time zone or place at which a date or time or both are to be determined, the date or time or both at which it becomes effective are those prevailing at the place of filing in this state.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-124. Correcting filed document. (1) A document filed by the secretary of state pursuant to this chapter may be corrected if:

(a) the document contains an inaccuracy;

(b) the document was defectively signed, attested, sealed, verified, or acknowledged; or

(c) the electronic transmission was defective.

(2) A document is corrected:

(a) by preparing articles of correction that:

(i) describe the document, including its filing date, or attach a copy of it to the articles of correction;

(ii) specify the inaccuracy or defect to be corrected; and

(iii) correct the inaccuracy or defect; and

(b) by delivering the articles of correction to the secretary of state for filing.

(3) Articles of correction are effective on the effective date of the document they correct except as to persons relying on the uncorrected document and adversely affected by the correction. As to those persons, articles of correction are effective when filed.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-125. Filing duty — secretary of state. (1) If a document delivered to the office of the secretary of state for filing satisfies the requirements of 35-14-120, the secretary of state shall file it.

(2) The secretary of state files a document by recording it as filed on the date and time of receipt. After filing a document, the secretary of state shall return to the person who delivered the document for filing a copy of the document with an acknowledgment of the date and time of filing.

(3) If the secretary of state refuses to file a document, it must be returned to the person who delivered the document for filing within 10 days after the document was delivered, together with a brief, written explanation of the reason for the refusal.

(4) The secretary of state's duty to file documents under this section is ministerial. The secretary of state's filing or refusing to file a document does not create a presumption that:

(a) the document does or does not conform to the requirements of this chapter; or

(b) the information contained in the document is correct or incorrect.

(5) The secretary of state may correct errors caused by a filing officer. The error and the correction must be retained in the file containing the document in which the error appeared. For the purposes of this subsection, a filing officer is a person employed in a filing office as defined in 30-9A-102.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-126. Appeal from secretary of state — refusal to file document. (1) If the secretary of state refuses to file a document delivered for filing, the person that delivered the document for filing may petition the district court of the first judicial district to compel its filing. The document and the explanation of the secretary of state of the refusal to file must be attached to the petition. The court may decide the matter in a summary proceeding.

(2) The court may order the secretary of state to file the document or take other action the court considers appropriate.

(3) The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-127. Evidentiary effect — certified copy of filed document. A certificate from the secretary of state delivered with a copy of a document filed by the secretary of state is conclusive evidence that the original document is on file with the secretary of state.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-128. Certificate of existence or registration. (1) Any person may apply to the secretary of state to furnish a certificate of existence for a domestic corporation or a certificate of registration for a foreign corporation.

(2) A certificate of existence sets forth:

(a) the domestic corporation's corporate name;

(b) that the domestic corporation is duly incorporated under the law of this state, the date of its incorporation, and the period of its duration if less than perpetual;

(c) that all fees, taxes, and penalties owed to this state have been paid if:

(i) payment is reflected in the records of the secretary of state; and

(ii) nonpayment affects the existence of the domestic corporation;

(d) that its most recent annual report required by 35-14-1621 has been filed with the secretary of state;

(e) that articles of dissolution have not been filed;

(f) that the corporation is not administratively dissolved and a proceeding is not pending under 35-14-1421; and

(g) other facts of record in the office of the secretary of state that may be requested by the applicant.

(3) A certificate of registration sets forth:

(a) the foreign corporation's name used in this state;

(b) that the foreign corporation is registered to do business in this state;

(c) that all fees, taxes, and penalties owed to this state have been paid if:

(i) payment is reflected in the records of the secretary of state; and

(ii) nonpayment affects the registration of the foreign corporation;

(d) that its most recent annual report required by 35-14-1621 has been filed with the secretary of state; and

(e) other facts of record in the office of the secretary of state that may be requested by the applicant.

(4) Subject to any qualification stated in the certificate, a certificate of existence or registration issued by the secretary of state may be relied on as conclusive evidence of the facts stated in the certificate.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-129. Penalty — signing false document. (1) The execution of any document required to be filed with the secretary of state under this part constitutes an affirmation, under the penalties of false swearing, by each person executing the document that the facts stated in the document are true.

(2) The secretary of state shall provide for the printing of a warning to this effect on each form prescribed by the secretary of state under this part.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-130. Powers. (1) The secretary of state has the power reasonably necessary to perform the duties required of the secretary of state by this chapter.

(2) The secretary of state may adopt rules to perform the duties required of the secretary of state under this part, including establishing necessary fees.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-131 through 35-14-139 reserved.

35-14-140. General definitions. For the purposes of this chapter, unless otherwise specified, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Articles of incorporation" means the articles of incorporation described in 35-14-202, all amendments to the articles of incorporation, and any other documents permitted or required to be delivered for filing by a domestic business corporation with the secretary of state under any provision of this chapter that modify, amend, supplement, restate, or replace the articles of incorporation. After an amendment of the articles of incorporation or any other document filed under this chapter that restates the articles of incorporation in their entirety, the articles of incorporation may not include any prior documents. When used with respect to a foreign corporation or a domestic or foreign nonprofit corporation, the "articles of incorporation" of the entity means the document of the entity that is equivalent to the articles of incorporation of a domestic business corporation.

(2) "Authorized shares" means the shares of all classes a domestic or foreign corporation is authorized to issue.

(3) "Beneficial shareholder" means a person who owns the beneficial interest in shares, which may be a record shareholder or a person on whose behalf shares are registered in the name of an intermediary or nominee.

(4) "Conspicuous" means written, displayed, or presented so that a reasonable person against whom the writing is to operate should have noticed it.

(5) "Corporation", "domestic corporation", "business corporation", or "domestic business corporation" means a corporation for profit, which is not a foreign corporation, incorporated under this chapter.

(6) "Deliver" or "delivery" means any method of delivery used in conventional commercial practice, including delivery by hand, mail, and commercial delivery and, if authorized in accordance with 35-14-141, by electronic transmission.

(7) "Distribution" means a direct or indirect transfer of cash or other property except a corporation's own shares or incurrence of indebtedness by a corporation to or for the benefit of its shareholders in respect of any of its shares. A distribution may be in the form of:

(a) a payment of a dividend;

(b) a purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of shares;

(c) a distribution of indebtedness;

(d) a distribution in liquidation; or

(e) another form.

(8) "Document" means:

(a) any tangible medium on which information is inscribed and includes handwritten, typed, printed, or similar instruments and copies of those instruments; or

(b) an electronic record.

(9) "Domestic", with respect to an entity, means an entity governed as to its internal affairs by the law of this state.

(10) "Effective date", when referring to a document accepted for filing by the secretary of state, means the time and date determined in accordance with 35-14-123.

(11) "Electronic" means relating to technology having electrical, digital, magnetic, wireless, optical, electromagnetic, or similar capabilities.

(12) "Electronic record" means information that is stored in an electronic or other nontangible medium and is retrievable in paper form through an automated process used in conventional commercial practice unless otherwise authorized in accordance with 35-14-141(10).

(13) "Electronic transmission" or "electronically transmitted" means any form or process of communication not directly involving the physical transfer of paper or another tangible medium that:

(a) is suitable for the retention, retrieval, and reproduction of information by the recipient; and

(b) is retrievable in paper form by the recipient through an automated process used in conventional commercial practice unless otherwise authorized in accordance with 35-14-141(10).

(14) "Eligible entity" means a domestic or foreign unincorporated entity or a domestic or foreign nonprofit corporation.

(15) "Eligible interests" means interests or memberships.

(16) "Employee" includes an officer but not a director. A director may accept duties that make the director also an employee.

(17) "Entity" includes:

(a) a domestic and foreign business corporation;

(b) a domestic and foreign nonprofit corporation;

(c) an estate;

(d) a trust;

(e) a domestic and foreign unincorporated entity; and

(f) a state, the United States, and a foreign government.

(18) "Expenses" means reasonable expenses of any kind that are incurred in connection with a matter, including attorney fees.

(19) "Filing entity" means an unincorporated entity, other than a limited liability partnership, that is of a type that is created by filing a public organic record or is required to file a public organic record that evidences its creation.

(20) "Foreign", with respect to an entity, means an entity governed as to its internal affairs by the organic law of a jurisdiction other than this state.

(21) "Foreign corporation" or "foreign business corporation" means a corporation incorporated under a law other than the law of this state that would be a business corporation if incorporated under the law of this state.

(22) "Foreign nonprofit corporation" means a corporation incorporated under a law other than the law of this state that would be a nonprofit corporation if incorporated under the law of this state.

(23) "Foreign registration statement" means the foreign registration statement described in 35-14-1503.

(24) "Governmental subdivision" includes an authority, a county, a district, and a municipality.

(25) "Governor" means any person under whose authority the powers of an entity are exercised and under whose direction the activities and affairs of the entity are managed pursuant to the organic law governing the entity and its organic rules.

(26) "Includes" and "including" denote a partial definition or a nonexclusive list.

(27) "Individual" means a natural person.

(28) "Interest" means either or both of the following rights under the organic law governing an unincorporated entity:

(a) the right to receive distributions from the entity either in the ordinary course or upon liquidation; or

(b) the right to receive notice or vote on issues involving its internal affairs, other than as an agent, assignee, proxy, or person responsible for managing its business and affairs.

(29) "Interest holder" means a person who holds of record an interest.

(30) (a) "Interest holder liability" means:

(i) personal liability for a debt, obligation, or other liability of a domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity that is imposed on a person:

(A) solely by reason of the person's status as a shareholder, member, or interest holder; or

(B) by the articles of incorporation of the domestic corporation or the organic rules of the eligible entity or foreign corporation that make one or more specified shareholders, members, or interest holders or categories of shareholders, members, or interest holders liable in their capacity as shareholders, members, or interest holders for all or specified liabilities of the corporation or eligible entity; or

(ii) an obligation of a shareholder, member, or interest holder under the articles of incorporation of a domestic corporation or the organic rules of an eligible entity or foreign corporation to contribute to the entity.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation of a domestic corporation or the organic law or organic rules of an eligible entity or a foreign corporation, interest holder liability arises under subsection (30)(a) when the corporation or eligible entity incurs the liability.

(31) "Jurisdiction of formation" means the state or country the law of which includes the organic law governing a domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity.

(32) "Means" denotes an exhaustive definition.

(33) "Membership" means the rights of a member in a domestic or foreign nonprofit corporation.

(34) "Merger" means a transaction pursuant to 35-14-1102.

(35) "Nonfiling entity" means an unincorporated entity that is of a type that is not created by filing a public organic record.

(36) "Nonprofit corporation" or "domestic nonprofit corporation" means a corporation incorporated under the laws of this state and subject to the provisions of the Montana Nonprofit Corporation Act.

(37) "Organic law" means the statute governing the internal affairs of a domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation or unincorporated entity.

(38) "Organic rules" means the public organic record and private organic rules of a domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity.

(39) "Person" includes an individual and an entity.

(40) "Principal office" means the office, whether in this state or out of this state, designated in the annual report or foreign registration statement as the place where the principal executive offices of a domestic or foreign corporation are located.

(41) (a) "Private organic rules" means:

(i) the bylaws of a domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation; or

(ii) the rules, regardless of whether in writing, that govern the internal affairs of an unincorporated entity, are binding on all its interest holders, and are not part of its public organic record, if any.

(b) When private organic rules have been amended or restated, the term means the private organic rules as last amended or restated.

(42) "Proceeding" includes a civil suit and a criminal, administrative, and investigatory action.

(43) (a) "Public organic record" means:

(i) the articles of incorporation of a domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation; or

(ii) the document, if any, the filing of which is required to create an unincorporated entity or that creates the unincorporated entity and is required to be filed.

(b) When a public organic record has been amended or restated, the term means the public organic record as last amended or restated.

(44) "Record date" means the date fixed for determining the identity of the corporation's shareholders and their shareholdings for purposes of this chapter. Unless another time is specified when the record date is fixed, the determination must be made as of the close of business at the principal office of the corporation on the record date.

(45) "Record shareholder" means:

(a) the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of the corporation; or

(b) the person identified as the beneficial owner of shares in a beneficial ownership certificate pursuant to 35-14-723 on file with the corporation to the extent of the rights granted by the certificate.

(46) "Registered foreign corporation" means a foreign corporation registered to do business in this state pursuant to part 15 of this chapter.

(47) "Secretary" means the corporate officer to whom the board of directors has delegated responsibility under 35-14-840(3) to maintain the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors and of the shareholders and for authenticating records of the corporation.

(48) "Share exchange" means a transaction pursuant to 35-14-1103.

(49) "Shareholder" means a record shareholder.

(50) "Shares" means the units into which the proprietary interests in a domestic or foreign corporation are divided.

(51) "Sign" or "signature" means, with present intent to authenticate or adopt a document:

(a) to execute or adopt a tangible symbol to a document, including any manual, facsimile, or conformed signature; or

(b) to attach to or logically associate with an electronic transmission an electronic sound, symbol, or process, including an electronic signature in an electronic transmission.

(52) "State", when referring to a part of the United States, includes a state, commonwealth, or territory or insular possession of the United States and their agencies and governmental subdivisions.

(53) "Subscriber" means a person who subscribes for shares in a corporation, whether before or after incorporation.

(54) "Type of entity" means a generic form of entity:

(a) recognized at common law; or

(b) formed under an organic law, regardless of whether some entities formed under that law are subject to provisions of that law that create different categories of the form of entity.

(55) (a) "Unincorporated entity" means an organization or artificial legal person that either has a separate legal existence or has the power to acquire an estate in real property in its own name and that is not any of the following:

(i) a domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation;

(ii) a series of a limited liability company or of another type of entity;

(iii) an estate;

(iv) a trust; or

(v) a state, the United States, or a foreign government.

(b) The term includes a general partnership, limited liability partnership, limited liability company, limited partnership, limited liability limited partnership, business trust, joint stock association, and unincorporated nonprofit association.

(56) "United States" includes a district, authority, bureau, commission, department, and any other agency of the United States.

(57) "Unrestricted voting trust beneficial owner" means, with respect to any shareholder rights, a voting trust beneficial owner whose entitlement to exercise the shareholder right in question is not inconsistent with the voting trust agreement.

(58) "Voting group" means all shares of one or more classes or series that under the articles of incorporation or this chapter are entitled to vote and be counted together collectively on a matter at a meeting of shareholders. All shares entitled by the articles of incorporation or this chapter to vote generally on the matter are for that purpose a single voting group.

(59) "Voting power" means the current power to vote in the election of directors.

(60) "Voting trust beneficial owner" means an owner of a beneficial interest in shares of the corporation held in a voting trust established pursuant to 35-14-730(1).

(61) "Writing" or "written" means any information in the form of a document.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-141. Notices and other communications. (1) A notice under this chapter must be in writing unless oral notice is reasonable in the circumstances. Unless otherwise agreed between the sender and the recipient, words in a notice or other communication under this chapter must be in English.

(2) A notice or other communication may be given by any method of delivery, except that electronic transmissions must be in accordance with this section. If the methods of delivery are impracticable, a notice or other communication may be given by means of a broad nonexclusionary distribution to the public, which may include:

(a) a newspaper of general circulation in the area where published;

(b) radio, television, or other form of public broadcast communication; or

(c) other methods of distribution that the corporation has previously identified to its shareholders.

(3) A notice or other communication to a domestic corporation or to a foreign corporation registered to do business in this state may be delivered to the corporation's registered agent at its registered office or to the secretary at the corporation's principal office shown in its most recent annual report or, in the case of a foreign corporation that has not yet delivered an annual report, in its foreign registration statement.

(4) A notice or other communications may be delivered by electronic transmission if consented to by the recipient or if authorized by subsection (10). A corporation that files documents with the office of the secretary of state under this chapter is considered to have given its irrevocable consent to delivery of notices or other communications by the office of the secretary of state to the corporation by electronic transmission.

(5) Any consent under subsection (4) may be revoked by the person who consented by written or electronic notice to the person to whom the consent was delivered. A consent is considered revoked if:

(a) the corporation is unable to deliver two consecutive electronic transmissions given by the corporation in accordance with the consent; and

(b) the inability becomes known to the secretary or an assistant secretary or to the transfer agent or other person responsible for the giving of notice or other communications. However, the inadvertent failure to treat the inability as a revocation does not invalidate any meeting or other action.

(6) Unless otherwise agreed between the sender and the recipient, an electronic transmission is received when:

(a) it enters an information processing system that the recipient has designated or uses for the purposes of receiving electronic transmissions or information of the type sent and from which the recipient is able to retrieve the electronic transmission; and

(b) it is in a form capable of being processed by that system.

(7) Receipt of an electronic acknowledgment from an information processing system described in subsection (6)(a) establishes that an electronic transmission was received but, by itself, does not establish that the content sent corresponds to the content received.

(8) An electronic transmission is received under this section even if no person is aware of its receipt.

(9) A notice or other communication, if in a comprehensible form or manner, is effective at the earliest of the following:

(a) if in a physical form, the earliest of when it is actually received or when it is left at:

(i) a shareholder's address shown on the corporation's record of shareholders maintained by the corporation under 35-14-1601(4);

(ii) a director's residence or usual place of business; or

(iii) the corporation's principal office;

(b) if mailed postage prepaid and correctly addressed to a shareholder, on deposit in the United States mail;

(c) if mailed by United States mail postage prepaid and correctly addressed to a recipient other than a shareholder, the earliest of when it is actually received or:

(i) if sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, the date shown on the return receipt signed by or on behalf of the addressee; or

(ii) 5 days after it is deposited in the United States mail;

(d) if an electronic transmission, when it is received as provided in subsection (6); and

(e) if oral, when communicated.

(10) A notice or other communication may be in the form of an electronic transmission that cannot be directly reproduced in paper form by the recipient through an automated process used in conventional commercial practice only if:

(a) the electronic transmission is otherwise retrievable in perceivable form; and

(b) the sender and the recipient have consented in writing to the use of that form of electronic transmission.

(11) If this chapter prescribes requirements for notices or other communications in particular circumstances, those requirements govern. If articles of incorporation or bylaws prescribe requirements for notices or other communications not inconsistent with this section or other provisions of this chapter, those requirements govern. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may authorize or require delivery of notices of meetings of directors by electronic transmission.

(12) In the event that any provisions of this chapter are determined to modify, limit, or supersede the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. 7001, et seq., the provisions of this chapter control to the maximum extent permitted by section 102(a)(2) of that federal act.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-142. Number of shareholders. (1) For purposes of this chapter, the following, identified as a shareholder in a corporation's current record of shareholders, constitutes one shareholder:

(a) three or fewer co-owners;

(b) a corporation, partnership, trust, estate, or other entity; and

(c) the trustees, guardians, custodians, or other fiduciaries of a single trust, estate, or account.

(2) For purposes of this chapter, shareholdings registered in substantially similar names constitute one shareholder if it is reasonable to believe that the names represent the same person.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-143. Qualified director. (1) A qualified director is a director who, at the time action is to be taken under:

(a) 35-14-202(2)(f), is not a director:

(i) to whom the limitation or elimination of the duty of an officer to offer potential business opportunities to the corporation would apply; or

(ii) who has a material relationship with any other person to whom the limitation or elimination would apply;

(b) 35-14-744, does not have:

(i) a material interest in the outcome of the proceeding; or

(ii) a material relationship with a person who has such an interest;

(c) 35-14-853 or 35-14-855:

(i) is not a party to the proceeding;

(ii) is not a director as to whom a transaction is a director's conflicting interest transaction or who sought a disclaimer of the corporation's interest in a business opportunity under 35-14-870, which transaction or disclaimer is challenged in the proceeding; and

(iii) does not have a material relationship with a director described in subsection (1)(c)(i) or (1)(c)(ii);

(d) 35-14-862, is not a director:

(i) as to whom the transaction is a director's conflicting interest transaction; or

(ii) who has a material relationship with another director as to whom the transaction is a director's conflicting interest transaction; or

(e) 35-14-870, is not a director who:

(i) pursues or takes advantage of the business opportunity directly or indirectly through or on behalf of another person; or

(ii) has a material relationship with a director or officer who pursues or takes advantage of the business opportunity, directly or indirectly through or on behalf of another person.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) "material interest" means an actual or potential benefit or detriment, other than one that would devolve on the corporation or the shareholders generally, that would reasonably be expected to impair the objectivity of the director's judgment when participating in the action to be taken; and

(b) "material relationship" means a familial, financial, professional, employment, or other relationship that would reasonably be expected to impair the objectivity of the director's judgment when participating in the action to be taken.

(3) The presence of one or more of the following circumstances does not automatically prevent a director from being a qualified director:

(a) nomination or election of the director to the current board by any director who is not a qualified director with respect to the matter (or by any person that has a material relationship with that director), acting alone or participating with others;

(b) service as a director of another corporation of which a director who is not a qualified director with respect to the matter (or any individual who has a material relationship with that director) is or was also a director; or

(c) with respect to action to be taken under 35-14-744, status as a named defendant, as a director against whom action is demanded, or as a director who approved the conduct being challenged.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-144. Householding. (1) A corporation has delivered written notice or any other report or statement under this chapter, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws to all shareholders who share a common address if:

(a) the corporation delivers one copy of the notice, report, or statement to the common address;

(b) the corporation addresses the notice, report, or statement to those shareholders either as a group or to each of those shareholders individually or to the shareholders in a form to which each of those shareholders has consented; and

(c) each of those shareholders consents to delivery of a single copy of the notice, report, or statement to the shareholders' common address.

(2) Any consent described in subsection (1)(b) or (1)(c) is revocable by any of the shareholders who deliver written notice of revocation to the corporation. If a written notice of revocation is delivered, the corporation shall begin providing individual notices, reports, or other statements to the revoking shareholder no later than 30 days after delivery of the written notice of revocation.

(3) Any shareholder who fails to object by written notice to the corporation within 60 days of written notice by the corporation of its intention to deliver single copies of notices, reports, or statements to shareholders who share a common address as permitted by subsection (1) is considered to have consented to receiving a single copy at the common address, provided that the notice of intention explains that consent may be revoked and the method for revoking.

35-14-145. Definitions — ratification of defective corporate actions. In 35-14-145 through 35-14-152, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Corporate action" means any action taken by or on behalf of the corporation, including any action taken by the incorporator, the board of directors, a committee of the board of directors, an officer or agent of the corporation, or the shareholders.

(2) "Date of the defective corporate action" means the date, or the approximate date if the exact date is unknown, the defective corporate action was purported to have been taken.

(3) "Defective corporate action" means:

(a) any corporate action purportedly taken that is, and at the time the corporate action was purportedly taken would have been, within the power of the corporation but is void or voidable due to a failure of authorization; and

(b) an overissue.

(4) "Failure of authorization" means the failure to authorize, approve, or otherwise effect a corporate action in compliance with the provisions of this chapter, the articles of incorporation or bylaws, a corporate resolution, or any plan or agreement to which the corporation is a party if and to the extent the failure would render the corporate action void or voidable.

(5) "Overissue" means the purported issuance of:

(a) shares of a class or series in excess of the number of shares of a class or series the corporation has the power to issue under 35-14-601 at the time of the issuance; or

(b) shares of any class or series that is not then authorized for issuance by the articles of incorporation.

(6) "Putative shares" means the shares of any class or series (including shares issued upon exercise of rights, options, warrants, or other securities convertible into shares of the corporation or interests with respect to those shares) that were created or issued as a result of a defective corporate action and that:

(a) but for any failure of authorization would constitute valid shares; or

(b) cannot be determined by the board of directors to be valid shares.

(7) "Valid shares" means the shares of any class or series that have been duly authorized and validly issued in accordance with this chapter, including as a result of ratification or validation under 35-14-145 through 35-14-152.

(8) (a) "Validation effective time", with respect to any defective corporate action ratified under 35-14-145 through 35-14-152, means the later of:

(i) the time at which the ratification of the defective corporate action is approved by the shareholders or, if approval of shareholders is not required, the time at which the notice required by 35-14-149 becomes effective in accordance with 35-14-141; or

(ii) the time at which any articles of validation filed in accordance with 35-14-151 become effective.

(b) The validation effective time is not affected by the filing or pendency of a judicial proceeding under 35-14-152 or otherwise unless ordered by the court.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-146. Defective corporate actions. (1) A defective corporate action is not void or voidable if ratified in accordance with 35-14-147 or validated in accordance with 35-14-152.

(2) Ratification under 35-14-147 or validation under 35-14-152 may not be considered the exclusive means of ratifying or validating a defective corporate action, and the absence or failure of ratification in accordance with 35-14-145 through 35-14-152 does not, of itself, affect the validity or effectiveness of any corporate action properly ratified under common law or otherwise or create a presumption that any corporate action is or was a defective corporate action or is void or voidable.

(3) In the case of an overissue, putative shares are valid shares effective as of the date originally issued or purportedly issued on:

(a) the effectiveness under 35-14-145 through 35-14-152 and under part 10 of this chapter of an amendment to the articles of incorporation authorizing, designating, or creating the shares; or

(b) the effectiveness of any other corporate action under 35-14-145 through 35-14-152 ratifying the authorization, designation, or creation of the shares.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-147. Ratification — defective corporate actions. (1) To ratify a defective corporate action under this section, other than the ratification of an election of the initial board of directors under subsection (2), the board of directors shall take action ratifying the action in accordance with 35-14-148, stating:

(a) the defective corporate action to be ratified and, if the defective corporate action involved the issuance of putative shares, the number and type of putative shares purportedly issued;

(b) the date of the defective corporate action;

(c) the nature of the failure of authorization with respect to the defective corporate action to be ratified; and

(d) that the board of directors approves the ratification of the defective corporate action.

(2) In the event that a defective corporate action to be ratified relates to the election of the initial board of directors of the corporation under 35-14-205(1)(b), a majority of the persons who, at the time of the ratification, are exercising the powers of directors may take an action stating:

(a) the name of the person or persons who first took action in the name of the corporation as the initial board of directors of the corporation;

(b) the earlier of the date on which those persons first took action or the date on which they were purported to have been elected as the initial board of directors; and

(c) that the ratification of the election of the person or persons as the initial board of directors is approved.

(3) If any provision of this chapter, the articles of incorporation or bylaws, any corporate resolution, or any plan or agreement to which the corporation is a party that is in effect at the time action under subsection (1) is taken requires shareholder approval or would have required shareholder approval at the date of the occurrence of the defective corporate action, the ratification of the defective corporate action approved in the action taken by the directors under subsection (1) must be submitted to the shareholders for approval in accordance with 35-14-148.

(4) Unless otherwise provided in the action taken by the board of directors under subsection (1), after the action by the board of directors has been taken and, if required, approved by the shareholders, the board of directors may abandon the ratification at any time before the validation effective time without further action of the shareholders.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-148. Action on ratification. (1) The quorum and voting requirements applicable to a ratifying action by the board of directors under 35-14-147(1) are the quorum and voting requirements applicable to the corporate action proposed to be ratified at the time the ratifying action is taken.

(2) If the ratification of the defective corporate action requires approval by the shareholders under 35-14-147(3) and if the approval is to be given at a meeting, the corporation shall notify each holder of valid and putative shares, regardless of whether entitled to vote, as of the record date for notice of the meeting and as of the date of the occurrence of defective corporate action, provided that notice is not required to be given to holders of valid or putative shares whose identities or addresses for notice cannot be determined from the records of the corporation. The notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider ratification of a defective corporate action and must be accompanied by:

(a) either a copy of the action taken by the board of directors in accordance with 35-14-147(1) or the information required by 35-14-147(1)(a) through (1)(d); and

(b) a statement that any claim that the ratification of the defective corporate action and any putative shares issued as a result of the defective corporate action should not be effective or should be effective only on certain conditions must be brought within 120 days from the applicable validation effective time.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4) with respect to the voting requirements to ratify the election of a director, the quorum and voting requirements applicable to the approval by the shareholders required by 35-14-147(3) must be the quorum and voting requirements applicable to the corporate action proposed to be ratified at the time of the shareholder approval.

(4) The approval by shareholders to ratify the election of a director requires that the votes cast within the voting group favoring ratification exceed the votes cast opposing ratification of the election at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

(5) Putative shares on the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to vote on any matter submitted to shareholders under 35-14-147(3) (and without giving effect to any ratification of putative shares that becomes effective as a result of the vote) are neither entitled to vote nor counted for quorum purposes in a vote to approve the ratification of a defective corporate action.

(6) If the approval under this section of putative shares would result in an overissue, in addition to the approval required by 35-14-147, approval of an amendment to the articles of incorporation under part 10 of this chapter to increase the number of shares of an authorized class or series or to authorize the creation of a class or series of shares so there would be no overissue is also required.

35-14-149. Notice requirements. (1) Unless shareholder approval is required under 35-14-147(3), prompt notice of an action taken under 35-14-147 must be given to each holder of valid and putative shares, regardless of whether entitled to vote, as of:

(a) the date of the action by the board of directors; and

(b) the date the defective corporate action was ratified, provided that notice may not be required to be given to holders of valid and putative shares whose identities or addresses for notice cannot be determined from the records of the corporation.

(2) The notice must contain:

(a) either:

(i) a copy of the action taken by the board of directors in accordance with 35-14-147(1) or (2); or

(ii) the information required by 35-14-147(1)(a) through (1)(d) or (2)(a) through (2)(c), as applicable; and

(b) a statement that any claim that the ratification of the defective corporate action and any putative shares issued as a result of the defective corporate action should not be effective or should be effective only on certain conditions must be brought within 120 days from the applicable validation effective time.

(3) No notice under this section is required with respect to any action required to be submitted to shareholders for approval under 35-14-147(3) if notice is given in accordance with 35-14-148(2).

(4) A notice required by this section may be given in any manner permitted by 35-14-141 and, for any corporation subject to the reporting requirements of section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, may be given by means of a filing or furnishing of the notice with the United States securities and exchange commission.

35-14-150. Effect of ratification. From and after the validation effective time and without regard to the 120-day period during which a claim may be brought under 35-14-152:

(1) each defective corporate action ratified in accordance with 35-14-147 may not be void or voidable as a result of the failure of authorization identified in the action taken under 35-14-147(1) or (2) and is considered a valid corporate action effective as of the date of the defective corporate action;

(2) the issuance of each putative share or fraction of a putative share purportedly issued pursuant to a defective corporate action identified in the action taken under 35-14-147 may not be void or voidable, and such putative share or fraction of a putative share is considered an identical share or fraction of a valid share as of the time it was purportedly issued; and

(3) any corporate action taken subsequent to the defective corporate action ratified in accordance with 35-14-145 through 35-14-152 in reliance on the defective corporate action having been validly effected and any subsequent defective corporate action resulting directly or indirectly from the original defective corporate action are valid as of the time taken.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-151. Filings. (1) If the defective corporate action ratified under 35-14-145 through 35-14-152 would have required under any other section of this chapter a filing in accordance with this chapter, then, regardless of whether a filing was previously made with respect to the defective corporate action and in lieu of a filing otherwise required by this chapter, the corporation shall file articles of validation in accordance with this section, and the articles of validation serve to amend or substitute for any other filing with respect to the defective corporate action required by this chapter.

(2) The articles of validation must set forth:

(a) the defective corporate action that is the subject of the articles of validation, including, in the case of any defective corporate action involving the issuance of putative shares, the number and type of putative shares issued and the date or dates on which the putative shares were purported to have been issued;

(b) the date of the defective corporate action;

(c) the nature of the failure of authorization in respect of the defective corporate action;

(d) a statement that the defective corporate action was ratified in accordance with 35-14-147, including the date on which the board of directors ratified the defective corporate action and the date, if any, on which the shareholders approved the ratification of the defective corporate action; and

(e) the information required by subsection (3).

(3) The articles of validation must also contain the following information:

(a) if a filing was previously made with respect to the defective corporate action and no changes to the filing are required to give effect to the ratification of the defective corporate action in accordance with 35-14-147, the articles of validation must set forth:

(i) the name, title, and filing date of the filing previously made and any articles of correction to that filing; and

(ii) a statement that a copy of the filing previously made, together with any articles of correction to that filing, is attached as an exhibit to the articles of validation;

(b) if a filing was previously made with respect to the defective corporate action and the filing requires any change to give effect to the ratification of the defective corporate action in accordance with 35-14-147, the articles of validation must set forth:

(i) the name, title, and filing date of the filing previously made and any articles of correction to that filing; and

(ii) a statement that a filing containing all of the information required to be included under the applicable section or sections of this chapter to give effect to the defective corporate action is attached as an exhibit to the articles of validation; and

(iii) the date and time that the filing is considered to have become effective; or

(c) if a filing was not previously made in respect of the defective corporate action and the defective corporate action ratified under 35-14-147 would have required a filing under any other section of this chapter, the articles of validation must set forth:

(i) a statement that a filing containing all of the information required to be included under the applicable section or sections of this chapter to give effect to the defective corporate action is attached as an exhibit to the articles of validation; and

(ii) the date and time that the filing is considered to have become effective.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-152. Judicial proceedings — validity of corporate actions. (1) Upon application by the corporation, any successor entity to the corporation, a director of the corporation, any shareholder, beneficial shareholder, or unrestricted voting trust beneficial owner of the corporation, including any shareholder, beneficial shareholder, or unrestricted voting trust beneficial owner as of the date of the defective corporate action ratified under 35-14-147, or any other person claiming to be substantially and adversely affected by a ratification under 35-14-147, the district court in the county where the corporation's principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, of the first judicial district may:

(a) determine the validity and effectiveness of any corporate action or defective corporate action;

(b) determine the validity and effectiveness of any ratification under 35-14-147;

(c) determine the validity of any putative shares; and

(d) modify or waive any of the procedures specified in 35-14-147 or 35-14-148 to ratify a defective corporate action.

(2) In connection with an action under this section, the court may make findings or orders and take into account any factors or considerations regarding matters it considers proper under the circumstances.

(3) Service of process of the application under subsection (1) on the corporation may be made in any manner provided by statute of this state or by rule of the applicable court for service on the corporation, and no other party need be joined in order for the court to adjudicate the matter. In an action filed by the corporation, the court may require that notice of the action be provided to other persons specified by the court and permit the other persons to intervene in the action.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section or otherwise under applicable law, any action asserting that the ratification of any defective corporate action and any putative shares issued as a result of the defective corporate action should not be effective or should be effective only on certain conditions must be brought within 120 days of the validation effective time.

History: En. Sec. 26, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

Part 2
Incorporation
(Effective June 1, 2020)

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: Section 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "[This act] is effective June 1, 2020."

Applicability: Section 275, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "A foreign corporation registered or authorized to do business in this state on the [effective date of sections 1 through 221] [June 1, 2020] is subject to [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter], is considered to be registered to do business in this state, and is not required to file a foreign registration statement under [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter]."

35-14-201. Incorporators. One or more persons may act as the incorporator or incorporators of a corporation by delivering articles of incorporation to the secretary of state for filing.

History: En. Sec. 27, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-202. Articles of incorporation. (1) The articles of incorporation must set forth:

(a) a corporate name for the corporation that satisfies the requirements of 35-14-401;

(b) the number of shares the corporation is authorized to issue;

(c) the street and mailing addresses of the corporation's initial registered office and the name of its initial registered agent at that office; and

(d) the name and address of each incorporator.

(2) The articles of incorporation may set forth:

(a) the names and addresses of the individuals who are to serve as the initial directors;

(b) provisions not inconsistent with law regarding:

(i) the purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized;

(ii) managing the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation;

(iii) defining, limiting, and regulating the powers of the corporation, its board of directors, and its shareholders;

(iv) a par value for authorized shares or classes of shares; or

(v) the imposition of interest holder liability on shareholders;

(c) any provision that under this chapter is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws;

(d) a provision eliminating or limiting the liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for money damages for any action taken or any failure to take any action as a director, except liability for:

(i) the amount of a financial benefit received by a director to which the director is not entitled;

(ii) an intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or the shareholders;

(iii) a violation of 35-14-832; or

(iv) an intentional violation of criminal law;

(e) a provision permitting or making obligatory indemnification of a director for liability as defined in 35-14-850 to any person for any action taken or any failure to take any action as a director, except liability for:

(i) receipt of a financial benefit to which the director is not entitled;

(ii) an intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or its shareholders;

(iii) a violation of 35-14-832; or

(iv) an intentional violation of criminal law; and

(f) a provision limiting or eliminating any duty of a director or any other person to offer the corporation the right to have or participate in any or one or more classes or categories of business opportunities before the pursuit or taking of the opportunity by the director or other person, provided that any application of such a provision to an officer or a related person of that officer:

(i) also requires approval of that application by the board of directors, subsequent to the effective date of the provision, by action of qualified directors taken in compliance with the procedures set forth in 35-14-862; and

(ii) may be limited by the authorizing action of the board.

(3) The articles of incorporation need not set forth any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter.

(4) Provisions of the articles of incorporation may be made dependent on facts objectively ascertainable outside the articles of incorporation in accordance with 35-14-120(11).

(5) As used in this section, "related person" has the meaning specified in 35-14-860.

History: En. Sec. 28, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-203. Incorporation. (1) Unless a delayed effective date is specified, the corporate existence begins when the articles of incorporation are filed.

(2) The secretary of state's filing of the articles of incorporation is conclusive proof that the incorporators satisfied all conditions precedent to incorporation except in a proceeding by the state to cancel or revoke the incorporation or involuntarily dissolve the corporation.

History: En. Sec. 29, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-204. Liability for preincorporation transactions. All persons purporting to act as or on behalf of a corporation, knowing there was no incorporation under this chapter, are jointly and severally liable for all liabilities created while so acting.

History: En. Sec. 30, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-205. Organization of corporation. (1) After incorporation:

(a) if initial directors are named in the articles of incorporation, the initial directors shall hold an organizational meeting, at the call of a majority of the directors, to complete the organization of the corporation by appointing officers, adopting bylaws, and carrying on any other business brought before the meeting; or

(b) if initial directors are not named in the articles of incorporation, the incorporator or incorporators shall hold an organizational meeting at the call of a majority of the incorporators:

(i) to elect initial directors and complete the organization of the corporation; or

(ii) to elect a board of directors who shall complete the organization of the corporation.

(2) Action required or permitted by this chapter to be taken by incorporators at an organizational meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action taken is evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken and signed by each incorporator.

(3) An organizational meeting may be held in or out of this state.

History: En. Sec. 31, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-206. Bylaws. (1) The incorporators or board of directors of a corporation shall adopt initial bylaws for the corporation.

(2) The bylaws of a corporation may contain any provision that is not inconsistent with law or the articles of incorporation.

(3) The bylaws may contain one or both of the following provisions:

(a) a requirement that if the corporation solicits proxies or consents with respect to an election of directors, the corporation include in its proxy statement and any form of its proxy or consent, to the extent and subject to the procedures or conditions provided in the bylaws, one or more individuals nominated by a shareholder in addition to individuals nominated by the board of directors; and

(b) a requirement that the corporation reimburse the expenses incurred by a shareholder in soliciting proxies or consents in connection with an election of directors, to the extent and subject to procedures and conditions provided in the bylaws, provided that no bylaw so adopted applies to elections for which any record date precedes its adoption.

(4) Notwithstanding 35-14-1020(2)(b), the shareholders in amending, repealing, or adopting a bylaw described in subsection (3) may not limit the authority of the board of directors to amend or repeal any condition or procedure set forth in or to add any procedure or condition to the bylaw to provide for a reasonable, practical, and orderly process.

History: En. Sec. 32, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-207. Emergency bylaws. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, the board of directors may adopt bylaws to be effective only in an emergency as provided in subsection (4). The emergency bylaws, which are subject to amendment or repeal by the shareholders, may make all provisions necessary for managing the corporation during the emergency, including:

(a) procedures for calling a meeting of the board of directors;

(b) quorum requirements for the meeting; and

(c) designation of additional or substitute directors.

(2) All provisions of the regular bylaws not inconsistent with the emergency bylaws remain effective during the emergency. The emergency bylaws are not effective after the emergency ends.

(3) Corporate action taken in good faith in accordance with the emergency bylaws:

(a) binds the corporation; and

(b) may not be used to impose liability on a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation.

(4) An emergency exists for purposes of this section if a quorum of the board of directors cannot readily be assembled because of some catastrophic event.

History: En. Sec. 33, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-208. Forum selection. (1) The articles of incorporation or the bylaws may require that any or all internal corporate claims must be brought exclusively in any specified court or courts of this state and, if so specified, in any additional courts in this state or in any other jurisdictions with which the corporation has a reasonable relationship.

(2) A provision of the articles of incorporation or bylaws adopted under subsection (1) may not have the effect of conferring jurisdiction on any court or over any person or claim and may not apply if none of the courts specified by the provision has the requisite personal and subject matter jurisdiction. If the court or courts of this state specified in a provision adopted under subsection (1) do not have the requisite personal and subject matter jurisdiction and another court of this state does have the jurisdiction, then the internal corporate claim may be brought in that other court of this state, notwithstanding that the other court of this state is not specified in the provision, and in any other court specified in the provision that has the requisite jurisdiction.

(3) No provision of the articles of incorporation or the bylaws may prohibit bringing an internal corporate claim in the courts of this state or require the claims to be determined by arbitration.

(4) For the purposes of this section, "internal corporate claim" means:

(a) any claim that is based on a violation of a duty under the laws of this state by a current or former director, officer, or shareholder in such capacity;

(b) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of the corporation;

(c) any action asserting a claim arising pursuant to any provision of this chapter or the articles of incorporation or bylaws; or

(d) any action asserting a claim governed by the internal affairs doctrine that is not included in this subsection (4).

History: En. Sec. 34, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

Part 3
Purposes and Powers
(Effective June 1, 2020)

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: Section 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "[This act] is effective June 1, 2020."

Applicability: Section 275, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "A foreign corporation registered or authorized to do business in this state on the [effective date of sections 1 through 221] [June 1, 2020] is subject to [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter], is considered to be registered to do business in this state, and is not required to file a foreign registration statement under [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter]."

35-14-301. Purposes. (1) Every corporation incorporated under this chapter has the purpose of engaging in any lawful business unless a more limited purpose is set forth in the articles of incorporation.

(2) A corporation engaging in a business that is subject to regulation under another statute of this state may incorporate under this chapter only if permitted by and subject to all limitations of the other statute.

History: En. Sec. 35, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-302. General powers. Unless its articles of incorporation provide otherwise, every corporation has perpetual duration and succession in its corporate name and has the same powers as an individual to do all things necessary or convenient to carry out its business and affairs, including power:

(1) to sue and be sued, complain, and defend in its corporate name;

(2) to have a corporate seal, which may be altered at will, and to use it or a facsimile of it by impressing or affixing it or in any other manner reproducing it;

(3) to make and amend bylaws not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state for managing the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation;

(4) to purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire and to own, hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal with real or personal property or any legal or equitable interest in property, wherever located;

(5) to sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property;

(6) to purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of and deal in and with shares or other interests in or obligations of any other entity;

(7) to make contracts and guarantees, incur liabilities, borrow money, issue its notes, bonds, and other securities and obligations, which may be convertible into or include the option to purchase other securities of the corporation, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of any of its property, franchises, or income;

(8) to lend money, invest and reinvest its funds, and receive and hold real and personal property as security for repayment;

(9) to be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, joint venture, trust, or other entity;

(10) to conduct its business, locate offices, and exercise the powers granted by this chapter within or outside this state;

(11) to elect directors and appoint officers, employees, and agents of the corporation, define their duties, fix their compensation, and lend them money and credit;

(12) to pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit sharing plans, share bonus plans, share option plans, and benefit or incentive plans for any or all of its current or former directors, officers, employees, and agents;

(13) to make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes;

(14) to transact any lawful business that will aid governmental policy; and

(15) to make payments or donations or do any other act not inconsistent with law that furthers the business and affairs of the corporation.

History: En. Sec. 36, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-303. Emergency powers. (1) In anticipation of or during an emergency as provided in subsection (4), the board of directors of a corporation may:

(a) modify lines of succession to accommodate the incapacity of any director, officer, employee, or agent; and

(b) relocate the principal office, designate alternative principal offices or regional offices, or authorize the officers to do so.

(2) During an emergency as provided in subsection (4), unless emergency bylaws provide otherwise:

(a) notice of a meeting of the board of directors must be given only to those directors whom it is practicable to reach and may be given in any practicable manner; and

(b) one or more officers of the corporation present at a meeting of the board of directors may be considered to be directors for the meeting, in order of rank and within the same rank in order of seniority, as necessary to achieve a quorum.

(3) Corporate action taken in good faith during an emergency under this section to further the ordinary business affairs of the corporation:

(a) binds the corporation; and

(b) may not be used to impose liability on a director, officer, employee, or agent.

(4) An emergency exists for purposes of this section if a quorum of the board of directors cannot readily be assembled because of some catastrophic event.

History: En. Sec. 37, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-304. Lack of power to act. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), the validity of corporate action may not be challenged on the grounds that the corporation lacks or lacked power to act.

(2) A corporation's power to act may be challenged:

(a) in a proceeding by a shareholder against the corporation to enjoin the act;

(b) in a proceeding by the corporation, directly, derivatively, or through a receiver, trustee, or other legal representative, against an incumbent or former director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation; or

(c) in a proceeding by the attorney general under 35-14-1430.

(3) In a shareholder's proceeding under subsection (2)(a) to enjoin an unauthorized corporate act, the court may enjoin or set aside the act, if equitable and if all affected persons are parties to the proceeding, and may award damages for loss, other than anticipated profits, suffered by the corporation or another party because of enjoining the unauthorized act.

Part 4
Corporate Name
(Effective June 1, 2020)

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: Section 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "[This act] is effective June 1, 2020."

Applicability: Section 275, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "A foreign corporation registered or authorized to do business in this state on the [effective date of sections 1 through 221] [June 1, 2020] is subject to [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter], is considered to be registered to do business in this state, and is not required to file a foreign registration statement under [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter]."

35-14-401. Corporate name. (1) A corporate name:

(a) must contain the word "corporation", "incorporated", "company", or "limited", the abbreviation "corp.", "inc.", "co.", or "ltd.", or words or abbreviations of similar meaning in another language; and

(b) may not contain language stating or implying that the corporation is organized for a purpose other than that permitted by 35-14-301 and its articles of incorporation.

(2) Except as authorized by subsections (3) and (4), a corporate name must be distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from:

(a) the corporate name of a corporation incorporated in this state that is not administratively dissolved. If the corporation has been administratively dissolved, this provision applies to its corporate name for a period of 120 days following the effective date of its administrative dissolution.

(b) a corporate name reserved or registered under 35-14-402 or 35-14-403 or any similar provision of the law of this state;

(c) the name of a foreign corporation registered to do business in this state or an alternate name adopted by a foreign corporation registered to do business in this state because its corporate name is unavailable;

(d) the corporate name of a nonprofit corporation incorporated in this state that is not administratively dissolved. If the nonprofit corporation has been administratively dissolved, this provision applies to its corporate name for a period of 120 days following the effective date of its administrative dissolution.

(e) the name of a foreign nonprofit corporation registered to do business in this state or an alternate name adopted by a foreign nonprofit corporation registered to do business in this state because its real name is unavailable;

(f) the name of a domestic filing entity or limited liability partnership that is not administratively dissolved. If the domestic filing entity or limited liability partnership has been administratively dissolved, this provision applies to its corporate name for a period of 120 days following the effective date of its administrative dissolution.

(g) the name of a foreign unincorporated entity registered to do business in this state or an alternate name adopted by a foreign unincorporated entity registered to do business in this state because its real name is unavailable; and

(h) any assumed business name, trademark, or service mark reserved or registered with the secretary of state.

(3) A corporation may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use a name that is not distinguishable in the secretary of state's records from one or more of the names described in subsection (2). The secretary of state shall authorize use of the name applied for if:

(a) the other corporation or unincorporated entity consents to the use in writing and submits an undertaking in a form satisfactory to the secretary of state to change its name to a name that is distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from the name of the applying corporation; or

(b) the applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use the name applied for in this state.

(4) A corporation, domestic filing entity, or limited liability partnership may use the name, including the fictitious name, of another domestic or foreign corporation, domestic or foreign filing entity, or domestic or foreign limited liability partnership that is used in this state if the other corporation, filing entity, or limited liability partnership is incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state and the proposed user corporation, domestic filing entity, or limited liability partnership:

(a) has merged with the other corporation, filing entity, or limited liability partnership;

(b) has been formed by reorganization of the other corporation, filing entity, or limited liability partnership;

(c) has acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the name, of the other corporation, filing entity, or limited liability partnership; or

(d) has obtained written permission from the other corporation, filing entity, or limited liability partnership for use of the name and has filed a copy of the grant of permission with the secretary of state.

(5) This chapter does not control the use of fictitious names.

History: En. Sec. 39, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-402. Reserved name. (1) A person may reserve the exclusive use of a corporate name, including a fictitious or alternate name for a foreign corporation whose corporate name is not available, by delivering an application to the secretary of state for filing. The application must set forth the name and address of the applicant and the name proposed to be reserved. If the secretary of state finds that the corporate name applied for is available, the secretary of state shall reserve the name for the applicant's exclusive use for a nonrenewable 120-day period.

(2) The owner of a reserved corporate name may transfer the reservation to another person by delivering to the secretary of state a signed notice of the transfer that states the name and address of the transferee.

35-14-403. Registered name. (1) A foreign corporation may register its corporate name, or its corporate name with the addition of any word or abbreviation listed in 35-14-401(1)(a) if necessary for the corporate name to comply with 35-14-401(1)(a), if the name is distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from the corporate names that are not available under 35-14-401(2).

(2) A foreign corporation registers its corporate name, or its corporate name with any addition permitted by subsection (1), by delivering to the secretary of state for filing an application setting forth that name, the state or country and date of its incorporation, and a brief description of the nature of the business that is to be conducted in this state.

(3) The name is registered for the applicant's exclusive use on the effective date of the application and for the remainder of the calendar year unless renewed.

(4) A foreign corporation whose name registration is effective may renew it for successive years by delivering to the secretary of state for filing a renewal application that complies with the requirements of subsection (2) between October 1 and December 31 of each year the registration is effective. The renewal application when filed renews the registration for the following calendar year.

(5) A foreign corporation whose name registration is effective may:

(a) register to do business as a foreign corporation under the registered name if it complies with 35-14-401(1)(b); or

(b) consent in writing to the use of that name by a domestic corporation subsequently incorporated under this chapter or by another foreign corporation. The registration terminates when the domestic corporation is incorporated or the foreign corporation registers to do business under that name.

History: En. Sec. 41, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

Part 5
Office and Agent
(Effective June 1, 2020)

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: Section 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "[This act] is effective June 1, 2020."

Applicability: Section 275, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "A foreign corporation registered or authorized to do business in this state on the [effective date of sections 1 through 221] [June 1, 2020] is subject to [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter], is considered to be registered to do business in this state, and is not required to file a foreign registration statement under [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter]."

35-14-501. Registered office and agent — domestic and registered foreign corporations. (1) Each corporation shall continuously maintain in this state a registered office and a registered agent in compliance with Title 35, chapter 7.

(2) As used in this part, "corporation" means both a domestic corporation and a registered foreign corporation.

History: En. Sec. 42, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-502. Change — registered office — registered agent. A corporation may change its registered office or registered agent in compliance with Title 35, chapter 7.

History: En. Sec. 43, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-503. Resignation — registered agent. A registered agent may resign as agent for a corporation in compliance with Title 35, chapter 7.

History: En. Sec. 44, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-504. Service on corporation. (1) A corporation's registered agent is the corporation's agent for service of process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served on the corporation.

(2) If a corporation does not have a registered agent or the agent cannot with reasonable diligence be served, the corporation may be served by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the secretary at the corporation's principal office. Service is perfected under this subsection at the earliest of:

(a) the date the corporation receives the mail;

(b) the date shown on the return receipt if signed on behalf of the corporation; or

(c) 5 days after its deposit in the United States mail, as evidenced by the postmark, if mailed postpaid and correctly addressed.

(3) If process, notice, or demand cannot be served on a corporation pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) or is to be served on a registered foreign corporation that has withdrawn its registration pursuant to 35-14-1507 or 35-14-1509 or the registration of which has been terminated pursuant to 35-14-1511, then the secretary of state is an agent of the corporation on whom process, notice, or demand may be served. Service of any process, notice, or demand on the secretary of state as agent for a corporation may be made by delivering to the secretary of state duplicate copies of the process, notice, or demand. If process, notice, or demand is served on the secretary of state, the secretary of state shall forward one of the copies by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the corporation at the last address shown in the records of the secretary of state. Service is effected under this subsection at the earliest of:

(a) the date the corporation receives the process, notice, or demand;

(b) the date shown on the return receipt if signed on behalf of the corporation; or

(c) 5 days after the process, notice, or demand is deposited in the United States mail by the secretary of state.

(4) This section does not prescribe the only means or necessarily the required means of serving a corporation.

History: En. Sec. 45, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

Part 6
Shares and Distributions
(Effective June 1, 2020)

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: Section 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "[This act] is effective June 1, 2020."

Applicability: Section 275, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "A foreign corporation registered or authorized to do business in this state on the [effective date of sections 1 through 221] [June 1, 2020] is subject to [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter], is considered to be registered to do business in this state, and is not required to file a foreign registration statement under [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter]."

35-14-601. Authorized shares. (1) The articles of incorporation must set forth any classes of shares and series of shares within a class, and the number of shares of each class and series, that the corporation is authorized to issue. If more than one class or series of shares is authorized, the articles of incorporation must prescribe a distinguishing designation for each class or series and, before the issuance of shares of a class or series, describe the terms, including the preferences, rights, and limitations, of that class or series. Except to the extent varied as permitted by this section, all shares of a class or series must have terms, including preferences, rights, and limitations, that are identical with those of other shares of the same class or series.

(2) The articles of incorporation must authorize:

(a) one or more classes or series of shares that together have full voting rights; and

(b) one or more classes or series of shares, which may be the same class, classes, or series as those with voting rights, that together are entitled to receive the net assets of the corporation on dissolution.

(3) The articles of incorporation may authorize one or more classes or series of shares that:

(a) have special, conditional, or limited voting rights or no right to vote, except to the extent otherwise provided by this chapter;

(b) are redeemable or convertible as specified in the articles of incorporation:

(i) at the option of the corporation, the shareholder, or another person or on the occurrence of a specified event;

(ii) for cash, indebtedness, securities, or other property; and

(iii) at prices and in amounts specified or determined in accordance with a formula;

(c) entitle the holders to distributions calculated in any manner, including dividends that may be cumulative, noncumulative, or partially cumulative; or

(d) have preference over any other class or series of shares with respect to distributions, including distributions on the dissolution of the corporation.

(4) Terms of shares may be made dependent on facts objectively ascertainable outside the articles of incorporation in accordance with 35-14-120(11).

(5) Any of the terms of shares may vary among holders of the same class or series so long as the variations are expressly set forth in the articles of incorporation.

(6) The description of the preferences, rights, and limitations of classes or series of shares in subsection (3) is not exhaustive.

History: En. Sec. 46, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-602. Terms of class or series — determination by board of directors. (1) If the articles of incorporation so provide, the board of directors is authorized, without shareholder approval, to:

(a) classify any unissued shares into one or more classes or into one or more series within a class;

(b) reclassify any unissued shares of any class into one or more classes or into one or more series within one or more classes; or

(c) reclassify any unissued shares of any series of any class into one or more classes or into one or more series within a class.

(2) If the board of directors acts pursuant to subsection (1), it shall determine the terms, including the preferences, rights, and limitations, to the same extent permitted under 35-14-601, of:

(a) any class of shares before the issuance of any shares of that class; or

(b) any series within a class before the issuance of any shares of that series.

(3) Before issuing any shares of a class or series created under this section, the corporation shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing articles of amendment setting forth the terms determined under subsection (2).

History: En. Sec. 47, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-603. Issued and outstanding shares. (1) A corporation may issue the number of shares of each class or series authorized by the articles of incorporation. Shares that are issued are outstanding shares until they are reacquired, redeemed, converted, or canceled.

(2) The reacquisition, redemption, or conversion of outstanding shares is subject to the limitations of subsection (3) and to 35-14-640.

(3) At all times that shares of the corporation are outstanding, one or more shares that together have full voting rights and one or more shares that together are entitled to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution must be outstanding.

History: En. Sec. 48, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-604. Fractional shares. (1) A corporation may issue fractions of a share or in lieu of doing so may:

(a) pay in cash the value of fractions of a share;

(b) issue scrip in registered or bearer form entitling the holder to receive a full share on surrendering enough scrip to equal a full share; or

(c) arrange for disposition of fractional shares by the holders of those shares.

(2) Each certificate representing scrip must be conspicuously labeled "scrip" and must contain the information required by 35-14-625(2).

(3) The holder of a fractional share is entitled to exercise the rights of a shareholder, including the rights to vote, to receive dividends, and to receive distributions upon dissolution. The holder of scrip is not entitled to any of these rights unless the scrip provides for them.

(4) The board of directors may authorize the issuance of scrip subject to any condition, including that:

(a) the scrip will become void if not exchanged for full shares before a specified date; and

(b) the shares for which the scrip is exchangeable may be sold and the proceeds paid to the scripholders.

History: En. Sec. 49, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-605 through 35-14-619 reserved.

35-14-620. Subscription for shares — before incorporation. (1) A subscription for shares entered into before incorporation is irrevocable for 6 months unless the subscription agreement provides a longer or shorter period or all the subscribers agree to revocation.

(2) The board of directors may determine the payment terms of subscriptions for shares that were entered into before incorporation unless the subscription agreement specifies them. A call for payment by the board of directors must be uniform so far as practicable as to all shares of the same class or series unless the subscription agreement specifies otherwise.

(3) Shares issued pursuant to subscriptions entered into before incorporation are fully paid and nonassessable when the corporation receives the consideration specified in the subscription agreement.

(4) If a subscriber defaults in payment of cash or property under a subscription agreement entered into before incorporation, the corporation may collect the amount owed as any other debt. Alternatively, unless the subscription agreement provides otherwise, the corporation may rescind the agreement and may sell the shares if the debt remains unpaid for more than 20 days after the corporation delivers a written demand for payment to the subscriber.

History: En. Sec. 50, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-621. Issuance of shares. (1) The powers granted in this section to the board of directors may be reserved to the shareholders by the articles of incorporation.

(2) The board of directors may authorize shares to be issued for consideration consisting of any tangible or intangible property or benefit to the corporation, including cash, promissory notes, services performed, contracts for services to be performed, or other securities of the corporation.

(3) Before the corporation issues shares, the board of directors shall determine that the consideration received or to be received for shares to be issued is adequate. That determination by the board of directors is conclusive insofar as the adequacy of consideration for the issuance of shares relates to whether the shares are validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable.

(4) When the corporation receives the consideration for which the board of directors authorized the issuance of shares, the shares issued are fully paid and nonassessable.

(5) The corporation may place in escrow shares issued for a contract for future services or benefits or for a promissory note or make other arrangements to restrict the transfer of the shares and may credit distributions in respect of the shares against their purchase price until the services are performed, the benefits are received, or the note is paid. If the services are not performed, the benefits are not received, or the note is not paid, the shares escrowed or restricted and the distributions credited may be canceled in whole or part.

(6) (a) An issuance of shares or other securities convertible into or rights exercisable for shares in a transaction or a series of integrated transactions requires approval of the shareholders at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of a majority, or a greater number the articles of incorporation may prescribe, of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter exists if:

(i) the shares, other securities, or rights are to be issued for consideration other than cash or cash equivalents; and

(ii) the voting power of shares that are issued and issuable as a result of the transaction or series of integrated transactions will comprise more than 20% of the voting power of the shares of the corporation that were outstanding immediately before the transaction.

(b) In this subsection (6):

(i) For purposes of determining the voting power of shares issued and issuable as a result of a transaction or series of integrated transactions, the voting power of shares or other securities convertible into or rights exercisable for shares is the greater of:

(A) the voting power of the shares to be issued; or

(B) the voting power of the shares that would be outstanding after giving effect to the conversion of convertible shares and other securities and the exercise of rights to be issued.

(ii) A series of transactions is integrated only if consummation of one transaction is made contingent on consummation of one or more of the other transactions.

History: En. Sec. 51, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-622. Liability of shareholders. (1) A purchaser from a corporation of the corporation's own shares is not liable to the corporation or its creditors with respect to the shares except to pay the consideration for which the shares were authorized to be issued or specified in the subscription agreement.

(2) A shareholder of a corporation is not personally liable for any liabilities of the corporation, including liabilities arising from acts of the corporation, except:

(a) to the extent provided in a provision of the articles of incorporation permitted by 35-14-202(2)(b)(v); and

(b) that a shareholder may become personally liable by reason of the shareholder's own acts or conduct.

History: En. Sec. 52, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-623. Share dividends. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, shares may be issued pro rata and without consideration to the corporation's shareholders or to the shareholders of one or more classes or series of shares. An issuance of shares under this subsection is a share dividend.

(2) Shares of one class or series may not be issued as a share dividend in respect of shares of another class or series unless:

(a) the articles of incorporation authorize the issue;

(b) a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the class or series to be issued approve the issue; or

(c) there are no outstanding shares of the class or series to be issued.

(3) The board of directors may fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a share dividend, which may not be retroactive. If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a share dividend, the record date is the date the board of directors authorizes the share dividend.

History: En. Sec. 53, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-624. Share rights — options — warrants — awards. (1) A corporation may issue rights, options, or warrants for the purchase of shares or other securities of the corporation. The board of directors shall determine:

(a) the terms and conditions upon which the rights, options, or warrants are issued; and

(b) the terms, including the consideration, for which the shares or other securities are to be issued. The authorization by the board of directors for the corporation to issue the rights, options, or warrants constitutes authorization of the issuance of the shares or other securities for which the rights, options, or warrants are exercisable.

(2) The terms and conditions of the rights, options, or warrants may include restrictions or conditions that:

(a) preclude or limit the exercise, transfer, or receipt of the rights, options, or warrants by any person owning or offering to acquire a specified number or percentage of the outstanding shares or other securities of the corporation or by any transferee of the person; or

(b) invalidate or void the rights, options, or warrants held by any person or transferee described in subsection (2)(a).

(3) The board of directors may authorize one or more officers to:

(a) designate the recipients of rights, options, warrants, or other equity compensation awards that involve the issuance of shares; and

(b) determine, within an amount and subject to any other limitations established by the board of directors and, if applicable, the shareholders, the number of rights, options, warrants, or other equity compensation awards and the terms of the rights, options, warrants, or awards to be received by the recipients, provided that an officer may not use this authority to designate the officer or any other person the board of directors may specify as a recipient of those rights, options, warrants, or other equity compensation awards.

History: En. Sec. 54, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-625. Certificates — form — content. (1) Shares may be, but need not be, represented by certificates. Unless this chapter or another statute expressly provides otherwise, the rights and obligations of shareholders are identical regardless of whether their shares are represented by certificates.

(2) At a minimum, each share certificate must state on its face:

(a) the name of the corporation and that it is organized under the law of this state;

(b) the name of the person to whom issued; and

(c) the number and class of shares and the designation of the series, if any, the certificate represents.

(3) If the corporation is authorized to issue different classes of shares or series of shares within a class, the front or back of each certificate must summarize:

(a) the preferences, rights, and limitations applicable to each class and series;

(b) any variations in preferences, rights, and limitations among the holders of the same class or series; and

(c) the authority of the board of directors to determine the terms of future classes or series. Alternatively, each certificate may state conspicuously on its front or back that the corporation will furnish the shareholder this information on request in writing and without charge.

(4) Each share certificate must be signed by two officers designated in the bylaws.

(5) If the person who signed a share certificate no longer holds office when the certificate is issued, the certificate is nevertheless valid.

History: En. Sec. 55, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-626. Shares without certificates. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors of a corporation may authorize the issuance of some or all of the shares of any or all of its classes or series without certificates. The authorization does not affect shares already represented by certificates until they are surrendered to the corporation.

(2) Within a reasonable time after the issuance or transfer of shares without certificates, the corporation shall deliver to the shareholder a written statement of the information required on certificates by 35-14-625(2) and (3) and, if applicable, 35-14-627.

History: En. Sec. 56, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-627. Restriction on transfer of shares. (1) The articles of incorporation, the bylaws, an agreement among shareholders, or an agreement between shareholders and the corporation may impose restrictions on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares of the corporation or may impose restrictions on, including the alteration or elimination of, the application of 35-14-1434. A restriction does not affect shares issued before the restriction was adopted unless the holders of the shares are parties to the restriction agreement or voted in favor of the restriction.

(2) A restriction described in subsection (1) is valid and enforceable against a shareholder or a transferee of the shareholder if the restriction is authorized by this section and its existence is noted conspicuously on the front or back of the certificate or is contained in the information statement required by 35-14-626(2). Unless so noted or contained, a restriction is not enforceable against a person without knowledge of the restriction.

(3) A restriction described in subsection (1) is authorized:

(a) to maintain the corporation's status when it is dependent on the number or identity of its shareholders;

(b) to preserve exemptions under federal or state securities law; or

(c) for any other reasonable purpose.

(4) A restriction described in subsection (1) may:

(a) obligate the shareholder first to offer the corporation or other persons, separately, consecutively, or simultaneously, an opportunity to acquire the restricted shares;

(b) obligate the corporation or other persons, separately, consecutively, or simultaneously, to acquire the restricted shares;

(c) require the corporation, the holders of any class or series of its shares, or other persons to approve the transfer of the restricted shares if the requirement is not manifestly unreasonable; or

(d) prohibit the transfer of the restricted shares to designated persons or classes of persons if the prohibition is not manifestly unreasonable.

(5) For purposes of this section, "shares" includes a security convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.

History: En. Sec. 57, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-628 and 35-14-629 reserved.

35-14-630. Preemptive rights — shareholder. (1) The shareholders of a corporation do not have a preemptive right to acquire the corporation's unissued shares, except to the extent the articles of incorporation provide that right.

(2) A statement included in the articles of incorporation that "the corporation elects to have preemptive rights", or words of similar effect, means that the following principles apply, except to the extent the articles of incorporation expressly provide otherwise:

(a) The shareholders of the corporation have a preemptive right, granted on uniform terms and conditions prescribed by the board of directors to provide a fair and reasonable opportunity to exercise the right, to acquire proportional amounts of the corporation's unissued shares upon the decision of the board of directors to issue them.

(b) A preemptive right may be waived by a shareholder. A waiver evidenced by a writing is irrevocable even though it is not supported by consideration.

(c) There is no preemptive right with respect to:

(i) shares issued as compensation to directors, officers, employees, or agents of the corporation or its subsidiaries or affiliates;

(ii) shares issued to satisfy conversion or option rights created to provide compensation to directors, officers, employees, or agents of the corporation or its subsidiaries or affiliates;

(iii) shares authorized in the articles of incorporation that are issued within 6 months from the effective date of incorporation; or

(iv) shares sold otherwise than for cash.

(d) Holders of shares of any class or series without voting power but with preferential rights to distributions have no preemptive rights with respect to shares of any class or series.

(e) Holders of shares of any class or series with voting power but without preferential rights to distributions have no preemptive rights with respect to shares of any class or series with preferential rights to distributions unless the shares with preferential rights are convertible into or carry a right to subscribe for or acquire the shares without preferential rights.

(f) Shares subject to preemptive rights that are not acquired by shareholders may be issued to any person for a period of 1 year after being offered to shareholders at a consideration set by the board of directors that is not lower than the consideration set for the exercise of preemptive rights. An offer at a lower consideration or after the expiration of 1 year is subject to the shareholders' preemptive rights.

(3) For purposes of this section, "shares" includes a security convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.

History: En. Sec. 58, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-631. Corporation's acquisition of its own shares. (1) A corporation may acquire its own shares, and shares so acquired constitute authorized but unissued shares.

(2) If the articles of incorporation prohibit the reissue of the acquired shares, the number of authorized shares is reduced by the number of shares acquired.

History: En. Sec. 59, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-632 through 35-14-639 reserved.

35-14-640. Distributions to shareholders. (1) A board of directors may authorize and the corporation may make distributions to its shareholders subject to restriction by the articles of incorporation and the limitation in subsection (3).

(2) The board of directors may fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a distribution, which may not be retroactive. If the board of directors does not fix a record date for determining shareholders entitled to a distribution, other than one involving a purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of the corporation's shares, the record date is the date the board of directors authorizes the distribution.

(3) No distribution may be made if, after giving it effect:

(a) the corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or

(b) the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus, unless the articles of incorporation permit otherwise, the amount that would be needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights on dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

(4) The board of directors may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (3) either on financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair valuation or other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.

(5) Except as provided in subsection (7), the effect of a distribution under subsection (3) is measured:

(a) in the case of distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of the corporation's shares, as of the earlier of:

(i) the date cash or other property is transferred or debt to a shareholder is incurred by the corporation; or

(ii) the date the shareholder ceases to be a shareholder with respect to the acquired shares;

(b) in the case of any other distribution of indebtedness, as of the date the indebtedness is distributed; and

(c) in all other cases, as of:

(i) the date the distribution is authorized if the payment occurs within 120 days after the date of authorization; or

(ii) the date the payment is made if it occurs more than 120 days after the date of authorization.

(6) A corporation's indebtedness to a shareholder incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity with the corporation's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

(7) Indebtedness of a corporation, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, is not considered a liability for purposes of determinations under subsection (3) if its terms provide that payment of principal and interest is made only if and to the extent that payment of a distribution to shareholders could then be made under this section. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is actually made.

(8) This section does not apply to distributions in liquidation under part 14 of this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 60, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

Part 7
Shareholders
(Effective June 1, 2020)

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: Section 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "[This act] is effective June 1, 2020."

Applicability: Section 275, Ch. 271, L. 2019; provided: "A foreign corporation registered or authorized to do business in this state on the [effective date of sections 1 through 221] [June 1, 2020] is subject to [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter], is considered to be registered to do business in this state, and is not required to file a foreign registration statement under [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter]."

35-14-701. Annual meeting. (1) Unless directors are elected by written consent in lieu of an annual meeting as permitted by 35-14-704, a corporation shall hold a meeting of shareholders annually at a time stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws at which directors must be elected.

(2) Annual meetings may be held in or out of this state at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no place is so stated or fixed, annual meetings must be held at the corporation's principal office.

(3) The failure to hold an annual meeting at the time stated in or fixed in accordance with a corporation's bylaws does not affect the validity of any corporate action.

History: En. Sec. 61, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-702. Special meeting. (1) A corporation shall hold a special meeting of shareholders:

(a) on call of its board of directors or of the person or persons authorized to do so by the articles of incorporation or bylaws; or

(b) if shareholders holding at least 10% of all the votes entitled to be cast on an issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting sign, date, and deliver to the corporation one or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held, provided that the articles of incorporation may fix a lower percentage or a higher percentage, not exceeding 25%, of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a written demand for a special meeting may be revoked by a writing to that effect received by the corporation before the receipt by the corporation of demands sufficient in number to require the holding of a special meeting.

(2) If not otherwise fixed under 35-14-703 or 35-14-707, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to demand a special meeting is the first date on which a signed shareholder demand is delivered to the corporation. No written demand for a special meeting is effective unless, within 60 days of the earliest date on which the demand delivered to the corporation as required by this section was signed, written demands signed by shareholders holding at least the percentage of votes specified in or fixed in accordance with subsection (1)(b) have been delivered to the corporation.

(3) Special meetings of shareholders may be held in or out of this state at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no place is so stated or fixed, special meetings must be held at the corporation's principal office.

(4) Only business within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice required by 35-14-705(3) may be conducted at a special meeting of shareholders.

History: En. Sec. 62, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-703. Court-ordered meeting. (1) The district court of the county where a corporation's principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, of the first judicial district may summarily order a meeting to be held:

(a) on application of any shareholder of the corporation if an annual meeting was not held or action by written consent in lieu of an annual meeting did not become effective within the earlier of 6 months after the end of the corporation's fiscal year or 15 months after its last annual meeting; or

(b) on application of one or more shareholders who signed a demand for a special meeting valid under 35-14-702 if:

(i) notice of the special meeting was not given within 30 days after the first day on which the requisite number of demands was delivered to the corporation; or

(ii) the special meeting was not held in accordance with the notice.

(2) The court may fix the time and place of the meeting, determine the shares entitled to participate in the meeting, specify a record date or dates for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting, prescribe the form and content of the meeting notice, fix the quorum required for specific matters to be considered at the meeting or direct that the shares represented at the meeting constitute a quorum for action on those matters, and enter other orders necessary to accomplish the purpose or purposes of the meeting.

(3) For purposes of subsection (1)(a), "shareholder" means a record shareholder, a beneficial shareholder, and an unrestricted voting trust beneficial owner.

35-14-704. Action without meeting. (1) Action required or permitted by this chapter to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all the shareholders entitled to vote on the action. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents bearing the date of signature and describing the action taken, be signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on the action, and be delivered to the corporation for filing by the corporation with the minutes or corporate records.

(2) The articles of incorporation may provide that any action required or permitted by this chapter to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting, and without prior notice, if consents in writing setting forth the action to be taken are signed by the holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be required to authorize or take the action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote on the action were present and voted. However, if a corporation's articles of incorporation authorize shareholders to cumulate their votes when electing directors pursuant to 35-14-728, directors may not be elected by less than unanimous written consent. A written consent must bear the date of signature of the shareholder who signs the consent and be delivered to the corporation for filing by the corporation with the minutes or corporate records.

(3) If not otherwise fixed under 35-14-707 and if prior action by the board of directors is not required respecting the action to be taken without a meeting, the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to take action without a meeting is the first date on which a signed written consent is delivered to the corporation. If not otherwise fixed under 35-14-707 and if prior action by the board of directors is required respecting the action to be taken without a meeting, the record date is the close of business on the day the resolution of the board of directors taking the prior action is adopted. No written consent is effective to take the corporate action referred to in the consent unless, within 60 days of the earliest date on which a consent delivered to the corporation as required by this section was signed, written consents signed by sufficient shareholders to take the action have been delivered to the corporation. A written consent may be revoked by a writing to that effect delivered to the corporation before unrevoked written consents sufficient in number to take the corporate action have been delivered to the corporation.

(4) A consent signed pursuant to the provisions of this section has the effect of a vote taken at a meeting and may be described in that manner in any document. Unless the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides for a reasonable delay to permit tabulation of written consents, the action taken by written consent is effective when written consents signed by sufficient shareholders to take the action have been delivered to the corporation.

(5) If this chapter requires that notice of a proposed action be given to nonvoting shareholders and the action is to be taken by written consent of the voting shareholders, the corporation shall give its nonvoting shareholders written notice of the action not more than 10 days after:

(a) written consents sufficient to take the action have been delivered to the corporation; or

(b) the date on which tabulation of consents is completed pursuant to an authorization under subsection (4). The notice must reasonably describe the action taken and contain or be accompanied by the same material that, under any provision of this chapter, would have been required to be sent to nonvoting shareholders in a notice of a meeting at which the proposed action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action.

(6) If action is taken by less than unanimous written consent of the voting shareholders, the corporation shall give its nonconsenting voting shareholders written notice of the action not more than 10 days after:

(a) written consents sufficient to take the action have been delivered to the corporation; or

(b) the date on which tabulation of consents is completed pursuant to an authorization under subsection (4). The notice must reasonably describe the action taken and contain or be accompanied by the same material that, under any provision of this chapter, would have been required to be sent to voting shareholders in a notice of a meeting at which the action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action.

(7) The notice requirements in subsections (5) and (6) may not delay the effectiveness of actions taken by written consent, and a failure to comply with those notice requirements does not invalidate actions taken by written consent. However, this subsection may not be considered to limit judicial power to fashion any appropriate remedy in favor of a shareholder adversely affected by a failure to give notice within the required time period.

35-14-705. Notice of meeting. (1) A corporation shall notify shareholders of the date, time, and place of each annual and special shareholders' meeting no fewer than 10 or more than 60 days before the meeting date. If the board of directors has authorized participation by means of remote communication pursuant to 35-14-709 for holders of any class or series of shares, the notice to the holders of that class or series of shares must describe the means of remote communication to be used. The notice must include the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting if that date is different from the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of the meeting. Unless this chapter or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, the corporation is required to give notice only to shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting as of the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to notice of the meeting.

(2) Unless this chapter or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, the notice of an annual meeting of shareholders need not include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

(3) Notice of a special meeting of shareholders must include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

(4) If not otherwise fixed under 35-14-703 or 35-14-707, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at an annual or special shareholders' meeting is the day before the first notice is delivered to shareholders.

(5) Unless the bylaws require otherwise, if an annual or special shareholders' meeting is adjourned to a different date, time, or place, notice need not be given of the new date, time, or place if the new date, time, or place is announced at the meeting before adjournment. If a new record date for the adjourned meeting is or must be fixed under 35-14-707, however, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given under this section to shareholders entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting as of the record date fixed for notice of the adjourned meeting.

35-14-706. Waiver of notice. (1) A shareholder may waive any notice required by this chapter or the articles of incorporation or bylaws, before or after the date and time stated in the notice. The waiver must be in writing, be signed by the shareholder entitled to the notice, and be delivered to the corporation for filing by the corporation with the minutes or corporate records.

(2) A shareholder's attendance at a meeting:

(a) waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting unless the shareholder, at the beginning of the meeting, objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting; and

(b) waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice unless the shareholder objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

History: En. Sec. 66, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-707. Record date for meeting. (1) The bylaws may fix or provide the manner of fixing the record date or dates for one or more voting groups to determine the shareholders entitled to notice of a shareholders' meeting, to demand a special meeting, to vote, or to take any other action. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing a record date, the board of directors may fix the record date.

(2) A record date fixed under this section may not be more than 70 days before the meeting or action requiring a determination of shareholders and may not be retroactive.

(3) A determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a shareholders' meeting is effective for any adjournment of the meeting unless the board of directors fixes a new record date or dates, which it shall do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than 120 days after the date fixed for the original meeting.

(4) If a court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than 120 days after the date fixed for the original meeting, it may provide that the original record date or dates continue in effect or it may fix a new record date or dates.

(5) The record dates for a shareholders' meeting fixed by or in the manner provided in the bylaws or by the board of directors is the record date for determining shareholders entitled both to notice of and to vote at the shareholders' meeting unless, in the case of a record date fixed by the board of directors and to the extent not prohibited by the bylaws, the board, at the time it fixes the record date for shareholders entitled to notice of the meeting, fixes a later record date on or before the date of the meeting to determine the shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting.

35-14-708. Conduct of meeting. (1) At each meeting of shareholders, a chair shall preside. The chair must be appointed as provided in the bylaws or, in the absence of that provision, by the board of directors.

(2) The chair, unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, shall determine the order of business and may establish rules for the conduct of the meeting.

(3) Rules adopted for the meeting and the conduct of the meeting must be fair to shareholders.

(4) The chair of the meeting shall announce at the meeting when the polls close for each matter voted on. If no announcement is made, the polls are considered to have closed on the final adjournment of the meeting. After the polls close, no ballots, proxies, or votes and no revocations or changes to ballots, proxies, or votes may be accepted.

History: En. Sec. 68, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-709. Remote participation — shareholder's meetings. (1) Shareholders of any class or series of shares may participate in any meeting of shareholders by means of remote communication to the extent the board of directors authorizes the participation for that class or series. Participation as a shareholder by means of remote communication is subject to guidelines and procedures the board of directors adopts and must be in conformity with subsection (2).

(2) Shareholders participating in a shareholders' meeting by means of remote communication are considered present and may vote at the meeting if the corporation has implemented reasonable measures:

(a) to verify that each person participating remotely as a shareholder is a shareholder; and

(b) to provide those shareholders a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting and to vote on matters submitted to the shareholders, including an opportunity to communicate and to read or hear the proceedings of the meeting substantially concurrently with the proceedings.

History: En. Sec. 69, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-710 through 35-14-719 reserved.

35-14-720. Shareholders' list for meeting. (1) After fixing a record date for a meeting, a corporation shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names of all its shareholders who are entitled to notice of a shareholders' meeting. If the board of directors fixes a different record date under 35-14-707(5) to determine the shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting, a corporation also shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names of all its shareholders who are entitled to vote at the meeting. A list must be arranged by voting group and, within each voting group, by class or series of shares and must show the address of and number of shares held by each shareholder. Nothing in this subsection requires the corporation to include on the list the electronic mail address or other electronic contact information of a shareholder.

(2) The shareholders' list for notice must be available for inspection by any shareholder, beginning 2 business days after notice is given of the meeting for which the list was prepared and continuing through the meeting, at the corporation's principal office or at a place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will be held. A shareholders' list for voting must be similarly available for inspection promptly after the record date for voting. A shareholder or the shareholder's agent or attorney is entitled on written demand to inspect and, subject to the requirements of 35-14-1602(3), to copy the list, during regular business hours and at the shareholder's expense, during the period it is available for inspection.

(3) The corporation shall make the list of shareholders entitled to vote available at the meeting, and any shareholder or the shareholder's agent or attorney is entitled to inspect the list at any time during the meeting or any adjournment.

(4) If the corporation refuses to allow a shareholder or the shareholder's agent or attorney to inspect a shareholders' list before or at the meeting or to copy a list as permitted by subsection (2), the district court of the county where the corporation's principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, the first judicial district, on application of the shareholder, may summarily order the inspection or copying at the corporation's expense and may postpone the meeting for which the list was prepared until the inspection or copying is complete.

(5) Refusal or failure to prepare or make available the shareholders' list does not affect the validity of action taken at the meeting.

History: En. Sec. 70, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-721. Voting entitlements of shares. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (4) or unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, each outstanding share, regardless of class or series, is entitled to one vote on each matter voted on at a shareholders' meeting. Only shares are entitled to vote.

(2) Shares of a corporation are not entitled to vote if they are owned by or otherwise belong to the corporation:

(a) directly; or

(b) indirectly through an entity of which a majority of the voting power is held directly or indirectly by the corporation or that is otherwise controlled by the corporation.

(3) Shares held by the corporation in a fiduciary capacity for the benefit of any person are entitled to vote unless they are held for the benefit of or otherwise belong to the corporation:

(a) directly; or

(b) indirectly through an entity of which a majority of the voting power is held directly or indirectly by the corporation or that is otherwise controlled by the corporation.

(4) Redeemable shares are not entitled to vote after delivery of written notice of redemption is effective and a sum sufficient to redeem the shares has been deposited with a bank, trust company, or other financial institution under an irrevocable obligation to pay the holders the redemption price on surrender of the shares.

(5) For purposes of this section, "voting power" means the current power to vote in the election of directors of a corporation or to elect, select, or appoint governors of another entity.

35-14-722. Proxies. (1) A shareholder may vote the shareholder's shares in person or by proxy.

(2) A shareholder or the shareholder's agent or attorney-in-fact may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the shareholder by signing an appointment form or by an electronic transmission. An electronic transmission must contain or be accompanied by information from which the recipient can determine the date of the transmission and that the transmission was authorized by the sender or the sender's agent or attorney-in-fact.

(3) An appointment of a proxy is effective when a signed appointment form or an electronic transmission of the appointment is received by the inspector of election or the officer or agent of the corporation authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for the term provided in the appointment form and, if no term is provided, is valid for 11 months unless the appointment is irrevocable under subsection (4).

(4) An appointment of a proxy is revocable unless the appointment form or electronic transmission states that it is irrevocable and the appointment is coupled with an interest. Appointments coupled with an interest include the appointment of:

(a) a pledgee;

(b) a person who purchased or agreed to purchase the shares;

(c) a creditor of the corporation who extended it credit under terms requiring the appointment;

(d) an employee of the corporation whose employment contract requires the appointment; and

(e) a party to a voting agreement created under 35-14-731.

(5) The death or incapacity of the shareholder appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the corporation to accept the proxy's authority unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises authority under the appointment.

(6) An appointment made irrevocable under subsection (4) is revoked when the interest with which it is coupled is extinguished.

(7) Unless it provides otherwise, an appointment made irrevocable under subsection (4) continues in effect after a transfer of the shares and after a transferee takes subject to the appointment, except that a transferee for value of shares subject to an irrevocable appointment may revoke the appointment if the transferee did not know of its existence when acquiring the shares and the existence of the irrevocable appointment was not noted conspicuously on the certificate representing the shares or on the information statement for shares without certificates.

(8) Subject to 35-14-724 and to any express limitation on the proxy's authority stated in the appointment form or electronic transmission, a corporation is entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the shareholder making the appointment.

History: En. Sec. 72, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-723. Shares held by intermediaries and nominees. (1) A corporation's board of directors may establish a procedure under which a person on whose behalf shares are registered in the name of an intermediary or nominee may elect to be treated by the corporation as the record shareholder by filing with the corporation a beneficial ownership certificate. The terms, conditions, and limitations of this treatment must be specified in the procedure. To the extent a person is treated under the procedure as having rights or privileges that the record shareholder otherwise would have, the record shareholder does not have those rights or privileges.

(2) The procedure must specify:

(a) the types of intermediaries or nominees to which it applies;

(b) the rights or privileges that the corporation recognizes in a person with respect to whom a beneficial ownership certificate is filed;

(c) the manner in which the procedure is selected, which must include that the beneficial ownership certificate must be signed or assented to by or on behalf of the record shareholder and the person on whose behalf the shares are held;

(d) the information that must be provided when the procedure is selected;

(e) the period for which selection of the procedure is effective;

(f) requirements for notice to the corporation with respect to the arrangement; and

(g) the form and contents of the beneficial ownership certificate.

(3) The procedure may specify any other aspects of the rights and duties created by the filing of a beneficial ownership certificate.

History: En. Sec. 73, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-724. Acceptance of votes — other instruments. (1) If the name signed on a vote, ballot, consent, waiver, shareholder demand, or proxy appointment corresponds to the name of a shareholder, the corporation, if acting in good faith, is entitled to accept the vote, ballot, consent, waiver, shareholder demand, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder.

(2) If the name signed on a vote, ballot, consent, waiver, shareholder demand, or proxy appointment does not correspond to the name of its shareholder, the corporation, if acting in good faith, is nevertheless entitled to accept the vote, ballot, consent, waiver, shareholder demand, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder if:

(a) the shareholder is an entity and the name signed purports to be that of an officer or agent of the entity;

(b) the name signed purports to be that of an administrator, executor, guardian, or conservator representing the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, ballot, consent, waiver, shareholder demand, or proxy appointment;

(c) the name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, ballot, consent, waiver, shareholder demand, or proxy appointment;

(d) the name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or attorney-in-fact of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder has been presented with respect to the vote, ballot, consent, waiver, shareholder demand, or proxy appointment; or

(e) two or more persons are the shareholder as co-tenants or fiduciaries, the name signed purports to be the name of at least one of the co-owners, and the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the co-owners.

(3) The corporation is entitled to reject a vote, ballot, consent, waiver, shareholder demand, or proxy appointment if the person authorized to accept or reject the instrument, acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it or about the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder.

(4) Neither the corporation, any person authorized by it, nor an inspector of election appointed under 35-14-729 that accepts or rejects a vote, ballot, consent, waiver, shareholder demand, or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the standards of 35-14-722(2) or this section is liable in damages to the shareholder for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection.

(5) Corporate action based on the acceptance or rejection of a vote, ballot, consent, waiver, shareholder demand, or proxy appointment under this section is valid unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise.

(6) If an inspector of election has been appointed under 35-14-729, the inspector of election also may request information and make determinations under subsections (1), (2), and (3). Any determination made by the inspector of election under those subsections is controlling.

History: En. Sec. 74, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-725. Quorum and voting requirements — voting groups. (1) Shares entitled to vote as a separate voting group may take action on a matter at a meeting only if a quorum of those shares exists with respect to that matter. Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, shares representing a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group constitute a quorum of that voting group for action on that matter. When this chapter requires a particular quorum for a specified action, the articles of incorporation may not provide for a lower quorum.

(2) Once a share is represented for any purpose at a meeting, it is considered present for quorum purposes for the remainder of the meeting and for any adjournment of that meeting unless a new record date is or must be fixed for that adjourned meeting.

(3) If a quorum exists, action on a matter, other than the election of directors, by a voting group is approved if the votes cast within the voting group favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action unless the articles of incorporation or this chapter requires a greater number of affirmative votes.

(4) An amendment of the articles of incorporation adding, changing, or deleting a quorum or voting requirement for a voting group greater than specified in subsection (1) or (3) is governed by 35-14-727.

(5) The election of directors is governed by 35-14-728.

(6) When a provision of this chapter provides for voting of classes or series as separate voting groups, the rules provided in 35-14-1004 for amendments of the articles of incorporation apply to that provision.

History: En. Sec. 75, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-726. Action by single and multiple voting groups. (1) If the articles of incorporation or this chapter provides for voting by a single voting group on a matter, action on that matter is taken when it is voted on by that voting group as provided in 35-14-725.

(2) If the articles of incorporation or this chapter provides for voting by two or more voting groups on a matter, action on that matter is taken only when it is voted on by each of those voting groups counted separately as provided in 35-14-725. Action may be taken by different voting groups on a matter at different times.

35-14-727. Modifying quorum or voting requirements. An amendment to the articles of incorporation that adds, changes, or deletes a quorum or voting requirement must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote and voting groups required to take action under the quorum and voting requirements then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

History: En. Sec. 77, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-728. Voting for directors — cumulative voting. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

(2) Shareholders do not have a right to cumulate their votes for directors unless the articles of incorporation provide for that right.

(3) A statement included in the articles of incorporation that "[all] [a designated voting group of] shareholders are entitled to cumulate their votes for directors" or words of similar meaning means that the shareholders designated are entitled to multiply the number of votes they are entitled to cast by the number of directors for whom they are entitled to vote and to cast the product for a single candidate or distribute the product among two or more candidates.

(4) Shares otherwise entitled to vote cumulatively may not be voted cumulatively at a particular meeting unless:

(a) the meeting notice or proxy statement accompanying the notice states conspicuously that cumulative voting is authorized; or

(b) a shareholder who has the right to cumulate the shareholder's votes gives notice to the corporation not less than 48 hours before the time set for the meeting of the shareholder's intent to cumulate votes during the meeting. If one shareholder gives this notice, all other shareholders in the same voting group participating in the election are entitled to cumulate their votes without giving further notice.

History: En. Sec. 78, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-729. Inspectors of election. (1) A corporation that has a class of equity securities registered pursuant to section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 shall, and any other corporation may, appoint one or more inspectors to act at a meeting of shareholders in connection with determining voting results. Each inspector shall verify in writing that the inspector will faithfully execute the duties of inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of the inspector's ability. An inspector may be an officer or employee of the corporation. The inspectors may appoint or retain other persons to assist the inspectors in the performance of the duties of inspector under subsection (2) and may rely on information provided by those and other persons, including those appointed to tabulate votes, unless the inspectors believe reliance is unwarranted.

(2) The inspectors shall:

(a) ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each;

(b) determine the shares represented at a meeting;

(c) determine the validity of proxy appointments and ballots;

(d) count the votes; and

(e) make a written report of the results.

(3) In performing their duties, the inspectors may examine:

(a) the proxy appointment forms and any other information provided in accordance with 35-14-722(2);

(b) any envelope or related writing submitted with the proxy appointment forms;

(c) any ballots;

(d) any evidence or other information specified in 35-14-724; and

(e) the relevant books and records of the corporation relating to its shareholders and their entitlement to vote, including any securities position list provided by a depository clearing agency.

(4) The inspectors also may consider other information that they believe is relevant and reliable for the purpose of performing any of the duties assigned to them pursuant to subsection (2), including the purpose of evaluating inconsistent, incomplete, or erroneous information and reconciling information submitted on behalf of banks, brokers, their nominees, or similar persons that indicates more votes being cast than a proxy authorized by the record shareholder is entitled to cast. If the inspectors consider other information allowed by this subsection, they shall in their report under subsection (2) specify the information considered by them, including the purpose or purposes for which the information was considered, the person or persons from whom they obtained the information, when the information was obtained, the means by which the information was obtained, and the basis for the inspectors' belief that the information is relevant and reliable.

(5) Determinations of law by the inspectors of election are subject to de novo review by a court in a proceeding under 35-14-749 or other judicial proceeding.

35-14-730. Voting trusts. (1) One or more shareholders may create a voting trust, conferring on a trustee the right to vote or otherwise act for them, by signing an agreement setting out the provisions of the trust, which may include anything consistent with its purpose, and transferring their shares to the trustee. When a voting trust agreement is signed, the trustee shall prepare a list of the names and addresses of all voting trust beneficial owners, together with the number and class of shares each transferred to the trust, and deliver copies of the list and agreement to the corporation at its principal office.

(2) A voting trust becomes effective on the date the first shares subject to the trust are registered in the trustee's name.

(3) Limits, if any, on the duration of a voting trust are as set forth in the voting trust. A voting trust that became effective prior to June 1, 2020, remains governed by the statute concerning duration then in effect unless the voting trust is amended to provide otherwise by unanimous agreement of the parties to the voting trust.

History: En. Sec. 80, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-731. Voting agreements. (1) Two or more shareholders may provide for the manner in which they will vote their shares by signing an agreement for that purpose. A voting agreement created under this section is not subject to the provisions of 35-14-730.

(2) A voting agreement created under this section is specifically enforceable.

35-14-732. Shareholder agreements. (1) An agreement among the shareholders of a corporation that complies with this section is effective among the shareholders and the corporation even though it is inconsistent with one or more other provisions of this chapter in that it:

(a) eliminates the board of directors or restricts the discretion or powers of the board of directors;

(b) governs the authorization or making of distributions, regardless of whether they are in proportion to ownership of shares, subject to the limitations in 35-14-640;

(c) establishes who may be directors or officers of the corporation or their terms of office or manner of selection or removal;

(d) governs, in general or in regard to specific matters, the exercise or division of voting power by or between the shareholders and directors or by or among any of them, including use of weighted voting rights or director proxies;

(e) establishes the terms and conditions of any agreement for the transfer or use of property or the provision of services between the corporation and any shareholder, director, officer, or employee of the corporation or among any of them;

(f) transfers to one or more shareholders or other persons all or part of the authority to exercise the corporate powers or to manage the business and affairs of the corporation, including the resolution of any issue about which there exists a deadlock among directors or shareholders;

(g) requires dissolution of the corporation at the request of one or more of the shareholders or on the occurrence of a specified event or contingency; or

(h) otherwise governs the exercise of the corporate powers or the management of the business and affairs of the corporation or the relationship among the shareholders, the directors, and the corporation or among any of them and is not contrary to public policy.

(2) An agreement authorized by this section is:

(a) as set forth:

(i) in the articles of incorporation or bylaws and approved by all persons who are shareholders at the time of the agreement; or

(ii) in a written agreement that is signed by all persons who are shareholders at the time of the agreement and is made known to the corporation; and

(b) subject to amendment only by all persons who are shareholders at the time of the amendment unless the agreement provides otherwise.

(3) The existence of an agreement authorized by this section must be noted conspicuously on the front or back of each certificate for outstanding shares or on the information statement required by 35-14-626(2). If at the time of the agreement the corporation has shares outstanding represented by certificates, the corporation shall recall the outstanding certificates and issue substitute certificates that comply with this subsection. The failure to note the existence of the agreement on the certificate or information statement does not affect the validity of the agreement or any action taken pursuant to it. Any purchaser of shares who, at the time of purchase, did not have knowledge of the existence of the agreement is entitled to rescission of the purchase. A purchaser is considered to have knowledge of the existence of the agreement if its existence is noted on the certificate or information statement for the shares in compliance with this subsection and, if the shares are not represented by a certificate, the information statement is delivered to the purchaser at or before the time of purchase of the shares. An action to enforce the right of rescission authorized by this subsection must be commenced within the earlier of 90 days after discovery of the existence of the agreement or 2 years after the time of purchase of the shares.

(4) If the agreement ceases to be effective for any reason, the board of directors may, if the agreement is contained or referred to in the corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws, adopt an amendment to the articles of incorporation or bylaws, without shareholder action, to delete the agreement and any references to it.

(5) An agreement authorized by this section that limits the discretion or powers of the board of directors relieves the directors of and imposes on the person or persons in whom the discretion or powers are vested liability for acts or omissions imposed by law on directors to the extent that the discretion or powers of the directors are limited by the agreement.

(6) The existence or performance of an agreement authorized by this section may not be a ground for imposing personal liability on any shareholder for the acts or debts of the corporation even if the agreement or its performance treats the corporation as if it were a partnership or results in failure to observe the corporate formalities otherwise applicable to the matters governed by the agreement.

(7) Incorporators or subscribers for shares may act as shareholders with respect to an agreement authorized by this section if no shares have been issued when the agreement is made.

(8) Limits, if any, on the duration of an agreement authorized by this section must be set forth in the agreement.

History: En. Sec. 82, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-733 through 35-14-739 reserved.

35-14-740. Definitions — derivative proceedings. In 35-14-740 through 35-14-747, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Derivative proceeding" means a civil suit in the right of a domestic corporation or, to the extent provided in 35-14-747, in the right of a foreign corporation.

(2) "Shareholder" means a record shareholder, a beneficial shareholder, and an unrestricted voting trust beneficial owner.

History: En. Sec. 83, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-741. Standing. A shareholder may not commence or maintain a derivative proceeding unless the shareholder:

(1) was a shareholder of the corporation at the time of the act or omission complained of or became a shareholder through transfer by operation of law from one who was a shareholder at that time; and

(2) fairly and adequately represents the interests of the corporation in enforcing the right of the corporation.

History: En. Sec. 84, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-742. Demand. A shareholder may not commence a derivative proceeding until:

(1) a written demand has been made on the corporation to take suitable action; and

(2) 90 days have expired from the date delivery of the demand was made unless the shareholder has earlier been notified that the demand has been rejected by the corporation or unless irreparable injury to the corporation would result by waiting for the expiration of the 90-day period.

History: En. Sec. 85, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-743. Stay of proceedings. If the corporation commences an inquiry into the allegations made in the demand or complaint, the court may stay any derivative proceeding for any period the court considers appropriate.

History: En. Sec. 86, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-744. Dismissal. (1) A derivative proceeding must be dismissed by the court on motion by the corporation if one of the groups specified in subsection (2) or (5) has determined in good faith, after conducting a reasonable inquiry on which its conclusions are based, that the maintenance of the derivative proceeding is not in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) Unless a panel is appointed pursuant to subsection (5), the determination in subsection (1) must be made by:

(a) a majority vote of qualified directors present at a meeting of the board of directors if the qualified directors constitute a quorum; or

(b) a majority vote of a committee consisting of two or more qualified directors appointed by majority vote of qualified directors present at a meeting of the board of directors, regardless of whether those qualified directors constitute a quorum.

(3) If a derivative proceeding is commenced after a determination has been made rejecting a demand by a shareholder, the complaint must allege with particularity facts establishing either:

(a) that a majority of the board of directors did not consist of qualified directors at the time the determination was made; or

(b) that the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met.

(4) If a majority of the board of directors consisted of qualified directors at the time the determination was made, the plaintiff has the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met. If not, the corporation has the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (1) have been met.

(5) Upon motion by the corporation, the court may appoint a panel of one or more individuals to make a determination whether the maintenance of the derivative proceeding is in the best interests of the corporation. In that case, the plaintiff has the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met.

History: En. Sec. 87, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-745. Discontinuance — settlement. A derivative proceeding may not be discontinued or settled without the court's approval. If the court determines that a proposed discontinuance or settlement will substantially affect the interests of the corporation's shareholders or a class or series of shareholders, the court shall direct that notice be given to the shareholders affected.

History: En. Sec. 88, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-746. Payment of expenses. On termination of the derivative proceeding, the court may:

(1) order the corporation to pay the plaintiff's expenses incurred in the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding has resulted in a substantial benefit to the corporation;

(2) order the plaintiff to pay any defendant's expenses incurred in defending the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding was commenced or maintained without reasonable cause or for an improper purpose; or

(3) order a party to pay an opposing party's expenses incurred because of the filing of a pleading, motion, or other paper if it finds that the pleading, motion, or other paper:

(a) was not well grounded in fact after reasonable inquiry or warranted by existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law; or

(b) was interposed for an improper purpose, including to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation.

History: En. Sec. 89, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-747. Applicability to foreign corporations. In any derivative proceeding in the right of a foreign corporation, the matters covered by 35-14-740 through 35-14-747 are governed by the laws of the jurisdiction of incorporation of the foreign corporation except 35-14-743, 35-14-745, and 35-14-746.

History: En. Sec. 90, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-748. Shareholder action to appoint custodian or receiver. (1) The district court of the county where a corporation's principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, of the first judicial district may appoint one or more persons to be custodians, or, if the corporation is insolvent, to be receivers of and for a corporation in a proceeding by a shareholder in which it is established that:

(a) the directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs, the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, and irreparable injury to the corporation is threatened or being suffered; or

(b) the directors or those in control of the corporation are acting fraudulently and irreparable injury to the corporation is threatened or being suffered.

(2) The court:

(a) may issue injunctions, appoint a temporary custodian or temporary receiver with all the powers and duties the court directs, take other action to preserve the corporate assets, wherever located, and carry on the business of the corporation until a full hearing is held;

(b) shall hold a full hearing, after notifying all parties to the proceeding and any interested persons designated by the court, before appointing a custodian or receiver; and

(c) has jurisdiction over the corporation and all of its property, wherever located.

(3) The court may appoint an individual, a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation registered to do business in this state as a custodian or receiver and may require the custodian or receiver to post bond, with or without sureties, in an amount the court directs.

(4) The court shall describe the powers and duties of the custodian or receiver in its appointing order, which may be amended from time to time. Among other powers:

(a) a custodian may exercise all of the powers of the corporation, through or in place of its board of directors, to the extent necessary to manage the business and affairs of the corporation; and

(b) a receiver:

(i) may dispose of all or any part of the assets of the corporation, wherever located, at a public or private sale if authorized by the court; and

(ii) may sue and defend in the receiver's own name as receiver in all courts of this state.

(5) The court during a custodianship may redesignate the custodian a receiver, and during a receivership may redesignate the receiver a custodian, if doing so is in the best interests of the corporation.

(6) The court from time to time during the custodianship or receivership may order compensation to be paid and expense disbursements or reimbursements to be made to the custodian or receiver from the assets of the corporation or proceeds from the sale of its assets.

(7) In this section, "shareholder" means a record shareholder, a beneficial shareholder, and an unrestricted voting trust beneficial owner.

History: En. Sec. 91, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-749. Judicial determination — corporate offices — review of elections and shareholder votes. (1) Upon application of or in a proceeding commenced by a person specified in subsection (2), the district court of the county where a corporation's principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, of the first judicial district may determine:

(a) the result or validity of the election, appointment, removal, or resignation of a director or officer of the corporation;

(b) the right of an individual to hold the office of director or officer of the corporation;

(c) the result or validity of any vote by the shareholders of the corporation;

(d) the right of a director to membership on a committee of the board of directors; and

(e) the right of a person to nominate or an individual to be nominated as a candidate for election or appointment as a director of the corporation and any right under a bylaw adopted pursuant to 35-14-206(3) or any comparable right under any provision of the articles of incorporation, contract, or applicable law.

(2) An application or proceeding pursuant to subsection (1) may be filed or commenced by any of the following persons:

(a) the corporation;

(b) any record shareholder, beneficial shareholder, or unrestricted voting trust beneficial owner of the corporation;

(c) a director of the corporation, an individual claiming the office of director, or a director whose membership on a committee of the board of directors is contested, in each case who is seeking a determination of the person's right to the office or membership;

(d) an officer of the corporation or an individual claiming to be an officer of the corporation, in each case who is seeking a determination of the person's right to the office; and

(e) a person claiming a right covered by subsection (1)(e) and seeking a determination of that right.

(3) In connection with any application or proceeding under subsection (1), the following must be named as defendants unless the person made the application or commenced the proceeding:

(a) the corporation;

(b) any individual whose right to office or membership on a committee of the board of directors is contested;

(c) any individual claiming the office or membership at issue; and

(d) any person claiming a right covered by subsection (1)(e) that is at issue.

(4) In connection with any application or proceeding under subsection (1), service of process may be made on each of the persons specified in subsection (3) by either:

(a) service of process on the corporation addressed to the person in any manner provided by statute of this state or by rule of the applicable court for service on the corporation; or

(b) service of process on the person in any manner provided by statute of this state or by rule of the applicable court.

(5) When service of process is made on a person other than the corporation by service on the corporation pursuant to subsection (4)(a), the plaintiff and the corporation or its registered agent shall promptly provide written notice of the service, together with copies of all process and the application or complaint, to the person at the person's last-known residence or business address or as permitted by statute of this state or by rule of the applicable court.

(6) In connection with any application or proceeding under subsection (1), the court shall dispose of the application or proceeding on an expedited basis and also may:

(a) order additional or further notice the court considers proper under the circumstances;

(b) order that additional persons be joined as parties to the proceeding if the court determines that joinder is necessary for a just adjudication of matters before the court;

(c) order that an election or meeting be held in accordance with the provisions of 35-14-703(2) or otherwise;

(d) appoint a master to conduct an election or meeting;

(e) enter temporary, preliminary, or permanent injunctive relief;

(f) resolve, solely for the purpose of this proceeding, any legal or factual issues necessary for the resolution of any of the matters specified in subsection (1), including the right and power of persons claiming to own shares to vote at any meeting of the shareholders; and

(g) order any other relief the court determines is equitable, just, and proper.

(7) It is not necessary to make a shareholder a party to a proceeding or application pursuant to this section unless the shareholder is a required defendant under subsection (3)(d), relief is sought against the shareholder individually, or the court orders joinder pursuant to subsection (6)(b).

(8) Nothing in this section limits, restricts, or abolishes the subject matter jurisdiction or powers of the court that existed before the enactment of this section, and an application or proceeding pursuant to this section is not the exclusive remedy or proceeding available with respect to the matters specified in subsection (1).

History: En. Sec. 92, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

Part 8
Directors and Officers
(Effective June 1, 2020)

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: Section 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "[This act] is effective June 1, 2020."

Applicability: Section 275, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "A foreign corporation registered or authorized to do business in this state on the [effective date of sections 1 through 221] [June 1, 2020] is subject to [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter], is considered to be registered to do business in this state, and is not required to file a foreign registration statement under [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter]."

35-14-801. Board of directors — requirements — functions. (1) Except as may be provided in an agreement authorized under 35-14-732, each corporation must have a board of directors.

(2) Except as may be provided in an agreement authorized under 35-14-732 and subject to any limitation in the articles of incorporation permitted by 35-14-202(2), all corporate powers must be exercised by or under the authority of the board of directors, and the business and affairs of the corporation must be managed by or under the direction of and subject to the oversight of the board of directors.

History: En. Sec. 93, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-802. Qualifications of directors. (1) The articles of incorporation or bylaws may prescribe qualifications for directors or for nominees for directors. Qualifications must be reasonable as applied to the corporation and must be lawful.

(2) A requirement that is based on a past, prospective, or current action or expression of opinion by a nominee or director that could limit the ability of a nominee or director to discharge the duties of a director is not a permissible qualification under this section. However, qualifications may include not being or having been subject to specified criminal, civil, or regulatory sanctions or not having been removed as a director by judicial action or for cause.

(3) A director need not be a resident of this state or a shareholder unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws prescribe those requirements.

(4) A qualification for nomination for director prescribed before a person's nomination applies to the person at the time of nomination. A qualification for nomination for director prescribed after a person's nomination does not apply to the person with respect to the nomination.

(5) A qualification for director prescribed before a director has been elected or appointed applies only at the time an individual becomes a director or during a director's term. A qualification prescribed after a director has been elected or appointed does not apply to that director before the end of that director's term.

History: En. Sec. 94, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-803. Directors — number — election. (1) A board of directors must consist of one or more individuals, with the number specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

(2) The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to or in the manner provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

(3) Directors are elected at the first annual shareholders' meeting and at each annual shareholders' meeting thereafter unless elected by written consent in lieu of an annual meeting as permitted by 35-14-704 or unless their terms are staggered under 35-14-806.

History: En. Sec. 95, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-804. Election of directors — certain classes or series of shares. If the articles of incorporation or action by the board of directors pursuant to 35-14-602 authorizes dividing the shares into classes or series, the articles of incorporation may also authorize the election of all or a specified number of directors by the holders of one or more authorized classes or series of shares. A class or series or multiple classes or series of shares entitled to elect one or more directors constitute a separate voting group for purposes of the election of directors.

35-14-805. Terms of directors generally. (1) The terms of the initial directors of a corporation expire at the first shareholders' meeting at which directors are elected.

(2) The terms of all other directors expire at the next or, if their terms are staggered in accordance with 35-14-806, at the applicable second or third annual shareholders' meeting following their election, except to the extent:

(a) provided in 35-14-1022 if a bylaw electing to be governed by that section is in effect; or

(b) a shorter term is specified in the articles of incorporation in the event of a director nominee failing to receive a specified vote for election.

(3) A decrease in the number of directors does not shorten an incumbent director's term.

(4) The term of a director elected to fill a vacancy expires at the next shareholders' meeting at which directors are elected unless the bylaws state that a director elected or appointed to fill a vacancy is elected or appointed for the unexpired term of the director's predecessor in office.

(5) Except to the extent otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or under 35-14-1022 if a bylaw electing to be governed by that section is in effect, despite the expiration of a director's term, the director continues to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies or there is a decrease in the number of directors.

History: En. Sec. 97, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-806. Staggered terms for directors. The articles of incorporation may provide for staggering the terms of directors by dividing the total number of directors into two or three groups, with each group containing half or one-third of the total, as near as may be practicable. In that event, the terms of directors in the first group expire at the first annual shareholders' meeting after their election, the terms of the second group expire at the second annual shareholders' meeting after their election, and the terms of the third group, if any, expire at the third annual shareholders' meeting after their election. At each annual shareholders' meeting held subsequently, directors are elected for a term of 2 years or 3 years, as the case may be, to succeed those whose terms expire.

35-14-807. Resignation of directors. (1) A director may resign at any time by delivering a written notice of resignation to the board of directors or its chair or to the secretary.

(2) A resignation is effective as provided in 35-14-141(9) unless the resignation provides for a delayed effectiveness, including effectiveness determined on a future event or events. A resignation that is conditioned on failing to receive a specified vote for election as a director may provide that it is irrevocable.

History: En. Sec. 99, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-808. Removal of directors by shareholders. (1) The shareholders may remove one or more directors with or without cause unless the articles of incorporation provide that directors may be removed only for cause.

(2) If a director is elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the shareholders of that voting group may participate in the vote to remove that director.

(3) A director may be removed if the number of votes cast to remove exceeds the number of votes cast not to remove the director, except to the extent the articles of incorporation or bylaws require a greater number. However, if cumulative voting is authorized, a director may not be removed if, in the case of a meeting, the number of votes sufficient to elect the director under cumulative voting is cast against removal and, if action is taken by less than unanimous written consent, voting shareholders entitled to the number of votes sufficient to elect the director under cumulative voting do not consent to the removal.

(4) A director may be removed by the shareholders only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing the director, and the meeting notice must state that removal of the director is the purpose of the meeting.

History: En. Sec. 100, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-809. Removal of directors by judicial proceeding. (1) The district court of the county where a corporation's principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, of the first judicial district may remove a director from office or may order other relief, including barring the director from reelection for a period prescribed by the court, in a proceeding commenced by or in the right of the corporation if the court finds that:

(a) the director engaged in fraudulent conduct with respect to the corporation or its shareholders, grossly abused the position of director, or intentionally inflicted harm on the corporation; and

(b) considering the director's course of conduct and the inadequacy of other available remedies, removal or other relief would be in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) A shareholder proceeding on behalf of the corporation under subsection (1) of this section must comply with all of the requirements of 35-14-740 through 35-14-747 except 35-14-741(1).

History: En. Sec. 101, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-810. Vacancy — board of directors. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, if a vacancy occurs on a board of directors, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors:

(a) the shareholders may fill the vacancy;

(b) the board of directors may fill the vacancy; or

(c) if the directors remaining in office are less than a quorum, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office.

(2) If the vacant office was held by a director elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the holders of shares of that voting group are entitled to vote to fill the vacancy if it is filled by the shareholders, and only the remaining directors elected by that voting group, even if less than a quorum, are entitled to fill the vacancy if it is filled by the directors.

(3) A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date, by reason of a resignation effective at a later date under 35-14-807(2) or otherwise, may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

History: En. Sec. 102, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-811. Compensation of directors. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors may fix the compensation of directors.

History: En. Sec. 103, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-812 through 35-14-819 reserved.

35-14-820. Meetings. (1) The board of directors may hold regular or special meetings in or out of this state.

(2) Unless restricted by the articles of incorporation or bylaws, any or all directors may participate in any meeting of the board of directors through the use of any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means is considered to be present in person at the meeting.

(3) If requested by a director, minutes of any regular or special meeting must be prepared and be distributed to each director.

History: En. Sec. 104, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-821. Action without meeting. (1) Except to the extent that the articles of incorporation or bylaws require that action by the board of directors be taken at a meeting, action required or permitted by this chapter to be taken by the board of directors may be taken without a meeting if each director signs a consent describing the action to be taken and delivers it to the corporation.

(2) Action taken under this section is the act of the board of directors when one or more consents signed by all the directors are delivered to the corporation. The consent may specify a later time as the time at which the action taken is to be effective. A director's consent may be withdrawn by a revocation signed by the director and delivered to the corporation before delivery to the corporation of unrevoked written consents signed by all the directors.

(3) A consent signed under this section has the effect of action taken at a meeting of the board of directors and may be described in that manner in any document.

History: En. Sec. 105, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-822. Notice of meeting. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice of the date, time, place, or purpose of the meeting.

(2) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide for a longer or shorter period, special meetings of the board of directors must be preceded by at least 2 days' notice of the date, time, and place of the meeting. The notice need not describe the purpose of the special meeting unless required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

History: En. Sec. 106, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-823. Waiver of notice. (1) A director may waive any notice required by this chapter, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. Except as provided by subsection (2), the waiver must be in writing, be signed by the director entitled to the notice, and be delivered to the corporation for filing by the corporation with the minutes or corporate records.

(2) A director's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice to the director of the meeting unless the director, at the beginning of the meeting or promptly upon arrival, objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and does not after objecting vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting.

35-14-824. Quorum and voting. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide for a greater or lesser number or unless otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, a quorum of a board of directors consists of a majority of the number of directors specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

(2) The quorum of the board of directors specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles of incorporation or bylaws may not consist of less than one-third of the specified or fixed number of directors.

(3) If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present is the act of the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require the vote of a greater number of directors or unless otherwise expressly provided in this chapter.

(4) A director who is present at a meeting of the board of directors or a committee when corporate action is taken is considered to have assented to the action taken unless:

(a) the director objects, at the beginning of the meeting or promptly upon arrival, to holding it or transacting business at the meeting;

(b) the dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting; or

(c) the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the corporation immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention is not available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

History: En. Sec. 108, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-825. Committees of board. (1) Unless this chapter, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws provide otherwise, a board of directors may establish one or more board committees composed exclusively of one or more directors to perform functions of the board of directors.

(2) The establishment of a board committee and appointment of members to it must be approved by the greater of:

(a) a majority of all the directors in office when the action is taken; or

(b) the number of directors required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws to take action under 35-14-824 unless, in either case, this chapter or the articles of incorporation provide otherwise.

(3) Sections 35-14-820 through 35-14-824 apply to board committees and their members.

(4) A board committee may exercise the powers of the board of directors under 35-14-801 to the extent specified by the board of directors or in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, except that a board committee may not:

(a) authorize or approve distributions except according to a formula or method, or within limits, prescribed by the board of directors;

(b) approve or propose to shareholders action that this chapter requires to be approved by shareholders;

(c) fill vacancies on the board of directors or, subject to subsection (5), on any board committees;

(d) adopt, amend, or repeal bylaws;

(e) approve a plan of merger, including plans not requiring shareholder approval;

(f) authorize or approve reacquisition of shares except according to a formula or method prescribed by the board of directors; or

(g) authorize or approve the issuance of or sale or contract for sale of shares or determine the designation and relative rights, preferences, and limitations of a class or series of shares. However, the board of directors may authorize a committee or a senior executive officer of the corporation to do so within limits specifically prescribed by the board of directors.

(5) The board of directors may appoint one or more directors as alternate members of any board committee to replace any absent or disqualified member during the member's absence or disqualification. If the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, or the resolution creating the board committee so provide, the member or members present at any board committee meeting and not disqualified from voting may, by unanimous action, appoint another director to act in place of an absent or disqualified member during that member's absence or disqualification.

35-14-826. Submission of matters for shareholder vote. A corporation may agree to submit a matter to a vote of its shareholders even if, after approving the matter, the board of directors determines it no longer recommends the matter.

History: En. Sec. 110, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-827 through 35-14-829 reserved.

35-14-830. Standards of conduct for directors. (1) Each member of the board of directors, when discharging the duties of a director, shall act:

(a) in good faith; and

(b) in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) The members of the board of directors or a board committee, when becoming informed in connection with their decisionmaking function or devoting attention to their oversight function, shall discharge their duties with the care that a person in a like position would reasonably believe appropriate under similar circumstances.

(3) In discharging board or board committee duties, a director shall disclose or cause to be disclosed to the other board or committee members information not already known by them but known by the director to be material to the discharge of their decisionmaking or oversight functions, except that disclosure is not required to the extent that the director reasonably believes that doing so would violate a duty imposed under law, a legally enforceable obligation of confidentiality, or a professional ethics rule.

(4) In discharging board or board committee duties, a director who does not have knowledge that makes reliance unwarranted is entitled to rely on the performance by any of the persons specified in subsection (6)(a) or (6)(c) to whom the board may have delegated, formally or informally by course of conduct, the authority or duty to perform one or more of the board's functions that are delegable under applicable law.

(5) In discharging board or board committee duties, a director who does not have knowledge that makes reliance unwarranted is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, prepared or presented by any of the persons specified in subsection (6).

(6) A director is entitled to rely, in accordance with subsection (4) or (5), on:

(a) one or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the functions performed or the information, opinions, reports, or statements provided;

(b) legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons retained by the corporation as to matters involving skills or expertise the director reasonably believes are matters:

(i) within the particular person's professional or expert competence; or

(ii) as to which the particular person merits confidence; or

(c) a board committee of which the director is not a member if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.

History: En. Sec. 111, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-831. Standards of liability for directors. (1) A director may not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for any decision to take or not to take action, or any failure to take any action, as a director unless the party asserting liability in a proceeding establishes that:

(a) no defense interposed by the director precludes liability based on:

(i) any provision in the articles of incorporation authorized by 35-14-202(2)(d) or (2)(f);

(ii) the protection afforded by 35-14-861 for action taken in compliance with 35-14-862 or 35-14-863; or

(iii) the protection afforded by 35-14-870; and

(b) the challenged conduct consisted or was the result of:

(i) action not in good faith; or

(ii) a decision:

(A) that the director did not reasonably believe to be in the best interests of the corporation; or

(B) as to which the director was not informed to an extent the director reasonably believed appropriate in the circumstances; or

(iii) a lack of objectivity due to the director's familial, financial, or business relationship with, or a lack of independence due to the director's domination or control by, another person having a material interest in the challenged conduct and:

(A) the relationship, domination, or control could reasonably be expected to have affected the director's judgment respecting the challenged conduct in a manner adverse to the corporation; and

(B) after a reasonable expectation of an effect on the director's judgment has been established, the director may not have established that the challenged conduct was reasonably believed by the director to be in the best interests of the corporation; or

(iv) a sustained failure of the director to devote attention to ongoing oversight of the business and affairs of the corporation or a failure to devote timely attention, by making or causing to be made appropriate inquiry, when particular facts and circumstances of significant concern materialize that would alert a reasonably attentive director to the need for an inquiry; or

(v) receipt of a financial benefit to which the director was not entitled or any other breach of the director's duties to deal fairly with the corporation and its shareholders that is actionable under applicable law.

(2) The party seeking to hold the director liable:

(a) for money damages also has the burden of establishing that:

(i) harm to the corporation or its shareholders has been suffered; and

(ii) the harm suffered was proximately caused by the director's challenged conduct; or

(b) for other money payment under a legal remedy, such as compensation for the unauthorized use of corporate assets, also has whatever persuasion burden may be called for to establish that the payment sought is appropriate in the circumstances; or

(c) for other money payment under an equitable remedy, such as profit recovery by or disgorgement to the corporation, also has whatever persuasion burden may be called for to establish that the equitable remedy sought is appropriate in the circumstances.

(3) Nothing in this section:

(a) in any instance where fairness is at issue, such as consideration of the fairness of a transaction to the corporation under 35-14-860(2)(c), alters the burden of proving the fact or lack of fairness otherwise applicable;

(b) alters the fact or lack of liability of a director under another section of this chapter, such as the provisions governing the consequences of an unlawful distribution under 35-14-832 or a transactional interest under 35-14-861;

(c) affects any rights to which the corporation or a shareholder may be entitled under another statute of this state or the United States; or

(d) invalidates or otherwise limits the business judgment rule under the common law.

35-14-832. Director's liability for unlawful distributions. (1) A director who votes for or assents to a distribution in excess of what may be authorized and made pursuant to 35-14-640(1) or 35-14-1409(1) is personally liable to the corporation for the amount of the distribution that exceeds what could have been distributed without violating 35-14-640(1) or 35-14-1409(1) if the party asserting liability establishes that when taking the action the director did not comply with 35-14-830.

(2) A director held liable under subsection (1) for an unlawful distribution is entitled to:

(a) contribution from every other director who could be held liable under subsection (1) for the unlawful distribution; and

(b) recoupment from each shareholder of the pro rata portion of the amount of the unlawful distribution the shareholder accepted knowing the distribution was made in violation of 35-14-640(1) or 35-14-1409(1).

(3) A proceeding to enforce:

(a) the liability of a director under subsection (1) is barred unless it is commenced within 2 years after the date:

(i) on which the effect of the distribution was measured under 35-14-640(5) or (7);

(ii) as of which the violation of 35-14-640(1) occurred as the consequence of disregard of a restriction in the articles of incorporation; or

(iii) on which the distribution of assets to shareholders under 35-14-1409(1) was made; or

(b) contribution or recoupment under subsection (2) is barred unless it is commenced within 1 year after the liability of the claimant has been finally adjudicated under subsection (1).

History: En. Sec. 113, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-833 through 35-14-839 reserved.

35-14-840. Officers. (1) A corporation has the officers described in its bylaws or appointed by the board of directors in accordance with the bylaws.

(2) The board of directors may elect individuals to fill one or more offices of the corporation. An officer may appoint one or more officers if authorized by the bylaws or the board of directors.

(3) The bylaws or the board of directors shall assign to an officer responsibility for maintaining and authenticating the records of the corporation required to be kept under 35-14-1601(1).

(4) The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in a corporation.

History: En. Sec. 114, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-841. Functions of officers. Each officer has the authority and shall perform the functions set forth in the bylaws or, to the extent consistent with the bylaws, the functions prescribed by the board of directors or by direction of an officer authorized by the board of directors to prescribe the functions of other officers.

History: En. Sec. 115, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-842. Standards of conduct for officers. (1) An officer, when performing in an official capacity, has the duty to act:

(a) in good faith;

(b) with the care that a person in a like position would reasonably exercise under similar circumstances; and

(c) in a manner the officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) The duty of an officer includes the obligation:

(a) to inform the superior officer to whom or the board of directors or the board committee to which the officer reports of information about the affairs of the corporation known to the officer within the scope of the officer's functions and known to the officer to be material to the superior officer, board, or committee; and

(b) to inform the officer's superior officer, another appropriate person within the corporation, or the board of directors, or a board committee of any actual or probable material violation of law involving the corporation or any material breach of duty to the corporation by an officer, employee, or agent of the corporation that the officer believes has occurred or is likely to occur.

(3) In discharging the officer's duties, an officer who does not have knowledge that makes reliance unwarranted is entitled to rely on:

(a) the performance of properly delegated responsibilities by one or more employees of the corporation whom the officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in performing the responsibilities delegated; or

(b) information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, prepared or presented by one or more employees of the corporation whom the officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented or by legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons retained by the corporation as to matters involving skills or expertise the officer reasonably believes are matters:

(i) within the particular person's professional or expert competence; or

(ii) as to which the particular person merits confidence.

(4) An officer is not liable to the corporation or its shareholders for any decision to take or not to take action or any failure to take any action as an officer if the duties of the office are performed in compliance with this section. Whether an officer who does not comply with this section has liability will depend in each instance on applicable law, including those principles of 35-14-831 that have relevance.

History: En. Sec. 116, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-843. Resignation and removal of officers. (1) An officer may resign at any time by delivering a written notice to the corporation. A resignation is effective as provided in 35-14-141(9) unless the notice provides for delayed effectiveness, including effectiveness determined on a future event or events. If effectiveness of a resignation is stated to be delayed and the board of directors or the appointing officer accepts the delay, the board of directors or the appointing officer may fill the pending vacancy before the delayed effectiveness, but the new officer may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

(2) An officer may be removed at any time with or without cause by:

(a) the board of directors;

(b) the appointing officer unless the bylaws or the board of directors provides otherwise; or

(c) any other officer if authorized by the bylaws or the board of directors.

(3) In this section, "appointing officer" means the officer, including any successor to that officer, who appointed the officer resigning or being removed.

History: En. Sec. 117, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-844. Contract rights of officers. (1) The election or appointment of an officer does not itself create contract rights.

(2) An officer's removal does not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the corporation. An officer's resignation does not affect the corporation's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

History: En. Sec. 118, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-845 through 35-14-849 reserved.

35-14-850. Definitions — indemnification and advance for expenses. For the purposes of 35-14-850 through 35-14-859, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Corporation" includes any domestic or foreign predecessor entity of a corporation in a merger or other transaction in which the predecessor's existence ceased upon consummation of the transaction.

(2) "Director" means an individual who is or was a director of a corporation or who, while a director of the corporation, is or was serving at the corporation's request as a director of another entity or trustee of an employee benefit plan. A director is considered to be serving as a trustee of an employee benefit plan at the corporation's request if the individual's duties to the corporation also impose duties on, or otherwise involve services by, the individual to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The term includes the estate or personal representative of a director.

(3) "Liability" means the obligation to pay a judgment, a settlement, a penalty, a fine, including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan, or expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding, including attorney fees.

(4) "Officer" means an individual who is or was an officer of a corporation or who, while an officer of the corporation, is or was serving at the corporation's request as an officer of another entity or trustee of an employee benefit plan. An officer is considered to be serving as a trustee of an employee benefit plan at the corporation's request if the individual's duties to the corporation also impose duties on or otherwise involve services by the individual to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The term includes the estate or personal representative of an officer.

(5) (a) "Official capacity" means:

(i) when used with respect to a director, the office of director in a corporation; and

(ii) when used with respect to an officer as contemplated in 35-14-856, the office in a corporation held by the officer.

(b) The term does not include service for any other domestic or foreign corporation or any joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other entity.

(6) "Party" means an individual who was, is, or is threatened to be made a defendant or respondent in a proceeding.

(7) "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal.

History: En. Sec. 119, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-851. Permissible indemnification. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a corporation may indemnify an individual who is a party to a proceeding because the individual is a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

(a) (i) the director acted in good faith; and

(ii) the director reasonably believed:

(A) in the case of conduct in an official capacity, that the conduct was in the best interests of the corporation; and

(B) in all other cases, that the conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; and

(iii) in the case of a criminal proceeding, the director had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful; or

(b) the director engaged in conduct for which broader indemnification has been made permissible or obligatory under a provision of the articles of incorporation as authorized by 35-14-202(2)(e).

(2) A director's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan for a purpose the director reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in and the beneficiaries of the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirement of subsection (1)(a)(ii)(B).

(3) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, determinative that the director did not meet the relevant standard of conduct described in this section.

(4) Unless ordered by a court under 35-14-854(1)(c), a corporation may not indemnify a director:

(a) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation except for expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding if it is determined that the director has met the relevant standard of conduct under subsection (1); or

(b) in connection with any proceeding with respect to conduct for which the director was adjudged liable on the basis of receiving a financial benefit to which the director was not entitled, regardless of whether it involved action in the director's official capacity.

History: En. Sec. 120, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-852. Mandatory indemnification. A corporation shall indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director was a party because the director was a director of the corporation against expenses incurred by the director in connection with the proceeding.

History: En. Sec. 121, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-853. Advance for expenses. (1) A corporation may, before final disposition of a proceeding, advance funds to pay for or reimburse expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding by an individual who is a party to the proceeding because that individual is a director if the director delivers to the corporation a signed, written undertaking of the director to repay any funds advanced if:

(a) the director is not entitled to mandatory indemnification under 35-14-852; and

(b) it is ultimately determined under 35-14-854 or 35-14-855 that the director is not entitled to indemnification.

(2) The undertaking required by subsection (1) must be an unlimited general obligation of the director but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to the financial ability of the director to make repayment.

(3) Authorizations under this section must be made:

(a) by the board of directors in the following manner:

(i) if there are two or more qualified directors, by a majority vote of all the qualified directors, a majority of whom for this purpose constitute a quorum, or

(ii) by a majority of the members of a committee consisting solely of two or more qualified directors appointed by a majority vote of all the qualified directors; or

(b) by special legal counsel:

(i) selected in the manner prescribed in subsection (3)(a); or

(ii) if there are fewer than two qualified directors, selected by the board of directors, in which directors who are not qualified directors may participate; or

(c) by the shareholders, but shares owned by or voted under the control of a director who at the time is not a qualified director may not be voted on the authorization.

History: En. Sec. 122, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-854. Court-ordered indemnification and advance for expenses. (1) A director who is a party to a proceeding because the person is a director may apply for indemnification or an advance for expenses to the court conducting the proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction. After receipt of an application and after giving any notice it considers necessary, the court shall:

(a) order indemnification if the court determines that the director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under 35-14-852;

(b) order indemnification or advance for expenses if the court determines that the director is entitled to indemnification or advance for expenses pursuant to a provision authorized by 35-14-858(1); or

(c) order indemnification or advance for expenses if the court determines, in view of all the relevant circumstances, that it is fair and reasonable to indemnify the director or to advance expenses to the director even if, in either case, the director has not met the relevant standard of conduct set forth in 35-14-851(1), has failed to comply with 35-14-853, or was adjudged liable in a proceeding referred to in 35-14-851(4)(a) or (4)(b). If the director was adjudged liable in a proceeding referred to in 35-14-851(4), indemnification is limited to expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

(2) If the court determines that the director is entitled to indemnification under subsection (1)(a) or to indemnification or advance for expenses under subsection (1)(b), it shall also order the corporation to pay the director's expenses incurred in connection with obtaining court-ordered indemnification or advance for expenses. If the court determines that the director is entitled to indemnification or advance for expenses under subsection (1)(c), it may also order the corporation to pay the director's expenses incurred to obtain court-ordered indemnification or advance for expenses.

35-14-855. Determination and authorization of indemnification. (1) A corporation may not indemnify a director under 35-14-851 unless authorized for a specific proceeding after a determination has been made that indemnification is permissible because the director has met the relevant standard of conduct set forth in 35-14-851.

(2) The determination must be made:

(a) if there are two or more qualified directors, by the board of directors by a majority vote of all the qualified directors, a majority of whom for this purpose constitute a quorum, or by a majority of the members of a committee of two or more qualified directors appointed by a majority vote of all the qualified directors;

(b) by special legal counsel:

(i) selected in the manner prescribed in subsection (2)(a); or

(ii) if there are fewer than two qualified directors, selected by the board of directors, in which directors who are not qualified directors may participate; or

(c) by the shareholders, but shares owned by or voted under the control of a director who at the time is not a qualified director may not be voted on the determination.

(3) Authorization of indemnification must be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that if there are fewer than two qualified directors or if the determination is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification must be made by those entitled to select special legal counsel under subsection (2)(b)(ii).

History: En. Sec. 124, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-856. Indemnification of officers. (1) A corporation may indemnify and advance expenses under 35-14-850 through 35-14-859 to an officer who is a party to a proceeding because the person is an officer:

(a) to the same extent as a director; and

(b) if the person is an officer but not a director, to any further extent provided by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws or by a resolution adopted or a contract approved by the board of directors or shareholders, except for:

(i) liability in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation other than for expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding; or

(ii) liability arising out of conduct that constitutes:

(A) receipt by the officer of a financial benefit to which the officer is not entitled;

(B) an intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or the shareholders; or

(C) an intentional violation of criminal law.

(2) Subsection (1)(b) applies to an officer who is also a director if the officer is made a party to the proceeding based on an act or omission solely as an officer.

(3) An officer who is not a director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under 35-14-852 and may apply to a court under 35-14-854 for indemnification or an advance for expenses, in each case to the same extent to which a director may be entitled to indemnification or advance for expenses under those sections.

History: En. Sec. 125, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-857. Insurance. A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual who is a director or officer of the corporation or who, while a director or officer of the corporation, serves at the corporation's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation or a joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other entity against liability asserted against or incurred by the individual in that capacity or arising from the individual's status as a director or officer, regardless of whether the corporation would have power to indemnify or advance expenses to the individual against the same liability under 35-14-850 through 35-14-859.

35-14-858. Variation by corporate action — application. (1) A corporation may, by a provision in its articles of incorporation or bylaws or in a resolution adopted or a contract approved by the board of directors or shareholders, obligate itself in advance of the act or omission giving rise to a proceeding to provide indemnification in accordance with 35-14-851 or advance funds to pay for or reimburse expenses in accordance with 35-14-853. An obligatory provision under this section satisfies the requirements for authorization referred to in 35-14-853(3) and 35-14-855(3). Any provision that obligates the corporation to provide indemnification to the fullest extent permitted by law obligates the corporation to advance funds to pay for or reimburse expenses in accordance with 35-14-853 to the fullest extent permitted by law unless the provision expressly provides otherwise.

(2) A right of indemnification or to advances for expenses created by 35-14-850 through 35-14-859 or under subsection (1) of this section and in effect at the time of an act or omission may not be eliminated or impaired with respect to the act or omission by an amendment of the articles of incorporation or bylaws or a resolution of the board of directors or shareholders adopted after the occurrence of the act or omission unless, in the case of a right created under subsection (1), the provision creating the right and in effect at the time of the act or omission explicitly authorizes the elimination or impairment after the act or omission has occurred.

(3) A provision pursuant to subsection (1) may not obligate the corporation to indemnify or advance expenses to a director of a predecessor of the corporation pertaining to conduct with respect to the predecessor unless otherwise expressly provided. A provision for indemnification or advance for expenses in the articles of incorporation or bylaws or a resolution of the board of directors or shareholders of a predecessor of the corporation in a merger or in a contract to which the predecessor is a party that exists at the time the merger takes effect is governed by 35-14-1107(1)(d).

(4) Subject to subsection (2), a corporation may, by a provision in its articles of incorporation, limit any of the rights to indemnification or advance for expenses created by or pursuant to 35-14-850 through 35-14-859.

(5) Sections 35-14-850 through 35-14-859 do not limit a corporation's power to pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director or an officer in connection with appearing as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the director or officer is not a party.

(6) Sections 35-14-850 through 35-14-859 do not limit a corporation's power to indemnify, advance expenses to, or provide or maintain insurance on behalf of an employee or agent.

History: En. Sec. 127, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-859. Exclusivity. A corporation may provide indemnification or advance expenses to a director or an officer only as permitted by 35-14-850 through 35-14-859.

History: En. Sec. 128, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-860. Definitions — director's conflicting interest transactions. For the purposes of 35-14-860 through 35-14-863, unless otherwise specified, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Control" or "controlled by" means:

(a) having the power, directly or indirectly, to elect or remove a majority of the members of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, whether through the ownership of voting shares or interests, by contract, or otherwise; or

(b) being subject to a majority of the risk of loss from the entity's activities or entitled to receive a majority of the entity's residual returns.

(2) "Director's conflicting interest transaction" means a transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the corporation or by an entity controlled by the corporation:

(a) to which, at the relevant time, the director is a party;

(b) respecting which, at the relevant time, the director had knowledge and a material financial interest known to the director; or

(c) respecting which, at the relevant time, the director knew that a related person was a party or had a material financial interest.

(3) "Fair to the corporation" means, for purposes of 35-14-861(2)(c), that the transaction as a whole was beneficial to the corporation, taking into appropriate account whether it was:

(a) fair in terms of the director's dealings with the corporation; and

(b) comparable to what might have been obtainable in an arm's-length transaction, given the consideration paid or received by the corporation.

(4) "Material financial interest" means a financial interest in a transaction that would reasonably be expected to impair the objectivity of the director's judgment when participating in action on the authorization of the transaction.

(5) "Related person" means:

(a) an individual's spouse;

(b) a child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, sibling, step sibling, half sibling, aunt, uncle, niece, or nephew, or spouse of any of them, of an individual or of an individual's spouse;

(c) a natural person living in the same home as an individual;

(d) an entity, other than the corporation or an entity controlled by the corporation, controlled by an individual or any person specified in subsections (5)(a) through (5)(c);

(e) a domestic or foreign:

(A) business or nonprofit corporation, other than the corporation or an entity controlled by the corporation, of which an individual is a director;

(B) unincorporated entity of which an individual is a general partner or a member of the governing body; or

(C) individual, trust, or estate for whom or of which an individual is a trustee, guardian, personal representative, or similar fiduciary; or

(f) a person that is or an entity that is controlled by an employer of an individual.

(6) "Relevant time" means:

(a) the time at which directors' action respecting the transaction is taken in compliance with 35-14-862; or

(b) if the transaction is not brought before the board of directors or a committee for action under 35-14-862, the time at which the corporation or an entity controlled by the corporation becomes legally obligated to consummate the transaction.

(7) "Required disclosure" means disclosure of:

(a) the existence and nature of the director's conflicting interest; and

(b) all facts known to the director respecting the subject matter of the transaction that a director free of that conflicting interest would reasonably believe to be material in deciding whether to proceed with the transaction.

History: En. Sec. 129, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-861. Judicial action. (1) A transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the corporation or by an entity controlled by the corporation may not be the subject of equitable relief or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions against a director of the corporation in a proceeding by a shareholder or by or in the right of the corporation on the ground that the director has an interest respecting the transaction if it is not a director's conflicting interest transaction.

(2) A director's conflicting interest transaction may not be the subject of equitable relief or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions against a director of the corporation in a proceeding by a shareholder or by or in the right of the corporation on the grounds that the director has an interest respecting the transaction if:

(a) directors' action respecting the transaction was taken in compliance with 35-14-862 at any time;

(b) shareholders' action respecting the transaction was taken in compliance with 35-14-863 at any time; or

(c) the transaction, judged according to the circumstances at the relevant time, is established to have been fair to the corporation.

History: En. Sec. 130, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-862. Directors' action. (1) Directors' action respecting a director's conflicting interest transaction is effective for purposes of 35-14-861(2)(a) if the transaction has been authorized by the affirmative vote of a majority, but no fewer than two, of the qualified directors who voted on the transaction after required disclosure by the conflicted director of information not already known by the qualified directors or after modified disclosure in compliance with subsection (2), provided that:

(a) the qualified directors have deliberated and voted outside the presence of and without participation by any other director; and

(b) if the action has been taken by a board committee, all members of the committee were qualified directors and either:

(i) the committee was composed of all the qualified directors on the board of directors; or

(ii) the members of the committee were appointed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the qualified directors on the board of directors.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), when a transaction is a director's conflicting interest transaction only because a related person of the director is a party to or has a material financial interest in the transaction, the conflicted director is not obligated to make required disclosure to the extent that the director reasonably believes that doing so would violate a duty imposed under law, a legally enforceable obligation of confidentiality, or a professional ethics rule if the conflicted director discloses to the qualified directors voting on the transaction:

(a) all information required to be disclosed that is not violative of the duty, obligation, or rule;

(b) the existence and nature of the director's conflicting interest; and

(c) the nature of the conflicted director's duty not to disclose the confidential information.

(3) A majority, but no fewer than two, of all the qualified directors on the board of directors or on the board committee constitutes a quorum for purposes of action that complies with this section.

(4) If directors' action under this section does not satisfy a quorum or voting requirement applicable to the authorization of the transaction by reason of the articles of incorporation or bylaws or a provision of law, independent action to satisfy those authorization requirements must be taken by the board of directors or a board committee, in which directors who are not qualified directors may participate.

History: En. Sec. 131, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-863. Shareholders' action. (1) Shareholders' action respecting a director's conflicting interest transaction is effective for purposes of 35-14-861(2)(b) if a majority of the votes cast by the holders of all qualified shares are in favor of the transaction after:

(a) notice to shareholders describing the action to be taken respecting the transaction;

(b) provision to the corporation of the information referred to in subsection (2); and

(c) communication to the shareholders entitled to vote on the transaction of the information that is the subject of required disclosure, to the extent the information is not known by them. In the case of shareholders' action at a meeting, the shareholders entitled to vote must be determined as of the record date for notice of the meeting.

(2) A director who has a conflicting interest respecting the transaction shall, before the shareholders' vote, inform the secretary or other officer or agent of the corporation authorized to tabulate votes, in writing, of the number of shares that the director knows are not qualified shares under subsection (3), and of the identity of the holders of those shares.

(3) For purposes of this section:

(a) "holder" means and "held by" refers to shares held by a record shareholder, a beneficial shareholder, and an unrestricted voting trust beneficial owner; and

(b) "qualified shares" means all shares entitled to be voted with respect to the transaction except shares that the secretary or other officer or agent of the corporation authorized to tabulate votes either knows or under subsection (2) is informed are held by:

(i) a director who has a conflicting interest respecting the transaction; or

(ii) a related person of the director, excluding a person described in 35-14-860(5)(f).

(4) A majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all qualified shares constitutes a quorum for purposes of compliance with this section. Subject to the provisions of subsection (5), shareholders' action that otherwise complies with this section is not affected by the presence of holders of or by the voting of shares that are not qualified shares.

(5) If a shareholders' vote does not comply with subsection (1) solely because of a director's failure to comply with subsection (2) and if the director establishes that the failure was not intended to influence and did not in fact determine the outcome of the vote, the court may take any action respecting the transaction and the director, and may give any effect to the shareholders' vote, that the court considers appropriate in the circumstances.

(6) If shareholders' action under this section does not satisfy a quorum or voting requirement applicable to the authorization of the transaction by reason of the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, or a provision of law, independent action to satisfy those authorization requirements must be taken by the shareholders, in which shares that are not qualified shares may participate.

History: En. Sec. 132, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-864 through 35-14-869 reserved.

35-14-870. Business opportunities. (1) If a director or officer pursues or takes advantage of a business opportunity directly, or indirectly through or on behalf of another person, that action may not be the subject of equitable relief or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions against the director, officer, or other person in a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation on the ground that the opportunity should have first been offered to the corporation if:

(a) before the director, officer, or other person becomes legally obligated respecting the opportunity, the director or officer brings it to the attention of the corporation and either:

(i) action by qualified directors disclaiming the corporation's interest in the opportunity is taken in compliance with the procedures set forth in 35-14-862; or

(ii) shareholders' action disclaiming the corporation's interest in the opportunity is taken in compliance with the procedures set forth in 35-14-863, in either case as if the decision being made concerned a director's conflicting interest transaction, except that rather than making required disclosure as defined in 35-14-860, the director or officer must have made prior disclosure to those acting on behalf of the corporation of all material facts concerning the business opportunity known to the director or officer; or

(b) the duty to offer the corporation the business opportunity has been limited or eliminated pursuant to a provision of the articles of incorporation adopted and, if required, made effective by action of qualified directors in accordance with 35-14-202(2)(f).

(2) In any proceeding seeking equitable relief or other remedies based on an alleged improper pursuit or taking advantage of a business opportunity by a director or officer directly, or indirectly through or on behalf of another person, the fact that the director or officer did not employ the procedure described in subsection (1)(a)(i) or (1)(a)(ii) before pursuing or taking advantage of the opportunity does not create an implication that the opportunity should have been first presented to the corporation or alter the burden of proof otherwise applicable to establish that the director or officer breached a duty to the corporation in the circumstances.

Part 9
Domestication and Conversion (Effective June 1, 2020)

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: Section 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "[This act] is effective June 1, 2020."

Applicability: Section 275, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "A foreign corporation registered or authorized to do business in this state on the [effective date of sections 1 through 221] [June 1, 2020] is subject to [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter], is considered to be registered to do business in this state, and is not required to file a foreign registration statement under [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter]."

35-14-901. Definitions — domestication — conversion. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Conversion" means a transaction pursuant to 35-14-930 through 35-14-935.

(2) "Converted entity" means the converting entity as it continues in existence after a conversion.

(3) "Converting entity" means the domestic corporation or eligible entity that approves a plan of conversion pursuant to 35-14-932 or the foreign eligible entity that approves a conversion pursuant to the organic law of the eligible entity.

(4) "Domesticated corporation" means the domesticating corporation as it continues in existence after a domestication.

(5) "Domesticating corporation" means the domestic corporation that approves a plan of domestication pursuant to 35-14-921 or the foreign corporation that approves a domestication pursuant to the organic law of the foreign corporation.

(6) "Domestication" means a transaction pursuant to 35-14-920 through 35-14-924.

(7) "Protected agreement" means:

(a) a document evidencing indebtedness of a domestic corporation or eligible entity and any related agreement in effect immediately before the enactment date;

(b) an agreement that is binding on a domestic corporation or eligible entity immediately before the enactment date;

(c) the articles of incorporation or bylaws of a domestic corporation or the organic rules of a domestic eligible entity, in each case in effect immediately before the enactment date; or

(d) an agreement that is binding on any of the shareholders, members, interest holders, directors, or other governors of a domestic corporation or eligible entity, in their official capacities, immediately before the enactment date. For purposes of 35-14-920 and 35-14-930 and this subsection (7), "enactment date" means the earliest date on which the laws of this state authorized a transaction having the effect of a domestication or a conversion, as applicable.

History: En. Sec. 134, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-902. Excluded transactions. (1) This part may not be used to effect a transaction that:

(a) converts or domesticates a company organized on the mutual principle to one organized on the basis of share ownership;

(b) converts or domesticates banks and trust companies regulated under Title 32, chapter 1;

(c) converts or domesticates building and loan associations regulated under Title 32, chapter 2;

(d) converts or domesticates credit unions regulated under Title 32, chapter 3; or

(e) converts or domesticates insurance companies regulated under Title 33.

(2) The conversion of a domestic corporation to a domestic benefit corporation is governed by Title 35, chapter 1, part 14, and not by this part.

History: En. Sec. 135, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-903. Required approvals. If a domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity may not be a party to a merger without the approval of the attorney general, the state auditor, the department of administration, or the public service commission and the applicable statutes or regulations do not specifically deal with transactions under this part but do require approval by one of those agencies or officials for mergers, a corporation or eligible entity may not be a party to a transaction under this part without the prior approval of that agency or official.

35-14-904. Relationship to other laws. A transaction effected under this part does not create or impair a right, duty, or obligation of a person under the laws of this state other than this part relating to a change in control, business combination, control-share acquisition, or a similar transaction involving a domesticating or converting domestic corporation unless the approval of the plan of domestication or conversion is by a vote of the shareholders or the board of directors that would be sufficient to create or impair the right, duty, or obligation directly under that law.

History: En. Sec. 137, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-905 through 35-14-919 reserved.

35-14-920. Domestication. (1) By complying with the provisions of 35-14-920 through 35-14-924 applicable to foreign corporations, a foreign corporation may become a domestic corporation if the domestication is permitted by the organic law of the foreign corporation.

(2) By complying with the provisions of 35-14-920 through 35-14-924, a domestic corporation may become a foreign corporation pursuant to a plan of domestication if the domestication is permitted by the organic law of the foreign corporation.

(3) The plan of domestication must include:

(a) the name of the domesticating corporation;

(b) the name and jurisdiction of formation of the domesticated corporation;

(c) the manner and basis of reclassifying the shares of the domesticating corporation into shares or other securities, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, cash, other property, or any combination;

(d) the proposed articles of incorporation and bylaws of the domesticated corporation; and

(e) the other terms and conditions of the domestication.

(4) In addition to the requirements of subsection (3), a plan of domestication may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

(5) The terms of a plan of domestication may be made dependent on facts objectively ascertainable outside the plan in accordance with 35-14-120(11).

(6) If a protected agreement of a domestic domesticating corporation in effect immediately before the domestication becomes effective contains a provision applying to a merger of the corporation and the agreement does not refer to a domestication of the corporation, the provision applies to a domestication of the corporation as if the domestication were a merger until the first time the provision is amended after the enactment date.

History: En. Sec. 138, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-921. Action on plan of domestication. In the case of a domestication of a domestic corporation into a foreign jurisdiction, the plan of domestication must be adopted in the following manner:

(1) The plan of domestication must first be adopted by the board of directors.

(2) (a) The plan of domestication must then be approved by the shareholders. In submitting the plan of domestication to the shareholders for approval, the board of directors shall recommend that the shareholders approve the plan unless:

(i) the board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts of interest or other special circumstances it should not make the recommendation; or

(ii) 35-14-826 applies.

(b) If either subsection (2)(a)(i) or (2)(a)(ii) applies, the board shall inform the shareholders of the basis for its determination.

(3) The board of directors may set conditions for approval of the plan of domestication by the shareholders or for the effectiveness of the plan of domestication.

(4) If the approval of the shareholders is to be given at a meeting, the corporation shall notify each shareholder, regardless of whether entitled to vote, of the meeting of shareholders at which the plan of domestication is to be submitted for approval. The notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the plan of domestication and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan. The notice must include or be accompanied by a copy of the articles of incorporation and the bylaws as they will be in effect immediately after the domestication.

(5) Unless the articles of incorporation or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (3) requires a greater vote or a lesser vote, approval of the plan of domestication requires the approval of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the plan and, except as provided in subsection (6), the approval of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the plan by any class or series of shares entitled to vote as a separate group on the plan. The articles of incorporation may not provide a lower quorum for a voting group than shares representing a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group or a lesser vote for a voting group than is provided for in 35-14-725(3).

(6) The articles of incorporation may expressly limit or eliminate the separate voting rights in subsection (5) of any class or series of shares, except when the articles of incorporation of the foreign corporation resulting from the domestication include what would be in effect an amendment that would entitle the class or series to vote as a separate group under 35-14-1004 if it were a proposed amendment of the articles of incorporation of the domestic domesticating corporation.

(7) If as a result of a domestication one or more shareholders of a domestic domesticating corporation would become subject to interest holder liability, approval of the plan of domestication must require the signing in connection with the domestication, by each affected shareholder, of a separate written consent to become subject to the interest holder liability unless, in the case of a shareholder that already has interest holder liability with respect to the domesticating corporation, the terms and conditions of the interest holder liability with respect to the domesticated corporation are substantially identical to those of the existing interest holder liability, other than changes that eliminate or reduce that interest holder liability.

35-14-922. Articles of domestication — effectiveness. (1) After:

(a) a plan of domestication of a domestic corporation has been adopted and approved as required by this chapter; or

(b) a foreign corporation that is a domesticating corporation has approved a domestication as required under its organic law, articles of domestication must be signed by the domesticating corporation. The articles must set forth:

(i) the name of the domesticating corporation and its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) the name of the domesticated corporation and its jurisdiction of formation; and

(iii) if the domesticating corporation is:

(A) a domestic corporation, a statement that the plan of domestication was approved in accordance with this part; or

(B) a foreign corporation, a statement that the domestication was approved in accordance with its organic law.

(2) If the domesticated corporation is a domestic corporation, the articles of domestication must have attached articles of incorporation of the domesticated corporation that satisfy the requirements of 35-14-202. Provisions that would not be required to be included in restated articles of incorporation may be omitted from the articles of incorporation attached to the articles of domestication.

(3) The articles of domestication must be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and take effect on the effective date determined in accordance with 35-14-123.

(4) If the domesticated corporation is a domestic corporation, the domestication becomes effective on the date the articles of domestication are effective. If the domesticated corporation is a foreign corporation, the domestication becomes effective on the later of:

(a) the date and time provided by the organic law of the domesticated corporation; or

(b) the date the articles of domestication are effective.

(5) If the domesticating corporation is a foreign corporation that is registered to do business in this state under part 15 of this chapter, its registration statement is canceled automatically when the domestication becomes effective.

History: En. Sec. 140, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-923. Amendment of plan of domestication — abandonment. (1) A plan of domestication of a domestic corporation may be amended:

(a) in the same manner the plan was approved if the plan does not provide for the manner in which it may be amended; or

(b) in the manner provided in the plan, except that a shareholder that was entitled to vote on or consent to approval of the plan is entitled to vote on or consent to any amendment of the plan that will change:

(i) the amount or kind of shares or other securities, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, cash, other property, or any combination to be received by any of the shareholders of the domesticating corporation under the plan;

(ii) the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the domesticated corporation that will be in effect immediately after the domestication becomes effective except changes that do not require approval of the shareholders of the domesticated corporation under its organic law or its proposed articles of incorporation or bylaws as set forth in the plan; or

(iii) any of the other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would adversely affect the shareholder in any material respect.

(2) After a plan of domestication has been adopted and approved by a domestic corporation as required by 35-14-920 through 35-14-924 and before the articles of domestication have become effective, the plan may be abandoned by the corporation without action by its shareholders in accordance with procedures set forth in the plan or, if no procedures are set forth in the plan, in the manner determined by the board of directors.

(3) If a domestication is abandoned after the articles of domestication have been delivered to the secretary of state for filing but before the articles of domestication have become effective, articles of abandonment signed by the domesticating corporation must be delivered to the secretary of state for filing before the articles of domestication become effective. The articles of abandonment take effect on filing, and the domestication is abandoned and does not become effective. The articles of abandonment must contain:

(a) the name of the domesticating corporation;

(b) the date on which the articles of domestication were filed by the secretary of state; and

(c) a statement that the domestication has been abandoned in accordance with this section.

History: En. Sec. 141, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-924. Effect of domestication. (1) When a domestication becomes effective:

(a) all property owned by and every contract right possessed by the domesticating corporation are the property and contract rights of the domesticated corporation without transfer, reversion, or impairment;

(b) all debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the domesticating corporation are the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the domesticated corporation;

(c) the name of the domesticated corporation may be but need not be substituted for the name of the domesticating corporation in any pending proceeding;

(d) the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the domesticated corporation become effective;

(e) the shares of the domesticating corporation are reclassified into shares or other securities, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, cash, or other property in accordance with the terms of the domestication, and the shareholders of the domesticating corporation are entitled only to the rights provided to them by those terms and to any appraisal rights they may have under the organic law of the domesticating corporation; and

(f) the domesticated corporation is:

(i) incorporated under and subject to the organic law of the domesticated corporation;

(ii) the same corporation without interruption as the domesticating corporation; and

(iii) considered to have been incorporated on the date the domesticating corporation was originally incorporated.

(2) When a domestication of a domestic corporation into a foreign jurisdiction becomes effective, the domesticated corporation is considered to have:

(a) appointed the secretary of state as its agent for service of process in a proceeding to enforce the rights of shareholders who exercise appraisal rights in connection with the domestication; and

(b) agreed that it will promptly pay any amount to which those shareholders are entitled under part 13 of this chapter.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in the organic law or organic rules of a domesticating foreign corporation, the interest holder liability of a shareholder in a foreign corporation that is domesticated into this state who had interest holder liability with respect to the domesticating corporation before the domestication becomes effective is as follows:

(a) The domestication does not discharge that prior interest holder liability with respect to any interest holder liabilities that arose before the domestication becomes effective.

(b) The provisions of the organic law of the domesticating corporation continue to apply to the collection or discharge of any interest holder liabilities preserved by subsection (3)(a) as if the domestication had not occurred.

(c) The shareholder has the rights of contribution from other persons that are provided by the organic law of the domesticating corporation with respect to any interest holder liabilities preserved by subsection (3)(a) as if the domestication had not occurred.

(d) The shareholder does not, by reason of prior interest holder liability, have interest holder liability with respect to any interest holder liabilities that are incurred after the domestication becomes effective.

(4) A shareholder who becomes subject to interest holder liability with respect to the domesticated corporation as a result of the domestication has that interest holder liability only with respect to interest holder liabilities that arise after the domestication becomes effective.

(5) A domestication does not constitute or cause the dissolution of the domesticating corporation.

(6) Property held for charitable purposes under the laws of this state by a domestic or foreign corporation immediately before a domestication may not, as a result of the transaction, be diverted from the objects for which it was donated, granted, devised, or otherwise transferred except and to the extent permitted by or pursuant to the laws of this state addressing cy pres or dealing with nondiversion of charitable assets.

(7) A bequest, devise, gift, grant, or promise contained in a will or other instrument of donation, subscription, or conveyance that is made to the domesticating corporation and that takes effect or remains payable after the domestication inures to the domesticated corporation.

(8) A trust obligation that would govern property if transferred to the domesticating corporation applies to property that is transferred to the domesticated corporation after the domestication takes effect.

History: En. Sec. 142, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-925 through 35-14-929 reserved.

35-14-930. Conversion. (1) By complying with 35-14-930 through 35-14-935, a domestic corporation may become:

(a) a domestic eligible entity; or

(b) a foreign eligible entity if the conversion is permitted by the organic law of the foreign entity.

(2) By complying with 35-14-930 through 35-14-935 and applicable provisions of its organic law, a domestic eligible entity may become a domestic corporation. If procedures for the approval of a conversion are not provided by the organic law or organic rules of a domestic eligible entity, the conversion must be adopted and approved in the same manner as a merger of that eligible entity. If the organic law or organic rules of a domestic eligible entity do not provide procedures for the approval of either a conversion or a merger, a plan of conversion may nonetheless be adopted and approved by the unanimous consent of all the interest holders of the domestic eligible entity. In either case, the conversion may then be effected as otherwise provided in 35-14-930 through 35-14-935. For purposes of applying 35-14-930 through 35-14-935:

(a) the eligible entity and its members or interest holders, eligible interests, and organic rules taken together are considered a domestic business corporation and its shareholders, shares, and articles of incorporation, respectively and vice versa, as the context may require; and

(b) if the business and affairs of the eligible entity are managed by a person or persons that are not identical to the members or interest holders, the person or persons are considered the board of directors.

(3) By complying with the provisions of 35-14-930 through 35-14-935 applicable to foreign entities, a foreign eligible entity may become a domestic corporation if the organic law of the foreign eligible entity permits it to become a business corporation in another jurisdiction.

(4) If a protected agreement of a domestic converting corporation in effect immediately before the conversion becomes effective contains a provision applying to a merger of the corporation that is a converting entity and the agreement does not refer to a conversion of the corporation, the provision applies to a conversion of the corporation as if the conversion were a merger until the first time the provision is amended after the enactment date.

History: En. Sec. 143, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-931. Plan of conversion. (1) A domestic corporation may convert to a domestic or foreign eligible entity under 35-14-930 through 35-14-935 by approving a plan of conversion. The plan of conversion must include:

(a) the name of the converting corporation;

(b) the name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity of the converted entity;

(c) the manner and basis of converting the shares of the domestic corporation into eligible interests or other securities, obligations, rights to acquire eligible interests or other securities, cash, other property, or any combination;

(d) the other terms and conditions of the conversion; and

(e) the full text that will be in effect immediately after the conversion becomes effective of the organic rules of the converted entity, which must be in writing.

(2) In addition to the requirements of subsection (1), a plan of conversion may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

(3) The terms of a plan of conversion may be made dependent on facts objectively ascertainable outside the plan in accordance with 35-14-120(11).

History: En. Sec. 144, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-932. Action on plan of conversion. In the case of a conversion of a domestic corporation to a domestic or foreign eligible entity, the plan of conversion must be adopted in the following manner:

(1) The plan of conversion must first be adopted by the board of directors.

(2) (a) The plan of conversion must then be approved by the shareholders. In submitting the plan of conversion to the shareholders for their approval, the board of directors shall recommend that the shareholders approve the plan unless:

(i) the board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts of interest or other special circumstances it should not make the recommendation; or

(ii) 35-14-826 applies.

(b) If either subsection (2)(a)(i) or (2)(a)(ii) applies, the board of directors shall inform the shareholders of the basis for its determination.

(3) The board of directors may set conditions for approval of the plan of conversion by the shareholders or for the effectiveness of the plan of conversion.

(4) If the approval of the shareholders is to be given at a meeting, the corporation shall notify each shareholder, regardless of whether entitled to vote, of the meeting of shareholders at which the plan of conversion is to be submitted for approval. The notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the plan of conversion and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan. The notice must include or be accompanied by a copy of the organic rules of the converted entity, which must be in writing as they will be in effect immediately after the conversion.

(5) Unless the articles of incorporation or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (3) requires a greater vote or a lesser vote, approval of the plan of conversion requires the approval of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the plan and, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote as a separate group on the plan, the approval of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the plan by that voting group. The articles of incorporation may not provide a lower quorum for a voting group than shares representing a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group or a lesser vote for a voting group than is provided for in 35-14-725(3).

(6) If as a result of the conversion one or more shareholders of the converting domestic corporation would become subject to interest holder liability, approval of the plan of conversion must require the signing in connection with the transaction, by each affected shareholder, of a separate written consent to become subject to the interest holder liability.

History: En. Sec. 145, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-933. Articles of conversion — effectiveness. (1) After:

(a) a plan of conversion of a domestic corporation has been adopted and approved as required by this chapter; or

(b) a domestic or foreign eligible entity that is the converting entity has approved a conversion as required under its organic law, articles of conversion must be signed by the converting entity and must:

(i) state the name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity of the converting entity;

(ii) state the name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity of the converted entity;

(iii) if the converting entity is:

(A) a domestic corporation, state that the plan of conversion was approved in accordance with 35-14-930 through 35-14-935; or

(B) (I) an eligible entity, state that the conversion was approved by the eligible entity in accordance with its organic law; or

(II) a domestic eligible entity the organic law of which does not provide for approval of the conversion, state that the conversion was approved by the domestic eligible entity in accordance with 35-14-930 through 35-14-935; and

(iv) if the converted entity is:

(A) a domestic business corporation or a domestic nonprofit corporation or filing entity, have attached the public organic record of the converted entity, except that provisions that would not be required to be included in a restated public organic record may be omitted; or

(B) a domestic limited liability partnership, have attached the filing required to become a limited liability partnership.

(2) If the converted entity is a domestic corporation, its articles of incorporation must satisfy the requirements of 35-14-202, except that provisions that would not be required to be included in restated articles of incorporation may be omitted from the articles of incorporation. If the converted entity is a domestic eligible entity, its public organic record, if any, must satisfy the requirements of the organic law of this state, except that the public organic record does not need to be signed.

(3) The articles of conversion must be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and take effect on the effective date determined in accordance with 35-14-123.

(4) If a converted entity is a domestic entity, the conversion becomes effective when the articles of conversion are effective. With respect to a conversion in which the converted entity is a foreign eligible entity, the conversion itself becomes effective on the later of:

(a) the date and time provided by the organic law of that eligible entity; or

(b) the date the articles of conversion become effective.

(5) Articles of conversion under this section may be combined with any required conversion filing under the organic law of a domestic eligible entity that is the converting entity or converted entity if the combined filing satisfies the requirements of both the other organic law and this section.

(6) If the converting entity is a foreign eligible entity that is registered to do business in this state under a provision of law similar to part 15 of this chapter, its registration statement or other type of foreign qualification is canceled automatically on the effective date of its conversion.

History: En. Sec. 146, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-934. Amendment of plan of conversion — abandonment. (1) A plan of conversion of a converting entity that is a domestic corporation may be amended:

(a) in the same manner the plan was approved if the plan does not provide for the manner in which it may be amended; or

(b) in the manner provided in the plan, except that shareholders that were entitled to vote on or consent to approval of the plan are entitled to vote on or consent to any amendment of the plan that will change:

(i) the amount or kind of eligible interests or other securities, obligations, rights to acquire eligible interests or other securities, cash, other property, or any combination to be received by any of the shareholders of the converting corporation under the plan;

(ii) the organic rules of the converted entity that will be in effect immediately after the conversion becomes effective except changes that do not require approval of the eligible interest holders of the converted entity under its organic law or organic rules; or

(iii) any other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would adversely affect those shareholders in any material respect.

(2) After a plan of conversion has been approved by a converting entity that is a domestic corporation in the manner required by 35-14-930 through 35-14-935 and before the articles of conversion become effective, the plan may be abandoned by the corporation without action by its shareholders in accordance with any procedures set forth in the plan or, if no procedures are set forth in the plan, in the manner determined by the board of directors.

(3) If a conversion is abandoned after the articles of conversion have been delivered to the secretary of state for filing and before the articles of conversion become effective, articles of abandonment, signed by the converting entity, must be delivered to the secretary of state for filing before the articles of conversion become effective. The articles of abandonment take effect on filing, and the conversion is abandoned and does not become effective. The articles of abandonment must contain:

(a) the name of the converting entity;

(b) the date on which the articles of conversion were filed by the secretary of state; and

(c) a statement that the conversion has been abandoned in accordance with this section.

History: En. Sec. 147, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-935. Effect of conversion. (1) When a conversion becomes effective:

(a) all property owned by and every contract right possessed by the converting entity remain the property and contract rights of the converted entity without transfer, reversion, or impairment;

(b) all debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the converting entity remain the debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the converted entity;

(c) the name of the converted entity may be but need not be substituted for the name of the converting entity in any pending action or proceeding;

(d) if the converted entity is a filing entity, a domestic business corporation, or a domestic or foreign nonprofit corporation, its public organic record and its private organic rules become effective;

(e) if the converted entity is a nonfiling entity, its private organic rules become effective;

(f) if the converted entity is a limited liability partnership, the filing required to become a limited liability partnership and its private organic rules become effective;

(g) the shares or eligible interests of the converting entity are reclassified into shares, eligible interests or other securities, obligations, rights to acquire shares, eligible interests or other securities, cash, or other property in accordance with the terms of the conversion, and the shareholders or interest holders of the converting entity are entitled only to the rights provided to them by those terms and to any appraisal rights they may have under the organic law of the converting entity; and

(h) the converted entity is:

(i) incorporated or organized under and subject to the organic law of the converted entity;

(ii) the same entity without interruption as the converting entity; and

(iii) considered to have been incorporated or otherwise organized on the date that the converting entity was originally incorporated or organized.

(2) When a conversion of a domestic corporation to a foreign eligible entity becomes effective, the converted entity is considered to have:

(a) appointed the secretary of state as its agent for service of process in a proceeding to enforce the rights of shareholders who exercise appraisal rights in connection with the conversion; and

(b) agreed that it will promptly pay any amount to which those shareholders are entitled under part 13 of this chapter.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation of a domestic corporation or the organic law or organic rules of a foreign corporation or a domestic or foreign eligible entity, a shareholder or eligible interest holder who becomes subject to interest holder liability with respect to a domestic corporation or eligible entity as a result of the conversion has the interest holder liability only with respect to interest holder liabilities that arise after the conversion becomes effective.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in the organic law or the organic rules of the eligible entity, the interest holder liability of an interest holder in a converting eligible entity that converts to a domestic corporation who had interest holder liability with respect to that converting eligible entity before the conversion becomes effective is as follows:

(a) The conversion does not discharge that prior interest holder liability with respect to any interest holder liabilities that arose before the conversion became effective.

(b) The provisions of the organic law of the eligible entity continue to apply to the collection or discharge of any interest holder liabilities preserved by subsection (4)(a) as if the conversion had not occurred.

(c) The eligible interest holder has the rights of contribution from other persons that are provided by the organic law of the eligible entity with respect to any interest holder liabilities preserved by subsection (4)(a) as if the conversion had not occurred.

(d) The eligible interest holder does not, by reason of the prior interest holder liability, have interest holder liability with respect to any interest holder liabilities that arise after the conversion becomes effective.

(5) A conversion does not require the converting entity to wind up its affairs and does not constitute or cause the dissolution or termination of the entity.

(6) Property held for charitable purposes under the laws of this state by a corporation or a domestic or foreign eligible entity immediately before a conversion may not, as a result of the transaction, be diverted from the objects for which it was donated, granted, devised, or otherwise transferred except and to the extent permitted by or pursuant to the laws of this state addressing cy pres or dealing with nondiversion of charitable assets.

(7) A bequest, devise, gift, grant, or promise contained in a will or other instrument of donation, subscription, or conveyance that is made to the converting entity and that takes effect or remains payable after the conversion inures to the converted entity.

(8) A trust obligation that would govern property if transferred to the converting entity applies to property that is transferred to the converted entity after the conversion takes effect.

History: En. Sec. 148, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

Part 10
Amendment of Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws (Effective June 1, 2020)

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: Section 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "[This act] is effective June 1, 2020."

Applicability: Section 275, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "A foreign corporation registered or authorized to do business in this state on the [effective date of sections 1 through 221] [June 1, 2020] is subject to [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter], is considered to be registered to do business in this state, and is not required to file a foreign registration statement under [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter]."

35-14-1001. Authority to amend. (1) A corporation may amend its articles of incorporation at any time to add or change a provision that is required or permitted in the articles of incorporation as of the effective date of the amendment or to delete a provision that is not required to be contained in the articles of incorporation.

(2) A shareholder of the corporation does not have a vested property right resulting from any provision in the articles of incorporation, including provisions relating to management, control, capital structure, dividend entitlement, or purpose or duration of the corporation.

History: En. Sec. 149, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1002. Amendment before issuance of shares. If a corporation has not yet issued shares, its board of directors, or its incorporators if it has no board of directors, may adopt one or more amendments to the corporation's articles of incorporation.

History: En. Sec. 150, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1003. Amendment by board of directors and shareholders. If a corporation has issued shares, an amendment to the articles of incorporation that be adopted in the following manner:

(1) The proposed amendment must first be adopted by the board of directors.

(2) (a) Except as provided in 35-14-1005, 35-14-1007, and 35-14-1008, the amendment must then be approved by the shareholders. In submitting the proposed amendment to the shareholders for approval, the board of directors shall recommend that the shareholders approve the amendment unless:

(i) the board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts of interest or other special circumstances it should not make the recommendation; or

(ii) 35-14-826 applies.

(b) If either subsection (2)(a)(i) or (2)(a)(ii) applies, the board shall inform the shareholders of the basis for its determination.

(3) The board of directors may set conditions for the approval of the amendment by the shareholders or for the effectiveness of the amendment.

(4) If the amendment is required to be approved by the shareholders and the approval is to be given at a meeting, the corporation shall notify each shareholder, regardless of whether entitled to vote, of the meeting of shareholders at which the amendment is to be submitted for approval. The notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the amendment. The notice must contain or be accompanied by a copy of the amendment.

(5) Unless the articles of incorporation or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (3) requires a greater vote or a lesser vote, approval of the amendment requires the approval of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment and, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote as a separate group on the amendment, the approval of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment by that voting group. The articles of incorporation may not provide a lower quorum for a voting group than shares representing a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group or a lesser vote for a voting group than is provided for in 35-14-725(3).

(6) If as a result of an amendment of the articles of incorporation one or more shareholders of a domestic corporation would become subject to new interest holder liability, approval of the amendment requires the signing in connection with the amendment, by each affected shareholder, of a separate written consent to become subject to the new interest holder liability unless, in the case of a shareholder that already has interest holder liability, the terms and conditions of the new interest holder liability:

(a) are substantially identical to those of the existing interest holder liability; or

(b) are substantially identical to those of the existing interest holder liability other than changes that eliminate or reduce that interest holder liability.

(7) For purposes of 35-14-1009 and subsection (6) of this section, "new interest holder liability" means interest holder liability of a person resulting from an amendment of the articles of incorporation if:

(a) the person did not have interest holder liability before the amendment becomes effective; or

(b) the person had interest holder liability before the amendment becomes effective, the terms and conditions of which are changed when the amendment becomes effective.

History: En. Sec. 151, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1004. Voting on amendments by voting groups. (1) The holders of the outstanding shares of a class are entitled to vote as a separate voting group, if shareholder voting is otherwise required by this chapter, on a proposed amendment to the articles of incorporation if the amendment would:

(a) effect an exchange or reclassification of all or part of the shares of the class into shares of another class;

(b) effect an exchange or reclassification or create the right of exchange of all or part of the shares of another class into shares of the class;

(c) change the rights, preferences, or limitations of all or part of the shares of the class;

(d) change the shares of all or part of the class into a different number of shares of the same class;

(e) create a new class of shares having rights or preferences with respect to distributions that are prior or superior to the shares of the class;

(f) increase the rights, preferences, or number of authorized shares of any class that, after giving effect to the amendment, have rights or preferences with respect to distributions that are prior or superior to the shares of the class;

(g) limit or deny an existing preemptive right of all or part of the shares of the class; or

(h) cancel or otherwise affect rights to distributions that have accumulated but have not yet been authorized on all or part of the shares of the class.

(2) If a proposed amendment would affect a series of a class of shares in one or more of the ways described in subsection (1), the holders of shares of that series are entitled to vote as a separate voting group on the proposed amendment.

(3) If a proposed amendment that entitles the holders of two or more classes or series of shares to vote as separate voting groups under this section would affect those two or more classes or series in the same or a substantially similar way, the holders of shares of all the classes or series so affected shall vote together as a single voting group on the proposed amendment unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or added as a condition by the board of directors pursuant to 35-14-1003(3).

(4) A class or series of shares is entitled to the voting rights granted by this section even if the articles of incorporation provide that the shares are nonvoting shares.

35-14-1005. Amendment by board of directors. Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a corporation's board of directors may adopt amendments to the corporation's articles of incorporation without shareholder approval:

(1) to extend the duration of the corporation if it was incorporated at a time when limited duration was required by law;

(2) to delete the names and addresses of the initial directors;

(3) to delete the name and address of the initial registered agent or registered office if a statement of change is on file with the secretary of state;

(4) if the corporation has only one class of shares outstanding:

(a) to change each issued and unissued authorized share of the class into a greater number of whole shares of that class; or

(b) to increase the number of authorized shares of the class to the extent necessary to permit the issuance of shares as a share dividend;

(5) to change the corporate name by substituting the word "corporation", "incorporated", "company", "limited", or the abbreviation "corp.", "inc.", "co.", or "ltd.", for a similar word or abbreviation in the name or by adding, deleting, or changing a geographical attribution for the name;

(6) to reflect a reduction in authorized shares as a result of the operation of 35-14-631(2) when the corporation has acquired its own shares and the articles of incorporation prohibit the reissue of the acquired shares;

(7) to delete a class of shares from the articles of incorporation as a result of the operation of 35-14-631(2) when there are no remaining shares of the class because the corporation has acquired all shares of the class and the articles of incorporation prohibit the reissue of the acquired shares; or

(8) to make any change expressly permitted by 35-14-602(1) or (2) to be made without shareholder approval.

History: En. Sec. 153, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1006. Articles of amendment. (1) After an amendment to the articles of incorporation has been adopted and approved in the manner required by this chapter and by the articles of incorporation, the corporation shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing articles of amendment, which must set forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the text of each amendment adopted or the information required by 35-14-120(11)(e);

(c) if an amendment provides for an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of issued shares, provisions for implementing the amendment if not contained in the amendment itself, which may be made dependent on facts objectively ascertainable outside the articles of amendment in accordance with 35-14-120(11)(e);

(d) the date of each amendment's adoption; and

(e) if an amendment:

(i) was adopted by the incorporators or board of directors without shareholder approval, a statement that the amendment was duly adopted by the incorporators or by the board of directors and that shareholder approval was not required;

(ii) required approval by the shareholders, a statement that the amendment was duly approved by the shareholders in the manner required by this chapter and by the articles of incorporation; or

(iii) is being filed pursuant to 35-14-120(11)(e), a statement to that effect.

(2) Articles of amendment take effect on the effective date determined in accordance with 35-14-123.

History: En. Sec. 154, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1007. Restated articles of incorporation. (1) A corporation's board of directors may restate its articles of incorporation at any time, without shareholder approval, to consolidate all amendments into a single document.

(2) If the restated articles include one or more new amendments that require shareholder approval, the amendments must be adopted and approved as provided in 35-14-1003.

(3) A corporation that restates its articles of incorporation shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing articles of restatement setting forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the text of the restated articles of incorporation;

(c) a statement that the restated articles consolidate all amendments into a single document; and

(d) if a new amendment is included in the restated articles, the statements required under 35-14-1006 with respect to the new amendment.

(4) Duly adopted restated articles of incorporation supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments to the articles of incorporation.

(5) The secretary of state may certify restated articles of incorporation as the articles of incorporation currently in effect without including the statements required by subsection (3)(d).

History: En. Sec. 155, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1008. Amendment pursuant to reorganization. (1) A corporation's articles of incorporation may be amended without action by the board of directors or shareholders to carry out a plan of reorganization ordered or decreed by a court of competent jurisdiction under the authority of a law of the United States.

(2) The individual or individuals designated by the court shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing articles of amendment setting forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the text of each amendment approved by the court;

(c) the date of the court's order or decree approving the articles of amendment;

(d) the title of the reorganization proceeding in which the order or decree was entered; and

(e) a statement that the court had jurisdiction of the proceeding under federal statute.

(3) This section does not apply after entry of a final decree in the reorganization proceeding even though the court retains jurisdiction of the proceeding for limited purposes unrelated to consummation of the reorganization plan.

History: En. Sec. 156, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1009. Effect of amendment. (1) An amendment to the articles of incorporation does not affect a cause of action existing against or in favor of the corporation, a proceeding to which the corporation is a party, or the existing rights of persons other than the shareholders. An amendment changing a corporation's name does not affect a proceeding brought by or against the corporation in its former name.

(2) A shareholder who becomes subject to new interest holder liability with respect to the corporation as a result of an amendment to the articles of incorporation has that new interest holder liability only with respect to interest holder liabilities that arise after the amendment becomes effective.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation of the corporation, the interest holder liability of a shareholder who had interest holder liability with respect to the corporation before the amendment becomes effective and has new interest holder liability after the amendment becomes effective is as follows:

(a) The amendment does not discharge that prior interest holder liability with respect to any interest holder liabilities that arose before the amendment becomes effective.

(b) The provisions of the articles of incorporation of the corporation relating to interest holder liability in effect immediately prior to the amendment continue to apply to the collection or discharge of any interest holder liabilities preserved by subsection (3)(a) as if the amendment had not occurred.

(c) The shareholder has the rights of contribution from other persons that are provided by the articles of incorporation relating to interest holder liability in effect immediately prior to the amendment with respect to any interest holder liabilities preserved by subsection (3)(a) as if the amendment had not occurred.

(d) The shareholder does not, by reason of the prior interest holder liability, have interest holder liability with respect to any interest holder liabilities that arise after the amendment becomes effective.

History: En. Sec. 157, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1010 through 35-14-1019 reserved.

35-14-1020. Authority to amend. (1) A corporation's shareholders may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws.

(2) A corporation's board of directors may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws unless:

(a) the articles of incorporation, 35-14-1021, or, if applicable, 35-14-1022 reserves that power exclusively to the shareholders in whole or part; or

(b) except as provided in 35-14-206(4), the shareholders in amending, repealing, or adopting a bylaw expressly provide that the board of directors may not amend, repeal, or adopt that bylaw.

(3) A shareholder of the corporation does not have a vested property right resulting from any provision in the bylaws.

History: En. Sec. 158, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1021. Bylaw increasing quorum or voting requirement for directors. (1) A bylaw that increases a quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors may be amended or repealed:

(a) if originally adopted by the shareholders, only by the shareholders unless the bylaw provides otherwise; or

(b) if adopted by the board of directors, either by the shareholders or by the board of directors.

(2) A bylaw adopted or amended by the shareholders that increases a quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors may provide that it can be amended or repealed only by a specified vote of either the shareholders or the board of directors.

(3) Action by the board of directors under subsection (1) to amend or repeal a bylaw that changes a quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote required to take action under the quorum and voting requirement then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

35-14-1022. Bylaw provisions relating to election of directors. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation specifically prohibit the adoption of a bylaw pursuant to this section, alter the vote specified in 35-14-728(1), or provide for cumulative voting, a corporation may elect in its bylaws to be governed in the election of directors as follows:

(a) each vote entitled to be cast may be voted for or against up to that number of candidates that is equal to the number of directors to be elected or a shareholder may indicate an abstention, but without cumulating the votes;

(b) to be elected, a nominee must have received a plurality of the votes cast by holders of shares entitled to vote in the election at a meeting at which a quorum is present, provided that a nominee who is elected but receives more votes against than for election shall serve as a director for a term that terminates on the date that is the earlier of:

(i) 90 days from the date on which the voting results are determined pursuant to 35-14-729(2)(e); or

(ii) the date on which an individual is selected by the board of directors to fill the office held by the director, which constitutes the filling of a vacancy by the board to which 35-14-810 applies. Subject to subsection (1)(c) of this section, a nominee who is elected but receives more votes against than for election may not serve as a director beyond the 90-day period referenced in subsection (1)(b)(i).

(iii) the board of directors may select any qualified individual to fill the office held by a director who received more votes against than for election.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an election of directors by a voting group if:

(a) at the expiration of the time fixed under a provision requiring advance notification of director candidates; or

(b) absent such a provision, at a time fixed by the board of directors that is not more than 14 days before notice is given of the meeting at which the election is to occur, there are more candidates for election by the voting group than the number of directors to be elected, one or more of whom are properly proposed by shareholders. An individual may not be considered a candidate for purposes of this subsection (2)(b) if the board of directors determines before the notice of meeting is given that the individual's candidacy does not create a bona fide election contest.

(3) A bylaw electing to be governed by this section may be repealed:

(a) if originally adopted by the shareholders, only by the shareholders unless the bylaw provides otherwise;

(b) if adopted by the board of directors, by the board of directors or the shareholders.

Part 11
Mergers and Share Exchanges
(Effective June 1, 2020)

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: Section 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "[This act] is effective June 1, 2020."

Applicability: Section 275, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "A foreign corporation registered or authorized to do business in this state on the [effective date of sections 1 through 221] [June 1, 2020] is subject to [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter], is considered to be registered to do business in this state, and is not required to file a foreign registration statement under [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter]."

35-14-1101. Definitions — mergers and share exchanges. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Acquired entity" means the domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity that will have all of one or more classes or series of its shares or eligible interests acquired in a share exchange.

(2) "Acquiring entity" means the domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity that will acquire all of one or more classes or series of shares or eligible interests of the acquired entity in a share exchange.

(3) "New interest holder liability" means interest holder liability of a person resulting from a merger or share exchange that is:

(a) with respect to an entity that is different from the entity in which the person held shares or eligible interests immediately before the merger or share exchange became effective; or

(b) with respect to the same entity as the one in which the person held shares or eligible interests immediately before the merger or share exchange became effective if:

(i) the person did not have interest holder liability immediately before the merger or share exchange became effective; or

(ii) the person had interest holder liability immediately before the merger or share exchange became effective, the terms and conditions of which were changed when the merger or share exchange became effective.

(4) "Party to a merger" means any domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity that will merge under a plan of merger but does not include a survivor created by the merger.

(5) "Survivor" in a merger means the domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity into which one or more other corporations or eligible entities are merged.

History: En. Sec. 161, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1102. Merger. (1) By complying with this part:

(a) one or more domestic business corporations may merge with one or more domestic or foreign business corporations or eligible entities pursuant to a plan of merger, resulting in a survivor; and

(b) two or more foreign business corporations or domestic or foreign eligible entities may merge, resulting in a survivor that is a domestic business corporation created in the merger.

(2) By complying with the provisions of this part applicable to foreign entities, a foreign business corporation or a foreign eligible entity may be a party to a merger with a domestic business corporation or may be created as the survivor in a merger in which a domestic business corporation is a party, but only if the merger is permitted by the organic law of the foreign business corporation or eligible entity.

(3) If the organic law or organic rules of a domestic eligible entity do not provide procedures for the approval of a merger, a plan of merger may nonetheless be adopted and approved by the unanimous consent of all of the interest holders of the eligible entity, and the merger may then be effected as provided in the other provisions of this part. For the purposes of applying this part:

(a) the eligible entity and its members or interest holders, eligible interests, and articles of incorporation or other organic rules taken together are considered a domestic business corporation and its shareholders, shares, and articles of incorporation, respectively and vice versa, as the context may require; and

(b) if the business and affairs of the eligible entity are managed by a person or persons that are not identical to the members or interest holders, the person or persons are considered the board of directors.

(4) The plan of merger must include:

(a) as to each party to the merger, its name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity;

(b) the survivor's name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity and, if the survivor is to be created in the merger, a statement to that effect;

(c) the terms and conditions of the merger;

(d) the manner and basis of converting the shares of each merging domestic or foreign business corporation and eligible interests of each merging domestic or foreign eligible entity into shares or other securities, eligible interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares, or other securities or eligible interests, cash, other property, or any combination;

(e) the articles of incorporation of any domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation or the public organic record of any domestic or foreign unincorporated entity to be created by the merger or, if a new domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation or unincorporated entity is not to be created by the merger, any amendments to the survivor's articles of incorporation or other public organic record; and

(f) any other provisions required by the laws under which any party to the merger is organized or by which it is governed or by the articles of incorporation or organic rules of the party.

(5) In addition to the requirements of subsection (4), a plan of merger may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

(6) Terms of a plan of merger may be made dependent on facts objectively ascertainable outside the plan in accordance with 35-14-120(11).

(7) A plan of merger may be amended only with the consent of each party to the merger except as provided in the plan. A domestic party to a merger may approve an amendment to a plan:

(a) in the same manner as the plan was approved if the plan does not provide for the manner in which it may be amended; or

(b) in the manner provided in the plan, except that shareholders, members, or interest holders that were entitled to vote on or consent to approval of the plan are entitled to vote on or consent to any amendment of the plan that will change:

(i) the amount or kind of shares or other securities, eligible interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities or eligible interests, cash, or other property to be received under the plan by the shareholders, members, or interest holders of any party to the merger;

(ii) the articles of incorporation of any domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation, or the organic rules of any unincorporated entity, that will be the survivor of the merger except changes permitted by 35-14-1005 or by comparable provisions of the organic law of any domestic or foreign business corporation, domestic or foreign nonprofit corporation, or unincorporated entity; or

(iii) any other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would adversely affect the shareholders, members, or interest holders in any material respect.

History: En. Sec. 162, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1103. Share exchange. (1) By complying with this part:

(a) a domestic corporation may acquire all of the shares of one or more classes or series of shares of another domestic or foreign corporation or all of the eligible interests of one or more classes or series of interests of a domestic or foreign eligible entity in exchange for shares or other securities, eligible interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities or eligible interests, cash, other property, or any combination pursuant to a plan of share exchange; or

(b) all of the shares of one or more classes or series of shares of a domestic corporation may be acquired by another domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity in exchange for shares or other securities, eligible interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities or eligible interests, cash, other property, or any combination pursuant to a plan of share exchange.

(2) A foreign corporation or eligible entity may be the acquired entity in a share exchange only if the share exchange is permitted by the organic law of that corporation or other entity.

(3) If the organic law or organic rules of a domestic eligible entity do not provide procedures for the approval of a share exchange, a plan of share exchange may be adopted and approved and the share exchange effected in accordance with the procedures, if any, for a merger. If the organic law or organic rules of a domestic eligible entity do not provide procedures for the approval of either a share exchange or a merger, a plan of share exchange may nonetheless be adopted and approved by the unanimous consent of all of the interest holders of the eligible entity whose interests will be exchanged under the plan of share exchange, and the share exchange may subsequently be effected as provided in the other provisions of this part. For purposes of applying this part:

(a) the eligible entity and its interest holders, interests, and articles of incorporation or other organic rules taken together are considered a domestic business corporation and its shareholders, shares, and articles of incorporation, respectively and vice versa, as the context may require; and

(b) if the business and affairs of the eligible entity are managed by a person or persons that are not identical to the members or interest holders, the person or persons are considered the board of directors.

(4) The plan of share exchange must include:

(a) the name of each domestic or foreign corporation or other eligible entity the shares or eligible interests of which will be acquired and the name of the domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity that will acquire those shares or eligible interests;

(b) the terms and conditions of the share exchange;

(c) the manner and basis of exchanging shares of a domestic or foreign corporation or eligible interests in a domestic or foreign eligible entity the shares or eligible interests of which will be acquired under the share exchange for shares or other securities, eligible interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities or eligible interests, cash, other property, or any combination; and

(d) any other provisions required by the organic law governing the acquired entity or its articles of incorporation or organic rules.

(5) Terms of a plan of share exchange may be made dependent on facts objectively ascertainable outside the plan in accordance with 35-14-120(11).

(6) A plan of share exchange may be amended only with the consent of each party to the share exchange except as provided in the plan. A domestic entity may approve an amendment to a plan:

(a) in the same manner the plan was approved if the plan does not provide for the manner in which it may be amended; or

(b) in the manner provided in the plan, except that shareholders, members, or interest holders that were entitled to vote on or consent to approval of the plan are entitled to vote on or consent to any amendment of the plan that will change:

(i) the amount or kind of shares or other securities, eligible interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities or eligible interests, cash, or other property to be received under the plan by the shareholders, members, or interest holders of the acquired entity; or

(ii) any of the other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would adversely affect the shareholders, members, or interest holders in any material respect.

History: En. Sec. 163, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1104. Action on plan of merger or share exchange. In the case of a domestic corporation that is a party to a merger or the acquired entity in a share exchange, the plan of merger or share exchange must be adopted in the following manner:

(1) The plan of merger or share exchange must first be adopted by the board of directors.

(2) (a) Except as provided in 35-14-1105 and in subsections (8), (10), and (12) of this section, the plan of merger or share exchange must then be approved by the shareholders. In submitting the plan of merger or share exchange to the shareholders for approval, the board of directors shall recommend that the shareholders approve the plan or, in the case of an offer referred to in subsection (10)(b), that the shareholders tender their shares to the offeror in response to the offer unless:

(i) the board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts of interest or other special circumstances it should not make such a recommendation; or

(ii) 35-14-826 applies.

(b) If either subsection (2)(a)(i) or (2)(a)(ii) applies, the board shall inform the shareholders of the basis for its determination.

(3) The board of directors may set conditions for the approval of the plan of merger or share exchange by the shareholders or for the effectiveness of the plan of merger or share exchange.

(4) If the plan of merger or share exchange is required to be approved by the shareholders and if the approval is to be given at a meeting, the corporation shall notify each shareholder, regardless of whether entitled to vote, of the meeting of shareholders at which the plan is to be submitted for approval. The notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the plan and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan. If the corporation is to be merged into an existing foreign or domestic corporation or eligible entity, the notice must also include or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the articles of incorporation and bylaws or the organic rules of that corporation or eligible entity. If the corporation is to be merged with a domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity and a new domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity is to be created pursuant to the merger, the notice must include or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the articles of incorporation and bylaws or the organic rules of the new corporation or eligible entity.

(5) Unless the articles of incorporation require a greater vote or a lesser vote, approval of the plan of merger or share exchange requires the approval of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the plan and, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote as a separate group on the plan of merger or share exchange, the approval of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the merger or share exchange by that voting group. The articles of incorporation may not provide a lower quorum for a voting group than shares representing a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group or a lesser vote for a voting group than is provided for in 35-14-725(3).

(6) Subject to subsection (7), separate voting by voting groups is required:

(a) on a plan of merger, by each class or series of shares that:

(i) are to be converted under the plan of merger into shares, other securities, eligible interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities or eligible interests, cash, other property, or any combination; or

(ii) are entitled to vote as a separate group on a provision in the plan that constitutes a proposed amendment to the articles of incorporation of a surviving corporation that requires action by separate voting groups under 35-14-1004;

(b) on a plan of share exchange, by each class or series of shares included in the exchange, with each class or series constituting a separate voting group; and

(c) on a plan of merger or share exchange, if the voting group is entitled under the articles of incorporation to vote as a voting group to approve a plan of merger or share exchange, respectively.

(7) The articles of incorporation may expressly limit or eliminate the separate voting rights provided in subsections (6)(a)(i) and (6)(b) as to any class or series of shares, except when the plan of merger or share exchange:

(a) includes what is or would be in effect an amendment subject to subsection (6)(a)(ii); and

(b) will not effect a substantive business combination.

(8) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, approval by the corporation's shareholders of a plan of merger is not required if:

(a) the corporation will survive the merger;

(b) except for amendments permitted by 35-14-1005, its articles of incorporation will not be changed;

(c) each shareholder of the corporation whose shares were outstanding immediately before the effective date of the merger or share exchange will hold the same number of shares, with identical preferences, rights, and limitations, immediately after the effective date of the merger; and

(d) the issuance in the merger of shares or other securities convertible into or rights exercisable for shares does not require a vote under 35-14-621(6).

(9) If as a result of a merger or share exchange one or more shareholders of a domestic corporation would become subject to new interest holder liability, approval of the plan of merger or share exchange requires the signing in connection with the transaction, by each affected shareholder, of a separate written consent to become subject to the new interest holder liability unless, in the case of a shareholder that already has interest holder liability with respect to the domestic corporation:

(a) the new interest holder liability is with respect to a domestic or foreign corporation, which may be a different or the same domestic corporation in which the person is a shareholder; and

(b) the terms and conditions of the new interest holder liability are substantially identical to those of the existing interest holder liability, other than changes that eliminate or reduce interest holder liability.

(10) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, approval by the shareholders of a plan of merger or share exchange is not required if:

(a) the plan of merger or share exchange expressly:

(i) permits or requires the merger or share exchange to be effected under this subsection (10); and

(ii) provides that if the merger or share exchange is to be effected under this subsection (10), the merger or share exchange will be effected as soon as practicable following the satisfaction of the requirement set forth in subsection (10)(f);

(b) another party to the merger, the acquiring entity in the share exchange, or a parent of another party to the merger or the acquiring entity in the share exchange makes an offer to purchase on the terms provided in the plan of merger or share exchange any and all of the outstanding shares of the corporation that, absent this subsection (10)(b), would be entitled to vote on the plan of merger or share exchange, except that the offer may exclude shares of the corporation that are owned at the commencement of the offer by the corporation, the offeror, or any parent of the offeror or by any wholly owned subsidiary of any of them;

(c) the offer discloses that the plan of merger or share exchange provides that the merger or share exchange will be effected as soon as practicable following the satisfaction of the requirement set forth in subsection (10)(f) and that the shares of the corporation that are not tendered in response to the offer will be treated as set forth in subsection (10)(h);

(d) the offer remains open for at least 10 days;

(e) the offeror purchases all shares properly tendered in response to the offer and not properly withdrawn;

(f) the following shares are collectively entitled to cast at least the minimum number of votes on the merger or share exchange that, absent this subsection (10)(f), would be required by this part and by the articles of incorporation for the approval of the merger or share exchange by the shareholders and by any other voting group entitled to vote on the merger or share exchange at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote on the approval were present and voted:

(i) shares purchased by the offeror in accordance with the offer;

(ii) shares otherwise owned by the offeror or by any parent of the offeror or any wholly owned subsidiary of any of them; and

(iii) shares subject to an agreement that they are to be transferred, contributed, or delivered to the offeror, any parent of the offeror, or any wholly owned subsidiary of any of them in exchange for shares or eligible interests in the offeror, parent, or subsidiary;

(g) the offeror or a wholly owned subsidiary of the offeror merges with or into, or effects a share exchange in which it acquires shares of, the corporation; and

(h) each outstanding share of each class or series of shares of the corporation that the offeror is offering to purchase in accordance with the offer and that is not purchased in accordance with the offer is to be converted in the merger into or into the right to receive, or is to be exchanged in the share exchange for or for the right to receive, the same amount and kind of securities, eligible interests, obligations, rights, cash, or other property to be paid or exchanged in accordance with the offer for each share of that class or series of shares that is tendered in response to the offer, except that shares of the corporation that are owned by the corporation or that are described in subsection (10)(f)(ii) or (10)(f)(iii) need not be converted into or exchanged for the consideration described in this subsection (10)(h).

(11) As used in subsection (10):

(a) "offer" means the offer referred to in subsection (10)(b);

(b) "offeror" means the person making the offer;

(c) "parent" of an entity means a person that owns directly, or indirectly through one or more wholly owned subsidiaries, all of the outstanding shares of or eligible interests in that entity;

(d) shares tendered in response to the offer are considered to have been "purchased" in accordance with the offer at the earliest time that:

(i) the offeror has irrevocably accepted those shares for payment; and

(ii) either:

(A) in the case of shares represented by certificates, the offeror or the offeror's designated depository or other agent has physically received the certificates representing those shares; or

(B) in the case of shares without certificates, those shares have been transferred into the account of the offeror or its designated depository or other agent or an agent's message relating to those shares has been received by the offeror or its designated depository or other agent; and

(e) "wholly owned subsidiary" of a person means an entity of which or in which that person owns directly, or indirectly through one or more wholly owned subsidiaries, all of the outstanding shares or eligible interests.

(12) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise:

(a) approval of a plan of share exchange by the shareholders of a domestic corporation is not required if the corporation is the acquiring entity in the share exchange; and

(b) shares not to be exchanged under the plan of share exchange are not entitled to vote on the plan.

History: En. Sec. 164, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1105. Merger between parent and subsidiary or between subsidiaries. (1) A domestic or foreign parent entity that owns shares of a domestic corporation that carry at least 90% of the voting power of each class and series of the outstanding shares of the subsidiary that has voting power may:

(a) merge the subsidiary into itself if it is a domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity or into another domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity in which the parent entity owns at least 90% of the voting power of each class and series of the outstanding shares or eligible interests that have voting power; or

(b) merge itself if it is a domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity into the subsidiary, in either case without the approval of the board of directors or shareholders of the subsidiary, unless the articles of incorporation or organic rules of the parent entity or the articles of incorporation of the subsidiary corporation provide otherwise. Section 35-14-1104(9) applies to a merger under this section. The articles of merger relating to a merger under this section do not need to be signed by the subsidiary.

(2) A parent entity shall, within 10 days after the effective date of a merger approved under subsection (1), notify each of the subsidiary's shareholders that the merger has become effective. The notice must include:

(a) a copy of the plan of merger; or

(b) a summary of the plan of merger and a statement that the plan of merger is on file in the office of the surviving entity, the address of the surviving entity, and a statement that a copy of the plan of merger will be furnished, upon request and at no cost, to any shareholder of any party to the merger.

(3) Except as provided in subsections (1) and (2), a merger between a parent entity and a domestic subsidiary corporation is governed by the provisions of this part applicable to mergers generally.

History: En. Sec. 165, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1106. Articles of merger or share exchange. (1) After a plan of merger has been adopted and approved as required by this chapter or, if the merger is being effected under 35-14-1102(1)(b), the merger has been approved as required by the organic law governing the parties to the merger, the articles of merger must be signed by each party to the merger except as provided in 35-14-1105(1). The articles must set forth:

(a) the name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity of each party to the merger;

(b) the name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity of the survivor;

(c) if the survivor of the merger is a domestic corporation and its articles of incorporation are amended or if a new domestic corporation is created as a result of the merger:

(i) the amendments to the survivor's articles of incorporation; or

(ii) the articles of incorporation of the new corporation;

(d) if the survivor of the merger is a domestic eligible entity and its public organic record is amended or if a new domestic eligible entity is created as a result of the merger:

(i) the amendments to the public organic record of the survivor; or

(ii) the public organic record of the new eligible entity;

(e) if the plan of merger required approval by the shareholders of a domestic corporation that is a party to the merger, a statement that the plan was duly approved by the shareholders and, if voting by any separate voting group was required, by each separate voting group in the manner required by this chapter and the articles of incorporation;

(f) if the plan of merger or share exchange did not require approval by the shareholders of a domestic corporation that is a party to the merger, a statement to that effect;

(g) as to each foreign corporation that is a party to the merger, a statement that the participation of the foreign corporation was duly authorized as required by its organic law;

(h) as to each domestic or foreign eligible entity that is a party to the merger, a statement that the merger was approved in accordance with its organic law or 35-14-1102(3); and

(i) if the survivor is created by the merger and is a domestic limited liability partnership, the filing required to become a limited liability partnership, as an attachment.

(2) After a plan of share exchange in which the acquired entity is a domestic corporation or eligible entity has been adopted and approved as required by this chapter, articles of share exchange must be signed by the acquired entity and the acquiring entity. The articles must set forth:

(a) the name of the acquired entity;

(b) the name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity of the domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity that is the acquiring entity; and

(c) a statement that the plan of share exchange was duly approved by the acquired entity by:

(i) the required vote or consent of each class or series of shares or eligible interests included in the exchange; and

(ii) the required vote or consent of each other class or series of shares or eligible interests entitled to vote on approval of the exchange by the articles of incorporation or organic rules of the acquired entity or by 35-14-1103(3).

(3) In addition to the requirements of subsection (1) or (2), articles of merger or share exchange may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

(4) The articles of merger or share exchange must be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and, subject to subsection (5), the merger or share exchange takes effect on the effective date determined in accordance with 35-14-123.

(5) With respect to a merger in which one or more foreign entities is a party or a foreign entity created by the merger is the survivor, the merger itself becomes effective on the later of:

(a) the date all documents required to be filed in foreign jurisdictions to effect the merger have become effective; or

(b) the date the articles of merger take effect.

(6) Articles of merger filed under this section may be combined with any filing required under the organic law governing any domestic eligible entity involved in the transaction if the combined filing satisfies the requirements of both that organic law and this section.

History: En. Sec. 166, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1107. Effect of merger or share exchange. (1) When a merger becomes effective:

(a) the domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity that is designated in the plan of merger as the survivor continues or comes into existence, as the case may be;

(b) the separate existence of every domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity that is a party to the merger, other than the survivor, ceases;

(c) all property owned by and every contract right possessed by each domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity that is a party to the merger, other than the survivor, are the property and contract rights of the survivor without transfer, reversion, or impairment;

(d) all debts, obligations, and other liabilities of each domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity that is a party to the merger, other than the survivor, are debts, obligations, or liabilities of the survivor;

(e) the name of the survivor may be but need not be substituted in any pending proceeding for the name of any party to the merger whose separate existence ceased in the merger;

(f) if the survivor is a domestic entity, the articles of incorporation and bylaws or the organic rules of the survivor are amended to the extent provided in the plan of merger;

(g) the articles of incorporation and bylaws or the organic rules of a survivor that is a domestic entity and is created by the merger become effective;

(h) the shares of each domestic or foreign corporation that is a party to the merger, and the eligible interests in an eligible entity that is a party to a merger, that are to be converted in accordance with the terms of the merger into shares or other securities, eligible interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities or eligible interests, cash, other property, or any combination are converted, and the former holders of the shares or eligible interests are entitled only to the rights provided to them by those terms or to any rights they may have under part 13 of this chapter or the organic law governing the eligible entity or foreign corporation;

(i) except as provided by law or the terms of the merger, all the rights, privileges, franchises, and immunities of each entity that is a party to the merger, other than the survivor, are the rights, privileges, franchises, and immunities of the survivor; and

(j) if the survivor exists before the merger:

(i) all the property and contract rights of the survivor remain its property and contract rights without transfer, reversion, or impairment;

(ii) the survivor remains subject to all its debts, obligations, and other liabilities; and

(iii) except as provided by law or the plan of merger, the survivor continues to hold all of its rights, privileges, franchises, and immunities.

(2) When a share exchange becomes effective, the shares or eligible interests in the acquired entity that are to be exchanged for shares or other securities, eligible interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities or eligible interests, cash, other property, or any combination are entitled only to the rights provided to them in the plan of share exchange or to any rights they may have under part 13 of this chapter or under the organic law governing the acquired entity.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation of a domestic corporation or the organic law governing or organic rules of a foreign corporation or a domestic or foreign eligible entity, the effect of a merger or share exchange on interest holder liability is as follows:

(a) A person who becomes subject to new interest holder liability with respect to an entity as a result of a merger or share exchange has that new interest holder liability only with respect to interest holder liabilities that arise after the merger or share exchange becomes effective.

(b) If a person had interest holder liability with respect to a party to the merger or the acquired entity before the merger or share exchange becomes effective with respect to shares or eligible interests of the party or acquired entity:

(i) that were exchanged in the merger or share exchange;

(ii) that were canceled in the merger; or

(iii) the terms and conditions of which relating to interest holder liability were amended pursuant to the merger, the following provisions apply:

(A) The merger or share exchange does not discharge that prior interest holder liability with respect to any interest holder liabilities that arose before the merger or share exchange becomes effective.

(B) The provisions of the organic law governing any entity for which the person had that prior interest holder liability continue to apply to the collection or discharge of any interest holder liabilities preserved by subsection (3)(b)(i) as if the merger or share exchange had not occurred.

(C) The person has the rights of contribution from other persons that are provided by the organic law governing the entity for which the person had that prior interest holder liability with respect to any interest holder liabilities preserved by subsection (3)(b)(i) as if the merger or share exchange had not occurred.

(D) The person may not by reason of that prior interest holder liability have interest holder liability with respect to any interest holder liabilities that arise after the merger or share exchange becomes effective.

(c) If a person has interest holder liability both before and after a merger becomes effective with unchanged terms and conditions with respect to the entity that is the survivor by reason of owning the same shares or eligible interests before and after the merger becomes effective, the merger has no effect on that interest holder liability.

(d) A share exchange has no effect on interest holder liability related to shares or eligible interests of the acquired entity that were not exchanged in the share exchange.

(4) Upon a merger becoming effective, a foreign corporation or foreign eligible entity that is the survivor of the merger is considered to have:

(a) appointed the secretary of state as its agent for service of process in a proceeding to enforce the rights of shareholders of each domestic corporation that is a party to the merger who exercise appraisal rights; and

(b) agreed that it will promptly pay the amount, if any, to which those shareholders are entitled under part 13 of this chapter.

(5) Except as provided in the organic law governing a party to a merger or in its articles of incorporation or organic rules, the merger does not give rise to any rights that an interest holder, governor, or third party would have upon a dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of that party. The merger does not require a party to the merger to wind up its affairs and does not constitute or cause its dissolution or termination.

(6) Property held for a charitable purpose under the laws of this state by a domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity immediately before a merger becomes effective may not, as a result of the transaction, be diverted from the objects for which it was donated, granted, devised, or otherwise transferred except and to the extent permitted by or pursuant to the laws of this state addressing cy pres or dealing with nondiversion of charitable assets.

(7) A bequest, devise, gift, grant, or promise contained in a will or other instrument of donation, subscription, or conveyance that is made to an entity that is a party to a merger that is not the survivor and that takes effect or remains payable after the merger inures to the survivor.

(8) A trust obligation that would govern property if transferred to a nonsurviving entity applies to property that is transferred to the survivor after a merger becomes effective.

35-14-1108. Abandonment of merger or share exchange. (1) After a plan of merger or share exchange has been adopted and approved as required by this part and before articles of merger or share exchange have become effective, the plan may be abandoned by a domestic business corporation that is a party to the plan without action by its shareholders in accordance with any procedures set forth in the plan of merger or share exchange or, if no procedures are set forth in the plan, in the manner determined by the board of directors.

(2) If a merger or share exchange is abandoned under subsection (1) after articles of merger or share exchange have been delivered to the secretary of state for filing but before the merger or share exchange has become effective, a statement of abandonment signed by all the parties that signed the articles of merger or share exchange must be delivered to the secretary of state for filing before the articles of merger or share exchange become effective. The statement takes effect on filing and the merger or share exchange is abandoned and does not become effective. The statement of abandonment must contain:

(a) the name of each party to the merger or the names of the acquiring and acquired entities in a share exchange;

(b) the date on which the articles of merger or share exchange were filed by the secretary of state; and

(c) a statement that the merger or share exchange has been abandoned in accordance with this section.

History: En. Sec. 168, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

Part 12
Disposition of Assets
(Effective June 1, 2020)

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: Section 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "[This act] is effective June 1, 2020."

Applicability: Section 275, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "A foreign corporation registered or authorized to do business in this state on the [effective date of sections 1 through 221] [June 1, 2020] is subject to [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter], is considered to be registered to do business in this state, and is not required to file a foreign registration statement under [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter]."

35-14-1201. Disposition of assets not requiring shareholder approval. No approval of the shareholders is required, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise:

(1) to sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any or all of the corporation's assets in the usual and regular course of business;

(2) to mortgage, pledge, dedicate, with or without recourse, to the repayment of indebtedness, or otherwise encumber any or all of the corporation's assets, regardless of whether in the usual and regular course of business;

(3) to transfer any or all of the corporation's assets to one or more domestic or foreign corporations or other entities all of the shares or interests of which are owned by the corporation; or

(4) to distribute assets pro rata to the holders of one or more classes or series of the corporation's shares.

History: En. Sec. 169, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1202. Shareholder approval of certain dispositions. (1) A sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of assets, other than a disposition described in 35-14-1201, requires approval of the corporation's shareholders if the disposition would leave the corporation without a significant continuing business activity. A corporation is conclusively held to have retained a significant continuing business activity if it retains a business activity that represented, for the corporation and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, at least:

(a) 25% of total assets at the end of the most recently completed fiscal year; and

(b) either 25% of income from continuing operations before taxes or 25% of revenue from continuing operations, in each case for the most recently completed fiscal year.

(2) (a) To obtain the approval of the shareholders under subsection (1), the board of directors shall first adopt a resolution authorizing the disposition. The disposition must then be approved by the shareholders. In submitting the disposition to the shareholders for approval, the board of directors shall recommend that the shareholders approve the disposition unless:

(i) the board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts of interest or other special circumstances it should not make the recommendation; or

(ii) 35-14-826 applies.

(b) If either subsection (2)(a)(i) or (2)(a)(ii) applies, the board shall inform the shareholders of the basis for its determination.

(3) The board of directors may set conditions for the approval by the shareholders of a disposition or for the effectiveness of the disposition.

(4) If a disposition is required to be approved by the shareholders under subsection (1) and if the approval is to be given at a meeting, the corporation shall notify each shareholder, regardless of whether entitled to vote, of the meeting of shareholders at which the disposition is to be submitted for approval. The notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the disposition and must contain a description of the disposition, including the terms and conditions of the disposition and the consideration to be received by the corporation.

(5) Unless the articles of incorporation require a greater vote or a lesser vote, approval of the disposition requires the approval of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the disposition and, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote as a separate group on the disposition, the approval of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the disposition by that voting group. The articles of incorporation may not provide a lower quorum for a voting group than shares representing a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group or a lesser vote for a voting group than is provided for in 35-14-725(3).

(6) After a disposition has been approved by the shareholders under this part and at any time before the disposition has been consummated, it may be abandoned by the corporation without action by the shareholders, subject to any contractual rights of other parties to the disposition.

(7) A disposition of assets in the course of dissolution under part 14 of this chapter is not governed by this section.

(8) The assets of a direct or indirect consolidated subsidiary are the assets of the parent corporation for the purposes of this section.

History: En. Sec. 170, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

Part 13
Appraisal Rights
(Effective June 1, 2020)

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: Section 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "[This act] is effective June 1, 2020."

Applicability: Section 275, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "A foreign corporation registered or authorized to do business in this state on the [effective date of sections 1 through 221] [June 1, 2020] is subject to [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter], is considered to be registered to do business in this state, and is not required to file a foreign registration statement under [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter]."

35-14-1301. Definitions — appraisal rights. For the purposes of this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Affiliate" means a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries controls, is controlled by or is under common control with another person or is a senior executive of another person. For purposes of 35-14-1302(2)(d), a person is considered an affiliate of its senior executives.

(2) "Beneficial owner" means any person who directly, or indirectly through any contract, arrangement, or understanding, other than a revocable proxy, has or shares the power to vote or to direct the voting of shares. However, a member of a national securities exchange is not considered a beneficial owner of securities held directly or indirectly by it on behalf of another person if the member is precluded by the rules of the exchange from voting without instruction on contested matters or matters that may affect substantially the rights or privileges of the holders of the securities to be voted. When two or more persons agree to act together for the purpose of voting their shares of the corporation, each member of the group formed is held to have acquired beneficial ownership, as of the date of the agreement, of all shares having voting power of the corporation that are beneficially owned by any member of the group.

(3) "Corporation" means the domestic corporation that is the issuer of the shares held by a shareholder demanding appraisal and, for matters covered in 35-14-1322 through 35-14-1326, 35-14-1330, and 35-14-1331, includes the survivor of a merger.

(4) "Excluded shares" means shares acquired pursuant to an offer for all shares having voting power if the offer was made within 1 year before the corporate action for consideration of the same kind and of a value equal to or less than that paid in connection with the corporate action.

(5) "Fair value" means the value of the corporation's shares determined:

(a) immediately before the effectiveness of the corporate action to which the shareholder objects;

(b) using customary and current valuation concepts and techniques generally employed for similar businesses in the context of the transaction requiring appraisal; and

(c) without discounting for lack of marketability or minority status except, if appropriate, for amendments to the articles of incorporation pursuant to 35-14-1302(1)(d).

(6) "Interest" means interest from the date the corporate action becomes effective until the date of payment, at the rate of interest on judgments in this state on the effective date of the corporate action.

(7) "Interested person" means a person or an affiliate of a person who at any time during the 1-year period immediately preceding approval by the board of directors of the corporate action:

(a) was the beneficial owner of 20% or more of the voting power of the corporation, other than as owner of excluded shares;

(b) had the power, contractually or otherwise and other than as owner of excluded shares, to cause the appointment or election of 25% or more of the directors to the board of directors of the corporation; or

(c) was a senior executive or director of the corporation or a senior executive of any affiliate of the corporation and will receive, as a result of the corporate action, a financial benefit not generally available to other shareholders, other than:

(i) employment, consulting, retirement, or similar benefits established separately and not as part of or in contemplation of the corporate action;

(ii) employment, consulting, retirement, or similar benefits established in contemplation of or as part of the corporate action that are not more favorable than those existing before the corporate action or, if more favorable, that have been approved on behalf of the corporation in the same manner as is provided in 35-14-862; or

(iii) in the case of a director of the corporation who will, in the corporate action, become a director or governor of the acquiror or any of its affiliates, rights and benefits as a director or governor that are provided on the same basis as those afforded by the acquiror generally to other directors or governors of the entity or affiliate.

(8) "Interested transaction" means a corporate action described in 35-14-1302(1), other than a merger pursuant to 35-14-1105, involving an interested person in which any of the shares or assets of the corporation are being acquired or converted.

(9) "Preferred shares" means a class or series of shares whose holders have preference over any other class or series of shares with respect to distributions.

(10) "Senior executive" means the chief executive officer, chief operating officer, chief financial officer, and any individual in charge of a principal business unit or function.

(11) "Shareholder" means a record shareholder, a beneficial shareholder, and a voting trust beneficial owner.

History: En. Sec. 171, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1302. Right to appraisal. (1) A shareholder is entitled to appraisal rights and to obtain payment of the fair value of that shareholder's shares in the event of any of the following corporate actions:

(a) consummation of a merger to which the corporation is a party if:

(i) shareholder approval is required for the merger by 35-14-1104 or would be required but for the provisions of 35-14-1104(10), except that appraisal rights are not available to any shareholder of the corporation with respect to shares of any class or series that remain outstanding after consummation of the merger; or

(ii) the corporation is a subsidiary and the merger is governed by 35-14-1105;

(b) consummation of a share exchange to which the corporation is a party the shares of which will be acquired, except that appraisal rights may not be available to any shareholder of the corporation with respect to any class or series of shares of the corporation that is not acquired in the share exchange;

(c) consummation of a disposition of assets pursuant to 35-14-1202 if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the disposition, except that appraisal rights are not available to any shareholder of the corporation with respect to shares of any class or series if:

(i) under the terms of the corporate action approved by the shareholders, the corporation's net assets, in excess of a reasonable amount reserved to meet claims of the type described in 35-14-1406 and 35-14-1407, are to be distributed to shareholders in cash:

(A) within 1 year after the shareholders' approval of the action; and

(B) in accordance with their respective interests determined at the time of distribution; and

(ii) the disposition of assets is not an interested transaction;

(d) an amendment of the articles of incorporation with respect to a class or series of shares that reduces the number of shares of a class or series owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the corporation has the obligation or right to repurchase the fractional share created;

(e) any other merger, share exchange, disposition of assets, or amendment to the articles of incorporation, in each case to the extent provided by the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors;

(f) consummation of a domestication pursuant to 35-14-920 if the shareholder does not receive shares in the foreign corporation resulting from the domestication that have terms as favorable to the shareholder in all material respects, and represent at least the same percentage interest of the total voting rights of the outstanding shares of the foreign corporation, as the shares held by the shareholder before the domestication;

(g) consummation of a conversion of the corporation to a nonprofit corporation pursuant to 35-14-930; or

(h) consummation of a conversion of the corporation to an unincorporated entity pursuant to 35-14-930.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the availability of appraisal rights under subsections (1)(a), (1)(b), (1)(c), (1)(d), (1)(f) and (1)(h) is limited in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) Appraisal rights are not available for the holders of shares of any class or series of shares that is:

(i) a covered security under section 18(b)(1)(A) or (B) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) traded in an organized market and has at least 2,000 shareholders and a market value of at least $20 million, exclusive of the value of shares of that class or series held by the corporation's subsidiaries, senior executives, and directors and by any beneficial shareholder and any voting trust beneficial owner owning more than 10% of those shares; or

(iii) issued by an open-end management investment company registered with the United States securities and exchange commission under the Investment Company Act of 1940 and that may be redeemed at the option of the holder at net asset value.

(b) The applicability of subsection (2)(a) must be determined as of:

(i) the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting of shareholders to act upon the corporate action requiring appraisal rights or, in the case of an offer made pursuant to 35-14-1104(10), the date of the offer; or

(ii) if there is no meeting of shareholders and no offer made pursuant to 35-14-1104(10), the day before the consummation of the corporate action or effective date of the amendment of the articles of incorporation, as applicable.

(c) Subsection (2)(a) is not applicable and appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (1) for the holders of any class or series of shares:

(i) who are required by the terms of the corporate action requiring appraisal rights to accept for those shares anything other than cash or shares of any class or any series of shares of any corporation, or any other proprietary interest of any other entity, that satisfies the standards set forth in subsection (2)(a) at the time the corporate action becomes effective; or

(ii) in the case of the consummation of a disposition of assets pursuant to 35-14-1202, unless the cash, shares, or proprietary interests received in the disposition are, under the terms of the corporate action approved by the shareholders, to be distributed to the shareholders as part of a distribution to shareholders of the net assets of the corporation in excess of a reasonable amount to meet claims of the type described in 35-14-1406 and 35-14-1407:

(A) within 1 year after the shareholders' approval of the action; and

(B) in accordance with their respective interests determined at the time of the distribution.

(d) Subsection (2)(a) is not applicable and appraisal rights must be available pursuant to subsection (1) for the holders of any class or series of shares where the corporate action is an interested transaction.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the articles of incorporation as originally filed or any amendment to the articles of incorporation may limit or eliminate appraisal rights for any class or series of preferred shares, except that:

(a) no limitation or elimination is effective if the class or series does not have the right to vote separately as a voting group, alone or as part of a group, on the action or if the action is a conversion under 35-14-930 or a merger having a similar effect as a conversion in which the converted entity is an eligible entity; and

(b) any limitation or elimination contained in an amendment to the articles of incorporation that limits or eliminates appraisal rights for any shares that are outstanding immediately before the effective date of the amendment or that the corporation is or may be required to issue or sell thereafter pursuant to any conversion, exchange, or other right existing immediately before the effective date of the amendment does not apply to any corporate action that becomes effective within 1 year after the effective date of the amendment if the action would otherwise afford appraisal rights.

35-14-1303. Assertion of rights — nominees — beneficial shareholders. (1) A record shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the record shareholder's name but owned by a beneficial shareholder or a voting trust beneficial owner only if the record shareholder objects with respect to all shares of a class or series owned by the beneficial shareholder or the voting trust beneficial owner and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each beneficial shareholder or voting trust beneficial owner on whose behalf appraisal rights are being asserted. The rights of a record shareholder who asserts appraisal rights for only part of the shares held of record in the record shareholder's name under this subsection must be determined as if the shares to which the record shareholder objects and the record shareholder's other shares were registered in the names of different record shareholders.

(2) A beneficial shareholder and a voting trust beneficial owner may assert appraisal rights as to shares of any class or series held on behalf of the shareholder only if the shareholder:

(a) submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the assertion of the rights no later than the date referred to in 35-14-1322(2)(b)(ii); and

(b) does so with respect to all shares of the class or series that are beneficially owned by the beneficial shareholder or the voting trust beneficial owner.

History: En. Sec. 173, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1304 through 35-14-1319 reserved.

35-14-1320. Notice of appraisal rights. (1) When any corporate action specified in 35-14-1302(1) is to be submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice or, when no approval of the action is required pursuant to 35-14-1104(10), the offer made pursuant to 35-14-1104(10) must state that the corporation has concluded that appraisal rights are, are not, or may be available under this part. If the corporation concludes that appraisal rights are or may be available, a copy of this part must accompany the meeting notice or offer sent to those record shareholders entitled to exercise appraisal rights.

(2) In a merger pursuant to 35-14-1105, the parent entity shall notify in writing all record shareholders of the subsidiary who are entitled to assert appraisal rights that the corporate action became effective. The notice must be sent within 10 days after the corporate action became effective and include the materials described in 35-14-1322.

(3) When any corporate action specified in 35-14-1302(1) is to be approved by written consent of the shareholders pursuant to 35-14-704:

(a) written notice that appraisal rights are, are not, or may be available must be sent to each record shareholder from whom a consent is solicited at the time consent of each shareholder is first solicited, and if the corporation has concluded that appraisal rights are or may be available, the notice must be accompanied by a copy of this part; and

(b) written notice that appraisal rights are, are not, or may be available must be delivered together with the notice to nonconsenting and nonvoting shareholders required by 35-14-704(5) and (6), may include the materials described in 35-14-1322, and, if the corporation has concluded that appraisal rights are or may be available, must be accompanied by a copy of this part.

(4) When corporate action described in 35-14-1302(1) is proposed or a merger pursuant to 35-14-1104 is effected, the notice referred to in subsection (1) or (3) of this section, if the corporation concludes that appraisal rights are or may be available, and in subsection (2) must be accompanied by:

(a) financial statements of the corporation that issued the shares that may be subject to appraisal, consisting of a balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of the notice, an income statement for that year, and a cash flow statement for that year, provided that if those financial statements are not reasonably available, the corporation shall provide reasonably equivalent financial information; and

(b) the latest interim financial statements of the corporation, if any.

(5) The right to receive the information described in subsection (4) may be waived in writing by a shareholder before or after the corporate action.

History: En. Sec. 174, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1321. Notice of intent to demand payment — consequences of voting or consenting. (1) If a corporate action specified in 35-14-1302(1) is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert appraisal rights with respect to any class or series of shares:

(a) shall deliver to the corporation, before the vote is taken, written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment if the proposed action is effected; and

(b) may not vote, or cause or permit to be voted, any shares of that class or series in favor of the proposed action.

(2) If a corporate action specified in 35-14-1302(1) is to be approved by written consent, a shareholder who wishes to assert appraisal rights with respect to any class or series of shares may not sign a consent in favor of the proposed action with respect to that class or series of shares.

(3) If a corporate action specified in 35-14-1302(1) does not require shareholder approval pursuant to 35-14-1104(10), a shareholder who wishes to assert appraisal rights with respect to any class or series of shares:

(a) shall deliver to the corporation before the shares are purchased pursuant to the offer written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment if the proposed action is effected; and

(b) may not tender or cause or permit to be tendered any shares of that class or series in response to the offer.

(4) A shareholder who fails to satisfy the requirements of subsection (1), (2) or (3) is not entitled to payment under this part.

History: En. Sec. 175, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1322. Appraisal notice and form. (1) If a corporate action requiring appraisal rights under 35-14-1302(1) becomes effective, the corporation shall deliver the written appraisal notice and form required by subsection (2) of this section to all shareholders who satisfy the requirements of 35-14-1321(1), (2), or (3). In the case of a merger under 35-14-1105, the parent shall deliver an appraisal notice and form to all record shareholders who may be entitled to assert appraisal rights.

(2) The appraisal notice must be delivered no earlier than the date the corporate action specified in 35-14-1302(1) became effective and no later than 10 days after that date and must:

(a) supply a form that:

(i) specifies the first date of any announcement to shareholders made before the date the corporate action became effective of the principal terms of the proposed corporate action; and

(ii) if the announcement was made, requires the shareholder asserting appraisal rights to certify whether beneficial ownership of those shares for which appraisal rights are asserted was acquired before that date; and

(iii) requires the shareholder asserting appraisal rights to certify that the shareholder did not vote for or consent to the transaction as to the class or series of shares for which appraisal is sought;

(b) state:

(i) where the form must be sent and where certificates for certificated shares must be deposited and the date by which those certificates must be deposited, which may not be earlier than the date by which the corporation must receive the required form under subsection (2)(b)(ii);

(ii) a date by which the corporation must receive the form, which may not be fewer than 40 or more than 60 days after the date the appraisal notice required by subsection (1) is sent, and state that the shareholder has waived the right to demand appraisal with respect to the shares unless the form is received by the corporation by the specified date;

(iii) the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares;

(iv) that if requested in writing, the corporation will provide to the shareholder so requesting, within 10 days after the date specified in subsection (2)(b)(ii), the number of shareholders who return the forms by the specified date and the total number of shares owned by them; and

(v) the date by which the notice to withdraw under 35-14-1323 must be received, which must be within 20 days after the date specified in subsection (2)(b)(ii) of this section; and

(c) be accompanied by a copy of this part.

35-14-1323. Perfection of rights — right to withdraw. (1) A shareholder who receives notice pursuant to 35-14-1322 and who wishes to exercise appraisal rights shall sign and return the form sent by the corporation and, in the case of certificated shares, deposit the shareholder's certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice by the date referred to in the notice pursuant to 35-14-1322(2)(b)(ii). In addition, if applicable, the shareholder shall certify on the form whether the beneficial owner of the shares acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the notice pursuant to 35-14-1322(2)(a)(i). If a shareholder fails to make this certification, the corporation may elect to treat the shareholder's shares as after-acquired shares under 35-14-1325. Once a shareholder deposits that shareholder's certificates or, in the case of uncertificated shares, returns the signed forms, that shareholder loses all rights as a shareholder unless the shareholder withdraws pursuant to subsection (2).

(2) A shareholder who has complied with subsection (1) may nevertheless decline to exercise appraisal rights and withdraw from the appraisal process by notifying the corporation in writing by the date set forth in the appraisal notice pursuant to 35-14-1322(2)(b)(v). A shareholder who fails to withdraw from the appraisal process may not thereafter withdraw without the corporation's written consent.

(3) A shareholder who does not sign and return the form and, in the case of certificated shares, deposit that shareholder's share certificates where required, each by the date set forth in the notice described in 35-14-1322(2), is not entitled to payment under this part.

35-14-1324. Payment. (1) Except as provided in 35-14-1325, within 30 days after the form required by 35-14-1322(2)(b)(ii) is due, the corporation shall pay in cash to those shareholders who complied with 35-14-1323(1) the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of their shares, plus interest.

(2) The payment to each shareholder pursuant to subsection (1) must be accompanied by:

(a) (i) financial statements of the corporation that issued the shares to be appraised, consisting of a balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, and a cash flow statement for that year or, if those annual financial statements are not reasonably available, reasonably equivalent financial information; and

(ii) the latest interim financial statements of the corporation, if any;

(b) a statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares, which must equal or exceed the corporation's estimate given pursuant to 35-14-1322(2)(b)(iii); and

(c) a statement that shareholders described in subsection (1) of this section have the right to demand further payment under 35-14-1326 and that if any shareholder does not do so within the time period specified in 35-14-1326(2), the shareholder is considered to have accepted the payment under subsection (1) of this section in full satisfaction of the corporation's obligations under this part.

History: En. Sec. 178, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1325. After-acquired shares. (1) A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by 35-14-1324 from any shareholder who was required to but did not certify that beneficial ownership of all of the shareholder's shares for which appraisal rights are asserted was acquired before the date set forth in the appraisal notice sent pursuant to 35-14-1322(2)(a).

(2) If the corporation elected to withhold payment under subsection (1) of this section, it shall, within 30 days after the form required by 35-14-1322(2)(b)(ii) is due, notify all shareholders who are described in subsection (1) of this section:

(a) of the information required by 35-14-1324(2)(a);

(b) of the corporation's estimate of fair value pursuant to 35-14-1324(2)(b);

(c) that they may accept the corporation's estimate of fair value, plus interest, in full satisfaction of their demands or demand appraisal under 35-14-1326;

(d) that those shareholders who wish to accept the offer shall notify the corporation of their acceptance of the corporation's offer within 30 days after receiving the offer; and

(e) that those shareholders who do not satisfy the requirements for demanding appraisal under 35-14-1326 are considered to have accepted the corporation's offer.

(3) Within 10 days after receiving the shareholder's acceptance pursuant to subsection (2)(d), the corporation shall pay in cash the amount it offered under subsection (2)(b), plus interest, to each shareholder who agreed to accept the corporation's offer in full satisfaction of the shareholder's demand.

(4) Within 40 days after delivering the notice described in subsection (2), the corporation shall pay in cash the amount it offered to pay under subsection (2)(b), plus interest, to each shareholder described in subsection (2)(e).

35-14-1326. Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment or offer. (1) A shareholder paid pursuant to 35-14-1324 who is dissatisfied with the amount of the payment shall notify the corporation in writing of that shareholder's estimate of the fair value of the shares and demand payment of that estimate, less any payment under 35-14-1324, plus interest. A shareholder offered payment under 35-14-1325 who is dissatisfied with that offer may reject the offer and demand payment of the shareholder's stated estimate of the fair value of the shares, plus interest.

(2) A shareholder who fails to notify the corporation in writing of that shareholder's demand to be paid the shareholder's stated estimate of the fair value plus interest under subsection (1) within 30 days after receiving the corporation's payment or offer of payment under 35-14-1324 or 35-14-1325, respectively, waives the right to demand payment under this section and is entitled only to the payment made or offered pursuant to those respective sections.

History: En. Sec. 180, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1327 through 35-14-1329 reserved.

35-14-1330. Judicial appraisal of shares — court action. (1) If a shareholder makes demand for payment under 35-14-1326 that remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within 60 days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the 60-day period, it shall pay in cash to each shareholder the amount the shareholder demanded pursuant to 35-14-1326, plus interest.

(2) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the district court of the county in which its principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, in the first judicial district.

(3) The corporation shall make all shareholders, regardless of whether they are residents of this state, whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares, and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

(4) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (2) is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them or in any amendment to it. The shareholders demanding appraisal rights are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings. There is no right to a jury trial.

(5) Each shareholder made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment:

(a) for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the shareholder's shares exceeds the amount paid by the corporation to the shareholder for the shares, plus interest; or

(b) for the fair value, plus interest, of the shareholder's shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under 35-14-1325.

History: En. Sec. 181, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1331. Court costs — expenses. (1) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under 35-14-1330 shall determine all court costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the court costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess court costs against all or some of the shareholders demanding appraisal, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the shareholders acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this part.

(2) The court in an appraisal proceeding may also assess the expenses of the respective parties in amounts the court finds equitable:

(a) against the corporation and in favor of any or all shareholders demanding appraisal if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of 35-14-1320, 35-14-1322, 35-14-1324, or 35-14-1325; or

(b) against either the corporation or a shareholder demanding appraisal, in favor of any other party, if the court finds the party against whom expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this part.

(3) If the court in an appraisal proceeding finds that the expenses incurred by any shareholder were of substantial benefit to other shareholders similarly situated and that the expenses should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may direct that those expenses be paid out of the amounts awarded the shareholders who were benefited.

(4) To the extent the corporation fails to make a required payment pursuant to 35-14-1324, 35-14-1325, or 35-14-1326, any affected shareholder may sue directly for the amount owed and, to the extent successful, is entitled to recover from the corporation all expenses of the suit.

History: En. Sec. 182, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1332 through 35-14-1339 reserved.

35-14-1340. Other remedies limited. (1) The legality of a proposed or completed corporate action described in 35-14-1302(1) may not be contested, and the corporate action may not be enjoined, set aside, or rescinded, in a legal or equitable proceeding by a shareholder after the shareholders have approved the corporate action.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a corporate action that:

(a) was not authorized and approved in accordance with the applicable provisions of:

(i) part 9, 10, 11, or 12 of this chapter;

(ii) the articles of incorporation or bylaws; or

(iii) the resolution of the board of directors authorizing the corporate action;

(b) was procured as a result of fraud, a material misrepresentation, or an omission of a material fact necessary to make statements made, in light of the circumstances in which they were made, not misleading;

(c) is an interested transaction unless it has been recommended by the board of directors in the manner provided in 35-14-862 and has been approved by the shareholders in the manner provided in 35-14-863 as if the interested transaction were a director's conflicting interest transaction; or

(d) is approved by less than unanimous consent of the voting shareholders pursuant to 35-14-704 if:

(i) the challenge to the corporate action is brought by a shareholder who did not consent and as to whom notice of the approval of the corporate action was not effective at least 10 days before the corporate action was effected; and

(ii) the proceeding challenging the corporate action is commenced within 10 days after notice of the approval of the corporate action is effective as to the shareholder bringing the proceeding.

History: En. Sec. 183, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

Part 14
Dissolution
(Effective June 1, 2020)

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: Section 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "[This act] is effective June 1, 2020."

Applicability: Section 275, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "A foreign corporation registered or authorized to do business in this state on the [effective date of sections 1 through 221] [June 1, 2020] is subject to [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter], is considered to be registered to do business in this state, and is not required to file a foreign registration statement under [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter]."

35-14-1401. Dissolution by incorporators or initial directors. A majority of the incorporators or initial directors of a corporation that has not issued shares or has not commenced business may dissolve the corporation by delivering to the secretary of state for filing articles of dissolution that set forth:

(1) the name of the corporation;

(2) the date of its incorporation;

(3) either:

(i) that none of the corporation's shares has been issued; or

(ii) that the corporation has not commenced business;

(4) that no debt of the corporation remains unpaid;

(5) that the net assets of the corporation remaining after winding up have been distributed to the shareholders if shares were issued; and

(6) that a majority of the incorporators or initial directors authorized the dissolution.

History: En. Sec. 184, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1402. Dissolution by board of directors and shareholders. (1) The board of directors may propose dissolution for submission to the shareholders by first adopting a resolution authorizing the dissolution.

(2) (a) For a proposal to dissolve to be adopted, it must then be approved by the shareholders. In submitting the proposal to dissolve to the shareholders for approval, the board of directors shall recommend that the shareholders approve the dissolution unless:

(i) the board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation; or

(ii) 35-14-826 applies.

(b) If either subsection (2)(a)(i) or (2)(a)(ii) of this section applies, the board shall inform the shareholders of the basis for its determination.

(3) The board of directors may set conditions for the approval of the proposal for dissolution by shareholders or for the effectiveness of the dissolution.

(4) If the approval of the shareholders is to be given at a meeting, the corporation shall notify each shareholder, regardless of whether entitled to vote, of the meeting of shareholders at which the dissolution is to be submitted for approval. The notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider dissolving the corporation.

(5) Unless the articles of incorporation require a greater vote or a lesser vote, approval of the dissolution requires the approval of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the dissolution and, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote as a separate group on the dissolution, the approval of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the dissolution by that voting group. The articles of incorporation may not provide a lower quorum for a voting group than shares representing a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group or a lesser vote for a voting group than is provided for in 35-14-725(3).

35-14-1403. Articles of dissolution. (1) At any time after dissolution is authorized, the corporation may dissolve by delivering to the secretary of state for filing articles of dissolution setting forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the date that dissolution was authorized; and

(c) if dissolution was approved by the shareholders, a statement that the proposal to dissolve was duly approved by the shareholders in the manner required by this chapter and by the articles of incorporation.

(2) The articles of dissolution take effect on the effective date determined in accordance with 35-14-123. A corporation is dissolved on the effective date of its articles of dissolution.

(3) For purposes of 35-14-1401 through 35-14-1409, "dissolved corporation" means a corporation whose articles of dissolution have become effective and includes a successor entity to which the remaining assets of the corporation are transferred subject to its liabilities for purposes of liquidation.

History: En. Sec. 186, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1404. Revocation of dissolution. (1) A corporation may revoke its dissolution within 120 days after its effective date.

(2) Revocation of dissolution is authorized in the same manner as the dissolution was authorized unless that authorization permitted revocation by action of the board of directors alone, in which event the board of directors may revoke the dissolution without shareholder action.

(3) After the revocation of dissolution is authorized, the corporation may revoke the dissolution by delivering to the secretary of state for filing articles of revocation of dissolution, together with a copy of its articles of dissolution, that set forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the effective date of the dissolution that was revoked;

(c) the date that the revocation of dissolution was authorized;

(d) if the corporation's board of directors or incorporators revoked the dissolution, a statement to that effect;

(e) if the corporation's board of directors revoked a dissolution as authorized by the shareholders, a statement that revocation was permitted by action by the board of directors alone pursuant to that authorization; and

(f) if shareholder action was required to revoke the dissolution, a statement that the revocation was duly approved by the shareholders in the manner required by this chapter and by the articles of incorporation.

(g) The articles of revocation of dissolution take effect on the effective date determined in accordance with 35-14-123. Revocation of dissolution is effective on the effective date of the articles of revocation of dissolution.

(h) When the revocation of dissolution is effective, it relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date of the dissolution, and the corporation resumes carrying on its business as if dissolution had never occurred.

History: En. Sec. 187, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1405. Effect of dissolution. (1) A corporation that has dissolved continues its corporate existence, but the dissolved corporation may not carry on any business except that appropriate to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs, including:

(a) collecting its assets;

(b) disposing of its properties that will not be distributed in kind to its shareholders;

(c) discharging or making provision for discharging its liabilities;

(d) making distributions of its remaining assets among its shareholders according to their interests; and

(e) doing every other act necessary to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs.

(2) Dissolution of a corporation does not:

(a) transfer title to the corporation's property;

(b) prevent transfer of its shares or securities;

(c) subject its directors or officers to standards of conduct different from those prescribed in part 8 of this chapter;

(d) change:

(i) quorum or voting requirements for its board of directors or shareholders;

(ii) provisions for selection, resignation, or removal of its directors or officers or both; or

(iii) provisions for amending its bylaws;

(e) prevent commencement of a proceeding by or against the corporation in its corporate name;

(f) abate or suspend a proceeding pending by or against the corporation on the effective date of dissolution; or

(g) terminate the authority of the registered agent of the corporation.

(3) A distribution in liquidation under this section may be made only by a dissolved corporation. For purposes of determining the shareholders entitled to receive a distribution in liquidation, the board of directors may fix a record date for determining shareholders entitled to a distribution in liquidation, which may not be retroactive. If the board of directors does not fix a record date for determining shareholders entitled to a distribution in liquidation, the record date is the date the board of directors authorizes the distribution in liquidation.

History: En. Sec. 188, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1406. Known claims against dissolved corporation. (1) A dissolved corporation may dispose of the known claims against it by notifying its known claimants in writing of the dissolution at any time after its effective date.

(2) The written notice must:

(a) describe information that must be included in a claim;

(b) provide a mailing address where a claim may be sent;

(c) state the deadline, which may not be fewer than 120 days after the written notice is effective, by which the dissolved corporation must receive the claim; and

(d) state that the claim will be barred if not received by the deadline.

(3) A claim against the dissolved corporation is barred:

(a) if a claimant who was given written notice under subsection (2) does not deliver the claim to the dissolved corporation by the deadline; or

(b) if a claimant whose claim was rejected by the dissolved corporation does not commence a proceeding to enforce the claim within 90 days after the rejection notice is effective.

(4) For purposes of this section, "claim" does not include a contingent liability or a claim based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution.

History: En. Sec. 189, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1407. Other claims against dissolved corporations. (1) A dissolved corporation may publish notice of its dissolution and request that persons with claims against the dissolved corporation present them in accordance with the notice.

(2) The notice must:

(a) be:

(i) published one time in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the dissolved corporation's principal office or, if none in this state, its registered office is or was last located; or

(ii) posted conspicuously for at least 30 consecutive days on the dissolved corporation's website;

(b) describe the information that must be included in a claim and provide a mailing address where the claim may be sent; and

(c) state that a claim against the dissolved corporation will be barred unless a proceeding to enforce the claim is commenced within 3 years after the publication of the notice.

(3) If the dissolved corporation publishes a notice in accordance with subsection (2), the claim of each of the following claimants is barred unless the claimant commences a proceeding to enforce the claim against the dissolved corporation within 3 years after the first publication date of the notice:

(a) a claimant who was not given written notice under 35-14-1406;

(b) a claimant whose claim was timely sent to the dissolved corporation but not acted on by the corporation;

(c) a claimant whose claim is contingent or based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution.

(4) A claim that is not barred by 35-14-1406(3) or subsection (3) of this section may be enforced:

(a) against the dissolved corporation to the extent of its undistributed assets; or

(b) except as provided in 35-14-1408(4), if the assets have been distributed in liquidation, against a shareholder of the dissolved corporation to the extent of the shareholder's pro rata share of the claim or the corporate assets distributed to the shareholder in liquidation, whichever is less, but a shareholder's total liability for all claims under this section may not exceed the total amount of assets distributed to the shareholder.

History: En. Sec. 190, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1408. Court proceedings. (1) A dissolved corporation that has published a notice under 35-14-1407 may file an application with the district court of the county where its principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, of the first judicial district for a determination of the amount and form of security to be provided for payment of claims that are contingent or have not been made known to the dissolved corporation or that are based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution but that, based on the facts known to the dissolved corporation, are reasonably estimated to arise after the effective date of dissolution. Provision need not be made for any claim that is or is reasonably anticipated to be barred under 35-14-1407(3).

(2) Within 10 days after the filing of the application, notice of the proceeding must be given by the dissolved corporation to each claimant holding a contingent claim whose contingent claim is shown on the records of the dissolved corporation.

(3) The court may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent all claimants whose identities are unknown in any proceeding brought under this section. The reasonable fees and expenses of the guardian, including all reasonable expert witness fees, must be paid by the dissolved corporation.

(4) Provision by the dissolved corporation for security in the amount and the form ordered by the court under subsection (1) satisfies the dissolved corporation's obligations with respect to claims that are contingent, have not been made known to the dissolved corporation, or are based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution, and those claims may not be enforced against a shareholder who received assets in liquidation.

History: En. Sec. 191, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1409. Director duties. (1) Directors shall cause the dissolved corporation to discharge or make reasonable provision for the payment of claims and make distributions in liquidation of assets to shareholders after payment of or provision for claims.

(2) Directors of a dissolved corporation that has disposed of claims under 35-14-1406 through 35-14-1408 may not be liable for breach of subsection (1) with respect to claims against the dissolved corporation that are barred or satisfied under 35-14-1406 through 35-14-1408.

History: En. Sec. 192, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1410 through 35-14-1419 reserved.

35-14-1420. Grounds for administrative dissolution. The secretary of state may commence a proceeding under 35-14-1421 to dissolve a corporation administratively if:

(1) the corporation does not pay within 60 days after they are due any fees, interest, or penalties imposed by this chapter or other laws of this state;

(2) the corporation does not deliver its annual report to the secretary of state within 120 days after it is due;

(3) the corporation is without a registered agent or registered office in this state for 60 days or more;

(4) the secretary of state has not been notified within 60 days that the corporation's registered agent or registered office has been changed, that its registered agent has resigned, or that its registered office has been discontinued; or

(5) the corporation's period of duration stated in its articles of incorporation expires.

History: En. Sec. 193, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1421. Procedure for and effect of administrative dissolution. (1) On or before September 1 of each year, the secretary of state shall compile a list of corporations for which one or more grounds exist under 35-14-1420 for dissolving a corporation, and the secretary of state shall serve the corporation with written notice of the determination under 35-14-504.

(2) The notice must specify the grounds for the proposed dissolution and state that unless the grounds for dissolution have been rectified within 90 days following the delivery or publication of notice:

(a) the secretary of state will dissolve the corporation; and

(b) the corporations will forfeit its right to carry on business within the state.

(3) If the corporation does not correct each ground for dissolution or demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the secretary of state that each ground determined by the secretary of state does not exist within 90 days after service of the notice, the secretary of state shall administratively dissolve the corporation by signing a certificate of dissolution that recites the ground or grounds for dissolution and its effective date. The secretary of state shall file the original of the certificate and serve a copy on the corporation under 35-14-504.

(4) A corporation administratively dissolved continues its corporate existence but may not carry on any business except that necessary to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs under 35-14-1405 and notify claimants under 35-14-1406 and 35-14-1407.

(5) The administrative dissolution of a corporation does not terminate the authority of its registered agent.

History: En. Sec. 194, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1422. Reinstatement following administrative dissolution. (1) A corporation administratively dissolved under 35-14-1421 may apply to the secretary of state for reinstatement within 5 years after the effective date of dissolution. The application must:

(a) state the name of the corporation and the effective date of its administrative dissolution;

(b) state that the ground or grounds for dissolution either did not exist or have been eliminated; and

(c) state that the corporation's name satisfies the requirements of 35-14-401.

(2) The corporation shall submit with its application for reinstatement:

(a) a certificate from the department of revenue stating that all taxes imposed pursuant to Title 15 have been paid;

(b) a filing fee, which must be set and deposited by the secretary of state in accordance with 2-15-405; and

(c) all annual reports not yet filed with the secretary of state and related fees and penalties.

(3) If the secretary of state determines that the application contains the information, documents, and fees required by subsections (1) and (2) and that the information, documents, and fees are complete and correct, the secretary of state shall cancel the certificate of dissolution and prepare a certificate of reinstatement that recites the determination and the effective date of reinstatement, file the original of the certificate, and serve a copy on the corporation under 35-14-504.

(4) When the reinstatement is effective, it relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date of the administrative dissolution, and the corporation resumes carrying on its business as if the administrative dissolution had never occurred.

35-14-1423. Appeal from denial of reinstatement. (1) If the secretary of state denies a corporation's application for reinstatement following administrative dissolution, the secretary of state shall serve the corporation under 35-14-504 with a written notice that explains the reason or reasons for denial.

(2) The corporation may appeal the denial of reinstatement to the district court of the first judicial district within 30 days after service of the notice of denial is effected. The corporation appeals by petitioning the court to set aside the dissolution and attaching to the petition copies of the secretary of state's certificate of dissolution, the corporation's application for reinstatement, and the secretary of state's notice of denial.

(3) The court may summarily order the secretary of state to reinstate the dissolved corporation or may take other action the court considers appropriate.

(4) The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

History: En. Sec. 196, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1424 through 35-14-1429 reserved.

35-14-1430. Grounds for judicial dissolution. (1) The district court of the county where a corporation's principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, of the first judicial district may dissolve a corporation:

(a) in a proceeding by the attorney general if it is established that:

(i) the corporation obtained its articles of incorporation through fraud; or

(ii) the corporation has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon it by law;

(b) in a proceeding by a shareholder if it is established that:

(i) the directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs, the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, and irreparable injury to the corporation is threatened or being suffered or the business and affairs of the corporation can no longer be conducted to the advantage of the shareholders generally because of the deadlock;

(ii) the directors or those in control of the corporation have acted, are acting, or will act in a manner that is illegal, oppressive, or fraudulent;

(iii) the shareholders are deadlocked in voting power and have failed, for a period that includes at least two consecutive annual meeting dates, to elect successors to directors whose terms have expired; or

(iv) the corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted;

(c) in a proceeding by a creditor if it is established that:

(i) the creditor's claim has been reduced to judgment, the execution on the judgment returned unsatisfied, and the corporation is insolvent; or

(ii) the corporation has admitted in writing that the creditor's claim is due and owing and the corporation is insolvent;

(d) in a proceeding by the corporation to have its voluntary dissolution continued under court supervision; or

(e) in a proceeding by a shareholder if the corporation has abandoned its business and has failed within a reasonable time to liquidate and distribute its assets and dissolve.

(2) Subsection (1)(b) does not apply in the case of a corporation that, on the date of the filing of the proceeding, has a class or series of shares that is:

(a) a covered security under section 18(b)(1)(A) or (B) of the Securities Act of 1933; or

(b) not a covered security but is held by at least 300 shareholders and the shares outstanding have a market value of at least $20 million exclusive of the value of shares held by the corporation's subsidiaries, senior executives, directors and beneficial shareholders, and voting trust beneficial owners owning more than 10% of the shares.

(3) For the purposes of this section:

(a) the term "shareholder" in subsection (1) means a record shareholder, a beneficial shareholder, and an unrestricted voting trust beneficial owner; and

(b) the term "shareholder" in subsection (2) means a record shareholder, a beneficial shareholder, and a voting trust beneficial owner.

History: En. Sec. 197, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1431. Procedure for judicial dissolution. (1) Venue for a proceeding by the attorney general or any other party named in 35-14-1430(1) lies in the district court of the county in which the corporation's principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, of the first judicial district.

(2) It is not necessary to make shareholders parties to a proceeding to dissolve a corporation unless relief is sought against them individually.

(3) A court in a proceeding brought to dissolve a corporation may issue injunctions, appoint a receiver or custodian during the proceeding with all powers and duties the court directs, take other action required to preserve the corporate assets wherever located, and carry on the business of the corporation until a full hearing can be held.

(4) Within 10 days of the commencement of a proceeding to dissolve a corporation under 35-14-1430(1)(b), the corporation shall deliver to all shareholders, other than the petitioner, a notice stating that the shareholders are entitled to avoid the dissolution of the corporation by electing to purchase the petitioner's shares under 35-14-1434 and accompanied by a copy of 35-14-1434.

35-14-1432. Receivership or custodianship. (1) Unless an election to purchase has been filed under 35-14-1434, a court in a judicial proceeding brought to dissolve a corporation may appoint one or more receivers to wind up and liquidate, or one or more custodians to manage, the business and affairs of the corporation. The court shall hold a hearing, after notifying all parties to the proceeding and any interested persons designated by the court, before appointing a receiver or custodian. The court appointing a receiver or custodian has jurisdiction over the corporation and all of its property wherever located.

(2) The court may appoint an individual or a domestic or foreign corporation or eligible entity as a receiver or custodian, which, if a foreign corporation or foreign eligible entity, must be registered to do business in this state. The court may require the receiver or custodian to post bond, with or without sureties, in an amount the court directs.

(3) (a) The court shall describe the powers and duties of the receiver or custodian in its appointing order, which may be amended from time to time. Among other powers:

(i) the receiver:

(A) may dispose of all or any part of the assets of the corporation, wherever located, at a public or private sale; and

(B) may sue and defend in the receiver's own name as receiver of the corporation in all courts of this state;

(ii) the custodian may exercise all of the powers of the corporation, through or in place of its board of directors, to the extent necessary to manage the affairs of the corporation in the best interests of its shareholders and creditors.

(b) The receiver or custodian has other powers and duties as the court may provide in the appointing order, which may be amended from time to time.

(4) The court during a receivership may redesignate the receiver a custodian and during a custodianship may redesignate the custodian a receiver.

(5) The court from time to time during the receivership or custodianship may order compensation paid and expenses paid or reimbursed to the receiver or custodian from the assets of the corporation or proceeds from the sale of the assets.

History: En. Sec. 199, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1433. Decree of dissolution. (1) If after a hearing the court determines that one or more grounds for judicial dissolution described in 35-14-1430 exist, it may enter a decree dissolving the corporation and specifying the effective date of the dissolution, and the clerk of the court shall deliver a certified copy of the decree to the secretary of state for filing.

(2) After entering the decree of dissolution, the court shall direct the winding up and liquidation of the corporation's business and affairs in accordance with 35-14-1405 and the notification of claimants in accordance with 35-14-1406 and 35-14-1407.

35-14-1434. Election to purchase in lieu of dissolution. (1) Unless the transfer is altered, eliminated, or otherwise restricted by the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, or an agreement among shareholders or between the corporation and shareholders as referenced in 35-14-627, the corporation may elect or, if it fails to elect, one or more shareholders may elect to purchase all shares owned by the petitioning shareholder at the fair value of the shares as defined in 35-14-1301. An election pursuant to this section is irrevocable unless the court determines that it is equitable to set aside or modify the election.

(2) An election to purchase pursuant to this section may be filed with the court at any time within 90 days after the filing of a petition under 35-14-1430(1)(b) or at any later time as the court in its discretion may allow. If the election to purchase is filed by one or more shareholders, the corporation shall, within 10 days after the filing, give written notice to all shareholders other than the petitioner. The notice must state the name of and number of shares owned by the petitioner and the name of and number of shares owned by each electing shareholder and must advise the recipients of their right to join in the election to purchase shares in accordance with this section. Shareholders who wish to participate shall file notice of their intention to join in the purchase no later than 30 days after the effectiveness of the notice to them. All shareholders who have filed an election or notice of their intention to participate in the election to purchase become parties to the proceeding and shall participate in the purchase in proportion to their ownership of shares as of the date the first election was filed unless they otherwise agree or the court otherwise directs. After an election has been filed by the corporation or one or more shareholders, the proceeding under 35-14-1430(1)(b) may not be discontinued or settled, and the petitioning shareholder may not sell or otherwise dispose of shares, unless the court determines that it would be equitable to the corporation and the shareholders, other than the petitioner, to permit that discontinuance, settlement, sale, or other disposition.

(3) If, within 60 days of the filing of the first election, the parties reach agreement as to the fair value and terms of purchase of the petitioner's shares, the court shall enter an order directing the purchase of the petitioner's shares on the terms and conditions agreed to by the parties.

(4) If the parties are unable to reach an agreement as provided for in subsection (3), the court, upon application of any party, shall stay the proceedings under 35-14-1430(1)(b) and determine the fair value of the petitioner's shares as of the day before the date on which the petition under 35-14-1430(1)(b) was filed or another date the court finds appropriate under the circumstances.

(5) Upon determining the fair value of the shares, the court shall enter an order directing the purchase on terms and conditions the court finds appropriate, which may include payment of the purchase price in installments when necessary in the interests of equity, provision for security to ensure payment of the purchase price and any additional expenses awarded, and, if the shares are to be purchased by shareholders, the allocation of shares among them. In allocating the petitioner's shares among holders of different classes or series of shares, the court shall attempt to preserve the existing distribution of voting rights among holders of different classes or series as far as practicable and may direct that holders of a specific class or classes or series may not participate in the purchase. Interest may be allowed at the rate and from the date determined by the court to be equitable, but if the court finds that the refusal of the petitioning shareholder to accept an offer of payment was arbitrary or otherwise not in good faith, no interest may be allowed. If the court finds that the petitioning shareholder had probable grounds for relief under 35-14-1430(1)(b)(ii) or (1)(b)(iv), it may award expenses to the petitioning shareholder.

(6) Upon entry of an order under subsection (3) or (5), the court shall dismiss the petition to dissolve the corporation under 35-14-1430(1)(b), and the petitioning shareholder no longer has any rights or status as a shareholder of the corporation except the right to receive the amounts awarded by the order of the court, which is enforceable in the same manner as any other judgment.

(7) The purchase ordered pursuant to subsection (5) must be made within 10 days after the date the order becomes final.

(8) Any payment by the corporation pursuant to an order under subsection (3) or (5), other than an award of expenses pursuant to subsection (5), is subject to the provisions of 35-14-640.

History: En. Sec. 201, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1435 through 35-14-1439 reserved.

35-14-1440. Deposit with state treasurer. Assets of a dissolved corporation that should be transferred to a creditor, claimant, or shareholder of the corporation who cannot be found or who is not competent to receive them must be reduced to cash and deposited with the state treasurer or other appropriate state official for safekeeping. When the creditor, claimant, or shareholder furnishes satisfactory proof of entitlement to the amount deposited, the state treasurer or other appropriate state official shall pay the person or the person's representative that amount.

History: En. Sec. 202, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

Part 15
Foreign Corporations
(Effective June 1, 2020)

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: Section 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "[This act] is effective June 1, 2020."

Applicability: Section 275, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "A foreign corporation registered or authorized to do business in this state on the [effective date of sections 1 through 221] [June 1, 2020] is subject to [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter], is considered to be registered to do business in this state, and is not required to file a foreign registration statement under [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter]."

35-14-1501. Foreign corporations — governing law. (1) The law of the jurisdiction of formation of a foreign corporation governs:

(a) the internal affairs of the foreign corporation; and

(b) the interest holder liability of its shareholders.

(2) A foreign corporation is not precluded from registering to do business in this state because of any difference between the law of the foreign corporation's jurisdiction of formation and the law of this state.

(3) Registration of a foreign corporation to do business in this state does not permit the foreign corporation to engage in any business or affairs or exercise any power that a domestic corporation may not engage in or exercise in this state.

History: En. Sec. 203, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1502. Registration to do business in this state. (1) A foreign corporation may not do business in this state until it registers with the secretary of state under this part.

(2) A foreign corporation doing business in this state may not maintain a proceeding in any court of this state until it is registered to do business in this state.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4), the failure of a foreign corporation to register to do business in this state does not impair the validity of a contract or act of the foreign corporation or preclude it from defending a proceeding in this state.

(4) A contract between the state of Montana, an agency of the state, or a political subdivision of the state and a foreign corporation that has failed to register to do business as required under 35-14-1505(4) is voidable by the state, the contracting state agency, or the contracting political subdivision.

(5) A limitation on the liability of a shareholder or director of a foreign corporation is not waived solely because the foreign corporation does business in this state without registering.

(6) Section 35-14-1501(1) applies even if a foreign corporation fails to register under this part.

History: En. Sec. 204, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1503. Foreign registration statement. To register to do business in this state, a foreign corporation shall deliver a foreign registration statement to the secretary of state for filing. The registration statement must be signed by the foreign corporation and state:

(1) the corporate name of the foreign corporation and, if the name does not comply with 35-14-401, an alternate name as required by 35-14-1506;

(2) the foreign corporation's jurisdiction of formation;

(3) the street and mailing addresses of the foreign corporation's principal office and, if the law of the foreign corporation's jurisdiction of formation requires the foreign corporation to maintain an office in that jurisdiction, the street and mailing addresses of that office;

(4) the street and mailing addresses of the foreign corporation's registered office in this state and the name of its registered agent at that office;

(5) the names and business addresses of its directors and principal officers;

(6) a brief description of the nature of its business to be conducted in this state; and

(7) a statement that the foreign corporation has complied with the organizational laws in the jurisdiction in which it is organized and that the foreign corporation exists in that jurisdiction.

History: En. Sec. 205, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1504. Amendment of foreign registration statement. A registered foreign corporation shall sign and deliver to the secretary of state for filing an amendment to its foreign registration statement if there is a change in:

(1) its name or alternate name;

(2) its jurisdiction of formation unless its registration is determined to have been withdrawn under 35-14-1508 or transferred under 35-14-1510; or

(3) an address required by 35-14-1503(3).

History: En. Sec. 206, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1505. Activities not constituting doing business. (1) Activities of a foreign corporation that do not constitute doing business in this state for purposes of this part include:

(a) maintaining, defending, mediating, arbitrating, or settling a proceeding;

(b) carrying on any activity concerning the internal affairs of the foreign corporation, including holding meetings of its shareholders or board of directors;

(c) maintaining accounts in financial institutions;

(d) maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange, and registration of securities of the foreign corporation or maintaining trustees or depositories with respect to those securities;

(e) selling through independent contractors;

(f) soliciting or obtaining orders by any means if the orders require acceptance outside this state before they become contracts;

(g) creating or acquiring indebtedness, mortgages, or security interests in property;

(h) securing or collecting debts or enforcing mortgages or security interests in property securing the debts and holding, protecting, or maintaining property so acquired;

(i) owning real or personal property that is acquired incident to activities described in subsection (1)(h) if the property is disposed of within 5 years after the date of acquisition, does not produce income, or is not used in the performance of a corporate function;

(j) conducting an isolated transaction that is completed within 30 days and that is not in the course of repeated transactions of a similar nature; and

(k) doing business in interstate commerce.

(2) The list of activities in subsection (1) is not exhaustive.

(3) This section does not apply in determining the contacts or activities that may subject a foreign corporation to service of process, taxation, or regulation under the laws of this state other than this chapter.

(4) A foreign corporation is transacting business within the meaning of subsection (1) if it enters into a contract, including a contract entered into pursuant to Title 18, with the state of Montana, an agency of the state, or a political subdivision of the state and must register to do business under this part before entering into the contract. This subsection does not apply to contracts for goods fully prepared or services fully performed out of state for delivery or use in this state.

History: En. Sec. 207, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1506. Noncomplying name of foreign corporation. (1) A foreign corporation whose name does not comply with 35-14-401 may not register to do business in this state until it adopts, for the purpose of doing business in this state, an alternate name that complies with 35-14-401 by filing a foreign registration statement under 35-14-1503 or, if applicable, a transfer of registration statement under 35-14-1510 setting forth that alternate name. A foreign corporation adopting an alternate name as provided in this subsection need not file under Title 30, chapter 13, part 2, with respect to that alternate name. After registering to do business in this state with an alternate name, a foreign corporation shall do business in this state under:

(a) the alternate name;

(b) the foreign corporation's name, with the addition of its jurisdiction of formation; or

(c) a name the foreign corporation is authorized to use under Title 30, chapter 13, part 2.

(2) If a registered foreign corporation changes its name after registration to a name that does not comply with 35-14-401, it may not do business in this state until it complies with subsection (1) of this section by amending its registration statement to adopt an alternate name that complies with 35-14-401.

History: En. Sec. 208, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1507. Withdrawal of registration of registered foreign corporation. (1) A registered foreign corporation may withdraw its registration by delivering a statement of withdrawal to the secretary of state for filing. The statement of withdrawal must be signed by the foreign corporation and must state:

(a) the name of the foreign corporation and its jurisdiction of formation;

(b) that the foreign corporation is not doing business in this state and that it withdraws its registration to do business in this state;

(c) that the foreign corporation revokes the authority of its registered agent in this state;

(d) an address to which process on the foreign corporation may be sent by the secretary of state under 35-14-504(3);

(e) that all taxes imposed on the corporation under Title 15 have been paid, supported by a certificate by the department of revenue to be attached to the application to the effect that the department is satisfied from the available evidence that all taxes imposed have been paid. The issuance of the certificate does not relieve the corporation from liability for any taxes, penalties, or interest due the state of Montana.

(f) additional information that may be necessary or appropriate to enable the secretary of state to determine and assess any unpaid fees or taxes payable by the foreign corporation.

(2) After the withdrawal of the registration of a foreign corporation, service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action arising during the time the entity was registered to do business in this state may be made as provided in 35-14-504.

History: En. Sec. 209, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1508. Withdrawal upon domestication or conversion to certain domestic entities. A registered foreign corporation that domesticates to a domestic business corporation or converts to a domestic nonprofit corporation or any type of domestic filing entity or to a domestic limited liability partnership is considered to have withdrawn its registration on the effective date of that event.

History: En. Sec. 210, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1509. Withdrawal upon dissolution or conversion to nonfiling entities. (1) A registered foreign corporation that has dissolved and completed winding up or has converted to a domestic or foreign nonfiling entity other than a limited liability partnership shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing a statement of withdrawal. The statement must be signed by the dissolved corporation or the converted domestic or foreign nonfiling entity and must state:

(a) in the case of a foreign corporation that has completed winding up:

(i) its name and jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) that the foreign corporation withdraws its registration to do business in this state and revokes the authority of its registered agent to accept service on its behalf;

(iii) an address to which process on the foreign corporation may be sent by the secretary of state under 35-14-504(3);

(iv) that all taxes imposed on the corporation under Title 15 have been paid, supported by a certificate by the department of revenue to be attached to the application to the effect that the department is satisfied from the available evidence that all taxes imposed have been paid. The issuance of the certificate does not relieve the corporation from liability for any taxes, penalties, or interest due the state of Montana.

(v) additional information that may be necessary or appropriate to enable the secretary of state to determine and assess any unpaid fees or taxes payable by the foreign corporation; or

(b) in the case of a foreign corporation that has converted to a domestic or foreign nonfiling entity other than a limited liability partnership:

(i) the name of the converting foreign corporation and its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) the type of the nonfiling entity to which it has converted and its name and jurisdiction of formation;

(iii) that it withdraws its registration to do business in this state and revokes the authority of its registered agent to accept service on its behalf;

(iv) an address to which process on the foreign corporation may be sent by the secretary of state under 35-14-504(3);

(v) that all taxes imposed on the corporation under Title 15 have been paid, supported by a certificate by the department of revenue to be attached to the application to the effect that the department is satisfied from the available evidence that all taxes have been paid. The issuance of the certificate does not relieve the corporation from liability for any taxes, penalties, or interest due the state of Montana.

(vi) additional information that may be necessary or appropriate to enable the secretary of state to determine and assess any unpaid fees or taxes payable by the foreign corporation.

(2) After the withdrawal of the registration of a foreign corporation, service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action arising during the time the entity was registered to do business in this state may be made as provided in 35-14-504.

History: En. Sec. 211, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1510. Transfer of registration. (1) If a registered foreign corporation merges into a nonregistered foreign corporation or converts to a foreign corporation required to register with the secretary of state to do business in this state, the foreign corporation shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing a transfer of registration statement. The transfer of registration statement must be signed by the surviving or converted foreign corporation and must state:

(a) the name of the registered foreign corporation and its jurisdiction of formation before the merger or conversion;

(b) the name of the surviving or converted foreign corporation and its jurisdiction of formation after the merger or conversion and, if the name does not comply with 35-14-401, an alternate name adopted pursuant to 35-14-1506; and

(c) the following information regarding the surviving or converted foreign corporation after the merger or conversion:

(i) the street and mailing addresses of the principal office of the foreign corporation and, if the law of the foreign corporation's jurisdiction of formation requires it to maintain an office in that jurisdiction, the street and mailing addresses of that office; and

(ii) the street and mailing addresses of the foreign corporation's registered office in this state and the name of its registered agent at that office.

(2) On the effective date of a transfer of registration statement as determined in accordance with 35-14-123, the registration of the registered foreign corporation to do business in this state is transferred without interruption to the foreign corporation into which it has merged or to which it has been converted.

History: En. Sec. 212, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1511. Administrative termination of registration. (1) The secretary of state may terminate the registration of a registered foreign corporation in the manner provided in subsections (2) and (3) if:

(a) the foreign corporation does not pay within 60 days after they are due any fees, taxes, interest, or penalties imposed by this chapter or other laws of this state;

(b) the foreign corporation does not deliver its annual report to the secretary of state within 120 days after it is due;

(c) the foreign corporation is without a registered agent or registered office in this state for 60 days or more; or

(d) the secretary of state has not been notified within 60 days that the foreign corporation's registered agent or registered office has been changed, that its registered agent has resigned, or that its registered office has been discontinued.

(2) On or before September 1 of each year, the secretary of state shall compile a list of registered foreign corporations for which one or more grounds exist under subsection (1) for terminating its registration and shall serve the registered foreign corporation with written notice of the determination under 35-14-504.

(3) If the registered foreign corporation does not correct each ground for termination or demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the secretary of state that each ground for termination determined by the secretary of state does not exist within 60 days after the notice is delivered, the secretary of state may terminate the registration of a registered foreign corporation by issuing a certificate of termination. The certificate of termination must state the effective date of the termination, which must be not less than 60 days after the secretary of state delivers the notice as prescribed in subsection (2)(b).

(4) The registration of a registered foreign corporation to do business in this state ceases on the effective date of the termination as set forth in the certificate of termination.

(5) After the effective date of the termination as set forth in the certificate of termination, service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action arising during the time the entity was registered to do business in this state may be made as provided in 35-14-504.

History: En. Sec. 213, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1512. Action by attorney general. The attorney general may maintain an action to enjoin a foreign corporation from doing business in this state in violation of this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 214, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

Part 16
Records and Reports
(Effective June 1, 2020)

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: Section 274, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "[This act] is effective June 1, 2020."

Applicability: Section 275, Ch. 271, L. 2019, provided: "A foreign corporation registered or authorized to do business in this state on the [effective date of sections 1 through 221] [June 1, 2020] is subject to [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter], is considered to be registered to do business in this state, and is not required to file a foreign registration statement under [sections 1 through 221] [this chapter]."

35-14-1601. Corporate records. (1) A corporation shall maintain the following records:

(a) its articles of incorporation as currently in effect;

(b) any notices to shareholders referred to in 35-14-120(11)(e) specifying facts on which a filed document is dependent if those facts are not included in the articles of incorporation or otherwise available as specified in 35-14-120(11)(e);

(c) its bylaws as currently in effect;

(d) all written communications within the past 3 years to shareholders generally;

(e) minutes of all meetings of and records of all actions taken without a meeting by its shareholders, its board of directors, and board committees established under 35-14-825;

(f) a list of the names and business addresses of its current directors and officers; and

(g) its most recent annual report delivered to the secretary of state under 35-14-1621.

(2) A corporation shall maintain all annual financial statements prepared for the corporation for its last 3 fiscal years or any shorter period of existence and any audit or other reports with respect to those financial statements.

(3) A corporation shall maintain accounting records in a form that permits preparation of its financial statements.

(4) A corporation shall maintain a record of its current shareholders in alphabetical order by class or series of shares showing the address of and the number and class or series of shares held by each shareholder. Nothing in this subsection requires the corporation to include in the record the electronic mail address or other electronic contact information of a shareholder.

(5) A corporation shall maintain the records specified in this section in a manner that allows them to be made available for inspection within a reasonable time.

35-14-1602. Inspection rights of shareholders. (1) A shareholder of a corporation is entitled to inspect and copy, during regular business hours at the corporation's principal office, any of the records of the corporation described in 35-14-1601(1), excluding minutes of meetings of and records of actions taken without a meeting by the corporation's board of directors and board committees established under 35-14-825, if the shareholder gives the corporation a signed written notice of the shareholder's demand at least 5 business days before the date on which the shareholder wishes to inspect and copy.

(2) A shareholder of a corporation is entitled to inspect and copy, during regular business hours at a reasonable location specified by the corporation, any of the following records of the corporation if the shareholder meets the requirements of subsection (3) and gives the corporation a signed written notice of the shareholder's demand at least 5 business days before the date on which the shareholder wishes to inspect and copy:

(a) the financial statements of the corporation maintained in accordance with 35-14-1601(2);

(b) accounting records of the corporation;

(c) excerpts from minutes of any meeting of or records of any actions taken without a meeting by the corporation's board of directors and board committees maintained in accordance with 35-14-1601(1); and

(d) the record of shareholders maintained in accordance with 35-14-1601(4).

(3) A shareholder may inspect and copy the records described in subsection (2) only if:

(a) the shareholder's demand is made in good faith and for a proper purpose;

(b) the shareholder's demand describes with reasonable particularity the shareholder's purpose and the records the shareholder desires to inspect; and

(c) the records are directly connected with the shareholder's purpose.

(4) The corporation may impose reasonable restrictions on the confidentiality, use, or distribution of records described in subsection (2).

(5) For any meeting of shareholders for which the record date for determining shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting is different from the record date for notice of the meeting, any person who becomes a shareholder subsequent to the record date for notice of the meeting and is entitled to vote at the meeting is entitled to obtain from the corporation upon request the notice and any other information provided by the corporation to shareholders in connection with the meeting unless the corporation has made the information generally available to shareholders by posting it on its website or by other generally recognized means. Failure of a corporation to provide this information does not affect the validity of action taken at the meeting.

(6) The right of inspection granted by this section may not be abolished or limited by a corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws.

(7) This section does not affect:

(a) the right of a shareholder to inspect records under 35-14-720 or, if the shareholder is in litigation with the corporation, to the same extent as any other litigant; or

(b) the power of a court, independently of this chapter, to compel the production of corporate records for examination and to impose reasonable restrictions as provided in 35-14-1604(3) if, in the case of production of records described in subsection (2) of this section at the request of a shareholder, the shareholder has met the requirements of subsection (3) of this section.

(8) For purposes of this section, "shareholder" means a record shareholder, a beneficial shareholder, and an unrestricted voting trust beneficial owner.

35-14-1603. Scope of inspection right. (1) A shareholder may appoint an agent or attorney to exercise the shareholder's inspection and copying rights under 35-14-1602.

(2) The corporation may, if reasonable, satisfy the right of a shareholder to inspect and copy records under 35-14-1602 by furnishing to the shareholder copies by photocopy or other means chosen by the corporation, including furnishing copies through an electronic transmission.

(3) The corporation may comply at its expense with a shareholder's demand to inspect the record of shareholders under 35-14-1602(2)(d) by providing the shareholder with a list of shareholders that was compiled no earlier than the date of the shareholder's demand.

(4) The corporation may impose a reasonable charge to cover the costs of providing copies of documents to the shareholder, which may be based on an estimate of those costs.

35-14-1604. Court-ordered inspection. (1) If a corporation does not allow a shareholder who complies with 35-14-1602(1) to inspect and copy any records required by that section to be available for inspection, the district court of the county where the corporation's principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, of the first judicial district may summarily order inspection and copying of the records demanded at the corporation's expense upon application of the shareholder.

(2) If a corporation does not within a reasonable time allow a shareholder who complies with 35-14-1602(2) to inspect and copy the records required by that section, the shareholder, if the shareholder also complies with 35-14-1602(3), may apply to the district court of the county where the corporation's principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, of the first judicial district for an order to permit inspection and copying of the records demanded. The court shall dispose of an application under this subsection on an expedited basis.

(3) If the court orders inspection and copying of the records demanded under 35-14-1602(2), it may impose reasonable restrictions on their confidentiality, use, or distribution by the demanding shareholder, and it shall also order the corporation to pay the shareholder's expenses incurred to obtain the order unless the corporation establishes that it refused inspection in good faith because the corporation had:

(a) a reasonable basis for doubt about the right of the shareholder to inspect the records demanded; or

(b) required reasonable restrictions on the confidentiality, use, or distribution of the records demanded to which the demanding shareholder had been unwilling to agree.

History: En. Sec. 218, Ch. 271, L. 2019.

35-14-1605. Inspection rights of directors. (1) A director of a corporation is entitled to inspect and copy the books, records, and documents of the corporation at any reasonable time to the extent reasonably related to the performance of the director's duties as a director, including duties as a member of a board committee, but not for any other purpose or in any manner that would violate any duty to the corporation.

(2) The district court of the county where the corporation's principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, of the first judicial district may order inspection and copying of the books, records, and documents at the corporation's expense upon application of a director who has been refused inspection rights unless the corporation establishes that the director is not entitled to those inspection rights. The court shall dispose of an application under this subsection on an expedited basis.

(3) If an order is issued, the court may include provisions protecting the corporation from undue burden or expense and prohibiting the director from using information obtained by exercise of the inspection rights in a manner that would violate a duty to the corporation and may also order the corporation to reimburse the director for the director's expenses incurred in connection with the application.

35-14-1606 through 35-14-1619 reserved.

35-14-1620. Financial statements for shareholders. (1) Upon the written request of a shareholder, a corporation shall deliver or make available to the requesting shareholder by posting on its website or by other generally recognized means annual financial statements for the most recent fiscal year of the corporation for which annual financial statements have been prepared. If financial statements have been prepared for the corporation on the basis of generally accepted accounting principles for the specified period, the corporation shall deliver or make available those financial statements to the requesting shareholder. If the annual financial statements to be delivered or made available to the requesting shareholder are audited or otherwise reported on by a public accountant, the report must also be delivered or made available to the requesting shareholder.

(2) A corporation shall deliver or make available and provide written notice of availability of the financial statements required under subsection (1) to the requesting shareholder within 5 business days of delivery of a written request to the corporation.

(3) A corporation may fulfill its responsibilities under this section by delivering the specified financial statements or otherwise making them available in any manner permitted by the applicable rules and regulations of the United States securities and exchange commission.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) through (3):

(a) as a condition to delivering or making available financial statements to a requesting shareholder, the corporation may require the requesting shareholder to agree to reasonable restrictions on the confidentiality, use, and distribution of the financial statements; and

(b) the corporation may, if it reasonably determines that the shareholder's request is not made in good faith or for a proper purpose, decline to deliver or make available financial statements to that shareholder.

(5) If a corporation does not respond to a shareholder's request for annual financial statements pursuant to this section in accordance with subsection (2) within 5 business days of delivery of the request to the corporation:

(a) The requesting shareholder may apply to the district court of the county where the corporation's principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, of the first judicial district for an order requiring delivery of or access to the requested financial statements. The court shall dispose of an application under this subsection on an expedited basis.

(b) If the court orders delivery of or access to the requested financial statements, it may impose reasonable restrictions on their confidentiality, use, or distribution.

(c) In a proceeding under this section, if the corporation has declined to deliver or make available financial statements because the shareholder had been unwilling to agree to restrictions proposed by the corporation on the confidentiality, use, and distribution of the financial statements, the corporation has the burden of demonstrating that the restrictions proposed by the corporation were reasonable.

(d) In a proceeding under this section, if the corporation has declined to deliver or make available financial statements pursuant to subsection (4)(b), the corporation has the burden of demonstrating that it had reasonably determined that the shareholder's request was not made in good faith or for a proper purpose.

(e) If the court orders delivery of or access to the requested financial statements, it shall order the corporation to pay the shareholder's expenses incurred to obtain the order unless the corporation establishes that it had refused delivery or access to the requested financial statements because the shareholder had refused to agree to reasonable restrictions on the confidentiality, use, or distribution of the financial statements or that the corporation had reasonably determined that the shareholder's request was not made in good faith or for a proper purpose.

35-14-1621. Annual report for secretary of state. (1) Each domestic corporation shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing an annual report that sets forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the street and mailing address of its registered office and the name of its registered agent at that office in this state;

(c) the street and mailing address of its principal office;

(d) the names and business addresses of its directors and principal officers;

(e) a brief description of the nature of its business;

(f) the total number of authorized shares, itemized by class and series, if any, within each class; and

(g) the total number of issued and outstanding shares, itemized by class and series, if any, within each class.

(2) Each foreign corporation registered to do business in this state shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing an annual report that sets forth:

(a) the name of the foreign corporation and, if the name does not comply with 35-14-401, an alternate name as required by 35-14-1506;

(b) the foreign corporation's jurisdiction of formation;

(c) the street and mailing addresses of the foreign corporation's principal office and, if the law of the foreign corporation's jurisdiction of formation requires the foreign corporation to maintain an office in that jurisdiction, the street and mailing addresses of that office;

(d) the street and mailing addresses of the foreign corporation's registered office in this state and the name of its registered agent at that office;

(e) the names and business addresses of its directors and principal officers; and

(f) a brief description of the nature of its business conducted in this state.

(3) Information in the annual report must be current as of the date the annual report is signed on behalf of the corporation.

(4) The first annual report must be delivered to the secretary of state between January 1 and April 15 of the year following the calendar year in which a domestic corporation was incorporated or a foreign corporation was registered to do business. Subsequent annual reports must be delivered to the secretary of state between January 1 and April 15 of subsequent years.

(5) If an annual report does not contain the information required by this section, the secretary of state shall promptly notify the reporting domestic or foreign corporation in writing. The corrected report must be filed by April 15 to be considered timely filed.

35-15-103. Powers. (1) Associations formed under this chapter are bodies corporate and politic for the period for which they are organized, which may be of perpetual duration.

(2) An association formed under this chapter may:

(a) sue and be sued;

(b) have a common seal that the association may alter or renew at pleasure;

(c) own, possess, and enjoy real and personal property necessary for the transaction of business and sell and dispose of the property; and

(d) borrow money and pledge property, both real and personal, to secure the payment of any borrowed money.

(3) Associations formed under this chapter have all powers necessary to carry into effect the objects for which the associations may be formed, including those powers usually exercised by cooperative associations, subject to all duties, restrictions, and liabilities set forth in the general laws relating to similar corporations that are not limited or enlarged by this chapter.

35-15-302. Stockholders' meetings — place — time — call — notice — quorum. (1) Unless the bylaws provide otherwise, stockholders' meetings shall be held at the principal office or such other place as the board may determine.

(2) An annual stockholders' meeting shall be held at the time fixed in or pursuant to the bylaws. In the absence of a bylaw provision, such meeting shall be held within 6 months after the close of the fiscal year at the call of the president or board.

(3) Special stockholders' meetings may be called by the president, board, or stockholders having one-fifth of the votes entitled to be cast at such meeting.

(4) Written notice stating the place, day, and hour, and in case of a special stockholders' meeting the purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than 7 or more than 30 days before the meeting at the direction of the person calling the meeting.

(5) At any meeting at which stockholders are to be represented by delegates, notice to such stockholders may be given by notifying such delegates and their alternates. Notice may consist of a notice to all stockholders or may be in the form of an announcement at the meeting at which such delegates or alternates are elected.

(6) A quorum at a regular or special meeting shall be as provided in the association's articles or bylaws. If the articles or bylaws do not define a quorum, 10% of the first 100 stockholders plus 5% of any additional stockholders present in person shall constitute a quorum. Stockholders represented by signed vote may be counted in computing a quorum only on those questions as to which the signed vote is taken.

35-15-401. Classes of stock. (1) The purchase price of the shares of stock must be set by the cooperative association and may be made payable in installments.

(2) A cooperative association may divide its shares of stock into preferred and common stock. The holders of preferred stock may not have voting power and may not participate in the management and affairs of the association. The owners of preferred stock shall share in the profits of the association to the extent determined by the cooperative association. The common stock may be divided into classes of different values, and the owners of the common stock shall share in the profits of the association as determined by the cooperative association. However, the owners of common stock in the different classes have the same power and voting rights in the association.

35-15-403. Assignment of stock. An assignment of stock may not be made to any person who already owns stock, except by the consent of the board of directors, but stock may be assigned to the association at any time with the consent of the directors. On a question a stockholder may not have more than one vote. Every assignment of stock on which there remains any portion unpaid must be recorded in the books of the association, and each stockholder is jointly and severally liable with the association for the debts of the association to the extent of the amount that is unpaid upon the share held by the stockholder. An assignor may not be released from the indebtedness by reason of any assignment of the assignor's share but remains jointly liable with the assignee.

Merger, Consolidation, and Sale of Assets

35-15-501. Merger or consolidation authorized. It shall be lawful for two or more cooperative associations formed or which may be hereafter formed under the laws of the state of Montana to merge or consolidate with each other or with one or more associations incorporated under the laws of another state or states relating to organization of cooperative associations by complying with the provisions of this chapter or with the applicable laws of the state where the surviving or new association has its principal place of business.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 140, L. 1917; re-en. Sec. 6390, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6390, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 342, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 14-216(part).

35-15-502. Plan for merger or consolidation. Before an association may merge or consolidate with any other association, a written plan of merger or consolidation shall be prepared by the board of directors of one or both associations, by a committee appointed for that purpose by the board of directors of one or both associations, or by a committee composed of at least 10% of the stockholders of one of the associations concerned. Such plan shall set forth all the terms of the merger or consolidation and the proposed effect thereof on each of the stockholders of the associations concerned. In the case of consolidation, the plan shall also contain a copy of the proposed articles for the new association to be formed.

35-15-503. Meeting to consider plan — notice. (1) Notice of the proposed plan and, in the case of consolidation, of the proposed new articles shall be mailed to each stockholder of the associations to be affected thereby.

(2) The notice shall advise the stockholders of each association of the time and place each association shall meet, at which time the proposal shall be considered and voted upon by each association. The meetings shall be held not less than 30 or more than 60 days after the mailing of notice. The plan shall be considered adopted if a quorum is present and two-thirds of those voting vote in its favor.

35-15-504. Filing of documents of merger or consolidation — effective date. (1) Within 30 days after the merger or consolidation plan has been adopted, documents of merger or consolidation setting forth the plan and the manner of adoption thereof shall be signed by the president or vice-president and by the secretary or assistant secretary of each association merging or consolidating and filed with the clerk and recorder of the county in which the principal office of the new or surviving association is located if the office is in Montana and with the Montana secretary of state.

(2) If the new or surviving association has its principal office in Montana, the merger or consolidation shall become effective as of the date of filing with the Montana secretary of state. If its principal office is outside the state of Montana, the merger or consolidation shall become effective upon full compliance with the laws of the state in which its principal office is located. If there is a merger, the articles and bylaws of the surviving association are amended to the extent provided in the documents setting forth the plan of merger.

35-15-505. Effect of merger or consolidation — rights and obligations — rights of creditors not impaired. (1) After the effective date, the associations that are parties to the plan become a single association. In the case of a merger, the surviving association is that association designated in the plan. In the case of a consolidation, the new association is the association provided for in the plan. The separate existence of all associations that are parties to the plan, except the surviving or new association, then ceases.

(2) The surviving or new association possesses all the rights and all the property of each of the individual associations and is responsible for all their obligations. Title to any property is vested in the surviving or new association with no reversion or impairment of the title caused by the merger or consolidation. The right of any creditor may not be impaired by the merger or consolidation without the creditor's consent.

(3) This part may not be construed to impair the obligation of any contract to which any of the constituents was a party at the date of consolidation.

History: (1), (2)En. Sec. 1, Ch. 140, L. 1917; re-en. Sec. 6390, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6390, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 342, L. 1973; Sec. 14-216, R.C.M. 1947; (3)En. 35-15-506. Sale or disposition of assets. At any meeting the stockholders of a cooperative association may authorize the disposition or sale of all or substantially all of the association's assets if notice that such disposition or sale will be considered at such meeting has been given to all persons entitled to vote thereon and if disposition or sale is approved by two-thirds of those entitled to vote thereon voting at the meeting.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 140, L. 1917; re-en. Sec. 6390, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6390, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 342, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 14-216(5).

Upon the filing of such petition, the clerk of the district court wherein the same shall be filed shall set the same for hearing before said court at a time not less than 10 or more than 20 days from the date of filing such petition and shall cause notice of such setting to be mailed or delivered to each of the persons purporting to be signers thereon not less than 10 days before such hearing and post it in three public places in said county.

History: En. Sec. 3, Art. 1, Ch. 152, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6399, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6399, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-303.

35-16-204. Hearing of petition — findings of court — issuance of certificate of incorporation — effect of issuance. (1) At the time specified in the notice of hearing, a district judge of the state of Montana shall in open court hear said petition and the evidence offered in support thereof and determine whether or not the requirements of this chapter have been complied with. If upon such hearing or adjournments thereof as the court may order, the court does find that the petition substantially complies with the requirements of this chapter and is true in all particulars, the court shall so find and in open court shall enter upon its minutes and upon said petition or attach thereto its findings and order to the effect that said petition complies with the requirements of this chapter and is true and correct in all particulars as therein set forth and its statements are supported by proper proof and that such corporation or district is entitled to be created and become a body corporate.

(2) A duly certified copy of which petition, with the court's order or any endorsements thereon, shall be filed with the secretary of state of the state of Montana who shall upon such filing issue a certificate of incorporation under the seal of the state of Montana. Duly certified copies of the petition, with the court's order or endorsements thereon, shall also be filed with the county clerk and recorder of each county in which said corporation or district shall thereafter own or hold property or have property-holding memberships.

(3) Upon the issuance of such certificate, every corporation or district organized hereunder is a quasi-public corporation for the promotion of public welfare, with all of the powers and authority of bodies corporate under the corporation laws of the state of Montana.

History: En. Sec. 4, Art. 1, Ch. 152, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6400, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6400, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-304.

35-16-206. Bylaws to be adopted at first meeting. Every corporation or district formed under this chapter must, by majority action at its organization meeting after incorporation, adopt a code of bylaws for its government, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state.

History: En. Sec. 1, Art. 2, Ch. 152, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6406, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6406, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-310.

35-16-207. Bylaws — contents. The bylaws, where no other provision is specially made, may provide for:

(1) the time, place, and manner of calling and conducting meetings of stockholders or members;

(2) the number of stockholders or members or quantity of units of membership in acres, lands, or production, as shall constitute a quorum;

(3) the mode of voting at stockholder's meetings and the method of voting by proxy, provided that the same shall not be inconsistent with any of the provisions hereof or the laws of this state;

(4) the number of directors of the corporation or district and the time of the annual election of directors and the mode and manner of giving notice thereof;

(5) the officers, the manner of their election, their duties, and tenure;

(6) the directors having the power to sell, lease, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise dispose of the corporate assets of the corporation or district or any part thereof, as distinguished from membership lands;

(7) the manner of creating subdivisions or subdistricts, by geographical location or otherwise, for local groups or subdivisions of the corporation or district, as may promote the objects of the corporation or district generally or the welfare of the membership in the particular subdivision or subdistrict; and may provide for local boards of directors or executive committees representing the board of directors to manage the affairs of the subdivision or subdistrict thus created, subject to the direction and approval of the board of directors of the corporation or district.

History: En. Sec. 2, Art. 2, Ch. 152, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6407, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6407, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-311.

35-16-208. Bylaws — recording and amendment. (1) The bylaws and all amendments and additions thereto shall be recorded.

(2) The bylaws may be repealed or amended or new bylaws may be adopted at the annual meeting or at any other meeting of the members called for that purpose by the directors, by a vote representing two-thirds of the stock or other evidences of membership or by two-thirds of the members. The written assent of the holders of two-thirds of the stock or other evidences of membership or of two-thirds of the members is effective to repeal or amend a bylaw or to adopt additional bylaws. The power to repeal and amend the bylaws and to adopt new bylaws may, by a similar vote at any such meeting or by similar written assent, be delegated to the board of directors or trustees. That power, when delegated, may be revoked by a similar vote at any such meeting of the members.

35-16-210. Existing associations — reorganization under chapter. (1) Any cooperative or other corporation, association, society, or group of individuals on or before March 5, 1921, associated together for purposes and objects similar to those contemplated by the provisions of this chapter desiring to come within the provisions of this chapter may, by resolution of their board of directors, direct written notice to be given to each stockholder or member of their corporation or group of individuals of the proposal to organize a corporation or district under the provisions of this chapter and request 10 or more of their members qualified as provided in this chapter to prepare and file, in the county that they select to make their principal place of business, a petition in accordance with the provisions of 35-16-202. If after petitioning not less than two-thirds of the stockholders or members of the cooperative or other corporation, association, society, or group of individuals either file with the corporation or district their written consent to the reorganization or petition to become members, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, or both, the board of directors or other governing board of the existing cooperative or other corporation, association, society, or group of individuals must be authorized to, through proper officers, transfer to the new corporation or district, when organized, their corporate assets, real, personal, and mixed.

(2) Any stockholder or member of any cooperative or other corporation or society reorganized under the provisions of this section, consenting to the reorganization but not including lands in the reorganized corporation or district, is entitled to a certificate or shares of stock or other evidence of membership in the reorganized corporation or district of the par value equal to the value of the stockholder's or member's certificate or shares of stock or membership right in the previous existing cooperative or other corporation or society's assets at the time of the reorganization and is to this extent a stockholder or member. However, any stockholder or member of the corporation or group of individuals that are reorganizing may not be considered as increasing the stock of the new corporation so as to require consent of a majority of its members or stockholders to their admission.

History: En. Sec. 8, Art. 3, Ch. 152, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6421, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6421, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-325; amd. Sec. 1323, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-16-212. Association operating two or more enterprises in different parts of state — control by delegates. (1) An agricultural association or company, either cooperative stock or nonprofit nonstock, existing on July 1, 1921, or organized under the laws of Montana after that date may own and operate two or more cooperative enterprises in different parts of the state and may exercise and possess the following powers by providing in their articles of incorporation or in their bylaws that:

(a) all powers of the association members or stockholders must be exercised by duly elected delegates at any meeting of delegates that may be called. They shall elect officers and transact business in the same manner that the association members or stockholders are empowered to do. The officers and board of directors that the delegates may elect must be known as "general officers" or "general board of directors".

(b) stockholders or members of the cooperative stock or nonprofit nonstock agricultural associations or companies must be grouped into locals in the districts that the general board of directors may from time to time direct;

(c) each local, with territorial limits as determined by the general board of directors, shall elect from among its stockholders or members one delegate and one alternate to represent the local at any meeting of the association or company. The delegate and alternate shall serve for 1 year. The alternate shall serve as delegate at all meetings where the delegate may not be in attendance.

(d) each delegate may have only one vote, regardless of the number of stockholders or members that the delegate represents.

(2) Nothing in this section limits the powers of the board of directors of any corporation.

(1) Whenever any corporation or district has been formed under the provisions of this chapter, it is authorized and directed to permit other holders of title or evidence of title of similar or like agricultural, horticultural, or farm land within this state to become members, upon the holder of title or evidence of title, in manner and form that may be required by the laws of Montana and the rules of the corporation or district or its bylaws, applying for membership to the officers of the corporation or district by written application, duly acknowledged:

(a) containing a full, true, and correct description of the land owned by the applicant and proposed to be contained in the corporation or district;

(b) containing a statement of the applicant’s desire to become a member and the applicant’s consent to submit the applicant’s land to the provisions of this chapter and to the administration of the corporation or district and its bylaws and to its objects and purposes; and

(c) accompanied by a map of the land owned by the applicant and proposed to be submitted to the corporation or district, its objects and purposes.

(2) If the application is in proper form and the applicant is the holder of title or evidence of title to the land described and the uses of the land as represented in the petition are similar to the uses of land already included in the corporation or district, a full, true, and correct copy of the application must be made and filed in the office of principal place of business of the corporation or district and the original application must be filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk and recorder of the county in which the land or the greater portion of the land is located. Upon filing, the applicant is entitled to evidence of temporary membership, in shares or units of membership, in a similar manner as the original members and the land described in the petition must be construed to be a part of the corporation or district to all intents and purposes as though originally incorporated in the corporation or district. Upon the consent of a majority of the members or stockholders given in the annual meeting or at a special meeting called as provided by law for that purpose, the new member or stockholder is entitled to full membership in the corporation or district.

35-16-303. Withdrawal of membership land — procedure. (1) A person who holds title or evidence of title to membership land included in a corporation or district organized under the provisions of this chapter and who desires to withdraw the person's land from the corporation or district may do so upon:

(a) presenting to the board of directors a verified petition stating that the person is the holder of title or evidence of title to membership land included in the corporation or district, particularly describing the land with a map or plat, that the person wishes to withdraw from the corporation or district; and

(b) tendering to the board the pro rata amount of liability of the person's land for all of the corporation's lawfully created and existing lien liabilities together with the person's pro rata amount of interest due and to become due upon any liabilities up to the maturity of the liabilities.

(2) If the matters and things set forth in the petition are true and the petitioner deposits with the board the petitioner's pro rata amount of the liabilities or furnishes a receipt for the amount from the mortgage holders or lienholders holding liens against the land, the proper officers of the corporation or district shall make, execute, acknowledge, and deliver a release of the land from the corporation or district and its liabilities.

(3) Upon presentation of the release to the mortgage holder or lienholder claiming a right against the membership land, the mortgage holder or lienholder shall furnish a release, which may be filed and recorded in any county or counties in which the land is located.

(4) The board of directors and corporate assets of the corporation must be responsible to any mortgage holder or lienholder and to the person withdrawing the land for the payment of funds on the debt or liability.

35-16-311. Meetings — voting — proxies. At the organization meeting or any meeting of the stockholders or members of a corporation or district organized under the provisions of this chapter, each member and each unit of membership in acres, production, or other evidence of membership is entitled to vote in person or by proxy. Corporate action at a meeting must be determined by a majority of the membership and a majority of the acres, production, or units of membership, as may have been adopted. Any group of members of a subdivision or subdistrict of the corporation or district as may be defined and designated by the board of directors or the bylaws shall, at a subdivision or subdistrict meeting called for the purpose, elect a delegate or proxy to represent all of the membership in the subdivision or subdistrict at any organization meeting or meeting of the stockholders or members. If any subdivision or subdistrict fails to elect a delegate, any individual member may give a proxy. However, a person who is not a member of the corporation or district and a resident agricultural or horticultural freeholder in the state of Montana for at least 3 years immediately preceding the meeting is not entitled to act as proxy.

History: En. Sec. 8, Art. 2, Ch. 152, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6413, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6413, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-317; amd. Sec. 1329, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-16-312. Directors — election — term. Directors must be elected at the annual meeting and may hold office for the term and in the manner as specified in the bylaws.

History: En. Sec. 6, Art. 2, Ch. 152, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6411, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6411, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-315.

35-16-313. Elections — how conducted — voting. All elections must be by ballot and every stockholder or member or holder of a unit of membership in acres, production, or other evidence of membership shall have the right to vote in person or by a proxy in conformity with the provisions hereof, the constitution and laws of this state, and the bylaws of the corporation or district.

History: En. Sec. 7, Art. 2, Ch. 152, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6412, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6412, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-316.

35-16-314. Qualifications of directors — quorum — vacancies. (1) A person is not eligible to be a director of any corporation or district organized under the provisions of this chapter unless the person is a member of the corporation or district and a resident agricultural freeholder in the state of Montana.

(2) A quorum of the board of directors is necessary for the transaction of business. However, if the bylaws or board of directors provide for an executive committee, a quorum of that committee may carry on business.

(3) Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of a director, unless the bylaws provide otherwise, the vacancy may be filled by appointment by the board of directors.

History: En. Sec. 5, Art. 2, Ch. 152, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6410, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6410, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-314; amd. Sec. 1330, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-16-315. Directors — number — powers. (1) The corporate or district powers, business, and property of all corporations or districts formed under the provisions hereof must be exercised, conducted, and controlled by a board, which shall never be less than three members. Otherwise, the number of members of the board may be increased or diminished at any time by proper amendment of the bylaws with reference thereto.

(2) The directors shall have the power to sell, lease, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise dispose of the corporate assets of the corporation or district, or any part thereof, as distinguished from membership lands.

History: En. Sec. 4, Art. 2, Ch. 152, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6409, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6409, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-313.

Part 4
Corporate Indebtedness

35-16-401. Corporate indebtedness as lien upon membership lands. (1) After the date of the inclusion of any land or property as a member in any corporation or district organized under the provisions of this chapter, all mortgage or bonded indebtedness created by such corporation or district is a first lien upon the membership lands to an extent not to exceed 18% of the taxable value thereof if the land is grazing or agricultural and not to exceed 36% of the taxable value thereof if the land is horticultural or vegetable-producing.

(2) The recording of the copy of the articles of incorporation or petition to become a member of such corporation or district is notice to all subsequent lien claimants that the lands are subject to a first lien. However, nothing in this section may be construed as placing a limit upon the indebtedness that may be made a lien against any of the corporate or property assets of the corporation or district, as distinguished from membership lands individually owned.

History: En. Sec. 7, Art. 1, Ch. 152, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6403, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6403, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 33, Ch. 566, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 14-307.

35-16-404. Notice of hearing of petition — hearing — order of court. (1) Upon presentation of such petition to the court, the court shall set the same for hearing at a time not less than 20 or more than 40 days from the date of filing thereof and direct personal notice to be given to such members as are within the state of Montana and by mail to such members without the state and by publication in some newspaper of general circulation in each of the counties in which membership lands to be affected are situated, for not less than 2 weeks prior to the hearing of said petition, which notice shall state:

(a) the name of the corporation or district;

(b) its principal place of business;

(c) the fact that it has applied to a district court (naming and describing the same) for leave to create a bonded indebtedness of the amount prayed for; and

(d) the maximum rate of interest proposed to be paid thereon and time of maturity.

(2) On the day set for the hearing of the petition, the court shall proceed to hear the same and any objections that may be filed to the granting hereof. If upon said hearing the court shall find that:

(a) notice has been given as required by this law and the orders of the court;

(b) the matters and things set forth in said petition are true;

(c) the objects and purposes for which the money is sought are within the legitimate objects and purposes for said corporation or district for the carrying on of its business and the board of directors have determined that such fund is proper or required for the carrying on of its business; and

(d) the provisions of this law have been complied with, the court shall sign and order filed, entered, and docketed its judgment and decree, including its findings on said hearing, describing the lands and authorizing, ordering, and directing the executive officers of such corporation or district to make, execute, and deliver notes, bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness of the total amount prayed for in the petition and the maximum interest to be permitted and make, execute, sign, and deliver mortgage or deed of trust or instrument of hypothecation covering the real property of the corporation or district and all of the membership lands in said corporation or district; said judgment to specify that for the payment of said debt and the interest thereon, as authorized, recourse shall first be had to the real property of said corporation or district, separate and apart from the membership lands of the individual members thereof, and in the event of the failure of the corporate real property to fully satisfy, pay, and discharge said debt and its interest, as the same may be due, to permit and allow recourse to be had in the form of first lien and right upon all membership lands in said corporation or district to the extent authorized by the provisions hereof; provided, if a majority as provided for in 35-16-210 shall file written objection to the granting of the petition, the court shall dismiss the proceeding and no similar proceeding shall be filed within 6 months thereafter.

35-16-405. Execution and record of mortgage — lien. Upon the signing, entering, and docketing of a judgment authorizing the loan, the executive officers of such corporation or district shall be authorized and empowered to make, execute, and provide for the sale and delivery of notes, bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness of said corporation or district and make, execute, and deliver mortgages and deeds of trust or instruments of hypothecation, as required, as security for such debts and the interest thereon. Any such mortgage or deed of trust which may be executed and delivered in accordance herewith shall set forth at length the order and decree of the district court authorizing the same, and when recorded in the office of the county clerk and recorder of any county in which membership lands included in the membership of such corporation or district or any of the assets of said corporation or district are situated, said mortgage shall be a first lien upon all the lands of said corporation or district and upon all of the membership lands of the individual members as may be included in said corporation or district situated in such county as of the date when such lands became members of such corporation or district, to the extent of the limitation of indebtedness thereon herein provided for.

35-16-406. Foreclosure of mortgage — procedure — tax levy. In the event there shall be default in either principal or interest or the terms and conditions of any bonds, notes, or mortgages or deeds of trust, made, executed, and delivered pursuant to the authority hereof, the holder or holders of such mortgage or the trustee named in the deed of trust shall be entitled to proceed to foreclose the same in the manner provided for in Title 71, and the application for foreclosure shall be proceeded with as a foreclosure proceeding. If the court in such foreclosure shall find for the plaintiff and order foreclosure of the mortgage or deed of trust as prayed for, such court is hereby empowered in its discretion to include in its judgment and decree of foreclosure an order and direction to the county clerk and recorder of each of the counties in which lands included in said mortgage are situated ordering and directing the county clerk and recorders of such counties to levy and include, as part of the taxes levied against the membership lands included therein, the proportion that such lands shall be liable for such indebtedness and costs so found to be due, which tax thus created shall be collected in whole or in part over a period of not to exceed 3 years as the court shall in its order direct.

Part 1
General

35-17-101. Short title. This chapter shall be referred to as the "Cooperative Marketing Act".

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 233, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6429, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6429, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-402(part).

35-17-102. Declaration of policy. In order to promote, foster, and encourage the intelligent and orderly marketing of agricultural products through cooperation and to eliminate speculation and waste and to make the distribution of agricultural products as direct as can efficiently be done between producer and consumer, to stabilize the marketing problems of agricultural products, and to supply to its members necessary equipment, this chapter is passed.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 233, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6428, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6428, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-401.

35-17-103. Definitions and associations as nonprofit entities. (1) The term "agricultural products" includes horticultural, viticultural, forestry, dairy, livestock, poultry, bee, and any farm products.

(2) The term "association" means any corporation organized under this chapter.

(3) The term "member" means a person who has been qualified and accepted for membership in an association.

(4) The term "person" includes individuals, firms, partnerships, corporations, and associations.

(5) Associations organized under this chapter must be considered nonprofit because they are not organized to make profits for themselves or for their members, but only for their members as producers.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 233, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6429, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6429, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-402(part); amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 130, L. 1999.

Cross-References

35-17-104. Who may organize. Five or more persons engaged in the production of agricultural products may form a nonprofit cooperative association, with or without capital stock, under the provisions of this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 233, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6430, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6430, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947 14-403.

35-17-105. Permissible purposes for organization. An association may be organized to engage in:

(1) any activity in connection with the marketing or selling of the agricultural products of its members or with the harvesting, preserving, drying, processing, canning, packing, storing, handling, shipping, or utilization thereof or the manufacturing or marketing of the byproducts thereof;

(2) any activity in connection with the manufacturing, selling, or supplying to its members of machinery, equipment, or supplies;

(3) the financing of the above-enumerated activities; or

(4) any one or more of the activities specified herein.

35-17-106. Powers of associations. Each association incorporated under this chapter shall have the following powers:

(1) to engage in any activity in connection with the marketing, selling, harvesting, preserving, drying, processing, canning, packing, storing, handling, or utilization of any agricultural products produced or delivered to it by its members or the manufacturing or marketing of the byproducts thereof or in connection with the purchase, hiring, or use by its members of supplies, machinery, or equipment or in the financing of any such activities or in any one or more of the activities specified in this section. No association shall handle the agricultural products of nonmembers in greater volume than that of members.

(2) to borrow money and to make advances to members;

(3) to act as the agent or representative of any member or members in any of the above-mentioned activities;

(4) to purchase or otherwise acquire and to hold, own, and exercise all rights of ownership in and to sell, transfer, or pledge shares of the capital stock or bonds of any corporation or association engaged in any related activity or in the handling or marketing of any of the products handled by the association;

(5) to establish reserves and to invest the funds thereof in bonds or such other property as may be provided in the bylaws;

(6) to buy, hold, and exercise all privileges of ownership over such real or personal property as may be necessary or convenient for the conducting and operation of any of the business of the association or incidental thereto;

(7) to do each and every thing necessary, suitable, or proper for the accomplishment of any one of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated or conducive to or expedient for the interest or benefit of the association and to contract accordingly and in addition to exercise and possess all powers, rights, and privileges necessary or incidental to the purposes for which the association is organized or to the activities in which it is engaged and in addition any other rights, powers, and privileges granted by the laws of this state to ordinary corporations, except such as are inconsistent with the expressed provisions of this chapter, and to do any such thing anywhere.

35-17-202. (Temporary) Articles of incorporation — contents — filing — articles or copies as prima facie evidence. (1) Each association formed under this chapter shall prepare and file articles of incorporation setting forth:

(a) the name of the association;

(b) the purposes for which it is formed;

(c) the place where its principal business will be transacted;

(d) the term for which it is to exist, which may be perpetual;

(e) the number of its directors or trustees and the names and residences of those who are appointed for the first 3 months and until their successors are elected and qualified;

(f) if organized without capital stock, whether the property rights and interest of each member are equal or unequal, and if unequal, the articles must set forth the general rule or rules applicable to all members by which the property rights and interests, respectively, of each member must be determined and fixed. The association has the power to admit new members who must be entitled to share in the property of the association with the old members, in accordance with the general rules;

(g) the designation of classes of members, if more than one;

(h) the number and par value of shares of each authorized class of stock and, if more than one class is authorized:

(i) the designation, preferences, limitations, and relative rights of each class;

(ii) which classes of stock are membership stock;

(iii) as to each class of stock, the rate of dividend, if any, or a statement that the rate of dividend may be fixed by the board; and

(iv) any reservation of a right to acquire or recall any stock.

(2) In addition to provisions required in subsection (1), the articles of incorporation may also contain provisions not inconsistent with law regarding liability as set forth in 35-1-216.

(3) The articles must be subscribed by the incorporators and must be filed in accordance with the provisions of the general corporation law of this state, and when so filed, the articles of incorporation or certified copies must be accepted as prima facie evidence of the facts contained in the articles and of the due incorporation of the association.

35-17-206. Bylaws. (1) Each association incorporated under this chapter shall, within 30 days after its incorporation, adopt for its government and management a code of bylaws, not inconsistent with the powers granted by this chapter. A majority vote of the members or stockholders or their written assent is necessary to adopt the bylaws. The bylaws may be amended at any regular or special meeting if approved by a majority vote of the stockholders.

(2) Each association under its bylaws may also provide for any or all of the following matters:

(a) the time, place, and manner of calling and conducting its meetings;

(b) the number of stockholders or members constituting a quorum;

(c) the right of members or stockholders to vote by proxy or by mail or by both and the conditions, manner, form, and effects of those votes;

(d) the number of directors constituting a quorum;

(e) the qualifications, compensation, duties, and term of office of directors and officers, the time of their election, and the mode and manner of giving notice of these matters;

(f) penalties for violations of the bylaws;

(g) the amount of entrance, organization, and membership fees, if any, the manner and method of collection of the fees, and the purposes for which they may be used;

(h) the amount that each member or stockholder is required to pay annually or from time to time, if at all, to carry on the business of the association, the charge, if any, to be paid by each member or stockholder for services rendered by the association to the stockholder or member and the time of payment and the manner of collection, and the marketing contract between the association and its members or stockholders which every member or stockholder may be required to sign;

(i) the number and qualifications of members or stockholders of the association and the conditions precedent to membership or ownership of common stock, the method, time, and manner of permitting members to withdraw or the holders of common stock to transfer their stock, the manner of assignment and transfer of the interest of members and the shares of common stock, and the conditions upon which and the time when membership of any member ceases;

(j) the automatic suspension of the rights of a member when the member ceases to be eligible for membership in the association and the mode, manner, and effect of the expulsion of a member;

(k) the manner of determining the value of a member's interest and provision for its purchase by the association upon the death or withdrawal of a member or stockholder or upon the expulsion of a member or forfeiture of membership or, at the option of the association, by conclusive appraisal by the board of directors.

35-17-301. Who may be members. (1) Under the terms and conditions prescribed in its bylaws, an association may admit as members or issue stock only to persons engaged in the production of the agricultural products to be handled by or through the association, including the lessees and tenants of land used for the production of the products and any lessors and landlords who receive as rent part of the crop raised on the leased premises.

(2) If a member of a nonstock association is other than a natural person, that member may be represented by any individual, associate, officer, or member authorized in writing.

(3) One association organized under this chapter may become a member or stockholder of any other association or associations organized under this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 233, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6434, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6434, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-407; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 130, L. 1999.

35-17-302. Stock — issuance — limitations on ownership and transfer — repurchase by association. (1) When a member of an association established without capital stock has paid the member's membership fee in full, the member must receive a certificate of membership.

(2) (a) An association organized with capital stock may issue the amount of stock stated in its articles. The stock may be divided into two or more classes with the designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights as stated in the articles, except that stock without par value may not be issued.

(b) The articles may require that members own one or more shares of membership stock. The membership stock may be issued or transferred only to a person eligible to become a member and only when that person satisfies the other requisites for membership. Unless restricted by the articles, stock other than membership stock may be issued or transferred to any person.

(3) An association may not issue stock to a member until it has been fully paid for. The promissory notes of the members may be accepted by the association as full or partial payment. The association shall hold the stock as security for the payment of the note, but retention as security does not affect the members' right to vote.

(4) An association, in its bylaws, may limit the amount of common stock that one member may own.

(5) (a) Unless the articles provide otherwise, an association may acquire, recall, exchange, redeem, and reissue its own stock. Provisions in the articles and on the stock certificate may reserve to the association a prior right to acquire any stock offered for sale or the right to recall the stock of any stockholder, or both rights.

(b) The consideration paid by the association for recalled stock must be its par value and accrued unpaid dividends. However, if the book value of the stock is less than the par value, the consideration must be the book value.

(c) An association may set off obligations of a stockholder to the association.

(d) If the remaining assets of an association would be less than the aggregate amount payable to creditors and persons holding stock with preferential rights upon liquidation, the association may not acquire, recall, exchange, or redeem any stock for consideration other than stock or certificates of equity interest of equal or subordinate rank.

(6) (a) If stock is acquired, recalled, exchanged, or redeemed by an association, the stock is restored to the status of authorized but unissued stock.

(b) Stockholders do not have a preemptive right to purchase additional stock.

35-17-304. Expulsion of member. In case of the expulsion of a member, the board of directors shall equitably and conclusively appraise the member's property interests in the association and shall fix the amount of the interest in money, which must be paid to the member within 1 year after expulsion.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 233, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6437, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6437, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 298, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 14-410(part); amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 130, L. 1999.

35-17-305. Meetings of members — general and special — how called — notice — one vote per member. (1) In its bylaws each association shall provide for one or more regular meetings annually.

(2) The board of directors shall have the right to call a special meeting at any time, and 10% of the members or stockholders may file a petition stating the specific business to be brought before the association and demand a special meeting at any time. Such meeting must thereupon be called by the directors.

(3) Notice of all meetings, together with a statement of the purposes thereof, shall be mailed to each member at least 10 days prior to the meeting. However, the bylaws may require instead that such notice may be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation published at the principal place of business of the association.

(4) No member or stockholder shall be entitled to more than one vote.

35-17-306 through 35-17-310 reserved.

35-17-311. Directors — election — compensation — interest in contracts — vacancies. (1) The affairs of the association must be managed by a board of not less than five directors elected by the members or stockholders from their own number. The bylaws may provide that the territory in which the association has members must be divided into districts and that the directors must be elected according to the districts. In that case, the bylaws must specify the number of directors to be elected by each district, the manner and method of reapportioning the directors, and the manner and method of redistricting the territory covered by the association. The bylaws may provide that primary elections must be held in each district to elect the directors apportioned to the districts, and the result of all primary elections must be ratified by the next regular meeting of the association.

(2) An association may provide a fair remuneration for the time actually spent by its officers and directors in its service.

(3) A director during the term of office may not be a party to a contract for profit with the association differing in any way from the business relations accorded regular members or holders of common stock of the association or to any other kind of contract differing from terms generally current in that district.

(4) When a vacancy on the board of directors occurs, other than by expiration of a term, the remaining members of the board by a majority vote shall fill the vacancy unless the bylaws provide for an election of directors by district. In that case, the board of directors shall immediately call a special meeting of the members or stockholders in that district to fill the vacancy.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 233, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6439, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6439, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-412; amd. Sec. 1333, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-17-312. Officers — election — bank as treasurer. (1) The directors shall elect from their number a president and one or more vice presidents. They shall also elect a secretary and treasurer who need not be directors, and they may combine the two latter offices and designate the combined office as secretary-treasurer. The treasurer may be a bank or any depositary, in which case it may not be considered an officer but instead a function of the board of directors, and the secretary shall perform the usual accounting duties of the treasurer, except that the funds must be deposited only as authorized by the board of directors.

(2) (a) If the bylaws provide, the directors may also elect from their number a presiding officer and one or more vice presiding officers, in which case the president and vice presidents need not be directors or stockholders.

(b) Any other officer may be chosen as provided in the bylaws.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 233, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6440, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6440, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-413; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 130, L. 1999.

35-17-313. Removal of officer or director. (1) Any member may bring charges against an officer or director by filing them in writing with the secretary of the association, together with a petition signed by 10% of the members, requesting the removal of the officer or director in question. The removal must be voted upon at the next regular or special meeting of the association, and by a vote of a majority of the members, the association may remove the officer or director and fill the vacancy. The director or officer against whom charges have been brought must be informed in writing of the charges previous to the meeting and must have an opportunity at the meeting to be heard in person or by counsel and to present witnesses, and the person or persons bringing the charges against the director or officer must have the same opportunity.

(2) If the bylaws provide for election of directors by districts with primary elections in each district, then the petition for removal of a director must be signed by 12% of the members residing in the district from which the director was elected. The board of directors shall call a special meeting of the members residing in that district to consider the removal of the director. By a vote of the majority of the members of that district, the director in question is removed from office.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 233, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6442, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6442, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-415; amd. Sec. 1334, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-17-314. Referendum to membership of matters passed by board. Upon demand of a majority of the entire board of directors, any matter that has been approved or passed by the board must be referred to the entire membership or the stockholders for a decision at the next special or regular meeting. However, a special meeting may be called for the purpose.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 233, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6443, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6443, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-416; amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 130, L. 1999.

35-17-315. Creation of capital reserve — distribution of net earnings. At least once annually, the directors shall determine and distribute net proceeds as follows:

(1) (a) An association organized under this chapter may set aside part of its net earnings as its board of directors considers advisable for the purpose of creating or maintaining a capital reserve. In addition to the capital reserve, the directors may set aside a sum not to exceed 5% of the annual net earnings of the association, which must be used for the purposes of promoting and teaching cooperative organization and principles. The directors may establish and accumulate reserves for buildings, machinery and equipment, depreciation, losses, and other proper purposes.

(b) A share of the net proceeds may be set aside for or paid to employees. This amount for all purposes, except the computation of net proceeds, must be considered an expense of the association.

(c) In an association with capital stock, a dividend may be paid on the capital stock as authorized in the articles. A dividend may not be paid if the association's capital is impaired or the payment of the dividend would result in an impairment of capital.

(2) Net earnings in excess of any deductions in subsection (1) must be distributed annually to patrons on the basis of patronage. An association subject to the provisions of this chapter may distribute net earnings in the following or a combination of the following: cash, credits, stock, revolving fund certificates, other certificates, or securities of the association or of other associations.

History: En. 14-430 by Sec. 4, Ch. 298, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 14-430; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 130, L. 1999.

Part 4
Marketing Agreements

35-17-401. Marketing contracts. (1) The association and its members may make and execute marketing contracts requiring the members to sell, for any period of time not over 10 years, all or any specified part of their agricultural products or specified commodities exclusively to or through the association or any facilities to be created by the association. The contract may provide that the association may sell or resell the products of its members with or without taking title to the products and pay over to its members the resale price after deducting all necessary selling, overhead, and other costs and expenses.

(2) The bylaws and the marketing contract may fix, as liquidated damages, specific sums to be paid by the member or stockholder to the association upon the breach by the member or stockholder of any provisions of the marketing contract regarding the sale or delivery or withholding of products and may further provide that the member or stockholder will pay all costs, premiums for bonds, expenses, and fees in case any action is brought upon the contract by the association, and these provisions are valid and enforceable in the courts of this state.

(3) In the event of any breach or threatened breach of a marketing contract by a member, the association is entitled to an injunction to prevent the further breach of the contract and to a decree of specific performance. Pending the adjudication of an action and upon filing a verified complaint showing the breach or threatened breach and upon filing a sufficient bond, the association is entitled to a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction against the member or stockholder.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 233, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6444, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6444, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-417; amd. Sec. 1335, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-17-402. Associations exempt from antimonopoly provisions. Associations executing marketing contracts in compliance with the provisions of this chapter shall not be deemed to be a conspiracy, a combination in restraint of trade, or an illegal monopoly or trust in an attempt to lessen competition or fix prices arbitrarily.

History: En. 14-417.1 by Sec. 1, Ch. 467, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 14-417.1.

35-17-403. Recording marketing agreements. Any cooperative marketing association organized under the laws of this state or doing business in this state pursuant to the laws of this state may file for record its marketing agreements covering livestock, increase, wool, and other livestock products as hereinafter provided.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 34, L. 1927; re-en. Sec. 6449.1, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-423.

35-17-404. Requisites for filing. Such agreements shall be eligible for filing for record without being acknowledged before a notary public or other officer or without any affidavit of good faith or other formality but shall be signed by the member of the association and in the name of the association by a duly authorized officer of the association, and the corporate seal of the association shall be affixed.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 34, L. 1927; re-en. Sec. 6449.2, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-424.

35-17-405. Place of filing. Such agreements shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and recorder in the county where such livestock or livestock product is located on the date such agreement is so filed for record.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 34, L. 1927; re-en. Sec. 6449.3, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-425.

35-17-406. Recording as notice. Such recordation shall operate as constructive notice of the agreement and of the rights of the association and of its successors and assigns, as specified in the agreement and in this part.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 34, L. 1927; re-en. Sec. 6449.4, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-426.

35-17-407. When transfer of title effected on recording — lien not to extend to subsequent product. (1) In case such marketing agreement specifies that the member has agreed to sell and the association has agreed to buy the product specified in the agreement, produced by or for such member during a period of time in said agreement designated, and such agreement further provides that the association shall have the absolute title to such product and the right to enforce specific performance of the agreement and the power to borrow money thereon for any purpose of the association and that the association shall have all rights of ownership of such product without limitation, including the right to sell or pledge for its own account or as security for its own debts or otherwise, then such agreement, when so filed for record, shall operate to convey and transfer to such association full title to and possession of such product covered thereby, and any possession by the member thereafter shall be only as custodian for such association.

(2) Such agreement shall not apply or constitute any lien or encumbrance on any product derived subsequent to the term therein specified, and no release or satisfaction of such an agreement need be filed for record.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 34, L. 1927; re-en. Sec. 6449.5, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-427.

35-17-408. Assignment of agreement as security for loans. Such association shall have full power to transfer and assign all of its rights under such cooperative marketing agreement, containing the provisions specified in 35-17-407, as security for loans obtained by it. Such transfer and assignment may be by endorsement on the marketing agreement so filed for record or may be made by separate document which shall adequately describe the marketing agreement or the various agreements covered thereby. Any such assignment shall be eligible for record in the same manner as is herein provided for recording of cooperative agreements. Such assignments need not be acknowledged before a notary public or other officer or contain any affidavit of good faith or other formality but shall be signed in the name of the association by a duly authorized officer of the association and the corporate seal of the association shall be affixed. The assignee under any such assignment shall be subrogated to all the rights of the association under said cooperative marketing agreements and the provisions of this part.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 34, L. 1927; re-en. Sec. 6449.6, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-428.

35-17-409. Fees of county clerk. (1) The fees payable to the county clerk and recorder shall be as follows:

(a) 50 cents for each agreement so filed for record;

(b) 50 cents for each certificate of prior liens and mortgages;

(c) 50 cents for certifying to copy of marketing agreements so filed for record;

(d) 50 cents for each assignment which is filed separately from the marketing agreement or agreements covered thereby.

(2) The county clerk and recorder shall index such agreements and assignments in the index of chattel mortgages.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 34, L. 1927; re-en. Sec. 6449.7, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-429.

35-17-410. Agreements and arrangements with other associations. Any association may upon resolution adopted by its board of directors enter into all necessary and proper stipulations, agreements, and contracts and arrangements with any other cooperative corporation, association, or associations formed in this or in any other state for the cooperative and more economical carrying on of its business or any part or parts thereof. Any two or more associations may by agreement between them unite in employing and using or may separately employ and use the same methods, means, and agencies for carrying on and conducting their respective businesses.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 233, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6446, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6446, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 14-419.

Part 5
Merger, Consolidation, and Sale of Assets

35-17-501. Merger or consolidation authorized. It is lawful for two or more cooperative associations formed, before or after July 1, 1977, under the laws of the state of Montana to merge or consolidate with each other. One or more such associations may merge or consolidate with one or more associations incorporated under the laws of another state relating to organization of cooperative associations by complying with the provisions of this chapter or with the applicable laws of the state where the surviving or new association has its principal place of business.

History: En. 14-431 by Sec. 5, Ch. 298, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 14-431(1).

35-17-502. Plan of merger or consolidation. Before an association may merge or consolidate with any other association, a written plan of merger or consolidation shall be prepared by the board of directors of one or both associations, by a committee appointed for that purpose by the board of directors of one or both associations, or by a committee composed of at least 10% of the stockholders of one of the associations concerned. Such plan shall set forth all the terms of the merger or consolidation and the proposed effect thereof on each of the stockholders of the associations concerned. In the case of consolidation, the plan shall also contain a copy of the proposed articles for the new association to be formed.

35-17-503. Meeting to consider plan — notice. (1) Notice of the proposed plan and, in the case of consolidation, of the proposed new articles shall be mailed to each stockholder of the associations to be affected thereby.

(2) The notice shall advise the stockholders of each association of the time and place that each association will meet, at which time the proposal shall be considered and voted upon by each association. The meetings may be held not less than 30 or more than 60 days after the mailing of notice. The plan shall be considered adopted if a quorum is present and two-thirds of those voting vote in its favor.

History: En. 14-431 by Sec. 5, Ch. 298, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 14-431(3), (4).

35-17-504. Filing of documents of merger or consolidation — effective date. (1) Within 30 days after the merger or consolidation plan has been adopted, documents of merger or consolidation setting forth the plan and the manner of adoption thereof shall be signed by the president or vice-president and by the secretary or assistant secretary of each association merging or consolidating and filed with the clerk and recorder of the county in which the principal office of the new or surviving association is located, if the office is in Montana, and with the Montana secretary of state.

(2) If the new or surviving association has its principal office in Montana, the merger or consolidation becomes effective as of the date of filing with the Montana secretary of state. If its principal office is outside the state of Montana, the merger or consolidation becomes effective upon full compliance with the laws of the state in which its principal office is located.

35-17-505. Effect of merger or consolidation — rights and obligations — rights of creditors not impaired. (1) On the effective date, the associations that are parties to a plan adopted pursuant to this part become a single association. In the case of a merger, the surviving association is that association designated in the plan. The articles and bylaws of the surviving association are amended to the extent provided in the documents setting forth the plan of merger. In the case of a consolidation, the new association is the association provided for in the plan. The separate existence of all associations that are parties to the plan, except the surviving or new association, then ceases.

(2) The surviving or new association possesses all the rights and all the property of each of the individual associations and is responsible for all their obligations. Title to any property is vested in the surviving or new association with no reversion or impairment of title caused by the merger or consolidation.

(3) The right of any creditor may not be impaired by the merger or consolidation without the creditor's consent.

History: En. 14-431 by Sec. 5, Ch. 298, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 14-431(7); amd. Sec. 159, Ch. 575, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 1336, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-17-506. Sale or disposition of assets. At any meeting, the stockholders of a cooperative association may authorize the disposition or sale of all or substantially all of the association's assets if notice that such disposition or sale will be considered at such meeting has been given to all persons entitled to vote thereon and if disposition or sale is approved by two-thirds of those stockholders voting at the meeting.

History: En. 14-431 by Sec. 5, Ch. 298, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 14-431(6).

35-18-102. Definitions. In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Broadband" means transmission facilities capable of handling frequencies greater than those required for high-grade voice communication, higher than 4 kilohertz.

(2) "Cable television system" means a system that receives and amplifies the signals broadcast by one or more television stations and redistributes the signals to subscribing members of the public for a fixed or periodic fee by wire, cable, microwave, or other means, whether the means are owned or leased.

(3) "Cooperative" means a corporation organized under this chapter or a corporation that becomes subject to the provisions of this chapter.

(4) "Member" means each incorporator of a cooperative and each person admitted to and retaining membership in a cooperative as provided by the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the cooperative, including persons admitted to joint membership.

(5) "Person" includes any natural person, firm, association, corporation, business trust, partnership, federal agency, state or political subdivision or an agency of a state or political subdivision, or other organization or group of persons.

(6) "Rural area", as applied to all corporations organized under the provisions of 35-18-105(1), means:

(a) an area not included within the boundaries of an incorporated or unincorporated city, town, village, or borough having a population in excess of 3,500 persons on March 17, 1939, or subsequent to March 17, 1939;

(b) an incorporated municipality in which 95% or more of the premises are served by an electric cooperative on February 1, 1971;

(c) a former rural area annexed by a municipality and subject to 69-5-109; or

(d) an incorporated municipality that was served by a public utility that sold the public utility's distribution facilities within that municipality to an electric cooperative after January 1, 1998.

History: (1)En. Sec. 2, Ch. 172, L. 1939; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 80, L. 1957; amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 7, L. 1971; Sec. 14-502, R.C.M. 1947; (2)En. Sec. 30, Ch. 172, L. 1939; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 151, L. 1949; amd. 35-18-106. Powers of cooperatives. (1) A cooperative may:

(a) sue and be sued in its corporate name;

(b) have perpetual existence;

(c) adopt a corporate seal and alter the seal;

(d) become a member in one or more other cooperatives or corporations or own stock in other cooperatives or corporations;

(e) construct, purchase, take, receive, lease as lessee, or otherwise acquire and own, hold, use, equip, maintain, and operate and sell, assign, transfer, convey, exchange, lease as lessor, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of or encumber:

(i) electric transmission and distribution lines or systems;

(ii) electric generating plants;

(iii) electric refrigeration plants;

(iv) telephone lines, facilities, or systems (but not telegraph or radio broadcasting services or facilities) as defined by law;

(v) lands, buildings, structures, dams, plants and equipment, and all kinds or classes of real or personal property that may be considered necessary, convenient, or appropriate to accomplish the purpose for which the cooperative is organized;

(f) purchase or otherwise acquire and own, hold, use, and exercise and sell, assign, transfer, convey, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, or otherwise dispose of or encumber franchises, rights, privileges, licenses, rights-of-way, and easements;

(g) borrow money and otherwise contract indebtedness and issue notes, bonds, and other evidences of indebtedness and secure the payment of indebtedness by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, or any other encumbrance upon all of its then-owned or after-acquired real or personal property, assets, franchises, revenue, or income;

(h) subject to the requirements on the use of public thoroughfares and land that are imposed by the appropriate authority having jurisdiction over corporations constructing or operating electric transmission and distribution lines or systems or telephone lines, facilities, or systems, construct, maintain, and operate electric transmission and distribution lines or telephone, cable television, or broadband lines, facilities, or systems:

(i) along, upon, under, and across all public thoroughfares, including without limitation all roads, highways, streets, alleys, bridges, and causeways; and

(ii) upon, under, and across all publicly owned lands;

(i) exercise the power of eminent domain in the manner provided in Title 70, chapter 30, for the exercise of that power by corporations constructing or operating electric transmission and distribution lines or systems or telephone lines, facilities, or systems;

(j) conduct its business and exercise all of its powers within or outside of this state;

(k) adopt, amend, and repeal bylaws; and

(l) perform all other acts and exercise all other powers that may be necessary, convenient, or appropriate to accomplish the purpose for which the cooperative is organized or authorized under federal law.

(2) In addition to the powers listed in subsection (1), corporations organized under the provisions of 35-18-105(1) may:

(a) generate, manufacture, purchase, acquire, accumulate, and transmit electrical energy;

(b) distribute, sell, supply, and dispose of electrical energy in rural areas to:

(i) its members;

(ii) governmental agencies and political subdivisions; and

(iii) other persons not in excess of 10% of the number of its members;

(c) make loans to persons to whom electrical energy is or will be supplied by the cooperative to assist those persons in wiring their premises and installing in their premises electrical and plumbing fixtures, appliances, apparatus, and equipment of all kinds and character;

(d) in connection with electrical and plumbing fixtures, purchase, acquire, lease, sell, distribute, install, and repair the electrical and plumbing fixtures, appliances, apparatus, and equipment and accept or otherwise acquire and sell, assign, transfer, endorse, pledge, hypothecate, and otherwise dispose of notes, bonds, and other evidences of indebtedness and all types of security for electrical and plumbing fixtures; and

(e) make loans to persons to whom electrical energy is or will be supplied by the cooperatives for the purpose of and otherwise to assist those persons in constructing, maintaining, and operating electric refrigeration plants.

(3) In addition to the powers listed in subsection (1), corporations organized under the provisions of 35-18-105(2) may:

(a) improve and expand existing telephone lines, facilities, and systems;

(b) construct, acquire, operate, and furnish additional telephone lines, facilities, and systems that are required to ensure the availability of adequate telephone service to the widest practicable number of users of telephone service;

(c) make loans to persons to whom telephone service is or will be supplied by the cooperative to assist those persons in wiring their premises for telephone service and installing in their premises telephone fixtures, appliances, apparatus, and equipment of all kinds and character;

(d) in connection with telephone fixtures, purchase, acquire, lease, sell, distribute, install, and repair the telephone fixtures, appliances, apparatus, and equipment; and

(e) accept or otherwise acquire and sell, assign, transfer, endorse, pledge, hypothecate, and otherwise dispose of notes, bonds, and other evidences of indebtedness and all types of security for telephone fixtures.

35-18-107. Foreign corporations. (1) Any corporation organized under the laws of a state adjacent to this state on a nonprofit or a cooperative basis for the purpose of supplying electrical energy in rural areas and owning and operating electric transmission or distribution lines in that state is permitted to extend its lines into and transact business in this state without complying with any statute of this state pertaining to the qualification of foreign corporations for the transaction of business in this state.

(2) The foreign corporation, as a prerequisite to the extension of its lines into and the transaction of business in this state, shall, by an instrument executed and acknowledged in its behalf by its president or vice president under its corporate seal attested by its secretary, designate the secretary of state its agent to accept service of process in its behalf. In the event that any process is served upon the secretary of state, the secretary of state shall as soon as possible forward the process by certified mail to the corporation at the address of the corporation specified in the instrument.

(3) The corporation may sue and be sued in the courts of this state to the same extent that a cooperative may sue or be sued in the courts.

(4) The corporation may secure its notes, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, or other encumbrance upon any or all of its then-owned or after-acquired real or personal property, assets, or franchises located or to be located in this state and also upon the revenue and income to be derived from them.

35-18-204. Amendment of articles of incorporation. A cooperative may amend its articles of incorporation by complying with the following requirements:

(1) The proposed amendment shall be first approved by the board of trustees and shall then be submitted to a vote of the members at any annual or special meeting thereof, the notice of which shall set forth the proposed amendment. The proposed amendment, with such changes as the members shall choose to make therein, shall be deemed to be approved on the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of those members voting thereon at such meeting.

(2) Upon such approval by the members, articles of amendment shall be executed on behalf of the cooperative by its president or vice-president and its corporate seal shall be affixed thereto and attested by its secretary. The articles of amendment shall recite in the caption that they are executed pursuant to this chapter and shall state:

(a) the name of the cooperative;

(b) the address of its principal office;

(c) the date of the filing of its articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state; and

(d) the amendment to its articles of incorporation.

(3) The president or vice-president executing such articles of amendment shall also make and annex thereto an affidavit stating that the provisions of this section were duly complied with.

(4) Such articles of amendment and affidavit shall be submitted to the secretary of state for filing as provided in this chapter.

35-18-206. Existing corporations — reorganization under chapter — articles of conversion. Any corporation organized under the laws of this state for the purpose, among others, of supplying electrical energy in rural areas or telephone service may become subject to this chapter with the same effect as if originally organized under this chapter by complying with the following requirements:

(1) The proposition for the conversion of the corporation into a cooperative under this chapter and proposed articles of conversion to give effect to the conversion must be first approved by the board of trustees or the board of directors, as the case may be, of the corporation. The proposed articles of conversion must recite in the caption that they are executed pursuant to this chapter and must state:

(a) the name of the corporation prior to its conversion into a cooperative under this chapter;

(b) the address of the principal office of the corporation;

(c) the date of the filing of its articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state;

(d) the statute or statutes under which the corporation was organized;

(e) the name assumed by the corporation;

(f) a statement that the corporation elects to become a cooperative, nonprofit, membership corporation subject to this chapter;

(g) the manner and basis of converting either memberships in or shares of stock of the corporation into memberships in the corporation after completion of the conversion; and

(h) any provisions not inconsistent with this chapter considered necessary or advisable for the conduct of its business and affairs.

(2) The proposition for the conversion of the corporation into a cooperative under this chapter and the proposed articles of conversion approved by the board of trustees or board of directors, as the case may be, of the corporation must then be submitted to a vote of the members or stockholders, as the case may be, of the corporation at any duly held annual or special meeting of the corporation, the notice of which must set forth full particulars concerning the proposed conversion. The proposition for the conversion of the corporation into a cooperative under this chapter and the proposed articles of conversion, with any amendments to the articles of conversion that the members or stockholders of the corporation choose to make, is considered to be approved upon the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of those members of the corporation voting on the articles of conversion at the meeting or, if the corporation is a stock corporation, upon the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than two-thirds of the capital stock of the corporation represented at the meeting.

(3) Upon approval by the members or stockholders of the corporation, articles of conversion in the form approved by the members or stockholders of the corporation must be executed on behalf of the corporation by its president or vice president and its corporate seal must be affixed to the articles of conversion and attested by its secretary or assistant secretary. The president or vice president executing the articles of conversion on behalf of the corporation shall also make and annex to the articles of conversion an affidavit stating that the provisions of this section with respect to the approval of its trustees or directors and its members or stockholders of the proposition for the conversion of the corporation into a cooperative under this chapter and the articles of conversion were complied with.

(4) The articles of conversion and affidavit must be submitted to the secretary of state for filing as provided in this chapter.

(5) The term “articles of incorporation” as used in this chapter includes the articles of conversion of a converted corporation.

(2) Special meetings of the members may be called by the board of trustees, by any three trustees, by not less than 10% of the members, or by the president.

(3) Meetings of members shall be held at such place as may be provided in the bylaws. In the absence of any such provision, all meetings shall be held at such place as shall be determined by the board of trustees.

(4) Except as hereinafter otherwise provided, written or printed notice stating the time and place of each meeting of members and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given to each member, either personally or by mail, not less than 10 or more than 25 days before the date of the meeting.

(5) Five percent of all members present in person or 50 members present in person, whichever is fewer, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the members, but the bylaws may prescribe the presence of a greater percentage or number of the members for a quorum. If less than a quorum is present at any meeting, a majority of those present in person may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

(6) Each member shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting. Voting shall be in person but, if the bylaws so provide, may also be by proxy or by mail, or both. If the bylaws provide for voting by proxy or by mail, they shall also prescribe the conditions under which proxy or mail voting or both shall be exercised. In any event, no person shall vote as a proxy for more than three members at any meeting of the members.

35-18-304. Initiative by members — approval of trustees not required. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, there shall be submitted to the members of a cooperative any proposition embodied in a petition signed by not less than 10% of its members, together with any document submitted with such petition to give the effect to the proposition, either at a special meeting of the members held within 45 days after the presentation of such petition or, if the date of the next annual meeting of members falls within 90 days after such presentation or if the petition so requests, at such annual meeting.

(2) The approval of the board of trustees shall not be required in respect of any proposition or document submitted to the members pursuant to this section and approved by them, but such proposition or document shall be subject to all other applicable provisions of this chapter. The affidavit or affidavits required to be filed with any such document pursuant to applicable provisions of this chapter shall, in such case, be modified to show compliance with the provisions of this section.

35-18-305 through 35-18-310 reserved.

35-18-311. Board of trustees — number — qualifications — removal — compensation — husband and wife. (1) The business and affairs of a cooperative must be managed by a board of not less than five trustees, each of whom must be a member of the cooperative or of another cooperative that is a member of the cooperative. The bylaws must prescribe the number of trustees, their qualifications, other than those provided for in this chapter, the manner of holding meetings of the board of trustees and of the election of successors to trustees who resign, die, or are otherwise incapable of acting. The bylaws may also provide for the removal of trustees from office and for the election of their successors.

(2) Without approval of the membership, trustees:

(a) may not receive any salaries for their services as trustees, except trustees may receive the same insurance coverage provided to cooperative employees; and

(b) except in emergencies, may not be employed by the cooperative in any capacity involving compensation.

(3) The bylaws may provide that the board of trustees may establish a fixed sum, including expenses of attendance, if any, to be allowed for:

(a) attendance at each meeting of the board of trustees or any committee of the board of trustees; or

(b) representing the cooperative at any meeting or on any business whenever representation has been approved by the board.

(4) If a husband and wife hold joint membership in a cooperative, either one but not both may be elected a trustee.

(5) The policies of the cooperative may provide that benefits provided to employees may be extended to trustees.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 172, L. 1939; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 208, L. 1965; R.C.M. 1947, 14-509(a), (d); amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 237, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 41, L. 1993.

35-18-312. Trustees — term — quorum — powers. (1) The trustees of a cooperative named in any articles of incorporation, consolidation, merger, or conversion hold office until the next annual meeting of the members or until their successors have been elected and qualified. At each annual meeting or, in case of failure to hold the annual meeting as specified in the bylaws, at a special meeting called for that purpose, the members shall elect trustees who may serve for 1-, 2-, or 3-year terms. Each trustee holds office for the term for which the trustee is elected or until a successor is elected and qualified.

(2) A majority of the board of trustees constitutes a quorum.

(3) The board of trustees may exercise all of the powers of a cooperative, except powers that are conferred upon the members by this chapter or its articles of incorporation or bylaws.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 172, L. 1939; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 208, L. 1965; R.C.M. 1947, 14-509(b), (c), (e); amd. Sec. 1337, Ch. 56, L. 2009.

35-18-313. Voting districts. (1) (a) For corporations organized under the provisions of 35-18-105(2), notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the bylaws may provide that the territory in which a cooperative supplies telephone service to members must be divided into two or more voting districts and that in respect to each voting district:

(i) the members residing in the voting district shall elect a designated number of trustees;

(ii) the members residing in the voting district shall elect a designated number of delegates; or

(iii) the members shall elect both trustees and delegates.

(b) The bylaws must prescribe the manner in which the voting districts and the members of those voting districts and the delegates and trustees, if any, elected from those voting districts are to function and the powers of the delegates, which may include the power to elect trustees.

(c) A member present at any voting district meeting and a delegate present at any meeting may not vote by proxy or by mail.

(2) (a) For corporations organized under the provisions of 35-18-105(1), notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the bylaws may provide that the territory or geographic area in which a cooperative operates to serve members, or a class or classes of members, must be divided into two or more voting districts and that in respect to each voting district:

(i) the members or the members of a membership class or classes residing in the voting district shall elect a designated number of trustees;

(ii) the members or the members of a membership class or classes residing in the voting district shall elect a designated number of delegates; or

(iii) the members or the members of a membership class or classes shall elect both trustees and delegates.

(b) This section does not restrict or prohibit a cooperative from using any combination of voting districts based on members or classes of members within a territory or geographical area or voting districts at large based on members or classes of members using one or more kinds of service or product provided by the cooperative.

(c) The bylaws must prescribe the manner in which the voting districts and the trustees and delegates, if any, elected from those voting districts shall function and the powers of the delegates, which may include the power to elect trustees and adopt, amend, or repeal the bylaws of a cooperative.

(d) A member present at any voting district meeting and a delegate present at any meeting may not vote by proxy or by mail.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 172, L. 1939; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 80, L. 1957; R.C.M. 1947, 14-510; amd. Sec. 46, Ch. 7, L. 2001; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 406, L. 2001.

35-18-314. Officers. The officers of a cooperative consist of a president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer who must be elected annually by and from the board of trustees. A person may not continue to hold any office after the person ceases to be a trustee. The offices of secretary and of treasurer may be held by the same person. The board of trustees may also elect or appoint other officers, agents, or employees that it considers necessary or advisable and shall prescribe the powers and duties of those offices. Any officer may be removed from office and a successor elected in the manner prescribed in the bylaws.

35-18-315. Authority to take acknowledgments — officer, trustee, or member. No person who is authorized to take acknowledgments under the laws of this state shall be disqualified from taking acknowledgments of instruments executed in favor of a cooperative or to which it is a party by reason of being an officer, director, or member of such cooperative.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 172, L. 1939; R.C.M. 1947, 14-525.

35-18-316. Allocation and retirement of patronage capital — retention of unclaimed retirement payments. (1) A cooperative's patronage capital for any fiscal year must, unless otherwise determined by a vote of the members, be allocated by the cooperative to its members in accordance with this section.

(2) (a) Patronage capital must be determined by a cooperative on an annual basis and reflect an amount equal to cooperative revenue in excess of its costs of doing business.

(b) For the purposes of patronage capital, costs include but are not limited to revenue to:

(i) defray expenses of the cooperative and of the operation and maintenance of its facilities during the fiscal year;

(ii) pay interest and principal obligations of the cooperative coming due in the fiscal year;

(iii) finance or provide a reserve for the financing of the construction or acquisition by the cooperative of additional facilities to the extent determined by the board of trustees;

(iv) provide a reasonable reserve for working capital;

(v) provide a reserve for the payment of indebtedness of the cooperative maturing more than 1 year after the date of the incurrence of the indebtedness in an amount not less than the total of the interest and principal payments required to be made during the next fiscal year; and

(vi) provide a fund, which may be not less than 2% or more than 5% of the balance remaining, for education in cooperation and for the dissemination of information concerning the effective use of electrical energy and other services made available by the cooperative.

(3) (a) Patronage capital must annually be allocated on the books of the cooperative to each member.

(b) The allocation must be based on and in proportion to:

(i) the revenue from each member or group of similar members;

(ii) the contribution of each member or group of similar members to the cooperative's overall patronage capital; or

(iii) any combination of subsections (3)(b)(i) and (3)(b)(ii) as determined by the board of trustees.

(4) The allocation of patronage capital to a member's account does not vest until the board of trustees determines that retirement is proper pursuant to subsection (5).

(5) (a) Retirement of patronage capital is the actual payment, as provided in subsection (6), of patronage capital to the cooperative members to whom it has previously been allocated.

(b) The board of trustees of a cooperative may, in its discretion, use its business judgment to retire patronage capital allocated on the books of the cooperative when the retirement is consistent with sound business and management practices and the long-term financial stability of the cooperative. If the board of trustees, in its discretion, uses its business judgment to offer members the option of accepting retirement of patronage capital outside of the normal retirement cycle, then the retirement may be discounted from the board's approved retirement cycle to present-day value when determined to be appropriate by the board of trustees.

(6) When the board of trustees of the cooperative determines in accordance with subsection (5) that patronage capital should be retired, the payment must be made. Interest may not be paid or payable by the cooperative on any patronage capital furnished by its members.

(7) Nothing contained in this section may be construed to prohibit the payment by a cooperative of all or any part of its indebtedness prior to the date when the payment becomes due.

(8) A cooperative shall, upon the action of the board of trustees, retain retirements of patronage capital allocated to its members that remain unclaimed for a period of 5 years after the end of the year in which the retirement is made. Unclaimed retirements retained by the cooperative must be used for educational purposes.

Compiler's Comments

2019 Amendment: Chapter 47 in (1) substituted current text requiring that a cooperative's patronage capital be allocated in accordance with the section for former text that read: "Revenue of a cooperative for any fiscal year must, unless otherwise determined by a vote of the members, be distributed by the cooperative to its members as patronage refunds prorated in accordance with the patronage of the cooperative by the respective members paid for during the fiscal year, whenever the revenue exceeds the amount necessary to"; inserted (2)(a) requiring that patronage capital be determined annually and reflect revenues in excess of costs of doing business; in (2)(b) inserted introductory clause; inserted (3) through (6) concerning the allocation and retirement of patronage capital; in (8) in first sentence near middle substituted "retain retirements of patronage capital" for "retain patronage refunds" and at end substituted "year in which retirement is made" for "year in which the refunds are given" and in last sentence at beginning substituted "Unclaimed retirements" for "Refunds"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective March 7, 2019.

35-18-317. Disposition or encumbrance of property. (1) (a) Except as provided in subsection (2) and in accordance with 35-18-318, a cooperative may not sell, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of or encumber all or any substantial portion of its property unless the sale, mortgage, lease, or other disposition or encumbrance is:

(i) authorized at a duly held meeting of cooperative members;

(ii) approved by not less than two-thirds of all the members of the cooperative; and

(iii) described in the notice of the meeting.

(b) For the purposes of this section, as the term applies to a telephone cooperative, "substantial portion" means 20% or more of the net book value of the telephone cooperative as disclosed in its audited financial statements as of the close of its most recent fiscal year.

(2) Except as provided in 35-18-318, the board of trustees of a cooperative, without authorization by the cooperative members, may:

(a) authorize the execution and delivery of a mortgage or mortgages or a deed or deeds of trust upon or the pledging or encumbrancing of any or all of:

(i) the property, assets, rights, privileges, licenses, franchises, and permits of the cooperative, whether acquired or to be acquired and wherever situated; and

(ii) the revenue and income from the property, assets, rights, privileges, licenses, franchises, and permits; and

(b) determine the terms and conditions necessary to secure any indebtedness of the cooperative to:

(i) the United States of America;

(ii) any instrumentality or agency of the United States; or

(iii) any other financing sources within the United States.

(3) Before a meeting is held to vote on authorization of disposition of cooperative property, the board of trustees shall:

(a) have the property appraised by three appraisers chosen by the board and not associated with the cooperative or a proposed buyer of cooperative property;

(b) notify all cooperative members, at least 90 days in advance, of a meeting to vote on disposition of cooperative property. Detailed proposals for disposition of the property must accompany the notice.

(c) at least 30 days before the meeting, notify all other cooperatives situated and operating in the state that the property is available for disposition and include with the notice one copy of each appraisal on the cooperative property; and

(d) at least 30 days before the meeting, mail to all members any alternative proposal made by cooperative members if it has been submitted to the board and signed by 50 or more members.

(4) The vote on property disposition may take place at an annual meeting if the board notifies the members as provided in this section.

(5) This section does not apply to the transfer of cooperative property in a merger or consolidation of cooperatives.

35-18-318. Long-term indebtedness — membership approval and review — cooperative requirements. (1) Before a cooperative creates or enters into an agreement that results in any direct or indirect obligation for the repayment of long-term bonded indebtedness for financing directly or indirectly the construction, maintenance, or operation of nuclear power generating facilities that may result in a rate increase to the cooperative's members for repayment of the obligation, the cooperative must receive approval from a majority of those members present and voting at the meeting. The approval must be obtained at a special meeting held for that purpose.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (6) and in accordance with subsections (3) and (4), a generation and transmission cooperative must receive approval from a two-thirds majority of the distribution cooperative members of the generation and transmission cooperative before the generation and transmission cooperative:

(a) creates or enters into an agreement that results in direct or indirect obligation for the repayment of long-term bonded indebtedness for financing directly or indirectly the construction of electric generating facilities with a nameplate capacity exceeding 10% of a generation and transmission cooperative's maximum 1-hour demand for the prior year; or

(b) enters into an energy contract allowing for the purchase of electricity that exceeds the generation and transmission cooperative's load levels after factoring in existing supply contracts and generation, if any, for the period to be contracted.

(3) Approval required pursuant to subsection (2) is granted using a three-fifths majority of the board of trustees of each distribution cooperative that is a member of the generation and transmission cooperative.

(4) (a) Approval of each distribution cooperative's board of trustees pursuant to subsection (3) must be obtained at a special meeting held for that purpose.

(b) Notice of the need for a vote by each distribution cooperative's board of trustees must be provided at least 60 days in advance of the vote.

(5) (a) A member distribution cooperative may provide a study by an independent entity of rate impact and comparative costs of projects similar to those proposed by a generation and transmission cooperative. The study must be conducted in the most cost-effective manner practicable.

(b) If the study is provided pursuant to this subsection (5), the generation and transmission cooperative shall reimburse up to 50% of the cost of the study to the distribution cooperative that provides the study.

(c) If the study is provided pursuant to this subsection (5), it must be considered by the generation and transmission cooperative's board of trustees prior to the vote required in subsection (2).

(6) Vote requirements pursuant to subsection (2) are not required for agreements created or entered into by generation and transmission cooperatives with regional generation and transmission cooperatives or federal power marketing administrations or their successors.

(7) At least 60 days before a vote required pursuant to subsection (2), a generation and transmission cooperative shall provide each distribution cooperative that is a member of the generation and transmission cooperative with load forecasts completed within the previous 12-month period for the generation and transmission cooperative.

(8) A member of a distribution cooperative may inspect a summary of the annual load forecasts provided pursuant to subsection (7). The summary is not required to include projected growth of industrial loads.

(9) A generation and transmission cooperative shall:

(a) give member distribution cooperatives the right to determine who serves as its representative on a generation and transmission cooperative's board of trustees;

(b) in accordance with 35-18-311, give member distribution cooperatives the authority to certify the replacement of a trustee to fill a distribution cooperative's seat on a generation and transmission cooperative's board of trustees in the event of a vacancy;

(c) permit all members of a distribution cooperative's board of trustees and all distribution cooperative managers to be present at all generation and transmission cooperative board of trustees meetings, including teleconferences. Board members must be allowed to speak on any item on the meeting agenda.

(d) limit executive sessions of the generation and transmission cooperative's board of trustees to confidential matters and matters of individual privacy; and

(e) make available to members of a distribution cooperative's board of trustees and managers:

(i) financial reports of the generation and transmission cooperative; and

(ii) minutes of generation and transmission cooperative board meetings.

(10) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Distribution cooperative" means a cooperative organized in accordance with this chapter that is directly responsible for supplying electricity to and billing its members who are the ultimate consumers of the electricity.

(b) "Generation and transmission cooperative" means a Montana-based cooperative organized in accordance with this chapter that files articles of incorporation pursuant to 35-18-203 that either generates power or enters into contracts for power, or both. It enters into contracts for the sale of wholesale electricity to two or more distribution cooperative members and may or may not own transmission services.

(c) "Load forecast" means an estimate or projection of end-use electricity consumption based on projected changes in future end use, taking into account residential, commercial, industrial, and irrigation loads, populations, business cycles, appliance saturation, and efficiencies. It may be forecasted by sector or consumer class.

(d) "Regional generation and transmission cooperative" means a cooperative serving more than 400 megawatts of load with multiple generating facilities. Its members are in multiple states and are distribution cooperatives, generation and transmission cooperatives, or both.

35-18-319 through 35-18-324 reserved.

35-18-325. Duties of trustees and officers. (1) A trustee or officer shall discharge the duties of the office, including the trustee's or officer's duties as a member of any committee:

(a) in good faith;

(b) with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a similar position would exercise under similar circumstances; and

(c) in a manner that the trustee or officer reasonably believes to be in the best interest of the cooperative.

(2) In discharging duties, a trustee or officer is entitled to rely on factual information, opinions, reports, or statements, including but not limited to financial statements and other financial information, if prepared and presented by:

(a) one or more officers or employees of the cooperative whom the trustee or officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the subject matter presented;

(b) attorneys, public accountants, engineers, or other persons with regard to subject matters that the trustee or officer reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or

(c) a committee of the board of trustees or officers of which the trustee or officer is not a member if the trustee or officer reasonably believes that the committee merits confidence.

(3) A trustee or officer is not acting in good faith if the trustee or officer has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (2) unwarranted.

(4) A trustee or officer is not liable for any action taken as a trustee or officer or for any failure to take any action if the trustee or officer performs the duties of the office in compliance with this section.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 173, L. 2001.

35-18-326. Trustee or officer conflict of interest. (1) A conflict of interest transaction is a transaction with the cooperative in which a trustee of the cooperative has a direct or indirect interest. A conflict of interest transaction is not voidable and may not be the basis for imposing liability on the trustee or officer if the transaction was fair at the time the transaction was entered into.

(2) If a trustee or officer has a conflict of interest relating to a transaction, the trustee or officer:

(a) shall disclose to the trustees or members voting on the transaction the existence and nature of the conflict of interest and all facts known to the trustee with respect to the subject matter of the transaction that an ordinarily prudent person would reasonably believe to be material to a judgment about whether or not to proceed with the transaction; and

(b) may not participate, directly or indirectly, in the vote on the transaction.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a trustee or officer of a cooperative has an indirect interest in a transaction if:

(a) another entity in which the trustee or officer has a material interest or in which the trustee or officer is a general partner is a party to the transaction; or

(b) another entity, other than a cooperative or corporation of which the cooperative is a member or shareholder, of which the trustee or officer is a director, officer, or trustee is a party to the transaction.

(4) (a) Except as provided in subsection (4)(b), a conflict of interest transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified if the transaction receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the trustees or officers on the board or committee who do not have a direct or indirect interest in the transaction.

(b) A transaction may not be authorized, approved, or ratified by a single trustee or officer.

(c) If a majority of the trustees or officers on the board or committee who do not have a direct or indirect conflict of interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve, or ratify the transaction, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action on the transaction.

(d) The presence of or vote cast by a trustee with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction does not affect the validity of any action taken under this section if the transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified as provided in this section.

(5) The articles or bylaws of the cooperative may impose additional requirements on conflict of interest transactions.

35-18-327. Definitions. As used in 35-18-327 through 35-18-333, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Liability" means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, or fine, including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan, or to pay reasonable expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding.

(2) (a) "Official capacity" means the office of trustee or officer in a cooperative.

(b) The term does not include service for any other domestic cooperative or any partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise.

(3) "Party" includes an individual who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding.

(4) "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal.

(5) (a) "Trustee or officer" means an individual who is or was a trustee or officer of a cooperative or an individual who, while a trustee or officer of a cooperative, is or was serving at the cooperative's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another domestic cooperative, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise.

(b) The term includes, unless the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal representative of a trustee or officer.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 173, L. 2001.

35-18-328. Authority to indemnify. (1) Except as provided in subsection (4), an individual who is made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a trustee or officer may be indemnified against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

(a) the individual conducted business in good faith;

(b) the individual reasonably believed:

(i) in the case of conduct in the individual's official capacity with the cooperative, that the individual's conduct was in the cooperative's best interests; and

(ii) in all other cases, that the individual's conduct was at least not opposed to the cooperative's best interests; and

(c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the individual had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful.

(2) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, a determination that the trustee or officer did not meet the standard of conduct described in this section.

(3) A cooperative may not indemnify a trustee or officer under this section:

(a) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the cooperative in which the trustee or officer was adjudged liable to the cooperative; or

(b) in connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to the trustee or officer, whether or not involving action in the trustee's or officer's official capacity, in which the trustee or officer was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by the trustee or officer.

(4) Indemnification permitted under this section in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the cooperative is limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 173, L. 2001.

35-18-329. Mandatory indemnification. Unless limited by its articles of incorporation, a cooperative shall indemnify a trustee or officer who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the trustee or officer was a party because the trustee or officer is or was a trustee or officer of the cooperative against reasonable expenses incurred by the trustee or officer in connection with the proceeding.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 173, L. 2001.

35-18-330. Court-ordered indemnification. Unless a cooperative's articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a trustee or officer of the cooperative who is a party to a proceeding may apply for indemnification to the court conducting the proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction. On receipt of an application, the court, after giving any notice that the court considers necessary, may order indemnification if it determines that the trustee or officer:

(1) is entitled to mandatory indemnification under 35-18-329, in which case the court shall also order the cooperative to pay the trustee's reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining court-ordered indemnification; or

(2) is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances. If the trustee or officer was adjudged liable as described in 35-18-328(3), the trustee's or officer's indemnification is limited to reasonable expenses incurred.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 173, L. 2001.

35-18-331. Determination and authorization of indemnification. (1) A cooperative may not indemnify a trustee or officer under 35-18-328 unless authorized in the specific case after a determination has been made that indemnification of the trustee or officer is permissible in the circumstances because the trustee or officer has met the standard of conduct set forth in 35-18-328.

(2) The determination must be made:

(a) by the board of directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;

(b) if a quorum cannot be obtained under subsection (2)(a), by majority vote of a committee designated by the board of directors, in which designated directors who are parties may participate;

(c) by special legal counsel:

(i) selected by the board of directors or its committee in the manner prescribed in subsection (2)(a) or (2)(b); or

(ii) if a quorum of the board of directors cannot be obtained under subsection (2)(a) and a committee cannot be designated under subsection (2)(b), selected by majority vote of the full board of directors in which selected directors who are parties may participate; or

(d) by the shareholders, but shares owned by or voted under the control of directors who are at the time parties to the proceeding may not be voted on the determination.

(3) Authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses must be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that if the determination is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses must be made by those entitled under subsection (2)(c) to select counsel.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 173, L. 2001.

35-18-332. Insurance. A cooperative may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual who is or was a director, trustee, officer, employee, or agent of the cooperative or who, while a director, trustee, officer, employee, or agent of the cooperative, is or was serving at the request of the cooperative as a director, trustee, officer, partner, employee, or agent of another domestic cooperative, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against liability asserted against or incurred by the individual in that capacity or arising from an individual's status as a director, trustee, officer, employee, or agent, whether or not the cooperative would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under 35-18-328 or 35-18-329.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 173, L. 2001.

35-18-333. Application. (1) A provision treating a cooperative's indemnification of trustees or officers that is contained in its articles of incorporation, its bylaws, a resolution of its shareholders or board of directors, a contract, or other instrument is valid only if and to the extent that the provision is consistent with 35-18-327 through 35-18-333. If articles of incorporation limit indemnification, indemnification is valid only to the extent that it is consistent with the articles of incorporation.

(2) Sections 35-18-327 through 35-18-333 do not limit a cooperative's power to pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a trustee or officer in connection with the trustee's or officer's appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the trustee or officer has not been made a named defendant or respondent to the proceeding.

Part 4
Merger, Consolidation, and Dissolution

35-18-401. Procedure for merger. Any one or more cooperatives, each of which is hereinafter designated a "merging cooperative", may merge into another cooperative, hereinafter designated the "surviving cooperative" by complying with the following requirements:

(1) The proposition for the merger of the merging cooperatives into the surviving cooperative and proposed articles of merger to give effect thereto shall be first approved by the board of trustees of each merging cooperative and by the board of trustees of the surviving cooperative. The proposed articles of merger shall recite in the caption that they are executed pursuant to this chapter and shall state:

(a) the name of each merging cooperative, the address of its principal office, and the date of the filing of its articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state;

(b) the name of the surviving cooperative and the address of its principal office;

(c) a statement that the merging cooperatives elect to be merged into the surviving cooperative;

(d) the terms and conditions of the merger and the mode of carrying the same into effect, including the manner and basis of converting the memberships in the merging cooperative or cooperatives into memberships in the surviving cooperative and the issuance of certificates of membership in respect of such converted memberships; and

(e) any provisions not inconsistent with this chapter deemed necessary or advisable for the conduct of the business and affairs of the surviving cooperative.

(2) The proposition for the merger of the merging cooperatives into the surviving cooperative and the proposed articles of merger approved by the board of trustees of the respective cooperatives which are parties to such proposed merger shall then be submitted to a vote of the members of each such cooperative at any annual or special meeting thereof, the notice of which shall set forth full particulars concerning the proposed merger. The proposed merger and the proposed articles of merger shall be deemed to be approved upon the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of those members of each cooperative voting thereon at such meeting.

(3) Upon such approval by the members of the respective cooperatives parties to the proposed merger, articles of merger in the form approved shall be executed on behalf of each such cooperative by its president or vice-president and its seal shall be affixed thereto and attested by its secretary. The president or vice-president of each cooperative executing such articles of merger shall also make and annex thereto an affidavit stating that the provisions of this section were duly complied with by such cooperative.

(4) Such articles of merger and affidavits shall be submitted to the secretary of state for filing as provided in this chapter.

35-18-402. Procedure for consolidation. Any two or more cooperatives, each of which is hereinafter designated a "consolidating cooperative", may consolidate into a new cooperative, hereinafter designated the "new cooperative" by complying with the following requirements:

(1) The proposition for the consolidation of the consolidating cooperatives into the new cooperative and proposed articles of consolidation to give effect thereto shall be first approved by the board of trustees of each consolidating cooperative. The proposed articles of consolidation shall recite in the caption that they are executed pursuant to this chapter and shall state:

(a) the name of each consolidating cooperative, the address of its principal office, and the date of the filing of its articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state;

(b) the name of the new cooperative and the address of its principal office;

(c) the names and addresses of the persons who shall constitute the first board of trustees of the new cooperative;

(d) the terms and conditions of the consolidation and the mode of carrying the same into effect, including the manner and basis of converting memberships in each consolidating cooperative into memberships in the new cooperative and the issuance of certificates of memberships in respect of such converted memberships; and

(e) any provisions not inconsistent with this chapter deemed necessary or advisable for the conduct of the business and affairs of the new cooperative.

(2) The proposition for the consolidation of the consolidating cooperatives into the new cooperative and the proposed articles of consolidation approved by the board of trustees of each consolidating cooperative shall then be submitted to a vote of the members thereof at any annual or special meeting thereof, the notice of which shall set forth full particulars concerning the proposed consolidation. The proposed consolidation and the proposed articles of consolidation shall be deemed to be approved upon the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of those members of each consolidating cooperative voting thereon at such meeting.

(3) Upon such approval by the members of the respective consolidating cooperatives, articles of consolidation in the form approved shall be executed on behalf of each consolidating cooperative by its president or vice-president and its seal shall be affixed thereto and attested by its secretary. The president or vice-president of each consolidating cooperative executing such articles of consolidation shall also make and annex thereto an affidavit stating that the provisions of this section were duly complied with by such cooperative.

(4) Such articles of consolidation and affidavits shall be submitted to the secretary of state for filing as provided in this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 172, L. 1939; R.C.M. 1947, 14-513; amd. Sec. 45, Ch. 174, L. 1983.

Cross-References

35-18-403. Effect of merger or consolidation. The effect of consolidation or merger shall be as follows:

(1) The several cooperatives parties to the consolidation or merger shall be a single cooperative which, in the case of a consolidation, shall be the new cooperative provided for in the articles of consolidation and, in the case of a merger, shall be that cooperative designated in the articles of merger as the surviving cooperative, and the separate existence of all cooperatives parties to the consolidation or merger, except the new or surviving cooperative, shall cease.

(2) Such new or surviving cooperative shall have all the rights, privileges, immunities, and powers and shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities of a cooperative organized under the provisions of this chapter and shall possess all the rights, privileges, immunities, and franchises, as well of a public as of a private nature, and all property, real and personal, applications for membership, all debts due on whatever account, and all other choses in action of each of the consolidating or merging cooperatives. Furthermore, all and every interest of or belonging or due to each of the cooperatives so consolidated or merged shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in such new or surviving cooperative without further act or deed, and the title to any real estate or any interest therein under the laws of this state vested in any such cooperative shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of such consolidation or merger.

(3) Such new or surviving cooperative shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all of the liabilities and obligations of each of the cooperatives so consolidated or merged. Any claim existing or action or proceeding pending by or against any of such cooperatives may be prosecuted as if such consolidation or merger had not taken place, but such new or surviving cooperative may be substituted in its place.

(4) Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of any of such cooperatives shall be impaired by such consolidation or merger.

(5) In the case of a consolidation, the articles of consolidation shall be deemed to be the articles of incorporation of the new cooperative. In the case of a merger, the articles of incorporation of the surviving cooperative shall be deemed to be amended to the extent, if any, that changes therein are provided for in the articles of merger.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 172, L. 1939; R.C.M. 1947, 14-515.

35-18-404. Dissolution of cooperative which has not commenced business. (1) A cooperative which has not commenced business may dissolve voluntarily by delivering to the secretary of state articles of dissolution, executed on behalf of the cooperative by a majority of the incorporators, which shall state:

(a) the name of the cooperative;

(b) the address of its principal office;

(c) the date of its incorporation;

(d) that the cooperative has not commenced business;

(e) that the amount, if any, actually paid in on account of membership fees, less any part thereof disbursed for necessary expenses, has been returned to those entitled thereto and that all easements shall have been released to the grantors;

(f) that no debt of the cooperative remains unpaid; and

(g) that a majority of the incorporators elect that the cooperative be dissolved.

(2) Such articles of dissolution shall be submitted to the secretary of state for filing as provided in this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 172, L. 1939; R.C.M. 1947, 14-518(a); amd. Sec. 46, Ch. 174, L. 1983.

35-18-405. Dissolution and winding up of cooperative that has commenced business. A cooperative that has commenced business may dissolve voluntarily and wind up its affairs in the following manner:

(1) The board of trustees shall first recommend that the cooperative be dissolved voluntarily, and then the proposition that the cooperative be dissolved must be submitted to the members of the cooperative at any annual or special meeting, the notice of which must set forth the proposition. The proposed voluntary dissolution must be considered to be approved upon the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of all of the members of the cooperative.

(2) Upon approval, a certificate of election to dissolve, designated the "certificate", must be executed on behalf of the cooperative by its president or vice president and its corporate seal must be affixed to the certificate and attested by its secretary or assistant secretary. The certificate must state the name of the cooperative, the address of its principal office, the names and addresses of its trustees, and the total number of members who voted for and against the voluntary dissolution of the cooperative. The president or vice president executing the certificate shall also make and attach to the certificate an affidavit stating that the provisions of this subsection were complied with. The certificate and affidavit must be submitted to the secretary of state for filing as provided in this chapter.

(3) Upon the filing of the certificate and affidavit by the secretary of state, the cooperative must cease to carry on its business except to the extent necessary for the winding up of the cooperative, but its corporate existence continues until articles of dissolution have been filed by the secretary of state.

(4) After the filing of the certificate and affidavit by the secretary of state, the board of trustees shall immediately cause notice of the winding up proceedings to be mailed to each known creditor and claimant and to be published once a week for 2 successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the principal office of the cooperative is located.

(5) The board of trustees has full power to wind up and settle the affairs of the cooperative and shall proceed to collect the debts owing to the cooperative, convey and dispose of its property and assets, pay, satisfy, and discharge its debts, obligations, and liabilities, and do all other things required to liquidate its business and affairs and after paying or adequately providing for the payment of all its debts, obligations, and liabilities shall distribute the remainder of its property and assets among its members in proportion to the aggregate patronage of each member during the 7 years preceding the date of filing of the certificate or, if the cooperative has not been in existence for 7 years, during the period of its existence.

(6) When all debts, liabilities, and obligations of the cooperative have been paid and discharged or adequate provision has been made for payment or discharge and all of the remaining property and assets of the cooperative have been distributed to the members pursuant to the provisions of this section, the board of trustees shall authorize the execution of articles of dissolution, which must be executed on behalf of the cooperative by its president or vice president and its corporate seal must be affixed to the articles and attested by its secretary. The articles of dissolution must recite in the caption that they are executed pursuant to this chapter and must state:

(a) the name of the cooperative;

(b) the address of the principal office of the cooperative;

(c) that the cooperative has previously delivered to the secretary of state a certificate of election to dissolve and the date on which the certificate was filed by the secretary of state in the records of that office;

(d) that all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the cooperative have been paid and discharged or that adequate provision has been made for payment or discharge;

(e) that all the remaining property and assets of the cooperative have been distributed among the members in accordance with the provisions of this section; and

(f) that there are no actions or suits pending against the cooperative. The president or vice president executing the articles of dissolution shall also make and attach to the articles an affidavit stating that the provisions of this subsection (6) were complied with. The articles of dissolution and affidavit, accompanied by proof of the publication required in this subsection (6), must be submitted to the secretary of state for filing as provided in this chapter.

Part 5
Filings and Fees

35-18-501. Filings relative to incorporation, amendment, conversion, merger, consolidation, and dissolution — effect of filing — transmittal to county clerk. (1) Articles of incorporation, amendment, consolidation, merger, conversion, or dissolution, when executed and accompanied by affidavits that may be required by applicable provisions of this chapter, must be presented to the secretary of state for filing. If the secretary of state finds that the articles presented conform to the requirements of this chapter, the secretary of state shall upon the payment of the fees as provided in this chapter file the articles, and upon filing, the incorporation, amendment, consolidation, merger, conversion, or dissolution is in effect.

(2) The secretary of state, immediately upon the filing of any articles pursuant to this chapter, shall transmit a certified copy to the county clerk of the county in which the principal office of each cooperative or corporation affected by the incorporation, amendment, consolidation, merger, conversion, or dissolution is located. The clerk of any county, upon receipt of any certified copy, shall file and index the copy in the records of that office, but the failure of the secretary of state or of a clerk of a county to comply with the provisions of this section does not invalidate the articles.

(3) The provisions of this section apply to certificates of election to dissolve and affidavits of compliance executed pursuant to 35-18-405(2).

35-18-502. Fees to be charged by secretary of state. (1) The secretary of state shall charge and collect a fee for each of the following:

(a) filing articles of incorporation and issuing a certificate of incorporation;
(b) filing articles of amendment and issuing a certificate of amendment;
(c) filing articles of consolidation or merger and issuing a certificate of consolidation or merger;
(d) filing articles of conversion and issuing a certificate of conversion;
(e) filing a certificate of election to dissolve and issuing a certificate of election to dissolve;
(f) filing articles of dissolution and issuing a certificate of dissolution; and
(g) filing a certificate of change of principal office and issuing a certificate of change of principal office.

(2) Fees pursuant to this section must be set and deposited in accordance with 2-15-405.

35-20-101. Permissible purposes for association — first meeting — election of trustees. A group of seven persons or more residing in any county in the state of Montana who desire to form an association for the purpose of procuring and holding lands to be used exclusively for a cemetery or place of burial of the dead may meet at a time and place that they or a majority of them agree upon and appoint a presiding officer and secretary by a vote of the majority of the persons present at the meeting and may proceed to form an association by agreeing upon a corporate name by which the association must be known and by determining upon the number of trustees to manage the affairs of the association. The number of trustees may not be less than three or more than nine. Upon determining the number of trustees they may proceed to elect the trustees by ballot.

35-20-102. Classification of trustees — staggered terms. The presiding officer and secretary of the meeting described in 35-20-101 shall immediately after the election divide the trustees by lot into three classes, those in the first class to hold their office for 1 year, those in the second class for 2 years, and those in the third class for 3 years. However, the trustees of each class may be reelected if they possess the qualifications mentioned in this part. The meeting must also determine on what day in each year the future annual election of trustees will be held.

35-20-103. (Temporary) Document of incorporation — contents — filing. (1) The presiding officer and secretary of the meeting described in 35-20-101 shall within 5 days after the holding of the meeting make a written certificate, which must state:

(a) the names of the associates who attended the meeting;
(b) the corporate name of the association determined by a majority of the persons who met;
(c) the number of persons agreed upon to manage the concerns of the association;
(d) the names of the trustees chosen at the meeting and their classification;
(e) the day of the year identified for the annual election of trustees and the manner of their election.

(2) In addition to provisions required in subsection (1), the document of incorporation may also contain provisions not inconsistent with law regarding liability as set forth in 35-1-216(2)(d).

(3) The certificate must be signed by the presiding officer and secretary and acknowledged by them before some person authorized to take acknowledgments within the state of Montana. They shall cause the acknowledged certificate to be recorded in the office of the county clerk and recorder of the county in which the meeting was held, and a certified copy of the recorded certificate must be filed with the secretary of state of the state of Montana, who shall issue a certificate of filing without charge.

35-20-103. (Effective June 1, 2020) Document of incorporation — contents — filing. (1) The presiding officer and secretary of the meeting described in 35-20-101 shall within 5 days after the holding of the meeting make a written certificate, which must state:

(a) the names of the associates who attended the meeting;
(b) the corporate name of the association determined by a majority of the persons who met;

2019 Amendment: Chapter 271 in (2) at end substituted "35-14-202(2)(d)" for "35-1-216(2)(d)". Amendment effective June 1, 2020.

35-20-104. Effect of filing — powers of association — eminent domain. When a certificate of incorporation is acknowledged, recorded, and filed as provided in 35-20-103, the association is considered legally incorporated and has the general powers and privileges of corporations with the right to sue and be sued and to continue perpetually. The association may also take private property for public use for a cemetery or place of burial of the dead. The power of eminent domain must be exercised under the provisions of Title 70, chapter 30.

35-20-205. Qualifications of trustees — notice of election — vacancies. (1) In all elections after the first, the trustees shall be chosen from among the associates named in said certificate of incorporation or their successors.

(2) Public notice of every annual election shall be given in such manner as the bylaws of the association prescribe.

(3) The trustees shall have the power to fill any vacancy in their number occurring during the term of office for which any trustee was elected.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 18, L. 1905; re-en. Sec. 4250, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 6482, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6482, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 9-114.

35-20-206. Time for election if not held at time fixed in document of incorporation. If the annual election is not held on the day fixed in the certificate of incorporation, the trustees have the power to appoint another day not more than 60 days thereafter and shall give public notice of the time and place, at which time the election may be held with like effect as if held on the day fixed in said certificate. The terms of office of the trustees chosen at such election shall expire at the same time they would have done had they been chosen on the day fixed in the certificate of incorporation.

35-20-216. Inalienability of lots. (1) Whenever the land of an association is laid out in lots and the lots or any of them are transferred to individual proprietors and there has been an interment in a transferred lot, that lot from the time of interment is inalienable and must, upon the death of the proprietor, descend to to the proprietor's heirs. However, any one or more of those heirs may release to any other of the heirs that individual's or their interest in the lot. A copy of the release must be filed with the secretary of the association or with the county clerk and recorder of the county within which the lot is situated. Except by consent of all persons having an interest in the lot, the body of a deceased person may not be interred in that lot unless it is the body of:

(a) a person having an interest in that lot at the time of that person's death;
(b) a relative of some person having an interest;
(c) the wife or husband of a person having an interest; or
(d) a relative of the husband or wife.

(2) However, the person or persons in whom the title to the lot or lots or part of the lot or lots is vested may at any time sell, convey, and release the lot or lots or parts of the lot or lots to the cemetery association maintaining the cemetery in which the lots are situated. A copy of the instruments of conveyance must be filed in the same manner provided for release from one heir to another. The cemetery association may use any funds under its control for filing purposes and holds and may convey the lot or lots or parts of the lot or lots to other purchasers in the same manner and with the same effect as it holds and conveys any other of its cemetery lots. This subsection does not allow or authorize the conveyance to the cemetery association of a piece of ground in which the body of a deceased person lawfully interred actually remains interred at the time of the attempted conveyance.

35-20-302. Trustees of fund — appointment by district court — qualifications — powers. (1) Whenever at least $100 has been received by a cemetery corporation or association, either from the sale of lots or from direct payments of the corporation or association toward a fund by lot owners or otherwise, the trustees of that association shall immediately make application to the judge of the district court for the judicial district in which the cemetery for which the trust fund exists for the appointment of a trustee or of a board of trustees of the fund. The judge shall appoint a trustee or a board of trustees from a list submitted by the trustees of the association. The trust fund trustee or board must consist of not less than one or more than five persons, the exact number to rest in the discretion of the trustees of the association.

(2) The trustee or the members of the board of trustees of the trust funds must be citizens and freeholders of the state of Montana during all the time they exercise the powers of the trust. Upon the election, appointment, and qualification of the trustees of the fund, all of the title to the funds included in the trust and all of the rights, powers, authorities, franchises, and trusts relating to the trust vest in the trustee or board. However, if any of those chosen and appointed as trustees fail to qualify within 30 days after their appointment, the rights, powers, authorities, franchises, and trusts vest in those who qualify. If any of those chosen and appointed fail to qualify within 30 days, a vacancy exists and the judge of the district court shall appoint a trustee to fill the vacancy from a list submitted by the trustees of the association.

(3) The board of trustees of the association may nominate any bank that is authorized to act as a trust company in Montana under state or federal law to be trustee of the trust fund. In that case, the district court shall appoint the nominee that shall serve without bond but is required to make all reports and discharge all the duties and obligations required of individual trustees.

35-20-303. Trustees of fund — term. The tenure of office of the trustee or trustees of such fund shall be for the term of 3 years unless they permanently remove from the state of Montana or are removed from office by the judge of said district court for good cause shown or their tenure is otherwise terminated as in this chapter provided.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 18, L. 1905; re-en. Sec. 4258, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 6490, R.C.M. 1921; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 68, L. 1925; re-en. Sec. 6490, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 98, L. 1939; R.C.M. 1947, 9-122.

35-20-304. Trustees of fund — bond required — renewal of bond — deposit with county treasurer. (1) Before exercising or having any of the powers, duties, rights, titles, authorities, or franchises appertaining to the trust or to trusteeship, each person chosen to be a trustee of the fund shall give to the cemetery association for which the trust is maintained a bond in a sum equaling at least 1⅓ times the value of the property on hand at the time of giving the bond, with good and sufficient sureties, who shall justify in the aggregate in at least double the amount of the bond. The bond must be conditioned for the due and faithful performance of the trustee's trust until July 1 of the next even-numbered year after the year in which the bond is given and until the trustee gives a new bond.

(2) Upon July 1 in each even-numbered year, each trustee shall give a new bond conditioned in the same way, the amount to be determined by the same rule, and with sureties as provided in subsection (1).

(3) Any failure to renew bonds within 30 days after the time provided is a sufficient ground for removal of any trustee within the discretion of the district court. The bonds must all be approved by a judge of the district court for the judicial district in which the cemetery for the trust exists or some part of the cemetery is located and must be filed with the clerk of the district court of the county in which the cemetery is located.

(4) The value of the property on hand may be reduced for the purpose of fixing the amount of the bond in an amount equal to the value of the money, bonds, and securities that the trustee or trustees of the permanent care and improvement fund may elect to and do deposit with the county treasurer as provided in subsection (5).

(5) The trustee or trustees of the fund may deposit money, bonds, and securities as the trustee or trustees see fit with the county treasurer of the county in which the cemetery or some part of the cemetery is located for safekeeping, and it is the duty of the county treasurer to receive and safely keep all money, bonds, and securities and pay them out or deliver them, or any part of them, upon the order of the trustee or a majority of the trustees, when countersigned by a judge of the judicial district, and to keep an account with the trustee or trustees of all transactions. For the safekeeping and payment and delivery of all money, bonds, and securities, the treasurer and the treasurer's sureties are liable upon the treasurer's official bond.

35-20-305. Vacancies — how filled. In the case of the death, resignation, disability, or removal of any member or members of said board of trustees of said fund, the judge of said district court shall forthwith appoint a trustee or trustees to fill such vacancy or vacancies in the same manner as above provided in the case of an original vacancy.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 18, L. 1905; re-en. Sec. 4260, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 6492, R.C.M. 1921; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 68, L. 1925; re-en. Sec. 6492, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 9-124.

35-20-306. All powers vest in survivors until vacancy filled — succession to powers. (1) In case of the death, resignation, disability, or removal of any one or more of the trustees of such fund, all the rights, titles, powers, authorities, franchises, and trusts whatsoever existing in such trustee at the time of such death, resignation, disability, or removal shall at once without further act or conveyance vest in the survivor or survivors until the vacancy or vacancies so occasioned shall be filled, when the same shall in the same manner vest in the board as so reconstituted.

(2) All newly appointed trustees shall at once upon qualification succeed to an equal share in all the rights, titles, powers, authorities, franchises, and trusts belonging to such board, and the same shall always be vested in the members of such board as actually constituted.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 18, L. 1905; re-en. Sec. 4261, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 6493, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6493, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 9-125.

35-20-307. Title to funds vest in court when no application made for appointment or entire board is vacant — appointment by court — accounting. (1) In the case of the failure of the trustees of such an association to make application to the judge of said district court for the appointment of a board of trustees of such fund, as provided in 35-20-302, or in the case of the death, removal, resignation, or disability of all of the members of such board, the rights, titles, interests, authorities, powers, franchises, and trusts, until the appointment and qualification of a new board of trustees of such fund, shall vest in the district court of the county in which such cemetery, or the greater part thereof, shall be situated.

(2) In such cases such trustee or such board of trustees of such fund shall be appointed by the district court of said county upon application of any person interested and upon notice of other persons interested, as the judge of said court may order. The trustee or trustees appointed by the judge of said court under the provisions of this section shall have the same rights, powers, authorities, and franchises as the trustee or trustees appointed under any other sections of this chapter.

(3) Such trustee or such board of trustees must annually, or more often if so required by order of such court, file in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county where such cemetery is situated a duly verified account showing a detailed statement of all moneys collected, of all securities on hand, together with all moneys disbursed during the preceding year. Any interested party may apply to the district court for an order requiring such trustee or such board of trustees to make such an accounting at any time.

(4) Any owner of an interest in any lot in the cemetery cared for by such trust, any trustee of the cemetery association, and any trustee of the trust fund shall have the right to make any application to the court provided for in this chapter.

35-20-310. Transfer of moneys received by association to trustees of fund. (1) From and after February 16, 1905, the trustees of such cemetery association as are mentioned in 35-20-302 shall provide by resolution, spread upon the minutes of such association, for the transfer to the trustees of such permanent care and improvement fund of not less than 15% of the moneys received from the sale of cemetery lots by said association, together with all moneys theretofore or thereafter received from the owners of lots for the care of such lots. Such transfer of any such funds then on hand shall then and there be made. Such transfers shall be made thereafter quarterly upon the first days of January, April, July, and October of each year to the trustees of such fund.

(2) If at any time there shall remain in the hands of such association unexpended money, over and above the liabilities of the association, the board of trustees of such association may by a two-thirds vote appropriate the whole or any portion of such unexpended moneys to such permanent care and improvement fund.

History: En. Sec. 28, Ch. 18, L. 1905; re-en. Sec. 4264, Rev. C. 1907; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 128, L. 1909; re-en. Sec. 6496, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6496, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 98, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 9-128.

35-20-311. Principal of fund to be reserved — income to be turned over to treasurer. The principal of such fund shall in all cases remain intact and inviolate. But the trustees of such fund shall on January 1 and July 1 in each year turn over to the treasurer of such association all accrued income arising from such fund, and the receipt of such treasurer therefor shall be a sufficient voucher in the hands of such trustees.

History: En. Sec. 29, Ch. 18, L. 1905; re-en. Sec. 4265, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 6497, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6497, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 9-129.

35-20-312. Use of income of fund. (1) The income of that portion of such fund received from the sales of lots shall be used in the discretion of the trustees of such association solely for the care, maintenance, and improvement of such cemetery, its grounds, roads, walks, and avenues leading thereto, except as herein provided.

(2) The income from such portion of such funds as shall have been paid in by lot owners for the care of specific lots shall be segregated from the other portion, each lot being credited with its respective income, and shall be used solely for the care of such lots, respectively. In the event of any portion of the income so paid ever remaining unexpended for such purposes for 1 year after its being so paid over to the treasurer of such association, it shall be returned to the trustees of such fund by said treasurer and become a part of the principal.

(3) After February 16, 1905, all cemetery corporations shall distinctly specify in all conveyances of lots therein the percentage of the price received therefor to be transferred under the provisions of this chapter to the permanent care and improvement fund of such corporation and also such further sum if any there be paid by the purchaser for the permanent care of the specific lot or lots thereby conveyed so to be transferred as hereinbefore provided.

35-20-313. Investment of fund. The principal of the fund may be invested in the way in which public employees' retirement funds are permitted to be invested in the state of Montana as prescribed by 17-6-211. Each investment made by the trustee or by the board of trustees is subject to the approval of the board of trustees of the cemetery association.

History: En. Sec. 31, Ch. 18, L. 1905; re-en. Sec. 4267, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 6499, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6499, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 98, L. 1939; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 98, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 9-131; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 168, L. 2015.

35-20-314. Compensation of trustees of fund. The trustee or the members of the board of trustees of such permanent care and improvement fund shall receive such compensation as may be agreed upon between such trustee or between such board of trustees of such permanent care and improvement fund on the one hand and the board of trustees of the cemetery association on the other. The fees of such trustee or of the members of the board of trustees shall be paid out of the general fund of the cemetery association until such trust fund shall reach $10,000 and thereafter the same shall be paid out of the income of such fund.

History: En. Sec. 32, Ch. 18, L. 1905; re-en. Sec. 4268, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 6500, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6500, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 98, L. 1939; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 98, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 9-132.

35-20-315. Annual report of trustees of fund. The trustee or the board of trustees of such fund shall annually on January 1 make their report of the condition of such trust fund to the trustees of the cemetery association and also to the district court as hereinbefore provided. Such reports shall always be kept by the secretary of such association and by the clerk of the district court and be open to the inspection of any person owning an interest in any lot in the cemetery cared for by such fund.

History: En. Sec. 34, Ch. 18, L. 1905; re-en. Sec. 4270, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 6502, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 6502, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 98, L. 1939; R.C.M. 1947, 9-134.

35-20-316. Permanent care and improvement fund — management of fund. (1) A permanent care and improvement fund established pursuant to 35-20-301 is considered an endowment fund as defined in 72-30-102.

(2) The trustees may manage, invest, and appropriate the fund pursuant to the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act provided for in Title 72, chapter 30.

(3) The trustees may annually appropriate a percentage of the fair market value of the fund to the treasurer of the association to use for the purposes set forth in 35-20-312.

Part 8
Mausoleum-Columbarium Authorities

35-21-801. Short title. This part may be cited as the “Mausoleum-Columbarium Act”.
History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-802. Definitions. For the purposes of this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) “Columbarium” means a structure, room, or other space in a permanent building or outdoor structure containing niches for permanent inurnment of cremated remains in a place used or intended to be used and dedicated for interment purposes.

(2) “Cremated remains” means all human remains recovered after the completion of cremation, including pulverization, that leaves only bone fragments that have been reduced to unidentifiable dimensions.

(3) “Crypt” or “vault” means a space in a mausoleum of sufficient size used or intended to be used to entomb uncremated human remains.

(4) “Directors” means the board of directors, board of trustees, or other governing body of a mausoleum-columbarium authority.

(5) “Entombment” means the placement of human remains in a crypt or vault.

(6) “Human remains” or “remains” means the body of a deceased person and includes the body in any stage of decomposition .

(7) “Interment” means the disposition of human remains by cremation and inurnment or entombment in a place used or intended to be used and dedicated for interment purposes.

(8) “Interment space” means any space in a crypt, vault, or niche of sufficient size for the entombment or inurnment of the remains of one human being.

(9) “Inurnment” means placing cremated remains in an urn or other permanent container and placing it in a niche.

(10) “Mausoleum” means a permanent building or outdoor structure suitable for the entombment of human remains in crypts or vaults in a place used or intended to be used and dedicated for interment purposes.

(11) “Mausoleum-columbarium” means a building or structure containing both a mausoleum and a columbarium.

(12) "Mausoleum-columbarium authority" means any corporation, not for profit, owning, controlling, or operating lands, buildings, or structures used or intended to be used and dedicated for interment purposes by entombment or inurnment but does not refer to any corporation, for profit or not for profit, or any association, corporation sole, or other person owning or controlling cemetery lands or property, including mausoleums or columbariums where interment is also made by ground burial.

(13) "Niche" means a space in a columbarium or urn garden used or intended to be used for inurnment of cremated human remains.

(14) "Plot" or "interment plot" means space in a mausoleum or columbarium used or intended to be used for the interment of human remains. The terms include one or more than one adjoining crypts or vaults or one or more than one adjoining niches.

(15) "Plot owner" or "owner" means a person who is on record as owner of an interment in the office of a mausoleum-columbarium authority.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-803. Exemptions and limitations on applicability. (1) The provisions of this part relating to private, nonprofit mausoleums and columbariums do not apply to any of the following:

(a) a religious corporation, church, religious society or denomination, or corporation sole administering temporalities of any church or religious society or denomination or any cemetery, mausoleum, or columbarium organized, controlled, and operated by a religious corporation, church, religious society or denomination, or corporation sole; or

(b) any county, town, or city cemetery, mausoleum, or columbarium.

(2) The provisions of this part do not affect the corporate existence or rights or powers of any cemetery corporation organized under the laws of this state in which a mausoleum or columbarium is situated, maintained, or operated in conjunction with a cemetery for the burial of dead human remains by ground interment. This part applies only to mausoleums or columbariums owned, operated, or controlled by a nonprofit mausoleum-columbarium authority organized and governed as provided in this part and owning, operating, or controlling lands, buildings, and structures solely for the entombment and inurnment of human remains.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-804. Incorporation required to transact business. It is unlawful to engage in the business of a mausoleum-columbarium authority in this state except as an organized nonprofit corporation.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-805. General powers. (1) A mausoleum-columbarium authority has the same powers granted by law to nonprofit corporations in general, including the power to acquire property by purchase, donation, or devise.

(2) The powers, duties, and privileges conferred and imposed on a mausoleum-columbarium authority under the laws of this state are enlarged as each particular case may require to conform to the provisions of this part.

(3) A nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of this state and authorized by its articles of incorporation to do so may as a mausoleum-columbarium authority establish, maintain, manage, operate, or improve a mausoleum or columbarium.

(4) A mausoleum-columbarium authority may:

(a) adopt, amend, add to, revise, or modify and enforce rules for the use, care, control, management, restriction, and protection of all or any part of its mausoleum or columbarium;

(b) restrict and limit the use of all property within its mausoleum or columbarium;

(c) regulate the uniformity, class, and kind of all markers, monuments, and other structures within the mausoleum-columbarium;

(d) regulate or prohibit the erection of monuments, markers, effigies, and structures within any portion of the mausoleum-columbarium grounds;

(e) regulate or prevent the introduction or care of plants or shrubs within the mausoleum-columbarium grounds;

(f) prevent interment in any part of the mausoleum or columbarium of human remains not entitled to interment and prevent the use of interment plots for purposes violative of its restrictions or rules;

(g) regulate the conduct of persons and prevent improper assemblages in the mausoleum-columbarium or on the grounds; and

(h) make and enforce rules for all other purposes considered necessary by the mausoleum-columbarium authority for the proper conduct of the business of the mausoleum or columbarium, for the transfer of any plot or the right of interment, and for the protection and safeguarding of the premises and the principles, plans, and ideals on which the mausoleum or columbarium is conducted.

(5) Rules adopted pursuant to this section must be subject to inspection in the office of the mausoleum-columbarium authority.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-806 through 35-21-809 reserved.

35-21-810. Disposition of remains — liability. (1) The right to control the disposition of the remains of a deceased person, unless other directions have been given by the decedent, is as provided in 37-19-904.

(2) The liability for the reasonable cost of interment devolves jointly and severally upon all kin of the decedent listed in 37-19-904 in the same degree of kindred and upon the estate of the decedent.

(3) A person signing an authorization for the interment of any remains warrants the truthfulness of any fact set forth in the authorization, the identity of the person whose remains are sought to be interred, and the person's authority to order the interment. The person signing the authorization is personally liable for all damage occasioned by or resulting from breach of the warranty.

(4) The mausoleum-columbarium authority may inter any remains upon the receipt of a written authorization of a person representing to be a person who has acquired the right to control the disposition of the remains. A mausoleum-columbarium authority is not liable for interring pursuant to the authorization unless it has actual notice that presentation is untrue.

35-21-811. Limitations on actions — exemptions from liability. An action may not lie against any mausoleum-columbarium authority relating to the remains of a person that have been left in its possession for a period of 2 years unless a written contract has been entered into with the mausoleum-columbarium authority for care of the remains or unless permanent interment has been made. This section may not be construed as an extension of the existing statute prescribing the period within which an action based upon a tort must be commenced. A licensed mortician or funeral director is not liable in damages for any cremated human remains after the remains have been deposited with a mausoleum-columbarium authority in Montana.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-812. Removal of remains — when removal excepted. (1) The remains of a deceased person may be removed from a plot in a mausoleum or columbarium with the consent of the mausoleum-columbarium authority and the written consent of one of the following in the order named:

(a) a spouse;

(b) a majority of adult children;

(c) a parent;

(d) the surviving brothers or sisters of the decedent;

(e) a close relative of the decedent; or

(f) in the absence of a person listed in subsections (1)(a) through (1)(e), a personal representative, a public administrator, the decedent through a preneed authorization, or others designated by the board of funeral service by rule.

(2) If the required consent cannot be obtained, permission by the district court in the county where the mausoleum or columbarium is situated is sufficient if the permission does not violate the terms of a written contract or rules of the mausoleum-columbarium authority.

(3) Notice of application to the court for the permission provided for in subsection (2) must be given at least 15 days prior to a hearing on the application to the mausoleum-columbarium authority and to persons listed in subsections (1)(a) through (1)(e) not consenting and to other persons on whom service of notice may be required by the court.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-813 through 35-21-819 reserved.

35-21-820. Map or plat — filing — tax exemption. (1) Each mausoleum-columbarium authority, from time to time as its property may be required for interment purposes, shall prepare a map or plat that delineates the sections, halls, rooms, corridors, elevations, outdoor mausoleums, urn gardens, and other divisions with descriptive names or numbers.

(2) The mausoleum-columbarium authority shall file the map or plat in the office of the clerk and recorder of the county in which all or a portion of the property is situated. The mausoleum-columbarium authority shall also file for record in the county clerk's office a written declaration of dedication of the property delineated on the map or plat dedicating the property exclusively to interment purposes.

(3) Upon the filing of the map or plat and the filing of the declaration for record, the dedication is complete for all purposes. After filing, the property and all mausoleums and columbariums constructed on and burial plots located in the property must be held, occupied, and used exclusively for interment purposes and are exempt from all state, county, and municipal taxes to the same extent as cemetery property intended to be used for the burial of the human dead by ground interment.

(4) Any part or subdivision of the property mapped and plotted may, by order of the directors, be resurveyed and altered in shape and size and an amended map or plat filed, so long as the change does not disturb the interred remains of any deceased person.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-821. Effect of dedication. (1) The filed map or plat and the recorded declaration are constructive notice to all persons of the dedication of the property to interment purposes.

(2) After property is dedicated to interment purposes, neither the dedication nor the title of a plot owner may be affected by the dissolution of the mausoleum-columbarium authority, by nonuse on its part, by alienation of the property, by any encumbrances, by sale under execution, or otherwise, except as provided in this part.

(3) Dedication to interment purposes pursuant to this section is not invalid as violating any laws against perpetuities or the suspension of the power of alienation of title to or use of property but is expressly permitted and must be considered to be in respect for the dead, a provision for the interment of human remains, and a duty to and for the benefit of the general public.

(4) After dedication and as long as the property remains dedicated to interment purposes, a railroad, street, road, alley, pipeline, pole line, or other public thoroughfare utility may not be laid out through, over, or across any part of the property without the consent of the mausoleum-columbarium authority owning and operating the property or of not less than two-thirds of the owners of interment plots within the property.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-822. Removal of dedication by court. (1) Property dedicated to interment purposes must be held and used exclusively for interment purposes, unless and until the dedication is removed from all or any part of the property by an order and decree of the district court in the county in which the property is situated in a proceeding brought by the mausoleum-columbarium authority for that purpose and upon notice of hearing and proof satisfactory to the court:

(a) that interments were not made in or that all interments have been removed from that portion of the property from which dedication is sought to be removed; and

(b) that the portion of the property from which dedication is sought to be removed is not being used for interment of human remains.

(2) The notice of hearing must be given by publication once a week for at least 3 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the mausoleum or columbarium is located and by posting copies of the notice in three conspicuous places on that portion of the property from which the dedication is to be removed.

(3) The notice must:

(a) describe the portion of the mausoleum or columbarium property sought to be removed from dedication;

(b) state that all remains have been removed or that interments have not been made in the portion of the mausoleum or columbarium property sought to be removed from dedication; and

(c) specify the time and place of the hearing.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-823 and 35-21-824 reserved.

35-21-825. Sale of interment plots. (1) After filing the map or plat and recording the declaration of dedication, a mausoleum-columbarium authority may sell and convey interment plots, subject to the rules then in effect or adopted by the mausoleum-columbarium authority and subject to other limitations, conditions, and restrictions that may be inserted in or made a part of the declaration of dedication by reference or included in the instrument of conveyance of an interment plot.

(2) All conveyances made by a mausoleum-columbarium authority must be signed by an officer or officers as are authorized by the mausoleum-columbarium authority.

(3) All plots, the use of which has been conveyed by deed or certificate of ownership as a separate plot, are indivisible except with the consent of the mausoleum-columbarium authority or as provided by law.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-826. Resale of plots for profit — commissions — penalties. (1) It is unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to sell or offer to sell a mausoleum-columbarium plot upon the promise, representation, or inducement of resale at a financial profit.

(2) It is unlawful for a mausoleum-columbarium authority to pay or offer to pay to any person, firm, or corporation, directly or indirectly, a commission, bonus, rebate, or other thing of value for the sale of a plot or services. This subsection does not apply to a person regularly employed by the mausoleum-columbarium authority or to any bona fide agent of the mausoleum-columbarium authority previously appointed for that purpose.

(3) A person who violates a provision of this section or who pays or causes to be paid or offers to pay to any other person, firm, or corporation, directly or indirectly, except as provided in subsection (2), any commission, bonus, rebate, or other thing of value in consideration of recommending or causing a dead human body to be disposed of in any mausoleum or columbarium is guilty of a misdemeanor, and each violation constitutes a separate offense.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-827. Property interests in plot — estate tax. (1) All plots conveyed to individuals are presumed to be the sole and separate property of the owner named in the instrument of conveyance.

(2) The spouse of an owner of a plot containing more than one interment space has a vested right to be interred in the plot, and a person becoming the spouse of the plot owner has a vested right to be interred in the plot if an interment space not subject to the vested right of interment for previous spouses is unoccupied at the time that the person becomes the spouse of the owner.

(3) A conveyance or other action of the owner without the written consent or joinder of the spouse of the owner may not divest the spouse of a vested right of interment, except that a final decree of dissolution of marriage between the owner and the spouse terminates the vested right of interment unless otherwise provided in the decree.

(4) If an interment is not made in a plot that has been transferred by deed or certificate of ownership to an individual owner or if all remains previously interred in the plot are lawfully removed, the plot descends upon the death of the owner to the owner's heirs-at-law, subject to the rights of interment of the decedent and the owner's surviving spouse unless the owner has disposed of the plot either in a will by a specific devise or by a written declaration filed and recorded in the office of the mausoleum-columbarium authority.

(5) Mausoleum or columbarium property passing to an individual by reason of the death of the owner is exempt from all estate taxes.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 283, L. 1999; amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 9, Sp. L. May 2000.

35-21-828. Family plots. (1) Whenever the remains of the record owner or of a member of the owner's family or of a relative of a member of the owner's family have been interred in a plot transferred by deed or certificate of ownership to an individual owner and the owner has died without making disposition of the plot either in a will by a specific devise or by a written declaration filed and recorded in the office of the mausoleum-columbarium authority, the plot becomes inalienable and must be held as the family plot of the owner.

(2) In a family plot, one crypt or one niche or interment space in the family plot may be used for the owner's interment and one for the owner's surviving spouse, if any, who by law has a vested right of interment in it. Of those crypts, niches, or spaces remaining, if any, the parents and children of the deceased owner in order of death may be interred without the consent of any person claiming an interest in the plot.

(3) If a parent or child is not surviving, the right of interment goes in the order of death first to the spouse of any child of the record owner and second in the order of death to the next heirs-at-law of the owner or the spouse of any heir-at-law.

(4) A surviving spouse, parent, child, or heir having a right of interment in a family plot may waive the right in favor of any other relative or spouse of a relative of the deceased owner, and upon the waiver, the remains of the person in whose favor the waiver is made may be interred in the plot.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-829 and 35-21-830 reserved.

35-21-831. Termination of right of interment — limitation on right. (1) A vested right of interment is terminated upon interment elsewhere of the person with the vested right.

(2) A vested right of interment does not give to any person the right to have the person's remains interred in any interment space in which the remains of any deceased person having a prior vested right of interment have been interred or the right to have the remains of more than one deceased person interred in a single interment space in violation of the rules of the mausoleum-columbarium authority controlling the operation of the mausoleum or columbarium in which the interment space is located.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-832. Conveyance to mausoleum-columbarium authority by plot owner. A mausoleum-columbarium authority may take and hold any plot conveyed or devised to it by the plot owner so that it will be inalienable, and interments must be restricted to the persons designated in the conveyance or devise.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-833. Joint tenants. (1) In a conveyance to two or more persons as joint tenants, each joint tenant has a vested right of interment in the plot conveyed.

(2) Upon the death of a joint tenant, the title to the plot held in joint tenancy immediately vests in the survivors, subject to the vested right of interment of the remains of the deceased joint tenant.

(3) An affidavit by any person having knowledge of the facts setting forth the fact of the death of one joint tenant and establishing the identity of the surviving joint tenants named in the deed to any plot, when filed with the mausoleum-columbarium authority operating the mausoleum-columbarium in which the plot is located, is a complete authorization to the mausoleum-columbarium authority to permit the use of the unoccupied portion of the plot in accordance with the directions of the surviving joint tenants or their successors in interest.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-834. Co-owners — mausoleum-columbarium authority liability. (1) When there are several owners of a plot or of rights of interment in the plot, the owners may designate one or more persons to represent the plot and file written notice of the designation with the mausoleum-columbarium authority.

(2) In the absence of a notice provided for in subsection (1) or a written objection to an interment, the mausoleum-columbarium authority is not liable to any owner for interring or permitting an interment in the plot upon the request or direction of any co-owner of the plot.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-835 through 35-21-839 reserved.

35-21-840. Records. (1) A record must be kept of the ownership of all plots in the mausoleum and columbarium that have been conveyed by the mausoleum-columbarium authority and of all transfers of plots. The transfer of any plot or any right of interment is not complete or effective until recorded on the books of the mausoleum-columbarium authority.

(2) The mausoleum-columbarium authority in charge of any mausoleum or columbarium in which interments are made shall keep a record of all remains, including cremated remains, interred on the premises under its charge, in each case stating the name of each deceased person, date of interment, and name and address of the funeral director.

(3) The records required under this section must be open to inspection during the customary office hours of the mausoleum-columbarium authority.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-841 through 35-21-844 reserved.

35-21-845. Endowment care fund — investment of funds — use of income — permissible investment securities. (1) A mausoleum-columbarium authority may place its mausoleum or columbarium under endowment care and establish, maintain, and operate an irreducible endowment care fund.

(2) Endowment care and special care funds may be commingled for investment, and the income from the funds must be divided between the endowment care and special care funds in the proportion that each fund contributed to the principal sum invested. The funds may be held in the name of the mausoleum-columbarium authority or its directors or in the name of the trustees appointed by the mausoleum-columbarium authority.

(3) The principal of all funds for endowment care must forever remain irreducible and inviolable and must be maintained separate and distinct from all other funds.

(4) The principal of all funds for endowment care must be invested, from time to time reinvested, and kept invested, and the income earned must be used solely for the general care, maintenance, and embellishment of the mausoleum or columbarium, or both, and the grounds on which they are situated and must be applied in a manner that the mausoleum-columbarium authority may from time to time determine to be for the best interests of the mausoleum-columbarium.

(5) The endowment care funds must be invested, reinvested, and kept invested in securities that are legal investments for public employees' retirement funds under the laws of the state of Montana.

35-21-846. Plans for general care and endowment care. (1) The mausoleum-columbarium authority may from time to time adopt plans for the general care, maintenance, and embellishment of its mausoleum-columbarium and charge and collect from all subsequent purchasers of plots reasonable sums as, in the judgment of the mausoleum-columbarium authority, will aggregate a fund, the reasonable income from which will provide reasonable care, maintenance, and embellishment.

(2) Upon payment of the purchase price and the amount fixed as a proportionate contribution for endowment care, there may be included in the deed of conveyance or in a separate instrument an agreement to care, in accordance with the plan adopted, for the mausoleum or columbarium and its appurtenances to the proportionate extent that the income received by the mausoleum-columbarium authority from the contribution will permit.

(3) Upon the application of the owner of any plot and upon the payment by the owner of the amount fixed as a reasonable and proportionate contribution for endowment care, a mausoleum-columbarium authority may enter into an agreement with the owner for the care of the owner's plot and its appurtenances.

35-21-847. Fund trustees — compensation — annual financial report. (1) The mausoleum-columbarium authority may appoint a board of trustees, of not less than five members, for its endowment care fund. The members of the board of trustees shall hold office subject to the discretion of the mausoleum-columbarium authority.

(2) The directors of a mausoleum-columbarium authority may be constituted as the trustees of its endowment care fund. When the fund is in the care of the directors as a board of trustees, the secretary of the mausoleum-columbarium authority shall act as secretary of the board of trustees and keep a true record of all of its proceedings. The investments of the endowment care fund may be held in the name of the mausoleum-columbarium authority.

(3) In lieu of the appointment of a board of trustees of its endowment care fund, a mausoleum-columbarium authority may appoint as sole trustee of its endowment care fund any bank or trust company qualified to engage in the trust business in the state of Montana, and the bank or trust company is authorized to receive and accept the fund and all accretions to the fund, including any accumulated endowment care fund in existence at the time of the bank's or trust company's appointment.

(4) A sum in excess of 5% of the income derived from the fund in any year may not be paid as compensation to the board of trustees for its services as trustee, provided that if 5% of the income divided by the number of trustees is less than $100, each trustee is entitled to receive a minimum of $100 a year for serving as a trustee.

(5) The mausoleum-columbarium authority or the persons in whose names the endowment care funds are held shall, annually and within 90 days after the end of the calendar or fiscal year of the mausoleum-columbarium authority, make and file with the district court in the county in which the mausoleum-columbarium is located a true and correct written report, verified on oath by an officer of the mausoleum-columbarium authority or by the oath of one or more of the trustees, showing the actual financial condition of the endowment care fund.

35-21-848. Endowment care fund gifts and contributions. (1) (a) A mausoleum-columbarium authority that has established an endowment care fund may take, receive, and hold as a part of or incident to the fund any property, real, personal, or mixed, bequeathed, devised, granted, given, or otherwise contributed to it for its endowment care fund.

(b) A mausoleum-columbarium authority that has established endowment care may also take and hold any property bequeathed, granted, or given to it in trust to apply the principal or proceeds or income to any of the following purposes:

(i) improvement or embellishment of all or any part of the mausoleum or columbarium or any plot in it;

(ii) planting or cultivation of trees, shrubs, or plants in or around any part of the grounds on which the mausoleum-columbarium is situated;

(iii) special care or ornamenting of any part of any plot, section, corridor, or other portion of the mausoleum-columbarium;

(iv) any purpose or use not inconsistent with the purpose for which the mausoleum-columbarium was established or is maintained.

(2) The endowment care fund and all payments or contributions to it are expressly permitted as and for charitable and eleemosynary purposes. Endowment care is a provision for the discharge of a duty from the persons contributing to the persons interred and to be interred in the mausoleum-columbarium and a provision for the benefit and protection of the public by preserving and keeping mausoleum-columbariums from becoming unkept and places of reproach and desolation in the communities in which they are situated.

(3) A payment, gift, grant, bequest, or other contribution for general endowment care is not invalid by reason of any indefiniteness or uncertainty of the persons designated as beneficiaries in the instruments creating the trust, and the fund or any contribution to it is not invalid as violating any law against perpetuities or the suspension of the power of alienation of title to property.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-849. Signs required for nonendowment and endowment care — penalties. (1) A nonendowment care mausoleum-columbarium is one that does not deposit in an endowment care fund.

(2) Each mausoleum-columbarium authority operating an endowment care mausoleum or columbarium shall post in a conspicuous place in its office or offices where sales are conducted and in a conspicuous place at or near the entrance of the mausoleum or columbarium or its administration building and readily accessible to the public a legible sign with the following phrase: "This is an endowment care property".

(3) Each mausoleum-columbarium authority operating a nonendowment care mausoleum or columbarium shall post in a conspicuous place in its office or offices where sales are conducted and in a conspicuous place at or near the entrance of the mausoleum or columbarium or its administration building and readily accessible to the public a legible sign with the following phrase: "This is not an endowment care property". This phrase likewise must be printed or stamped at the beginning of all contracts, certificates of ownership, or deeds.

(4) Any corporation or its agents or representatives who violate any of the provisions of this section or make any false statement appearing on a sign, contract, agreement, receipt, statement, literature, or other publication are guilty of a misdemeanor.

35-21-850. Annual report of endowment care mausoleum-columbarium. (1) Each mausoleum-columbarium authority operating an endowment care mausoleum or columbarium shall file in its principal office a written report that must be available to any plot owner and that must contain, as of the close of its last fiscal year:

(a) the amount of principal of the endowment care fund; and

(b) the total amount invested in bonds, securities, or other investments authorized by law and the total amount of cash on hand not invested, which must actually show the financial condition of the trust.

(2) All of the information appearing on the report filed in the mausoleum-columbarium authority office must be revised annually and verified by the president and secretary or two officers authorized by the mausoleum-columbarium authority.

History: En. Sec. 26, Ch. 283, L. 1999.

35-21-851. Director, officer, or trustee loans — penalties. (1) A director or officer of the mausoleum-columbarium authority or trustee of the endowment care or special care fund may not borrow any endowment care or special care funds of the corporation, directly or indirectly.

(2) A director, officer, or trustee authorizing or consenting to a loan and the person who receives a loan in violation of this section are severally guilty of a misdemeanor.

37-1-101. Duties of department. In addition to the provisions of 2-15-121, the department shall:

(1) establish and provide all the administrative, legal, and clerical services needed by the boards within the department, including corresponding, receiving and processing routine applications for licenses as defined by a board, issuing and renewing routine licenses as defined by a board, disciplining licensees, setting administrative fees, preparing agendas and meeting notices, conducting mailings, taking minutes of board meetings and hearings, and filing. In issuing routine licenses for a board, the department shall issue a license within 45 days from the time of receiving a completed application or, within 10 calendar days, provide notice and response timelines to the applicant of deficiencies in the application or provide information as to any exigent circumstances that may delay issuing a license. For nonroutine licenses, the department shall confer with the board to which the licensure application is made and provide an expected timeline to an applicant for issuing a license, including notifying the applicant from that time forward of any deviations from the expected timeline.

(2) standardize policies and procedures and keep in Helena all official records of the boards;

(3) make arrangements and provide facilities in Helena for all meetings, hearings, and examinations of each board or elsewhere in the state if requested by the board;

(4) contract for or administer and grade examinations required by each board;

(5) investigate complaints received by the department of illegal or unethical conduct of a member of the profession or occupation under the jurisdiction of a board or a program within the department;

(6) assess the costs of the department to the boards and programs on an equitable basis as determined by the department;

(7) adopt rules setting administrative fees and expiration, renewal, and termination dates for licenses;

(8) issue a notice to and pursue an action against a licensed individual, as a party, before the licensed individual's board after a finding of reasonable cause by a screening panel of the board pursuant to 37-1-307(1)(d);

(9) (a) provide notice to the board and to the appropriate legislative interim committee when a board cannot operate in a cost-effective manner;

(b) suspend all duties under this title related to the board except for services related to renewal of licenses;

(c) review the need for a board and make recommendations to the legislative interim committee with monitoring responsibility for the boards for legislation revising the board's operations to achieve fiscal solvency; and

(d) notwithstanding 2-15-121, recover the costs by one-time charges against all licensees of the board after providing notice and meeting the requirements under the Montana Administrative Procedure Act;

(10) monitor a board's cash balances to ensure that the balances do not exceed two times the board's annual appropriation level and adjust fees through administrative rules when necessary. [This subsection does not apply to the board of public accountants, except that the department may monitor the board's cash balances.]

(11) establish policies and procedures to set fees for administrative services, as provided in 37-1-134, commensurate with the cost of the services provided. Late penalty fees may be set without being commensurate with the cost of services provided.

(12) adopt uniform rules for all boards and department programs to comply with the public notice requirements of 37-1-311 and 37-1-405. The rules may require the posting of only the licensee's name and the fact that a hearing is being held when the information is being posted on a publicly available website prior to a decision leading to a suspension or revocation of a license or other final decision of a board or the department. (Bracketed language terminates September 30, 2023—sec. 5, Ch. 50, L. 2019.)

37-1-104. Standardized forms. The department shall adopt standardized forms and processes to be used by the boards and department programs. The standardization is to streamline processes, expedite services, reduce costs and waste, and facilitate computerization.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 293, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 467, L. 2005.

37-1-105. Reporting disciplinary actions against licensees. The department has the authority and shall require that all boards and department programs require each applicant for licensure or renewal to report any legal or disciplinary action against the applicant that relates to the propriety of the applicant's practice of or fitness to practice the profession or occupation for which the applicant seeks licensure. Failure to furnish the required information, except pursuant to 37-1-138, or the filing of false information is grounds for denial or revocation of a license.

37-1-107. Joint meetings — department duties. (1) The department shall convene a joint meeting once every 2 years of two or more boards that:

(a) have licensees with dual licensure in related professions or occupations;

(b) have licensees licensed by another board in a related profession or with similar scopes of practice, including but not limited to:

(i) health care boards;

(ii) mental health care boards;

(iii) design boards;

(iv) therapeutic boards; or

(v) technical boards; or

(c) have issues of joint concern or related jurisdiction with each other.

(2) A quorum is not required for the joint meeting. However, one member from each board shall attend.

(3) The department shall report to the interim committee responsible for monitoring boards with regard to attendance and issues of concern addressed by the boards.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 11, L. 2007.

37-1-108. (Temporary) Rules governing active supervision. The department may adopt rules necessary to carry out active supervision of board actions as provided for in 37-1-121 and 37-1-122. (Terminates July 1, 2021—sec. 8, Ch. 322, L. 2017.)

37-1-121. (Temporary) Duties of commissioner — definitions. (1) In addition to the powers and duties under 2-15-112 and 2-15-121, the commissioner of labor and industry shall:

(a) at the request of a party, appoint an impartial hearings examiner to conduct hearings whenever any board or department program holds a contested case hearing. The hearings examiner shall conduct hearings in a proper and legal manner.

(b) establish the qualifications of and hire all personnel to perform the administrative, legal, and clerical functions of the department for the boards. Boards within the department do not have authority to establish the qualifications of, hire, or terminate personnel. The department shall consult with the boards regarding recommendations for qualifications for executive or executive director positions.

(c) approve all contracts and expenditures by boards within the department. A board within the department may not enter into a contract or expend funds without the approval of the commissioner.

(d) provide oversight and supervision of the duties and authority exercised by boards regulated under Title 37, other than chapters 42, 43, and 61, by exercising active supervision authority to approve or disapprove any board action identified by the department as restraining or potentially restraining competition in trade or commerce. Subject to the provisions of 37-1-122(6), the commissioner shall determine if the board action is made or taken pursuant to a clearly articulated state policy and if the restraint or potential restraint of trade or commerce is reasonable and necessary to protect the public health, safety, or welfare. Any approval or disapproval under this subsection (1)(d) must be in writing, comply with the provisions in 37-1-122, and set forth the particular reasons supporting the determination. A disapproval determination may include the commissioner's recommended modifications, if any, for the board's consideration. The commissioner may assign duties, as necessary, but may not assign final approval or disapproval.

(2) If the department disapproves or modifies any board action under subsection (1)(d), the department and not the board may be liable for claims resulting from the disapproval or modification.

(3) As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Board action" means a policy, rule, or other action taken by a board subject to subsection (1)(d).

(b) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of labor and industry unless otherwise specified. (Terminates July 1, 2021—sec. 8, Ch. 322, L. 2017.)

37-1-121. (Effective July 2, 2021) Duties of commissioner. In addition to the powers and duties under 2-15-112 and 2-15-121, the commissioner of labor and industry shall:

(1) at the request of a party, appoint an impartial hearings examiner to conduct hearings whenever any board or department program holds a contested case hearing. The hearings examiner shall conduct hearings in a proper and legal manner.

(2) establish the qualifications of and hire all personnel to perform the administrative, legal, and clerical functions of the department for the boards. Boards within the department do not have authority to establish the qualifications of, hire, or terminate personnel. The department shall consult with the boards regarding recommendations for qualifications for executive or executive director positions.

(3) approve all contracts and expenditures by boards within the department. A board within the department may not enter into a contract or expend funds without the approval of the commissioner.

Sec. 9, Ch. 467, L. 2005; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 322, L. 2017.

37-1-122. (Temporary) Active supervision — rebuttable presumption — reconsideration. (1) (a) Before making a determination approving or disapproving a board action subject to active supervision as provided in 37-1-121(1)(d), the commissioner of labor and industry shall:

(i) notify the affected board and the economic affairs interim committee in writing of the particular action identified for commissioner review;

(ii) give the board a timeframe of at least 30 days in which to provide the commissioner with written comments and materials justifying the proposed action; and

(iii) meet with the board or its representatives regarding the board action.

(b) The commissioner may require that the board provide the commissioner with other relevant information, including but not limited to comments, documents, or other material submitted to the board regarding the board action.

(c) The commissioner may approve a board action subject to active supervision under 37-1-121(1)(d) without the notice and opportunity for board comment required under subsection (1)(a) if the commissioner has sufficient information to act.

(2) (a) There is a rebuttable presumption that if a board has not received a written notice as provided in 37-1-121(1)(d) regarding a board action within 30 days, that the board action is presumed to be approved by the commissioner because the department has determined the board action will not unreasonably restrain or potentially unreasonably restrain competition in trade or commerce.

(b) At any time a board may request that the department or commissioner confirm in writing that a board action is not subject to active supervision under 37-1-121(1)(d) because the commissioner has determined that the board action will not unreasonably restrain or potentially unreasonably restrain competition in trade or commerce.

(3) If the commissioner determines that a board action is subject to active supervision procedures under 37-1-121(1)(d) and this section, the commissioner shall issue a written determination within 30 days after meeting with the board or its representatives as provided in subsection (1).

(4) (a) The board may request that the commissioner reconsider the determination. A request under this subsection (4) must be in writing, provide any additional supporting materials or arguments, and be received by the commissioner within 10 days after issuance of the commissioner's written determination.

(b) The commissioner may meet with the board or representatives of the board as part of the reconsideration process.

(c) The commissioner shall issue a written reconsideration decision within 10 days of receiving the written request for a reconsideration or within 10 days after meeting with the board or its representatives regarding the redetermination.

(5) This section may not be construed to mean that the commissioner's determination under 37-1-121(1)(d) or the process described in this section is a contested case proceeding as defined in 2-4-102.

(6) (a) After the economic affairs interim committee is notified of the commissioner's decision to issue a written determination or redetermination, the committee shall notify the commissioner if the committee plans to provide an opportunity for public comment on the commissioner's action at the next committee meeting.

(b) The commissioner shall notify the economic affairs interim committee of a final determination under this section. The committee shall follow the procedures in Title 2, chapter 4, if the committee decides to conduct a review. A final determination of the commissioner may be suspended as provided in 2-4-305(9) whether the determination is for a rule or for another board action. (Terminates July 1, 2021—sec. 8, Ch. 322, L. 2017.)

37-1-130. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Administrative fee" means a fee established by the department to cover the cost of administrative services as provided for in 37-1-134.

(2) "Board" means a licensing board created under Title 2, chapter 15, that regulates a profession or occupation and that is administratively attached to the department as provided in 2-15-121.

(3) "Board fee" means:

(a) a fee established by the board to cover program area costs as provided in 37-1-134; and

(b) any other legislatively prescribed fees specific to boards and department programs.

(4) "Department" means the department of labor and industry established in 2-15-1701.

(5) "Department program" means a program administered by the department pursuant to this title and not affiliated with a board.

(6) "Expired license" means a license that is not reactivated within the period of 46 days to 2 years after the renewal date for the license.

(7) "Lapsed license" means a license that is not renewed by the renewal date and that may be reactivated within the first 45-day period after the renewal date for the license.

(8) "License" means permission granted under a chapter of this title to engage in or practice at a specific level in a profession or occupation, regardless of the specific term used for the permission, including permit, certificate, recognition, or registration.

(9) "Terminated license" means a license that is not renewed or reactivated within 2 years of the license lapsing.

37-1-131. (Temporary) Duties of boards — quorum required. (1) Under the active supervision of the state as described in 37-1-121(1)(d), a quorum of each board within the department shall:

(a) (i) set and enforce standards and adopt and enforce rules governing the licensing, certification, registration, and conduct of the members of the particular profession or occupation within the board's jurisdiction; and

(ii) apply the standards and rules referred to in subsection (1)(a)(i) in a manner that does not discriminate against any person licensed by the board with regard to how the standards and rules are applied to other persons licensed by the board and that does not restrain trade or competition unless necessary to protect public health and safety;

(b) except as provided in 37-1-321, sit in judgment in hearings for the suspension, revocation, or denial of a license of an actual or potential member of the particular profession or occupation within the board's jurisdiction. The hearings must be conducted by a hearings examiner when required under 37-1-121.

(c) suspend, revoke, or deny a license of a person who the board determines, after a hearing as provided in subsection (1)(b), is guilty of knowingly defrauding, abusing, or aiding in the defrauding or abusing of the workers' compensation system in violation of the provisions of Title 39, chapter 71;

(d) take disciplinary action against the license of a person in a medical assistance program under chapter 3, 4, 7, or 8 if, in the period under contract, the licensee has on three separate occasions returned to the use of a prohibited or proscribed substance. The requirements of this subsection (1)(d) may not be construed as affecting the rights of an employer to evaluate, discipline, or discharge an employee.

(e) pay to the department the board's pro rata share of the assessed costs of the department under 37-1-101(6);

(f) consult with the department before the board initiates a program expansion, under existing legislation, to determine if the board has adequate money and appropriation authority to fully pay all costs associated with the proposed program expansion. The board may not expand a program if the board does not have adequate money and appropriation authority available.

(2) A board, board panel, or subcommittee convened to conduct board business must have a majority of its members, which constitutes a quorum, present to conduct business.

(3) A board that requires continuing education or continued state, regional, or national certification for licensees shall require licensees reactivating an expired license to submit proof of meeting the requirements of this subsection for the renewal cycle.

(4) The board under the active supervision of the state as described in 37-1-121(1)(d) or the department program may:

(a) establish the qualifications of applicants to take the licensure examination;

(b) determine the standards, content, type, and method of examination required for licensure or reinstatement of a license, the acceptable level of performance for each examination, and the standards and limitations for reexamination if an applicant fails an examination;

(c) examine applicants for licensure at reasonable places and times as determined by the board or enter into contracts with third-party testing agencies to administer examinations; and

(d) request that the applicant make a personal appearance before the board for nonroutine license applications as defined by the board.

(5) A board shall adopt rules governing the provision of public notice as required by 37-1-311. (Terminates July 1, 2021—sec. 8, Ch. 322, L. 2017.)

37-1-131. (Effective July 2, 2021) Duties of boards — quorum required. (1) A quorum of each board within the department shall:

(a) (i) set and enforce standards and adopt and enforce rules governing the licensing, certification, registration, and conduct of the members of the particular profession or occupation within the board's jurisdiction; and

(ii) apply the standards and rules referred to in subsection (1)(a)(i) in a manner that does not discriminate against any person licensed by the board with regard to how the standards and rules are applied to other persons licensed by the board and that does not restrain trade or competition unless necessary to protect public health and safety;

(b) except as provided in 37-1-321, sit in judgment in hearings for the suspension, revocation, or denial of a license of an actual or potential member of the particular profession or occupation within the board's jurisdiction. The hearings must be conducted by a hearings examiner when required under 37-1-121.

(c) suspend, revoke, or deny a license of a person who the board determines, after a hearing as provided in subsection (1)(b), is guilty of knowingly defrauding, abusing, or aiding in the defrauding or abusing of the workers' compensation system in violation of the provisions of Title 39, chapter 71;

(d) take disciplinary action against the license of a person in a medical assistance program under chapter 3, 4, 7, or 8 if, in the period under contract, the licensee has on three separate occasions returned to the use of a prohibited or proscribed substance. The requirements of this subsection (1)(d) may not be construed as affecting the rights of an employer to evaluate, discipline, or discharge an employee.

(e) pay to the department the board's pro rata share of the assessed costs of the department under 37-1-101(6);

(f) consult with the department before the board initiates a program expansion, under existing legislation, to determine if the board has adequate money and appropriation authority to fully pay all costs associated with the proposed program expansion. The board may not expand a program if the board does not have adequate money and appropriation authority available.

(2) A board, board panel, or subcommittee convened to conduct board business must have a majority of its members, which constitutes a quorum, present to conduct business.

(3) A board that requires continuing education or continued state, regional, or national certification for licensees shall require licensees reactivating an expired license to submit proof of meeting the requirements of this subsection for the renewal cycle.

(4) The board or the department program may:

(a) establish the qualifications of applicants to take the licensure examination;

(b) determine the standards, content, type, and method of examination required for licensure or reinstatement of a license, the acceptable level of performance for each examination, and the standards and limitations for reexamination if an applicant fails an examination; and

(c) examine applicants for licensure at reasonable places and times as determined by the board or enter into contracts with third-party testing agencies to administer examinations.

(5) A board may, at the board's discretion, request the applicant to make a personal appearance before the board for nonroutine license applications as defined by the board.

(6) A board shall adopt rules governing the provision of public notice as required by 37-1-311.

37-1-133. Board members' compensation and expenses. Unless otherwise provided by law, each member of a board allocated to the department is entitled to receive $50 per day compensation and travel expenses, as provided for in 2-18-501 through 2-18-503, for each day spent on official board business. Board members who conduct official board business in their city of residence are entitled to receive a midday meal allowance, as provided for in 2-18-502. Ex officio board members may not receive compensation but shall receive travel expenses.

37-1-134. Boards — costs. (1) Each board allocated to the department shall set board fees related to its program area that provide the amount of money usually needed for the operation of the board for services, including but not limited to licensing, reciprocity, renewals, applications, inspections, investigations, compliance, discipline, and audits. The amount needed for the operation of the board is based on the license renewal years as set by the board. In setting the fees, the board shall consider the revenues and expenses incurred in the prior 5 licensing renewal years, but a board's cash balances may not exceed two times the board's annual appropriation level. Unless otherwise provided by law, the department may establish standardized administrative fees. These fees may include but are not limited to fees for administrative services such as license verification, duplicate licenses, late penalty renewals, licensee lists, and other administrative service fees determined by the department as applicable to all boards and department programs. The department shall collect fees on behalf of each board or department program and deposit the fees in the state special revenue fund in the appropriate account for each board or department program. Administrative service costs not related to a specific board or program area may be equitably distributed to board or program areas as determined by the department. Each board and department program shall maintain records sufficient to support the fees charged for each program area.

(2) The department and the boards shall adopt rules regarding all fees.

37-1-135. Licensing investigation and review — record access. Any person, firm, corporation, or association that performs background reviews, complaint investigations, or peer reviews pursuant to an agreement or contract with a state professional or occupational licensing board shall make available to the board and the legislative auditor, upon request, any and all records or other information gathered or compiled during the course of the background review, complaint investigation, or peer review.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 242, L. 1981.

37-1-136. Disciplinary authority of boards — injunctions. (1) Subject to 37-1-138, each licensing board allocated to the department has the authority, in addition to any other penalty or disciplinary action provided by law, to adopt rules specifying grounds for disciplinary action and rules providing for:

(a) revocation of a license;

(b) suspension of its judgment of revocation on terms and conditions determined by the board;

(c) suspension of the right to practice for a period not exceeding 1 year;

(d) placing a licensee on probation;

(e) reprimand or censure of a licensee; or

(f) taking any other action in relation to disciplining a licensee as the board in its discretion considers proper.

(2) Any disciplinary action by a board shall be conducted as a contested case hearing under the provisions of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a board may maintain an action to enjoin a person from engaging in the practice of the occupation or profession regulated by the board until a license to practice is procured. A person who has been enjoined and who violates the injunction is punishable for contempt of court.

(4) An action may not be taken against a person who is in compliance with Title 50, chapter 46.

(5) Rules adopted under subsection (1) must provide for the provision of public notice as required by 37-1-311.

37-1-137. Grounds for disciplinary action as grounds for license denial — conditions to new licenses. (1) Unless otherwise provided by law, grounds for disciplinary action by a board allocated to the department of labor and industry against a holder of an occupational or professional license may be, under appropriate circumstances, grounds for either issuance of a probationary license for a period not to exceed 1 year or denial of a license to an applicant.

(2) The denial of a license or the issuance of a probationary license under subsection (1) must be conducted as a contested case hearing under the provisions of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act.

37-1-138. Protection of professional licenses for activated military reservists — rulemaking authority — definitions. (1) For purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Activated reservist" means a member of a reserve component who has received federal military orders to report for federal active duty for at least 90 consecutive days.

(b) "License" has the meaning provided in 37-1-302.

(c) "Reserve component" means the Montana national guard or the military reserves of the United States armed forces.

(2) An activated reservist who holds an occupational or professional license may report the reservist's activation to the appropriate professional licensing board or to the department of labor and industry if the licensing requirements are administered by the department. The report must, at a minimum, include a copy of the reservist's orders to federal active duty. The report may request that the reservist's professional license revert to an inactive status.

(3) If an activated reservist has requested that the reservist's license revert to inactive status pursuant to subsection (2), then for the duration of the reservist's active duty service under the orders submitted, the department or licensing board may not:

(a) require the collection of professional licensing fees or continuing education fees from the activated reservist;

(b) require that the activated reservist take continuing education classes or file a report of continuing education classes completed; or

(c) revoke or suspend the activated reservist's professional license, require the license to be forfeited, or allow the license to lapse for failure to pay licensing fees or continuing education fees or for failure to take or report continuing education classes.

(4) (a) Upon release from federal active duty service, the reservist shall send a copy of the reservist's discharge documents to the appropriate professional licensing board or to the department.

(b) The board or department shall evaluate the discharge documents, consider the military position held by the reservist and the duties performed by the reservist during the active duty, and compare the position and duties to the licensing requirements for the profession. The board or department shall also consider the reservist's length of time on federal active duty.

(c) Based on the considerations pursuant to subsection (4)(b) and subject to subsection (5):

(i) the license must be fully restored;

(ii) conditions must be attached to the reservist's continued retention of the license; or

(iii) the license must be suspended or revoked.

(5) (a) A licensing board or the department may adopt rules concerning what conditions may be attached to a reservist's professional license pursuant to subsection (4)(c)(ii).

(b) If conditions are attached pursuant to subsection (4)(c)(ii) or the license is suspended or revoked pursuant to subsection (4)(c)(iii), the affected reservist may, within 90 days of the decision to take the action, request a hearing by writing a letter to the board or department. The board or department shall conduct a requested hearing within 30 days of receiving the written request.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 271, L. 2003.

37-1-139 and 37-1-140 reserved.

37-1-141. License renewal — lapse — expiration — termination. (1) The renewal date for a license must be set by department rule. The department shall provide notice prior to the renewal date.

(2) To renew a license, a licensee shall submit a completed renewal form, comply with all certification and continuing education requirements as provided by 37-1-306 or 37-1-420, and remit renewal fees before the end of the renewal period.

(3) A licensee may reactivate a lapsed license within 45 days after the renewal date by following the process in subsection (5) and complying with all certification and educational requirements.

(4) A licensee may reactivate an expired license within 2 years after the renewal date by following the process in subsection (5) and complying with all certification and education requirements that have accrued since the license was last granted or renewed as prescribed by board or department rule.

(5) To reactivate a lapsed license or an expired license, in addition to the respective requirements in subsections (3) and (4), a licensee shall:

(a) submit the completed renewal form;

(b) pay the late penalty fee provided for in subsection (7); and

(c) pay the current renewal fee as prescribed by the department or the board.

(6) (a) A licensee who practices with a lapsed license is not considered to be practicing without a license.

(b) A licensee who practices after a license has expired is considered to be practicing without a license.

(7) The department may assess a late penalty fee for each renewal period in which a license is not renewed. The late penalty fee need not be commensurate with the costs of assessing the fee.

(8) Unless otherwise provided by statute or rule, an occupational or professional license that is not renewed within 2 years of the most recent renewal date automatically terminates. The terminated license may not be reactivated, and a new original license must be obtained.

(9) The department or board responsible for licensing a licensee retains jurisdiction for disciplinary purposes over the licensee for a period of 2 years after the date on which the license lapsed.

(10) This section may not be interpreted to conflict with 37-1-138.

37-1-145. Military training or experience to satisfy licensing or certification requirements — rulemaking. (1) Each licensing board or the department on behalf of a program shall by July 1, 2014, adopt rules that provide that certification or licensure requirements established by that board or program may be met by relevant military training, service, or education completed by an individual as a member of the armed forces or reserves of the United States, the national guard of a state, or the military reserves.

(2) (a) An applicant for certification or licensure shall provide to the board or, if applying for licensure by a program, to the department satisfactory evidence, as specified in rule, of receiving military training, service, or education that is equivalent to relevant certification or licensure requirements.

(b) The department and each licensing board shall, upon presentation of satisfactory evidence by an applicant for certification or licensure, accept education, training, or service completed by an individual as a member of the armed forces or reserves of the United States, the national guard of a state, or the military reserves toward the qualifications to receive the license or certification.

(3) The department shall report to the interim committee responsible for monitoring licensing boards by January 1, 2014, on the progress and actions taken under this section by each licensing board or program.

37-1-201. Purpose. It is the public policy of the legislature of the state of Montana to encourage and contribute to the rehabilitation of criminal offenders and to assist them in the assumption of the responsibilities of citizenship. The legislature finds that the public is best protected when offenders are given the opportunity to secure employment or to engage in a meaningful occupation, while licensure must be conferred with prudence to protect the interests of the public. The legislature finds that the process of licensure will be strengthened by instituting an effective mechanism for obtaining accurate public information regarding a license applicant's criminal background.

37-1-202. Intent and policy. It is the intent of the legislature and the declared policy of the state that occupational licensure be granted or revoked as a police power of the state in its protection of the public health, safety, and welfare.

History: En. 66-4002 by Sec. 2, Ch. 490, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 66-4002.

37-1-203. Conviction not a sole basis for denial. Criminal convictions shall not operate as an automatic bar to being licensed to enter any occupation in the state of Montana. No licensing authority shall refuse to license a person solely on the basis of a previous criminal conviction; provided, however, where a license applicant has been convicted of a criminal offense and such criminal offense relates to the public health, welfare, and safety as it applies to the occupation for which the license is sought, the licensing agency may, after investigation, find that the applicant so convicted has not been sufficiently rehabilitated as to warrant the public trust and deny the issuance of a license.

37-1-204. Statement of reasons for denial. When a licensing agency prohibits an applicant from being licensed wholly or partially on the basis of a criminal conviction, the agency shall state explicitly in writing the reasons for the decision.

However, the facts surrounding the situation that led to the probation or parole supervision may be considered as they relate to the occupation for which a license is sought, and this chapter may not be construed to prohibit licensure of a person while the person is under state supervision if the licensing agency finds insufficient evidence to preclude licensure.

Part 3
Uniform Professional Licensing and Regulation Procedures

37-1-301. Purpose. The purpose of this part is to establish uniform guidelines for the licensing and regulation of professions and occupations under the jurisdiction of professional and occupational licensing boards governed by this part.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 429, L. 1995.

37-1-302. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Board" means a licensing board created under Title 2, chapter 15, that regulates a profession or occupation and that is administratively attached to the department as provided in 2-15-121.

(2) "Complaint" means a written allegation filed with a board that, if true, warrants an injunction, disciplinary action against a licensee, or denial of an application submitted by a license applicant.

(3) "Department" means the department of labor and industry.

(4) "Inspection" means the periodic examination of premises, equipment, or procedures or of a practitioner by the department to determine whether the practitioner's profession or occupation is being conducted in a manner consistent with the public health, safety, and welfare.

(5) "Investigation" means the inquiry, analysis, audit, or other pursuit of information by the department, with respect to a written complaint or other information before a board, that is carried out for the purpose of determining:

(a) whether a person has violated a provision of law justifying discipline against the person;

(b) the status of compliance with a stipulation or order of the board;

(c) whether a license should be granted, denied, or conditionally issued; or

(d) whether a board should seek an injunction.

(6) "License" means permission granted under a chapter of this title to engage in or practice at a specific level in a profession or occupation, regardless of the specific term used for the permission, including permit, certificate, recognition, or registration.

(7) "Profession" or "occupation" means a profession or occupation regulated by a board.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 429, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 110, Ch. 483, L. 2001; amd. Sec. 14, Ch. 467, L. 2005; amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 502, L. 2007.

37-1-303. Scope. This part governs the licensure, the practice and unauthorized practice, and the discipline of professions and occupations governed by this title unless otherwise provided by statutes relating to a specific board and the profession or occupation it regulates. The provisions of this chapter must be construed to supplement the statutes relating to a specific board and the profession it regulates. The method for initiating and judging a disciplinary proceeding, specified in 37-1-307(1)(d), must be used by a board in all disciplinary proceedings involving licensed professionals.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 429, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 40, Ch. 44, L. 2007.

37-1-304. Licensure of out-of-state applicants — reciprocity. (1) A board shall issue a license to practice without examination to a person licensed in another state if the board determines that:

(a) the other state's license standards at the time of application to this state are substantially equivalent to or greater than the standards in this state; and

(b) there is no reason to deny the license under the laws of this state governing the profession or occupation.

(2) The license may be issued if the applicant affirms or states in the application that the applicant has requested verification from the state or states in which the person is licensed that the person is currently licensed and is not subject to pending charges or final disciplinary action for unprofessional conduct or impairment. If the board or its screening panel finds reasonable cause to believe that the applicant falsely affirmed or stated that the applicant has requested verification from another state, the board may summarily suspend the license pending further action to discipline or revoke the license.

(3) This section does not prevent a board from entering into a reciprocity agreement with the licensing authority of another state or jurisdiction. The agreement may not permit out-of-state licensees to obtain a license by reciprocity within this state if the license applicant has not met standards that are substantially equivalent to or greater than the standards required in this state as determined by the board on a case-by-case basis.

Compiler's Comments

2019 Amendment: Chapter 83 in (1) near beginning substituted "shall" for "may"; and in (2) near end substituted "another state" for "the other state or states". Amendment effective March 20, 2019.

37-1-305. Temporary practice permits. (1) (a) A board may issue a temporary practice permit to a person licensed in another state that has licensing standards substantially equivalent to those of this state if the board determines that there is no reason to deny the license under the laws of this state governing the profession or occupation.

(b) The board shall issue a temporary practice permit as provided in this section within 45 calendar days of receiving a completed application. The board shall notify an applicant within 10 days of receiving an application under this section of deficiencies in the application or provide information as to any exigent circumstances that may delay issuing a temporary practice permit.

(c) The person may practice under the permit until a license is granted or until a notice of proposal to deny a license is issued.

(d) The permit may be issued in the board's discretion if the applicant verifies or states in the application that the applicant has requested verification from the state or states in which the person is licensed that the person is currently licensed and is not subject to pending charges or final disciplinary action for unprofessional conduct or impairment. If the board or its screening panel finds reasonable cause to believe that the applicant falsely affirmed or stated that the applicant has requested verification from the other state or states, the board may summarily suspend the permit pending further action to discipline or revoke the permit.

(2) A board may issue a temporary practice permit to a person seeking licensure in this state who has met all licensure requirements other than passage of the licensing examination. Except as provided in 37-68-311 and 37-69-306, a permit is valid until the person either fails the first license examination for which the person is eligible following issuance of the permit or passes the examination and is granted a license. Determination regarding whether the applicant has met all licensure requirements except passage of the licensing examination must occur within 45 calendar days on a routine, complete application.

2019 Amendment: Chapter 195 inserted (1)(b) concerning issuance of a temporary practice permit or issuance of a notice of defective application; in (1)(d) near end in two places substituted "permit" for "license"; in (2) inserted last sentence regarding the timeline for determination of meeting requirements; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2019.

37-1-306. Continuing education — certification — other qualifications for continued licensure — audit. (1) A board may require licensees to participate in flexible, cost-efficient, effective, and geographically accessible continuing education or continued state, regional, or national certification for licensure.

(2) A board that requires continuing education or state, regional, or national certification may not audit or require proof of continuing education or certification as a precondition for license renewal. However, a licensee who reactivates a license after the license has expired, as provided in 37-1-141, is subject to a mandatory continuing education audit.

(3) Except as provided in 37-50-305, after the lapsed date provided for in 37-1-141, the board or department may conduct a random audit of up to 50% of all licensees who have renewed their licenses to determine compliance with board or program continuing education requirements.

(4) The board or department may audit licensees for compliance with state, regional, or national certification or other board or department requirements.

(5) The board or department shall provide a licensee not in compliance with continuing education or certification requirements with an opportunity to cure the noncompliance as provided in 37-1-321.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 429, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 15, Ch. 467, L. 2005; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 80, L. 2015; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 50, L. 2019.

2019 Amendment: Chapter 50 in (3) at beginning inserted exception clause; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective July 1, 2019.

37-1-307. Board authority. (1) A board may:

(a) hold hearings as provided in this part;

(b) issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses or the production of documents and administer oaths in connection with investigations and disciplinary proceedings under this part. Subpoenas must be relevant to the complaint and must be signed by a member of the board. Subpoenas may be enforced as provided in 2-4-104.

(c) authorize depositions and other discovery procedures under the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure in connection with an investigation, hearing, or proceeding held under this part;

(d) establish a screening panel to determine whether there is reasonable cause to believe that a licensee has violated a particular statute, rule, or standard justifying disciplinary proceedings. A screening panel is an agency for purposes of summary suspensions under 2-4-631. A screening panel shall specify in writing the particular statute, rule, or standard that the panel believes may have been violated. The screening panel shall also state in writing the reasonable grounds that support the panel's finding that a violation may have occurred. The assigned board members may not subsequently participate in a hearing of the case. The final decision on the case must be made by a majority of the board members who did not serve on the screening panel for the case.

(e) grant or deny a license within 45 calendar days of receiving a complete application, including the confidential criminal justice information report, and notify an applicant within 10 days of receiving an application of any deficiencies for an incomplete application or provide information as to any exigent circumstances that may delay issuing a license in the 45 days; and

(f) upon a finding of unprofessional conduct by an applicant or license holder, impose a sanction provided by this chapter.

(2) Each board is designated as a criminal justice agency within the meaning of 44-5-103 for the purpose of obtaining confidential criminal justice information, as defined in 44-5-103, regarding the board's licensees and license applicants and regarding possible unlicensed practice, but the board may not record or retain any confidential criminal justice information without complying with the provisions of the Montana Criminal Justice Information Act of 1979, Title 44, chapter 5.

(3) A board may contact and request information from the department of justice, which is designated as a criminal justice agency within the meaning of 44-5-103, for the purpose of obtaining criminal history record information regarding the board's licensees and license applicants and regarding possible unlicensed practice.

(4) (a) A board that is statutorily authorized to obtain a criminal record background report as a prerequisite to the issuance of a license shall require the applicant to submit a full set of fingerprints for the purpose of fingerprint checks by the Montana department of justice and the federal bureau of investigation.

(b) The applicant shall sign a release of information to the board and is responsible to the department of justice for the payment of all fees associated with the criminal record background report.

(c) Upon completion of the criminal record background check, the department of justice shall forward all criminal history record information, as defined in 44-5-103, in any jurisdiction to the board as authorized in 44-5-303.

(d) At the conclusion of any background check required by this section, the board must receive the criminal record background report but may not receive the fingerprint card of the applicant. Upon receipt of the criminal record background report, the department of justice shall promptly destroy the fingerprint card of the applicant.

[(5) Each board shall require a license applicant to provide the applicant's social security number as a part of the application. Each board shall keep the social security number from this source confidential, except that a board may provide the number to the department of public health and human services for use in administering Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.] (Bracketed language terminates on occurrence of contingency—sec. 1, Ch. 27, L. 1999.)

2019 Amendments — Composite Section: Chapter 195 in (1)(e) after "license" inserted clause regarding timelines for granting or denying a license; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2019.

Chapter 287 in (4)(a), (4)(b), and (4)(d) in two places, substituted "criminal record background report" for "criminal background check"; in (4)(a) in middle before "fingerprints" inserted "a full set of"; and in (4)(c) near beginning substituted "criminal record background check" for "criminal background check". Amendment effective May 3, 2019.

Contingent Termination — Request for Federal Exemptions: Section 1, Ch. 27, L. 1999, revised sec. 104, Ch. 552, L. 1997, to contain the following contingent termination provisions and order that the department of public health and human services seek federal exemptions: "(1) [Sections 9, 11, 22 through 24, and 95] [37-1-307, 40-1-107, 40-4-105, 40-5-922, 40-5-924, and 61-5-107] and the bracketed language in [sections 1 through 3, 10, 25, 45, and 89] [40-4-204, 40-5-226, 40-5-901, 40-5-906, 40-5-907, 40-5-923, and 40-6-116] terminate on the date of the suspension if the federal government suspends federal payments to this state for this state's child support enforcement program and for this state's program relating to temporary assistance to needy families because of this state's failure to enact law as required by the federal Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996.

(2) [Sections 9, 11, 22 through 24, and 95] [37-1-307, 40-1-107, 40-4-105, 40-5-922, 40-5-924, and 61-5-107] and the bracketed language in [sections 1 through 3, 10, 25, 45, and 89] [40-4-204, 40-5-226, 40-5-901, 40-5-906, 40-5-907, 40-5-923, and 40-6-116] terminate on the date that a final decision is rendered in federal court invalidating the child support provisions of the federal Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996.

(3) If the director of the department of public health and human services certifies to the governor and the secretary of state in writing that one of the following provisions is no longer required by federal law because of repeal of or amendment to federal statutes that require that provision, the provision terminates on the date the certification takes effect:

(a) [section 9] [40-5-922];
(b) [section 11] [40-5-924];
(c) [sections 22 through 24] [37-1-307, 40-1-107, and 40-4-105];
(d) [section 95] [61-5-107];
(e) the bracketed provisions in [sections 1 through 3, 10, 25, 45, and 89] [40-4-204, 40-5-226, 40-5-901, 40-5-906, 40-5-907, 40-5-923, and 40-6-116].

(4) If the bracketed language in [sections 1 through 3, 10, 25, 45, and 89] [40-4-204, 40-5-226, 40-5-901, 40-5-906, 40-5-907, 40-5-923, and 40-6-116] terminates, the code commissioner is instructed to renumber subsections, adjust internal references, and correct grammar and arrangement." Amendment effective February 18, 1999.

37-1-308. Unprofessional conduct — complaint — investigation — immunity — exceptions. (1) Except as provided in subsections (4) and (5), a person, government, or private entity may submit a written complaint to the department charging a licensee or license applicant with a violation of this part and specifying the grounds for the complaint.

(2) If the department receives a written complaint or otherwise obtains information that a licensee or license applicant may have committed a violation of this part, the department may, with the concurrence of a member of the screening panel established in 37-1-307, investigate to determine whether there is reasonable cause to believe that the licensee or license applicant has committed the violation.

(3) A person or private entity, but not a government entity, filing a complaint under this section in good faith is immune from suit in a civil action related to the filing or contents of the complaint.

(4) A person under legal custody of a county detention center or incarcerated under legal custody of the department of corrections may not file a complaint under subsection (1) against a licensed or certified provider of health care or rehabilitative services for services that were provided to the person while detained or confined in a county detention center or incarcerated under legal custody of the department of corrections unless the complaint is first reviewed by a correctional health care review team provided for in 37-1-331.

(5) A board member may file a complaint with the board on which the member serves or otherwise act in concert with a complainant in developing, authoring, or initiating a complaint to be filed with the board if the board member determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a particular statute, rule, or standard has been violated.

37-1-309. Notice — request for hearing. (1) If a reasonable cause determination is made pursuant to 37-1-307 that a violation of this part has occurred and the provisions of 37-1-321 do not apply, a notice must be prepared by department legal staff and served on the alleged violator. The notice may be served by certified mail to the current address on file with the board or by other means authorized by the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure. The notice may not allege a violation of a particular statute, rule, or standard unless the board or the board's screening panel, if one has been established, has made a written determination that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the particular statute, rule, or standard has been violated.

(2) A licensee or license applicant shall give the board the licensee's or applicant's current address and any change of address within 30 days of the change.

(3) The notice must state that the licensee or license applicant may request a hearing to contest the charge or charges. A request for a hearing must be in writing and received in the offices of the department within 20 days after the licensee's receipt of the notice. Failure to request a hearing constitutes a default on the charge or charges, and the board may enter a decision on the basis of the facts available to it.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 429, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 492, L. 2001; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 80, L. 2015.

37-1-310. Hearing — adjudicative procedures. The procedures in Title 2, chapter 4, governing adjudicative proceedings before agencies; the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure; and the Montana Rules of Evidence govern a hearing under this part. A board has all the powers and duties granted by Title 2, chapter 4.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 429, L. 1995.

37-1-311. Findings of fact — order — report. (1) If the board decides by a preponderance of the evidence, following a hearing or on default, that a violation of this part occurred, the department shall prepare and serve the board's findings of fact and an order as provided in Title 2, chapter 4. If the licensee or license applicant is found not to have violated this part, the department shall prepare and serve the board's findings of fact and an order of dismissal of the charges.

(2) (a) The department shall within a reasonable amount of time report to the public the issuance of a summary suspension, a notice under 37-1-309, an accepted stipulation, a hearing examiner's proposed decision, and a final order.

(b) In addition to any other means of notice, the department shall post the required information on a publicly available website.

(c) This subsection (2) may not be construed to require a meeting to be open or records to be disseminated when the demands of individual privacy clearly exceed the merits of public disclosure.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 429, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 225, L. 2007.

37-1-312. Sanctions — stay — costs — stipulations. (1) Upon a decision that a licensee or license applicant has violated this part or is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety due to a physical or mental condition or upon stipulation of the parties as provided in subsection (3), the board may issue an order providing for one or any combination of the following sanctions:

(a) revocation of the license;

(b) suspension of the license for a fixed or indefinite term;

(c) restriction or limitation of the practice;

(d) satisfactory completion of a specific program of remedial education or treatment;

(e) monitoring of the practice by a supervisor approved by the disciplining authority;

(f) censure or reprimand, either public or private;

(g) compliance with conditions of probation for a designated period of time;

(h) payment of a fine not to exceed $1,000 for each violation. Fines must be deposited in the state general fund.

(i) denial of a license application;

(j) refund of costs and fees billed to and collected from a consumer.

(2) A sanction may be totally or partly stayed by the board. To determine which sanctions are appropriate, the board shall first consider the sanctions that are necessary to protect or compensate the public. Only after the determination has been made may the board consider and include in the order any requirements designed to rehabilitate the licensee or license applicant.

(3) The licensee or license applicant may enter into a stipulated agreement resolving potential or pending charges that includes one or more of the sanctions in this section. The stipulation is an informal disposition for the purposes of 2-4-603.

(4) A licensee shall surrender a suspended or revoked license to the board within 24 hours after receiving notification of the suspension or revocation by mailing it or delivering it personally to the board.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 429, L. 1995.

37-1-313. Appeal. (1) A person who is disciplined by a board under 37-1-308 through 37-1-312 or denied a license may appeal the decision to the district court as provided in Title 2, chapter 4.

(2) A person who disputes the department's deficiency determination made pursuant to 37-1-321 may appeal the decision to the board. Consideration of the dispute is not an adversarial or a contested case hearing. The board's decision may be appealed as provided in subsection (1).

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 429, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 80, L. 2015.

37-1-314. Reinstatement. A licensee whose license has been suspended or revoked under this part may petition the board for reinstatement after an interval set by the board in the order. The board may hold a hearing on the petition and may deny the petition or order reinstatement and impose terms and conditions as provided in 37-1-312. The board may require the successful completion of an examination as a condition of reinstatement and may treat a licensee whose license has been revoked or suspended as a new applicant for purposes of establishing the requisite qualifications of licensure.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 429, L. 1995.

37-1-315. Enforcement of fine. (1) If payment of a fine is included in an order and timely payment is not made as directed in the order, the board may enforce the order for payment in the district court of the first judicial district.

(2) In a proceeding for enforcement of an order of payment of a fine, the order is conclusive proof of the validity of the order of payment and the terms of payment.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 429, L. 1995.

37-1-316. Unprofessional conduct. The following is unprofessional conduct for a licensee or license applicant governed by this part:

(1) conviction, including conviction following a plea of nolo contendere, of a crime relating to or committed during the course of the person's practice or involving violence, use or sale of drugs, fraud, deceit, or theft, whether or not an appeal is pending;

(2) permitting, aiding, abetting, or conspiring with a person to violate or circumvent a law relating to licensure or certification;

(3) fraud, misrepresentation, deception, or concealment of a material fact in applying for or assisting in securing a license or license renewal or in taking an examination required for licensure;

(4) signing or issuing, in the licensee's professional capacity, a document or statement that the licensee knows or reasonably ought to know contains a false or misleading statement;

(5) a misleading, deceptive, false, or fraudulent advertisement or other representation in the conduct of the profession or occupation;

(6) offering, giving, or promising anything of value or benefit to a federal, state, or local government employee or official for the purpose of influencing the employee or official to circumvent a federal, state, or local law, rule, or ordinance governing the licensee's profession or occupation;

(7) denial, suspension, revocation, probation, fine, or other license restriction or discipline against a licensee by a state, province, territory, or Indian tribal government or the federal government if the action is not on appeal, under judicial review, or has been satisfied;

(8) failure to comply with a term, condition, or limitation of a license by final order of a board;

(9) revealing confidential information obtained as the result of a professional relationship without the prior consent of the recipient of services, except as authorized or required by law;

(10) use of alcohol, a habit-forming drug, or a controlled substance as defined in Title 50, chapter 32, to the extent that the use impairs the user physically or mentally in the performance of licensed professional duties;

(11) having a physical or mental disability that renders the licensee or license applicant unable to practice the profession or occupation with reasonable skill and safety;

(12) engaging in conduct in the course of one's practice while suffering from a contagious or infectious disease involving serious risk to public health or without taking adequate precautions, including but not limited to informed consent, protective gear, or cessation of practice;

(13) misappropriating property or funds from a client or workplace or failing to comply with a board rule regarding the accounting and distribution of a client's property or funds;

(14) interference with an investigation or disciplinary proceeding by willful misrepresentation of facts, by the use of threats or harassment against or inducement to a client or witness to prevent them from providing evidence in a disciplinary proceeding or other legal action, or by use of threats or harassment against or inducement to a person to prevent or attempt to prevent a disciplinary proceeding or other legal action from being filed, prosecuted, or completed;

(15) assisting in the unlicensed practice of a profession or occupation or allowing another person or organization to practice or offer to practice by use of the licensee's license;

(16) failing to report the institution of or final action on a malpractice action, including a final decision on appeal, against the licensee or of an action against the licensee by a:

(a) peer review committee;

(b) professional association; or

(c) local, state, federal, territorial, provincial, or Indian tribal government;

(17) failure of a health care provider, as defined in 27-6-103, to comply with a policy or practice implementing 28-10-103(3)(a);

(18) conduct that does not meet the generally accepted standards of practice. A certified copy of a malpractice judgment against the licensee or license applicant or of a tort judgment in an action involving an act or omission occurring during the scope and course of the practice is conclusive evidence of but is not needed to prove conduct that does not meet generally accepted standards.

(19) the sole use of any electronic means, including teleconferencing, to obtain the information required for the written certification and accompanying statements used to apply for a registry identification card pursuant to Title 50, chapter 46, part 3.

37-1-317. Practice without license — investigation of complaint — injunction — penalties. (1) The department shall investigate complaints or other information received concerning practice by an unlicensed person of a profession or occupation for which a license is required by this title.

(2) (a) Unless otherwise provided by statute, a board may file an action to enjoin a person from practicing, without a license, a profession or occupation for which a license is required by this title. In addition to the penalty provided for in 37-1-318, a person violating an injunction issued pursuant to this section may be held in contempt of court.

(b) A person subject to an injunction for practicing without a license may also be subject to criminal prosecution. In a complaint for an injunction or in an affidavit, information, or indictment alleging that a person has engaged in unlicensed practice, it is sufficient to charge that the person engaged in the unlicensed practice of a licensed profession or occupation on a certain day in a certain county without averring further or more particular facts concerning the violation.

(3) Unless otherwise provided by statute, a person practicing a licensed profession or occupation in this state without complying with the licensing provisions of this title is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $250 or more than $1,000, imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 90 days or more than 1 year, or both. Each violation of the provisions of this chapter constitutes a separate offense.

(4) The department may issue a citation to and collect a fine, as provided in 37-68-316 and 37-69-310, from a person at a job site who is performing plumbing or electrical work and who fails to display a license or proof of licensure at the request of an employee of the department who bears responsibility for compliance with licensure requirements.

37-1-318. Violation of injunction — penalty. A person who violates an injunction issued under 37-1-317 shall pay a civil penalty, as determined by the court, of not more than $5,000. Fifty percent of the penalty must be deposited in the general fund of the county in which the injunction is issued, and 50% must be deposited in the state general fund.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 429, L. 1995.

37-1-319. Rules. A board may adopt rules:

(1) under the guidelines of 37-1-306, regarding continuing education and establishing the number of hours required each year, the methods of obtaining education, education topics, and carrying over hours to subsequent years;

(2) regarding practice limitations for temporary practice permits issued under 37-1-305 and designed to ensure adequate supervision of the practice until all qualifications for licensure are met and a license is granted;

(3) regarding qualifications for inactive license status that may require compliance with stated continuing education requirements and may limit the number of years a person may remain on inactive status without having to reestablish qualifications for licensure;

(4) regarding maintenance and safeguarding of client funds or property possessed by a licensee and requiring the funds or property to be maintained separately from the licensee's funds and property; and

(5) defining acts of unprofessional conduct, in addition to those contained in 37-1-316, that constitute a threat to public health, safety, or welfare and that are inappropriate to the practice of the profession or occupation.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 429, L. 1995.

Adoption and publication of rules, Title 2, ch. 4, part 3.

37-1-320. Mental intent — unprofessional conduct. A licensee may be found to have violated a provision of 37-1-316 or a rule of professional conduct enacted by a governing board without proof that the licensee acted purposefully, knowingly, or negligently.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 492, L. 2001.

37-1-321. Authority to administratively suspend license. (1) A board, the department if authorized by the board, or the department for programs without a board may administratively suspend a license when:

(a) an audit of continuing education, certification, or other qualifications necessary for continued licensure demonstrates that the licensee is noncompliant with requirements established by the board or by the department for a program;

(b) the licensee fails to respond to a board or department audit as provided in subsection (1)(a);

(c) the department receives notice of insufficient funds in the account used by the licensee to pay for an administrative fee or a board fee or fine;

(d) the department has reasonable grounds to believe the licensee did not possess the qualifications for initial issuance of the license; or

(e) a licensee fails to comply with the terms of a final order imposed pursuant to 37-1-312 or 37-1-405.

(2) Upon identifying one or more of the deficiencies listed in subsection (1), the department shall inform the licensee in writing and provide the licensee 60 days from the date of the correspondence to cure the deficiency.

(3) If the licensee fails to cure the deficiency as provided in subsection (2), a board, the department if authorized by the board, or the department for programs without a board may administratively suspend the license without additional notice or opportunity for hearing.

(4) (a) The administrative suspension remains in effect until:

(i) a board, the department if authorized by the board, or the department for programs without a board determines the licensee has cured the deficiency; or

(ii) the license terminates as provided in 37-1-141.

(b) An administratively suspended license that is not renewed lapses, expires, or terminates as provided in 37-1-141.

(5) A licensee may not use a protected title or practice the licensed profession or occupation while the license is administratively suspended.

(6) To reinstate the administratively suspended license, a licensee must pay an administrative fee established by the department by rule and submit information necessary to cure the deficiencies as determined in the discretion of the department.

(7) Instead of an administrative suspension, the department may refer the deficiencies demonstrated in subsection (1) for disciplinary proceedings as provided in 37-1-309 or 37-1-403, as applicable. A board or the department may not proceed against a licensee for the same act or failure to act under both an administrative suspension as provided in this section and a disciplinary proceeding as provided in 37-1-309 or 37-1-403.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 80, L. 2015.

37-1-322 through 37-1-330 reserved.

37-1-331. Correctional health care review team. (1) There is a correctional health care review team process in the department. The purpose of a review team is to review complaints filed by an inmate against a licensed or certified provider of health care or rehabilitative services for services that were provided to the person while the person was detained or confined in a county detention center or incarcerated under legal custody of the department of corrections. The inmate may file a complaint directly with the correctional health care review team for review or, if a board receives a complaint that has not been reviewed, the board shall forward the complaint to the review team. If the review team has reason to believe that there has been a violation of this part arising out of health care or rehabilitative services provided to a person detained or confined in a county detention center, the review team shall report the possible violation to the department for appropriate action under 37-1-308.

(2) Each health care licensing board shall solicit and submit to the department a list of licensed or certified health care or rehabilitative service professionals who have correctional health care experience and who are interested in participating on a team. A current board member may not participate on a review team. The department shall solicit from the administrators of the county detention centers and from the department of corrections names of licensed or certified health care or rehabilitative service providers who have correctional health care or rehabilitative services experience and are interested in participating on a review team. Each member of a review team must have at least 2 years of experience in providing health care or rehabilitative services in a correctional facility or program.

(3) Each correctional health care review team is composed of three members who shall represent health care and rehabilitative service providers who have provided health care or rehabilitative services to incarcerated persons. Two members of the review team must be providers of the same discipline and scope of practice as the provider against whom a complaint was filed, and the third member may be a provider of any other health care or rehabilitative services discipline. The members must be willing to serve without compensation. If available, a correctional health care professional employed by the department of corrections and appointed by the director of the department of corrections may participate on the review team, except when the provider against whom the complaint was filed was employed by the department of corrections.

(4) The members of a review team are appointed by the department from the listing of health care and rehabilitative service providers with correctional experience who have been submitted by each respective board, a county detention center administrator, or the department of corrections as provided in subsection (2). A review team shall meet at least twice a year. Any travel, lodging, meal, or miscellaneous costs incurred by a review team may be recovered through a memorandum of understanding with the agencies who provide medical services to inmates or may be assessed to the licensing or certifying boards of health care and rehabilitative service providers.

(5) The review team shall review each complaint with regard to the health care or rehabilitative services provider's scope of practice. A decision on whether or not to forward the complaint must be made by the majority of the review team. The review team shall submit a written response regarding the decision to the inmate, the county detention center administrator or the department of corrections, and the health care or rehabilitative services provider. If the decision is to not forward the complaint for action under 37-1-308, a record of the complaint may not be forwarded to any licensing or certifying board, but must be retained by the department.

37-1-332. Administrative proceedings to stop unlicensed practice — board of realty regulation — state electrical board — board of plumbers. (1) For purposes of this section, the term "board" means the board of realty regulation provided for in 2-15-1757, the state electrical board provided for in 2-15-1764, or the board of plumbers provided for in 2-15-1765.

(2) (a) After investigation under 37-1-317, the board may establish a screening panel to determine if there is reasonable cause to believe a person has engaged in or is engaging in any act or practice constituting unlicensed practice of a profession or occupation.

(b) If reasonable cause is found under subsection (2)(a), the board may initiate a contested case proceeding against the person pursuant to the Montana Administrative Procedure Act in Title 2, chapter 4, part 6.

(3) Following a contested case proceeding, the board may apply any of the following sanctions to a person found to have engaged in the unlicensed practice of a profession or occupation:

(a) impose a civil penalty not to exceed $1,500 for each violation and not to exceed a total of $5,000 for all related violations; and

(b) require the person to pay up to $5,000 for the costs of the administrative proceedings, including but not limited to costs allowable under Title 25, chapter 10, but excluding the costs of investigation and the board's attorney fees.

(4) Judicial review of any contested case under this section must be filed with the first judicial district or the district where the violation occurred, pursuant to the Montana Administrative Procedure Act in Title 2, chapter 4, part 7.

(5) The remedies provided by this section are in addition to all other remedies or actions that may be taken, including those authorized by 37-1-317. The remedies provided by this section may not be applied either to licensees or to employees of licensees.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 212, L. 2015.

Part 4
Uniform Regulations for Licensing Programs Without Boards

37-1-401. Uniform regulation for licensing programs without boards — definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Complaint" means a written allegation filed with the department that, if true, warrants an injunction, disciplinary action against a licensee, or denial of an application submitted by a license applicant.

(2) "Department" means the department of labor and industry provided for in 2-15-1701.

(3) "Investigation" means the inquiry, analysis, audit, or other pursuit of information by the department, with respect to a complaint or other information before the department, that is carried out for the purpose of determining:

(a) whether a person has violated a provision of law justifying discipline against the person;

(b) the status of compliance with a stipulation or order of the department;

(c) whether a license should be granted, denied, or conditionally issued; or

(d) whether the department should seek an injunction.

(4) "License" means permission in the form of a license, permit, endorsement, certificate, recognition, or registration granted by the state of Montana to engage in a business activity or practice at a specific level in a profession or occupation governed by:

(a) Title 37, chapter 35, 72, or 73; or

(b) Title 50, chapter 39, 74, or 76.

(5) "Profession" or "occupation" means a profession or occupation regulated by the department under the provisions of:

(a) Title 37, chapter 35, 72, or 73; or

(b) Title 50, chapter 39, 74, or 76.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 481, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 111, Ch. 483, L. 2001; amd. Sec. 21, Ch. 410, L. 2003; amd. Sec. 18, Ch. 11, L. 2007; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 502, L. 2007.

37-1-402. Unprofessional conduct — complaint — investigation — immunity. (1) A person, government, or private entity may submit a written complaint to the department charging a licensee or license applicant with a violation of this part and specifying the grounds for the complaint.

(2) If the department receives a written complaint or otherwise obtains information that a licensee or license applicant may have violated a requirement of this part, the department may investigate to determine whether there is reasonable cause to believe that the licensee or license applicant has committed the violation.

(3) A person or private entity, but not a government entity, filing a complaint under this section in good faith is immune from suit in a civil action related to the filing or contents of the complaint.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 481, L. 1997.

37-1-403. Notice — request for hearing. (1) If the department determines that reasonable cause exists supporting the allegation made in a complaint and the provisions of 37-1-321 do not apply, the department legal staff shall prepare a notice and serve the alleged violator. The notice may be served by certified mail to the current address on file with the department or by other means authorized by the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

(2) A licensee or license applicant shall give the department the licensee's or applicant's current address and any change of address within 30 days of the change.

(3) The notice must state that the licensee or license applicant may request a hearing to contest the charge or charges. A request for a hearing must be in writing and must be received in the offices of the department within 20 days after the licensee's receipt of the notice. Failure to request a hearing constitutes a default on the charge or charges, and the department may enter a decision on the basis of the facts available to it.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 481, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 80, L. 2015.

37-1-404. Hearing — adjudicative procedures. The procedures in Title 2, chapter 4, governing adjudicative proceedings before agencies, the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Montana Rules of Evidence govern a hearing under this part. The department has all the powers and duties granted by Title 2, chapter 4.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 481, L. 1997.

37-1-405. Findings of fact — order — report. (1) If the department finds by a preponderance of the evidence, following a hearing or on default, that a violation of this part has occurred, the department shall prepare and serve findings of fact, conclusions of law, and an order as provided in Title 2, chapter 4. If the licensee or license applicant is found not to have violated this part, the department shall prepare and serve an order of dismissal of the charges.

(2) (a) The department shall within a reasonable amount of time report to the public the issuance of a summary suspension, a notice under 37-1-403, an accepted stipulation, a hearing examiner's proposed decision, and a final order.

(b) In addition to any other means of notice, the department shall post the required information on a publicly available website.

(c) This subsection (2) may not be construed to require a meeting to be open or records to be disseminated when the demands of individual privacy clearly exceed the merits of public disclosure.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 481, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 225, L. 2007.

37-1-406. Sanctions — stay — costs — stipulations. (1) Upon a decision that a licensee or license applicant has violated this part or is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety due to a physical or mental condition or upon stipulation of the parties as provided in subsection (4), the department may issue an order providing for one or any combination of the following sanctions:

(a) revocation of the license;
(b) suspension of the license for a fixed or indefinite term;
(c) restriction or limitation of the practice;
(d) satisfactory completion of a specific program of remedial education or treatment;
(e) monitoring of the practice by a supervisor approved by the disciplining authority;
(f) censure or reprimand, either public or private;
(g) compliance with conditions of probation for a designated period of time;
(h) payment of a fine not to exceed $1,000 for each violation;
(i) denial of a license application;
(j) refund of costs and fees billed to and collected from a consumer.

(2) Any fine collected by the department as a result of disciplinary actions must be deposited in the state general fund.

(3) A sanction may be totally or partly stayed by the department. To determine which sanctions are appropriate, the department shall first consider the sanctions that are necessary to protect or compensate the public. Only after the determination has been made may the department consider and include in the order any requirements designed to rehabilitate the licensee or license applicant.

(4) The licensee or license applicant may enter into a stipulated agreement resolving potential or pending charges that includes one or more of the sanctions in this section. The stipulation is an informal disposition for the purposes of 2-4-603.

(5) A licensee shall surrender a suspended or revoked license to the department within 24 hours after receiving notification of the suspension or revocation by mailing the license or delivering it personally to the department.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 481, L. 1997.

37-1-407. Appeal. (1) A person who is disciplined by the department under 37-1-402 through 37-1-406 or denied a license may appeal the decision to the district court as provided in Title 2, chapter 4.

(2) A person who disputes the department's deficiency determination made pursuant to 37-1-321 may appeal the decision to the commissioner of labor and industry. Consideration of the dispute is not an adversarial or a contested case hearing. The commissioner's decision may be appealed as provided in subsection (1).

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 481, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 80, L. 2015.

37-1-408. Reinstatement. A licensee whose license has been suspended or revoked under this part may petition the department for reinstatement after an interval set by the department in the order. The department may hold a hearing on the petition and may deny the petition or order reinstatement and impose terms and conditions as provided in 37-1-312. The department may require the successful completion of an examination as a condition of reinstatement and may treat a licensee whose license has been revoked or suspended as a new applicant for purposes of establishing the requisite qualifications of licensure.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 481, L. 1997.

37-1-409. Enforcement of fine. (1) If payment of a fine is included in an order and timely payment is not made as directed in the order, the department may enforce the order for payment in the district court of the first judicial district.

(2) In a proceeding for enforcement of an order of payment of a fine, the order is conclusive proof of the validity of the order of payment and the terms of payment.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 481, L. 1997.

37-1-410. Unprofessional conduct. The following is unprofessional conduct for a licensee or license applicant in a profession or occupation governed by this part:

(1) being convicted, including a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere and regardless of a pending appeal, of a crime relating to or committed during the course of practicing the person's profession or occupation or involving violence, the use or sale of drugs, fraud, deceit, or theft;

(2) permitting, aiding, abetting, or conspiring with a person to violate or circumvent a law relating to licensure or certification;

(3) committing fraud, misrepresentation, deception, or concealment of a material fact in applying for or assisting in securing a license or license renewal or in taking an examination required for licensure;

(4) signing or issuing, in the licensee's professional capacity, a document or statement that the licensee knows or reasonably ought to know contains a false or misleading statement;

(5) making a misleading, deceptive, false, or fraudulent advertisement or other representation in the conduct of the profession or occupation;

(6) offering, giving, or promising anything of value or benefit to a federal, state, or local government employee or official for the purpose of influencing the employee or official to circumvent a federal, state, or local law, rule, or ordinance governing the licensee's profession or occupation;

(7) receiving a denial, suspension, revocation, probation, fine, or other license restriction or discipline against a licensee by a state, province, territory, or Indian tribal government or the federal government if the action is not on appeal or under judicial review or has been satisfied;

(8) failing to comply with a term, condition, or limitation of a license by final order of the department;

(9) having a physical or mental disability that renders the licensee or license applicant unable to practice the profession or occupation with reasonable skill and safety;

(10) misappropriating property or funds from a client or workplace or failing to comply with the department's rule regarding the accounting and distribution of a client's property or funds;
